

Ye Chen 3761

Chapter 3761

Fei Ke Xin was slightly stunned, and then laughed, "It seems that he is really not a normal low profile, he has to cover up even if he drives a BMW."

As she said that, she remembered something and said to Chen Ying Shan, "Shan Shan, use your mobile phone to connect to the car recorder and find out if you have just captured Ye Chen's appearance."

Chen Ying Shan smiled cheekily and handed her phone to Fei Ke Xin, saying, "Miss, when you and Ye Chen went in just now, I had already directed the pictures from the car recorder, and I chose some of the clearer ones, so you can take a look."

Fei Ke Xin said appreciatively, "You're good, Shan Shan, you're getting better and better."

Chen Ying Shan smiled, "Miss, following you around, the speed of progress is very fast."

Fei Ke Xin smiled faintly and took the phone and carefully flipped through it.

As it was Ye Chen who arrived first just now, and as Ye Chen was waiting outside the car, the Cadillac had captured very clear image data as it approached Ye Chen, and the photos Chen Ying Shan had intercepted were also very clear.

Satisfied, Fei Ke Xin said, "I have to go and meet with Smith of the FDA and show him these photos to see if that Director Ye Chen was Ye Chen when he was negotiating with Jiu Xuan Pharmaceutical at that time."

Saying that, she said to Chen Ying Shan, "Shan Shan, contact Smith for me and ask him to come out for a meeting, just say I have something I want to ask him face to face."

"Okay!"

Meanwhile.

On his drive back, Ye Chen kept feeling that something wasn't quite right somewhere.

In his mind, that driver of Fei Ke Xin's instantly came to mind, and a realization dawned on him.

What was not right was that this young woman was able to carry a six-star martial artist by her side.

This was almost the strongest bodyguard he had seen so far.

To be able to have a six-star martial artist, stay by her side as a bodyguard, from this perspective alone, the strength of the family behind this Zhan Feier was likely far above the Ye Family.

If the Ye family could have had a six-star martial artist pressuring them, Lu Haotian of the Ten Thousand Dragon Hall would never have dared to bring a coffin directly to the Ye family residence.

If even she could have a six-star martial artist as a bodyguard, then I'm afraid that the experts at the disposal of this family would not be as simple as just one six-star martial artist.

It was even possible that there were multiple six-star martial artists, and perhaps even higher-level martial artists.

According to the market price of a six-star martial artist of the Ten Thousand Dragons Temple, the price would start from at least US$200 million a year.

Moreover, the six-star martial artists of the Ten Thousand Dragons Hall are all used as great generals to lead their troops into battle and are unlikely to accept employment alone, so it is even more unlikely that they would go to work for someone as a bodyguard.

If a family kept three or five six-star martial artists, the cost of that would probably be over a billion dollars a year.

This amount is an absolutely staggeringly astronomical figure; how many large families in the country worth hundreds of billions of dollars do not have a net profit of one billion dollars at the end of the year?

Take the Song Group for example, although it has a market capitalisation of a hundred billion dollars, its net profit at the end of the year is only three to five billion RMB, and that is even if the market is good.

If Song Wanting were to hire a six-star martial artist, then the cost of that one person might catch up with half of the net profit of the entire Song Group.

Thinking of this, he immediately called Wan Breaking Jun.

As soon as the call was answered, Ye Chen directly ordered, "Broken Jun, check for me if there is a Chinese family with the surname Zhan in France, and by the way, find out how strong this family is!"

Chapter 3762

Wan Bajun was extremely efficient.

He quickly replied to Ye Chen, "Mr. Ye, there is indeed a Chinese family with the surname of Zhan in France, the family's strength is relatively average, and the total assets that can be counted are probably only around ten billion euros."

"Total assets are only ten billion euros?" Ye Chen was a little surprised and asked, "There are no major projects that have been missed, right?"

Wan Bajun explained, "Mr. Ye, I dare not say that this is 100% without any omissions, but the overall deviation will not be too great."

Hearing this, Ye Chen's heart was even more puzzled.

This Zhan family, with total assets of around ten billion euros, which translated to less than one hundred billion RMB, was even worse than the Song family.

Therefore, Ye Chen felt that there was something fishy about this matter.

So, Ye Chen gave Qin Gang a call.

Once the call came through, he heard Qin Gang's surprised voice: "Master Ye, why are you free to call me today?"

Ye Chen asked curiously, "Master Qin, your villa at Water Cloud Villa is sold?"

Qin Gang on the other end of the phone was clearly stunned and asked in surprise, "Master Ye, how did you know about this? It couldn't be that Ao Xue told you, could it This girl, she asked me to keep it a secret every day, but I didn't expect her to tell you directly herself"

Ye Chen laughed: "Ao Xue didn't tell me about this, it just happened that the person who bought your villa knew my father-in-law."

"Is that so?" Qin Gang exclaimed, before he laughed helplessly, "It seems that I was wrong to blame Ao Xue."

He said, "Master Ye, it's like this, the villas in Water Cloud Villa are really too far away from the city, not too convenient, so we live in a flat in the city most of the time, a while ago, didn't Ao Xue say she wanted to live in Townsend One and be neighbours with you, Master Ye, she was particularly concerned about this, so we've been waiting for a suitable property to come out, and it just so happens that we've been waiting for a suitable property to come out, and we bought it as soon as a set of A03 came out some time ago."

At this point, Qin Gang added, "Master Ye, don't tell Ao Xue that I told you! Otherwise this girl will definitely be angry with me!"

Ye Chen asked curiously, "Master Qin, your business has been getting bigger and bigger recently, even if you bought Townsend One, there's no need to sell Water Cloud Villa, right? It's not like you've encountered any difficulties, is it?"

Qin Gang busily said, "No, no, during this period of time, Jiu Xuan Pharmaceutical has given the Qin family too many orders, which has already made the Qin family's medicinal herb business multiply several times, allowing the Qin family's business to grow bigger and bigger, it's just that I invested a large sum of money in Bozhou some time ago, so recently the funds on hand are a bit tight."

Ye Chen frowned: "Bozhou? I don't seem to have heard much about this place."

Qin Gang explained, "Master Ye, Bozhou is our largest medicinal herb trading centre and production base in China, but the city is relatively small, just a fourth-tier city, so it's not very famous."

Ye Chen asked him, "Are you investing there, in medicinal herbs?"

"Yes." Qin Gang explained, "I'm not going to hide it from you Master Ye, the volume of medicinal herbs I'm handling now is getting bigger and bigger, so I want to expand upstream a bit."

Chapter 3763

After a pause, Qin just added: "Some time ago I just bought a very large local Chinese medicine production base in Bozhou, and then invested another sum of money with the intention of expanding, to be honest this step is a bit too big, filling in basically all the active funds on hand"

“But never thought that the housing listings of Tangchen Yipin also came out at this juncture, because the funds on hand are not too abundant, so I sold that villa in Water Cloud Villa, that villa is likely to be vacant in the future anyway.”

Ye Chen then said, “If you don’t have enough money on hand, just let me know, I can always support you partly. If you can’t, I’ll fix some for you now.”

Qin Gang was somewhat flattered and said, “Master Ye, with your words, I am very grateful, but right now there is no big problem with the funds, just now Wei Liang also called me and said that he would settle the payment for the last batch of herbs for me right away, once this money arrives, I will be back to blood.”

Ye Chen instructed, “General Manager Qin, if there are similar problems in the future, contact me at the first opportunity.”

“Good!” Qin Gang said excitedly, “I know Master Ye!”

Ye Chen asked him again, “By the way, when are you planning to move to Townsend One?”

Qin Gang said, “Ao Xue is preparing for it these days, the villa is renovated, nothing needs to be changed drastically, just some furniture needs to be replaced, I guess it should be finished in a few days, Ao Xue said she will invite you to dinner at home to give you a surprise, you must pretend not to know then... ..”

Ye Chen said with a smile, “Good, I will definitely come to congratulate you then.”

As he said that, Ye Chen thought of Zhan Feier and asked him, “By the way, Mr. Qin, is the person who bought that villa in your Water Cloud Villa named Zhan Feier?”

Qin Gang said, “No, the person who bought the villa is a Chinese American surnamed Chen, called Chen Ying Shan.”

Hearing the name Chen Yingshan, Ye Chen guessed that she should be Zhan Fei’er’s a*sistant.

At this time, Qin Gang added: “However, the house did end up being transferred to that Zhan Feier’s name, only that I didn’t see Zhan Feier in person, the transfer procedures were all done by Chen Yingshan on her behalf.”

Ye Chen was astonished and asked him out of the blue, “What? You haven’t seen Zhan Feier in person, hasn’t she come to see the house?”

“No.” Qin Gang said, “It was that Chen Ying Shan herself who came and saw it just once, and after seeing it that day, she made the decision on the spot.”

Ye Chen asked, “Then did she take pictures of the house and send them to others, or did she video call others to show them the house?”

“No.” Qin Gang said, “She was brought by the agent on the day she looked at the house, we arranged to meet directly at the villa, after she came I showed her the house, made a brief introduction, and then she took it, in between I didn’t see her take any photos or record any videos, let alone call or video call with others.”

When Ye Chen heard this, he was even more surprised.

If it was according to what Zhan Feier said, she had bought this house for the elderly members of her family to return to live in Jinling.

Moreover, it was also clear from her performance that she had shown great interest in this house, not only inviting herself over to see the feng shui through her old husband, Xiao Changkun, but even trying to get her wife, Xiao Churan, to help her redecorate it.

However, if Zhan Fei'er hadn't shown up from the time she chose the house to the time she bought it, then the gap between Zhan Fei'er's attitude towards the house was too obvious.

Before she bought it, she didn't care about it at all and didn't even take a look at it, directly letting her assistant make all the decisions.

But after the purchase, she suddenly became extremely concerned, not only confirming the feng shui issues, but even investing heavily in redecorating.

After thinking about it, Ye Chen had only one answer.

That was, Zhan Feier's performance before she bought this house was her real attitude towards it.

And her behaviour after she bought the house was just a deliberate play she was putting on for herself on top of this house!

Chapter 3764

Thinking about this, Ye Chen's brows tightened and he felt more and more that that Zhan Feier seemed to have some bad intentions.

Ye Chen even speculated that this Zhan Feier had asked her assistant to buy Qin Gang's villa, not for the old man to live in at all, but simply to get close to herself.

If that was the case, then it was likely that her funding of the Jinling Calligraphy and Painting Association was also just a pretext.

Instead, her real purpose was most likely to get close to her old husband, Xiao Changkun, and then through his connections, use the excuse of reading feng shui to get close to herself.

This caused a strong sense of alarm to surge up in Ye Chen's heart.

From the time he accepted the ten billion dollars from Tang Sihai and accepted the Dihao Group, until now, Ye Chen had been hiding his identity as much as possible, especially in front of his wife and family.

The reason for this was that he did not want anyone to find them, especially his wife Xiao Churan, because of his true identity.

And over the past year or so, Ye Chen had been hiding well, and although he had made many enemies, apart from his own arrogant and domineering aunt Ye Changmin, there was really no one who had focused their attention on Xiao Churan.

However, this Zhan Feier had broken this situation, not only had she found Ye Chen, but she had even found Ye Chen's father-in-law and wife.

This had undoubtedly touched Ye Chen's scales, and at the same time made him determined to dig out Zhan Fei'er's true identity, and then return the favour by quietly latching onto her in his own pocket.

If she really dares to do anything threatening to those around her, then let her have no return!

The first thing that I want to do is to ask her to look at the house at the Water Cloud Villa. The budget for the renovation is $30 million, with a 10% design fee. "

Chen Ying Shan could not help but ask: "Miss, you have already found that Ye Chen, so why waste time on Xiao Churan?"

Fei Ke Xin said seriously, "I'm doing all this to be prepared, in case grandpa can't get the Spring Return Pill at the auction, then I still have a ray of hope here."

Chen Ying Shan couldn't help but say, "Miss, I think with the Fei family's strength, the chances of grandpa taking the Spring Return Pill at the auction are still very high."

Fei Ke Xin shook her head and said, "To be honest, I don't have any hope for the auction."

Chen Ying Shan asked in confusion, "Why did you say that, Miss? Have you heard something?"

"No." Fei Ke Xin said blandly, "I just deduced the future trajectory of this matter based on my own perception, and in my deduction, it would be difficult for grandpa to get that Spring Return Pill at the auction."

Hearing this, Chen Ying Shan's entire body was dumbfounded, she could not figure out why Fei Ke Xin was so pessimistic about the auction, so she asked, "Ah? Why do you say that, Miss?"

Fei Ke Xin looked out of the window, gave a light laugh and said, "I have my analysis model, only this model involves too wide and too many elements, it is impossible to say clearly, so you should not ask."

"Alright" Chen Ying Shan nodded helplessly and asked again, "Miss, then what do you think, how likely is it to get the Spring Return Pill from Ye Chen?"

Fei Ke Xin shrugged her shoulders, spread her hands and said, "Actually, I'm not sure about Ye Chen, this person is too weird and doesn't make sense everywhere, so there's no way to judge him with normal experience."

Saying that, Fei Ke Xin sighed, her eyes becoming more and more determined as she said, "But if I don't find a way to get to know Ye Chen, I can only pin all my hopes on the auction, and after I get to know him, there is one more possibility, even if the second possibility only has a 1% chance of success, I will never give up! Because as long as there's a ray of hope, it's all a bit better than hanging on to a tree!"

Then, Fei Ke Xin added, "If we successfully get to know his wife, we will inevitably be able to raise it moderately on top of the 1%, and if we have the chance to build a certain friendship base with them, the possibility will be further raised."

Chapter 3765

Chen Ying Shan nodded and said, "Miss, if we include Xiao Chang Kun, the success rate should be a bit higher, right?"

"Right." Fei Ke Xin nodded and sighed, "What we need to do now is to go all out to show goodwill to Ye Chen's family members around him, only then can we fight for more chances of winning, otherwise, in a few years, we will be driven out of the Fei family and reduced to a side branch of the Fei family."

The internal logic of the Fei family, as a Chinese family, is very similar to that of most Chinese families.

The most brutal of these is the succession struggle.

Although Fei Ke Xin was the most favoured in the Fei family, it was mostly because the old man really loved her, and the others only superficially favoured her for the sake of the old man.

Fei Kexin was like a county princess who was favoured by the emperor in the ancient imperial palace.

But once she was married and the old emperor died, her position in the palace would be greatly affected.

Unless, of course, the new emperor is her father, in which case she will become a princess instead of a princess and her status will rise.

However, in Fei's view, of all the children of her grandfather, the one most unlikely to inherit the throne is her father.

Now, her grandfather, Fei Jianzhong, is approaching the end of his life, and if he can't manage to get the Spring Return Pill, it might be just a matter of a year or two before Fei Jianzhong passes away.

Her father is the youngest of her siblings and has the least amount of energy and strength. Once the old man dies, her father will be the first to be purged by the new head of the family.

Generally speaking, in a large family, except for the one that succeeds to the head of the family, all the others are gradually reduced to side branches.

However, when the new head of the family takes over, in order to stabilise the development of the family, he will not immediately expel all the siblings in one go. Instead, he will first purge those siblings whose presence is weaker and less useful, and leave those siblings whose presence is stronger and more useful to stay in the main family for the time being.

After this, the new head of the family will continue to offer more and more benefits to the remaining siblings in exchange for their help in consolidating their position as head of the family.

As their position is consolidated, the siblings receive their share of the benefits, so they willingly leave the main family and start their own.

The main family, in turn, after sacrificing some of their interests, completely laid the foundation for the head of the family, and the whole family then dived into development, waiting for the next division of the family decades later.

Today, the eldest son's family, Fei Kexin's eldest uncle, is the most powerful voice in the Fei family.

Fei's eldest uncle was the first son born to the old man when he was eighteen years old.

He has followed the old man through the most difficult times and has experienced the most and honed the most, and in the entire Fei family, apart from the old man, he is the most trusted by the people below him.

In the future, he will definitely be the one to succeed the Fei family as the head of the family.

Fei Kexin's father, on the other hand, has not been able to impress the old man, and his role in the Fei family is somewhat insignificant.

If it wasn't for Fei Kexin's ability to make a strong presence in front of the old man, this line of the family would have been completely abandoned by the old man.

Because of this, Fei Ke Xin was basically able to conclude that once her grandfather passed away and she lost the blessing of the old master, her family would definitely be kicked out of the Fei family at the first opportunity.

And she knew very well in her heart that even if she did have a few abilities, her eldest uncle would never use her, let alone give her any more opportunities to grow.

Therefore, Fei Ke Xin now has to work one hundred and twenty percent hard to help her grandfather get what he wants and get the Spring Return Pill.

No one wants the old man to live a long life more than she does, because that's the only way to get another ten years or even a longer window of development for her and her family!

Chapter 3766

Ye Chen wanted to investigate Fei Ke Xin's true identity as soon as possible, but this matter was not that easy.

So, after he returned home, he asked Wan Bajun, through the overseas connections of the Ten Thousand Dragon Hall, to investigate the exact details of this identity of Zhan Fei'er.

Ye Chen originally thought that Zhan Fei'er's identity must be false, but the result that Wan Bajun returned was that this Zhan Fei'er was, indeed, a real person in France.

At least, within the French civil registry system, he was able to find out very detailed information about Zhan Fei'er's civil registry.

France is a large country of immigration, and its civil registry is very detailed, containing not only basic information on birth, gender and education, but also the occupation, income and even religion of the parents.

The family has been in France for many years, starting from scratch, and has now become a large business group with a market value of 10 billion euros.

The name of the doctor who delivered Gianfields is clearly written in this file.

In addition to this, the information on the primary, secondary and tertiary education of Gianfields is also included, so there is nothing suspicious about this identity.

I'm afraid that no one could find anything wrong with this identity, but Ye Chen only caught one key point, and that was the six-star martial artist.

In Ye Chen's eyes, Zhan Feier's profile, combined with that six-star martial artist, was like a wealthy man worth three billion dollars buying a private yacht worth one and a half billion dollars.

Buying it was definitely affordable, but no rich man with a little bit of brains would do such a stupid thing.

Moreover, a person this stupid could not be a billionaire.

So, based on this alone, he was able to conclude that this Zhan Feier, must have another identity that was hidden even deeper.

At the same time, Ye Chen was also thinking about what purpose this Zhan Feier had in mind when she deliberately approached himself and his family.

In his opinion, there were only four possible motives for the other party to approach him.

The first possibility was that it was because of his status as the young master of the Ye family.

The second possibility, because of his own identity as Master Ye.

The third possibility, because of the Nine Mysterious Reclamation Pill.

The fourth possibility, it was because of the Spring Return Pill.

However, to further confirm which of the above four Zhan Feier was, he had to get hold of more clues.

So, he asked Tang Sihai to help him by checking the entry records of Zhan Feier as an identity.

In the evening, Tang Sihai returned the results to Ye Chen, the contents of which shocked Ye Chen.

According to the entry records, Zhan Feier, a French Chinese, had not entered China from France, but from the United States.

Moreover, Zhan Feier's city of entry was not Jinling, but Yanjing.

What was even stranger was that Zhan Feier had been in the country for many days and had been in Yanjing before, but had only just arrived in Jinling in the past few days.

Although Tang Sihai's feedback was very short, there were quite a few key points in it that were of great help to Ye Chen.

Firstly, the fact that Zhan Feier had travelled from the United States to Yanjing made Ye Chen think that it was more likely that Zhan Feier's original self, was an American

Secondly, the fact that Zhan Feier's first stop in China was Yanjing helped Ye Chen to rule out the possibility that Zhan Feier was running after his own name, Master Ye.

This was because, in Yanjing, he was Young Master Ye, and only in Jinling was he Master Ye.

If Zhan Feier had come to find Master Ye, she should have come directly to Jinling.

Moreover, there was another key point, Zhan Fei'er had been in China for many days.

The time she entered the country was earlier than when he had asked Wei Liang to bring the Jiu Xuan Reclamation Pill to the United States, and even earlier than when Jiqing Hall announced the auction of the Spring Return Pill.

Chapter 3767

In this way, Ye Chen could again completely rule out the possibility that Zhan Fei'er had come for the Jiu Xuan Zai Zai Pill, because when she entered China, the Jiu Xuan Zai Zai Pill had not yet been released.

And roughly speaking, it seemed that the Spring Return Pill could also be ruled out.

But the reason that made Ye Chen not immediately rule out the Spring Return Pill as well was that the Spring Return Pill had actually been available long before the news of the auction was announced.

Old Master Song, Li Tailai, Hong Wu, Lai Qinghua, Gu Yanzhong and even the Old Empress of Northern Europe had all taken the Spring Return Pill.

Perhaps Zhan Feier had already heard of the Spring Return Pill before this auction!

Therefore, after the information fed back by Tang Sihai, Ye Chen's speculation on Zhan Fei'er's true motives narrowed down to two possibilities.

The first, because of the identity of the Ye family's young master.

The second, because of the Spring Return Pill.

Of these two possibilities, Ye Chen preferred the latter.

This was because, although his identity as the young master of the Ye family was hidden very deeply, this identity, for many people, did not have any practical benefit.

Unless it was someone who had a grudge against the Ye family who would be interested in digging deeper into his identity as the Ye family's young master, for the vast majority of people, knowing that they were the Ye family's young master would not be of any substantial benefit to them, much less the possibility of coming all the way to Jinling just to gossip.

Therefore, Ye Chen began to focus on finding the reason on the Spring Return Pill.

He found that this Zhan Feier's first stop in China was not Jinling, but Yanjing.

This proved that if she had come for the Spring Return Pill, then the source from which she had gotten the information on the Spring Return Pill must have had something to do with Yanjing.

And there were two people who had taken the Spring Return Pill in Yanjing.

One was Lai Qing Hua and the other was Gu Yan Zhong.

The possibility of Gu Yanzhong leaking the information was zero, while Lai Qinghua

As he deduced this, Ye Chen suddenly had a flash of inspiration!

He remembered that he had asked Lai Qinghua many days ago to help spread the news of the Spring Return Pill among the rich and powerful circles in North America, so as to preheat the Spring Return Pill first.

So, he immediately found the records of his phone call with Lai, which was only twenty hours before Zhan Feier's arrival in Yanjing.

And it would take at least twelve or thirteen hours for Zhan Feier to fly from the US to Yanjing.

Including the time it took to prepare the plane and get to the airport to go through customs, the whole journey would have taken at least fifteen hours.

This means that as soon as Lai had spread the news, Zhan Feier immediately set off for China!

These two timings coincided so well that Ye Chen completely ruled out all other possibilities and firmly believed that Zhan Feier's goal in approaching him was for the Spring Return Pill!

Realising this, Ye Chen was even more surprised inwardly, as he could not figure out how on earth Zhan Feier had gradually focused the clues of the Spring Return Pill on himself.

Because, he knew very well that it was impossible for Lai Qing Hua to reveal his identity to the public.

Moreover, if Zhan Feier had known that the Spring Return Pill was related to herself, then she would have killed her way to Jinling a long time ago, and the reason she had delayed in Yanjing for so long was precisely because she did not know who actually had the Spring Return Pill.

On top of that, Zhan Feier arrived in Jinling just after Jiqing Hall had released the news of the Spring Return Pill auction.

This also meant that before Zhan Feier came to Jinling, she did not even know that the Spring Return Pill was related to her!

Thinking of this, Ye Chen could not help but sigh, "This Zhan Feier, what exactly did she use to find me out in just a few days?!"

Chapter 3768

Just as Ye Chen was surprised by Zhan Feier's ability, a loud honking sound rang out in the courtyard.

Soon, Ye Chen heard Ma Lan cursing loudly from his room on the third floor, "Who is it, honking the horn all the time in the neighbourhood, what's wrong with you?!"

Downstairs, although the honking had stopped, Xiao Changkun's voice immediately came again, and he shouted, "Ma Lan, good son-in-law, come down and visit my new car!"

As soon as the words left his mouth, the sound of Ma Lan's footsteps came from upstairs, and she limped out onto the terrace.

At this moment, Ye Chen, who was in the bedroom on the first floor, was also attracted by the commotion and came to the window to take a look down.

In the courtyard of the villa, Xiao Changkun was standing in front of a Rolls-Royce Cullinan, his face full of excitement and triumph.

And Ma Lan, standing on the third floor terrace, looked down at the courtyard in front of a huge SUV she didn't recognise and asked in astonishment, "Xiao Changkun, is this your new car?"

Xiao Changkun said smugly, "That's right! Want to come down and take a look?"

Ma Lan said, "A broken jeep, what's so beautiful about it, how can it compare to a BMW? You're such a loser, you didn't sell your BMW and buy such a piece of crap, did you?"

In Ma Lan's eyes, all SUVs, as well as off-road vehicles, were jeeps.

Even, in the eyes of all middle-aged and elderly people who didn't know much about cars, any kind of brand of SUVs and off-road vehicles could be collectively referred to as jeeps.

Xiao Changkun said with righteous indignation: "Ma Lan, Ma Lan, you are really long-haired and short-sighted! How the hell can this be a Jeep! This is a Rolls-Royce Cullinan! And it's a BB version! Rolls Royce you know?!"

Marashi, dumbfounded, blurted out, "OMG, what kind of car do you think this is? A Rolls-Royce?!"

Xiao Changkun pointed to the golden logo on the very front of the car and said with a smug look on his face, "Even if you don't know anything about cars, can you still not know about Rolls-Royce? Look at this little gold figure, do you recognise it?"

Ma Lan blurted out, "Oh my God! Isn't a Rolls-Royce always a big car? When did this Jeep come out?"

"It's also a jeep" Xiao Changkun said with contempt, "It's called an SUV!"

Ma Lan subconsciously asked, "The most expensive in the world? How expensive is it?"

Xiao Changkun grunted twice, "Hmph, how expensive is it? I'm telling you, it must be at least a thousand daubers!"

"Holy sh*t!" Ma Lan exclaimed, "More than a thousand dabu-liu? That's more than ten million dollars! You stay right there and wait for me!"

After saying that, Ma Lan quickly took the lift and went downstairs with a limp and a jump.

Ye Chen was also very surprised at the moment. He knew that even the ordinary version of the Rolls-Royce Cullinan would cost more than eight million, and the so-called BB version would be even more expensive, and he couldn't really get off without more than ten million.

But what he couldn't understand was how could his old man afford to drive such an expensive car? Xiao Changkun didn't have much money, and the small income of the Painting and Calligraphy association might not even be enough to cover his daily expenses, so how could he afford to buy a Cullinan?

Thinking of this, Ye Chen also hurried out of the room and went downstairs to the courtyard.

At this moment, Ma Lan was lying on the bonnet of the Rolls-Royce Cullinan, observing the little golden man in front of the car from a close distance.

As she looked, she exclaimed in excitement, “Holy sh*t, it’s really a Rolls-Royce! I’ve heard people say before that just such a golden tag costs one to two hundred thousand Is this thing pure gold or not?”

At that, Ma Lan stretched out his hand to touch the little gold man.

Chapter 3769

Who expected, at this time Xiao Changkun suddenly took out the key and pressed the lock button.

With a beep from Cullinan, immediately afterwards the little gold figure suddenly sank down to the inside of the bonnet.

Then, a metal cover slid over from the side, completely covering the original position of the little golden man.

Ma Lan was about to reach out and touch it when she saw the little gold figure suddenly retracted into the bonnet and asked in surprise, “Oh my God, this thing can still hide? This is too amazing!”

Xiao Changkun sneered, “Look at you, you’ve never seen the world, this little gold figure is worth more than $200,000, if it was standing like this at all times, if you met a money-minded guy like you, you’d definitely break it off! That’s why Rolls-Royce is designed to be very user-friendly, in order to prevent people like you from sabotaging the car, as soon as the car is locked, the little gold figure will be automatically taken in!”

Ma Lan had been ridiculed by Xiao Changkun for half a day, if it was in normal times, she would have been furious and probably would have gouged Xiao Changkun’s face by now.

However, this time, she didn’t get angry at all, instead, she looked at Xiao Changkun with a flattering face, extremely excited and extremely surprised, and asked, “Xiao Changkun, where did you get this car from? Did you borrow it?”

Xiao Changkun said with a lofty voice, “That’s why I don’t like to listen to you when you speak. This car is mine! My Xiao Changkun’s!”

As he said that, he took out the driving license of this Cullinan from the car and threw it in front of Ma Lan, grinning, “Here, take a look at it clearly, who is the name of the vehicle owner on the driving license of this vehicle!”

Ma Lan hurriedly flipped open the driving license and looked down to see that behind the column of the owner, there were indeed three big words written by Xiao Changkun, and she immediately exclaimed, “Oh my God! Xiao Changkun! It’s really yours? What the hell is going on with this? How can you afford such an expensive car?”

As he was talking, Xiao Churan came back from work at this time and just walked into the courtyard and saw this Cullinan and asked in astonishment, “Dad, where did this Cullinan come from?”

Ma Lan hurriedly went forward and took her arm, saying excitedly, “Daughter, this car is your father’s new one!”

“Ah?!” Xiao Churan was dumbfounded and blurted out, “Mom do you know how much this car costs? How can my dad afford it”

Ma Lan immediately handed the driving license to Xiao Churan and said, "Look at it yourself, it does have your father's name written on it!"

Xiao Churan took a glance at it and was also stunned, immediately, she asked Xiao Changkun, "Dad you you didn't take out a loan to buy this car, did you?!"

Xiao Changkun smiled and asked her, "Good daughter, you really look up to your father, do you think your father can afford the down payment to buy this car?"

Xiao Churan nodded in a daze and muttered, "Yes even if this car is bought with a loan, the down payment must be three to four million, even if you sell your BMW 530, it will not be enough for a tenth of the down payment "

She hurriedly asked, "Dad, where in the world did you get this car from?"

Xiao Changkun heatedly smiled and turned to look at Ye Chen again, with a pleasing face, "Ye Chen ah, my good son-in-law today this matter, Dad has to explain to you properly"

When Ye Chen saw this attitude of Xiao Changkun, he smiled faintly and already had an answer in his heart.

In his opinion, this Rolls Royce Cullinan of Xiao Changkun must have been given to him by Fei Kexin.

However, he deliberately pretended not to understand and asked, "Dad, does this have anything to do with me?"

Xiao Changkun hurriedly came to Ye Chen, grabbed him and said flatteringly, "Good son-in-law, this has a lot to do with you! To put it bluntly, this car is not a gift for me, it should be a gift for you!"

Chapter 3770

"A gift for Ye Chen?" Ma Lan was even more puzzled when she heard this, "Xiao Changkun, what do you mean by that?"

Xiao Changkun said, "That's right, my good son-in-law, didn't you read Miss Zhan's feng shui this morning? Miss Zhan came to the Painting and Calligraphy Association this afternoon and said she was very grateful to you for looking at the feng shui of the villa for her and recognized your professionalism. "

When Xiao Churan heard this, she inevitably blamed him, "Dad, how can you take the initiative and accept such an expensive gift for Ye Chen?"

Xiao Changkun said with an innocent face, "Churan, I didn't want to accept it, but the person who bought this car is directly under my name, even if I don't accept it, this car is still mine in the legal sense, I am also riding a tiger."

He said, he hurriedly said to Ye Chen: "Good son-in-law, Dad really does not want to make the decision for you, the key is that this Miss Zhan is really too idea, they see you do not accept the money, so they directly put the car in my name to send over, and they also said that the most disliked thing in life is to owe favors, if I do not want to accept this car, then they will no longer sponsor our cultural exhibition so President Pei also strongly persuaded me to accept this car"

Xiao Churan said with some anger, "Dad, even if Miss Zhan left the car in your name, then you should at least give Ye Chen a call and ask for his opinion! He didn't even give his nod, so how can you take matters into your own hands?"

Xiao Changkun was accused by Xiao Churan, his face was somewhat embarrassed, and he said, "Hey I am not afraid of disappointing Miss Zhan's kindness you also know that Miss Zhan is not only Ye Chen's client, but also a valuable person of our calligraphy and painting association"

Ye Chen smiled slightly at this time and spoke, "All right Chu Ran, Dad took this car, it was also a helpless act, so you should not blame him."

When Xiao Changkun heard this, he was instantly pardoned and said excitedly, "Aiya! My good son-in-law! You are still the most fair and objective!"

After saying this, he cautiously asked, "Good son-in-law, what do you think I should do with this car"?

When he said this, Xiao Changkun was very nervous in his heart.

He was afraid that Ye Chen would ask him to return the car.

After all, he was also a man who loved face very much, and he loved this Rolls Royce Cullinan even more from the bottom of his heart.

On his way back in this car just now, he found that almost everyone on the street, would stare at this car, for a long time.

And when he drove down the street in this car, not a single person dared to plug him! Not a single person dared to honk behind him!

Unlike before, when he drove his BMW 530, he was often viciously stuck in traffic, especially by cars that were more expensive than his, and they were so merciless that they almost brushed up against his car on many occasions.

He was not fast at all, and many times when he encountered drivers who were too impatient to drive slowly, he would honk his horn behind him and even flash his high beams continuously.

Some even rolled down their windows and cursed him when they finally passed him.

This made Xiao Changkun feel as if all the drivers in this world were road rage sufferers.

However, when he was driving this Rolls-Royce Cullinan on his way back from the Painting and Calligraphy Association to Townsend One, he found that all the drivers in the world seemed to have been cured of their road rage all of a sudden!
