

Ye Chen 3821

Chapter 3821

Within a few days of coming to Jinling, she had locked the owner of the Spring Return Pill onto herself, and with a little bit of petty profit, she had wound up her father-in-law, and then she had accurately found the pain point that her wife had never had the chance to show off her skills in the design field, which was indeed quite extraordinary.

Moreover, Ye Chen felt that Fei Ke Xin was really bold.

She knew that there must be a hidden expert in Jinling, but she still stayed here.

The more this happened, the more Ye Chen felt that this woman Fei Ke Xin was troublesome.

However, the good thing was that it was not very threatening, and as he saw his wife so happy, he did not want her to end up with her wish in vain.

So he put off the idea of forcing Fei Kexin away for the time being.

Besides that, Ye Chen was also eager to see what new ways this Fei Ke Xin would play next.

The next morning, Xiao Churan got up and washed up as soon as her alarm clock went off. According to her, Fei Ke Xin would personally drive to pick her up later and then the two of them would go to the airport together.

After having breakfast, Xiao Churan received a call from Fei Kexin, who, at that moment, had already arrived at the entrance of the villa.

Xiao Churan couldn't finish her meal and couldn't wait to leave, so Ma Lan couldn't help but say, "Churan, what are you doing in such a hurry this early in the morning? What's so important that you're in such a hurry?"

Xiao Churan couldn't hide her excitement and said, "Oh my mum, my idol is coming to Jinling, I have to go to the airport to pick her up!"

Ma Lan bristled, "Is it that Gu Qiuyi again? Didn't she just have a concert in Jinling some time ago?"

"Mom, it's not her ....." Xiao Churan hurriedly explained, "The one who is here today is the lighthouse of my career path, the female interior designer I admire most!"

Saying that, Xiao Churan couldn't wait to say, "Mom, I won't talk to you first, a friend is still waiting for me outside."

At this time, Ye Chen stood up and said, "Churan, let me walk you out."

Xiao Churan knew that Ye Chen and Fei Ke Xin had met long ago, so she didn't think there was any problem and agreed without thinking.

Ye Chen and Xiao Churan walked out of the villa together, and the Cadillac that Fei Ke Xin had taken earlier was parked by the roadside at the entrance.

Seeing the two of them walk out, the door of the driver's seat of the Cadillac opened and Fei Ke Xin stepped down from it, looking at Ye Chen with a faint smile and said politely, "Good morning Mr. Ye."

Ye Chen nodded and smiled, "Good morning Miss Zhan."

Saying that, Ye Chen asked her, "Miss Zhan when did you get this car back?"

Fei Ke Xin busily said, "I picked it up yesterday, and it just happened to have a spare key."

Ye Chen nodded and added, "I heard Chu Ran say that she was going with you to pick up a friend of yours?"

"Right." Fei Ke Xin said with a smile, "The designer Ms. Xiao likes happens to be a good friend of mine, so I invited her to come to Jinling for a few days, and by the way, I also let Ms. Xiao get in touch with her more, which might help Ms. Xiao in her future career."

Ye Chen smiled faintly and said, "Then I will thank Miss Zhan for Churan first."

"You must not be so polite, Mr. Ye." Fei Ke Xin was busy saying, "This is all what I should do, after all, you have done me a great favour."

Ye Chen thought to himself, "I didn't do you any great favor, but I'm afraid you want me to do you some great favor ....."

However, on the surface, Ye Chen did not yet look half as if he was ashamed of it, instead he said with a calm face, "In that case, it will be hard for Miss Zhan to go through more trouble."

Chapter 3822

At nine o'clock in the morning, the Jinling Airport.

A middle-aged woman with blonde hair and blue eyes and a tall figure walked out with big strides.

This woman is considered very pretty in appearance, but with the wrinkles at the corners of her eyes, one can tell that she is no longer young.

She is Kerri West, who is in her fifties.

However, because she is a designer, she dresses so stylishly that if you didn't look closely, you would think she was in her early thirties.

When Kylie Vest walked out of the airport, Xiao Churan recognised her immediately, but it was Fei Kexin, who was a bit overwhelmed by reading her profile yesterday, who didn't react at once.

However, Kerri West was the first to recognise Fei Kexin, so she waved at her with great enthusiasm and shouted happily, "Feier! I'm here!"

Fekosin looked back and recognised her too, so she too said with mock excitement, "Kerri! You're finally here!"

As she spoke, Kerri West had arrived in front of the two.

Xiao Churan was on the sidelines like a schoolboy, too excited to interrupt, while Fei Ke Xin was the first to pull her to her side and said to Kerri West, “Kerri, this is Ms. Xiao Churan Xiao that I told you about on the phone, she is very fond of you!”

As soon as she heard the word Ms. Xiao, Kylie West instantly understood, and remembering her mission, she hurriedly said to Xiao Churan, “Hello Ms. Xiao, I heard from Faye that you are also a designer, it’s so nice to come to China and meet a fellow designer, and such a beautiful young beauty!”

Xiao Churan did not expect that Kelly Vest, whom she had never dared to greet on her own initiative, would be so enthusiastic as to greet her first, and was immediately a bit flattered, so she hurriedly said, “Hello Ms. Vest ....., I have admired you for a long time, it’s a pleasure to meet you!”

Kylie Vest took Xiao Churan in her arms and said with a smile, “Don’t be so polite! If you are a good friend of Faye’s, you are a good friend of mine!”

Fei Kexin smiled at this time and said to Xiao Churan, “I told you Kairi was enthusiastic, right? She’s not like the usual famous designers who love to make a big show.”

Kelly West nodded and said to Xiao Churan in a very friendly manner, “We are both designers, we must have more common language, so you must not be so formal in front of me, just treat me as if I am your best friend, I heard Feier say that you will be our guide to show us around Jinling in the next few days, so we can also have time to chat about design tips that might give each other more inspiration.”

Kylie Vest’s words really excited Xiao Churan, so she hurriedly said, “Please don’t worry Ms Vest, I am a native of Jinling and am very familiar with it, I heard that it is your first time in China, I will make sure that you experience the culture and customs as much as possible!”

Kelly West smiled slightly and couldn’t help but say with some emotion, “I actually came to China once twenty-eight years ago, but that time I went to Yanjing.”

When Fei Ke Xin heard this, she was a little annoyed in her heart. The feedback that Kelly West had given to Chen Ying Shan was that she had never been to China, and that was what she had told Xiao Churan herself, so why had she suddenly changed her mind again?

So, before Xiao Churan could ask the question, Fei Ke Xin asked in mock surprise, “Kairi, didn’t you always tell me that you had never been to China?”

Only then did Kairi West realise that she could not help but say the wrong thing just now, so she hurriedly explained, “In fact, when I first came to China thirty years ago, I was commissioned by someone to come to China to design her newlywed mansion, the other party was one of the most important people in my life, and at that time she had instructed me not to disclose anything related to her to the public, so I just kept declared to the public that I hadn’t been to China.”

Speaking of this, Kelly West could not help but sigh softly and said from the bottom of her heart, “That noble person is like a mentor to me in life, if it were not for her, I would not have been able to achieve what I have today.”

Chapter 3823

Hearing this, Fei Kexin could not help but ask with some curiosity, “Kylie, twenty-eight years ago in China, it would have been very traditional, right, and at that time, someone in China actually hired you from America to come to China to do private house design? This person is too avant-garde.”

“Right.” Kylie West said with an expression of a few moments of admiration, “That noble person of mine, although Chinese, actually grew up in America as a child and later married the young master of a large family in Yanjing, so she moved from New York to Yanjing.”

Fei Ke Xin frowned slightly and said, “You said she grew up living in America and asked you to come to China to do the design of her private house, and you were not allowed to reveal it to the public, is she very famous in America?”

Kelly West looked at Fei Kexin in surprise, not expecting this Fei family’s eldest lady to be so perceptive and find the key point at once.

So, with a faint smile, she nodded and said, “In fact, thirty years ago, she was very, very famous in American high society, and even now there are many people who talk about her with awe.”

Hearing this, Fei Ke Xin was even more curious and asked her, “If that’s true, then perhaps I’ve heard of her, what was her name, is it convenient to tell me?”

Kerri West thought for a moment and laughed softly, “She has been gone for many years, it is not inconvenient.”

Saying that, Kelly West put away her smile and said with a look of nostalgia, admiration and a bit of sadness, “Her name is An Chengqing, thirty years ago, she was known as the investment queen of Silicon Valley, I don’t know if you’ve heard of her, it’s not surprising if you haven’t, after all, she’s been gone for almost twenty years, when you were first born, she had already left America.”

Hearing the three words An Chengqing, Fei Ke Xin’s entire body was dumbfounded!

She exclaimed, “An Chengqing ..... How could I not know about An Chengqing, she was our .....”

At this point, she gave a slight pause and hurriedly added, “She is the pride of our countless Chinese hearts!”

In fact, Fei Kexin instinctively wanted to say that An Chengqing was the idol of all Stanford alumni, a spiritual leader who inspired all Stanford alumni to strive for excellence, and a totem-like presence at Stanford.

No one at Stanford doesn’t know An Chengqi, and even though she died 20 years ago, her mark is still everywhere at Stanford.

She is the highest ranked female alumna in the Stanford Hall of Fame and has supported a number of fledgling startups at Stanford and in Silicon Valley, many of which have now grown into international internet and technology behemoths.

At Stanford, there is a road named after her, a building named after her, and a bursary fund.

She is also recognised by all Chinese alumni of Stanford, as the Chinese light of Stanford.

Although Fei Kexin had never met An Chengqi, she had heard too much about her since she was a child. So, at a very young age, she regarded An Chengqi as her biggest idol in life.

And the reason she got into Stanford was because she was influenced by An Chengqi.

When she arrived at Stanford and learnt more about An Chengqi, she was not only amazed, she was also in awe.

Deep inside her heart, she even felt that if she could achieve a third of what An Chengqi had achieved in the future, then she would have lived her life in vain.

However, she never thought that this interior designer she had met for the first time would be an old acquaintance of An Chengqi's!

So, she stood in place as if she was dumbfounded, her heart already pounding inside.

At this moment, Xiao Churan was standing in a daze.

This was the first time in her life that she had heard An Chengqi's name.

She didn't know what these three words stood for, let alone how they were inextricably linked to her, she just felt that this name, like a poem, was as beautiful as .....

Chapter 3824

Kelly West did not expect that even Fei Ke Xin, who was so young, would be impressed by An Chengqi.

Moreover, looking at her, she seemed to admire An Chengqi.

This made her feel relieved and she couldn't help but sigh "It's great that so many people still remember her after so many years ....."

Fei Ke Xin nodded, and hurriedly asked, "Kelly, how did you meet An Chengqi?"

I was a high-end private home designer, but high-end users were very dismissive of me as a fledgling designer, and in American society in those days, women were discriminated against in many jobs, and the design industry was no exception. ...."

She sighed lightly and said with gratitude "I saved my money and put up $5,000 to open my first solo show in Brooklyn, New York, but that show was almost unattended and the occasional visitor who came in usually walked out shaking their heads until An Chengqi, who was passing by at the time, walked in... .."

"And then what happened?" Finkle asked, somewhat impatiently "And then she gave you a chance, did she?"

Kelly West smiled heartily and continued "I think she gave me a whole new world ....." After that, not only did she give me a top Manhattan mansion to design, she even brought me right into Manhattan's high society and recommended me to everyone around her. Since then, I have inexplicably caught fire and before the first full project was completed, I was already a sought-after private house designer in Manhattan ....."

Fei Kexin could not help but sigh “to be so selfless to share the best resources to a stranger, this kind of heart is really remarkable, no wonder so many companies in Silicon Valley are growing stronger and stronger under her investment, this kind of person who is fully committed to carrying others, often to achieve the greatest success .....

Kylie West said with unparalleled approval “She is indeed a very selfless person, especially to newcomers, has been very carry, if she thinks you are really a capable, talented people, then she will not sit back and let your ability and talent be buried, be disappointed.”

Xiao Churan, who was at the side, had already listened with fascination by now.

Although she did not have much social experience, she had never met a person like An Chengqing.

To her, this woman, whom she had never met before, or even just heard of for the first time, seemed to exude an endless charisma of personality.

But when she thought that Kerry West had just said that An Chengqing had been dead for twenty years, she couldn't help but ask “May I ask ..... why this Ms. An pa*sed away so early?”

“Not sure.” Kelly West shook her head and said, “I only know that her family claimed that she died in an accident at the time, but we don't know exactly what the cause was.”

Fei Ke Xin said very seriously at this time “An Chengqing's death, I once heard my grandfather talk about it, as if the reason behind it was extremely complicated, so complicated that even he kept it a secret, I actually asked him several times, he warned me very seriously not to explore it, and said don't look at the An family can be ranked in the top three in the world's top families, but in front of this matter, but also did not do any struggle. ”

Kelly West smiled helplessly and said, “Let's not talk about such heavy topics, doesn't Ms Xiao want to show us around the Golden Palace?”

“Yes.” Fei Ke Xin also hurriedly changed the subject and said to Xiao Churan, “Churan, we will be following you for the next few days!”

Xiao Churan hurriedly said, “I've already planned it all out, why don't we leave now?”

“Good!”

Xiao Churan took Fei Kexin and Kelly West around Jinling for a whole day, and even though her feet were blistered, she was still very energetic.

It was not only because Kelly West was her idol, but also because along the way, she had heard a lot about An Chengqing's legendary experiences.

After hearing so much, Xiao Churan even felt that if she continued to listen, she would have to change her idol from Kerri West to An Chengqing, who had died 20 years ago.

But she had no idea that this legendary woman was her husband's mother.

When she returned home, Xiao Churan was already tired and sore from just sitting on the sofa.

Chapter 3825

When Ye Chen saw that she had taken off her socks and had rubbed several blisters on her feet, he could not help but say with some heartache, “Honey, what have you been doing all day? Why have you rubbed so many blisters?”

Xiao Churan smiled shamefully and said “I was silly today, I forgot to wear sneakers and took them with me to several attractions and walked more than 20,000 steps .....

She said, she giggled, “It’s okay, I’m sure I’ll be better tomorrow when I change into sneakers!”

Ye Chen asked offhandedly, “Your feet are like this, why are you still going shopping tomorrow?”

Xiao Churan nodded and said seriously, “Of course I’m going! Honey, you don’t know, following Ms. Zhan and Ms. Wester, you can really learn a lot, I feel like I’m not even in the same world as them, there are a lot of things they say that I’ve never even heard of.”

Ye Chen asked helplessly “Wife, nowadays is the information age, everything spreads very fast, even if you have never eaten pork, have you never seen a pig run?”

I used to think that the richest person in the United States was Bill Gates, but after listening to them talk, I realized that the really rich people don’t even show their faces, and Bill Gates’ assets may not even rank in the top in the United States. ”

Ye Chen laughed and said, “Isn’t this a normal thing? The reason for the Forbes list is that most of them are owners of listed companies or even multiple listed companies, and listed companies are required to disclose their financial data, so they can see how much they hold. It’s only obvious how many shares they hold.”

“That’s .....

Xiao Churan spat out her tongue and said, “Maybe I’ve never paid attention to this before, so my perception is still stuck in the news and newspapers from years ago, and after hearing them out, I realized that it seems this world is far more complicated than I imagined!”

The world is more complicated than most people can imagine, but for ordinary people like us, there is no point in knowing too much, all we really need to do is to run our own lives well, the rest, at most, can be used as after-dinner conversation, chatting to relieve boredom is almost enough. ”

He said, Ye Chen also said “wife you sit down for a while, I will go get you a basin of warm water to soak your feet, it will help relieve your fatigue and blisters.”

The words are so, but Ye Chen also knows that soaking the feet is only treating the symptoms but not the root cause, so he plans to use some aura to help her completely in the name of soaking the feet.

Xiao Churan smiled cheekily and said “Thank you, husband! My feet are really ruined, I can only trouble my husband to help .....

Ye Chen laughed and said “That’s nothing, you be good and wait.”

After saying that, Ye Chen went to the bathroom, brought a basin of warm water to Xiao Churan, seeped a little aura into the water, came back and placed the basin under her feet, said to Xiao Churan “Come on wife, put your feet in and soak for a while.”

Xiao Churan nodded her head and said shyly “Thank you, husband!”

Ye Chen said with a dotting smile “Since when are you so polite with your husband.”

He said, “You don’t have to care too much about that Kelly West, and you don’t have to care about the stories they tell that don’t have much to do with us, we’re just ordinary people, just get on with our lives.”

Xiao Churan nodded his head very seriously and said, “In fact, I have always cautioned myself that such words are just to listen to, not to delve too deeply into, not to mention too much into .....

The first time I heard about a strong woman who I had never heard of before, but who is particularly powerful, after hearing about her, I was really shocked! I instantly felt that a small person with no ambition like myself was too insignificant compared to such a radiant person .....

Ye Chen smilingly said asked “What kind of strong woman is so powerful that she has made my wife start to doubt herself?”

Xiao Churan seriously said “This strong woman is named An Chengqing, a Chinese American, have you heard of her story, husband?”

Chapter 3826

When Ye Chen heard his mother’s name, which actually came out of his wife Xiao Churan’s mouth, his whole body seemed to have been cast in a fixation spell, and he stood motionless in place.

At this moment, it was as if Ye Chen’s consciousness had also lost contact with his body, while his heart was also tossing up shocking waves, and his emotions were already out of control as well, asking after him very urgently, “What did they say to you?!”

Xiao Churan, seeing how excited Ye Chen was, was surprised and asked, “Honey, what are you so excited about .....

Xiao Churan’s question made Ye Chen’s throat stick out all of a sudden.

In the past, Xiao Churan had also asked Ye Chen several times about his parents’ situation.

Ye Chen could not bear to lie about his parents’ death, so he had told Xiao Churan truthfully that his parents had died in an accident when he was eight years old.

However, although Ye Chen could not bear to lie about this matter, he did have some reservations, for example, he never told Xiao Churan the names of his parents and their life history.

Therefore, Xiao Churan had always felt that Ye Chen might have lost his parents relatively early in life, so he himself had somewhat forgotten many of his parents’ memories and information.

Moreover, Xiao Churan was not Fei Kexin, she did not have Fei Kexin’s brain or strength, so she never had any doubts after hearing Ye Chen talk about his parents’ past.

So, Xiao Churan didn’t ask any more questions about the details.

However, Ye Chen’s reaction to the three words An Chengqing really surprised Xiao Churan, and she realized in her heart: “If Ye Chen had never heard of An Chengqing, he would never have reacted so excitedly, but this person's name, there is almost no information available on the internet, and she only heard of it for the first time today, so through what channel did Ye Chen know about it? "

Ye Chen also finally realised at this time that he had just acted inappropriately.

He then explained to Xiao Churan, "When I went to Yanjing to read the feng shui of Miss Gu's family before, I once heard Miss Gu's parents mention this person, as if they knew An Chengqing and had a good relationship, so I was a little surprised to hear you mention her as well."

Xiao Churan immediately felt that this statement by Ye Chen was very reasonable, so his mind didn't move to doubt, so he nodded and said, "So that's how it is ....."

The two of them talked to you about this An Chengqing lady, what did they talk about? I'm also curious about her, can you tell me about her as well?"

Xiao Churan thought for a moment and said, "They told a lot of stories about An Chengqing, my idol, Kerri West, was even pushed up by her back then ....."

Saying that, Xiao Churan then roughly told what she had heard today, about An Chengqing.

Only then did Ye Chen know that it turned out that his own mother had already known Kylie West long before she knew his father, Ye Changyang.

It was even only today that he learnt that the villa he had lived in during his childhood in Yanjing was actually the wedding house that Kerri West had personally come to China to design for his mother.

It was just a pity that that house was now long gone, having been refurbished by the Ye family, and had been completely erased from its past.

Thinking of this, Ye Chen could not help but feel sorrowful and emotional in his heart, and even regretted a little, regretting that he had given up the old mansion where his parents had lived in Jinling to Du Haiqing at the auction.

At this time, Xiao Churan said sadly, "I just didn't expect that such an excellent strong woman would die young ..... and listening to the two of them, it seems like there is something else fishy in the cause of An Chengqing's death... .."

When Ye Chen heard this, his heart felt like it was being hammered, and he couldn't help but ask, "What's fishy? Do the two of them know something inside?"

Xiao Churan shook her head and said, "Ms. Wester knows nothing, she said she only knows that An Chengqing died in China, and her mother's family claimed that it was an accident, but Ms. Zhan said that her grandfather seems to be keeping this matter secret, and said that even An Chengqing's mother's family did not dare to pursue the hidden story behind this matter."

Ye Chen's heart was shocked, and he hastily asked again, "Didn't that Miss Zhan say anything more specific about the clues?"

"No." Xiao Churan shook her head, "I heard from Miss Zhan that her grandfather didn't want her to ask too many questions."

Ye Chen had some vague excitement in his heart.

All these years, he had always wanted to know the real reason for his parents' death, but had never found any actual clues.

Originally, he thought that the Su family must have been behind his parents' death.

But after he came into contact with the Su family, he gradually overturned this idea, as there was no way the Su family could have been a match for his parents.

And then he had suspected that these were inextricably linked to the Rothschild family, but he still had not found any valuable clues now.

Chapter 3827

So, all this that Xiao Churan had said today had immediately given Ye Chen a great hope.

He felt that if he could find a way to get Fei Ke Xin's grandfather to talk, then I was afraid that there was a real chance for this matter to come to light!

When he thought of this, he immediately made a decision in his mind that when Fei Jianzhong came to Jinling, he would force him to speak up, no matter what means he used! Even if it meant taking away his divine sense and giving him strong psychological hints, he must make him speak up and reveal all that he knew about the inside story!

At the same time, within Ye Chen's heart, his anticipation for the Spring Return Pill Auction had surpa*sed everything else at the moment!

As for Fei Ke Xin, let her play the curve to save the country if she wanted to, Ye Chen no longer cared what she wanted to do now, the only thing he cared about was getting her grandfather Fei Jianzhong to come quickly!

A few days later.

After these few days of getting to know each other, Xiao Churan had become more and more familiar with Fei Kexin and Kelly West, and had even begun to nurture a real friendship.

At one point, Fei Ke Xin was so disgusted with herself for concealing her true identity and using Xiao Churan that she even wanted to confess to Xiao Churan as soon as the auction was over and her grandfather got the Spring Return Pill.

Of course, she knew very well in her heart that even if she confessed, she could not sell Ye Chen, otherwise she would really have offended him to death.

At the same time, the day of the Spring Return Pill auction was gradually drawing near.

Buckingham Palace, too, had finally reached the point in time when all the tenants had to check out.

At 12:00 noon today, all guests must check out, after which, Buckingham Palace will be officially closed for management and will no longer be open to the public.

During this time, Buckingham Palace will be fully prepared for the Spring Return Pill Auction.

At this point in time, Richard Chen became more and more nervous.

The pressure on him as the head of security at Buckingham Palace is even heavier than that of Tarzan, because the tycoons who are coming to the auction this time are worth more than a few trillion dollars.

This is because, if these tycoons come and go in a low-profile manner, Buckingham Palace will naturally have successfully completed the task explained by Ye Chen.

But if anything happened to one of these tycoons at Buckingham Palace, it would be the reputation of the entire Ye family that would be affected.

Fortunately, Wan Breaking Army had sent a number of experts from Wan Long Palace from overseas, led by Chen Zhong Lei himself, to take charge of the security of the entire auction, which only made Chen Zekai breathe a sigh of relief.

After the security work was basically assured, Chen Zekai began to work intensively to catch up with the service preparations.

The hotel rooms were cleaned and tidied up, the mattresses, carpets and bedding were replaced, and any faulty furniture and appliances were not repaired but simply replaced.

Everything was done to make the auction impeccable.

As the exact location of the auction has not yet been revealed to the public, when the tycoons arrived in Jinling on the reporting day, Buckingham Palace had to send a convoy to take them from the airport to the hotel one by one.

Since there were more people coming, Richard Chen asked Ye Chen for instructions: "Young master, I plan to deploy forty Rolls-Royce Phantoms from all over the country, and form five courtesy convoys in groups of eight, which will be responsible for the transportation of all the guests attending the auction. What do you think?"

Ye Chen nodded and said indifferently, "There should definitely be a fleet of cars, and five of them should be enough for a round trip."

At this point, Ye Chen turned his words and added, "But the Rolls Royce Phantom is not necessary, let's replace it with something else."

Chen Zekai was busy asking, "What do you suggest, young master?"

Ye Chen said lightly, "This time, most of the people coming here are foreign friends, and as the host, we must use our own proud national products, so let's use all red flags!"

Chapter 3828

The class of Red Flag cars is certainly not as good as Rolls Royce.

But in Ye Chen's eyes, Red Flag is the most nationally representative car brand in China, bar none.

Therefore, it was also the obvious choice in his mind.

Chen Zekai did as he was told by Ye Chen, so he immediately spoke, "Yes young master, I will coordinate the resources and ensure that the vehicles are all in place within two days."

Ye Chen nodded and instructed, "Don't forget to raise the room rates, during the Spring Return Pill auction, the price of the rooms at Buckingham Palace should be at least a hundred times higher, and don't give a single cent discount."

"Good." Richard Chen said with a smile, "Don't worry young master, I've arranged this, this time the listed price of the hotel room has not only increased by more than a hundred times, but there will also be an additional 20 service charge, 20 security fee as well as 20 event organization fee, anyway, it's all tricky and set up specifically to screw them over."

Hearing this, Ye Chen smiled and said, "By the way, charge them another one million RMB each for transportation, after all, we have to spend money to set up the fleet too."

Richard Chen knew that mass-produced Red Flag cars were not really expensive, the best ones were only 500,000 to 600,000, and a fleet of eight cars would only cost four to five million.

For a fleet of four to five million cars, a million dollars is charged for a trip to the airport, which is probably the most profitable business in the world.

However, he knew very well in his heart that the two hundred people who had come to the Spring Return Pill auction would not care about such a small extra cost.

Even though the majority of these people knew very well that they would probably not be able to win the Spring Return Pill, they still wanted to come to the auction and see what it was like.

After explaining this, Ye Chen stood up and said to Chen Zekai, "Old Chen, I'll leave the rest to you. On the day of the auction, you must conduct strict security checks on everyone entering the venue, and never allow anyone to bring any camera or recording equipment into the venue."

Chen Zekai hurriedly said, "Young Master, don't worry, I've made all the arrangements, when the time comes, I will put four sets of security screening equipment on site, open two security check lanes, each lane will do two security checks, definitely more stringent than the security checks of flying, whoever comes to the auction, don't even want to bring in a watch."

Ye Chen nodded, and suddenly a light came to his mind and said, "If you want me to say so, why don't we ask them for their figure data now, and give them a batch of uniformly customized costumes in advance, and then number these costumes, starting from 1, all the way to 200!"

"For these outfits, just design them all according to sportswear, wear a uniform t-shirt on top and sports trousers underneath, no metal parts inside the clothes, and on the day the auction is held, make them have to change into our uniform outfits to go through the metal detection gates, the principle is that no one is allowed to carry any equipment containing metal, and if there are medical devices, they must also be strictly confirmed, never giving opportunity for anyone to exploit the loopholes."

Chen Zekai immediately agreed and said, "Yes young master, I'll arrange for them to have the clothes custom-made in the fastest possible time."

Saying that, he added, "This is a saving, and it won't cost much, our next province, Suhang, is basically one of the largest clothing production bases in the country."

Ye Chen smiled and said, "OK, you will arrange this matter, and since we have already given them uniform clothing, it is natural to charge an additional cost for the clothing, just like how you have to charge school uniform fees for making school uniforms."

Chen Zekai was busy asking, "Young master, I estimate that the cost of the costumes will not exceed two hundred dollars, how much do you think this costume fee should be charged at?"

Chapter 3829

Ye Chen thought about it and said casually, "You do this, you go find a graphic designer and have him design a logo, design it as a golden elixir, plus three big words – Hui Chun Dan, package the clothing of Hui Chun Dan as a brand, say that it is a new luxury item, limited to 200 sets worldwide. Each set is priced at 1.5 million!"

Chen Zekai almost gushed out a mouthful of old blood.

A total of two hundred people, limited to two hundred sets, and I don't know what kind of limited edition this was.

Moreover, this price is really black out of the sky, the profit margin is as high as 99.99 .....

Ye Chen at this time a person is very serious said: "Old Chen look, usually this group of people, wearing a logo, carrying a Hermes then feel like cattle, a piece of clothing printed with logo move tens of thousands of dollars, a Hermes bag is even more expensive than the sky, since we all love face so much, then I this Hui Chun Dan clothing is the best luxury, a set of sportswear one and a half million Can Hermes be compared to that?"

Chen Zekai was sweating beyond belief.

He knew that his young master sometimes had a black heart, but he never thought it would be so black .....

If this got out, people would say that Buckingham Palace didn't even want its face.

However, he also knew Ye Chen's style of action, and although he was extremely shocked in his heart, he still said very quickly, "Don't worry, young master, I will do it."

Ye Chen nodded in satisfaction and said, "In the future, these fees will be levied as usual every year for the Spring Return Dan auction, and this money from the annual sale of clothing, help me donate it to schools in poor areas and make free winter and summer uniforms for the children there, as many as you can, and as for that part of the annual transportation costs, donate it all to the primary schools in the mountainous areas and equip them with school buses and drivers, as many as you can. Allocate as many as you can."

The same goes for the school buses. First, we should investigate the approximate needs of the schools in the mountainous areas and then purchase different vehicles according to the different needs. All the driver's salaries and insurance will be paid from this company, and the normal cost of use will also be paid by this company, but the finance must be properly audited, and no one will be allowed to interfere in this.”

Chen Zekai did not expect that, with a casual remark, Ye Chen would donate all the 500 million cash that had been sent to him in one year, and he would still have to donate every year after that.

So he immediately said respectfully, “Yes young master, I will do my best to ensure that your requests are implemented item by item.”

Ye Chen nodded, stretched and spoke, “Alright, I’ll go first, when these buyers start arriving one after another, keep an eye on that Fei Jianzhong for me, if he arrives, inform me at the first opportunity.”

“Okay Young Master!”

When Ye Chen left from Richard Chen’s office, Fei Kexin, along with her entourage, was preparing to check out of her room and leave, moving on to the Golden International Hotel.

Her assistant, Chen Ying Shan, was making sure that there were no missing items in the room for her while saying to Fei Ke Xin, “Miss, arrangements have been made over at the Golden International Hotel, which is also a presidential suite, so we can just move there directly.”

Fei Ke Xin nodded slightly and asked her, “Right Shan Shan, no, confirm with grandpa’s secretary the exact time he will come to China?”

Chen Ying Shan nodded and said, “I’ve already confirmed with Secretary Shen, the auction starts in five days, and Grandpa will depart and fly over on the third day, arriving on the fourth.”

Fei Ke Xin said with a grave expression, “Tell Grandpa’s secretary to arrange for him to come over a day earlier.”

Chen Ying Shan said, “Miss, the itinerary for grandpa is all set by Secretary Shen, if we want to change the plan at the last minute, Secretary Chen won’t agree to it for the sake of grandpa’s safety. ....”

Fei Ke Xin said directly, “Tell him that this is my intention, I have my reasons for arranging this.”

Chen Ying Shan said cautiously, “Miss, at the risk of asking, what are your plans? Do you need my help?”

Fei Ke Xin sighed and said, “I want to bring grandpa along and have a meal with Ye Chen .....”

Chapter 3830

Hearing these words from Fei Ke Xin, Chen Ying Shan said somewhat nervously at once, “Miss, if you bring Master and Ye Chen to dinner together, won’t you be exposing your own identity?”

“That wouldn’t be the case.” Fei Ke Xin said, “I plan to invite Churan first, and then have Churan help invite Ye Chen, and then I’ll just take Grandpa there and introduce myself to them at the dinner table.”

Chen Ying Shan couldn’t help but ask, “Then how will you introduce your relationship with Master to Ye Chen?”

Fei Ke Xin said, “This is easy, just say that grandpa is my distant grandfather, after all, the Zhan family and the Fei family are already related, so there won’t be any loopholes in terms of reasonableness.”

Chen Ying Shan was puzzled and asked, "Miss, I don't quite understand, why do you want to arrange for Master to meet with Ye Chen? Originally, there were two sets of plans for this matter, and the two plans were shielded from each other, so why did you take the initiative to remove this shield?"

Fei Ke Xin sighed, "This matter always feels difficult, even if there are two sets of plans it may not be guaranteed to succeed, allowing grandpa to meet Ye Chen before the auction is also to add another new plan, perhaps after the first two plans have failed, grandpa can get what he wants from Ye Chen himself."

"Alright ....." Chen Ying Shan nodded helplessly, she knew very well the reason why Fei Ke Xin attached so much importance to this matter.

Nowadays, Fei Ke Xin's wings were not yet full and his father had little status in the family, what Fei Ke Xin feared most was that the old man would leave too early.

Therefore, he could only pin his hopes on the Spring Return Pill.

At this time, a member of the entourage knocked on the door and spoke, "Miss, the hotel is urging to check out, they require that the check-out procedure must be completed at 12 o'clock."

"Good." Fei Ke Xin responded and spoke, "This will go down."

When Fei Ke Xin emerged from her room, outside the door, in addition to her entourage, was Kerri West, who had been in China for days.

Kerri West had been staying at Buckingham Palace for the past few days, but today she was also changing to the Jinling International Hotel along with Fei Kexin.

Seeing Fei Kexin come out, Kerri West called out with a respectful face, "Miss Fei."

Fei Kexin nodded and spoke, "Kylie, it's hard for you to stay in Jinling for a few more days, and then return to the United States after this week."

Without hesitation, Kerri West agreed and said, "Yes Miss Fei."

Fei Ke Xin said with satisfaction, "Please don't worry Miss Kairi, I will definitely not treat you badly after this matter is over."

Kairi West said with a smile, "Miss Fei is very kind, it is an honour to help Miss Fei."

Fei Ke Xin smiled faintly, nodded gently and said, "Let's go, go check out of the room."

Afterwards, the group left the guest room area and headed to the hotel lobby.

At that moment, Richard Chen happened to see Ye Chen out of his office and the two were walking quickly through the lobby.

Fei Ke Xin saw Ye Chen at a glance, the scene was the same as when she first saw him, except that at that time, Ye Chen came in with Richard Chen, while this time, he was going out together.

Seeing Ye Chen here at this time, she was not surprised in the slightest.

Although she also knew that the Spring Return Pill auction would soon begin, and Ye Chen, as the owner of the Spring Return Pill, could be said to be the biggest boss behind this auction.

Therefore, it naturally made sense for him to appear at Buckingham Palace at this time.

Thus, Fei Ke Xin shouted, "Mr Ye!"

Ye Chen heard the voice and knew without turning around that it was Fei Kexin.

So he stopped in his tracks, turned to look at Fei Kexin and said with a smile, "It's Miss Fei, what are you doing here?"

Fei Kexin shrugged her shoulders and said casually, "I'm preparing to check out ..... Buckingham Palace won't let me renew my stay today, so I can only move to another hotel."

Ye Chen nodded gently and asked, "Miss Fei should have already found a place to stay, right?"
