

Ye Chen 3841

Chapter 3841

After saying that, she looked at Ye Chen and said with some excitement, "But if you can accompany me, all these will not be a problem, we can rent a house near the school for a short time or just stay in a hotel, except for cla*s time, I may have to be separated from you temporarily, we can accompany each other at all other times! Of course, the main thing is for you to keep me company!"

Ye Chen could see the expectation in his wife's eyes, and he knew very well that this was one of her biggest dreams, and that he, as a husband, should spare no effort to support her.

So he asked Xiao Churan, "Honey, when is this master cla*s of yours going to start?"

Xiao Churan replied, "If you are sure to go to it, then you have to report to the school at the end of the month, the course officially starts on the first of May and runs until the thirty-first of May."

Saying that, Xiao Churan added to, "However, after the course ends on the thirty-first of May, there is a three-day salon, and when the salon is over, you can leave school."

Hearing this, Ye Chen could not help but sigh with relief.

Going to America for over a month was a long time, but it was good that the time was at the end of the month, and by then, the auction would have ended, and one would have just enough on hand to relax.

In the country, apart from the Ye family, it was all about matters relating to the Dihao Group, Jiu Xuan Pharmaceuticals and the Iso Shipping.

But the good thing was that these companies all had people to help him take care of them, and the Ye family also had the old man, Ye Zhongquan, personally sitting on their side, so there was hardly anything that really required Ye Chen's own efforts.

What's more, he still had a Ten Thousand Dragons Temple sitting behind him, so even if there were any accidents or changes in the middle, he would be able to respond in time and solve them quickly.

In this way, his time was also relatively much more relaxed.

It was not impossible for him to accompany Xiao Churan to the United States for a month or so, just to enjoy the world as a couple.

Thinking of this, he spoke up and said to Xiao Churan, "If you want to go, then I have no problem with it, and the time is more convenient for me, so I can accompany you there."

"Really?!" Hearing this, Xiao Churan asked with evil incredulity, "Honey, are you really willing to accompany me to America?"

Ye Chen nodded with a smile and said seriously, "Of course, when has hubby ever lied to you?"

Xiao Churan's whole body suddenly jumped into Ye Chen's arms with excitement and said, "Great hubby! Thank you!"

Ma Lan said with some anxiety, "Churan, your father is leaving for Korea in two days, so I don't know when he will be back yet.

Xiao Churan said with an apologetic face, "Mom, I really want to go to the master cla*s in this world too much, so I'll have to condemn you to live at home by yourself for this period of time."

Ma Lan immediately cried and said, "Churan, Ma's legs are not yet fully recovered, so it's not convenient for her to do anything. To be frank with you, if the lift breaks down one day and I'm trapped inside, I'll have no choice but to die. Can you really bear to let Mum face so many unknown dangers alone?"

At this time, Xiao Churan said ashamedly, "I'm sorry, Mom, I didn't think thoroughly enough"

Xiao Churan thought he had found a good solution, so he asked, "Mom, would you like to come to America with us? It's only a month or so in total anyway, so you can consider it a holiday."

When Ma Lan heard this, she was immediately energised, and with a raised eyebrow and a smile, she said, "Hey! You really don't say, I've never been to America until now, so this is a good opportunity to go out and see!"

With that, Ma Lan clapped her hands happily and said, "Good, good! Let's make a deal then, I'll go with you!"

Chapter 3842

Because of the leg injury, Ma Lan seldom went out this time, so she was already a bit suffocated.

It just so happened that at this time Xiao Churan talked about going to the United States, and Ma Lan's first thought upon hearing this was that she must follow him out to see the world.

Besides, she knew that Ye Chen was making easy money now, so she didn't want to miss this good opportunity to go out with Ye Chen, and maybe Ye Chen would be able to buy something for himself.

When Xiao Churan heard her mother say that she wanted to go along, she was in a bit of a dilemma.

She felt that it would be the best solution for just Ye Chen to accompany herself, and that the situation would really be a bit awkward if she brought her mother along.

So she persuaded Ma Lan, "Mom, I think it's better for you to rest at home, America is so mountainous and far away, it's not easy to go there, besides you don't have any friends there, it's easy to get bored."

Without hesitation, Ma Lan said, "I'm bored to death at home these days.

Xiao Churan was immediately out of ideas and could only look at Ye Chen with a helpless face, wondering if Ye Chen had any good way to dissuade his mother from this idea.

Ye Chen did not want Ma Lan to give up.

So, he said reasonably, "Mom, Chu Ran is going to the United States this time to attend a master cla*s and go to school for further studies, so she will probably be very busy at that time, in case she can't take care of you, won't it be boring for you to stay there?"

"It's fine." Ma Lan said without thinking, "It doesn't matter if you can't take care of me, if you can't take care of me I'll go out on my own, I've never been to America anyway, so I'm sure I'll find everything new by then."

At that time, the TV was showing "Yanjing People in New York", and young people dreamed of going out of the past to have a look. I wanted to see the Statue of Liberty and the Hollywood Walk of Fame with my own eyes, but I never had the chance to go out for so many years, and this time, I finally have the chance to make my dream come true!"

Ye Chen thought to himself, "You're making your dreams come true, but what about me and Chu Ran? If you really go along, won't you ruin the world of Chu Ran and me?"

Thinking of this, Ye Chen immediately said, "Mom, to be honest with you, your leg is still not well enough, so you really need to take a good rest and recuperate, so you can't run around and toss and turn.

Saying that, Ye Chen smiled slightly and added, "In my opinion, you might as well stay in Jinling and take a rest and recuperate, it just so happens that you have a good relationship with Qian Hongyan now, so you can let her keep you company."

Ma Lan said, almost without thinking, "No! I'll be scared to death if I live alone in such a big house!"

Ye Chen said, "Mom, before I leave, I will leave you 500,000 yuan for your pocket money.

When Ma Lan heard Ye Chen say he was going to give himself 500,000 pocket money, he asked excitedly, "Good son-in-law, you are really going to give mum 500,000? You're not deliberately lying to mum and making fun of her, are you?"

Ye Chen knew that money would definitely work much better for Ma Lan than any Statue of Liberty.

Seeing that Ma Lan had really left her American dream behind, he said with a smile, "Mom, when have I ever made fun of you? Don't worry, as long as you recuperate well in Jinling, I will definitely cash in the half million at the first opportunity!"

Ma Lan said with great enthusiasm, "Good son-in-law! Then it's a deal! You can't renege on anything you say!"

Chapter 3843

Ye Chen smiled, "Don't worry, I won't renege, I'll definitely give you the money before I go to America with Churan!"

"Good!" Ma Lan said without hesitation, "Since that's the case, then I won't follow you all that far to America!"

Ye Chen finally breathed a sigh of relief, and to the naked eye, his wife Xiao Churan, who was on the side, also felt much more relieved at this moment, as if a hanging heart had finally been released.

At this time, Xiao Churan said to Ye Chen with a relaxed expression, "Honey, in that case, I will give Kaili a clear answer and tell her that I will attend the master cla*s."

Ye Chen nodded and smiled, "Give her a letter back, then hurry up and confirm the itinerary, I'll arrange the time and book the flight."

Xiao Churan nodded repeatedly and said excitedly, "I'll go and give her a call right now!"

After saying that, she immediately took the phone and ran out of the house to the courtyard with joy.

A few minutes later, she returned with unbridled excitement and said to Ye Chen, "Honey, I've already confirmed with Kairi, we can leave on the 28th at the end of the month!"

Hearing the 28th, Ye Chen was relieved that the auction was scheduled for the 25th, just enough to give himself a few days to wrap up.

So, without thinking, Ye Chen said, "Good, then I'll book the tickets for the 28th, and by the way, book the hotel near the Rhode Island School of Design, and we'll leave on time on the 28th."

"Great!" Xiao Churan happily spun in place and said with unbridled excitement, "Then I'll start packing for both of us tomorrow!"

In fact, in his heart, Ye Chen was more or less resistant to the matter of going to America.

This is mainly because, his grandfather's family is rooted in America and has a large family, he was afraid that when he arrived in America, he would be known by his grandfather's family.

Ye Chen did not have any grudges against his grandfather's family, only that he was somewhat distant from his mother's family after she had some conflicts with them about marrying his father.

Therefore, he remembered that the number of times he met with his grandparents was only a few in total.

Later, when his parents died and Ye Chen was hidden by Tang Sihai in the Jinling Orphanage, he was completely cut off from his grandparents' family, and it had been nearly twenty years since then.

As a result, he became even more distant from his grandparents' family in his heart and did not really want to disturb their lives.

However, since going to the Rhode Island School of Design was his wife's ambition in life, he could only choose to go with her in order to allow her to have her wish.

In Ye Chen's view, it would naturally be best if he could go to the United States this time without having any encounters with his grandparents' family.

However, if the two sides inevitably had to cross paths, then they could only exchange pleasantries, and the only thing they had to be careful of was not to let their wife Xiao Churan know.

Ye Chen is used to being alone, and although he is not socially phobic, he has some resistance to most social activities, so he would be very uncomfortable if he were to exchange pleasantries between relatives.

Moreover, Ye Chen is also self-aware.

He felt that his grandparents were already estranged from him, not to mention that after so many years, his mother was also long gone, and he was afraid that his grandparents would be just as distant from him.

Chapter 3844

After Ye Chen and Xiao Churan made the decision to accompany her to the United States, Xiao Churan also immediately gave a clear reply to Kelly West.

Kylie West was very efficient and quickly submitted Xiao Churan's information to the Rhode Island School of Design.

Since it was daytime in the US, the Rhode Island School of Design responded quickly and immediately sent an electronic version of the master class invitation to Xiao Churan's email address.

The moment Xiao Churan saw the invitation letter, she was so excited that she almost burst into tears.

She really did not expect that what was originally one of her biggest goals in life would be so easy to achieve.

In her excitement, she could not help but say to Ye Chen, "Honey, they are so good to me because of you, right?"

Ye Chen did not expect his wife to suddenly ask such a question out of nowhere, so he smiled and asked, "Honey, why are you suddenly asking this?"

Xiao Churan said seriously, "Wang Dongxue of the Dihao Group, Song Wanting of the Song Group, and now this Zhan Feier, all took special care of me, the first two not only gave me projects to do, but also offered very generous terms, the latter was the same, such a big villa, such a high budget, hiring first-class designers was enough, but she chose to give me the whole project, knowing that I adore Kerri West, and even invited her directly from America"

Speaking of this, Xiao Churan added: "I believe that the reason why Kairi would give me such a precious slot must also be because of Miss Zhan's face Miss Zhan wouldn't treat me so well for no reason, it must be because of you, right?"

Ye Chen laughed, "Maybe it's because I helped someone with their feng shui, and they felt they owed me a favor, so they intentionally wanted to thank me."

Xiao Churan couldn't help but ask, "But you usually only charge a few million for reading feng shui, and Miss Zhan has already given Dad a Rolls Royce Cullinan, so by this calculation, the favour has long been repaid, so why do you still want to take such good care of me?"

As she said that, Xiao Churan suddenly remembered something and subconsciously said, "Honey, Miss Zhan should have other things to ask from you, right? I remember you telling me that the things she begged you for were too big? If that were the case, would it make things difficult for you if I took on her project and accepted this master class slot?"

Ye Chen smiled faintly and said, "Wife, you don't need to worry about this matter, I will take care of it myself."

Xiao Churan couldn't help but ask, "Honey, then do you think I should treat Miss Zhan to a meal to show my appreciation?"

Ye Chen waved his hand and said, "No need for now, just tell her that I've been busy lately, so when I'm done with this, we'll treat her to a meal together as a couple."

Xiao Churan nodded and said, "Okay, then I'll tell her on WeChat."

A few moments later, the Jinling International Hotel.

When Fei Ke Xin saw the text message from Xiao Churan, she could not hold down the excitement in her heart at once and exclaimed excitedly, "Fantastic!"

Chen Yingshan, who was at the side, hurriedly asked, "Miss, what's so good that you're so excited?"

Fei Ke Xin said, "Sister Churan sent me a WeChat, she said her husband wants to invite me for a meal, but her husband has been busy recently, so he has to wait until after these few days."

Chen Ying Shan nodded and busily said, "What Ye Chen means is that it should wait until after the auction is over, right?"

"Right." Fei Ke Xin could not hide her excitement and spoke, "Since he can say such words, it proves that my efforts for such a long time have not been in vain! Ye Chen must feel in his heart that he owes me a favour, that's why he wants to treat me to dinner!"

Chen Ying Shan said with some concern, "Miss, what if Ye Chen just wants to treat you to a meal?"

Fei Ke Xin shook her head and said seriously, "Shan Shan, remember, in most cases, the more people in high places, the less they like to take advantage of others, and when the favours you give him accumulate into more, he will definitely return this favour to you in some matter."

Chapter 3845

At Stanford, there is a class that teaches business executives how to be on the lookout for and respond to commercial bribery, and there are many classic cases in which the party who engages in commercial bribery uses almost the same case, which is to keep giving the other party favours in various ways but never mention their needs, and when the other party's sense of indebtedness reaches a certain level, as long as he asks, the other party will go to desperate lengths for him."

Chen Ying Shan nodded thoughtfully, and then asked Fei Ke Xin a moment later, "Miss, are you still going to let Master have a meal with him?"

"No, not yet." Fei Ke Xin was busy saying, "Since Ye Chen has said that he will treat me to dinner after he's busy, then let grandpa come over according to the normal timeline, and if he doesn't win the Spring Return Pill at the auction, I'll bring him along to meet Ye Chen."

.....

Two days later.

From four o'clock in the morning, Jinling Airport had its busiest day since its inauguration.

If it were normal, the number of passenger and cargo planes as well as business planes taking off and landing at Jinling Airport every day would only add up to about 800, of which the number of take-offs and landings would be almost equal.

Today, however, there were nearly 300 more landings than usual at Jinling Airport.

Since the early hours of the morning, a large number of private jets have been landing at Jinling Airport one after another.

All these private planes, without exception, were coming to Jinling to participate in the Spring Return Pill auction.

According to the requirements of the auction organisers, these bidders must arrive in Jinling within today.

Moreover, according to the requirements, from the time they landed until the end of the auction, they had to listen to the arrangements made by the organisers, and any violation of the requirements would be considered as giving up the right to bid for the Spring Return Pill.

Therefore, after landing at Jinling Airport, these top tycoons could only wait in place for further arrangements from the organisers.

By ten o'clock in the morning, nearly a hundred private jets had landed at Jinling, filling up almost all the parking spaces at the airport.

Some private jets had to be transferred to airports in other cities after the passengers had disembarked due to lack of parking conditions.

At this moment, at a height of 10,000 metres, less than a thousand kilometres from Jinling, a Boeing 747 was flying rapidly towards Jinling.

The interior of the huge cabin had been transformed into a mobile air villa, and in the extremely luxurious parlour at the front of the plane, two old men were sitting.

Their hair and beards had turned pure white, but one of them looked old and strong, while the other one's vitality and physical condition had clearly deteriorated.

These two were Fei Jianzhong and Lai Qinghua, who had flown all the way from the United States.

As Lai Qinghua had been invited by Ye Chen to attend the Spring Return Pill auction as a VIP, and Fei Jianzhong had also successfully obtained the qualification to attend the Spring Return Pill auction, Lai Qinghua simply followed Fei Jianzhong's private jet all the way to Jinling.

At this moment, the attendant walked to the meeting room and said respectfully, "Master and Mr. Lai, our plane will land at Jinling Airport in about ninety minutes."

"Good" Fei Jianzhong nodded gently, then looked at Lai Qinghua and asked him, "Brother Lai, I wonder if you can draw up a fortune for me to see if I can successfully auction for the Spring Return Pill this time or not?"

Lai Qinghua could not help but smile, “Old Fei, in fact, before we left, I had already done a fortune telling for you.”

Fei Jianzhong was busy asking, “Brother Lai, I wonder what the trigram is? Is it good or bad?”

Lai Qing Hua sighed lightly and lamented, “Perhaps I am not good enough, I see this matter like flowers in the mist and the moon in the water.”

Chapter 3846

Hearing this, Fei Jianzhong couldn't help but mutter, “I asked you to tell my fortune, what kind of thing is it for you to give me two whole lines of lyrics”

“Foolishness!” Lai Qing Hua bellowed and asked him with a raised eyebrow, “It's just two idioms, how come after being written into a song, it becomes a lyric when I say it again?”

Fei Jianzhong hurriedly said, “Brother Lai! That's not what I meant! What I meant was, could you please take the trouble to explain it to me more clearly.”

Lai Qing Hua shook his head helplessly and said, “The literal meaning is already very clear, it is just that I cannot really see or understand it, and the internal causes of this matter are complex, the external causes are too many, and the variables are so great that the form may be changing every minute and every second, which is far beyond my ability.”

Hearing this, Fei Jianzhong could not help but rub his temples and sighed, “If you can't even see through it, old brother, then I may be even more unable to understand it.”

Saying that, he looked out of the window and sighed softly, “Hey, it's really been years since I've been back in a flash”

Lai Qing Hua glanced out the window and asked him, “Jianzhong, your ancestors were from Huizhou, right?”

“Yes.” Fei Jianzhong nodded and said, “A native Huizhou man.”

Lai Qinghua sighed, “Ancestors were Huizhou merchants, no wonder you have been so successful in business in your life.”

After saying that, Lai Qing Hua looked at him and spoke, “Jianzhong, you and I are not young, let me ask you a question, don't feel abrupt.”

Fei Jianzhong busily said, “Brother Lai, please ask.”

Lai nodded slightly and asked, “Have you ever considered what to do with your affairs after death? Should you rest in America for a long time or return to your roots?”

Fei Jianzhong smiled sarcastically and sighed, “I have been thinking about this matter since 20 to 30 years ago, but I have not come up with a result even now.”

He said, “My parents died early, and they were buried with their ancestors in their ancestral grave in Huizhou.”

I can't remember what my parents looked like, so if I return to my roots in the future, I'm afraid I'll be a bit uncomfortable over there, and if I return to my roots, it will be a problem for my children and grandchildren to pay their respects. If there is really a soul after death, I would prefer to be closer to my children and grandchildren, so that I can continue to be with them."

Lai Qing Hua smiled faintly and said seriously, "Jian Zhong, don't overestimate the extent to which you are needed by your children and grandchildren when you are older, sometimes it is just wishful thinking on the part of us old bones."

After saying this, Lai Qing Hua smiled to himself and said lightly, "Some days I feel as if I am still needed by many people, but in reality, I am just a burden to society."

Fei Jianzhong laughed, "I am different from you on this point, you Lai family members saw through the fate of heaven early on, so you are instead somewhat thin-skinned towards your bloodline relatives, while I have taught my children since they were young that bloodline is more important than everything in many cases, including their own lives."

"Let's hope so!" Lai Qing Hua smiled noncommittally and did not comment too much more.

Fei Jianzhong also seemed to have a lot of emotions in his heart at this point, and after sighing, he leaned back on the comfortable sofa seat and looked out of the window without saying a word.

Ninety minutes later, the Boeing 747 in which Fei Jianzhong was travelling finally landed at Jinling Airport.

The moment the plane landed, the normal impact between the landing gear and the ground caused Fei's heart to pound wildly for a while, and the health care doctor hurriedly helped him with all kinds of relief before he felt a little more comfortable.

Chapter 3847

In his heart, Fei knew very well that his body had reached its final stage. If he could not get the Spring Return Pill on his trip to Jinling, he might not be able to leave Jinling alive in this condition.

Therefore, it was a matter of victory or defeat.

He looked out of the window and prayed in his heart that he would get what he wanted this time.

Once the plane landed, it was guided by a ground guidance vehicle that taxied the plane to a hangar that had been rented by Richard Chen.

Once the plane was parked, the hatch was opened.

One of Richard Chan's men took the lift escalator directly to the door of the aircraft.

As the cabin door was opened by the attendant, Chen Zekai's man, standing directly at the door of the cabin, asked coldly, "Is this the plane that Fei Jianzhong is travelling on?"

One of the attendants said with some annoyance, "Hey, watch the way you talk, our master's name is not something you can call him by!"

Richard Chen's man said disdainfully, "What master's name, your master is not my master either, I only recognise the name of the person who has signed up here, you'd better go and tell Fei Jianzhong to bring our electronic invitation letter and his identity document out to be verified by our staff!"

The accompanying officer did not expect the young man to speak so rudely, so he questioned in a cold voice, "Kid, what kind of attitude are you talking with? Do you know who you are talking to?"

Chen Zekai's man sneered, "I don't know who I'm talking to, and I'm too lazy to know, all I know is that if you refuse to obey the arrangement, or if you are too slow in efficiency, I will report it directly to my leader, and if your master's participation is disqualified then, don't blame me for not reminding you beforehand!"

When Fei Jianzhong's entourage heard these words, he was immediately scared to the point of breaking out in a cold sweat.

He really didn't expect that even a small staff member could be so tough, and as the matter was so important and completely beyond his control, he could only say honestly, "This little brother, don't be angry, I didn't think twice about what I said just now, don't be so mean to me!"

At this time, Fei Jianzhong also came to the cabin door with the help of two health care doctors, he looked at the young staff member and said with an apologetic face, "Sorry, little brother, this butler of mine has a bit of a rotten temper, don't take it personally with him."

Richard Chan's man looked at Fei Jianzhong and asked, "Which one are you?"

Fei Jianzhong busily said, "My surname is Fei, my full name is Fei Jianzhong."

Richard Chan's men nodded and said with a blank face, "From now on, you will obey our arrangements and management in everything! Have your captain roll out of the hangar in ten minutes and take off to transfer to Penniu Airport in the next city, there is no more parking space here and you need to give up the hangar in ten minutes, I still have to receive the next attendee here."

Fei Jianzhong hurriedly said respectfully, "Don't worry little brother, I'll arrange for them to take off early and give up the hangar in a hurry."

At this moment, Fei Jianzhong's entourage had a somewhat embarrassed expression as he hurriedly said, "We still have two bulletproof cars in this modified belly cargo hold, unloading them may be troublesome, can you give us an extra half hour of grace?"

Richard Chen's man said coldly, "We have a unified fleet to pick up and drop off, you don't need to prepare any vehicles."

After saying that, he pointed to the corner of the hangar, a few suggested plastic stools as well as a temporary area built up by a table, and spoke to Fei Jianzhong, "Fei Jianzhong, from now on, your internal code name is 035, please bring your identity documents and report to the staff over there!"

Chapter 3848

When people do business, they are all about being at home.

As the saying goes, the customer is God.

When you open a business, you have to do everything you can to make your customers comfortable.

Only in this way can we ensure that business will flourish.

However, Ye Chen did not like to play this game.

He was the only one in the world to sell the Spring Return Pill, so no matter how good or bad his attitude was, these rich people were still rushing to him.

Since this was the case, Ye Chen naturally did not want to give them a good face.

This group of top-notch tycoons were usually spoiled by the bottomless kneeling around them, so even if these service staff served them with all their heart, they would never make them feel amazing.

Instead of doing this, it is better to do the opposite, not only not to kneel to them, but also to step on them.

To let this group of top tycoons, who usually stand tall, experience the feeling of being dominated and yelled at by others once, instead, it would make a deep impression on them.

Therefore, although these staff members, trained by Richard Chen, were inwardly vain about these tycoons who had rushed to Jinling in billions of RMB, their faces did not give them the slightest bit of face.

If they were rude, they were rude, and if they should be reprimanded, they were reprimanded.

Fei Jianzhong also did not expect that he had come all the way to attend this auction for the Spring Return Pill, but before he could see the Spring Return Pill, he had first gained an internal code name of 035.

However, he did not dare to be the least bit displeased and could only say with a smile, "Little brother, you have not informed me of the exact itinerary for the auction, may I ask what the next specific arrangements are?"

The staff member said impatiently, "Didn't I tell you earlier? All you have to do is go over and report to our staff and obey our staff's arrangements, you don't need to ask about anything else!"

No one had dared to talk to him like that since Fei Jianzhong turned forty, and at this moment, being treated like this, he was annoyed in his heart.

But he also knew that if he was begging for help on someone else's turf, he had to learn to bow down, so he could only nod and say, "Fine, fine, then I'll go and report to work."

At this time, Fei Jianzhong's personal bodyguard, Yuan Zixu, accompanied Lai Qinghua as he stepped off the plane.

Seeing that the staff treated Fei Jianzhong with some slackness, Yuan Zixu said in a cold voice, "Little brother, Mr. Fei is already over 90 years old, even if you don't look at his social status, just as a junior, you should still give him enough respect!"

The staff member frowned and spoke, "I have been ordered to explain to all those who come to Jinling to attend the auction, the specific procedures for attending the auction, and our General Manager Chen has also specially explained to me that no matter how big the other party is, they should all be treated equally and do not need to look at anyone's face, you don't pay me, so why are you teaching me to do things here?"

Yuan Zixu did not expect that a young man would dare to talk to him like that, and was about to get angry when Lai Qing Hua patted him on the shoulder and said with a smile, "Zixu, this young man is also following orders, so there is no need for you to get angry."

When Yuan Zixu saw that Lai Qing Hua had come out to speak, he had no choice but to respectfully say, "I am sorry, Mr. Lai, it was Yuan's lack of composure that made you look at me funny."

Lai Qing Hua waved his hand gently and smiled without saying anything.

The staff member looked at Lai Qinghua and asked him, "Are you also here for the auction?"

Lai Qinghua nodded his head and smiled, saying, "That's right."

The staff member picked up the roster and asked, "What is your name? Let me check."

Lai Qing Hua smiled slightly and said, "My surname is Lai, my full name is Lai Qing Hua."

As soon as the staff member heard the three words Lai Qing Hua, his originally somewhat condescending attitude immediately became respectful.

He hurriedly bowed and said offhandedly, "Greetings, Mr. Lai! Our President Chen has already explained that you, as one of our VIPs, are not required to register here, so later on you will be asked to get on the car first, and our convoy will give you priority to the hotel, where there are special service staff to handle the relevant check-in procedures for you."

Chapter 3849

Lai Qinghua did not expect that this arrogant young man would be so humble in his attitude towards himself, and immediately realised that this must have been explained by Ye Chen in advance, so she could not help but feel a little more grateful to Ye Chen in her heart.

Although Ye Chen was much younger than her, in his opinion, from the point of view of his fate, Ye Chen was the supreme being, and although he was already over a hundred years old, it was only right for him to bow and curtsy when he saw Ye Chen.

However, he didn't expect that Ye Chen would still make it a point to ask others to take care of his old bones, so he was somewhat flattered in his heart.

He then pointed at Fei Jianzhong and said to the staff member, "Little brother, this is my friend, I would like to go to the hotel with him after he has completed the check-in procedures, I wonder if it is okay?"

The staff member was busy saying, "Mr. Lai, you are a VIP, and VIPs and other bidders attending the auction don't live in the same building, so you don't have to wait for him to join you."

Lai Qing Hua laughed and said, "It's not in the way, the two of us are good friends, even if we don't live together, I'll wait for him to go together."

“Good.” The staff hurriedly said, “Mr. Lai, please move to the car first and wait, he still has quite a lot of formalities to do on his side, and he still has to collect his clothes afterwards.”

Fei Jianzhong, who was at the side, asked in surprise, “Collecting clothes? What clothes?”

The staff member’s face immediately returned to cold as he said, “Mr. Chen has ordered uniform clothes for all of you bidders. After the registration is completed later, you will be issued two sets of custom-made clothing, and for the next few days, until the end of the auction, you must all wear the uniform clothing we have provided.”

Fei Jianzhong was depressed, but he did not dare to make any comments, so he could only sigh resentfully and, with the help of his butler, went to the registration reception point to check in.

The hardware at the reception desk was really poor.

Apart from a desk, there were only two square plastic stools placed in front of it.

In contrast, the staff behind the desk were sitting on the kind of office chairs with backrests, which were not upscale, but were still much better than the two plastic stools in front of them.

Fei Jianxin was a bit annoyed that he, a trillionaire, had to sit on a plastic stool that cost more than ten dollars a piece, and honestly handed over his pa*sport to the young men and waited for them to register.

One of the young men, holding Fei Jianzhong’s pa*sport, compared Fei Jianzhong’s face and repeatedly checked it several times, fearing that there might be a discrepancy between the person and the evidence.

After checking and confirming that it was him, one of the young men said, “035, your accommodation in Jinling this time will be arranged by us, but you will have to bear the cost of the room, the specific room type and the corresponding price will need to be introduced to you by the special staff after you arrive at the hotel, do you understand?”

Fei Jianzhong felt a taste of being about to go to prison, and nodded helplessly and gently, saying, “Yes, I understand.”

Immediately afterwards, the staff member took out two brand new tracksuit sets, each with the three Arabic numbers “035” printed on the plastic bag they were packed in.

He pushed these two sets of sportswear in front of Fei Jianzhong and said, “These are your clothes, two sets in total, the hotel will provide you with a clothing cleaning service once a day, two sets of clothes are enough for your daily replacement, but there is an extra charge for the cleaning service.”

Fei Jianzhong sighed and nodded, “I understand.”

The staff member glanced at the butler beside Fei Jianzhong as well as Yuan Zixu and spoke, “Each participant of the auction, from the day of check-in until the end of the auction, only one person is allowed to accompany you, and no one can be changed in between, so you have to think clearly in advance about who exactly you are bringing to check-in, and once you have decided, you can directly take him with you in the car to leave later on, while the others had better. The rest of you had better transfer to Penniu Airport with the plane, or leave the airport on your own and solve the accommodation problem on your own.”

Fei Jianzhong did not expect the other party to be so restrictive and demanding, so he could only look at Yuan Zixu helplessly and said, “Master Yuan, it will be hard for you to come with me in these few days!”

Yuan Zixu hurriedly bowed his hand and said, “You are welcome, Master Fei, this is my duty!”

Chapter 3850

When Fei Jianzhong got into the Red Flag car prepared by Chen Zekai and set off for downtown Jinling, he was in a sullen mood and sat in the back row on the left seat without saying a word.

On his right hand side was Lai Qing Hua, who was already over 100 years old.

Seeing that Fei Jianzhong was in a bad mood, Lai Qinghua smiled and asked him, “Jianzhong, I see that you don’t seem to be very happy.”

“I can’t be happy” Fei Jianzhong said resentfully, “I’m not going to lie to you brother Lai, I’ve been irritable since I got off the plane!”

Lai Qing Hua smiled slightly and reminded, “Jianzhong, as the saying goes, you should try to be calm if you are here.”

Fei Jianzhong nodded reluctantly, and then couldn’t help but feel around the car here and there, his face full of disgust that couldn’t be concealed.

Lai Qinghua could see that he was definitely not quite used to this kind of c-cla*s car of several hundred thousand dollars, after all, the price of this whole car might not even be comparable to a seat in Fei Jianzhong’s usual travel car.

So he smiled and said to Fei Jianzhong, “Jianzhong, don’t underestimate this car, it’s a red flag.”

Fei Jianzhong said with a smile on his face, “I know it’s a red flag, but this is the first time I’ve ever sat in one.”

Lai Qinghua said seriously, “Red Flag is the eldest son of the Republic, the founder of China’s automobile industry, and has been the leader’s car for decades, so it means a lot to the Chinese people.

Fei Jianzhong then said, “In that case, the organisers of this auction should be quite patriotic.”

“Yes.” Lai Qing Hua nodded and said, “One has to respect every patriotic person, for he will not stand in the wrong position before the great right and wrong.”

Fei Jianzhong did not speak, his brow slightly knitted in thought.

By the time the motorcade arrived at Buckingham Palace, the entire Buckingham Palace Hotel was under martial law.

Apart from the Buckingham Palace’s own motorcade, no one else was allowed to enter or leave.

However, the lobby of the hotel was bustling with people.

One by one, the bidders who had been sent over were checking in.

The only thing that broke their hearts was that the price of accommodation here was extremely expensive, and for a total of three nights, even the most ordinary standard room cost more than a million.

Everyone knew that this was a deliberate opportunity for the organisers to rip them off. To these people, money was not important, but to be knocked around like this was psychologically unacceptable.

When Fei Jianzhong saw on the fake target that the presidential suite cost $6 million for a three-day stay, he couldn't help but curse in his heart.

However, he resisted the urge to explode and said to the receptionist who checked in, "I want the presidential suite."

The other party immediately replied, "Sorry, the presidential suite has already been booked by number 016, you should look at other room types."

Fei Jianzhong didn't know who number 016 really was, but since the room was already gone, he had no choice but to settle for the second best and take a luxury suite at a price of two million dollars.

In contrast, Lai Qing Hua was treated much better, as he was directly placed into the Executive Deluxe Suite in the Executive Building as a VIP, which was the second most expensive room type in the entire Buckingham Palace after the Presidential Suite, and it was still completely free of charge.

Fei Jianzhong checked in and the first thing he did after arriving at his room was to immediately call Fei Kexin.

As soon as the call came through, Fei Ke Xin asked on the other end of the line, "Grandpa, have you finished checking in yet?"

Fei Jianzhong gave a muffled sound and said, "It's done, you guessed right, they have really arranged for all the bidders to go to Buckingham Palace, I think this is definitely the venue for the auction."

Fei Ke Xin said, "Grandpa, I'm in a special situation, so I won't be meeting with you for the next two days, but I'll continue to think of ways to continue to mediate with everyone of the Spring Return Pill outside."

Fei Jianzhong asked, "How is it going now?"

Fei Ke Xin said truthfully, "I dare not say I am absolutely sure, but at least there has been a certain breakthrough, the other party wants to invite me to dinner after the auction, if you fail to win the Spring Return Pill at the auction, I will take you to meet him then."

"Good." Fei Jianzhong sighed in relief and exclaimed, "Ke Xin, you've really worked hard this time! You've been running back and forth for so long over this matter."

Fei Kexin was busy saying, "Grandpa, this is all what I should do."

Fei Jianzhong sighed and said, "I hope this auction will go smoothly for the Spring Return Pill, so that when the auction is over, you can return to New York with me."

Fei Ke Xin smiled and said, "Grandpa, I'm sure you'll be able to win the auction."
