

Ye Chen 3851

Chapter 3851

Just as a large number of top tycoons continued to check into Buckingham Palace, Ye Chen was dragged by Xiao Churan and arrived at the busiest shopping centre in Jinling.

Since she had received an invitation to the master class at the Rhode Island School of Design, she had always felt, in her heart, that she owed a huge favour to Kerri Vest.

As there was not much going on at the office today, Xiao Churan dragged Ye Chen out on the street with her, intending to pick out a gift for Kerri West.

Ye Chen asked Xiao Churan, "Honey, have you thought of something to give her?"

Xiao Churan nodded her head repeatedly and said, "I have already thought about it, I plan to give her a Hermes handbag, I have seen her interview before and it is said that she personally likes Hermes very much and has a hobby of collecting Hermes bags, since this is the case, then I might as well throw my hat in the ring and give her one, it will also show my sincerity."

Ye Chen smiled, "In that case, then when you get to the shop later, choose a more expensive bag, as for the money, you don't have to worry at all, hubby has plenty here."

Xiao Churan said, "No, honey, I've saved up a lot of money recently, let me do it myself, otherwise, I'll feel bad."

Ye Chen didn't insist too much and smiled, "Then you should do what you can later, don't buy too expensive gifts."

Xiao Churan smiled sweetly and said, "I have already looked on the official website, there is a bag called Bo Jin series, nowadays it sells best, the price is not too expensive, if you don't choose very rare materials and workmanship, it is probably about 100,000."

Ye Chen nodded slightly and said, "A bag at this price point would be good enough."

The two then arrived at the entrance of Hermes' shop, where a long queue of several dozen people was already outside the door.

According to the staff outside the door, this was because there were too many customers inside the shop, and since they had a one-to-one sales service in the shop, all the sales were now taking customers, so the shop just started to limit the flow.

The two men waited outside the door for half an hour in order to queue up to enter the shop.

Half an hour later, the security guard outside the door said to Ye Chen and Xiao Churan who were at the front of the queue, "Please come inside, our guide will come to serve you right away."

As he was saying that, a young man with a warm smile on his face walked towards the two of them with quick steps.

When they met, the man introduced himself, "Good afternoon, my name is Vivian, I'm your guide, what would you like to see?"

Xiao Churan said without thinking, "Hello, I want to buy a 30cm Birkin bag, I wonder if it's in stock?"

The shop assistant said with a smile, "Haha, lady is very discerning, our Birkin series has always been a super best seller, there are a lot of registered users, but the number of arrivals per issue is very few and far between, so if you want to get the bag as soon as possible, you may have to buy more things in our shop and upgrade your membership level, then the better your chances of winning will be!"

Xiao Churan heard this and asked with a surprised face, "Isn't it directly at the counter price of the bag?"

The guide put away her smile all of a sudden and said in a tone with a bit of sarcasm: "The lady should be shopping at Hermes for the first time, right? In our shop, there is no bag that is sold at the counter price, more or less, you have to purchase some other accessories, otherwise, it would be impossible to sell it to you."

Xiao Churan then came back to her senses and opened her mouth to ask, "Need to buy some other accessories? This is what the internet says about matching goods, right?"

The guide said rightfully, "Yes, that's the rule now if you want to buy a Hermes bag, no matter which country you're in."

Xiao Churan asked tentatively, "Then how much do I need to match the goods if I want to buy a Birkin 30?"

The guide said contemptuously, "The 30cm Birkin bag is always super popular, you are not guaranteed to get the bag even if you match the goods, of course, the more you match the goods, the higher the priority, the higher the probability of getting the bag, whether you can get the bag depends on whether your rank and priority can rush to the front."

Ye Chen didn't really like this kind of hidden set up by the guide, thinking back to the last time he bought Hermes for his wife as well as his old man, that guide had bluntly said a specific number of 500,000 for the allotment, although Ye Chen was very upset with this kind of allotment, he still preferred to be more direct compared to it.

So, he opened his mouth and said to that guide, "Don't beat around the bush, just tell me straight away, how much do I need to allocate to buy a Birkin 30?"

Chapter 3852

Seeing that Ye Chen came up and asked directly for the amount of goods allocated, the salesman smiled slightly contemptuously and said, "Sir, I have just said that this bag is too much in demand, so you must first accumulate the spending limit in our shop, and when the spending limit exceeds the other customers waiting in line for the bag, we will naturally give this bag to you."

Ye Chen grunted and said, "What if I've allocated hundreds of thousands of dollars and you still tell me there's no such bag? Wouldn't I be a big ingrate then?"

The salesman's expression was tense for a moment, but he quickly returned to his normal self and said with a girlish smile, "Sir, if you have matched the goods and still can't buy the bag, then the only possibility is that someone has matched more goods than you."

Ye Chen laughed: "This is a completely secret operation, whether someone has allocated more goods than me, it's entirely up to you to say, and you won't show me any data, how can I trust you?"

Seeing Ye Chen's aggressiveness, the salesman thought that Ye Chen was probably just running out of money to have fun, so he sneered and spoke, "Sorry sir, this is our rule, no matter how much you allocate, you have to follow the rules we set, so if you want to buy this bag, you have to accumulate a certain amount of spending first, otherwise, please look at other brands that don't require a match."

Most luxury brands are sold by people who are the best of the best.

Not only do they have great observation skills, but they also understand the psychology of their customers very well.

More importantly, many of them did not have the basic decency that a salesman should have.

For example, this Birkin 30 handbag that Xiao Churan wanted to buy, the allotment quotes across the country ranged from a hundred thousand to several hundred thousand.

The reason why there is such a wide range is because some sales people are always looking to maximize their profits when they see others.

If it is a regular customer who is more familiar with them and who has been pleasing them, giving them gifts and rebates, only then will they give a definite amount for the allotment, and as long as the customer is allotted enough goods for this amount, they will be able to sell him a bag that he wants.

However, once they meet unfamiliar customers, many sales will be based on the principle of pit one is one, treating each other as monkeys.

Some time ago, in a famous top luxury shopping mall boutique, there was a consumer once pulling a banner to protest because he was fooled by the sales with more than 200,000 yuan of goods, the results of the purchase order, the sales told him that he could not give the bag.

To put it bluntly, he had been played as a monkey by the sales.

The reason why sales do this is because not all products in luxury shops are popular and sought after.

For example, this brand's bags are very popular and have a very high price premium, but their other accessories are really ugly and expensive.

A sarong costs several thousand dollars, a belt even tens of thousands of dollars, and sometimes a colourful jacket can go for 70,000, 80,000 or even over 100,000 dollars.

When such goods are placed in the shop, it is almost difficult to sell them and they are absolute stalwarts.

So the shop has to rely on this kind of allocation in order to sell these lagging items along with them.

And for sales, the commission for selling hot items is very low, if not non-existent.

But the commission for selling lagging items is very high, which is why they try their best to get consumers to allocate more goods, even going so far as to do some cheating.

Although Xiao Churan didn't know much about these luxury brands' schemes, she had figured out the flavour of it at the moment and felt that the sales were probably not in good faith, so she said to Ye Chen, "Honey, why don't we take a look at another shop?"

Ye Chen shook his head and laughed, "You also know that people like this brand, if you give them other brands, they may not like them at all, in that case, it would be better not to give them."

Saying that, Ye Chen patted the back of her hand and said with a smile, "Don't worry, leave it to your husband."

Then, Ye Chen looked at the salesman and smiled faintly, "Alright, seeing as your boss is going to be my customer soon, I should also take care of his business."

Chapter 3853

The boss of theirs that Ye Chen was referring to was Bernard Elnor, who had just taken the brand into his pocket.

This godfather of luxury goods was now the owner of more than half of the world's luxury brands and was worth more than a trillion RMB.

Interestingly, this old man had just arrived in Jinling today as well, and it was he who had spent a fortune to take down the presidential suite at Buckingham Palace.

However, how could Sales have imagined that their boss, as Ye Chen said, would be the biggest bigwig above their brand.

He thought that the boss Ye Chen was talking about was their shop manager.

As soon as he heard Ye Chen's words, he guessed that Ye Chen must be bluffing. Before, there were many people who came to the shop to buy things and said that they knew their shop manager or their regional manager at every turn, in order to allocate less goods, but the vast majority of people who said such things were liars.

So, he said with a bit of disdain: "Sorry, our shop manager said a long time ago that it is no good for anyone to mention his name unless he comes out to receive you personally.

After hearing this, Ye Chen was dumbfounded and laughed.

It seemed that this low segment people, even if they dressed up as human beings, could still only hang around in the low segment.

This salesman actually thought that the "boss" he was talking about was their shop manager, so it was clear that this person had a pathetically small frame of mind.

So Ye Chen waved his hand and said with a smile, "No need, no need, I am not talking about your shop manager."

Saying that, Ye Chen didn't bother to say more, so he waved his hand and casually said, "Come on, first match me with one million goods, pick up the batch that you can't sell in your shop and match it for me!"

As soon as the salesman heard Ye Chen say that he wanted to match one million goods, he was stunned and subconsciously asked, "Sir, you're not deliberately making fun of me, are you?"

In fact, the quoted price for this bag's allotment was just around two hundred thousand.

As long as one didn't encounter a particularly pitiful sale, even a raw customer who had never bought anything in this shop before could get one as long as it could be matched for two hundred thousand.

But the moment Ye Chen came up and said he wanted to match a million, this was indeed too much beyond the quoted price by far.

In other words, even if this gang of sales wanted to screw people, they wouldn't dare to screw them up to such a high amount.

Seeing that he was dumbfounded, Ye Chen said with a smile, "I don't have that spare time to bring my wife and come here to make fun of you, I can allocate enough goods for one million, but I only have one request, you take out the bag I want and settle it together with the one million goods."

The salesman was immediately a little excited and said in a hurry, "Then wait a moment, I'll go and prepare!"

After saying that, he waved his orchid fingers and ran excitedly into the back of the warehouse.

Xiao Churan spoke up at this time: "Husband, you're crazy, buying a bag that costs over a hundred thousand dollars with a million dollars of goods This This is a bit too expensive"

Ye Chen smiled mysteriously and spoke, "Honey, I'm not crazy, I just want to take advantage of this good opportunity to make money, don't worry, every penny I spend on matching goods today is an investment, I'll be able to make it all back with interest by tonight."

Xiao Churan was puzzled, confused as to what exactly Ye Chen meant when he said that he could make it all back with interest.

However, she knew Ye Chen's routine very well, and since Ye Chen had said so, it must not be an empty talk.

So, she couldn't help but ask Ye Chen, "Honey, do you think that sales, that wouldn't be deliberately screwing us over in this matter, right?"

Ye Chen skimmed his lips and laughed: "A big old man, girlish is not to mention, and his English name is Vivian, how bold do you think this kind of goods can be?"

Chapter 3854

Xiao Churan couldn't help but purse her lips and snicker when she heard this.

She also knew that there were quite a few very feminine men in the fashion world, and that this had become more and more common in recent years, so she didn't think there was anything unusual about it.

However, it was quite rare for a man to give himself a feminine English name.

At that moment, the male salesman, whose name was Vivian, was in the warehouse looking for old stock that had been backlogged for years and had not been sold.

Some, even from when this shop opened seven or eight years ago, had not been able to sell until now.

He soon collected all this stock into three large boxes and strained to carry these three boxes out one after another.

He placed these three large boxes neatly in front of Ye Chen, and his attitude took on a bit of respect as he said with a smile, "Sir, take a look, here is a total of over 996,000 goods, you don't need to match up to one million, these will be enough."

Ye Chen nodded with a smile and said with a laugh, "I didn't expect you to give me a discount of a few thousand, how can I be so kind?"

The salesman thought Ye Chen was saying the opposite and said awkwardly, "Sir, if you think these goods are too much, you can actually remove some of them again, how about I take off another 200,000 or so for you?"

Ye Chen hurriedly waved his hand, "Don't! Don't take it!"

As he said that, he casually looked through the goods inside and found that many of the bags were covered with thick dust, so he said with a smile, "I'm here to look for antiques today, so many good things, I definitely can't miss them, just wrap them all up for me, and bring me the bag I want, I'll pay the bill together."

The salesman hurriedly said, "I'm really sorry, just now I was only concerned with these things, the Burkinabe 30 is really unable to take it, you wait a moment, I'll go and get it for you!"

After saying that, he hurried back to the store room, touched out an orange square cardboard box, then in front of Ye Chen and Xiao Churan, opened that cardboard box carefully, then took out a handbag in the dust bag, handed it to Ye Chen and said attentively: "Sir, take a look, this is the most popular grey this year, it is the most sought-after colour in this series, if you really buy that box If you really buy that box of matching goods together, this bag will be yours."

Ye Chen nodded and asked Xiao Churan, "Wife, is this one okay?"

Xiao Churan was still a bit unsure and asked Ye Chen: "Honey, is that you just said true?"

Ye Chen knew that Xiao Churan was asking about his own claim that he could make money by dispensing the goods, so he smiled with a serious face and said, "Don't worry, wife, I am sure of this matter."

After saying that, he asked Xiao Churan once more, "Honey, do you still find this bag satisfactory?"

Xiao Churan nodded gently and said, "The bag is quite good"

Ye Chen nodded and interrupted her, saying, "It's enough that the bag is quite good, you don't have to worry about the rest."

After saying that, he immediately said to that sales, "Come on, check out for me together!"

The salesman was a little too excited all of a sudden, and his hands were trembling a bit for a moment.

He really didn't expect that he had met a superb customer today.

In the past, those rich people, although they threw away a lot of money when they bought things, were all very shrewd as well.

When they were asked to allocate goods, they would also try to keep the amount of goods allocated as low as possible.

They also had certain requirements for the goods they were allowed to allocate, and wanted goods that were still in good circulation.

These are old goods that are still in good circulation, and no one would want to buy them.

Otherwise, they would not have been left unused for years.

Chapter 3855

The longer the goods have been unused in this shop, the higher the percentage of commission.

So Ye Chen had bought nearly a million stagnant goods from him today, and when he was paid next month, he would be able to get a personal commission of up to 300,000.

To be able to earn 300,000 in just a few minutes was simply unimaginable to him.

So, he immediately put on an extremely flattering face and said respectfully, "Sir, since we have a lot of goods, we need to go to the front desk to count them one by one, please take a seat here, I will get you two bottles of sparkling water first, you and the lady will wait for a while, when the count is finished, I will come with the POS machine and the list of goods to confirm your credit card."

Ye Chen laughed, "I've been in for so long, you finally have the form a salesman should have."

The salesman knew that Ye Chen was being sarcastic, but for the sake of money, this sarcasm was nothing to him.

So, he said with a smile, "Sir, I'm really sorry, I may have been a bit unfriendly just now, but don't worry, from now on you are the senior of our shop, you can add my WeChat later, in the future, if you need any style of bag, you can tell me in advance, I will help you find it! If you come to the shop, please also let me know in advance, I will reserve a parking space for you directly at the entrance, and you don't need to queue up like today when you enter the shop."

Ye Chen didn't bother to bother with him, smiled faintly and instructed, "Alright, hurry up and go and type out the order and come to me with the POS machine to swipe your card, I have a lot of things to do and my time is precious."

The male salesman nodded hastily and said respectfully, "Wait a moment, sir, I'll go and do it for you."

Ten minutes later, the salesman came over with the POS machine and a large list of goods at a trot.

When he came to Ye Chen's side, he knelt down on one knee and said very respectfully, "Sir, take a look, your allotment is a total of 996,520 yuan, this bag is 1688,888 yuan and 1165,408 yuan, you can confirm the details and the amount, and you can swipe your card if there is no problem."

Ye Chen said casually, "There is no need to confirm, just swipe the card."

After saying that, Ye Chen took out a bank card and handed it over.

"Okay!" The salesman was excited and took the bank card with both hands respectfully, and hurriedly entered the amount on the POS machine.

After swiping the card, Ye Chen entered his pa*sword, and then the POS machine zipped up and down, and a card voucher was printed.

Once this voucher was printed, it proved that the transaction had been successfully completed.

At this moment, the salesman was even more excited and red in the face, saying in an extremely flattering manner, "Sir, you are really the most generous and generous customer I have ever seen!"

"Yes." Ye Chen nodded and casually laughed, "To buy a bag of more than a hundred thousand dollars with almost a million dollars of goods, I guess I am the only one in the whole country who is such an ingrate."

In his heart, the salesman thought, "You are right such a big ingrate, I guess you are the only one in the world."

However, how could he dare to say such words out loud?

So he could only say with a smile: "Sir, I think a rich person with taste and pursuit like you, what you spend your money on is enjoyment and quality, you definitely won't take this little thing to heart, and don't worry, from now on, if you buy a bag from me, I will definitely get you the lowest allotment!"

Ye Chen blandly said, "All right, you don't need to pat me on the back here, wrap up all these goods for me and ask two people to put them in the car for me!"

Chapter 3856

Hearing Ye Chen's order, the salesman hurriedly said, "Yes sir, wait a moment, I'll call a few colleagues to help together!"

After saying that, he hurriedly opened up a few colleagues, each carrying a few huge bags, and followed Ye Chen and Xiao Churan away.

After putting everything into the back of the car, the salesman hastily asked Ye Chen, "Sir, please add me a WeChat, we can communicate on WeChat if we have anything in the future."

Ye Chen waved his hand, "No need, I won't come back to your shop in the future."

After saying that, he ignored the stunned salesman and said to Xiao Churan, "Wife, let's go."

Xiao Churan nodded gently and got into the pa*senger seat.

Ye Chen then started the car and directly left the mall.

After the car drove out, Xiao Churan couldn't help but ask Ye Chen, "Honey, you just said that all these things you bought from the distribution could make money, is that true?"

“Of course it’s true.” Ye Chen laughed, “When has hubby ever lied to you?”

After saying that, he asked Xiao Churan, “Wife, where are you going now? Are you going to the company or are you going to find that Kairi West?”

Xiao Churan thought about it and said, “I’ve picked out a gift for Kairi, but I haven’t thought about a gift for Miss Zhan. Miss Zhan seems to be a lady from a big family, I guess she can’t even look at luxury items like this, so I haven’t thought about what I should give her.”

Ye Chen said with a smile, “You don’t have to worry about this, didn’t I already say so? I’ll invite her to dinner after I’m done with my work in a few days, and I’ll find a way to return her favor.”

Xiao Churan said with a sad face, “I think, Miss Zhan has helped me so much, if we just treat her to a meal, I will feel sorry for myself.”

Ye Chen nodded and smiled, “Don’t worry wife, hubby has it in his heart, with hubby around, you don’t have to worry about this matter.”

“Okay” Xiao Churan nodded her head and said gratefully, “Thank you hubby, All these things are thanks to you”

Ye Chen laughed, “Isn’t this just the part that a husband should do?”

Saying that, Ye Chen added, “You should send the gift for Kelly West today first, and you don’t need to worry about Miss Zhan there.”

Xiao Churan asked, “Honey, then if I go and deliver the gift to Kairi now, Miss Zhan won’t be uncomfortable in her heart after seeing it, right?”

“No.” Ye Chen laughed, “You also said, she looks like a big lady from a big family, how would she care about this stuff, besides, she will be down to earth in her heart if you don’t give her anything, on the contrary if you give her something, he will be uncomfortable instead.”

Ye Chen was well aware of Fei Ke Xin’s human affection offensive, what she wanted was nothing more than to impress herself with all sorts of favours or make herself feel unable to rub it in.

If Xiao Churan really gave her a gift at this time, she was afraid that she would collapse on the spot, because that would mean that all her efforts were all in vain.

But if Xiao Churan only gave Kairi West a gift but not her, she would definitely know that Xiao Churan owed her this favour and Ye Chen was already planning to return it for her.

In fact, Ye Chen had to admit that Fei Kexin was indeed somewhat level headed.

He could see through this kind of yang scheme of constantly sending favours at a glance, but when it really came to this, he was really embarra*sed not to respond in any way.

Because, that would make his wife Xiao Churan feel indebted in his heart.

Therefore, Ye Chen already had a rough plan in mind, as long as Fei Ke Xin did not have any bad intentions towards his wife, and her grandfather Fei Jianzhong did not win the Spring Return Pill at the Spring Return Pill auction, then he would send her half a Blood Dissipation Heart Saving Pill.

Half a Blood Dispersing Heart Pill would at least allow her grandfather to live for another year or two.

This would not only return the favour for Xiao Churan, but would also allow Fei Jianzhong to live for two more years, and would enable him to fight more and more in the Spring Return Pill auction in the next two years.

Chapter 3857

Xiao Churan was a little confused by Ye Chen's words, but did not have any doubts out of her trust in him.

So, she then said to Ye Chen, "Honey, then why don't you send me to the Jinling International Hotel, where both Kairi and Miss Zhan live, and I'll give my gift to Kairi first."

"Good." Ye Chen nodded and smiled, "Send you to the Jinling International Hotel, and I'll go and take care of this batch of allotments."

After dropping off Xiao Churan, Ye Chen immediately drove to Buckingham Palace.

On the way to Buckingham Palace, Ye Chen called his old husband, Xiao Changkun, and just after he got through, Ye Chen asked him, "Dad, can you still contact that Zhang Ermao who specializes in selling antiques on the antique street?"

Xiao Changkun said resentfully, "Don't mention that Zhang Ermao, later on I received some good things and looked for him several times, but he always disappeared with me, and later even changed his mobile phone number, I heard that this grandson is still doing business in the antique street, but the whole world can find him, but I can't find him, it's really strange."

Ye Chen couldn't help but laugh dumbly and teased, "Then I guess Zhang Ermao is deliberately avoiding you."

Xiao Changkun asked in return, "Then why do you think he's avoiding me? I haven't provided him with goodies too often."

Ye Chen said to himself, "The pair of rags you bought, Zhang Ermao still had to pay a big price to collect them, one way or another, the little money Zhang Ermao earned by cheating, almost all of it went into your pocket."

But he did not say more, so he said with a smile: "I guess this Zhang Ermao a bit think not understand, I will find other people to inquire about it."

Xiao Changkun asked curiously, "Ye Chen, what are you looking for Zhang Ermao for?"

Ye Chen said casually, "Oh, a friend wanted to buy some antiques, so I thought of him."

Xiao Changkun was busy saying, "Zhang Ermao doesn't have anything good in his hands, why don't you ask your friend to go to Jiqing Hall and buy it, the stuff there is still of a higher grade."

"Okay." Ye Chen casually agreed and said, "Then I'll tell him to go, I'll hang up now ah dad."

After hanging up Xiao Changkun's phone, Ye Chen called Hong Wu again.

Once the call came through, he instructed, "Hong Wu, tell your little brother to go to the antique street and find a guy called Zhang Ermao for me, tell him I'm looking for him for something and ask him to bring all his counterfeit antiques to meet me at Buckingham Palace."

Hong Wu did not understand what Ye Chen's intention was, but he immediately agreed and spoke, "Yes, Master Ye, wait a moment, I'll have someone go and find him."

Hong Wu's men were present in all walks of life in Jinling, and they were present in all corners of the city, and in such a profitable market as the Antique Street, his men were even more involved.

Therefore, when Hong Wu made a phone call, the head of the Antique Street immediately went to the street and found Zhang Ermao, who was setting up a stall.

Zhang Ermao was not afraid of anyone in Jinling but Xiao Changkun, so when he saw the head of the antique street coming, not only was he not afraid, but he even went up to him and greeted him warmly, "Why is Brother Kui free to come to my stall?"

The man known as Brother Kui, whose full name is Dong Kui, is a subordinate of Ma Zhongliang, one of the Four Heavenly Kings of Hongwu.

His territory was the area around Antique Street, and small traders like Zhang Ermao, who liked to cheat people, had to rely on Dong Kui to cover them up on a regular basis so that they wouldn't be beaten up.

Dong Kui looked at Zhang Ermao and asked, "Zhang Ermao, let me ask you, do you know Master Ye Chen?"

Chapter 3858

"Master Ye?" Zhang Ermao's neck shrank, and the first image that came to his mind was when Ye Chen killed the Zhen Nan Double Furies in the rain.

So, he hurriedly asked, "Brother Kui, you know Grandmaster Ye?"

Dong Kui arched his hand and said, "Grandmaster Ye is a figure that my elder brother's elder brother, Master Hong Wu, respects very much, a small character like me, although I have been a god friend of Grandmaster Ye for a long time, I have not had the chance to get to know him."

When Zhang Ermao heard the words "God-friends for a long time", he couldn't hold back his laughter for a moment and let out a, "Pfft."

Seeing this, Dong Kui threw a slap at his head and cursed, "What the f*ck are you laughing at! Is there something wrong with me worshipping Master Ye?"

Zhang Ermao said, "Brother Kui, there is certainly nothing wrong with you worshipping Grandmaster Ye, the term "divine friendship" is not appropriate here, divine friendship applies to two people with similar status, position and style of dealing"

When Dong Kui heard this, he hurriedly said, "All right, all right, stop it, I didn't say anything other than that I worship Master Ye!"

He looked at Zhang Ermao and said, "But, Zhang Ermao, you're a good old boy! How can you even know Grandmaster Ye! Just now Master Ye instructed Master Wu to send someone to look for you, saying that he was looking for you for something!"

Zhang Ermao was surprised and asked, "Master Ye wants to see me? Brother Kui, you're not joking with me, are you?"

Dong Kui cursed and said, "I've got nothing better to do than to joke with you!"

With that, Dong Kui pointed to the pile of fake antiques on his stall and urged, "Hurry up and pack up all your things and bring them with you, I'll take you to see Master Ye!"

Zhang Ermao hurriedly said, "Okay, okay, Brother Kui, wait a moment, I'll pack up now!"

Soon, Zhang Ermao took the pile of fake antiques that he had been making a living out of and followed Dong Kui to Buckingham Palace without stopping.

The car had just arrived at the entrance of Buckingham Palace when it was stopped by an expert from the Ten Thousand Dragons Palace.

Hong Wu immediately went forward to communicate before Zhang Ermao was brought in.

Even though Ye Chen had personally said that he wanted to see Zhang Ermao for something, the soldiers of the Ten Thousand Dragons Palace still gave Zhang Ermao, as well as everything he was carrying, a very thorough security check to make sure that there was nothing wrong with him before letting Hong Wu take him in.

Zhang Ermao was usually just a small trader begging for food in the antique street, with little ability and little strength.

When he came across Dong Kui on the antique street, he had to nod and bow with a fawning face, and now when he saw Hong Wu, a big shot, he was so nervous that he couldn't even walk.

Seeing that he was always stumbling, Hong Wu couldn't help but urge him, "I say, old brother, why don't you hurry up?"

Zhang Ermao hurriedly ran a few steps faster and asked nervously, "Master Five, Master Five I am Zhang Ermao, I have admired you for a long time, but I have never had the chance to meet you"

Hong Wu waved his hand and said, "You know Master Ye, much more useful than knowing me, don't worry, after today I will say hello to Ma Zhongliang and ask his little brother to take care of you more in the antique street."

When Zhang Ermao heard this, he was thrilled beyond words, and he bowed and said, "Thank you so much, Master Wu!"

Hong Wu was busy saying, "Don't thank me, if you want to thank me, you have to thank Master Ye, I'm doing this entirely on Master Ye's behalf."

"Yes, yes, yes!" Zhang Ermao hurriedly said, "Thank you, Master Ye! Thank you too, Fifth Master!"

Chapter 3859

After saying that, he hurriedly asked, "Fifth Master, what does Master Ye want from me? I've been doing my job honestly lately, I haven't done any more deceptions"

Hong Wu urged, "Master Ye is looking for you for something good, just hurry up and follow me over there and you'll understand!"

Only then was Zhang Ermao relieved, his heart was not nervous anymore, even his walk was much lighter.

He followed Hong Wu to Chen Zekai's office, and as soon as he entered, he saw Ye Chen sitting on the sofa, so he immediately said in a flattering manner, "Master Ye, it's been a long time since I've seen you, Master Ye, how have you been?"

Ye Chen laughed, "Zhang Ermao, I heard from my father-in-law that he tried to find you several times but couldn't, I thought you were no longer in Jinling."

Zhang Ermao said with embarrassment and fear, "Master Ye, it's not that I'm deliberately avoiding your father-in-law, but your father-in-law is really not suitable for antiques. I think he would buy it without any doubt if he took a brush painting of the Olympic Fuwa and lied to him that it was a real painting of Tang Bohu"

That's why I'm deliberately avoiding him, in the hope that he can quit this business sooner"

Immediately after that, Zhang Ermao said with an admiring face, "I heard that your father-in-law is now the executive vice president of the calligraphy and painting association, don't you think that's much better than running to the antique street every day?"

Ye Chen laughed and nodded slightly, saying, "You can do that, Zhang Ermao, your ability to speak well has not diminished at all."

Zhang Ermao wiped his sweat and said modestly, "Master Ye, you're flattering me, compared to you, I'm just a clown who makes a living by scamming foreign tourists, I'm not even a fart"

Ye Chen waved his hand: "All right, you should not be presumptuous, there are three hundred and sixty trades and professions."

The first thing you need to do is to get a good idea of what's going on in the next few days.

Zhang Ermao said, "Master Ye, I heard some rumours earlier, but since I couldn't confirm them, I didn't take them too seriously, but after seeing you here today, I'm probably sure it's true."

Speaking of this, Zhang Ermao cautiously asked Ye Chen, "Master Ye, are you asking about the Spring Return Pill auction?"

"That's right." Ye Chen nodded and asked with a smile, "Do you also know about the Spring Return Pill?"

Zhang Ermao hurriedly arched his hand and said, "Grandmaster Ye! Back when the Song family's old man celebrated his birthday, I had heard about the miraculous Spring Return Pill, and later on, when the Song family's Miss Wanting celebrated her birthday, Li Tailai had also won a Spring Return Pill at the Song family's auction, and I had heard about it all.

Ye Chen smiled and said, "Since you know about the auction, then I won't hide it from you, later on, you and I will go and trick an old foreigner, we will play a double act together, how I play it, you will follow me, do you understand?"

Zhang Ermao asked, "Master Ye, do you have a script or something for me to read first?"

"No." Ye Chen waved his hand, "Once you're there, just watch my path and improvise."

Zhang Ermao said nervously, "Master Ye this this improvisation I'm afraid that if I don't play well, I'll spoil your big event!"

Ye Chen laughed: "Zhang Ermao, with your cleverness, this little matter is certainly not a problem, you just take out 70% of your strength when you cheat people in the antique street, this matter will be basically done!"

Chapter 3860

When Zhang Ermao heard this, his heart suddenly relaxed a lot.

He had no other skills, but his ability to improvise and speak out of turn was still very sophisticated.

After all, in their line of work, it was all about brains and mouths.

Sometimes, if you encounter a less intelligent tourist, you can use three or five times as much effort to get the money into your pocket.

But sometimes, if you meet a smarter tourist, Zhang Ermao's ability to fool them is usually enough to get the job done.

So, he immediately said to Ye Chen with confidence: "Master Ye, don't worry, I will definitely bring out my life's best skills Oh no I will definitely pull out all my skills to help you get this done!"

Ye Chen nodded and asked him, "You have brought all the things you were told to bring, right?"

Zhang Ermao hurriedly pointed to the large bag of things he had brought and said solicitously, "Don't worry, Master Ye, all the things I need to make a living are here."

Ye Chen stood up and said with a smile, "Fine, take all your things with you and come with me."

At this moment, Bernard Aylneau, who was in his seventies, was sitting on the sofa in the presidential suite of Buckingham Palace, sulking.

Although he had been the richest man in the world on the Forbes list, he was not exactly generous in person.

The cost of a three-day stay in the presidential suite at Buckingham Palace was $6 million, an act that was clearly a rip-off, and one that made Bernard Aylneau very angry.

You have to know that for a presidential suite of this level at Buckingham Palace in Jinling, the normal door price would not exceed 20,000 to 30,000 per day, and occasionally with a discount, the price would only be lower.

So the price of a room in these three days has almost doubled a hundredfold.

Bernard Elnor can responsibly say that it was definitely the most expensive presidential suite in the world, bar none.

Precisely because he had been ripped off for too much money, this old man sat on the sofa and kept complaining to his butler: "Just this kind of small place, the presidential suite of a five-star hotel, how dare it be sold at such a high price, the top presidential suite of the seven-star sailboat hotel in Dubai is less than a tenth of his price, and the presidential suite there is so much better than here, both in terms of size and decoration"

The butler said with a helpless face, "Sir, don't you understand their ways? It's just to take advantage of everyone's enthusiasm for this rejuvenating elixir to desperately make a fortune! Saying that prices are so expensive that they charge 10,000 euros for a laundry, it's considered that the bandits and robbers of the Middle Ages didn't hit as hard as they do."

Bernard Elnor nodded gently and said with an unhappy face, "For the sake of the rejuvenation pills, we will have to put up with it for a while."

The butler asked, "Sir, this Spring Return Pill, is it really that miraculous?"

"Of course." Bernard Elnor said seriously, "The Nordic royal family has made public the entire medical history of the old queen in high society. But she only took a very small portion of the rejuvenating elixir, and the toxins in her body were completely removed and her body functions were very significantly improved, this is very remarkable!"

Bernard Elnor said with a fascinated look on his face, "A small portion of the rejuvenating elixir has such a powerful effect, I can't imagine what kind of miraculous effect a whole rejuvenating elixir would bring"

The butler nodded gently and said, "Since the Nordic royal family has already made public the history of the old Queen's illness, I am afraid that the entire European high society is very eager for the rejuvenation elixir, and I am afraid that the auction the day after tomorrow will be extremely competitive."
