

Ye Chen 3871

Chapter 3871

If I sell such a pair, I usually don't leave the stall for two months, mainly because I am afraid of people coming to me."

Ye Chen asked him, "If people come to you, how do you usually deal with them?"

Zhang Ermao laughed and explained, "If I find them, they will definitely come to return the money, I generally just see people and I will fight them to the end if I can afford it.

Ye Chen asked again, "What if you meet someone you can't afford?"

Zhang Ermao scratched his head and laughed, "If I meet someone I can't afford, my first choice is usually to run away, if I can get away, everything will be fine, if I can't, I will honestly pay for it."

Ye Chen nodded and laughed: "So, you are not able to pocket every single order, how much money can you earn in a year?"

Zhang Ermao did the math in his mind and said with a smile, "If all circumstances are taken into account, I can usually get 400,000 to 500,000 a year."

Ye Chen nodded and said, "How about this Zhang Ermao, give you a base salary of 800,000 a year, from now on you don't go to the antique shop to cheat people, change your mind and follow Hong Wu from now on, do everything he tells you."

When Zhang Ermao heard this, he was stunned and dumbfounded.

He had never dreamed that Ye Chen would let him stay and work by Master Hong Wu's side.

Shocked, he could not help but open his mouth and ask, "Master Ye ..... I ..... am just a nobody, why would you think of asking me to work under Master Wu?"

Ye Chen smiled, "Hong Wu has more than enough bravery, but his resourcefulness is still lacking, if he can have someone like you by his side to be his dog-headed military advisor, it will definitely be a good thing for him."

Ye Chen did appreciate certain strengths in Zhang Ermao, although this guy came from a lowly background, he could definitely be considered to be well-informed and knowledgeable, and most importantly, he had a quick reaction time, and his ability to adapt to the situation was much better than the average person.

It was indeed a bit of a waste if such a person was placed in the antique street and made hundreds of thousands of dollars a year by cheating and cheating.

He then looked at Zhang Ermao and opened his mouth to ask, "Do you want to think about it? Give me a clear answer after you've considered it."

"No need to think about it!" Zhang Ermao hurriedly said, "Master Ye, I am willing to follow you and Master Hong Wu to serve as a dog and horse!"

For Zhang Ermao, making a living in the antique street was actually not a good time.

Not only did he have to devise all sorts of traps to deceive people, he also had to be on the alert for people coming to his door, and on top of that, he was not well liked on the antique street, and many of his peers looked at him unfavourably.

So he had been looking forward to the opportunity to worship a more reliable dock, at least to make his life easier in the future.

Ye Chen nodded in satisfaction and said, "In this way, I'll give Hong Wu a call, and you can go to Tian Xiang House to find him later."

But he had never dreamed that Ye Chen would let him go directly to talk to Master Hong Wu.

If he followed Master Hong Wu, he wouldn't dare to walk around in Jinling, but absolutely no one would dare to mess with him!

Thinking of this, Zhang Ermao nodded and bowed repeatedly in excitement, repeating under his breath, "Yes Master Ye! Thank you, Master Ye!" .

Chapter 3872

It was not easy for Zhang Ermao to make a living in Jinling all these years.

After all, he was a man who did not want to be seen, and he was often driven around like a dog, and every now and then he would even receive a fat beating.

The main reason for this is that he does not have a backer who can protect him.

It's not that Zhang Ermao hasn't thought about making good connections with people in the street, especially Dong Kui, who is in charge of the antique street.

However, in Dong Kui's eyes, he was just an unworthy charlatan.

Not to mention that Dong Kui didn't take him seriously, even Dong Kui's little brothers didn't take him seriously.

Therefore, if Ye Chen had not pulled him up, he would not have been able to climb far above even a character like Dong Kui.

But now, Ye Chen has asked him to follow Hong Wu as a master, which is the same as pulling him up a few notches!

He was now considered to be one of Hong Wu's direct subordinates, and he and Ma Zhongliang came from the same discipline, so he was directly a level higher than Dong Kui, whom he could not even afford.

It was because of this profound realisation that Zhang Ermao was extremely grateful to Ye Chen in his heart.

Ye Chen looked at his grateful face and admonished, "Zhang Ermao, after following Hong Wu, don't go to the antique street again to engage in such deceitful things, although Hong Wu is still a Taoist, but his business has now been transformed into a clean one, you don't want to go there and then use your crooked brain."

Zhang Ermao hurriedly took a stand and said, "Don't worry, Mr. Ye, I will definitely follow your teachings and never touch these unclean things again!"

Ye Chen nodded his head, feeling that Zhang Ermao's words did not sound wrong, but he felt a bit uncomfortable when he thought about it.

When he thought about it, he had just taken two billion dollars from Bernard Elnor, and when Zhang Ermao was compared to himself, he was not a small witch, but a small chicken meeting a tyrannosaurus.

However, the good thing was that Ye Chen did not intend to keep the money he had received from Elnor for himself, but to donate it all to charity, so that he would feel more comfortable in his heart.

Immediately afterwards, Ye Chen called Hong Wu and asked him, "Hong Wu, where are you?"

Hong Wu hurriedly said, "Master Ye, I am at Tian Xiang Fu, what are your orders?"

Ye Chen then said, "I have found a master teacher for you, since you are at Tian Xiang Fu, I will have him go to Tian Xiang Fu to look for you later."

Hong Wu was surprised and asked, "You have found a master teacher for me? Master Ye, who is this master teacher?!"

Ye Chen smiled and asked, "Zhang Ermao from Antique Street, do you know?"

Hong Wu froze and spoke, "I know, Master Ye, are you planning to make him my master?"

At this moment, Zhang Ermao, who was beside Ye Chen, looked nervous, fearing that Hong Wu might be displeased with him or might not see him at all.

At this time, Ye Chen said with certainty, "That's right, I see that Zhang Ermao is very resourceful and quite good at doing things, so it's just right to partner with you and give you some new inspiration in dealing with certain issues."

Hong Wu said with a smile, "I have heard that this old boy is very ghostly, but I have not had much contact with him, since you have said so, Master Ye, then this old boy must have some merit!"

After saying that, he immediately laughed and said, "Master Ye, you can directly ask this old boy to come over to me, I will have a good chat with him."

"Mm." Ye Chen then said, "I'll have him come over now."

After saying that, Ye Chen hung up the phone and then said to Zhang Ermao, "I've already said hello to Hong Wu, you have to go directly to the Tian Xiang House to find him now, follow him at the beginning of this period to get a good understanding of his current business vein, think more and research more, and see if you have any more unique ideas of your own."

Zhang Ermao bowed repeatedly in gratitude, "Thank you, Master Ye! I will definitely dive in and follow Master Ye to study and research properly! Thank you, Master Ye, for your great kindness!"

Ye Chen laughed and scolded, "Come on, don't be poor here, hurry up and go."

Chapter 3873

Zhang Ermao's eyes were red and two tears flowed out, then he hurriedly wiped them away with his sleeve and sighed, "Master Ye, you don't know, I, Zhang Ermao, have been like a fatherless orphan all these years, not to mention in the antique street, everywhere I have to nod and bow to others, in the end, it's because I don't have a backer, but anyone who is a landlord in Jinling can bully me, anyone can push me around. I can be bullied by anyone and everyone ..... I really didn't think that I would be able to follow Master Wu and you in my life ....."

The first time I said this, I could not help but wipe a tear again, and then said seriously, "Master Ye, saying this seems like I am too chicken-hearted! Anyway, don't worry, I will not let you and Master Wu down in the future!"

Ye Chen nodded and spoke, "Having a backer is naturally a good thing, but you should also remember the days when you didn't have a backer, don't let yourself become the most loathsome person in the first place because you have a backer and turn around and oppress other people from poor backgrounds."

Zhang Ermao nodded his head repeatedly and said humbly, "Master Ye don't worry, I understand this in a million ways!"

Seeing that he spoke from the bottom of his heart, Ye Chen smiled faintly and said, "All right, go now."

Zhang Ermao bowed ninety degrees at Ye Chen and said gratefully, "Thank you Master Ye, then I will go and see Master Wu first!"

With an excited heart, Zhang Ermao took a taxi to Tianxiang House.

Just as excited as him was the male salesman in the Hermes shop named Vivian.

Just now, the shop manager, in the presence of all his colleagues, had calculated his sales commission for today's order.

Out of a total of $996,000, his commission was $298,000.

This single order not only broke the record for the highest amount of goods allocated in the shop, but also broke the record for the highest commission in the shop.

Vivian was so excited that he immediately took out his mobile phone and called a friend who was a salesman at a used car dealership, intending to buy a used Porsche 718 that he had long desired from him.

This is one of the cheapest Porsche cars, priced at just a few hundred thousand RMB, but it is a very prestigious car among the most fashionable young people.

Especially in the midnight streets, the moment the convertible top is opened gives many young people an air of exclusivity like no other.

This is why this car, in some seaside cities, is definitely the most sought-after model in car rental agencies.

Vivian, who has always prided himself on being at the forefront of fashion and is friends with many of the most expensive women and money, is eager to drive a Porsche 718 of his own.

To buy a new Porsche 718, including the options, would cost around $700,000 to $800,000, not counting the purchase tax of several tens of thousands of dollars, which is really hard for Vivian to afford.

Although his income as a counter man is not bad, it is difficult for him to save money every month because he likes to spend a lot of money in his spare time.

He found a two-year old used 718 in the colour and configuration he wanted for a little over $600,000.

Vivian had almost $100,000 of his own savings and figured that once the commission of nearly $300,000 was paid out next month, he could put down half of it and take the Porsche 718 home.

When his friend from the used car dealership got on the phone, he hurriedly asked, "Xiao Bin, has the red 718 in your shop been sold yet?"

The person on the other end said, "No, but we have a customer who is ready to place an order."

Vivian asked anxiously, "When did you order it? Have you paid yet?"

The person on the other side said, "I think I paid 10,000 yuan as a deposit, and I think it was decided within today."

Vivian was relieved to hear this and said, "Since it's an intention deposit, it's fine! Xiao Liu, don't sell him this car, sell it to me, I want it!"

Chapter 3874

When the other party heard that Vivian wanted to buy the 718, he subconsciously said, "You're a D**k! 600,000, with a minimum down payment of 300,000 and first year insurance of over 10,000, I'm not saying, where are you going to get that much money?"

Vivian laughed, "Oh, who are you looking down on? I'm telling you, I got a big deal today, and I'll get paid on the 15th of next month, and I'll get 300,000 in commission!"

"Crap!" The other party exclaimed, "Really? What kind of big deal is that, 300,000 commission? I work hard selling used cars, but I only get $80,000 a month. If your shop is so profitable, I'll go to your shop for a job interview some day!"

Vivian laughed smugly, "Oh, you think anyone can get into our shop just because they want to? We only recruit a few people each year, but there are hundreds of competitors, and our pa*s rate is less than one percent! Besides, we serve high-end customers, so the requirements are very high, not only for image and temperament, but also for education and English language skills.

"Day!" The other party said resentfully, "Isn't it just selling clothes and shoes at the counter? Why are there so many f*cking requirements? My mum didn't even graduate from primary school and worked in the old department store until she retired!"

Vivian laughed and said, "The department store sells all that junk, can it be compared to what we do? A pair of shoes in our shop starts at seven or eight thousand, a scarf costs a thousand, and a bag is more expensive than the stuff in a row of counters in the old department store!"

He hurriedly said, "Hey, I'm serious with you, find a way to keep the car for me first, I'll pick it up on time on the 15th of next month!"

The other party thought about it and said, "After all, people have paid the dealership, so if you want me to keep the car at this time, it's not easy for me to do so, the boss will definitely not agree."

vivian asked him, "Didn't you say he only paid 10,000 yuan for the intention? It's not a deposit, and it's only 10,000, so maybe he'll renege later."

The other party, hearing this, immediately put his mind at ease and said, "If you want to pick up this car in good faith, you should give the dealership a deposit of 100,000 yuan, and I will immediately drive the car from the showroom to the back of the warehouse upon receipt of the deposit, so that my other colleagues will not be able to sell it."

vivian asked in disbelief, "Why do you have to pay so much for a deposit, 20,000 is not enough?"

"Twenty thousand ....." said the other party awkwardly, "If you come to pick up the car tomorrow or the day after tomorrow, 20,000 deposit is really not a problem, the key is that you have to stay until the 15th of next month, ah, so long, 20,000 yuan our boss may not be willing to keep it for you."

"Why?" Vivian was a bit indignant and said out of the blue, "Since I have paid the deposit, I will definitely take delivery of the car, he is still afraid that I will not buy it? Even if I don't buy it, I've given him the 20,000 yuan, if I don't buy it, the money will be his, what else is he not willing to do?"

The company's main business is to provide a wide range of products and services to the public. The more money, for the boss, of course, the sooner you get out, the more cost-effective."

The first thing you can do is to take a deposit of 100,000, on the one hand, to give the car dealership back some blood, on the other hand, you know, the boss has a gambling nature, you put down more chips, he naturally want to gamble that you may not be able to pay the final payment, so he still has a chance to earn you 100,000 yuan, these two aspects together, he is certainly willing to wait for you twenty days."

VIVIAN probably understood the reason for this, and after a moment's thought, she said, "OK! 100,000 is fine! Anyway, I've already made an order for this performance, the commission will definitely be paid out next month, so give me an account number and I'll transfer the money over."

The other party very kindly reminded, "Buddy, I have to remind you, you have to make sure you can pick up the car on the 15th of next month, otherwise, in case you default, the 100,000 yuan will be wasted."

Chapter 3875

VIVIAN thought about it and asked tentatively, "Can you give me a grace period until the twentieth of next month, so that I have time to react in case there are any unexpected situations, and sometimes our group's finances will be a day or two late in paying the salary."

“That’s no problem.” The other party said briskly, “One hundred thousand dollars deposit, I can hold it for you until the last day of next month.”

VIVIAN was relieved and smiled, “That would be great, and it would certainly be foolproof.”

I’ll give you the company account of the car dealership, you can make the payment first, and then record a video, in which it is clearly stated that you voluntarily put down a deposit of 100,000 for the car, and pay the final payment for the car by the 31st of next month. ” vivian asked in surprise: “So simple? I don’t have to go to your shop to sign the contract?”

The other party smiled, “Nowadays, it’s basically a video contract, even banks and securities companies are asking their customers to record the video themselves, it’s easy and convenient, and there’s no risk, both parties’ interests can be guaranteed.”

“Good.” vivian agreed and said, “Then send me the specific copy and I’ll record a video for you.”

Soon, the other party sent him a set of copy.

Taking a break, he ran to the mother and baby room in the mall and recorded a video of the entire copy.

Not only that, but he also showed his identity document throughout the video recording, as requested by the other party.

The text stated clearly that he was willing to pay the dealership 100,000 yuan to reserve the Porsche 718, with the remaining 200,000 yuan due by the end of next month, and to complete the insurance with the shop.

The liability for breach of contract is simple: if he fails to make the final payment for the car within the deadline, the $100,000 will be paid to the dealership as liquidated damages.

As the video made it clear who was responsible for both sides, and also the frame number of the car, it had legal effect.

He then sent the video to the other party who, after confirming that there was no problem, gave him the dealership’s account number.

He immediately opened his mobile banking and transferred the 100,000 dollars from his card.

As the video signing was based around the $100,000 breach of contract, the agreement was considered to be completely in force once he had paid the $100,000 into the other party’s account.

Afterwards, he took a glance at his bank card balance and was more than a little bit empty when he found that there was only six thousand dollars left on his bank card.

However, at the thought that he would be able to reap a commission of three hundred thousand dollars next month, and immediately after that, he would be able to get his most desired Porsche 718, he instantly became exuberant again.

He knew that from this moment on, he would be counting the days, and that the 15th of next month would be the biggest day of his life, when he would receive his first car, and the Porsche he had always wanted!

He was already imagining how he would feel when he returned to his neighbourhood in his new sports car, surrounded by the envy of his neighbours.

At that moment, he suddenly received a text message on his mobile phone from his shop manager, who questioned him in a voice message: "Vivian, where have you been during working hours? I haven't seen you for so long! Hurry back, something big has happened!"

Chapter 3876

It was the first time that Vivian had seen the shopkeeper so nonchalant.

In his impression, this shop manager of his own was extremely capable personally, often able to play those rich men and women around, not only to make them obediently pay out of their pockets, but also to make them grateful.

So, in Vivian's eyes, the shop manager is her idol and goal in life.

Ever since Vivian entered the shop, his outlook has changed drastically.

If he hadn't come to work in a luxury shop, Vivian would never have dreamed that the rich people who normally bossed ordinary people around and turned their noses up to the sky would cater to and please the salesmen who sold things in the luxury shop.

If she hadn't come to work in a luxury shop, Vivian wouldn't have known that in this shop, no matter if you are a big boss, a rich wife or a mistress with a monthly allowance of over a million dollars, you have to look at the salesperson's face when you come in.

Want a best-selling bag? Sorry, if you don't know how to talk or beg, the answer will always be a lukewarm one: Sorry, this model is not in stock.

In this absolute seller's market, so what if you have money?

In the past, salesmen were proud to know rich people, but now the world has changed, many so-called celebrities and noble women, instead, are proud to know the counter brothers and sisters, they not only have to go to great lengths to pull strings with sales, help sales to boost performance, every now and then they also have to stuff some red envelopes, treat a meal, or send some expensive gifts, so as to maintain their relationship with the counter brothers and sisters.

The most disgusting thing is that many of the so-called celebrity women are proud to share their experiences of befriending and even kneeling down to those counters on online platforms, which is really magical to the extreme.

So, Vivian is extremely passionate about his job and extremely complacent because of it, and his biggest goal is to become a shop manager himself one day.

Once he became a shop manager, he would have all the best-selling products in the shop in his hands, and by that time, all the rich people in town would have to come over and kneel to him.

The more he did so, the more he wondered what had happened that could make the store manager so nervous.

So he hurriedly ran out of the mother and baby room in the mall, and as soon as he was outside, he saw two anxious-looking women standing in front of the door of the mother and baby room, each with a wailing baby still in her arms.

These two mothers were waiting at the door of the mother and baby room to breastfeed their babies, and when they saw that the room was in use, they assumed that there were other mothers inside breastfeeding their babies.

One of the mothers said angrily, "What's wrong with you? What are you doing in the mother's room when you have nothing better to do?"

Vivian waved her orchid finger disdainfully and said, "What do you care? Who do you think you are?"

The mother scolded angrily, "Look carefully! This is a mother and baby room! This is for mothers and babies, who are you to occupy it?"

Vivian said arrogantly with his nose in the air, "You think having a baby is a big deal? Does having a baby mean that everyone else has to give in to you? Who gave you this problem? Why don't you just stay at home and cause trouble for society?"

The mother was furious, and seeing that he had a work badge on his chest, she immediately went up to him and said, "Which shop are you from? I'm going to complain about you at your shop!"

When VIVIAN heard this, he was so scared that he ran away.

He didn't dare to run to his shop, but ran out of the mall in the opposite direction, and then made a long detour to get back to his shop.

Chapter 3877

The mother, who was holding her baby, was unable to chase him and let him escape.

Back at the shop, Vivian was out of breath and hadn't even had time to catch her breath when she saw all her colleagues crying as if they had lost a million dollars.

The shop manager, in particular, had red eyes that looked as if he had just cried.

So he hurriedly went up to them and asked, "Shop manager, what's wrong with you? What's wrong?"

The shopkeeper looked at him and angrily kicked him to the ground, cursing furiously, "Wang Dalong! You f*cking son of a b*tch! I've been screwed by you this time!"

When the other colleagues saw him coming back, they all became furious, and several male colleagues rushed up like mad and punched and kicked him.

They shouted, "D*mn it, Wang Dalong! You've f*cking screwed the whole shop! I'll beat you to death!"

"f*ck, I'll knock all this motherf*cker's dog teeth out! Beat the sh*t out of him!"

A few female colleagues were not willing to be outdone, and they also tried to scratch him in the face, with one of them shouting hysterically, "Wang Dalong, you've ruined my career! I'm going to fight you!"

Wang Dalong is vivian's real name.

The shop was full of people with English names, such as Tommy, Helen, Elizabeth, and so on, but when they took out their ID cards, they had names like Lijuan, Jianguo, Xueqin, Fugui, and so on.

Wang Dalong was dumbfounded by all the punches and kicks, and rolled on the ground while covering his head and shouting: “Oh my God, help! Why are you hitting me? What did I do to you or did I P*ss you off?”

The shop manager got down, pulled him by the collar and punched him in the face, causing his nose to bleed from both nostrils, and cursed, “You have the f*cking nerve to ask! French HQ just sent an email! Just because you raised your allotment with f*cking impunity, French HQ informed the whole group of our shop and all of us by our real names, and fired us on the spot for lack of ethics and for touching the group’s red line!”

“And even the shops were asked to close immediately, ready to be officially withdrawn when the group sends someone to take stock of the goods and reconcile the accounts!”

“Half of the world’s luxury brands are in the hands of the Group, and now we’ve been given a Group-wide notice that no luxury shop will ever hire us again! All of us have been killed by you!”

Wang Dalong was so dumbfounded that he blurted out, “Store manager, I’m innocent! I didn’t tell him to put so much on that order today, he wanted to put so much on it. ....”

The shop manager punched him hard in the face again and cursed, “You’re still f*cking tough! You’re the one who’s f*cking money-minded! That bag has never been over 300,000 in our shop! If you really had any f*cking sense, why didn’t you tell the customer that it was only 300,000?”

“I .....” Wang Dalong froze momentarily, and only after a moment did he stammer, “I ..... wasn’t thinking that I could just make a little more money ..... And it’s his own willingness, I wouldn’t say anything to mess with money .....”

He remembered the Porsche and asked nervously, “By the way, the shop manager ..... fired us, what about my commission this month? Will it be paid to me directly when I go through the severance procedure, or will it wait until next month to be paid together with this month’s salary?”

Chapter 3878

The shopkeeper had never dreamed that Wang Dalong would say such a thing out of the blue.

He was furious and cursed through gritted teeth, “You’re so f*cking money-minded! We were fired! We weren’t paid a penny of compensation for being fired! And the group has said that we have caused serious damage to the brand and incalculable losses to the group, so they reserve the right to sue us! We might even have to pay the group back!”

Wang Dalong was struck by lightning and nearly fainted as his eyes went black.

Thanks to a female colleague who came up and splashed a gla*s of ice water directly on his face, he was able to wake up again at once.

In a flash, he bawled, “How can this be! If the commission is not paid out to me, how am I going to get my car next month ..... I just put down a deposit of 100,000 yuan, and if I can’t get the car next month, my 100,000 yuan will be wasted! I've been saving for so long to save this 100,000 yuan, it's all my hard-earned money!"

"It's already this time and you're still thinking about picking up the car ....." The shop manager was so angry with him that he no longer had the motivation to continue beating him, and threw him back to the ground with a hand and said in a cold voice: "Wang Dalong, you are hopeless! Tomorrow the group will send someone over to handle our dismissal procedures, from now on, the shop will no longer be open for business, so go back and think about what you should do from now on!"

A male colleague said indignantly, "Store manager, how can you let this son of a b*tch off so easily!"

The shop manager sighed and pointed at Wang Dalong, whose face was covered in blood, and asked the man, "He's already like this, what's the use of beating him to death? If we beat him to death, the group won't be able to drop the punishment on us, we'll just be leaving this shop on one foot and going to jail on the other!"

The crowd was speechless.

They really hated Wang Dalong, but as the shop manager said, even if they beat him to death now, what was the point?

Thinking of this, the crowd was like deflated balls, all of them hanging their heads and faces full of pain.

The shop manager sighed at this time and spoke, "All right, everyone go home from work first, I will inform everyone to come and do the formalities when the people sent by the group arrive tomorrow."

A few female salesmen left in tears.

Although a few male salesmen were a bit upset, one after another they also left one after another.

Wang Dalong sat on the ground with his face covered in blood, his mind still thinking about his commission and his Porsche 718.

A thought suddenly flashed through his mind, and he immediately took out his mobile phone and called his friend who worked at the car dealership.

As soon as the call came through, he hurriedly asked the other party, "Xiao Bin, I don't want that car anymore, can you return the 100,000 yuan to me?"

When the other party heard this, he said out of the blue, "Are you messing with me? I've taken the car to the storage room and sealed it for you, waiting for you to pick it up next month, and you're telling me you don't want it anymore?"

"No. ...." Wang Dalong hurriedly said, "Xiao Bin, it's a long story, the main reason is that there is a situation with next month's commission, if not, I won't get the money, if I don't get the money, how can I get the car?"

"sh*t!" The other party cursed and said, "Didn't you just swear that there would be no problem?"

Wang Dalong said helplessly, "I didn't expect it to be like this either ....." I'm begging you to do me a favor and help me return this car!"

The other party smacked his lips and said, "Da Long, it's not that I won't help you, but I just can't help you ....."

The other party said, "Your money was paid into our dealership's account, and you have just signed a video, I forwarded your video to our boss, our boss combined with your transfer records, before agreeing to give you this car to keep, if you want to return the car now, even if it is a breach of contract, according to the contract content breach of contract, this 100,000 yuan with you It doesn't matter anymore."

As soon as Wang Dalong heard this, he burst into tears.

He choked with tears and said, "Xiao Bin, you must help me ..... Not only have I lost the 300,000 commission, but I've also lost my job, and I'll have problems eating in the future! If I don't get my money back, I'll be penniless. ...."

I understand your situation, but I really can't help you. .... I repeatedly asked before you bought it whether you could be sure that the money would be in hand or not, just because I was afraid that you would be in such a situation, but now it's a good thing that you are going to breach the contract before even an hour has pa*sed ....."

Wang Dalong wailed, "Xiao Bin, please beg your boss for me, please beg your boss to give me back the 100,000 yuan for my sake ..... I didn't take him too long, like you said it wasn't even an hour before or after."

The other party gave a sarcastic smile and said, "Da Long, let me tell you the truth, our boss likes to earn this kind of money the most, whenever a customer like you places a deposit, he would like to burn incense and pray that something happens to your family and then he can only breach the contract, so he can pick up a breach of contract for nothing."

The other party lowered his voice and said cautiously, "He is a master who eats people without spitting out bones, and it is people like you who cannot get any money and still want to make a fat face.

Wang Dalong's whole body fell into the ice cellar, broke down and asked, "Then what should I do ah Xiao Bin ..... You can teach me ..... I'm really at my wit's end ....."

Chapter 3879

The other party hesitated for a moment and said, "Dalong, why don't you find a way to get some money together and try to take the car before the end of the month, the 718 is a very popular car in the market, so the value retention rate is still very high, you can take the car first and then sell it, you will only lose a couple of thousand dollars at most."

"Really?!" When Wang Dalong heard this, a hint of expectation flashed through his desperate eyes as he asked after him, "Can you sell the car with a loss of only ten or twenty thousand dollars?"

The other party said with certainty: "Definitely! If it's not a good idea to sell, you can lower the price a little bit, a loss of 20,000 to 30,000 will definitely be taken away, and that's better than a loss of 100,000!"

Wang Dalong said with some concern, "It will take at least 220,000 to take the car away, right? I don't have anywhere to borrow that much money!"

The other party thought about it and said, "If you really can't raise the money, I can recommend a big brother who specializes in lending money to others to cross the bridge, he has more money in his hand, if you use it, the interest rate is five per thousand for one day, the low consumption is ten days, anyway, you just borrow money to cross the bridge, this side of the money to take the car away, the other side of the car sold to pay back."

Wang Dalong asked, "Xiao Bin, what does the ten-day low interest rate mean?"

The other party explained, "You are not going to borrow 220,000 yuan, the daily interest rate is five thousandths, the interest is more than a thousand yuan a day, the minimum consumption is ten days, if you use the money for more than ten days, then you will pay according to the actual interest incurred, if you use the money for less than ten days, then no matter how long it takes, you will pay according to ten days."

Wang Dalong said in horror, "That's more than 10,000 for that interest alone! If we sell the car and lose another 20,000 to 30,000, won't that be more than 40,000?"

The other party said helplessly, "That's still better than losing 100,000, right? The most important thing is to stop the loss in time!"

Wang Dalong was slightly stunned and thought to himself that his friend was right, stopping the loss in time was the most important thing.

Thinking of this, he hurriedly said, "Xiao Bin, please contact that big brother for me today, I want to hurry up and pick up the car, then hurry up and resell it to get as much of my money back as possible ....."

The other party said, "No problem, I'll give you an address and phone number, you can go directly to him later, mention my name, I guess the interest rate can give you a 20% discount."

Wang Dalong said gratefully, "Thank you so much Xiao Bin!"

"Don't mention it." The other party said, "We are all brothers, I must give you a hand! I've sent you the contact information and address on WeChat, so hurry up and pick up the car early, so I can find someone to help you cash it out sooner."

"Good!" Wang Dalong said: "Then I'm going over there!"

Wang Dalong hung up the phone and got up from the ground with difficulty, not bothering to greet the shop manager, he rushed out of the mall, came to a car and rushed to the address Xiao Bin had sent him.

And at that moment, in a used car dealership, the young man called Xiao Bin hung up the phone and said to a man in front of him with a face full of flesh in a flattering manner, "Boss, that boy has taken the bait!"

"Good!" The boss laughed and said, "I'll say hello to my brother too, hurry up and lure him into signing the loan contract, then let him take the car away!"

Xiao Bin also said with a smug look on his face, "I've long seen that Wang Dalong is interested in our 718, and I've thought about luring him in before, but I always thought that this punk doesn't have much money, so I wouldn't be able to lure him in, but I never thought that this punk would come to my door."

The boss nodded and laughed, "Once he has borrowed money from my brother and taken out a loan to take the car away, he will find out that the 718 that has had a major accident and is put together front and back, no one will want it even if he lowers the price to 300,000!"

"Every extra day this car is in his hands will incur an extra thousand in interest, not to mention the hundred thousand he won't get back, the remaining two hundred thousand in bridge payments and the three hundred thousand in car loans will be enough to bring him down!"

"By then the interest on both ends, plus the various fees we hide in the contract, the interest will be at least 70,000 to 80,000 a month, and the interest will still roll over, if this consumes him for two or three months, it will definitely toss him half to death!"

The boss asked, "Xiao Bin, you have to be sure that this kid can afford to pay back the money! Don't let the p*ssy simply break down, then I think the most you can do is to get the car back and earn the 100,000 yuan deposit, that's not much fun."

Xiao Bin said, "Boss, this punk's dad and mum have a 100 square foot house in the city, worth a small two million."

"Good!" The boss smiled happily, lit a cigarette and said with a smile, "As long as the family has a*sets that can be sold."

After saying that, he threw a cigarette to Xiao Bin and laughed, "When he's eaten up, no matter how much you end up raking in, you'll get ten points of commission!"

Chapter 3880

Pig killing trays are common in all walks of life.

But most commonly, it is a set-up between acquaintances to do the trick.

Moreover, the knife between acquaintances is often the most daring to lay a deadly hand.

The water in the used car market is extremely deep, and often the more you trust your friends, the more likely you are to get screwed.

The Porsche 718 that Wang Dalong was interested in was previously used exclusively for rent in Yazhou, Nanhai, and was itself a soaked car from Suhang, which was bought at a low price by Yazhou Car Rental after refurbishment, and rented out to the public at a price of more than a thousand per day, recovering its cost in just over a year.

Six months ago, the car was rented out in Yazhou to two young people who had just obtained their driving licences. The two young people had a major accident while driving after drinking, resulting in one of them dying on the spot and the other being seriously injured, and the car was nearly scrapped.

The car was then picked up by the owner of the car dealership in Jinling at a very low price, and a front body was found and welded up in Chentian, Guangdong Province, and finally prepared before being transported to Jinling.

However, the car was in such poor condition that anyone with a little knowledge could see the foul play at a glance, so the Porsche market was so good that the car was never sold.

It was a big hole that Wang Dalong stepped into.

He signed a short-term loan agreement that was full of pitfalls, then took the money he had just borrowed and rushed to the dealership to pick up the car.

His friend Bin had prepared a grand ceremony for him to pick up the car, and the car, which had been soaked, had been in an accident and had killed someone, was cleaned up by him and tied with a big red flower, which made it look particularly handsome.

Wang Dalong is not in the mood to enjoy this long-loved sports car, he thought he might have to lose 30,000 to 40,000, it hurts a lot.

This time, his friend Xiao Bin brought him to the office, handed him a thick contract, and urged him in a low voice: "Dalong, hurry up and sign the contract first, I have a foreign counterpart is looking for a 718 car source, and quite anxious, you pick up the car, I will arrange for him to look for you, when you give him the price plus 10,000, I guess he will definitely want it, so your I reckon he'll want it, so you'll get your interest money back!"

When Wang Dalong heard this, he was surprised and asked, "Really Xiao Bin?"

"Can I still be cheap?" Xiao Bin winked at him and whispered, "Keep your voice down, don't let our boss hear you, or he'll scold me for sure."

Wang Dalong said, "Yes, yes, yes! Xiao Bin, thank you so much for this!"

"Don't be polite to me." Xiao Bin directly turned the contract to the last page and pointed to the signature and said to him, "Hurry up and sign, I'll take you to pick up the car after you sign!"

"Okay!"

Ten minutes later, Wang Dalong finally picked up the Porsche 718 he had been longing for.

Xiao Bin gave him a grand ceremony to pick up the car, and a bouquet of flowers from the beautiful saleswoman.

Afterwards, Xiaobin handed him over, "Dalong, take the car first, and later I'll contact that foreign counterpart and ask him to look for you to see the car."

Wang Dalong suddenly opened the clouds and saw the sky, excited to no additional, just like forgetting the thing that just lost his job.

Then, he thought, he paid the bridge payment for ten days at a time, if the car is just mentioned to sell, it is really a loss.

So, he hurriedly said to Xiao Bin: "Xiao Bin, can you let your friend from abroad come to see the car a day or two later? I just got this car, at least let me rare and warm ....."

The first thing you need to do is to take the car away and use it, I'll follow up with you."

"Great!" Wang Dalong arched his hands in gratitude and said excitedly, "Then I'll take the car away first, and you can have him contact me in a couple of days! After the car is out, I'll treat you to a big meal!"

Xiao Bin waved his hand and said with a serious look on his face, "There's no need to treat me to a meal, it's not easy for you either!"

Five minutes later, with extreme gratitude for his friend, Wang Dalong drove away from the dealership in his coveted Porsche 718.
