

Ye Chen 3881

Chapter 3881

At this point, he had no idea what nightmares awaited him with this car.

He would not have known that not only would he have lost the only $100,000 he had, but he would also be saddled with a loan shark, and eventually he would have to rely on his parents to sell his house to save him from going to shore.

Meanwhile.

Fei Kexin, who was staying at the Jinling International Hotel, had just sent Xiao Churan out the door with Kerri West.

After the three women had lunch together, they talked and chatted in Fei Kexin's room all afternoon, until it was dark, when Xiao Churan left before he was done.

After seeing Xiao Churan leave in a taxi, Kelly West asked Fei Kexin with some surprise, "Miss Fei, I gave Churan a place in the master class purely for your sake, and she is not stupid, she should be able to see this relationship, why did she only prepare a gift for me, but not for you?"

Fei Ke Xin said with a smile on her face, "Fortunately she didn't prepare for me, if she did prepare a gift for me, then all my hard work would have gone down the drain."

Kerri West was puzzled.

She asked tentatively, "Miss Fay, what do you mean by that? I don't quite understand"

Fei Kexin said seriously, "This kind of thing, three words can't make sense, China is a human society, except for the immediate family, almost all other social relationships have to be driven by favours, as the saying goes, people respect me a foot, I respect people a foot, this is very different from the interpersonal social life in Europe and America."

At this point, she gave a slight pause and added, "A friendly reminder that the best way to get along with a Chinese person is to make her owe you favours."

Kerri West nodded in a seemingly understanding way, and in her heart she became more and more impressed with this Fei Kexin, who was much younger than herself.

With that, Fei Ke Xin went back to her room and made a phone call to her grandfather Fei Jianzhong.

As soon as the call came through, she asked with concern, "Grandpa, is everything still going well at Buckingham Palace?"

Fei Jianzhong sighed and said, "Not at all, it feels like prison."

Fei Ke Xin asked in confusion, "Why did Grandpa say that?"

Fei Jianzhong spat, "The staff said that until the end of the auction, no one is allowed to leave the hotel, and no one is even allowed to leave their room without permission, and that if they want to leave their room, they must first report to them and tell them the reason why they want to leave the room, and only after their approval can they leave, leaving the room without permission is considered a serious violation, one warning, two Disqualification from attending the auction

Fei Ke Xin asked in surprise, "Such strict management?!"

"Yes!" Fei Jianzhong said in exasperation, "Meals and drinks are all brought directly into the room by the service staff, and the delivery guy still f*cking cares about the clothes I wear, he has to make me wear the outfits they issue, otherwise it's considered a disciplinary violation on my part, I wanted to go for a walk downstairs after dinner, but they didn't allow it either, saying that a walk is not a necessary part and not approved."

Fei Ke Xin sighed helplessly and said comfortingly, "Grandpa, this is a seller's market after all, so many people are just like you, you don't have to care too much."

Fei Jianzhong sighed and said with righteous indignation, "You just don't know how shady this place is! They won't let me take a walk, but then they say they can send me a treadmill to my room, but the service fee for sending a treadmill to me is a whopping six hundred and eighty thousand dollars!"

Chapter 3882

When Fei Ke Xin heard this, she could not help but laugh dumbly.

She really didn't expect that Ye Chen's means of making money would go to all lengths.

A mere treadmill, even if it was a top brand, would only cost a few thousand US dollars, the highest being only 10,000 US dollars, but Ye Chen had to charge almost 100,000 US dollars just to provide it for a few days' use, which could really be said to be expensive beyond the sky.

At this time, Fei Jianzhong could not help but sigh: "This Buckingham Palace is a standard slaughterhouse for the rich, there are so many different names in it that you dare not imagine."

Fei Ke Xin hurriedly opened her mouth and said comfortingly, "Grandpa this amount of money is actually nothing at all, you don't have to be too much, care about what you come with."

"Yes." Fei Jianzhong said resentfully, "I also understand the reasoning of being content with what you have come for, just that I didn't expect them to be so bottomless, it's really a bit subversive."

After saying that, Fei Jianzhong asked, "Ke Xin, based on my actual experience here, I feel that the boss behind this place is a treacherous businessman who sees money and is only interested in profit, will it be effective for you to engage in a humane offensive with such a person?"

Fei Ke Xin pondered for a moment and said, "Grandpa, according to my observation, this Master Ye, behind the scenes, doesn't seem like a profit-oriented person, otherwise he wouldn't have been able to hide his identity, I guess he just wants to take this opportunity to knock these rich people's backs."

The first thing you said was that Grandpa Lai had once received a Spring Return Pill from him by chance, and he hadn't asked Grandpa Lai for a penny."

The most he can do is to ask for 10 million RMB per person, which is only 2 billion RMB for all 200 people, which translates to more than 300 million USD. "

Fei Jianzhong hesitated a little and said with some agreement, "You have a point in your analysis, after all, the Spring Return Pill is worth a lot of money, don't look at the favours I have received from your Grandpa Lai, even if it were me, I wouldn't be willing to give something worth ten billion dollars to your Grandpa Lai."

Fei Ke Xin smiled faintly and said with relief, "So grandpa you should not have too many negative emotions, you must try to keep a low profile and be humble at Buckingham Palace, never get into any arguments with their staff, as for my side everything seems to be going relatively well so far, and the results are worth waiting for."

"Good!" Fei Jianzhong was in a much more relaxed mood and said with a smile, "Ke Xin, it seems that you have also improved a lot during this period of time, your previous character was not as low-key and calm as it is now."

Fei Kexin smiled and said seriously, "Grandpa, when I first came to China, I still had a strong sense of superiority in my heart, I always felt that I could plan everything, but when I came to Jinling, I realised that there are people outside the world, and there is heaven outside the sky! The really strong people are often hidden in the city, and usually don't show any half of them, so you have to keep a low profile and be humble at all times."

Speaking of this, she couldn't help but sigh, "It's just a pity that I still understood this truth a little too late, if I could have done it a little earlier, Mr. Luo probably wouldn't have disappeared"

Fei Jianzhong thought of the missing Luo Jiacheng and couldn't help but sigh lightly as well, "I have already given Mr. Luo's family $100 million in settlement money, if I can't find him, I will give his family another large sum of money so that they will have no worries for the rest of their lives."

Fei Ke Xin said, "That's all we can do for now."

After saying that, she looked at the time and spoke, "Grandpa, you should take a good rest in the hotel first, I will continue to mediate outside for the next two days as well, and when the auction is over, no matter what the result is, I will try to arrange for you to meet with that Master Ye."

Chapter 3883

"Good!" Fei Jianzhong said, "Call me if there's anything, but I guess I won't be allowed to bring my mobile phone by the day of the auction, so if there's anything, just wait until the auction is over."

"Okay."

At the same time, Richard Chen gave Ye Chen a detailed report, telling him, "Young master, all the registrants who have participated in the auction so far, without fail, have all stayed at Buckingham Palace, and the other twenty alternates ranked from 201 to 220 will arrive at Jinling one after another tomorrow."

Ye Chen nodded slightly and instructed, "These alternates should not be charged for their accommodation related expenses, they will most likely all have to accompany them, and I'm afraid they won't even be qualified to enter the venue by then."

“Okay young master.” Chen Zekai responded and hurriedly asked again, “Young Master, are we going to let them make a trip for nothing this time? Many of them have come from overseas, so it’s quite hard for them to come all this way.”

Ye Chen thought for a moment and then said, “How about this, if they don’t have the chance to replace the others in the end, we will arrange for them to go through the security check on the day of the auction and observe, but they can only observe and cannot raise their cards to participate in the auction, so that they also have a chance to see the effect of the Spring Return Pill, after all, many of these people are here for this.”

Due to the influx of these rich people, Ye Chen’s anticipation for this auction, also became more and more intense.

He didn’t know now, after such a series of hype from himself, what kind of price the Spring Return Pill would fetch.

But there was one thing he knew very well, as long as those rich people were allowed to see with their own eyes the effects of someone taking the Spring Return Pill on the spot at this auction, every single one of them would explode with enthusiasm for the Spring Return Pill that was ten thousand times more powerful than it was now.

This is because up to now, the vast majority of the top wealthy people attending the auction have only limited their knowledge of the effects of the Spring Return Pill to just hearing about it from others, they have not had the opportunity to witness the magic of Spring Return with their own eyes.

The reason why many of them wanted to come to the auction even though they knew that their a*sets might only be barely at the bottom of the two hundred people was because they wanted to see for themselves how miraculous the Spring Return Pill really was.

So this auction will certainly shake up the entire upper cla*s.

After this auction, the Spring Return Pill would be the most precious and sought after item in the entire upper cla*s society, bar none.

At that time, Ye Chen would also be able to bring the Spring Return Pill in his hands to its maximum value.

The Spring Return Pill in his hands would be enough to bring the Ye family one step closer to the top of the world.

Chen Zekai also felt that Ye Chen’s solution was very humane at this time, so he immediately said, “Then I will have someone arrange 20 chairs in the last row and set up a special viewing area, so that they can all be gathered there to watch when the time comes.”

“Good.” Ye Chen nodded gently and asked, “Has the old man arrived in Jinling?”

Knowing that the old master he was referring to must be his grandfather Ye Zhongquan, Chen Zekai hurriedly said, “The old master has already arrived, and I have arranged for him to check into the administration building, but on a separate floor from the other two VIPs.”

Ye Chen asked him, “Old Mr Lai and the previous Queen of Northern Europe have also arrived?”

Richard Chen nodded and said, "Yes young master, both have arrived."

Ye Chen then said, "Call Mr. Lai's room for me and ask him if it's convenient for him, if it's convenient, I'll go over and pay my respects."

Chapter 3884

After checking in at the Administration Building, Lai Qing Hua had been waiting for Ye Chen to contact him.

When he came to Jinling this time, he knew that he did not have the financial strength to compete with these top tycoons, so the only purpose of his visit to Jinling this time was to meet Ye Chen.

Therefore, when Richard Chen contacted him, he said without thinking, "Please tell Young Master Ye that I am waiting for him at any time."

Hearing this, Ye Chen did not delay and directly asked Chen Zekai to take him to the administration building and to Lai Qing Hua's room.

As soon as they met, Ye Chen said respectfully, "Old Mr. Lai, we meet again."

Lai Qinghua hurriedly bowed his hands while bowing, and said respectfully, "Young Master Ye, I am saluted!"

Ye Chen was busy reaching out to assist him and said under his breath, "Old Mr. Lai is too polite, how can I accept your great salute!"

With a straight face, Lai Qing Hua said, "Young Master Ye, your destiny is already above mine, and you have benefited me, so it is only right for me to bow to you."

After saying that, he hurriedly said to Ye Chen, "Young Master Ye, please come in and talk!"

Ye Chen nodded and turned to Chen Zekai, "Old Chen, I will have a few words with Old Mr. Lai, you may go back first."

Chen Zekai said respectfully, "Okay Young Master."

After saying that, he also said to Lai Qing Hua, "Old Mr. Lai, junior will leave first."

Lai Qinghua arched his hand at him, "Take care, Mr. Chen."

After Chen Zekai left, Ye Chen followed Lai Qinghua and walked into the room he had checked into.

It was an executive luxury suite, with an area of over two hundred square metres, and the living room alone took up nearly one hundred square feet.

At this moment, on the coffee table in the living room, there was already a purple sand tea set, and in addition to that, there was also an incense burner made of bronze.

Lai Qing Hua invited Ye Chen to sit down on the sofa, while he himself boiled water to prepare the tea, and took out a palm-sized piece of wood, then used a delicate silver knife to gently scrape some powder off the piece of wood.

He then took out a set of exquisite copper tools and first used them to flatten and compact the incense ash in the incense burner, and then poured the powder scraped off the wood on top of the incense ash and used the tools to press it into a lotus shape.

Ye Chen recognised the set he was using, which was the famous seal incense.

Most of the people who like to burn incense directly buy processed incense or incense, but there are still some sophisticated people who like to make their own seal incense.

Most of the incense used is made from the trimmings of incense wood or sandalwood, which is considered waste and not too costly.

However, what Lai Qing Hua used was a large piece of sinkhorn wood, which surprised Ye Chen quite a lot.

This was because the price of a large piece of sinkhorn wood was still very expensive in the market, much more expensive than gold if the price was calculated by gram weight.

If such a piece of incense wood was carved into a Buddhist image such as a Buddha, Bodhisattva or Doumu, it could be sold for at least a few hundred thousand dollars to start with.

At this moment, while using a match to ignite the seal incense pressed into the shape of a lotus flower, Lai Qing Hua said to Ye Chen with a smile, "Young Master Ye, you should not be repelled by the smell of incense, right?"

Ye Chen smiled faintly, looking at the wisps of smoke that rose into the air, and also smelling the unique fragrance of the incense when it was ignited, he felt extraordinarily relaxed and said, "Mr. Lai is really elegant."

When she was alive, she was said to have spared no effort in promoting traditional Chinese culture in the United States, and many American high society ladies were proud to follow her example. The price of this incense in America has more than quintupled within a year."

Chapter 3885

Ye Chen asked curiously, "Has Mr. Lai ever met my mother?"

"I have." Mr. Lai nodded slightly and said seriously, "Young Master Ye, I have actually been friends with your maternal great-grandfather for many years, and I was invited by your grandfather to drink your mother's full moon wine when we met when your grandfather was still in infancy."

Ye Chen's maternal great-grandfather, his grandfather's father, was the founder of the An family.

However, Ye Chen had not met this maternal great-grandfather, who had not even been born when he died.

Hearing Old Mr. Lai tell this hidden story, Ye Chen was surprised and asked, "Old Mr. Lai, you and my maternal great-grandfather were friends?"

"Right." Lai Qing Hua smiled lightly and explained, "Your maternal great-grandfather was about my age, and I met him in 1938 when we went to America on the same ship."

“So that’s how it was!” Ye Chen said, stood up and bowed to Lai Qing Hua.

Lai Qinghua hurriedly got up and said, somewhat flattered, “Young Master Ye, you are the order of the Dragon Grid, how can you bow to me It should be my humble self who should bow to you!”

Ye Chen said seriously, “You and my maternal great-grandfather are close friends, so naturally you are also my elder, it is only right for me, as a junior, to bow to you!”

Lai Qing Hua said very seriously, “Young Master Ye, I believe in the destiny of the heavenly dao, in terms of destiny, you are the king and I am the subject, even if I am over a hundred years old, I am still a subject when I see you.”

Seeing his firm attitude, Ye Chen stopped arguing with him and said, “Old Mr. Lai, then let’s save this etiquette and just consider it as a forgotten friendship, what do you think?”

Lai Qing Hua was slightly stunned, then he nodded with a smile and said, “Fine, fine, since Young Master Ye has said so, I will do as I am told.”

The two then resumed their seats.

Remembering something, Ye Chen asked Lai Qinghua, “Old Mr. Lai, you helped me promote the Spring Return Pill in North America, I wonder if my grandfather has ever inquired with you?”

“Your grandfather” When he said this, he could not help but laugh, “He did not believe in fate, and when he was young, he used to talk about ‘my fate is up to me’, and he did not care about fortunes, and he even used to have a lot of prejudice against me, thinking that I was a charlatan. I believe that even if he was interested in the Spring Return Pill, he would not have come to me to ask about it.”

After saying that, he asked Ye Chen curiously, “Young Master Ye, you must have all the registration lists in your hand, I wonder if there could be anyone from the An family to sign up for the tournament?”

“No.” Ye Chen shook his head and said, “There is no one surnamed An in all the registration information.”

Lai Qinghua nodded and smiled as he spoke, “Your grandfather has a very arrogant personality, odds are he won’t come along to this kind of event, unless he is allowed to know the efficacy of the Spring Return Pill first, then he won’t come personally.”

After saying this, Lai Qing Hua looked at Ye Chen and exclaimed, “But then again, Young Master Ye, your rule that the successful bidder must take the Spring Return Pill on the spot is truly remarkable, not only does it allow all the participants of the auction to witness the miraculous effects of the Spring Return Pill, but it also makes all the big shots who want the Spring Return Pill have to show up in person! I believe that by the time the next Spring Return Pill auction is held, many of the hidden capital giants will come out of their own accord!”

At these words, Lai Qinghua looked at Ye Chen and said seriously, “Maybe next year’s auction, your grandfather will appear in the registration list!”

Chapter 3886

In fact, deep inside, Ye Chen had been looking forward to meeting his grandfather at the auction for the Spring Return Pill.

However, he did not know why he had such a thought.

It was because he hadn't actually thought about identifying with his grandfather's family.

And talking about Ye Chen's grandfather, Lai Qinghua seemed to suddenly get excited and said with a smile, "I'm not going to hide it from you Young Master Ye, I'm really looking forward to your grandfather coming to the Spring Return Dan auction."

Ye Chen asked curiously, "What makes Old Mr. Lai say that?"

Lai Qing Hua said with a smile, "Your grandfather has been in America for too long and has westernised very badly, believing only in the so-called science in everything and seeing all traditions as dross."

Ye Chen nodded and said, "That's understandable, I've heard my mother talk about it, Grandpa was definitely considered a top academic back then too, a Stanford graduate of high calibre."

Lai Qing Hua nodded and smiled, "That's right, he was brought up with a purely Western education, he had a rebellious personality from a young age, he would analyse everything with a dialectical perspective, denying everything beforehand and then slowly seeking proof, so it was as if he was living his life against the whole world, although he was not a fan of traditional Chinese culture, but one had to admit that he was indeed a very remarkable of a businessman."

Speaking here, Lai Qing Hua said playfully, "But well the older a person gets, the less hostility and indignation there will be in his bones, and once he shakes hands with the world, his previous vision of the world will change, just as many physicists spend their lives trying desperately to prove that the world there is no God, no Creator, but only the immutable laws of physics."

"However, when they are old and have seen everything, they instead firmly believe that behind everything in the world, there must be a creator, only that he may not appear in the form of a man or a god, this is because they have seen the various profound physical laws as well as the laws of the universe too thoroughly, and the more thoroughly they see them, the more they also feel that the laws between everything in the universe are so ingenious that it could not have been just a coincidence."

Lai Qinghua said, looked at Ye Chen and said seriously, "If I remember correctly, your grandfather is also over eighty years old this year, I believe he has also started to understand the world again, and perhaps he will also be as fascinated by the Spring Return Pill as the other two hundred people."

Ye Chen smiled faintly and said, "If he asks you about the Spring Return Pill one day, please do not tell him about me."

Lai Qing Hua was busy saying, "That's natural!"

After saying that, he could not help but ask, "Young Master Ye, have you ever thought of meeting your grandfather?"

Ye Chen shook his head, "For the time being, I don't have that intention."

Saying that, Ye Chen added, "Actually, I have very little interactions with Grandpa's family, and as far as I remember, Grandpa and my mother's relationship has always been somewhat strained, so Grandpa rarely has any good looks as far as I can remember, plus I don't have much of an emotional base with them after not seeing them for so many years."

Lai Qing Hua nodded with understanding and sighed, "Given your grandfather's character, your mother's bent on marrying your father back then must have made him very angry, but he should be in his eighties this year, so I guess he should have a new sense of many things, so perhaps his greatest wish now is to see you for a while. "

Ye Chen smiled to himself and said, "They probably thought I was dead a long time ago."

"No way." Lai Qinghua said seriously, "People in your grandfather's position have extremely high requirements for the authenticity of information, even when compared to the police, it is more than ever, think about it, if there is not enough evidence to prove that a person is really dead, the police will only define him as missing, I am sure your grandfather is the same."

Ye Chen nodded expressionlessly and said, "Then let them continue to think that I am missing."

Lai Qinghua hesitated for a moment before he looked at Ye Chen and said seriously, "Young Master Ye, there is something I don't know if I should say."

Ye Chen said, "Old Mr. Lai, you don't have to be so polite, there is no harm in saying anything."

Chapter 3887

Lai Qinghua said, "Although you have broken out of the trap of the dragon in the shallows, getting back the dragon frame that originally belonged to you is not the end of it! In the Records of the Southern Dynasty, it is written that the water viper (hui) turns into a jiao for five hundred years, the jiao turns into a dragon for a thousand years, the dragon turns into a horned dragon for another five hundred years, and the dragon turns into a Ying Long for a thousand years, which means that the Dragon Grid is not the true supreme destiny.

Ye Chen's mind instantly floated to the contents of the "Nine Mysterious Heavenly Scriptures", which had indeed recorded about Vicious, Jiao and Dragon, as well as Horned Dragon and Ying Dragon.

Horned dragons and Ying dragons were actually the higher levels of dragons.

If you want to stand on top of the world, the last few steps are especially important, and the An Family is the best choice for you to reach the top of those last steps! So, you might want to meet with your grandfather sooner rather than later, it might open up a new horizon."

"The An Family?" Ye Chen couldn't help but frown, and then smiled to himself, "Better forget it, if I want to reach the top, I should be able to do so by myself."

To Ye Chen, he had never first thought that he would have to rely on his grandfather's family for help in the future.

In his opinion, he accepted the Ye family because on the one hand, the Ye family really owed a lot to his family of three, and on the other hand, the Ye family was really his father's life's work, not to mention that his surname was Ye, and he was originally a descendant of the Ye family, so he had to keep the power of the Ye family in his own hands for reasons of love and grudges.

However, on his grandfather's side, Ye Chen had no such thoughts.

After all, Ye Chen felt that his grandfather did not owe anything to his parents.

Moreover, since his family name was An and his own was Ye, he was an outsider, so how could he use his grandfather's family as a stepping stone to move up the ladder?

What's more, as one of the top three families in the world, the internal composition of the An family must be very complicated, and even the members of their own family may not be able to understand it, so what can they do to take advantage of the An family?

However, at this moment, Lai Qing Hua said in a very serious manner, "Young Master Ye, even the Monkey King, who has 72 changes, must rely on that God's Needle to become the Great Sage of Qi Tian, there are ten thousand blades in the world, but there is only one Golden Band!"

Ye Chen, on the other hand, said seriously, "Perhaps I am not a Qi Tian Da Sheng in the first place, so this Golden Banded Rod may not be of much use to me either."

Lai Qinghua shook his head and said, "Young Master Ye, many things have actually been predestined long ago, so if you know the direction sooner, you can achieve your goal sooner."

Ye Chen smiled faintly and said, "Old Mr. Lai, although I also know some I Ching and Ba Gua, I do not believe that this is all fated, I want to achieve this goal, I can still achieve it without the An Family."

Saying that, Ye Chen added, "This is like the Monkey King, I believe he can still become the Great Sage of Heaven even without the Golden Band."

Lai Qinghua shook his head with a smile and said lightly, "Young Master Ye, the existence of destiny is all-encompassing, in other words, not only is Sun Wukong destined to become the Great Sage of Qi Tian, he is likewise destined to pick up the golden hoop stick, and so are you."

Saying this, Lai Qing Hua smiled profoundly, "Young Master Ye, it was recorded in the original story of Journey to the West that the Dragon King told Sun Wukong that the Golden Hoop Stick began to 'shine brightly and swiftly' a few days before he went to the Dragon Palace, which means that it was not necessarily Sun Wukong who chose the Golden Hoop Stick, but most likely The Golden Banded Rod chose Sun Wukong!"

Chapter 3888

Lai Qinghua's words made Ye Chen ponder.

What he was thinking about was not whether he should borrow the energy of his grandfather's family in the future to make his own success, what he was thinking about was that the higher he went up in this world, the narrower the road became, and if he wanted the Ye family to stand at the top of the world, then one day in the future, he would definitely have to meet the An family on a narrow road.

He could not help but think that if one day he really met the An family on a narrow road, would the An family be an enemy or a friend.

After all, the An Family was currently one of the top three families in the world, and if Ye Chen wanted to realise his father's last wish back then, he would inevitably have to make the Ye Family stand taller than these three great families.

If the three great families did not want to see a rising star above them, it might even trigger a battle of life and death between the new king and the old king.

When Lai Qing Hua saw Ye Chen's sudden silence, he guessed what was in Ye Chen's mind, so he said seriously: "Young Master Ye, among the top three families, the Rothschilds have three hundred years of roots in this world, and their scale has long surpassed the majority of countries in this world, so powerful that no one can get a glimpse of them, while the Saudi royal family in the Middle East has the entire country behind it as a The An family is the weakest of these three families."

Although the An family is the most powerful Chinese family in the world, it is the weakest of the three families. You and the An Family will both have great benefits."

Ye Chen smiled faintly without denying it and spoke, "Thank you, Old Mr. Lai for your reminder, one day in the future, I will definitely have to come face to face with the An Family, let's wait until the moment we actually meet."

Knowing that Ye Chen had his own ideas, Lai Qinghua nodded gently and said, "If Young Master Ye wants to meet with the An family at any time, I can help you with a match."

"Good!" Ye Chen thanked, "Then thank you, Old Mr. Lai!"

Lai Qinghua waved his hand and then changed the subject and said to Ye Chen, "By the way, Young Master Ye, I have another unrequited request, I hope you can do me a favour."

Without thinking, Ye Chen said, "Please speak, Old Mr. Lai."

Lai Qinghua hesitated for a moment and sighed, "I have a good friend named Fei Jianzhong, and he is one of the two hundred participants in this auction."

Ye Chen smiled faintly and nodded, "I know this person and have seen his profile."

In fact, Ye Chen not only knew of Fei Jianzhong, but also his granddaughter, Fei Kexin.

However, Ye Chen did not mention in front of Lai Qinghua that he knew of Fei Kexin's existence.

At this time, Lai Qinghua sighed lightly and said seriously, "On the way here, I gave old Fei a trigram, and the trigram showed that his coming to Jinling this time, his future is somewhat dangerous"

Speaking of this, Lai Qinghua said somewhat self-reproachfully, "He was influenced by me before he decided to come to Jinling to participate in the auction, if he encounters any danger because of this, I can hardly be blamed, so I would like to ask Young Master Ye to pay a little attention to him, in case something happens suddenly, I would also like to ask Young Master Ye to give a helping hand."

Chapter 3889

Ye Chen could not help but frown and asked, "Old Mr. Lai, I wonder if you have any more detailed clues? For example, which aspect of the menace you just mentioned is it in? Is it that you need to keep an eye out for accidents, or do you need to keep an eye out for a*sa*sinations by miscreants?"

Lai Qing Hua smiled to himself and said, "The trigrams can only reveal good and bad fortune, not more details, and his trigrams have both good and bad fortune, so I can't say exactly what the outcome will be."

After that, Lai added, "But he won't stay in Jinling for long. After the auction, I'm afraid he will have to return to the United States immediately, regardless of the success or failure, so it will only take a few days for you to take the trouble."

Ye Chen nodded and said, "Since there is a bad omen in the trigram, I reckon that he might not be able to bid for the Spring Return Pill."

When Lai Qinghua heard this, he faintly froze, then he dumbly laughed and said, "You are right, a divine medicine like the Spring Return Pill, if anyone can obtain it, there is bound to be a great auspicious illumination in the trigrams, it seems that Jianzhong has no chance with the Spring Return Pill this time"

Speaking here, Lai Qinghua said with some sigh, "He is old, probably the oldest one among those two hundred people who participated in the Spring Return Pill auction this time, if he fails to get the Spring Return Pill this time, I am afraid that he will not have much time in the future."

Hearing this, Ye Chen had a little more admiration for Fei Ke Xin.

This woman did have a way, at least she herself had already made a decision under her human attack, if her grandfather could not bid for the Spring Return Pill, she would at least send him half a Blood Scattering Heart Saving Pill, so that he could live for two more years.

Combined with Lai Qing Hua's words, it was basically certain that even if this Fei Jianzhong had a sudden physical accident this time in Jinling, with this half of his own Blood Dissipating Heart Saving Pill, I'm afraid he would only have a scare.

Ye Chen knew full well that she was trying to make a favor offer, and he knew that her favor offers were not worth half a Blood Dissipation Heart Saving Pill.

But in his heart, Ye Chen always felt that if he didn't return the favour and kept owing Fei Ke Xin, he would be very uncomfortable.

This was Fei Kexin's mastery.

At this time, he suddenly felt that since this was the case, then he should not prevent himself from playing a yang trick with Fei Kexin as well, so that he could return the favour with a tooth.

So, with a faint smile on his lips, he said to Lai Qinghua, "Don't worry, Old Mr. Lai, I will pay more attention to it."

Lai Qinghua arched his hand at Ye Chen and said respectfully, "I thank Young Master Ye."

.....

After chatting with Lai Qing Hua for a few times and drinking a few cups of tea, Ye Chen said goodbye and left.

Chapter 3890

At this moment, Fei Ke Xin felt that all her planning and rhythm had been instantly disrupted by Ye Chen's sudden invitation.

She did not even know what exactly Ye Chen's purpose in doing so was.

Did he really just simply want to invite himself to this auction, or had he sensed his motives long ago, so he had deliberately put his plan into action.

Therefore, she did not know how to react for a while.

Just when she was at a loss for words, Ye Chen asked a follow-up question, "Miss Zhan, are you not interested in this kind of auction? Actually, you don't have to worry too much, I'm not a trustee who helps auctions pull in customers, I just thought this auction might be more interesting, so I wanted to invite you, a guest who came from afar, to come over to enjoy it and pass the boring time as well."

Saying that, Ye Chen gave a laugh and said, "After all, I've been married too, so it would be more or less inappropriate if I were to invite you to a movie, but it doesn't matter if Miss Zhan isn't interested, don't have any psychological burden."

Ye Chen's words eased Fei Ke Xin's nervousness and she hurriedly said, "No no, I'm still quite interested in this kind of occasion."

Saying that, in order not to show that she knew something about this auction, she even pretended to be curious and asked, "Mr. Ye, may I ask what this auction you are talking about is about?"

Ye Chen knew that Fei Kexin was acting, so he casually laughed and said, "Most of them are some antique paintings and calligraphy, other than that, there is a very niche, but very miraculous effect medicine, I wonder if Miss Zhan would like to appreciate the face?"

Fei Ke Xin was very conflicted in her heart, because her grandfather had already taken Yuan Zixu to live in Buckingham Palace, so this auction, she had originally prepared herself mentally that she would not be able to enter.

However, now that a VIP seat was suddenly available, she naturally wanted to go in and see what it was like.

However, she was worried that if she went, she would be bumped into by some acquaintances.

Other than that, Master Lai Qing Hua recognized her, so if she met Master Lai in front of Ye Chen then, she wouldn't even know how to round up the situation.

Thinking of this, she realised that she still had to put the bigger picture first and must not reveal her true identity in front of Ye Chen before the auction started.

So she said to Ye Chen, "Mr. Ye, I am quite interested in the auction, but I am still more or less uncomfortable with the occasion of throwing my head in the sand"

Ye Chen smiled, "There is no need to worry about that Miss Zhan, as a VIP, you can choose to sit in the VIP seats in the first row or in the VIP box on the first floor, if you like to keep a low profile, then you can just sit in the VIP box."

Fei Ke Xin relaxed a little, in that case, the only person she needed to worry about was Mr Lai Lao.

So, she asked curiously, "Mr Ye, this auction you are talking about, how many VIPs are there in total, and will the other VIPs also be sitting in the VIP box then?"

Ye Chen knew what she was worried about and immediately said, "Don't worry Miss Zhan, there are only four VIPs in total this time, and you are the fourth one, other than you, all the other VIPs will be sitting in the first row then, and you won't have any interactions with them if you choose the VIP box."

Fei Ke Xin sighed with relief, in that case, she basically had nothing to worry about.

So she smiled and said, "That's great, I don't like to show my face, but I'd love to see the world! This is a great arrangement!"

Saying that, Fei Ke Xin deliberately asked, "By the way, Mr. Ye, are you organising this auction?"

"No." Ye Chen said casually, "How can I afford to hold any auction, I just know the organizer and promised to do them a little favor, so I got a VIP entrance ticket from them."
