

Ye Chen 3891

Chapter 3891

Saying that, Ye Chen added: "Miss Zhan, the auction will officially start at eight o'clock the night after tomorrow, so you should be at the entrance of Buckingham Palace at seven o'clock the evening after tomorrow, and I will pick you up then."

"Good!" Fei Ke Xin hastily agreed and smiled, "Then I'll see you the day after tomorrow, Mr. Ye!"

Ye Chen said, "Okay, see you the day after tomorrow."

Saying that, Ye Chen added, "Right Miss Zhan, this matter, please don't tell anyone, especially Chu Ran."

When Fei Ke Xin heard this, she did not feel surprised.

This was because she had long known that Ye Chen was an extremely low-key person, especially with his family, and had always hidden extremely deeply, and Xiao Churan did not even know him as well as she did.

So, she agreed readily and said, "Don't worry, Mr. Ye, I won't tell anyone else."

"That's good." Ye Chen said with a smile, "Miss Zhan, then I'll see you the day after tomorrow, I won't bother you much, goodbye."

"Okay Mr. Ye, bye."

After hanging up the phone, Fei Ke Xin was in an extraordinarily excited mood, holding the phone and shouting excitedly several times, the shouting even alerted Chen Ying Shan who was a wall away.

Chen Yingshan took her room card and swiped the door, rushed into the bathroom and saw Fei Kexin standing naked in the bathtub, dancing with excitement, she was dumbfounded and asked, "Miss, what's wrong with you"

Fei Ke Xin said with a smile, "Shan Shan, Ye Chen just called me!"

"What's so exciting about a phone call" Chen Ying Shan asked awkwardly, "Miss, you're not in love with that Ye Chen, are you"

Fei Ke Xin was busy saying, "Don't talk nonsense! I'm not excited because he called me, it's because he called to invite me to the auction for the Spring Return Pill! And it's as a VIP!"

"Ah?!" Chen Ying Shan asked in shock, "Ye Ye Chen, hasn't he always hidden his identity? Why is he so quick to invite you to the auction?!"

Fei Ke Xin laughed, "He didn't reveal his identity either, he just said he happened to have a VIP invitation in his hand, he didn't say the auction was his, let alone that the Spring Return Pill was also his."

Chen Ying Shan nodded gently and asked, "Miss, then why would Ye Chen invite you to the auction?"

Fei Ke Xin thought about it and said, "He probably just wanted to return a favour for Xiao Churan! I helped Xiao Churan out with a place in the master cla*s, giving him a great opportunity to meet the world's top interior designers and become a renowned designer, so Ye Chen must be trying to return the favour."

Chen Yinshan didn't doubt it, but said with some concern, "Miss, do you think he wants to use this VIP invitation to pay back all the favours you've done during this period in one go?"

"I don't think so." Fei Ke Xin shook her head and said, "In Ye Chen's tone, his invitation to the auction was of a similar nature to inviting me to a movie, so he definitely wouldn't use this to pay off his favor debt."

Chen Ying Shan was slightly relieved and spoke, "In that case it would be fine not only can you go and witness the auction, but you can also find yourself a good pedestal in case your lordship fails to get the Spring Return Pill, you can directly tell him after the auction that you have seen the miraculous After seeing the miraculous effects of the Spring Return Pill, you can tell him directly after the auction that you would also like to buy one and see if he might sell one to you privately!"

Chapter 3892

Fei Ke Xin was also the first to report the good news to Fei Jianzhong, who was still at Buckingham Palace, via video chat.

Fei Jianzhong, who was furious because of the rules and regulations at Buckingham Palace, was immediately enlightened by the news and said excitedly, "That's great, Kexin! It seems that all your efforts in Jinling during this period of time were indeed not in vain! That Master Ye, must be the mastermind behind the entire auction!"

Fei Ke Xin nodded, looked at Fei Jianzhong in the video, smiled and said comfortingly, "Grandpa, you will be indulged for a while in these two days, as soon as the auction is over, no matter what the result is, I will immediately bring you to this hotel where I am staying, I have already prepared a room for you."

"Good!" Fei Jianzhong said gratefully, "You are still the most careful and secure in your work!"

Fei Kexin added, "Grandpa, on the day of the auction, I will go to the VIP box and stay there, so I won't meet you then.

"Good!" Fei Jianzhong said with a smile, "I hope I can win!"

Without thinking, Fei Ke Xin said, "Don't worry, Grandpa, you will!"

Fei Jianzhong, who was at Buckingham Palace, hung up the phone with a pleased smile on his face and said to Yuan Zixu at his side, "Master Yuan, this girl, Ke Xin, is indeed a great talent! So many people have tried to find the master behind the Spring Return Pill, but she is the only one who has succeeded, I am really impressed."

Yuan Zixu nodded and said with an arching hand, "Miss Kexin is gifted and has extraordinary drive, she will become a great a*set in the future!"

Fei Jianzhong nodded slightly, and then said with some emotion, "If Kexin were a boy, it would be a great blessing for the Fei family, but unfortunately Pity!"

Yuan Zixu wanted to say something, but hesitated for a moment before giving up. Although he also felt that Fei Kexin was the most promising descendant of the Fei family nowadays, he felt that such words were not suitable to be said in front of Fei Jianzhong.

After all, he knew that he was only Fei Jianzhong's personal bodyguard, and all his duties were only to protect Fei Jianzhong's safety, and it was not appropriate for him to comment much on the Fei family's affairs.

Besides, the internal affairs of the Fei family seemed calm, but in fact there were already dark currents, and Yuan Zixu would have to return to his division before long, so he did not want to wade into this mess either.

When Fei Jianzhong saw Yuan Zixu's desire to speak, he understood Yuan Zixu's attitude and felt a little disappointed for a while.

He hoped that Yuan Zixu would become his beloved, but although Yuan Zixu was loyal to him, he never wanted to be too close to him, which inevitably made him feel a bit lonely.

It was hard to find someone who was trustworthy and had the right temperament, and it was even harder to find someone who had no interest in the rest of the family, but who was unwilling to interfere, even to discuss the matter with him.

However, he did not blame Yuan Zixu.

Because Yuan Zixu himself was such a person, the sense of boundaries had always been very clear in his consciousness, and only such a person could always remain absolutely calm, and only such a person could avoid making mistakes by his supervisors to the greatest extent.

So he sighed and said softly, "I want to live more years, partly because I am afraid of dying, and partly because I want to spend a few more years with Kexin, and if I can help her up, it would be best, if not, at least let her feather her nest a little more, because if I leave, she will definitely become the target of the Fei family, and many people will not be able to sleep or eat without driving her out of the Fei family."

Yuan Zixu said indifferently, "Elder Fei need not be so sentimental, if you can get what you want from this trip to Jinling, your life expectancy will continue for at least another ten years."

"Yes." Fei Jianzhong nodded and said, "If I could be given another ten years, many things would have been settled."

Two days later in Jinling, everything was no different from usual.

Chapter 3893

Due to Ye Chen's strong arrangement, the arrival of those two hundred or so top tycoons did not make the ordinary citizens of Jinling feel that there was any change in the city, apart from the fact that the airports in several surrounding cities were all full of parking spaces.

If it wasn't for Ye Chen's strong demand that this group of people must abide by all the rules, I'm afraid that this group of people would have made the traffic in Jinling miserable just by bringing their own motorcades and bodyguards.

Today, the Spring Return Pill auction was about to officially begin.

Each of these top tycoons who had come to the auction were also a little impatient to attend.

They had spent two days under house arrest at Buckingham Palace, and were waiting for the auction to kick off.

By 12 noon, the staff had already started to send out written notices to all participants.

The notice informed them that the hotel staff would deliver meals to all participants' rooms at 6pm and that they must finish eating within half an hour, then change into the uniform provided by the hotel together with their escorts and proceed to the entrance of the hotel ballroom in an orderly manner.

In addition, no communication devices, video recording devices or any non-essential metal items will be allowed. If you have dental implants, heart stents, cochlear implants or pacemakers, etc., you must clearly inform the security staff and they will be arranged to go through a special security checkpoint.

Any attendees found to be carrying contraband will be immediately confiscated and expelled from Buckingham Palace, in addition to being banned for life from participating in subsequent auctions of the Elixir.

Such stringent security checks far exceeded the requirements of civil aviation security.

But none of these tycoons dared to challenge the organisers' pressure.

This was because they knew very well in their hearts that, when an item like the Spring Return Pill was auctioned, it had to be taken on the spot.

Therefore, even if one is rich, if one wants to obtain a Spring Return Pill, one must attend the auction on the spot.

Once he was banned from the auction, it was a sign that he would have no chance of getting the Spring Return Pill for the rest of his life.

Therefore, every wealthy person, male or female, left all their mobile phones and jewellery in the room before they were ready to leave the room.

Some of the women who attended the auction even removed the silver pins that kept their ears pierced, fearing that they might get themselves into trouble when they went through the metal detection door.

Fei Jianzhong was the same, carrying nothing in both hands.

Only he still had a pacemaker in his body, so when he arrived at the entrance to the banquet hall, he had to go through a special security channel. It was said that an ultrasound doctor would be on hand to check the condition of the pacemaker and make sure there were no other problems before he could be released without any problems.

The time came at half past six.

The hotel sounded an announcement prompting, "All attendees of the auction are requested to wear uniform clothing, leave their rooms and proceed to the ballroom in an orderly manner, and should avoid stopping, laughing, making noise and exchanging pleasantries midway."

When Fei Jianzhong in the room heard the announcement, he no longer had the same indignation and hostility as before, but looked at Yuan Zixu sitting opposite him and said with a smile, "Master Yuan, you and I have waited for two days like a prisoner, and finally we have waited for this moment!"

Yuan Zixu, who was sitting opposite, had also changed into his unified costume without the code. He looked at Fei Jianzhong, nodded his head and smiled, and said indifferently, "Elder Fei, I wish you in advance to get what you want tonight!"

Chapter 3894

Hearing this, Fei Jianzhong smiled confidently and said with an arch of his hand, "I'll take advantage of Mr Yuan's good advice tonight!"

After saying that, he stood up holding the sofa, and Yuan Zixu, who was on the side, hurriedly came forward to assist him, and the two of them left the hotel room together.

As they walked out of the room, people came out of the surrounding rooms one after another.

There was a mixture of eastern and western faces, and with everyone wearing the same clothes, it was hard to make out their faces.

Fei expected to meet a few familiar faces, but to his surprise, his floor was filled with almost all unfamiliar faces.

One by one, the crowd arrived at the lift lobby, only to see two security guards standing at the entrance of the lift lobby, and these two spoke directly with expressionless faces, "The lift is out of service, everyone please take the stairs."

There were eight passenger lifts in the hotel, but everyone had to take the stairs to get down, which made everyone a bit unhappy.

Some of them wanted to protest, but as soon as they opened their mouths, they were rebuked by the security guard: "Please observe discipline! Those who protest will be given one demerit and we will remember your numbers. If you are given one demerit, if you successfully win any item at the auction, you will be charged an additional 20% penalty on top of the sale price, and if you are given two demerits, you will be directly deprived of his right to attend this meeting."

As soon as the crowd heard this, they had the sense to shut their mouths.

Although these people were normally top-notch tycoons with extraordinary status and power all over the world, when they came here, they were no different from prisoners.

In other words, Ye Chen had summoned them here so that they could learn to learn how to be grandchildren.

Here, they were the ones with the most humble status, even a security guard could call out to them.

Although there are eight lifts here, they are just not given access to them.

This is because it allows them all to keep a single path and walk to the ballroom in a neat and tidy manner.

That way it would allow these rich men to experience what it was like to be let loose in jail.

At the entrance of the banquet hall at this moment, four security check lanes had been set up just like airport security.

Each security channel was equipped with metal detection doors and multiple security personnel.

There was a special security lane with a number of doctors and multiple medical monitoring devices.

In addition, there were a number of security personnel in camouflage uniforms, all tall and with their hands behind their backs, standing meticulously on either side of the security entrance, their faces full of pressure.

When the tycoons saw this situation, they all felt an extremely strong sense of oppression.

They couldn't figure out where the source of this feeling of oppression was, whether it was from the uniform security equipment, or the imposing security personnel, or the overall atmosphere that brought them together.

But as soon as Yuan Zixu arrived, he immediately realised the main source of this sense of oppression.

It was because he had discovered something that shocked him to the core: all the security personnel here, without exception, were martial arts masters!

There were forty to fifty martial arts experts here, and moreover, the worst cultivation level was that of a three-star martial artist, and the highest, even had multiple five-star martial artists!

Although Yuan Zixu himself was already a seven-star martial artist, he knew very well that martial artists with more than three stars were actually very rare.

Of the thousands of disciples in his own division, there were not even ten who could truly reach three star martial artist.

And those who could really reach five-star martial artists, counting himself, his master and the missing Luo Jiacheng, were only a handful in total.

However, the overall strength of just some security personnel here had already surpassed that of his own master, which indeed appalled Yuan Zixu.

When Fei Jianzhong saw that his figure was a little sluggish and turned his face to see that his expression was also a little dull, he lowered his voice and asked, "Master Yuan, what's wrong with you?"

Yuan Zixu came back to his senses and said in the same low voice, “Elder Fei, the security personnel here, without exception, are all martial arts masters

“What?” Fei Jianzhong exclaimed, “There are at least a few dozen security personnel here, all martial arts masters?!”

Chapter 3895

“Yes!” Yuan Zixu nodded his head and said with certainty, “And the worst in strength is also a three-star martial artist!”

Fei Jianzhong was dumbfounded and couldn’t help but mutter, “How can there be so many martial arts masters in a small Jinling Didn’t we say that there weren’t many martial arts masters left in the country long ago?!”

Yuan Zixu whispered, “I don’t know either

In that case, it seems that the boss behind this auction must be a person with a lot of hands and eyes!”

At this time, an angry shout came, “035! What are you muttering to the people around you?! You are verbally warned this time, and one more time for exchanging ears!”

Fei Jianzhong knew that 035 was his internal code name, and when he heard this, he shivered in fear and hastily shut his mouth.

Although he was very rich, he didn’t dare to be given one demerit at such a time. Hmmm

Because once the demerit was recorded, well later on in the auction in case he got the Spring Return Pill, he would have to pay an extra 20% penalty.

Maybe this one will go out and cost extra billions or tens of billions, and that’s in US dollars!

Originally, there were some people in the crowd who were whispering and talking, but after such a roar, everyone else was silent and did not dare to make any more noise.

In accordance with the procedure, the two hundred tycoons and their entourage were the first to begin security checks.

The other ten alternates were placed behind them.

As for the three VIPs before them, they were arranged to go through the security check after everyone had entered.

So, at the moment, Ye Zhongquan, Lai Qinghua, and the Old Nordic Queen were all waiting in their respective rooms in the Administration Building for further notice.

Ye Chen made a special trip to see his grandfather Ye Zhongquan, who was somewhat exuberant at the moment and was looking forward to the upcoming auction.

On the one hand, he wanted to see if he had a chance to compete for the Spring Return Pill, and on the other hand, he knew that all the people who were coming today were rich and famous, and that he was able to attend as a VIP this time, so he was already holding on to his face.

Ye Zhongquan, who was in a good mood, was even happier when he saw Ye Chen at his door. He hurriedly let Ye Chen into the room and said smilingly, "Chen'er, you are so busy, how come you still have time to come and see me."

Ye Chen smiled faintly and said, "Grandpa, I have something to tell you in advance."

Ye Zhongquan said with a smile, "Chen'er, you are now the head of the Ye family, everyone in the Ye family looks up to you, so if there is anything you need to do, just say so, just give a phone call."

Ye Chen smiled slightly and said, "How can I do that, after all, you are the elder."

He said, "Grandpa, what I want to say to you is, after you arrive at the auction today, you should not participate in the bidding of the Spring Return Pill, after all, it is earning money from outsiders, we are our own people, there is no need to pour a hand inside. "

As soon as Ye Zhongquan heard this, he became incomparably excited.

Earlier, he had wanted to use the position of the Ye family head to exchange for the Spring Return Pill with Ye Chen.

But unexpectedly, during the battle at Ye Ling Mountain, Ye Chen had directly given him a cup of wine to release the power of the army, taking away the family headship in a few words, so much so that he was too embarrassed to ask Ye Chen for the Spring Return Pill.

He originally thought that Ye Chen would definitely not give him the Spring Return Pill for nothing, but in the blink of an eye, Ye Chen had given him a big surprise!

Although it was only half a pill, to Ye Zhongquan, it was already very satisfying!

Chapter 3896

At this moment, Ye Zhongquan was incomparably excited, and his voice was somewhat incoherent as he spoke: "Chen Chen'er You Are you really going to give grandfather half a Spring Return Pill?"

Ye Chen smiled faintly and nodded, "Can I still joke with you about such things? Don't worry, this half rejuvenation pill will be arranged for you at the auction site tonight, when the time comes, Miss Song, the organizer, will thank you in public for your support of the auction and then present you with half a rejuvenation pill on the spot, and all you have to do is just take that half rejuvenation pill in front of everyone."

Ye Zhongquan did not expect that he would be able to get what he wanted at the auction tonight, so he could not help but feel wildly happy inside, and his whole body was thrilled to the point of trembling, and he said with immense excitement, "Chen'er, don't worry, I will do everything you tell me at that time!"

Ye Chen nodded and said to Ye Zhongquan, "Then grandpa, you can rest for a while longer, when it's time for the VIPs to enter, a staff member will come to inform you."

Ye Zhongquan hurriedly said, "Okay, okay, Chen'er, you must still have a lot of important things to do right now, so you can go ahead and go about your business without worrying about me!"

“Good.” Ye Chen then said, “Then I will leave first.”

Without thinking, Ye Zhongquan said, “I’ll see you out!”

Ye Chen went out of Ye Zhongquan’s room and turned back and said, “Grandpa, please stay.”

“Good.”

In fact, Ye Chen did not have deep feelings for Ye Zhongquan, and he even felt for a while that he had nothing to do with his parents leaving Yanjing back then.

However, Ye Chen was not an ungrateful person, after all, it was the old man who had invited Lai Qinghua to go to Yanjing to rebuild Ye Lingshan, and this was the only way to break Ye Chen’s predicament of having a dragon trapped in the shallows.

Moreover, it was also the old master who had asked Tang Sihai to give himself 10 billion and the Dihao Group, which was a favour that Ye Chen would naturally not forget.

What’s more, when he was at Ye Lingshan, he took the family headship directly from the old master’s hand, and the old master willingly gave up the position without showing any dissatisfaction, this incident also made Ye Chen’s impression of the old master a few senses.

Ye Chen was also well aware of the old man’s desire for the Spring Return Pill, so promising him half a Spring Return Pill this time was a way to give him an explanation.

Leaving his grandfather’s room, Ye Chen headed to the central control room. Dozens of high-definition surveillance cameras had been installed at the auction site this time, providing all-round and dead-angle monitoring of the entire auction venue.

Ye Chen was not going to show up at the auction tonight, he was going to join Chen Zekai in the central control room to remotely control the entire auction.

At this moment, in the central control room, apart from Chen Zekai himself, Chen Zhonglei, one of the Four Battle Kings of the Ten Thousand Dragons Hall, was also here to remotely command all his men.

Seeing Ye Chen enter, both of them stood up very respectfully.

Chen Zekai said respectfully, “You’re here, Young Master.”

Chen Zhonglei wanted to greet Ye Chen, but remembering the process of his consciousness being sealed inside his body in the first place, he unconsciously felt some fear in his heart, so he could only bow slightly like a quail at Ye Chen and said very nervously, “Ye Hello Mr. Ye!”

Ye Chen nodded and opened his mouth to ask, “How is the situation?”

Chen Zekai pointed to the one in the middle of the nine large screens at the front and said to Ye Chen, “Young master, the two hundred people attending the conference as well as the ten people on the waiting list have basically all entered the venue one after another through security checks, and they will all finish entering soon, and then the VIPs will be invited to enter.”

Ye Chen nodded slightly and asked, “Did you encounter any problems during the security check?”

“No.” Chen Zekai said with a smile, “These people are all very obedient, they have almost nothing on them except their clothes, and they would hate to let out a fart so that they can pa*s the security check.” “All the people who have pa*sed the security check have pa*sed without any abnormalities.”

Chapter 3897

“That’s good.” Ye Chen nodded in satisfaction, and then asked Chen Zhonglei: “Nothing unusual was found around the scene today, right?”

Chen Zhonglei hurriedly shook his head and said seriously, “Mr. Ye, I have arranged for my capable men to install many hidden cameras as well as thermal imaging systems and life monitoring systems around the hotel, using the most sophisticated international equipment, and there are also many soldiers of the Ten Thousand Dragon Palace hiding in the shadows, so that no suspicious person will be allowed to enter Buckingham Palace. ”

“Good.” Ye Chen said with a smile, “With the brethren from the Ten Thousand Dragons Temple sitting in, I am completely at ease with this piece of security.”

Chen Zhonglei said respectfully, “Mr. Ye, my subordinates will do their best to ensure that the security of the auction is flawless!”

Ye Chen nodded approvingly, and at that moment, his mobile phone suddenly rang.

The caller was the fourth VIP of the evening, Fei Ke Xin.

As soon as the call came through, Fei Ke Xin said, “Mr. Ye, I am now at the entrance of Buckingham Palace, but the security personnel won’t let me get close, so I can only stand on the opposite side of the road.”

Ye Chen smiled and said, “Miss Zhan wait for a moment, I’ll go over to pick you up.”

Fei Ke Xin said politely, “Then it will be hard for Mr Ye!”

After hanging up the phone, Ye Chen arrived at the entrance of Buckingham Palace.

Sure enough, on the opposite side of the road from the main entrance, he saw a stunning and enchanting Fei Kexin in a black dress standing on the roadside.

When Fei Ke Xin saw Ye Chen, she hurriedly trotted over from across the road, and one of the generals of the Ten Thousand Dragons Palace beside Ye Chen immediately spoke up and said, “This lady, I have already warned you, our hotel is currently closed to the public, so please do not approach.”

Ye Chen said to him at this time with an indifferent face, “It’s alright, Miss Zhan is here to see me.”

That man was a five-star war general of the Ten Thousand Dragon Hall, and the head of the security team of the main gate, who had once seen Ye Chen’s terrifying strength on Ye Ling Mountain, hearing Ye Chen’s words, he immediately bowed respectfully and said, “Sorry Mr. Ye, my subordinate did not know that this lady was your friend, please do not blame”

Ye Chen waved his hand and smiled, “You are just doing your job, no offense, naturally there is no need to make amends with me.”

The man hurriedly said, "Thank you Mr. Ye for being considerate!"

At this moment, Fei Ke Xin could not help but be surprised in her heart, she did not expect that this man would refer to himself as a subordinate in front of Ye Chen, and her heart became a little more curious about Ye Chen's identity.

A moment later, she came to stand in front of Ye Chen and said with a polite smile, "Sorry Mr. Ye, I have to trouble you to come out to pick me up."

Ye Chen smiled lightly and said, "It's just a hand up, Miss Zhan doesn't need to be polite."

After saying that, Ye Chen made an invitation gesture and said to her, "Miss Zhan, please come in!"

"Good!" Fei Ke Xin nodded and followed Ye Chen into the Buckingham Palace Hotel, as she walked, she asked Ye Chen in mock surprise, "Mr. Ye, what is the great treasure in today's auction that there are so many security personnel, I've never seen this kind of formation before!"

Ye Chen didn't cover up and said casually, "The grand finale of tonight's auction is an elixir called the Spring Return Pill, which can not only cure a hundred diseases, but can also turn back time and make a person twenty years younger!"

Fei Pity pretended to be very surprised and asked, "In this world, is there really such a miraculous elixir?!"

Ye Chen smiled playfully and said, "It just so happens that there is a special rule for the auction tonight, those who have won the Spring Return Pill will have to take it on the spot, and then you will be able to see the miraculousness of this pill with your own eyes."

Chapter 3898

Fei Ke Xin had long understood the process and requirements of the Spring Return Pill Auction.

However, in front of Ye Chen, she still pretended to be surprised as she listened to his introduction.

It was for the sake of putting on a show that Ye Chen deliberately pretended that he was still convinced that she was the Zhan Feier from France.

This was because Ye Chen did not intend to expose Fei Ke Xin's identity, he intended to continue acting like this with Fei Ke Xin first, and then wait for Fei Ke Xin to come forward to reveal everything to himself.

So, with their own thoughts in mind, the two arrived at the security entrance of the banquet hall.

Ye Chen handed a VIP invitation to Fei Kexin and said to her, "Miss Zhan, just take the invitation yourself and go in, just give it to the staff, and then the staff will naturally take you directly to the private box on the first floor."

Fei Ke Xin asked in surprise, "Mr. Ye, don't you want to go in together?"

Ye Chen smiled, "I just have a VIP invitation, but my status is not VIP, but a consultant for this auction, so I will be sitting in the monitoring room later, so I won't be there."

“So that’s how it is.” Fei Ke Xin nodded gently, although she was a little disappointed that Ye Chen was not going in with her, but on second thought, since Ye Chen was the boss behind this auction, it was natural that he could not go with himself to the VIP room to watch it, he must be monitoring everything in real time from somewhere where he could see the whole picture.

So, she said to Ye Chen, “Mr Ye, in that case, I will go in first, and I will contact you first when the auction is over.”

Ye Chen nodded and said, “The security check for the auction is very strict, you have to give your mobile phone and all your belongings to the security guard for storage, and before the auction starts, your personal belongings will be taken to another place for temporary storage, but don’t worry, when the auction ends, the security guard will bring all your personal belongings over.”

“Good!” Fei Ke Xin really didn’t expect the security here to be this strict, it was just as well that her belongings were not allowed to be brought in, but she even had to be transferred to another place.

However, she was also clear that she did not have much choice, so she could only nod and accept.

Afterwards, Ye Chen said goodbye to Fei Kexin and let her go through the security check, while he prepared to return to the surveillance room.

The location of the monitoring room was in the box at the back of the banquet hall.

The venue for this auction was, after all, a temporary renovation by the hotel’s catering department. Apart from the largest banquet hall, there were several high-end banquet boxes in itself, so Chen Zekai chose a box that was a dozen metres away from the banquet hall, a distance that was very close but would not be disturbed in any way due to the excellent sound insulation.

As for these boxes, apart from one used as a monitoring room, there was also a temporary lounge for Song Wanting.

As Song Wanting herself would be the auctioneer for tonight’s auction, she was waiting in this lounge.

As Ye Chen passed by the door of her lounge, the door happened to be open and Song Wanting was just about to walk out of it when she ran into Ye Chen, her crystal eyes immediately filled with surprise and she blurted out, “Master Ye!”

Ye Chen smiled and said, “Wanting, how are the preparations going?”

Song Wanting shook the card filled with manuscripts in her hand and said with some apprehension, “I’ve almost done the preparations early on, but I’m just a bit nervous.”

She smiled gently and explained, “To be honest, I’ve never been an auctioneer before, and more importantly, the people who came to the auction this time are basically all wealthy people who are well-informed and rich, so I was worried that I wouldn’t play well and make them look at me as a joke.”

Ye Chen smiled and said comfortingly, “Actually, you don’t need to be nervous at all, this group of people who are coming tonight can forget their dignity for the sake of the Spring Return Pill, so no matter whether you perform well or badly, no one will dare to look at you as a joke.”

Chapter 3899

Song Wanting nodded gently and said shyly, "Actually in fact, I am mainly afraid that I will not play well and let you down, Master Ye"

Ye Chen laughed: "No, today is our seller's market, as long as the Spring Return Pill is on display, even if we do a lousy job, I'm afraid they will still want to participate next year, so you can go with confidence, no need to worry about playing well or badly!"

When Song Wanting heard him say that, the tension in her heart did ease a lot, and she nodded slightly and said, "Okay Master Ye, Wanting understands!"

Ye Chen said, "Right, Wan Ting, I originally wanted to invite your grandfather to attend this auction as the guest of honour, but then I thought that since you have just taken over the Song Group, it would be more appropriate for you, the new head of the Song family, to come out and showcase yourself on this occasion. So I've dismissed the idea, so don't blame me."

Song Wanting had really thought about this originally.

She didn't mean to blame Ye Chen, she just thought that, according to Ye Chen's style, he would take care of everything in such matters, and he would usually take care of everything that should be taken care of, even those that could be taken care of or not.

But this time, for some reason, he did not invite his own grandfather to attend, nor did he invite several other entrepreneurs in Jinling with whom he had a more simmering relationship.

For example, Qin Gang and Wang Zhenggang, both of them, were also not among the invitees.

However, once Ye Chen explained this, she immediately understood Ye Chen's good intentions.

Originally, she had been helped up to this position of family head by Ye Chen, and as she was young and had only been on the throne for a short time, she was naturally no match for her grandfather in terms of connections, fame and influence.

If Ye Chen invited grandfather over as a VIP today, it would widen the prestige gap between herself and grandfather even more.

This instantly made her heart even more grateful to Ye Chen and she couldn't help but speak up, "Master Ye, thank you for always thinking of Wanting in every way"

Ye Chen smiled lightly and said seriously, "I'm not just thinking of you either, there are still more or less some other selfish thoughts."

Saying that, Ye Chen continued, "For me, apart from having this layer of consideration for you, I am also worried that inviting too many acquaintances will reveal my coordinates."

"Especially people like Qin Gang, Wang Zhenggang, Hong Wu and Elder Song, if I invited each and every one of them to the VIP table, then someone with a good mind would only need to investigate the social connections of these few people and would be able to locate me immediately."

"So, I didn't invite my local friends this time, not only for your sake, but also to better hide myself."

There were just four VIPs tonight.

Apart from Fei Ke Xin, who was using a fake identity, it was Elder Ye, Lai Qing Hua and the Old Queen of Northern Europe.

As for Elder Ye, Ye Chen felt that it was fine, after all, he was only substantially seated as the head of the Ye family, but the head of the Ye family in the eyes of the outside world was still Elder Ye.

This auction, however, was jointly organised by the Song family and the Ye family, with the Song family head acting as the auctioneer and the Ye family head attending as the guest of honour, which made sense.

Moreover, Ye Chen felt that having Elder Ye come out more now was itself a good opportunity to increase the influence of the Ye family.

As for Lai Qing Hua and the Old Queen of Northern Europe, they were both usually miles away and had very little interactions with themselves originally, so it would be difficult for others to find themselves even if they cut through the two of them.

Chapter 3900

At this moment, inside the banquet hall.

Instead of being the least bit noisy, the scene of over four hundred people has managed to be silent.

There were two hundred official attendees of the auction here, as well as two hundred people accompanying them, and ten alternates who were ready to fill in at any time.

Many of them saw familiar figures, but, because of the strict disciplinary requirements of the venue, even if they saw their acquaintances, they could only greet them with a glance and a nod of the head, while maintaining absolute silence.

The time had reached 7.40am on the electronic clock hanging on the wall, and the crowd was all a bit impatient, as there were still 20 minutes to go before the auction began, and in 20 minutes, a violent battle between money and money would begin!

At that moment, the entrance to the venue opened and a beautiful woman dressed in a white satin cheongsam stepped into the venue.

Her appearance caused a gasp of surprise to be heard.

Even these top tycoons, who had seen a lot, had rarely had the opportunity to see such a stunning Oriental beauty.

This woman with an unparalleled oriental aura was the Chairman of the Song Group, Song Wanting.

Song Wanting, who was still a little nervous, was enlightened after Ye Chen's enlightenment.

She walked into the ballroom with a confident stride, crossed the red carpet between the left and right seats, and stepped onto the auction stage.

Everyone's eyes followed her figure and followed her onto the auction stage.

Then, standing in front of the auction stage, Song Wanting smiled demurely at the microphone and said, "Welcome to the first Spring Return Pill Auction.

Thunderous applause instantly erupted from the stage.

These people had waited for too long and had suppressed it for too long, and now that they were finally able to make some noise in name only, they naturally worked extra hard.

After the endless applause, Song Wanting nodded her head in acknowledgement and continued, "Tonight's auction is jointly organised by the Song Group Jiqing Hall and the Ye Group Buckingham Palace Hotel, and I, as tonight's auctioneer, will be there to guide and help you throughout the auction."

Speaking here, Song Wanting gave a slight beating before continuing, "Before the auction officially begins tonight, first of all, please welcome our three distinguished guests today with a warm round of applause!"

The majority of those attending the auction were unaware of the organisers' arrangements, so the majority of them did not know that there would be VIPs at the auction tonight.

At this moment, Song Wanting said, "The first guest of honour is the recently abdicated Nordic Queen, the Honourable Victoria Iliad!"

Beyond the entrance, the old Queen was pacing back and forth nervously.

Standing beside her were Ye Zhongquan, the head of the Ye family, and Lai Qinghua, the feng shui master.

Both Ye Zhongquan and Lai Qinghua were naturally old acquaintances, and they had only met here. Originally, both sides had quite a lot to say, but it was because the Old Empress was right beside them that they did not exchange much other than greeting each other.

At this time, when the Old Queen heard Song Wanting call her name, she hurriedly stood still, gently stroked her chest and took several deep breaths before she gathered her courage and stepped into the banquet hall.

Although the Old Queen has a high social status in Europe, to the rich and powerful in North America, the Middle East and Asia, she is just a poor old lady with an empty title of nobility, so there was a very interesting scene at once.

Just as the Old Queen entered, Ye Zhongquan outside the door said to Lai Qing Hua with a respectful face, "Old Mr. Lai, we finally meet again!"

Lai Qing Hua nodded and said with the same polite respect, "How have you been, Mr. Ye?"
