

Ye Chen 3911

Chapter 3911

With that, the rich black man, supported by his entourage and a general of the Ten Thousand Dragons Hall, slowly walked up to the stage, shivering step by step.

The 400-odd people below watched as he staggered all the way to the stage, each one suffering from the torment of having to walk for seven or eight minutes when a person could have walked in 30 seconds at most.

By the time he came to stand on the stage, his whole body was shaking even more eye-wateringly.

He had long ago collapsed Li Tai Lai and, eyeing the rich black man, gritted his teeth and cursed, "F*ck! This grandson is standing there, shaking as if his body is covered in f*cking high-voltage electricity, my eyes are almost blinded by him!"

In fact, Li Tailai's quality was not low, and he was usually a refined businessman known for his gentle manner.

However, today, his mind had been greatly stimulated, and missing out on the Spring Return Pill had turned his whole person into a cynic.

Now, he was very upset at everything he saw and wanted to curse at everyone he saw.

Song Wanting stood in front of the auction stage at this moment and said with a smile, "Let's congratulate No. 047 on achieving the opening of tonight's auction, of course I also have to remind 047 here that you have successfully won the first Spring Return Pill, for the next Spring Return Pill auction, you will be disqualified from bidding, please do you know that?"

The rich black man didn't know whether he was nodding or whether his head had been bobbing back and forth, only to see him shivering and reaching out his hand, pointing laboriously at the quarter of the Spring Return Pill on the display table and saying impatiently, "Here Give it to me I I want to take Now Take it now"

Song Wanting nodded slightly and spoke, "Good, then we will have our staff, personally hand over the Spring Return Pill to you."

Saying this, Song Wanting saw that his hands were shaking really badly, so she spoke, "It's better to let our staff, directly feed you the elixir and take it down!"

Immediately afterwards, Song Wanting nodded to the General of the Ten Thousand Dragons Hall who had been standing by the side of the Spring Return Pill. The other party immediately picked up the Spring Return Pill with both hands and stepped over to the rich black man, steadied his jaw with one hand and very slowly picked up the quarter of the Spring Return Pill with the other hand and sent it towards his mouth in front of everyone's eyes.

This series of actions, after being magnified by the big screen on the scene, could be seen extremely clearly by everyone.

Therefore, at this moment, all of the 400-odd people at the scene, without exception, were holding their breath with unblinking eyes.

Not a single person dared to blink, for fear that they might miss the birth of some miracle.

Of course, there were also many people who were absolutely sceptical, after all, this man's Parkinson's symptoms were too severe and everyone was well-informed, so there was no medical possibility of curing such a severe form of Parkinson's.

Li Tai Lai still couldn't help but spit out in a low voice: "D*mn, if two more people like this came, the whole building would have to be shaken down by them!"

It was unknown who echoed behind him, "This dude is shaking like this, even if he dies the coffin board won't cover him, I don't believe this Spring Return Pill can cure him!"

Just then, the elixir had been put into the rich black man's mouth by the staff.

At this moment, everyone was staring at the screen with wide eyes and motionless dead eyes.

The scene was so quiet that it was as if a pin dropped on the ground and could be heard by everyone.

The entire audience of over 400 people was motionless and almost completely frozen.

Except for the rich black man, who was still standing on the stage, shaking stubbornly.

And the quarter of the rejuvenation pills had instantly melted away in his mouth

Chapter 3912

The efficacy of the Spring Return Pill never disappoints those who take it.

The rich black man had just put a quarter of the Pill into his mouth when he felt the Pill turn into a warm stream that instantly flowed into his abdomen.

Immediately afterwards, the heat flow was instantly dispersed from his abdomen to his whole body.

He then felt a wonderful sensation that he had never felt before in his life, as if his whole body was bathed in God's holy light, feeling extremely soothed in every part of his body.

Then, he suddenly felt as if his senses had entered into a state of slow motion.

This was because the trembling of his body instantly began to slow down drastically.

He had already gotten used to the strong involuntary tremors in his body, so he didn't react at all when his body's trembling suddenly slowed down drastically.

In addition, everything around him, almost everyone around him, was standing there motionless, so he was even less able to find a suitable reference point to determine whether his shaking had slowed down because it was really slowing down or because his senses had slowed down.

Not only did he fail to figure it out, but the others were just as confused.

They too could see that the old man on the stage had instantly slowed down his shaking speed a lot, but they had no other reference point either, so they didn't know at once whether they were blinded or not.

However, what made them different from the old man was that they just didn't look back for a while, but once they did, they were immediately able to find a reference from themselves.

Some of those who reacted quickly were the first to spread their hands out and make fists with their ten fingers, and then later to open their palms, to determine that they did not have the illusion of seeing slower by confirming the speed at which their fingers came together and opened.

So that would establish that the old man's shaking on the stage was really a great improvement.

When they tried to get a better look again, they were shocked to find that the old man was not shaking anymore

At this time, someone in the bidding gallery shouted, "My goodness! Look! That old man isn't shaking at all!"

The crowd looked again and saw that the old man, who had been the only one in the room moving, was now completely still!

The old black man, who was shaking to the point of visual stigmata, was now standing there quietly, like a wax statue, motionless.

It was only when the rich black man saw the movements of many people on the stage that he finally realised that it wasn't that time had stood still or that his senses had slowed down, but that he had actually stopped shaking!

At this moment, he tried to raise his own hand to touch his nose.

Previously, this simplest of actions had been the most difficult for him.

Because, with severe Parkinson's disease, his fingers, wrists, arms and even his entire body were constantly shaking, it was difficult for him to lift his hand, and even more impossible for him to get it to touch his nose accurately.

For countless nights he was immersed in his beautiful dreams, too happy to wake up, and most of those beautiful dreams were of him finally succeeding in touching his nose; happiness was so simple for him, yet so difficult.

However, never in his wildest dreams could he have imagined that he had just taken the rejuvenation pill and in less than half a minute, not only had his entire body stopped trembling, but even his body's sense of strength had been greatly restored.

He easily lifted his own arm and, with hardly any deviation, touched his nose.

At this moment, it was as if his tear ducts had lost their restraint, and one bean-sized tear after another came rushing out without stopping.

This feeling, for him, was like being reborn.

He was so excited that he suddenly jumped up on the spot, and just at the moment he landed heavily on the ground, as if venting his anger, he shouted: "Parkinson! You've tormented me like a demon for so long, and today I've finally defeated you!!!"

It was like an illusion that a person with severe Parkinson's who had just been supported to walk a few dozen metres in seven or eight minutes could now not only lose all his symptoms, but even jump on the spot, shout loudly, and even stop stumbling over his words as he had just done.

An explosion of excitement erupted from the stage!

Many people had already subconsciously stood up, as if they were in great shock, and were shouting frantically under their breath.

Some were shouting, This can't be!

Some were shouting, He's really well!

Someone was shouting, I must be dreaming!

Some were shouting, "This is not a dream, this is a miracle!

Chapter 3913

The Middle Eastern tycoon who had decided to give up at the last minute and not raise his bid was in tears of remorse!

With one hand over his heart and one hand smacking his face, he cursed, "You miser! You bloody miser!!! What's the use of keeping your money? What's the use!!! Are you going to take your money to heaven with you?!"

After saying this, he covered his face, which was already half swollen from the beating, with his hands and whimpered.

Meanwhile, the Middle Eastern tycoon was not the only one who had slapped himself with a vicious hand.

Many of those who had previously watched the show or questioned the Spring Return Pill were completely shocked by this shocking scene.

And the shock was followed by extreme regret!

Among them, there were quite a few people who could actually afford to pay US$2 billion.

Moreover, quite a few of them were actually terminally ill, otherwise they would not have travelled so far to attend the Spring Return Pill auction.

However, they were like frogs at the bottom of the well, thinking that this medicine could not possibly be worth so much money.

So, as soon as they came up, they simply gave up on the idea of bidding.

Now, they had finally realised the miracle of the Spring Return Pill, but they had missed their only chance to pick up the pieces!

They had thought that the price of US$2 billion was already sky-high, but now they realised that this was not a sky-high price, it was simply a cabbage price compared to its unparalleled miraculous effects!

This is because these rich people understand that life is the most valuable thing in this world!

What's two billion dollars? If you live, everything is possible!

If you don't believe me, just look at Steve Jobs!

When Steve Jobs died in 2011, Apple's market capitalisation was over US$300 billion.

And ten years after Jobs' death, Apple's market capitalisation exceeded three trillion dollars.

And at the time of his death, all of Jobs' fortune was counted to be about ten billion dollars, and when he died, the family fortune was inherited by his wife.

If he had been given a chance to spend US$2 billion to extend his life at that time, he would not only have survived in good health, but his value would have also exceeded US$100 billion.

So, since the rejuvenation pills have such miraculous effects, the account is worth every penny, and it's not a bad deal!

At this time, even Fei Jianzhong, who had been silent, could not help but feel his heart surging with excitement!

He finally understood that the Spring Return Pill could extend a person's life by twenty years, and that it was not just a lie!

The more this was the case, the more he was determined to win that last Spring Return Pill!

He felt that as long as he could live another twenty years, what if he could take out half of his family fortune, not to mention US$10 billion?

As long as he lived, he would still be able to enjoy the remaining half!

But if he dies, even if his fortune multiplies ten thousand times or one hundred million times after his death, what the hell is the point?

At this time, Li Tailai, who had missed out on the Spring Return Pill and whose mind had completely collapsed, was even more devastated.

He also began to regret that he hadn't gritted his teeth and continued to raise the bid at the last crucial moment.

Moreover, he was one of the few people in the room who were most aware of the efficacy of the Spring Return Pill.

In his heart, he cursed himself, "bd! What a f*cking bd! Knowing that the Spring Return Pill has unbelievable effects, you still f*cking put money first! You had the best chance of getting this quarter of the Spring Return Pill, but you let someone else auction it away, your brain is eaten by dogs!!!"

And the more he thought this, the more his mind became unbalanced.

So, he stood up out of breath, pointed at the old man on the stage, and shouted hysterically, "The Spring Return Pill! This is the Spring Return Pill! This is the f*cking Return of Spring! Spring! This is the f*cking Spring! Look at you, you bunch of C*nts who haven't seen the world! A quarter of a Spring Return Pill and you're all in a state of shock? I'm telling you, I once had the pleasure of taking a whole pill of this elixir! Listen carefully, it's a whole pill! You bunch of C*nts can go ahead and envy it!"

Chapter 3914

Li Tai Lai's sudden shouting shocked everyone.

No one had expected that there would be someone on the scene who had taken a whole rejuvenation pill.

However, most people naturally didn't believe this, after all, this item was so D*mn expensive that the person who could buy a whole one must be very famous around the world, but the vast majority of people in the audience didn't know Li Tailai, so they only thought that this person was just talking out of his a*s.

Some even thought that this guy must have lost his mind because he hadn't won the first copy of the Spring Return Pill, and now that he saw how effective it was, he had lost his mind.

At this moment, Li Tailai had already lost his mind and wanted to curse a few times to vent his frustration. Why are you all looking at me with such eyes? Do you think I'm joking with you? I'm telling you, think about the time when"

Just as Li Tailai's arrogant face was ready to tell the story, Song Wanting said with a cold face, "No. 055! I've stressed the discipline on the scene many times before we started, why do you still violate it repeatedly?"

Li Tailai was about to curse when he took a look at Song Wanting's cold eyes and was instantly scared.

He then remembered that the boss behind today's auction was definitely Ye Chen, and Song Wanting was definitely working for Ye Chen, so if he was blatantly breaking the venue's rules here, wouldn't he be contradicting Master Ye Chen?

Thinking of this, he immediately broke into a cold sweat, his arrogance and anger just now instantly dissipated, and he hurriedly folded his hands and begged bitterly, "Miss Song, I'm really sorry! I was just being impulsive! Please give me one more chance for the sake of our old acquaintance, I promise I will never speak nonsense again!"

Song Wanting shook her head and said in a cold voice, "Sorry 055, rules are rules."

After saying that, she looked at the Wan Long Hall generals around her and spoke, "Please take 055 out."

Li Tailai opened his mouth and wanted to say something else, but seeing that the imposing security personnel had already reached him, he knew that he had already made a big mistake, so he could only nod his head in a dishevelled and incomparable manner, and followed the security personnel out of the auction hall without a word.

Song Wanting was also a little sorry, Li Tailai was usually not a bad person and had a good psychological quality, he just didn't expect that he would do something so irrational today because of the matter of the Spring Return Pill.

According to the rules set by Ye Chen, Li Tailai would have nothing to do with the Spring Return Pill auction in the future.

However, once the auction was over tonight, the Spring Return Pill would definitely become a well-known treasure in high society, so it was unlikely that Li Tailai would ever have that chance again in his life.

Seeing that Li Tailai was taken out of the venue with his soul lost, Song Wanting sighed helplessly and then spoke, "No. 055 has been expelled from the venue for disregarding the venue rules and disturbing the order of the venue, next, please ask No. 201 to fill in.

In the last row of the crowd, a man in his sixties rose to his feet in excitement, shaking with excitement as he put his hands together and bowed repeatedly, "Thank you, Miss Song! Thank you Jiqingtang! Thank you Buckingham Palace!!!"

Before this man entered, he knew that he was the number one substitute, but he was in a good frame of mind, knowing that he was unlikely to succeed in filling the position, so he came in with the idea of opening his eyes and gaining exposure to the world.

However, after witnessing the miraculous effects of the Spring Return Pill with his own eyes just now, deep down he was also eager for the Spring Return Pill.

Therefore, he could not help but regret that he had missed out on the qualification to bid for the Spring Return Pill by a mere one place.

But he had never dreamed that the opportunity would come so suddenly.

So, ecstatic, he stepped out from the last row and ran all the way to Li Tailai's place at the front.

However, when he had just run a few steps, he suddenly stumbled and planted himself on the ground, and immediately afterwards, his whole body had fallen to his knees.

Just when everyone thought that he must have fallen because he was too excited, he fell on his knees, covering his face and bawling.

He cried with great sadness and while crying, he shouted helplessly like a child, "I did wait until I qualified for the byes, but but but I can't afford it!!!"

Chapter 3915

With this cry, he shouted out the hearts of at least half of the people in the audience.

The first copy of the Spring Return Pill had already fetched a price of US$2 billion, which was no longer something they could afford.

What's more, after everyone had seen the miraculous effects of the Spring Return Pill, the price of future Spring Return Pills was bound to rise, and those of them who had not officially made it into the top two hundred, as well as those in the top two hundred who ranked relatively low, would simply not be able to win even if they took out all the cash they had on hand to participate in the subsequent auctions.

This is why this man went from joy to sorrow so quickly, experiencing the whole process of heaven to hell in a flash.

This caused him to cry uncontrollably as his heart was filled with grief.

Song Wanting had no choice but to ask him in a routine manner, “No. 201, are you willing to fill No. 055’s position? If you are not willing to fill the seat, I will have to invite No. 202.”

The man, still burying his head in pain, choked out, “I give up, leave the opportunity to others

At the end of the crowd, No. 202 stood up with red eyes, holding back his tears, and said in a trembling voice, “I I give up too

No. 203 hesitated for a moment and also raised his hand and said, “I also give up

All the people who were filling the seats behind them, one by one, took a stand and said that they gave up their qualifications to fill the seats.

It wasn’t that they didn’t want to, but they really didn’t want to allow themselves to have that unrealistic fantasy.

Sitting at the back and watching the Spring Returning Pill being slapped away must have felt more comfortable than sitting in front and watching.

Moreover, when they had come to fill the seats, they hadn’t even thought that the Spring Return Pill would be so expensive.

Now this price was really far beyond their means.

The auction didn’t allow for instalment payments, so there was no way they could afford to buy the Spring Return Pill at the back.

Song Wanting also understood this feeling of theirs, and said helplessly, “Since this is the case, then No. 055’s qualification is temporarily vacant, and our auction will continue.”

After saying this, Song Wanting looked at the rich black man on the stage and spoke, “No. 047, please return to your place, our auction will continue.”

The black tycoon, who had suffered from Parkinson’s for many years and had been instantly cured just now, could not help but ask with a pleading face, “Miss Song, can you let me continue with the bidding for the Spring Return Pill? If my bid is successful, I am willing to pay an additional US$500 million!”

One by one, the people on the stage went from envious to annoyed in an instant.

They didn’t expect that this guy didn’t know enough after picking up a bargain and had the audacity to want to continue participating in the auction.

Some of them hated to break out in curses.

However, when they thought of Li Tailai, who had just been driven out, they could only shut their mouths resentfully.

At this time, Song Wanting looked at the rich black man and said seriously, "Sorry 047, I have made all the relevant requirements very clear, please respect our rules."

Seeing this, the rich black man had to sigh with resignation and walk back to his seat.

Everyone saw how fit he was, and the envy and jealousy in his heart had reached its peak.

At this moment, Fei Jianzhong had already made up his mind that he would not hesitate to take that last Spring Return Pill, even if it went to US$100 billion!

Chapter 3916

The auction for the first Spring Return Pill was successfully concluded, and Song Wanting then began to introduce the second lot of tonight's auction.

The rhythm of tonight's auction was to start with one lot of the Spring Return Pill to raise the atmosphere, followed by a few pieces of antiques and cultural items selected by Jiqing Hall to whet everyone's appetite, and then follow up with a second lot of the Spring Return Pill when everyone's appetite and patience had been whetted to the limit, and so on.

So, at this point, the auction began with the display of the second item in the collection, an official kiln blue and white dish from the Qianlong period.

At this time, outside the auction hall, Li Tailai was taken to the lounge at the back by the generals of the Ten Thousand Dragons Hall. According to Ye Chen's request, all the expelled bidders could not leave directly, but had to wait in the lounge until the auction was completely over before they could leave.

Ye Chen had just been in the monitoring room and had watched all of Li Tailai's performance and could not help but feel some emotion in his heart.

He knew why Li Tailai had lost his mind and was able to understand it to a certain extent.

He then said to Chen Zekai, who was beside him, "Old Chen, keep an eye on the scene first, I'll go and see Li Tailai."

Chen Zekai nodded gently and said respectfully, "Yes young master."

Ye Chen paced up and down to the lounge where Li Tailai was, at this moment, Li Tailai was sitting paralyzed on the sofa, his whole body was in tears, while his heart was also remorseful.

He also realised that his behaviour just now had been extremely immature and irrational.

But the big mistake had been made and there was no chance to undo it now.

He could not wait to see Ye Chen now, to confess to him in person, to pray for his forgiveness again, and preferably to be able to buy some more Spring Return Pills from Ye Chen privately outside the venue.

Even if he really had to spend US$2 billion on a quarter of a pill, he would still be willing to do so.

Just then, the door to the lounge room was suddenly pushed open, and as soon as Li Tailai saw Ye Chen walk in, he stood up from the sofa with a jolt and said apprehensively, "Ye Master Ye"

Ye Chen nodded slightly at him, walked up to him and spoke, "Mr. Li, what's wrong tonight? So reckless, not like your past style."

Li Tailai let out a long sigh, wiped his tears and said incomparably ashamed, "I'm sorry Master Ye I I"

Li Tailai stammered for half a day, and finally choked up and said, "It's because my pattern is too small"

Ye Chen smiled faintly and said, "If you hadn't auctioned that Spring Return Pill back then, you might not have been in such a bad frame of mind."

"Yes....." Li Tailai nodded repeatedly and said retrospectively, "It was because I had auctioned for that Spring Return Pill that my mind was completely out of balance..... I don't know what's wrong with me Seeing the price of the Spring Return Pill getting higher and higher, I'm holding more and more fire in this heart"

Ye Chen said seriously: "We sometimes have a blind eye because of our own reasons, or outside influences, so at times like this we need to look at things from a different perspective, you are not too old by nature, and you just shot a whole Spring Return Pill not long ago, now your body age is only in your thirties, no illnesses or disasters, compared to those hundreds of people inside, you are in the best physical condition, and, your You are in the best physical condition compared to the hundreds of people in there, and your luck is much better than everyone else in the room, so when you think about it, even if you miss this Spring Return Pill auction, it's not a big deal, but I didn't expect that you would be the one with the worst mentality."

Li Tailai said offhandedly, "What Master Ye said was"

Chapter 3917

After saying that, he hurriedly looked at Ye Chen and choked up, "Master Ye, please, for the sake of my first mistake, give me another chance, I deserve to be disqualified from continuing to participate in this year's auction, but in future auctions, don't ever, ever remove me from the list!"

Ye Chen seriously said, "Mr. Li, I have set up such a large plate and gotten so many high-end players here, the most important thing I need to ensure is the fairness of the game, if I can't ensure fairness, how can this game continue to be played in the future?"

"But I" Li Tailai opened his mouth and wanted to explain something.

At this time, Ye Chen extended his hand and interrupted him, "Mr. Li, we are all adults, if you break the rules, you have to bear the consequences of breaking the rules."

Although Li Tailai was reluctant in his heart, he knew very well that he had no bargaining power in front of Ye Chen.

Not to mention Ye Chen's current status and strength, after this auction alone, Ye Chen might net tens or even hundreds of billions of dollars, which was already far beyond himself, so how could he be qualified to chatter with him?

Thinking of this, he could only sigh in dismay and respectfully say, "You are right, Master Ye, a thousand wrongs are my own fault, and I will bear my own mistakes."

Ye Chen nodded gently and asked him, "Who accompanied you here today? I didn't see that you had someone accompanying you."

"It's", Li Tailai said busily, "I didn't bring my entourage this time."

Ye Chen asked him, "Why didn't you bring Zhao Hao with you?"

Zhao Hao was Ye Chen's best friend at the orphanage, and when Ye Chen introduced him to Li Tailai, Li Tailai did give him face and made Zhao Hao his driver and a*ssistant, and with an annual salary of two million, he directly turned Zhao Hao around and made a leap in cla*s.

Hearing Ye Chen ask about Zhao Hao, Li Tailai was even more ashamed and said: "Back to Master Ye I originally wanted to bring Xiao Zhao with me, but during this period of time, there are many people in Haicheng who are racking their brains to find out exactly what I am doing because I suddenly got so much younger some time ago, I really don't want to let Haicheng That group of people know this secret, so to be cautious, so I did not bring Xiao Zhao over"

Speaking of this, Li Tailai let out a long sigh and laughed to himself, "Or my pattern is too small too small"

Ye Chen smiled faintly and spoke, "Mr. Li, your current physical condition, painfully living another fifty years is basically no problem, so first put the matter of the Spring Return Pill in perspective, focus on your career, earn more money, do more good deeds, in the future even if you can not participate in the Spring Return Pill auction, there are other ways to get the Spring Return Pill. "

Hearing this, Li Tailai was excited and asked, "Master Ye, is this true?!"

Ye Chen nodded and said seriously, "Jinling has nurtured me for nearly twenty years, and now that I have some ability, I would like to make some contribution to this ancient city. If you can join in, you also have a chance to get the Spring Return Pill."

Li Tai Lai said excitedly, "Master Ye, I am willing to join! I beg you to give me a chance, I will move my business to Jinling, pay taxes for Jinling every year, create jobs for Jinling, and add to the construction of Jinling!"

Ye Chen nodded and said, "I naturally welcome you to have this idea, when the time comes, these projects will be developed by the Dihao Group, you can pay more attention to them."

With red eyes, Li Tailai choked up and said, "Thank you Master Ye! Thank you Master Ye!"

Chapter 3918

Seeing that Li Tailai's emotions had been pacified, Ye Chen then said to him, "Alright Mr. Li, you can rest here first, you can leave when the auction is over, you can pay more attention to what I just said, I will also say hello to Wang Dongxue of the Dihao Group, so that she can communicate with you in time if there is any progress."

Li Tailai was grateful and quickly bowed, "Thank you Master Ye for taking care of me, Li will never forget it!"

After saying that, he said without thinking, "I will go back to Haicheng tonight and gather all my men for a meeting to discuss how to transfer all the Group's business to Jinling as quickly as possible! If there is anything Master Ye needs me to do in the future, or if you need me to do anything, just give me an order, I will do my best!"

Ye Chen nodded and smiled, "Fine, you stay here and adjust your mind, I'll leave first."

Li Tailai hurriedly said, "Yes, Master Ye, I will adjust and reflect properly!"

Ye Chen gave a hint and stepped out of the lounge.

After Ye Chen left, Li Tailai's body went limp and he instantly sat down on the ground, then he let out a long breath and his whole body felt relieved.

He knew that Ye Chen was right, he really did not need the Spring Return Pill at the moment, but just because he did not need it now did not mean that he would not need it in a few decades.

Now, he had not only failed to get the Spring Return Pill, he had also buried his future qualification for the auction, which was indeed like breaking his own way out.

Fortunately, Ye Chen had left himself other opportunities, otherwise it would have been too late to regret.

At this moment, after the successful auction of a few ordinary items, Song Wanting said with a smile, "Thank you all for your support of our auction, next will be another moment of great interest, because the next lot, is the second Spring Return Pill of the night, those who are interested should be prepared to bid."

As soon as Song Wanting said this, everyone in the audience immediately sat up straight.

Ever since they had witnessed the amazing transformation of the black tycoon after taking the Spring Recovery Pill, everyone had been eagerly awaiting the appearance of the second Spring Recovery Pill.

At this moment, everyone in the audience no longer questioned the efficacy of the Spring Recovery Pill, and every one of them was incomparably eager for it.

The difference was that some people were financially overwhelmed, so they were already fist-pumping and eager to try it now.

Others, however, knew in their hearts that they could not possibly afford it, so they could only give up the competition with great reluctance.

At this moment, Song Wanting continued, "Next, please ask our staff to present the second Spring Return Pill to the stage!"

An etiquette lady once again came up with a delicate silver tray, and on top of this silver tray was the second Spring Return Pill that everyone had been waiting for.

After the lady had carefully placed the silver tray on the display, Song Wanting smiled and said, “The starting price for the second Spring Return Pill is still US$100 million, and the rules for bidding up are still the same, with a minimum increase of US$10 million each time.

As soon as the words left his mouth, the Middle Eastern tycoon raised his hand without thinking and shouted, “I bid two billion dollars!”

The second first bid had instantly increased the starting price by 20 times, something that would have been impossible at any auction.

But at this moment, not a single person on the floor felt that this price was out of the ordinary.

After all, everyone knew very well that the first copy of the Spring Return Pill had already fetched this price, so how could the second copy be lower than it?

If the price of the second copy had gone up from US$100 million, it would have been a problem in the minds of the people present.

Therefore, as soon as the Middle Eastern tycoon’s mouthful of US$2 billion fell, someone immediately raised his hand, “US$2.1 billion!”

Chapter 3919

Before Song Wanting had the chance to quote the other party’s number, someone else immediately raised his hand: “Two and a half billion!”

“Three billion!”

“Three and a half billion!”

“Four billion!”

“Five billion!”

Within a dozen seconds, the price was pushed right up to the height of five billion dollars by the successive bids on the floor.

However, the bidding continued to be incessant.

“Five billion ten million dollars!”

“How about adding ten million to ten million? I’ll bid five and a half billion!”

“I bid fifty-eight! Fifty-eight! Five hundred and eight, I want to pay!”

I thought I was already very bold when I asked for two billion.

But I didn’t expect that he was just playing a cameo role as a firing squad.

How many people could afford to pay US$5.8 billion?

Thinking of this, he couldn't help but remember his own stupidity in missing out on the first rejuvenation pill, and he was even more devastated inside.

So, he clenched his teeth and shouted again, "Six billion dollars! I bid six"

Before he finished his words, the man who had just called for five billion eight hundred million opened his mouth again and shouted, "Six billion eight hundred million! Six hundred and eighty-eight, hair on the road!"

The Middle Eastern tycoon instantly wanted to cry.

He had already made a very strong decision by asking for six billion, but the other party didn't even give him the chance to finish his sentence

The feeling of despair immediately surged from the bottom of his heart to his whole body, and he only felt numbness and coldness in his limbs.

The price of over US$6.8 billion had already exceeded the cash flow in his hands, which meant that he had, from now on, completely withdrawn from the auction of the Spring Return Pill.

Thinking of this, he smacked himself once again and said with hatred under his breath, "Stupid! You stupid bd!!!"

Only, no one paid any attention to his self-harm, as the enthusiasm with which everyone called for bids was not at all intimidated by the offer of 6.8 billion.

Soon, an American tycoon sat motionless in his seat, allowing his entourage to raise their hands before speaking up, "I'll bid seven billion!"

The man who spoke was a white American of only forty years of age.

He was a famous Internet entrepreneur in Silicon Valley named Todd, who had founded a company that had been listed on the NASDAQ a few years ago and now had a market capitalisation of over US$100 billion.

He is not only a brilliant entrepreneur in his own right, but also an adventurous outdoor adventurer.

The year before last, he was caught in an avalanche while skiing in Switzerland during the ski season.

He survived, but his body was badly damaged in the avalanche, and after being rescued he was diagnosed, as was Xiao Changkun earlier, with paraplegia caused by a spinal cord injury.

Although he looked no different from a normal person sitting there, he had lost all control from the neck down.

For a middle-aged man with a wealthy family, this was worse than death.

In the past two years, he had tried every cutting-edge medical technology in the world, but none had been able to save him from the abyss of paraplegia.

After stumbling upon the news of the rejuvenation elixir, he also signed up with the mindset of coming over to take a look and preferring to kill his mistakes to let them go.

Originally, he didn't have much hope for the Spring Returning Elixir either, but after witnessing with his own eyes just now that the severe Parkinson's patient was surprisingly cured instantly, he was filled with confidence and desire for the Elixir!

Chapter 3920

Todd's price of seven billion did not deter the competition.

Just then, another tycoon raised his hand, "Seventy-two!"

The Chinese tycoon who had previously called for five and six billion eight hundred million had turned a little pale.

Although he had called for a very generous bid, he was actually not really short of money.

The only limit he could afford was another eight billion, and the reason he had raised his bid twice so quickly was to scare off the other competitors before his own limit was reached.

But if he had been bidding on ordinary commodities, his approach might have worked, but what was being bid on was not a commodity, but a life expectancy!

The terminally ill, by bidding for a quarter of these rejuvenation pills, would have a great chance of being completely cured, not necessarily a few years younger, but enough to extend their lives by a few years, or even a few decades, as long as their terminal illnesses were cured.

After all, some of them are only in their 50s and 60s. After suffering from a terminal illness, even if they are rich, they can only live for a few more years, but if the terminal illness is completely cured, with their financial resources, it is not difficult for them to live until they are 80 or 90 years old.

Therefore, what is on the stage is not a rejuvenation pill at all, but a universal life expectancy for everyone!

Under such circumstances, no matter what psychological tactics you are playing, everyone had one thought in mind, even if they had to pike all their liquid funds, they would still have to bid for the Spring Return Pill!

However, among the crowd, there were a few people with relatively calm expressions who had not participated in the bidding.

These few people, rather than not having the strength to compete for the Spring Return Pill, had been holding back their energy to bid for the last one.

This included Fei Jianzhong, and also Bernard Elnor, who had been allotted two billion in goods by Ye Chen.

Apart from that, there were several other bidders whose declared a*sets were not that high.

They had all selectively taken out only a portion of their a*sets when declaring their a*sets as well as cooperating with the capital inspection, so their declared value was only around US$100 billion, however, these few people were in fact very strong top-tier hidden wealthy people.

One of them, a middle-aged man whose face was somewhat similar to that of middle-aged Zheng Shaoqiu, and even a little more handsome than him, kept his hands clasped in front of his chest, and never raised his hands, nor did he have any intention of doing so, while his eyes were fixed on the Spring Return Pill on the stage, with a somewhat cold expression.

At this moment, an attendant next to him said in a low voice, "Young master, according to this current trend, the last Spring Return Pill will really cost several tens of billions!"

The middle-aged man nodded gently and said without changing his face, "No matter how much the price goes, we must take this Spring Return Pill at all costs!"

And at that moment, the bidding continued.

The price had been called all the way up to eighty-eight billion.

After reaching this price, the voices calling for bids obviously decreased a lot.

Although the people who came were all rich, it was indeed rare to find someone who could come up with US$8.8 billion.

The Chinese brother had already lowered his head deeply and gave up his struggle with teary eyes.

At this time, Todd gritted his teeth and pushed the price up to nine billion.

Immediately afterwards, another man also began to be cautious and added a hundred million dollars to his.

The one who offered nine billion also seemed to be ready for a tug-of-war, so he too added one hundred million dollars to his nine billion and one half.

The two went back and forth, gradually leaving the others behind and also gradually pushing the price to US$9.9 billion.

At this point, both sides in the tussle had the feeling that they were almost ready to die together.

Others at the scene, however, began to mentally calculate the situation at hand.

Some people felt that this second Spring Return Pill might be the most expensive of the four tonight.

This was because having just experienced the chicken blood given to everyone on the spot by the first Spring Return Pill, it would cause everyone to lose their minds and scramble madly.
