

Ye Chen 3941

Chapter 3941

Although his granddaughter Fei Kexin had already established a certain connection with the owner of the Spring Return Pill, now that the Pill had reached this price, Fei Jianzhong no longer had any hope for Fei Kexin, as he knew that it was absolutely impossible for his granddaughter to obtain a Spring Return Pill for him.

Who would have expected that Huo Yuanzheng would immediately speak without any hesitation, "Twenty-two billion!"

At this moment, Fei Jianzhong's expression instantly froze, and his body movements also stopped instantly at this moment.

He finally realised why this auction would be so crazy.

It was because, it really was about human lives.

If you win, your life will be extended.

If you lose, even if you are worth hundreds of billions or trillions, you will only have to wait for death after you leave this door.

If your health is not that bad and you can continue to last another year, then perhaps there is still a chance to come back and compete for the Spring Return Pill.

Otherwise, if you are like Fei Jianzhong, you can basically go back and prepare for the aftermath.

Song Wanting looked at Fei Jianzhong at this time and opened her mouth to ask, "No. 035, do you wish to continue bidding?"

Fei Jianzhong snapped back to his senses, and immediately looked at Song Wanting with a face like death, shaking his head in dismay.

He knew that he had already lost.

Even if he continued to call for the price, when he couldn't pay it, he would only be left with a basket of bamboo.

Moreover, it was possible that he would be ridiculed by the whole audience at that time.

He knew at this moment that he was already dying, and that if he continued to struggle, it would only be in vain and he would lose his last shred of dignity.

Frustrated, he waved his hand and did not continue to bid.

He then buried his head deeper, forcing himself to accept the reality that his time was up.

On the side, Yuan Zixu was also overwhelmed with emotion. He wanted to comfort Fei Jianzhong, but for a moment he did not know how to do so.

So he could only gently pat Fei Jianzhong's back and whispered, "Elder Fei, in your current state of health, you must not get emotional!"

Fei Jianzhong nodded gently, but his heart was still in agony.

Huo Yuanzheng looked at Fei Jianzhong's back and let out a long sigh, chanting softly, "Uncle Fei, I'm sorry"

Inside the box on the first floor, Fei Kexin was already in tears, and the makeup on her face, which had been slightly powdered, was already blurred by her tears.

At this moment, she deeply knew how desperate her grandfather's heart really was.

That kind of despair was even more desperate than falling into a ten-thousand-foot ice cave in the cold winter months when water was dripping into ice.

As for herself, while her heart ached for her grandfather, she could not help but be filled with sorrow.

Because, she also knew that the Spring Return Pill was now so expensive that even the entire Fei family's cash reserves were not enough to purchase it, and under such circumstances, what was the little favor that she had given to Ye Chen?

So, what could one do to beg Ye Chen to give Grandpa one, or even half a Spring Return Pill?

Ye Chen earned 300 billion US dollars from one auction, so he could repay all his favors dozens of times over by taking out a random 100 million US dollars

And at this time, Ye Chen, who was in the monitoring room, was also a bit shocked.

Two hundred and twenty billion dollars, this is an astounding fortune, but this Huo Yuanzheng, the declared capital is only one hundred billion dollars, who is his real identity?

At this point, Song Wanting on the floor began her usual three final enquiries.

After no one raised their bids on the last three occasions, she excitedly dropped the hammer and loudly announced, "Congratulations to No. 099, who has successfully won the only Spring Return Pill in this room at a price of US$220 billion!"

As the words fell, No. 099 Huo Yuanzheng slowly stood up, looked at Song Wanting and said in a loud voice, "Miss Song, I know that the owner of the Spring Return Pill must be watching everything that is happening here somewhere at this moment, and I would like to take this opportunity to negotiate a deal with him!"

Faced with Huo Yuanzheng's unorthodox behaviour, Song Wanting was at a loss as to how to reply.

After all, this was a US$220 billion golden master, surely one couldn't just throw him out because he didn't follow the discipline, right?

Just as Song Wanting hesitated, Huo Yuanzheng looked at one of the surveillance probes and said in a loud voice, "As long as you let me take this Spring Return Pill away, I can pay you US$300 billion!"

Chapter 3942

Three hundred billion dollars

A crowd of people at the scene were on the verge of pa*sing out.

Many people were wondering just what this man's status was, and why he could get so much money!

Moreover, he had gone so far as to jack up US$80 billion on top of the transaction price himself, just to take this Spring Return Pill away

Could it be, could it be that he bought this Spring Return Pill for someone else?!

Song Wanting was also a little flustered all of a sudden.

Because she knew that the Spring Return Pill had to be taken on the spot was a rule set by Ye Chen.

However, this was an extra eighty billion US dollars at once.

This extra income alone was already more than the entire Song family's a*sets.

Therefore, she didn't dare to do anything without permission.

At this moment, Richard Chen was also frozen.

He subconsciously looked at Ye Chen, swallowed his saliva and opened his mouth to inquire, "Young master this what should we do"

Ye Chen looked at Huo Yuanzheng on the surveillance monitor at this time, smiled slightly and said, "There are only two purposes for wanting to take the Spring Return Pill away, either to take it away for others to take, or to take it away to try to imitate it."

Saying that, Ye Chen added, "I think, he has a better chance of being the first possibility."

With that, he picked up the intercom and spoke, "Wanting, reject him! Also tell him that in this auction, rules and fairness are above everything! Give him two choices, either pay the US$220 billion as stipulated and take the Spring Return Pill on the spot, or give up the bid!"

Song Wanting's entire body was lifted when she heard these words.

She hadn't expected that Ye Chen would refuse so crisply.

This was eighty billion US dollars!

However, she also knew that since Ye Chen had already made his decision, she was certainly not qualified to do any more lobbying.

So, she then immediately looked at Huo Yuanzheng and said in a cold voice, "No. 099, our rules are already very clear, anyone who has won the Spring Return Pill must be taken by him or her on the spot, and this rule will never be changed! In our auction, rules and fairness are above everything!"

Song Wanting's words sent the audience into an uproar!

Who would have thought that the organisers would simply give up US$80 billion for a rule that they had made for themselves!

This was too rigid, wasn't it?!

Huo Yuanzheng also froze for a moment at this point, he had thought that the other party would definitely not be able to resist this temptation, but never in his wildest dreams did he expect that the other party would reject him outright.

He gritted his teeth and said in a loud voice, "Too little, right? Fine! I'm adding another twenty billion! As long as you let me take this Spring Return Pill away, I'll offer 320 billion!"

Without thinking at all, Ye Chen said over the intercom, "Wanting, warn him that from now on, until payment is made, if he says one more word of nonsense, he will be expelled from the venue immediately according to the rules!"

Song Wanting immediately scolded, "No. 099, from now on, if you say one more word that has nothing to do with the auction or disobeys the auction rules, I will have to expel you from the venue!"

Huo Yuanzheng was struck by lightning and stood frozen on the spot.

One hundred billion dollars was not enough to make the person behind the Spring Return Pill change the rules a little?

What was this person's origin? How could he be so determined?

For a moment, he didn't know what to do.

And his mind ran fast: "I have come here to find out.

"I've come this time to find out the truth about the Spring Return Pill;"

"If this thing is overstated, then after reading it, I will go straight back and resume my duties;"

"If this thing is really as miraculous as the legend says, then I'll have to buy it back at all costs."

"The point is, to buy it back!"

"If I can't buy it back, how can I go back to my family if I spend the money to eat it first for $220 billion?"

"Besides, I am still so young at the moment, spending so much money and taking such a rejuvenating pill will definitely cause resentment and jealousy among the rest of the family, and I will be implicated for it at that time instead."

"So, if I can't take this Spring Return Pill with me tonight, then I definitely can't buy it and eat it myself"

"But, I've managed to get it down with great difficulty, and even offended Uncle Fei for this, if it's really a basket case, this heart is also really upset!"

Just as he was hesitating and struggling, Song Wanting spoke up again and asked, "099, do you want to pay or not?"

Huo Yuanzheng hesitated for a moment, put aside all his dignity and spoke out to plead, "I beg you, make an exception for me! If US$100 billion is not enough, I am willing to add another $50 billion!"

Chapter 3943

Another fifty billion dollars, that's thirty-seventy billion dollars!

Countless people were dumbfounded, never dreaming that there was still a big shot in the room who could produce US$370 billion in cash!

What the hell is this man's origin?

In his heart, Huo Yuanzheng knew very well that he could not take the Spring Return Pill himself, and that he would definitely become a target after eating it.

Therefore, he only had two choices.

Either take the Spring Return Pill away with him.

Or he could leave empty-handed.

So, he could only try one last time.

If he could take it away, all would be happy!

If he couldn't take it away, he would have done his best as long as he didn't spend money to buy the Spring Return Pill and eat it himself.

In that case, one would have done hard work without merit.

However, Ye Chen was not the least bit tempted by money as a lure.

He said over the intercom, "Wanting, follow the rules and have someone expel him from the venue!"

Song Wanting dared not disobey and immediately spoke, "In view of the fact that 099 has repeatedly provoked our rules and that repeated warnings have been ineffective, I now ask our staff, to expel 099 from the arena!"

The scene was once again in an uproar!

No one had expected that the organisers would give up US$150 billion in cash just to uphold their principles.

And Huo Yuanzheng was completely dumbfounded.

He really couldn't figure out what kind of godly man was behind this Spring Returning Pill, 150 billion US dollars, and he didn't even put it in his eyes!

And at that moment, several Ten Thousand Dragon Hall generals had already arrived in front of him, and one of them said in a cold voice, "099, please leave with me immediately, or I will forcefully take you away from the scene!"

Huo Yuanzheng knew that it was impossible for him to take the Spring Returning Pill away this time, so he could only let out a long sigh and nod helplessly.

He then walked out of his seat, looked towards Fei Jianzhong who was not far away and said with an arch of his hand, "Uncle Fei, I'm sorry!"

As soon as he finished speaking, he was led by two staff members towards the main entrance.

At this moment, Fei Jianzhong's heart was rekindled with hope.

Although he still did not know what the organisers were going to do with the Spring Return Pill, seeing that Huo Yuanzheng had left, he knew that he would be able to see the light at once!

As the crowd saw Huo Yuanzheng being led away from the auction venue in a dishevelled manner, everyone in the audience, while shocked, also began to wonder what the organisers would do next.

What Fei Jianzhong wanted most was for the Spring Return Pill to be reopened for auction.

In that case, he would only need to bid US$100 billion to beat Bernard Elnor.

However, at this time, after receiving Ye Chen's detailed instructions, Song Wanting immediately spoke up and said, "Given that number 099 was expelled from the court for breaking the rules, this Spring Return Pill will now be given to each offeror in turn a chance to determine the purchase based on the high or low bids of the others just now."

After saying that, she looked at Fei Jianzhong and spoke, "No. 035, your highest bid just now was US$210 billion, so you are in the first position to purchase this Spring Return Pill, may I ask if you are willing to deal with this Spring Return Pill at this price?"

Fei Jianzhong was delighted, but his businessman nature still drove him to ask tentatively, "Since No. 099 has just left the room, can this Spring Return Pill be re-bid?"

Fei Jianzhong felt that with Huo Yuanzheng gone, where else in the entire room was his opponent.

He waited with anticipation for Song Wanting's reply, but Song Wanting said categorically, "No way! If you give up buying this Spring Return Pill for US$210 billion, the opportunity to buy it will be given to No. 016."

After saying that, she then looked at Bernard Elnor and spoke, "No. 016, your highest bid just now was seventy-two billion US dollars, and you are in the second position to purchase the Spring Return Pill, if No. 035 gives up, you will get the chance to purchase this Spring Return Pill for seventy-two billion US dollars!"

At this point, Song Wanting looked awe-inspiring as she said to the whole room, "As I have always stressed, for us, money, is never first! Rules and fairness are what comes first!"

Chapter 3944

Bernard Elnor was so excited to hear this that he was about to cry.

He had been f*cked by the two gods long ago and never dreamed that he would have another chance!

What he was most looking forward to now was for Fei Jianzhong to give up.

Once Fei Jianzhong gave up, then the Spring Return Pill would be his own!

Or if Fei Jianzhong could not afford to pay so much, the Spring Return Pill would be his own.

Moreover, one did not need to pay more than 200 billion, or more than 100 billion.

One only needed to pay the highest price one had ever called for before, seventy-two billion!

Thinking about this, he suddenly didn't feel that the auction organiser was very pitiful; on the contrary, he felt that this organiser simply exuded human light everywhere.

Fei Jianzhong was also a bit devastated at this moment.

It was only under the heavy pressure of Huo Yuanzheng's competition that he had called out the bid of twenty-one billion just now.

If Huo Yuanzheng hadn't intervened across the board, how could he have pushed the price to such a high point?

So, it would naturally be the best solution for him if he could re-sell the auction.

However, he had not expected that the organisers would take the rules and fairness so seriously!

If he wasn't willing to pay twenty-one billion, then they could rather sell it to Bernard Elnor for seventy-two billion, rather than re-bidding it once and letting him buy it for one hundred billion!

This is really a complete disregard for money!

The audience at this point was also in awe and admiration of the organiser's principle and fairness!

They knew very well that what the organizer had just rejected was the US$370 billion quoted by Huo Yuanzheng!

And if Fei Jianzhong had also given up bidding, then they would have chosen to sell this Spring Return Pill to Bernard Aylneau.

And the price previously quoted by Bernard Aylneau was only a mere seventy-two billion dollars!

Thirty-seven billion, versus seventy-two billion

In between, there is a difference of US$300 billion!

However, for Fei Jianzhong, he felt in his heart that he should buy this Spring Returning Dan for 100 billion instead of 210 billion.

The nature of a businessman made it extremely difficult for Fei Jianzhong inwardly.

"The offer of two hundred and eleven billion dollars just now is already the limit of limits for me, I can only pay two hundred billion of it quickly, and I have to think of other ways to pay the remaining ten billion"

"Although it's not too difficult to get the ten billion together, after all, it's draining all the cash and many negative effects will follow like dominoes"

"It would be great if we could rebid again, how could that Bernard Elnor be my opponent?"

"He just bid seventy-two billion, I can even end the fight at ninety billion"

"Moreover, taking out ninety billion is simply irrelevant to me, to the entire Fei family!"

So, he argued reasonably, “Miss Song, this rule is a bit unfair, isn’t it? If I give up US$210 billion, why should 016 be able to take over at US$72 billion? That’s a bit too much of a difference and a huge loss for your organisers!”

Speaking here, he continued, “Personally, I think that the best and fairest solution is for both sides to bid again!”

Song Wanting said indifferently, “Sorry 035, rules are rules! If we were all about money, we would have just sold this Spring Return Pill to 099 at US$370 billion directly, in that case, you wouldn’t have had a chance even if you wanted to sell it for $210 billion, you should thank our rules and fairness for giving you this chance, instead of misinterpreting our rules to seek maximum benefits for yourself.”

Speaking here, Song Wanting said meaningfully, “035, US$210 billion is the price you have just offered yourself, which proves that it is within your reach! Personally, I think that if you can re-sell it at this price, it is already a village in the dark. If you are still not satisfied and try to re-bid, then I can only arrange for the staff to ask you to leave!”

Immediately afterwards, Song Wanting added, “If this Spring Return Pill is sold by No. 016 for US$72 billion, we have lost nearly US$300 billion compared to the US$370 billion bid just now!”

Chapter 3945

“But to us, US$300 billion is not important, the rules are most important!”

“We will not hesitate to expel anyone who tries to challenge the rules and fairness of our auction!”

“No matter how much money he has, no matter how high he is, he is not welcome here!”

Fei Jianxin cackled in his heart.

He recalled how Huo Yuanzheng had just been expelled and knew in his heart that he had been a little forgetful.

It was already God’s grace to have such a chance, so what else did he have to dwell on?

Thinking of this, he immediately gave up his struggle and spoke, “I am willing to pay twenty-one billion!”

Bernard Elnor broke down and shouted out of turn, “Miss Song, this old man is talking so much nonsense, why don’t you expel him! He should be told to get lost immediately!”

Song Wanting said in a cold voice, “016, if anyone doesn’t shut up after my warning of imminent expulsion, I will naturally expel him, so from now on, neither you nor 035 are allowed to say any more nonsense, otherwise, whoever it is, will be expelled, at which point this Spring Return Pill, will be split up again into four parts and auctioned off on the spot! ”

The audience was immediately boiling over, and someone shouted out of the blue, “Expel them both!”

Song Wanting looked at that person and said in a cold voice, “No. 173, if you make any more noise, I’ll have the staff expel you!”

Only then did the audience have the sense to shut their mouths.

Fei Jianzhong also dared not think otherwise and immediately said firmly, "I am willing to pay twenty-one billion! Please give me the phone and I will arrange payment now!"

Bernard Aylneau broke down at once and hid his face in tears.

The staff immediately handed the mobile phone to Fei Jianzhong.

Fei Ke Xin, who was inside the box, was finally relieved.

This auction had been a real ups and downs and a close call for her, but in the end she had managed to come back from the dead.

She was really worried that her grandfather's business sense would come back to haunt her and ruin her hand of cards.

Fortunately, the old man eventually overcame his impulses with reason.

Fei Ke Xin was afraid that his grandfather would pass away prematurely, because then his family would be completely deprived of their support.

His eldest uncle would surely not hesitate to expel his family as soon as the funeral was over.

And as long as his grandfather survived, it would be an opportunity for himself.

At this point, deep down, Fei Jianzhong had also given up struggling.

Although the price had been speculated by Huo Yuanzheng step by step to two thousand one hundred billion, causing him extreme flesh pain.

But compared to the ten to twenty years of life expectancy that the Spring Return Pill would bring, it was worth it after all.

So, he took the mobile phone handed to him by the staff and called his most trusted butler directly.

When the call was answered, he said, "Ah Cheng, immediately call the auction house with the US$200 billion prepared by the Swiss bank, and inform some of our closest partners to raise US$10 billion quickly, promising them the highest interest rate in the industry and promising them special care from the Fei family in the future."

To Fei Jianzhong, a tycoon with a fortune of nearly US$1 trillion, it was easy to borrow US$10 billion on a temporary basis, and as long as the words he had just said were released, there was no telling how many people would knock their heads off and rush to send money.

However, he did not expect that the person called Ah Cheng, who was silent for a moment on the other end of the phone, choked up and said, "Master two hours ago, the Eldest Young Master has activated the highest emergency plan of the board of directors, freezing the US$200 billion that you had prepared"

Chapter 3946

"What are you talking about?!"

Hearing these words, Fei Jianzhong's eyes went black and he almost fainted on the spot.

Luckily, Yuan Zixu was by his side to hold him up, and at the same time, he pressed hard on his tiger's mouth, before he regained consciousness.

Immediately afterwards, he questioned loudly and angrily, "How is that bd qualified to activate the board's highest emergency plan?"

Ah Cheng explained, "The Eldest Master called a meeting with all the directors and listed all the details of the Swiss bank account you went to the Group to mobilise funds"

"He told the board that you had prepared US$200 billion with great fanfare just to buy a nebulous elixir of immortality"

"He believes that your sanity has developed a great cognitive bias due to your current health condition, and if you continue to serve as the chairman, it will cause significant financial losses to the group, and it will pose a great crisis and risk to the group's subsequent operations, which is why the highest emergency plan was activated"

Speaking here, Ah Cheng continued, "At the board meeting, all the other board members, except me, also voted in favour of him initiating the Supreme Emergency Plan, and he was successfully elected as the Group's interim chairman, and the first order he signed after becoming the acting chairman was to order the freezing of the US$200 billion cash you had prepared in the Swiss bank"

When Fei Jianzhong heard this, his entire body instantly collapsed!

The Supreme Emergency Plan, a set of plans developed by the Fei family's board of directors, specifically to deal with emergency contingencies.

Just like the Vice President of the United States of America could urgently take over as President and issue orders on behalf of the President when the President was in danger, it existed to deal with the most serious and urgent emergencies.

However, to activate the emergency plan, it is not just a matter of the second-in-command talking about it. There must be enough evidence to prove that the emergency is really urgent, and the majority of the board members must confirm it before it can be activated.

However, Fei never dreamed that his eldest son, who was also the next heir to the family head, would take advantage of his absence to seize the opportunity to buy the Spring Return Pill and use it to activate the emergency plan and quietly usurp power!

Moreover, the first thing he did after usurping power was to freeze the group's funds in the Swiss bank and completely cut off his bid for the Spring Return Pill!

At this moment, Fei Jianzhong was extremely angry and regretful.

Not only did he regret not seeing his son's true colours, he also regretted that he had not transferred the funds for the purchase of the Spring Return Pill to his own personal account first.

After all, it was a huge sum of US$200 billion, and according to US tax laws, as soon as the money passed through Fei Jianzhong's personal account, then he would need to pay personal taxes first.

Under US tax law, using a group account not only eliminates Fei Jianzhong's personal income tax, but also allows the treasurer to include the money in the operating costs of the business under another name.

In this way, not only are you exempt from paying personal tax, but you can also reduce your corporate profits and make your corporate tax burden lower.

Chapter 3947

In the US, even if a rich person buys a plane ticket or a car, they use the company's money, and it is even more unlikely that an expense as large as Echo Dan would go to a personal account.

Therefore, Fei Jianzhong instinctively filtered this method of payment when he was preparing to bid for the Spring Return Dan.

Not only him, but all the tycoons who came to bid for the Spring Return Dan used this method, including those who had been successful in their previous bids, and all paid from their corporate accounts.

But Fei Jianzhong, who was a hundred times more careful than he should have been, had failed to calculate that the biggest risk of using a corporate account was this maximum emergency plan.

Once his son had successfully activated this emergency plan, he was the top leader of the group and naturally had enough power to freeze the group's accounts in Swiss banks.

This is what is known as the collapse of a thousand-mile dike into an anthill.

"Without that US$200 billion, what else can I compete with for this Spring Return Pill?!"

Fei Jianzhong immediately clenched his teeth and cursed angrily with trembling hands, "This beast beast!!! He is usurping my position at this time, he is taking my life and does not want me to continue living!"

At this moment, the whole room heard Fei Jianzhong's angry roar.

Everyone's eyes were wide and they kept communicating in private.

Everyone could hear that the old man had been set upon by his own family.

If he couldn't get the money, this Spring Return Pill, I was afraid, would be out of his reach!

Bernard Elnor, on the other hand, was at this point re-excited.

He had lost count of the number of times he had been desperate, excited, desperate again, and excited again today.

He felt that his heart was about to break.

If he had had so many more, he would have had a heart attack and burped right here before he could take the rejuvenation pill.

He was now staring at Fei Jianzhong, waiting for him to say something like he couldn't afford it or pay for it.

That way, he would be able to get his hands on the Spring Return Pill for US$72 billion!

Fei Ke Xin's heart, which had just been put down, was also raised back to her throat in this instant. Although she only heard an angry roar from her grandfather, she immediately knew that it must be her eldest uncle who had taken advantage of this opportunity to usurp the throne

At this moment, Ah Cheng on the phone choked out helplessly, "Master I'm sorry I really don't have any way to help you, now I've been put under residential surveillance by the eldest young master, there are now at least dozens of mercenaries guarding the perimeter of my house, he has said that I am not allowed to leave the house even half a step before your death"

Fei Jianzhong roared in anger, "I'll call that beast now!"

After saying that, Fei Jianzhong immediately hung up the phone and redialed

Chapter 3948

The call was quickly answered.

Only, the caller didn't make any Sound.

Gritting his teeth, Fei Jianzhong roared low in indignation, "bd! You beast! Why did you do this! Why?!"

On the other end of the phone, a somewhat old voice came through and spoke, "Dad I am already in my seventies this year, you are also familiar with history books, look at a prince like me who is in his seventies, even if you put it in ancient times, you can't find many, right?"

Fei Jianzhong questioned in a stern voice, "Can't wait to succeed the throne, so you're letting me die? Don't you forget that I gave you your life! Everything you have, I gave you! The entire Fei family was built by me! Don't you know any gratitude at all?"

The person on the other end of the phone laughed bitterly and said, "Dad, if you don't go after longevity, I'll definitely be at your side and wait until I'm in your old age, playing the role of a filial son"

The other party sighed, "But you are already over ninety years old, haven't you lived long enough? At such an old age, why do you still want to be obsessed with longevity? If you do seek immortality, what will you ask me to do?"

Fei Jianzhong shouted angrily, "bd! You think I have a long life?"

The other party smiled faintly and said seriously, "Dad, you have believed in fate all your life, you should know that to change fate against the heavens is a violation of heaven's way, and it is also a kind of damage to the blessings of your children and grandchildren. Do you want to live another twenty years and then send me away as your son?"

Fei Jianzhong gritted his teeth and said, "If I seek the way to longevity, how could I treat you badly! You are my flesh and blood!"

The other party sighed, "Dad, do you mean that we should live together as father and son for a few more decades, and then I will be the Crown Prince for a few more decades? When I'm a hundred years old, I'll still be saddled up beside you and serve you?"

At this point, the other party gave a slight pause and said seriously, "I don't want your life, I just want you to let nature take its course."

"Good one to let nature take its course", Fei Jianzhong muttered, gritting his teeth, "You know that my life is not long, if you miss this Spring Return Pill, you may not even see the last of me!"

The other party said indifferently, "To be honest, I wasn't prepared to see you one last time either."

After all, you have been away for so many years, and you have reached the age of returning to your roots, so you should not come back from so far away. Even if you come back, I won't let you enter the country, and if you die on the way, I, as a son, won't be able to bear it."

"So, from now on, you can live in peace in your home country."

"If you are destined to live a long life, then I, as a son, will be very happy.

"But if you are not destined to live to be a hundred years old, then when you die, I, as your son, will naturally send you off in mourning and in style!"

Hearing this, Fei Jianzhong's heart already hated him to the core.

How could he not know what his son's words meant?

Although the other party had made the words sound so grand, the essence was just eight words.

Die in the country and don't come back!

At this moment, Fei Jianzhong's heart was in agony.

He did not expect that his eldest son, who in his eyes used to value affection and kinship and who looked up to him in everything, would have already resented the fact that his life was too long.

The fact that he had travelled all the way to Jinling to seek longevity was bound to make his eldest son furious.

That is why he suddenly tore his face off and revealed his original form at this time.

Although Fei Jianxin was extremely resentful, he knew very well that since his eldest son had successfully usurped the throne and got almost all the board members to vote in favour of him, it proved that he must have completely controlled the situation over in the United States and had enough certainty to make himself powerless to resist.

The fact that so many board members supported him is also another indication that he has lost trust in the minds of the board members.

Even if he still had the strength, he would have no hope of overturning the current situation.

After all, he was tens of thousands of kilometres away from the United States, and his inner circle had been purged by his eldest son.

So he suppressed his anger and said, "Fine! Since you have already made arrangements for me, when I die, bury me in my homeland, I want to rest with my parents."

The other party said apologetically, "Sorry dad, I have already found a cemetery for you in the United States, I have chosen the most expensive cemetery in the United States, around your cemetery and your neighbours are basically all the presidents of the United States and the top plutocrats, I believe you will be very satisfied when you rest here in the future."

Fei Jianzhong asked in a trembling voice, "This is the only request I have, and you can't even agree to it?"

The other party sighed somewhat helplessly, "Dad, if you are not buried in America and by my side after a hundred years, people will definitely gossip about me behind my back."

After a pause, the other party added, "Besides, your children and grandchildren are all in the United States, so I can't go back to China to pay respects to you on the first, fifteenth and Qingming holidays. If you are buried in the United States, it will be more convenient for us as children."

Fei Jianzhong was silent for a moment and let out a miserable laugh: "Good good really good I Fei Jianzhong can have a son of tiger and wolf like you, really Three lives are lucky! Three lives are lucky!"

The person on the other end of the phone was not at all bothered by Fei Jianzhong's cynicism and said indifferently, "Dad, as the old saying goes, a tiger's father has no dog's son, and I could not have gotten to where I am today without your words and example."

The other party added, "Dad, I have just taken over the board of directors, there are too many things to do, and there are still many of your old ministries to deal with one by one, so I won't catch up with you anymore."

If you and the others don't come back without permission, I won't make things difficult for Kexin's family after you leave, but if you and the others dare to come back secretly, then don't blame me for being ungrateful! !"

Chapter 3949

Fei Jianzhong knew that he had no power of return, so in order not to involve his granddaughter Fei Kexin's family, he immediately said, "Okay! I promise you! When I die, let Kexin take my body back with her!"

"Good!" The other party smiled readily and said, "In that case, then we have a deal. I have already ordered the recall of your and Kexin's plane an hour ago."

At this point, the other party hung up the phone.

Fei Jianzhong froze in place for a few seconds before handing the mobile phone to the staff and saying in a dishevelled voice, "Sorry, I declare my abstention"

As soon as the words left his mouth, Bernard Elnor, who had been waiting anxiously, burst into an excited cheer and shouted, "The Spring Return Dan is mine! The Spring Return Dan is mine!"

At that moment, Fei Jianzhong's five senses suddenly screwed up in pain, and a mouthful of blood spurted out uncontrollably.

The few people around him who were splashed with blood just wanted to curse, but to their surprise, Fei Jianzhong's whole body instantly went limp and lost consciousness as if that mouthful of blood just now had exhausted his last ounce of energy.

The few people who had been sprayed with blood all over their heads and bodies, once they saw that the old man was instantly on the verge of death, one by one they did not care much and resentfully started to wipe the blood from their bodies.

Yuan Zixu hurriedly helped the unconscious Fei Jianzhong to his feet. He then reached out to feel Fei Jianzhong's pulse and saw that his pulse was weak and he was already on the verge of death, so he hurriedly shouted, "The man is dying! Call an ambulance!"

At that moment, the door of the first floor box leading to the first floor balustrade was pushed open, and Fei Ke Xin panicked and fell on the first floor balustrade, crying out, "Grandpa! Master Yuan, what's wrong with my grandfather?!"

Yuan Zixu looked up at Fei Kexin and said sadly, "Miss Kexin, Master he is afraid that he won't make it!"

Fei Kexin immediately broke down and shouted at the staff, "Life is at stake, call an ambulance!"

Yuan Zixu, holding the already unconscious Fei Jianzhong, squeezed out of the seat and shouted to the staff, "Please help call an ambulance!"

Song Wanting was immediately ready to instruct the staff to hurry up and contact the staff who had made the emergency plan to come in.

She was afraid that if anyone suddenly became excited or irritated and collapsed here during the auction tonight, she had arranged an emergency team in advance.

The emergency team has prepared a comprehensive range of resuscitation equipment in advance, and in case of a critical situation, there are cars and helicopters to get people to the hospital as quickly as possible.

Chapter 3950

However, just as she was about to speak, Ye Chen's voice came over the earphones, "Wanting, have the staff bring him to the VIP room."

Song Wanting was relieved to hear Ye Chen's voice.

She could also see that Fei Jianzhong was too old, already a dying man himself, and had suddenly received such a great stimulus, so I was afraid that sending him to hospital would not be able to bring him back.

It was good that Ye Chen had spoken, which meant that he had definitely decided to help.

So, she immediately ordered, "Quickly send 035 to the VIP room on the ground floor!"

Hearing these words, Fei Ke Xin's desperate heart finally saw a glimmer of light again.

She knew that Song Wanting must have conveyed Ye Chen's meaning, that as long as Ye Chen was willing to do something, there was hope for grandpa!

At this moment, after hearing this, several generals from the Ten Thousand Dragons Hall immediately stepped forward and said to Yuan Zixu, "Please take the men with you immediately."

Yuan Zixu hadn't figured it out yet and loudly and bitterly rebuked, "The man is dying, why don't you guys hurry up and contact an ambulance to take the man to the hospital, what's the use of going to the VIP room?!"

Saying this, he no longer hid his powerful aura as a seven-star martial artist and roared, "I'm taking the person to the hospital now! If any of you dare to stop me, don't blame me for not showing any mercy!"

As soon as Fei Ke Xin heard this, she shouted with immense anxiety, "Master Yuan! Quickly take Grandpa over there! This is grandpa's last chance!"

Yuan Zixu looked up at Fei Kexin and saw that her tone was extremely firm, then he nodded and said to those soldiers from the Ten Thousand Dragons Hall, "Where is the VIP room, take me there quickly!"

At this moment, Ye Chen said to Song Wanting over the intercom, "Wanting, tell that girl on the first floor to come along too."

Song Wanting immediately gave the order on the internal channel, "Ask the staff to bring the lady on the first floor to the VIP room on the ground floor as well."

A few of the generals from the Ten Thousand Dragons Hall who had been guarding the back door of the VIP room immediately pushed their way in.

They walked through the VIP room and arrived at the outermost fence on the first floor and said to Fei Ke Xin, who was standing at the edge of the fence, "Hello, Madam, please follow me!"
