

Ye Chen 3951

Chapter 3951

Fei Ke Xin knew that since Ye Chen had ordered it, she would definitely not stand by idly.

So, she hurriedly followed the staff and ran quickly to the ground floor.

The VIP room on the ground floor was very close to the banquet hall.

Yuan Zixu had already brought the dying Fei Jianzhong here by now.

Soon after, the staff also brought Fei Kexin over.

As soon as Fei Kexin entered, she could no longer care about her double identity and immediately jumped to Fei Jianzhong's side, choking up as she asked, "Grandpa Grandpa, wake up Grandpa I'm Kexin, can you hear me?"

Yuan Zixu sighed lamentably and said, "Miss Kexin, Elder Fei's breath is extremely weak, I'm afraid that he may not be able to make it back to heaven"

Fei Kexin's bean-sized tears rolled down her face as she choked out, "No Mr. Ye won't let grandpa pa*s away like this He must have a way He must have"

Yuan Zixu sighed, "I see that the rejuvenation pill can indeed bring back the dead, but but Fei Lao now usually can no longer get the money to buy it"

Fei Ke Xin also knew that grandfather was now being usurped by his eldest uncle, and with his style of acting, he would certainly block all chances of fighting back.

Under such circumstances, how else could grandfather afford to buy the Spring Return Pill

Moreover, Fei Ke Xin herself was not sure that Ye Chen would definitely take out the Spring Return Pill for grandfather.

After all, the cost of this Spring Return Pill was too high, and the small amount of favors she had saved up before was afraid that it would be a drop in the bucket.

Just when she was in a panic and didn't know what to do, the door of the VIP room was pushed open and a tall figure walked in quickly.

Fei Ke Xin turned around and saw that it was none other than Ye Chen. She rushed to him and knelt down on both knees, crying and begging, "Mr. Ye, please save my grandfather As long as you are willing to save him, I will be a cow and a horse for the rest of my life to repay your kindness"

Ye Chen glanced at Fei Ke Xin and asked her, "Should I call you Miss Zhan, or Miss Fei?"

Fei Ke Xin's heart thudded when she heard this.

She instantly realised that Ye Chen might have already figured out her identity long ago.

So, she hurriedly bowed her head and confessed, "Sorry Mr. Ye, my name is Fei Kexin, I am the granddaughter of the Fei family, not some Zhan Fei'er, but but I did not mean to lie to you, I just wanted to get close to you and become friends with you in advance so that grandpa could get the Spring Return Pill

Saying that, she explained again, "The reason why I used the identity of Zhan Fei'er is also because I am afraid that you will have an early insight into my purpose and I did not have any mischievous intention in using the identity of Zhan Fei'er to approach you, to approach your father-in-law and your wife, I also ask you to be able to forgive me for what I have done for the sake of my filial heart"

Ye Chen nodded noncommittally and said indifferently, "Saving lives is important, let's leave this matter alone for now."

Fei Ke Xin looked at Ye Chen with anxiety and asked tentatively, "Mr. Ye you can you save my grandfather's life?"

Ye Chen was about to speak when a general of the Ten Thousand Dragon Hall came to Ye Chen's side and whispered, "Mr. Ye, the VIP, Old Mr. Lai Qing Hua Lai, is asking for an audience at the door."

Ye Chen nodded and spoke, "Quickly invite the old gentleman in."

Immediately afterwards, the general of the Ten Thousand Dragon Hall invited the worried-looking Lai Qinghua in.

Ye Chen asked respectfully, "Old Mister Lai, what brings you here?"

Lai Qinghua hurriedly said, "I saw Jianzhong vomiting blood and fainting just now, so I was relieved."

Saying that, he hurriedly looked at the already dying Fei Jianzhong and could not help but ask, "Mr. Ye, do you have a solution for Jianzhong's current situation?"

Ye Chen he glanced at Fei Jianzhong and then at Fei Kexin.

At this moment, Fei Jianzhong was indeed on the verge of death, with only the last faint trace of breath hanging on.

Seeing that both Fei Kexin and Lai Qinghua were full of pleading, Ye Chen did not say anything more and directly took out half of the Blood Dissipation Heart Saving Pill he had prepared from his pocket.

Chapter 3952

The moment he took out the half of the Blood Dispersing Heart Saving Pill, Fei Ke Xin burst into tears in excitement.

The pills basically all looked the same, and she thought that what Ye Chen had taken out was the Spring Return Pill that her grandfather had longed for.

Thinking back to the miraculous effects of the Spring Return Pill just now, she was afraid that only a quarter of the pills were needed to save her grandfather's life.

If half of it was taken, I was afraid that it would extend his life by at least six or seven years, or even ten years.

However, just when she was so excited that she didn't even know how to thank Ye Chen, Ye Chen said indifferently, "Miss Fei, I have to make it clear first, this is not a Spring Return Pill."

Fei Ke Xin froze for a moment, "It's not a rejuvenation pill Mr. Ye then then what kind of pill is this?"

Ye Chen said indifferently, "This is the Blood Dispersing and Heart Saving Pill, its efficacy is much worse than the Spring Return Pill, but half a pill is enough to save your grandfather's life, and incidentally keep him alive for another year or two."

When Fei Ke Xin heard this, her heart sighed with relief.

Now, how could she dare to hope that her grandfather could increase his life expectancy by ten years, as long as he could survive this hurdle before him, she would be lucky.

So, while kneeling on the ground and kowtowing to Ye Chen, she couldn't stop saying gratefully, "Thank you, Mr. Ye, for saving my life! Thank you, Mr. Ye! In the future, Kexin will be a cow and a horse to repay your great kindness"

Ye Chen waved his hand and said with some indifference in his words, "I don't need you to be a cow or a horse to repay me, as for this half blood dispersal heart saving pill, on the one hand, I don't want to owe you any favors, on the other hand, it is also because of your filial piety, after your grandfather takes this half pill, you and I will not owe each other."

Fei Ke Xin's heart tightened and she wanted to explain, but seeing that her grandfather's breath seemed to be getting weaker and weaker, she could only say respectfully, "Thank you, Mr. Ye! Thank you!"

After saying that, he hurriedly got up and came to Fei Jianzhong's side, feeding the half of the Blood Dispersing Heart Saving Pill into his mouth.

A few moments later, Fei Jianzhong, who had almost lost his breath, finally opened his eyes slowly.

However, after saving his life, there was only a small residue of the effects of the half Blood Dissipation Heart Saving Pill, which could only improve his body slightly, so at this moment, Fei Jianzhong was still very weak, but his life was not in danger for the time being.

The moment he opened his eyes and saw Fei Ke Xin, the old man weakly called out, "Ke Xin"

After saying that, he immediately cried out in pain.

For him, he had been winning all his life and had never been defeated.

But to his surprise, at over ninety years old, he would lose at the hands of his own son, and the defeat would be a mess and complete.

In his grief, he was even more ashamed when he saw that Lai Qing Hua was even there, and spoke, "Old Brother Lai, old brother has made you look ridiculous today"

Lai Qing Hua shook his head and said seriously, "Jianzhong, you should not think about anything now, get well is the most important thing, keep the green hills alive, not afraid of no firewood! If you want to take back what belongs to you, you have to take care of your body first!"

Fei Jianzhong laughed miserably and shook his head, "Old brother, I'm afraid I'm not going to live long, what else can I do to reclaim what belongs to me, that evil son has already taken control of the situation in the United States, I'm now a penniless and dying old man, what can I do to fight him"

Fei Ke Xin said in a hurry, "Grandpa, just now Mr. Ye gave you half a blood dispersing heart saving pill, not only will your life not be in danger, but your life expectancy will last at least a year or two!"

Hearing this, Fei Jianzhong looked at Ye Chen beside Fei Kexin with an excited expression and muttered, "This person is Mr. Ye?"

Chapter 3953

Ye Chen looked at the old man in front of him, who was already in his dotage, smiled slightly and said blandly, "Hello old Mr. Fei, my name is Ye Chen."

Fei Jianzhong felt that his body was indeed a little more energetic than before, so he struggled to get up and wanted to salute Ye Chen, but Ye Chen reached out to stop him and spoke, "Old Mr. Fei, your body is still weak, so don't make any big salute."

Fei Jianzhong said with immense gratitude, "Mr. Ye I have heard of your great name for a long time, today I finally get to meet you thank you for saving my life, if not for your help, I might have died in vain"

Ye Chen waved his hand, glanced at Fei Ke Xin beside him and spoke, "You should thank your granddaughter if you want to thank her, if I didn't owe her some favors, I wouldn't have interfered in such matters."

Saying that, Ye Chen added, "By the way, I would also like to thank Old Mr. Lai for pleading for you."

Fei Jianzhong nodded gently and looked at Fei Kexin with tears in his eyes.

As the grandfather and grandson looked at each other, Fei Ke Xin was also sobbing with tears in her eyes.

Afterwards, Fei Jianzhong looked at Lai Qinghua and sighed softly, "Elder brother Lai, I've asked you to trouble yourself with this matter!"

Lai Qing Hua said, "Why are you so polite to me? Besides, I didn't help much, it was mainly Mr. Ye and Ke Xin who helped you."

Fei Jianzhong nodded slightly and looked at Ye Chen again, saying gratefully, "Mr. Ye, I will definitely bear in mind your great kindness, but I am now deep in the lurch and may not have the ability to actually repay your kindness, so please don't blame me"

Fei Jianzhong knew very well in his heart that from this moment on, he had almost nothing left.

Although there was still some money in his personal account, it was only a drop in the bucket compared to the entire Fei family, and the vast majority of the Fei family's assets were no longer relevant to him.

Ye Chen said indifferently at this moment, "All right, I am not trying to save you in return, besides, your current physical condition is not completely recovered, whether you can live for one or two more years or one or two more months in the future, you still have to slowly recuperate and adjust yourself."

Fei Jianzhong nodded his head and said gratefully, "Thank you, Mr. Ye! Thank you!"

Fei Ke Xin also said respectfully, "Mr. Ye, thank you!"

Ye Chen waved his hand and spoke, "Old Mr. Fei, I have a question for you, please don't cover it up."

Although Fei Jianzhong did not know what Ye Chen wanted to ask, he still said very firmly, "Don't worry, Mr. Ye, I will tell you everything I know and say."

Ye Chen nodded slightly and asked him, "Old Mr. Fei, I would like to know, what is the identity of that No. 099 Huo Yuanzheng who was bidding against you at the auction?"

"Huo Yuanzheng?" Hearing this, Fei Jianzhong shook his head and smiled bitterly, "His name isn't Huo Yuanzheng, but he rarely uses his true identity when he's outside."

Saying that, Fei Jianzhong added, "His real identity is the eldest son of the An family, An Chongqiu."

"An Chongqiu?!"

Ye Chen's entire body was dumbfounded when he heard these three words!

In Ye Chen's memory, he had three uncles, his eldest uncle An Chongqiu, his second uncle An Kaifeng, and his youngest uncle An Zhaonan.

In addition to that, there was also a sister-in-law named An Youyou.

In fact, these three uncles, as well as a sister-in-law, Ye Chen had met only a handful of times.

But the main reason why he could remember their names very clearly was that, like his mother An Chengqing's name, they were all taken from classical Chinese writings.

The name of my mother, An Chengqin, is taken from the line in The Records of the Grand Historian, General Li's Biography, which says, "If the peach and the plum do not speak, they will grow.

The name of the eldest uncle, An Chongqiu, is taken from the title of a chapter in the Shi Jing – Xiao Ya.

The name of the second uncle, An Kaifeng, is taken from the poem "Name bèi Feng – Kai Feng" in the Book of Songs.

Third uncle An Zhaonan's name, taken from one of the fifteen national winds of the Book of Psalms.

The name of his sister-in-law, An Youyou, is taken from the opening verse of the poem "Shijing – Xiaoya – Deer Song": "Youyou deer song, eat the apples of the wild;"

Although Ye Chen did not attend university properly, his family gave him an extraordinary initiation before he was eight years old.

He had studied classical writings under his mother's tutelage since he was young, and had long since read the Records of History and the Book of Songs, and naturally remembered the names of his three uncles and his sister-in-law very clearly.

Chapter 3954

He had never dreamed that No. 099, who had just been expelled from the court, was his own great-uncle!

No wonder he looked more or less familiar to him, but could never recall where he had seen him before.

After all, his own interactions with him were too few, and with another twenty years having passed, his appearance had changed quite a bit from his previous twenty-something years, so he didn't recognise him at all for a while.

Ye Chen couldn't help but think: "Great-uncle looks like he is definitely not bidding for the Spring Return Pill for himself, otherwise he wouldn't have pleaded to have it taken away."

"Could it be for Grandpa?!"

"But, before the auction, I just talked to Elder Lai about Grandpa, and Elder Lai also said clearly that Grandpa has always been unbelieving about these"

"Then who is he auctioning this Spring Return Pill for?"

Ye Chen was in deep thought for a moment.

Afterwards, he subconsciously looked at Lai Qinghua, who also looked puzzled.

Lai Qinghua also guessed the doubt in Ye Chen's mind and said with a frown, "Since An Qishan's father passed away, I have basically had no dealings with the An family, and now counting, it has been more than forty years, but from what I know about An Qishan, he should not believe in such things as the Spring Return Pill."

Hearing this, Ye Chen finally understood that Lai Qinghua had not seen his own great uncle for many years either, so he did not recognise him at the auction.

As for Fei Ke Xin, who was at the side, she clearly saw just now that Ye Chen's expression was shocked for a moment when he heard the three words An Chong Qiu.

Moreover, she also saw with her own eyes that Ye Chen and Lai Qinghua seemed to have some kind of eye contact regarding this An Chongqiu.

At this moment, she instantly realised in her mind, "Both Mr Ye and Old Mr Lai must have some kind of connection with the An family!"

"Otherwise, Mr. Ye would never show his shock, and the two of them, would never make such eye contact!"

"Old Mr. Lai wouldn't need to guess, because he just said that he had no dealings with the An family since An Qishan's father died;"

“This statement is pushed backwards, which means that Old Mr. Lai had a good deal of friendship with the An family when An Qishan’s father was alive.”

“But how could Mr. Ye, who is so young and has been living in the Mainland, be involved with the second-ranked An family in the United States?”

Thinking of this, Fei Ke Xin suddenly remembered something else.

“The An family’s daughter, An Chengqing, whom I admire most, was the one who married far away and down to the Ye family in China back then, and then died young twenty years ago

She couldn’t help but mutter in her heart, “The An family An Chengqing Ye family Ye Zhongquan Ye Ye Chen

Thinking about this, she seemed to have suddenly thought of something and was horrified!

At this moment, she had finally guessed all of Ye Chen’s identity!

“So, he’s not just the famous Master Ye of Jinling, but also the eldest son and grandson of the Ye family!”

“Not only that, he’s even the eldest grandson of the An family! He’s the only son of my life idol, An Chengqing!”

“Legend has it that An Chengqing, her husband and son, all perished because of a conspiracy.”

“But to my surprise, An Chengqing’s son survived!”

At this moment, Fei Ke Xin finally understood that she, the eldest Miss of the Fei family, had thought that she was a crane and a chicken when she arrived in Jinling, but she never dreamed that in this mu of Jinling, there was a true dragon, Ye Chen!

Chapter 3955

The moment she saw through Ye Chen’s identity, it was as if Fei Ke Xin had grabbed the real straw that saved her life.

She suddenly knelt down again and choked up as she begged, “Young Master Ye, please help my grandfather and help him take back the great power of the Fei family

As soon as Fei Ke Xin’s words came out, Fei Jianzhong was stunned and dumbfounded.

He could not understand why Fei Ke Xin would beg Ye Chen to help him take back the great power.

After all, although Ye Chen had the Spring Return Pill, even if he gave it to himself, he would only be able to survive.

Surviving was not the same as being able to regain the great power of the Fei family.

Because, his own eldest son had already tantamount to rooting himself out, there was no way for him to compete with him.

He might not even be able to return to the United States at all.

Because, once he ventured back to the country, his eldest son would definitely regard himself as a thorn in his side and would not let him return alive no matter what.

On the other hand, Lai Qing Hua was surprised and delighted at the same time.

He was shocked that Fei Ke Xin had been able to penetrate Ye Chen's true identity.

The joy was that Fei Ke Xin had indeed begged the right person. At the moment, apart from Ye Chen, I was afraid that there was no other person who had the ability to help Fei Jianzhong regain control of the Fei family.

Ye Chen was also surprised to the extreme.

He knew that Fei Ke Xin was smart, but he did not expect her to be so smart.

It must be because he had just heard his great uncle's name and had not controlled his expression for a moment, and Fei Ke Xin had caught the end of it.

Luckily, apart from Lai Qinghua, it was the generals of the Ten Thousand Dragons Hall around him, and they all knew that he was the young master of the Ye family, so Fei Ke Xin had not exposed herself with this remark.

So, Ye Chen didn't want to deny it, he just looked at Fei Ke Xin and said indifferently, "Sorry, I can't help with this favor."

Fei Kexin, in her haste, said offhandedly, "How can that be Young Master Ye, with your ability, if you are willing to help, there will be a way, as for the conditions, you can just ask, I am sure Grandpa will agree to you"

Fei Jianzhong was incomparably surprised, looked at Fei Kexin and asked softly, "Kexin you are"

Seeing that Fei Ke Xin had seen through his identity, Ye Chen opened his mouth and said to the soldiers of the Ten Thousand Dragon Hall around him, "You guys should go out first."

"As you command Mr. Ye!" Several of the Ten Thousand Dragons Hall soldiers immediately turned around and walked out.

Ye Chen then looked at Yuan Zixu and added, "This gentleman, please also take a moment to withdraw."

Yuan Zixu glanced at Fei Jianzhong and saw that Fei Jianzhong nodded before he gave Ye Chen a fist hug and stepped out.

At this point in the room, only Ye Chen, Lai Qinghua, and the grandfather and grandson duo of Fei Jianzhong and Fei Kexin were left.

Ye Chen looked at Fei Jianzhong at this time and said seriously, "Old Mr. Fei, I am the first grandson of the Ye family in Yanjing, my mother, is the eldest daughter of the An family, An Chengqi, and that An Chongqiu who was competing with you just now, is my eldest uncle."

When Fei Jianzhong heard this, his entire jaw dropped.

He said with wide eyes and a face full of horror, “You you are An Chengqin’s son?! Hasn’t An Chengqin’s family all pa*sed away?”

Ye Chen sighed and said seriously, “My parents pa*sed away, but I survived.”

After saying that, Ye Chen asked him, “The reason for my parents’ death, may I ask if you know any inside information?”

Fei Jianzhong shook his head and spoke, “Young Master Ye, back then, the news of your mother An Chengqing’s death in China had a great impact on American high society, many people said that she was killed by someone, but no one knew exactly who she was killed by, it was said that the An family had also been investigating, but it had never been identified, and outsiders like us, we had even less knowledge

At this time, Fei Ke Xin, who was on the side, also spoke up, “Young Master Ye, after your mother’s death, many of her alumni at Stanford, as well as those Silicon Valley bigwigs who had received her investment to become top entrepreneurs, have been trying everything to find out the truth about her death for so many years, and until today, they have not found out any clear clues.”

Hearing this, Ye Chen’s heart burst with disappointment.

In the earliest days, he had thought that his parents had been killed by the Su family, but when he found them he realised that the Su family simply did not have that power

Immediately afterwards, he felt that the Ye family must know the reason why his parents were killed, but Ye Zhongquan was also at a loss as to why.

Now he felt that Fei Jianzhong might have insider information that he did not know, but he was also clueless

What drove Ye Chen to despair the most was that Grandpa’s family didn’t seem to know why either.

Not only that, it was so unbelievable that so many of his mother’s old friends at Stanford, and so many of the Internet giants she had invested in, so many of their top smart people had joined forces, but they couldn’t find out the clues either.

Ye Chen now had no idea what kind of people he had to find in order to explore the clues related to the murder of his parents.

At this time, however, Fei Jianzhong looked at Ye Chen with a gleam in his eyes.

In his mind, Ye Chen was An Qishan’s grandson, so if he could mobilise the An family’s strength, it must not be difficult to help him regain power!

Thus, he hurriedly pleaded, “Young Master Ye, I dare to beg you to help me regain control of the Fei family, if I can, I would like to give 20% of all the Fei family’s properties as a reward!”

Ye Chen smiled and asked him, “What makes you think I can help you take back control?”

Fei Jianzhong blurted out, “Young Master Ye, you are the grandson of Mr. An Qishan An, as long as you ask, I think the An family will definitely respond to your request, and with the An family’s strength, this matter is not that difficult!”

Ye Chen shook his head and said indifferently, “Mr. Fei, you are taking this matter a bit for granted, I haven’t met with the An family for over twenty years, they don’t even know if I’m alive or dead, what makes you think that they will respond to my requests?”

Speaking here, Ye Chen gave a slight beating and asked again, “Besides, you and I have only just met today, what makes you think that I would beg the An family for you? Is it just for your 20% of shares? You witnessed the auction tonight, and if I let my great uncle take that Spring Return Pill away, the An Family would definitely pay me US$370 billion, but I didn’t take any of that money seriously, do you think that I, Ye Chen, would look at your measly 20% of shares?”

Hearing these words, Fei Jianzhong’s face turned a deadly grey.

He had just thought that Ye Chen had the ability to help himself, but now that he thought about it, he suddenly understood that just because Ye Chen had the ability to help himself, it did not mean that he had the obligation to help himself.

Thinking of this, he smiled to himself and lamented, “Mr. Ye is right, it is I who have taken it too much for granted

At the side, Fei Ke Xin also felt as if she had suffered a heavy hammer in her heart.

At this moment, she also suddenly realized that the little favor she had given to Ye Chen earlier, Ye Chen had just doubled it with the half of the Blood Dissipation Heart Saving Pill, what qualifications did she have to ask him for help?

At this point, Lai Qing Hua sighed and said, “Jian Zhong, I know you are upset, but you have to know that you have almost nothing, but the other party already controls the Fei family, which has a market value of nearly a trillion dollars, there is no way you can win with such a huge power disparity.”

Speaking of this, Lai Qing Hua added: “Moreover, even if the An family is strong, they cannot easily help you to snatch back the power, this is not a war between two countries, whoever is strong can destroy the other side, this is a time of peace, a society under the rule of law, everything has to be in line with basic legal principles.”

“Your son seized your power by relying on the supreme emergency plan, which is a reasonable and legal way, and the An family seized your son’s power by what? Did they rely on doing the right thing for God?”

Chapter 3957

Lai Qinghua’s words left Fei Jianzhong with no way to refute them, and he was even more devastated inwardly.

And Lai Qing Hua, seemingly wanting to wake up this old friend once and for all, continued, “Jianzhong, you must understand that your son did not simply usurp your throne, he instigated the civil and military officials to overthrow your dynasty together. other shareholders on the board.”

“Let me put it in other words, you are like the old emperor in ancient times who would not hesitate to trade the power of a kingdom for himself in exchange for longevity, your children and grandchildren, your civil and military ministers are no longer able to see this, and not only do they no longer support you, they no longer trust you either, they even see you as a faint and tyrannical ruler who only wants to get things back on track after overthrowing you!”

“Think about it yourself, if you hadn’t lost the support of everyone yourself, how could your eldest son have so easily and completely, snatched away your great power?”

Speaking here, Lai Qinghua paused slightly for a moment and said with emotion, “Jianzhong, everything has a cause and effect, you have to reflect on yourself!”

At this moment, Fei Jianzhong’s whole body was struck by lightning.

Before this, he only knew that it was his son who had seized his power and snatched away the dynasty he had worked so hard to build.

But now he realised that it was he who was bent on seeking immortality, thus also depriving himself of a base of support and trust within his own dynasty.

Under such circumstances, how could he still think of taking back the power? It was a fool’s dream!

Thinking of this, Fei Jianzhong was speechless and in tears.

And Fei Ke Xin was also awakened by Lai Qinghua’s words.

She was hoping that her grandfather would live a long life, so she was extremely supportive of his quest for longevity and the elixir of rejuvenation.

But apart from the filial piety she should have as a granddaughter, a large part of this was also based on her own interests.

She and her father, as well as her older siblings from the same father and mother, had always lacked sufficient roots in the family and had to rely on the blessing of the old man to live a life of ease.

If the old man had died early, her father, as the youngest son of Fei Jianzhong, would inevitably have received only minimal benefits.

This was the crux of the matter.

Just because one wished for one’s grandfather to live did not mean that others felt the same way.

At this time, Ye Chen suddenly spoke coldly, “Back then, after King Zhu Di of Yan rose up in rebellion and drove his nephew, Emperor Jianwen, out of the palace, he still had trouble sleeping and eating, and spent his whole life searching for the whereabouts of Emperor Jianwen, you should also be careful nowadays that your son is driving you to extinction.”

Fei Jianzhong looked at Ye Chen and smiled bitterly, “He should not be so ruthless as to just now he was on the phone and also spoke to me openly and honestly, what he meant was that as long as I don’t go back to America, let me live out the rest of my life, and when I die, then let Kexin bring my remains back to the United States for burial.”

Ye Chen smiled playfully, shook his head and said seriously, "In my opinion, the reason he said that was based on the premise that he thought you would only live for a month or two at most, and he probably also thought that after he had stimulated you so much, you would probably even die on the spot at the auction, or fall apart since the auction, so that the days that were already few would continue to The days that were already numbered will continue to be greatly diminished."

Speaking of this, Ye Chen looked at him and said blandly, "If I hadn't saved you just now, he might have gotten what he wanted by now."

Hearing these words, Fei Jianzhong's expression became appalled.

Ye Chen's expression was austere at this point as he continued to ask him, "Imagine if he knew that you now had an extra year or two of life for nothing, would he still be so calm and let you live out the rest of your life in the country?"

With this question, Ye Chen made both Fei Jianzhong and Fei Kexin's hearts leap with fear!

Fei Jianzhong originally thought that although he had lost the great power of the Fei family, he would at least have an extra year or two to live, and since Ye Chen's Spring Return Pill would continue to be auctioned off next year, he might still have a chance.

But when he heard this, he realised that he had thought a little too optimistically.

Chapter 3958

The son was trying to let himself die in the country, which was based on dying a little faster.

What if he died too slowly?

Thinking of this, Fei Jianzhong felt a shiver run down his spine.

Fei Ke Xin was also a little panicked all of a sudden.

She subconsciously asked Ye Chen: "Young Master Ye Then what do you think, what should he do now, grandpa"

Ye Chen blandly said, "At times like this, don't think that you can still kill a comeback to regain the top, the only option now is to find a way to live on while accepting defeat."

Lai Qing Hua immediately said with some concern, "Young Master Ye, their grandfather and grandson have no one to rely on in Jinling, although they have a Yuan Zixu by their side, but if the other party finds out that Jianzhong has been alive, he will definitely have trouble sleeping and eating, at that time, I am afraid that he will not be able to resist and send someone over himself, in that case, one Yuan Zixu will not be enough to resist ah"

The other party is in charge of a family fortune of nearly a trillion dollars, so I'm afraid there are as many experts that can be mobilized in secret, and their intelligence capabilities are even more immeasurable, so even if you and your grandfather want to hide, you definitely won't be able to."

Fei Ke Xin suddenly became nervous, it did not matter if she could not go back to the United States, but if the other party really lost patience and wanted to let her grandfather die early, she had no countermeasures at the moment.

At this time, Lai Qing Hua could not help but plead with Ye Chen: "Young Master Ye, if they have no one to shelter them, I am afraid they will be in a lot of danger. I beg you to see that they have no one to rely on, try to think of a foolproof plan for them, so that Jian Zhong can live the rest of his life in peace"

Ye Chen said somewhat helplessly, "Mr. Lai, I have already booked my trip and will be leaving for the United States with my wife at the end of the month. Even if I leave them in the care of my men in Jinling now, once the other side really comes looking for them, those men of mine may not be able to protect them."

Fei Ke Xin put aside all her dignity at this point and once again knelt down on both knees, sobbing uncontrollably and said, "Young Master Ye my grandfather and I are now at our wits' end, please be merciful and at least save my grandfather's life as for myself I'm sure I don't need to bother you anymore, please!"

Ye Chen originally did not want to interfere with the Fei family's affairs, because he was also clear that such matters were beyond his current capabilities.

Although his own personal strength was strong, it was impossible to keep the two grandchildren with him all the time; the

that although the strength he could currently control was not bad, his roots were still shallow after all, and there was definitely still a big gap compared to the Fei family.

Moreover, one was not prepared to identify with the An family for the time being, let alone begging the An family for the Fei family's affairs

Although there was still a Ten Thousand Dragons Hall in his hand, he couldn't let Wan Breaking Army fight his way through with the generals of the Ten Thousand Dragons Hall, could he?

A mercenary organisation like the Ten Thousand Dragons Hall seemed to be very strong to say the least, but it could only survive in the cracks of this world.

If they were to go to the United States and start a fight, and if they were to make an enemy of the top American families, they would have no chance of winning once the United States intervened.

Thinking about the Ten Thousand Dragons Temple, Ye Chen suddenly had a plan in mind.

If the other side really sends people to kill you all, I can't protect you all, and then you won't be safe in Jinling."

The first thing I'd like to do is to send a car to take you to the hospital, and then quietly arrange for the soldiers of the Dragon Palace to take you out of the hospital, and then take you directly to the port to take a boat to the Middle East. Even if they find you, they won't be able to do anything to you on the territory of the Ten Thousand Dragons Hall."

"Ten Thousand Dragons Temple?!" Hearing these three words, Fei Ke Xin subconsciously asked, "Young Master Ye, isn't the Ten Thousand Dragons Hall an enemy of the Ye Family?"

Ye Chen grunted and said blandly, "That's all old history, now the 50,000 or so people up and down the Ten Thousand Dragons Hall are all loyal to me."

Chapter 3959

When Ye Chen said this, Fei Kexin and Fei Jianzhong's jaws dropped in shock.

Ye Chen's lightly spoken words were like a rolling thunderstorm in the ears of the two grandparents.

The two grandfathers and grandsons had never dreamed that the Ye family had given half of their family fortune to the Ten Thousand Dragons Hall in exchange for the lord of the Hall's net, but in reality, it was the complete opposite!

Not only did the Ye family not give up half of their family fortune to the Ten Thousand Dragons Hall, Ye Chen even took the entire Ten Thousand Dragons Hall under his wing!

This was a mercenary group of tens of thousands of people!

Although such a mercenary group could not be compared to the military of the United States of America, its scale and combat power was no longer comparable to a rich and powerful family like the Fei family.

Fei Ke Xin's brain had not yet reacted, while Fei Jianzhong was instantly enlightened and said offhandedly, "No wonder No wonder when entering, Master Yuan once voiced his doubts, saying that the security personnel here were almost all martial arts experts, the lowest cultivation level was even a three-star martial artist, and the higher ones even had a few five-star martial artists, so many experts that even his division could not compare, thinking that these must all be people from the Hall of Ten Thousand Dragons"

Ye Chen nodded and said frankly and readily, "That's right, those in charge of the security of the entire auction this time are all generals of the Ten Thousand Dragon Hall, that Yuan Shi you mentioned should be the one who has been following you just now, right? His cultivation level is indeed not bad, he has reached the level of a seven-star martial artist, and when placed in the Ten Thousand Dragons Hall, he is also at the level of the four great battle kings."

Fei Jianzhong looked at Ye Chen in shock and muttered, "Young Master Ye you how do you know that Master Yuan he is a seven-star martial artist?!"

In fact, when asking this question, Fei Jianzhong already had an answer in his heart.

Why would Ye Chen know Yuan Zixu's cultivation level?

The only possibility was that his cultivation level was far above Yuan Zixu's!

Fei Ke Xin was even more shocked, and she felt more and more at this moment that she was a mere cloud compared to Ye Chen!

At this moment, Ye Chen first laughed without saying anything, and only after a moment did he laugh blandly, "Otherwise, Mr. Fei thought, what did I, Ye Chen, rely on to subdue the Ten Thousand Dragons Hall? Was it by being handsome?"

The dumbfounded Fei Ke Xin suddenly broke her defences when she heard Ye Chen's words.

She couldn't help but give a light laugh, and then hurriedly and sensibly shut her mouth.

But it was also this soft laugh that immediately relaxed her mood.

At this time, Fei Jianzhong also finally understood that the reason why Luo Jiacheng, who had been protecting Fei Kexin before, had disappeared in Jinling must have been Ye Chen's doing as well.

And Yuan Zixu had once said that the one who could make Luo Jiacheng disappear without a sound must be an expert among experts, and I was afraid that he had already broken through the Dark Realm.

In that case, Ye Chen must be that Dark Realm expert.

Otherwise, he wouldn't have been able to take the Ten Thousand Dragons Hall under his wing!

Thinking of this, his gaze was awe-inspiring, and his eyes were filled with awe as he looked at Ye Chen, bowing respectfully to him and saying reverently, "Young Master Ye has made such an achievement at such a young age, the future of the Ye family is bound to be unlimited!"

Ye Chen smiled faintly, looked at the time and spoke, "Old Mr. Fei, it's getting late, you and Miss Fei should also depart."

After saying that, Ye Chen looked at Fei Kexin and said seriously, "Miss Fei, I will inform Wan Bujun to provide you with good hospitality when you arrive in the Middle East, but after all, it is to the Middle East and the conditions are somewhat difficult, so you and Old Mr. Fei still need to overcome more."

Fei Ke Xin also knew very well that even if Ye Chen had the ability to help Grandpa regain his great power, he himself was not qualified to ask him to help at all.

Now that Ye Chen was willing to save grandpa and herself from death, it was already considered a great favour.

So, she choked with gratitude and said, "Thank you, Young Master Ye, for your great kindness, Kexin will never forget it!"

Ye Chen waved his hand and added, "Zhong Dong Yuan, you first accompany Old Mr. Fei to the hospital, I will have someone prepare some food and supplies, and some daily necessities to bring on board for you in advance."

Fei Ke Xin nodded repeatedly while shedding tears and choked up, "Thank you Young Master Ye Thank you!"

Ye Chen smiled lightly, looked at Fei Jianzhong again, and spoke, "Old Mr. Fei, you still need to cooperate next."

Chapter 3960

A few minutes later, several security personnel carried a stretcher in a panicked manner and carried Fei Jianzhong out of the VIP room and straight through the auction hall, speeding out of the banquet hall in full view of everyone.

As the security personnel raced, they shouted, "Get out of the way, the patient is dying and must be taken to the hospital immediately for emergency treatment!"

Fei Ke Xin darted after him, already in tears.

The crowd at the auction watched as the staff carried Fei Jianzhong away, muttering one by one.

Just now, because of Fei Jianzhong's sudden fainting, the whole auction was suspended, not expecting Subsequently, the convoy arranged by Richard Chen immediately took Fei Jianzhong to the hospital.

With Fei Jianzhong's grandchildren gone, Ye Chen, who was in the VIP room, said to Lai Qinghua, "Mr. Lai, if the Fei family's sons find out that Old Mr. Fei and Fei Kexin are missing, they might pressurise you to chase for details, and then you will need to withstand the pressure."

Mr. Lai said with a smile, "Young Master Ye, don't worry, that bd of the Fei family wouldn't dare to do anything to me, besides, I didn't follow them to the hospital, their whereabouts are unknown after they arrive, what's the use of chasing after me? I don't know anything."

Ye Chen smiled and nodded, saying, "Since that's the case, then junior will be relieved."

Lai Qing Hua returned the smile and then asked him, "Right Young Master Ye, I wonder what you are going to in the United States this time?"

Ye Chen replied, "I am going to accompany my wife to Providence to attend a refresher course."

Lai Qing Hua exclaimed, "Providence is on the East Coast and I am on the West Coast, more than 4,000 kilometres apart, but if Young Master Ye has time, you are welcome to come to Los Angeles for a visit, I will be sure to give you a good reception!"

Ye Chen nodded and smiled, "Yes, if I have time, I will definitely go."

Lai Qing Hua smiled faintly and asked, "Young Master Ye, how is the auction going?"

Ye Chen smiled, "I asked Miss Song to put the auction on hold, so they can wait for now and start again when I finish arranging things."

Lai Qinghua nodded and said with an arching hand, "Young Master Ye, then I will also go back to the venue and wait first."

After saying that, he said with a smile, "Tonight, this Spring Return Pill seems to have fallen into the hands of that Bernard Elnor, this auction, it's really up and down and full of surprises"

Ye Chen shrugged his shoulders helplessly and said with a smile, "It can't be helped, I thought it would be bought by Mr. Fei Lao, but I didn't expect it to be like this."

Lai Qinghua asked him, "By the way Young Master Ye, aren't you going to meet An Chongqiu? According to the rules of your auction, even if he was expelled from the venue before the auction ended, he cannot leave the hotel without permission at this moment, right?"

Ye Chen shook his head and spoke, "Forget it, there's nothing to see, although I'm not too sure whether the An family is an enemy or a friend, but I know that back then the entire An family didn't think too highly of my father, back then my mother even went to the extent of drawing a line in the sand with the family in order to marry him, and for many years afterwards, there wasn't too much dealings with the An family, so I guess they wouldn't treat me too well, so why make a fool of that boredom."

Lai Qinghua said seriously, "If the An family knew what you have achieved now, they would not treat you as badly as you say."

Ye Chen laughed: "If it is because of the Spring Return Pill or any other reason that makes them look at me, or even care for me, then it would be better not to see me at all, as the old saying goes, 'If you are poor and live in a downtown area, no one will ask you, but if you are rich and have distant relatives in a deep mountain, I don't want this to happen to me.'"

Lai Qinghua pondered for a moment and spoke, "An Chongqiu came to the auction incognito, I think it must be someone from the Fei family who has a health problem, most likely your grandfather, I am worried that if you don't do anything, in case something happens to your grandfather or someone else as a result, you won't feel good in your heart"

Ye Chen waved his hand: "It doesn't exist, they were not polite to my father back then, and they made things difficult for my mother, even if something did happen to any of them, I wouldn't feel bad about it."

Saying that, Ye Chen blandly said, "Besides, if any of them, really had any emergency situation, then he would definitely come over himself, instead of asking that great uncle of mine to come over and buy the Spring Return Pill away, so I think that even if there is really a situation, the situation will not be too critical!"
