

Ye Chen 3971

Chapter 3971

At this moment in time, New York, USA.

It is mid-morning in Manhattan, the financial centre of every inch of land.

In a conference room on the top floor of a dozens-storey skyscraper, an old man in his seventies is swearing at seven or eight people.

I can't f*cking understand why a man who was admitted to hospital just disappeared! They're all a bunch of f*cking losers! They're a bunch of f*cking losers!"

The one who spoke was Fei Jianzhong's eldest son, Fei Shanhai.

A few hours ago, he had announced to his father on the phone that he had been crowned the new emperor, and his words were provocative, in order to give Fei Jianzhong a little more excitement, so that his already shaky body could collapse as soon as possible.

Knowing his father, this phone call would definitely deal him a huge blow, and might even kill him outright.

Therefore, Fei Shanhai has been having people keep an eye on every move in Jinling.

And at today's auction, there were undercover agents he had sent to the auction.

After the auction was over, the undercover agent returned to his room and immediately reported the news to him. After learning that the Spring Return Pill could indeed bring back the dead, Fei Shanhai was for a moment very glad that he had made the decision to usurp the throne.

The reason was that once the old man succeeded in obtaining the Spring Return Pill, it was estimated that he would be able to live at least another ten to twenty years in the future.

In that case, he was afraid that the old man would have boiled him to death.

Moreover, the people at the auction had also said that the old master ended up in serious condition and was sent to the hospital for emergency treatment, so Fei Shanhai immediately arranged for his spies in Jinling to go to the hospital to check on the old master's current condition.

He wanted to know whether he had died or was being resuscitated.

If he was being resuscitated, he wanted to know even more how long the old man's physical condition could sustain him.

For him, since he was usurping the throne, there was always some apprehension and anxiety in his heart.

If he wanted to sleep soundly after today, he would have to wait until the old man died before the dust could settle.

As long as the old man was still alive, he would not be able to rest easy.

However, his men in Jinling soon gave him the shocking news that his father had disappeared from Jinling Central Hospital!

The hospital records showed that an American Chinese named Fei Jianzhong had indeed been admitted to the hospital for resuscitation due to a sudden coma.

However, the elderly gentleman soon regained consciousness after being treated by the doctors.

Immediately afterwards, he suddenly disappeared from the ward and no one knew where he had gone.

Fei Shanhai's men managed to get the surveillance of the entire hospital and discovered that it was Yuan Zixu who had destroyed several surveillance probes along the way and disappeared with Fei Jianzhong and Fei Kexin into the blind spot of the surveillance.

After that, the three of them disappeared into thin air, and no clues could be found.

This news made Fei Shanhai furious!

That was why there was the scene just now when he lashed out at a parcel of his men.

At this moment, his beloved belly, Ma Hansheng, a military advisor who had been assisting him for almost forty years, spoke up, "Young master, Yuan Zixu is a seven-star martial artist with superb strength, with him around, it is really a bit difficult for us to find clues about the old master and Miss Ke Xin, not to mention that our main forces are in the United States and there are only some eyes in Jinling, they are not strong enough and understaffed over there, so it is difficult to figure out what's going on over there."

Fei Shanhai nodded and said through gritted teeth, "This Yuan Zixu is also a bit insensitive to the times, what good can he do if he is still with the old man? Why don't you hurry up and give up the darkness and turn to the light!"

Ma Hansheng hurriedly said, "Young master, in my opinion, the most urgent task now is to send a group of competent men over, and no matter what, we must first find the old master and Miss Ke Xin."

Chapter 3972

Fei Shanhai said with a grim look on his face, "Old Ma, leave this matter to you, pick a group of men and fly to Jinling today, no matter what, we must find the old master and see him alive and dead!"

Ma Hansheng carefully inquired, "Young master, if we find the old master and Miss Ke Xin, should I take a little initiative?"

Fei Shanhai hesitated for a moment and said coldly, "Go over and find the people first, if the situation is all under control, then put them under house arrest and let the old man not leave China until he dies; if the situation is out of control, then find a way to create an accident."

At this moment, among several people, a middle-aged man in his early fifties spoke up and asked, "Dad, what about Kexin at that time? If this girl is not removed, she will definitely become a big problem in the future!"

The man who spoke was Fei Shanhai's eldest son, Fei Jianzhong's eldest grandson and Fei Kexin's oldest cousin, Fei Xuebin.

Fei Xuebin is almost thirty years older than Fei Kexin, and his son is even three years older than Fei Kexin.

As the youngest sister of Fei Xuebin's generation, Fei Kexin should have been treated like a star in the family.

But in fact, that was just an illusion under the old man's power.

Because the old man was so fond of Fei Kexin, everyone showed their love and affection for her, and many of them were even kinder to her than the old man was to her.

But in reality, Fei Kexin's wooden show has long been disliked by many people.

Fei Xuebin had always been displeased with Fei Kexin and felt that Fei Kexin was too prominent in the family and loved by the old man, threatening his position as the eldest son and grandson at all times.

Moreover, because Fei Kexin was more capable in her own right, she often indirectly slapped the rest of the Fei family in the face without even thinking about it.

Not only the older brothers and sisters who were of the same generation as Fei Kexin would be compared to Fei Kexin every now and then by the old man, who would sarcastically bash them in the process.

Even Fei Xuebin's son and Fei Kexin's nephew were often warned and spurred on by the old man because they were almost the same age as Fei Kexin but were far inferior to her in every way.

Over time, Fei has become a target in the family.

However, when the old man was around, everyone was able to keep this discontent deep in their hearts, but once the old man lost his power, everyone's discontent lost its only restraint.

Fei Shanhai also felt that Fei Ke Xin would be a big problem in the future.

The old man would not live long, but Fei Kexin was only in her twenties.

Moreover, she was the only member of Fei's family who was with him now.

If the old man becomes disillusioned and leaves a will to hand over the Fei family to her, then there will be real trouble.

The reason is that although Fei Shanhai has now used the highest emergency plan and successfully become the chairman of the board, this is only a reasonable and legal means to get the control of the Fei family.

As long as Master Fei is still alive, the shares and a*sets are still under his name.

If the old man were to hand over these shares and a*sets to Fei Kexin, then Fei Kexin would be the reasonable and legal heir.

If he really let Fei Kexin come back with the will, he would really be pa*sive by then.

So, Fei Shanhai pondered for a moment, nodded and spoke, "Find them and get rid of them all! Bring a few more experts over, including that Yuan Zixu, don't keep them either!"

After saying this, Fei Shanhai looked at his son, Fei Xuebin, and instructed, "Xuebin, from today onwards, keep Lao Liu's family under close surveillance and restrict them from leaving the country, so that if that girl, Kexin, really comes back one day, we will have an extra means of emergency!"

Chapter 3973

At this moment, the Buckingham Palace Hotel.

The auction had already broken up, but Ye Chen did not leave immediately.

He had originally prepared a whole rejuvenation pill for the three VIPs tonight, half of which he gave to his grandfather Ye Zhongquan, while the other half was divided into two, to be given to Mr. Lai Qing Hua Lai, the old man, and that old queen from Northern Europe after the meeting.

This auction could attract so many rich people from Europe and America thanks to the help of these two people to promote and endorse it.

Therefore, Ye Chen deliberately prepared a simple banquet at Buckingham Palace and invited the three of them to have a snack.

Ye Zhongquan and Lai Qinghua already knew each other, so the two of them had a good conversation at the table, while Victoria, the old Nordic Queen, was obviously a little bit at ease at this table.

Although she was once the Queen of a country, she has now abdicated and lost her aura as the Queen.

And tonight at this auction, her self-confidence was not infrequently undermined by the wealthy people behind her who were frantically bidding. There was no doubt that she, who had come in through the back door, was at the absolute bottom of the wealth scale among these 200-odd people.

But Ye Chen had made over 170 billion in one night by selling the Spring Return Pill, and that was in US dollars, so while she was flattered to be sitting at this table right now, she was also feeling apprehensive.

However, Ye Chen, who had earned more than one hundred billion, remained humble in front of these three old men.

He personally poured wine for the three and personally rose to raise his cup, politely saying, "I thank the three of you for coming all the way here and supporting the junior today, this cup of wine is my toast to you!"

The three of them tried to stand up in unison, but Ye Chen said, "Please sit down, this is a toast from me as a junior to you all.

Lai Qing Hua was busy saying, "Young Master Ye, I am a python"

As soon as Ye Chen heard this, he knew that he was going to bring up the fate pattern again, so he quickly interrupted him and said, "Old Mr. Lai, that fate pattern thing, we don't care about that at this table, if I didn't know you, I would have had to get up and give up my seat for you even if I met you on the bus.

Ye Zhongquan was enjoying Ye Chen's respect, so he hurriedly advised Lai Qinghua, "Mr. Lai, just sit down and don't make things difficult for Chen's son."

Only then did Lai Qinghua nod and said with a clasped fist, "Young Master Ye, then allow me to be rude!"

Ye Chen smiled faintly and looked at the old empress beside him. The old empress was even more nervous and apprehensive at this moment, feeling that she could neither sit nor stand, and her legs were slightly strained, her buttocks always keeping a slight distance from the chair, half standing and half sitting to make her look even more senior.

Ye Chen was busy saying, "Lady Iliad, you are no more polite than this, please sit down."

Only then did the old queen sit back in her chair and said gratefully, "I would also like to thank Mr Ye for his unprecedented invitation, otherwise I would not have been qualified to attend this auction."

Ye Chen said with a smile, "I see that you have bid a few rounds at the beginning, how do you feel?"

The old queen said in an embarrassed voice: "That was because I didn't think I could afford it I thought I might have a chance to get the first copy of the Spring Return Pill by putting up my entire fortune, but I didn't expect the first copy to fetch a sky-high price of two billion US dollars, which is already far beyond the wealth of our entire Iliad family"

Ye Chen smiled faintly, "In fact, I invited you to be the guest of honor because I hope you can come to the venue to support me, you go to the auction yourself, instead, you are somewhat degrading yourself."

The old queen laughed twice, but in her mind she was thinking, "What's the point of degrading myself, if I can get a copy of the Spring Recovery Pill, I'd be willing to spend all my money on it"

But how could she have the heart to say this, she could only say with a humble face, "Mr. Ye is right, I was a bit abrupt."

Chapter 3974

Ye Chen shook his head and said seriously, "I am not saying that you are being abrupt, I am saying that there is no need for you to compete with them because you are a VIP, whether you have more assets than them or not, your status here with me is higher than the two hundred or so of them."

Hearing this, the old queen felt her inferiority complex finally ease a little.

Even though she was not strong, since Ye Chen had given her face so much, it was indeed enough to straighten her back.

In fact, although she had not been able to bid for the Spring Return Pill at the auction tonight, her presence as a VIP did make her feel facetious.

She hurriedly said respectfully, "Thank you, Mr. Ye, for thinking so highly of me, our entire Iliad family, too, owes its existence to your help, Mr. Ye"

After saying that, she hurriedly brought out her granddaughter Helena and said seriously, "Helena has often talked about Mr. Ye in front of me, during this period of time, she has been missing Mr. Ye very much and is very eager to see him again, but now that she has ascended to the throne, she has the restriction of being the Queen and cannot leave the country at will, so please forgive me Mr. Ye"

Ye Chen also knew that the old empress deliberately mentioned Helena, in fact, she wanted to get close to herself.

For this, Ye Chen naturally saw through it and said with a smile, "Please tell Helena that we will definitely meet again when we have the chance."

The old empress nodded her head repeatedly and said with a look of anticipation, "Mr. Ye, if you have time, you are always welcome to bring Scandinavia here. Although it is not very convenient for Helena to leave the palace, the interior of the palace is still very private, so you can come to the palace for a few days when you have time."

Ye Chen casually responded, "Good, I will go there when I have the chance later."

After saying that, he looked at the old empress and then at Lai Qing Hua and said seriously, "By the way, the two old seniors have come all the way from Europe and America this time, so they have indeed made junior very grateful, so junior has also prepared some slight gifts for you, please don't mind."

After saying that, Ye Chen took out two rosewood boxes from his pocket and handed them to Lai Qing Hua and the old queen respectively.

Both of them seemed to have guessed that the boxes were likely to contain the Spring Return Pill, so they were both a little emotional all of a sudden.

Even an old man like Lai Qing Hua, who had walked through a hundred years of great storms, still had some difficulty holding it down.

Ye Chen spoke up at this time, "In these two wooden boxes are a quarter of a Spring Return Pill each, a small token of appreciation from my junior, just as two accompanying gifts, please accept them."

Hearing that it was indeed a Spring Return Pill, both of their hands trembled a little at once.

The old empress had been looking forward to the Spring Return Pill for a long time, but today's auction had shown her the market price of the Spring Return Pill, and she had been so devastated that she thought she might never have the chance to get it again in her life.

So when she saw that Ye Chen had taken the initiative to give her a copy, her tears of excitement came to her eyes at once.

Although Lai Qinghua had already taken a whole Spring Return Pill, he also knew that it was the reward Ye Chen had given him after he had broken the trap of the Dragon Trapped Shoal for him.

Since Ye Chen had escaped from the trap of the Dragon Trap, he had long since soared to the heavens and would no longer need to break the trap for him in the future, so he had once thought that he would never have the chance to obtain the Spring Return Pill again in his life.

But what he didn't expect was that Ye Chen would take the initiative to give him a quarter of a Spring Return Pill as a thank you, which also made his heart thrilled.

The value of one Spring Return Pill, which could prolong life by at least ten to twenty years, was as high as US$38.2 billion at the auction.

To Lai Qing Hua, even if he were to give more money, it would not be worth this Spring Return Pill in his hand!

Chapter 3975

Although these three VIPs today did not dare to expect to receive the Spring Return Pill presented by Ye Chen when they attended the auction this time, to Ye Chen, since he had invited them over, how could he really let them make a trip for nothing.

A Spring Return Pill was divided into three parts, with Grandpa getting half and Old Mr. Lai and the Old Queen getting a quarter each, which seemed to him to be a more reasonable way to distribute it.

Among these three, Grandpa Ye Zhongquan was the only one who hadn't taken the Spring Return Pill yet.

Ye Zhongquan was not too old yet, and half a Spring Return Pill would be able to improve him greatly.

Moreover, Ye Chen himself had kept a hand in it, if he gave his grandfather one at a time, in case the old man's ambition from his youth came together and he wanted to regain control of the Ye family again, he would definitely become a problem for himself at that time.

Give him half a pill at a time, so that he will eat the marrow and crave for the Spring Return Pill more in the future, and will be able to cooperate more with himself in the Ye family.

After all, although he had effectively taken over the Ye family, the Ye family's heirs were mostly crotchety, and many matters still needed to be done by the old empress himself.

As for Lai Qing Hua and the Old Empress, it was purely out of favour. They had helped to promote the Spring Return Pill and it was only right that they should show their appreciation.

Fearing that the night would be too long, the Old Queen took the Pill without hesitation.

She had just recovered from a critical illness some time ago and her body was relatively weak, so she couldn't wait to use the Pill to improve it.

After she had taken the elixir, she felt a sense of well-being and strength all over her body, and was able to regain the state she was in four or five years ago.

Originally, Lai Qing Hua wanted to keep this Spring Return Pill in case there was any need for it in the future.

However, seeing that the old queen had taken it, she was too embarrassed to keep the Spring Return Pill and take it with her.

After all, Ye Chen's own uncle wanted to spend more than 300 billion yuan to take away a Spring Return Pill, but Ye Chen did not agree, so it would be inappropriate for him to take away this Spring Return Pill.

So, he also put a quarter of this Spring Return Pill into his mouth in front of Ye Chen.

Although taking the Spring Return Pill this time was not as shocking as taking a whole one last time, it still made him feel visibly that his body had become much younger than the last.

The two men were grateful to Ye Chen, and after Ye Chen had made a few polite remarks, he opened up for everyone to eat.

The meal was a joyful one for all the guests.

After the meal, after sending the three back to the administration building, Ye Chen said to Ye Zhongquan, "Grandpa, I have something I want to ask you for advice, why don't we go to your room for a chat."

"Sure!" Ye Zhongquan agreed readily, and after bidding farewell to the other two, he led Ye Chen to the room where he lived.

As the grandfather and grandson sat opposite each other on the sofa, Ye Chen asked him, "Grandpa, do you know the number 99 who was thrown out at the auction today?"

Ye Zhongquan said, "No, I don't know him, what's wrong?"

Ye Zhongquan was impressed by that person because that guy had scared him so much when he opened his mouth and asked for US$370 billion.

However, he didn't know what exactly that person's origin was.

Ye Chen asked him at this time, "I asked the others and they said that that person was my great uncle, An Chongqiu."

"An Chongqiu? Surprisingly, it was him" Ye Zhongquan's eyes widened and he did not come back from the shock for a long time.

Ye Chen opened his mouth and asked, "You don't know him?"

Ye Zhongquan smiled sarcastically, "Your grandfather's family was quite displeased with our Ye family back then, and when your mother married here, no one from her mother's family even came, so I had never met your uncles before, except for your second uncle An Kaifeng, whom I met at a summit in Sweden some years ago. Later, I thought of getting close to him and paying him a visit, but it turned out that he was still unwilling to see me."

Ye Chen laughed and said, "It seems that the An family really doesn't look up to those surnamed Ye."

Ye Zhongquan laughed at himself and said, "He doesn't think much of me, but he said at the time that of all the people surnamed Ye, he only recognises you."

Chapter 3976

Saying that, Ye Zhongquan added, "By the way, your great uncle came to the auction and wanted to take the Spring Return Pill away with him, I wonder who he was planning to buy it for, your grandfather or your grandmother?"

“I’m not sure.” Ye Chen spoke, “I haven’t had any contact with him yet, so I don’t know who he bought the Spring Return Pill for.”

Ye Zhongquan said, “Chen’er, I think you can make contact with your grandfather’s family, it may not be a bad thing.”

He added, “But to make contact, it would be best to start with your grandfather or your second uncle, as far as I know, in this generation of the An family, the one who really has a say is your second uncle An Kaifeng, after your mother left the An family, many of the An family’s businesses were taken over by your second uncle, and they are doing very well, your grandfather has long set your second uncle as the successor of the An family.”

Ye Chen shook his head and said, “I don’t have the idea of meeting with them yet, let’s let nature take its course.”

Ye Zhongquan spoke, “After all, the An family is one of the top three families in the world, if you can get their support, it will definitely have many benefits for your future development.”

Ye Chen said indifferently, “Not to mention that I don’t plan to identify with them now, even if the truth is recognized one day, I won’t let them support my development, in the face of interests, kinship may not be reliable, it is better to rely on others than on oneself in such matters.”

After saying that, Ye Chen remembered something and added, “Right grandpa, my great uncle is still in Buckingham Palace, I think if he still wants to get the Spring Return Pill, he will definitely find a way to contact you, if he finds you, don’t reveal my situation to him.”

Ye Zhongquan nodded and asked again, “What about if he asks me to help him buy the Spring Return Pill? How should I reply?”

Ye Chen said, “This is simple, you can first ask him what he is buying the Spring Return Pill for, and by the way, promise him that you can help with the consultation, then just cold-treat him, if he doesn’t ask you, you don’t have to reply to him, if he comes to ask you, you can just say that there is no progress yet and keep hanging on to him.”

At this moment, An Chongqiu was sitting on the sofa in the hotel room, holding a hand-made amulet made by Ye Chen in his hand, his eyes looking out of the window at the night scene of Jinling, and his heart was depressed.

It was a huge regret for him that he had not been able to take away the Spring Return Pill when he came over this time.

Moreover, he had already registered under the identity of ‘Huo Yuanzheng’ before attending this auction, and with the organisers of the Spring Return Pill Auction, his face was already firmly bound to the identity of ‘Huo Yuanzheng’, and he was also deprived of the right to continue participating in the Spring Return Pill Auction next year.

Even if he came back next year with a new identity, his face would not be able to pass the organisers' facial recognition.

In other words, he would not be eligible to come back to this auction in the future.

In case a number of years later, when he was dying and also needed the Spring Return Pill to renew his life, there was no way to attend the auction in person, which meant that there was no chance of getting the Spring Return Pill even with more money.

Thinking of this, he was tempted to go to Song Wanting of the Song Group and plead with her in person, asking her to bring word to the owner of the Spring Return Pill to give him a wide berth.

But when he thought that the owner of the Spring Return Pill was still unmoved by his offer of US$370 billion in cash on the spot, he gave up on the idea of seeking humiliation for himself.

After thinking about it, he decided to look for a breakthrough on Ye Zhong's whole body for the time being.

After all, the Ye family was also one of the organisers of the Spring Return Pill auction this time, and since Elder Ye was also invited as a VIP and had even taken half of the Spring Return Pill in public, he should be very familiar with the owner behind the Spring Return Pill.

Moreover, the An family and the Ye family had been relatives after all, and it would always be useful for Ye Zhongquan to help put in a good word in front of the owner of the Spring Return Pill if he was slightly mindful of old feelings.

So, he immediately said to his attendant, "Go and find out Ye Zhongquan's contact details immediately!"

Chapter 3977

For ordinary people, getting the contact details of a top tycoon like Ye Zhongquan is basically as difficult as heaven.

However, for An Chongqiu, it was not difficult to find out Ye Zhongquan's contact details.

Soon, he got Ye Zhongquan's mobile phone number.

Immediately afterwards, he did not hesitate to call Ye Zhongquan.

At this moment, Ye Zhongquan was chatting with Ye Chen, when the phone rang, he picked it up and looked at it, and found that it was an American number, so he could not help but frown and said to Ye Chen, "Chen'er, I'll take a call."

Ye Chen nodded and made a gesture of please.

Ye Zhongquan picked up the phone and spoke, "Hello, who is it?"

On the other end of the phone, An Chongqiu said with a smile, "Hello Uncle Ye!"

Ye Zhongquan was instantly puzzled, an unfamiliar number called, and the moment it came up, he called himself Uncle Ye, was it the child of some deceased person?

As he was surprised, he suddenly felt that the other party's voice sounded somewhat familiar.

It felt as if it was the same man who had been expelled by Song Wanting at the auction today.

Thinking of this, he hurriedly made a gesture to Ye Chen, and the gesture gestured only three words: An Chongqiu.

With that, he turned on the speaker while asking, "Which one are you?"

An Chongqiu said humbly, "Uncle Ye, I'm An Chongqiu, An Chengqiu is my real sister."

"Ah?" Ye Zhongquan asked in mock surprise, "You you are Chengqi's brother?"

"Right." An Chongqiu was busy saying, "We are five siblings in total, and I am the second in line."

Ye Zhongquan suddenly realized, "So that's how you got my phone number?"

An Chongqiu explained, "I asked someone to find out your phone number, so I called you.

"It's fine, it's fine." Ye Zhongquan sighed, "After all, Chengqing is our Ye family's daughter-in-law, and you are her brother, so you are our Ye family's relative, so there is no need to be so polite with me."

If Ye Zhongquan had said these words to the An family before today, he would have been scoffed at by the An family.

This was because apart from An Chengqi, the rest of the An family did not consider the Ye family as relatives at all.

At the beginning, Ye Zhongquan, as an elder, took the initiative to get close to Ye Chen's second uncle at the Swedish summit, and was even disliked, so it could be seen that the An family really did not despise the Ye family.

However, An Chongqiu now had a request from Ye Zhongquan, so when he heard Ye Zhongquan's words, he was suddenly relieved in his heart.

He felt that the Ye family's senior, indeed, still gave face to the An family.

This also made him relax a lot, so he said over the phone, "Uncle Ye, you're right, our two families are already relatives, but we haven't had much contact over the years, so we should still have more contact when we have the chance in the future."

"Yes, yes, yes." Ye Zhongquan was also an old fox, and naturally he would not lose out to anyone, so he said politely, "Chongqiu, you suddenly called my phone to contact me, you must have something to do, we are all family, so let's not be so polite, just say what it is."

An Chongqiu said with a smile, "Uncle Ye is really a straightforward person, then I won't be polite with you!"

He said, "Uncle Ye, I heard that the Ye family was also involved in the Spring Return Pill auction in Jinling, and I also heard that you were the guest of honour at the auction, is that true?"

Ye Zhongquan said with a smile, "Only so, what's wrong? You are interested in this auction too?"

An Chongqiu said, "Uncle Ye, I'm not going to lie to you, I want to ask you to help me by introducing the owner of the Spring Return Pill, I want to ask him for a Spring Return Pill, the price and everything is fine, do you think it's convenient?"

Chapter 3978

When Ye Zhongquan heard this, he said in a difficult manner, "Aiya, Chongqiu, you don't know how hot this Spring Return Pill is right now! At today's auction, someone even offered US$370 billion just for a Spring Return Pill."

An Chongqiu was embarrassed beyond words in his heart, but his mouth hurriedly stated, "Uncle Ye, as long as the other party is willing to sell, money is not a problem for me, it's just that I can't contact the owner of the Spring Return Pill right now, that's why I wanted to come and ask for your help"

Remembering Ye Chen's previous explanation, Ye Zhongquan asked curiously, "Chongqiu ah, those who buy the Spring Return Pill are all old men who are seventy or eighty years old, you are younger than Chengqi and so young, why do you still have to buy the Spring Return Pill?"

An Chongqiu said, "Uncle Ye, I don't want to buy the Spring Return Pill for my own use."

Ye Zhongquan asked, "Is there something wrong with your father-in-law's and mother's health?"

An Chongqiu laughed and said, "Uncle Ye, the family's situation is a bit special, so it is not very convenient to reveal it, so please forgive me."

Ye Zhongquan then said, "Chongqiu, if there is really something wrong with your in-laws or your in-laws' mother's health, don't be ashamed to say so, as an in-law, I will definitely do my best to help."

An Chongqiu said gratefully, "Thank you, Uncle Ye, I just want to ask you to help me make a connection, can you see if you can let me meet with the owner of the Spring Return Dan?"

Ye Zhongquan asked him, "Where are you? When do you want to meet?"

An Chongqiu wanted to continue to lie, but when he thought that if Ye Zhongquan could really help him make a connection and meet with the owner of the Spring Return Pill, the other party would definitely recognise him, and it was possible that he would be displeased with the other party for hiding something.

So, after a moment's hesitation, he said, "Uncle Ye, let me tell you the truth, I am now at Buckingham Palace in Jinling, and the person who offered US$370 billion at the auction earlier was me"

"Ah?!" Ye Zhongquan is also an old actor and asked in mock surprise, "Chongqiu, that person who was expelled is you!"

"Yes" An Chongqiu said awkwardly, "I originally wanted to offer a high price and buy the Spring Return Pill away, but I didn't expect the other party to take the rules so seriously and expelled me straight away"

Ye Zhongquan spoke, "This way Chongqiu, I understand your needs, that is, you want to meet with the owner of the Spring Return Pill to see if you can buy one privately, right?"

“Yes!” An Chongqiu was busy saying, “The price is fine, if thirty-seven billion is too little, I can still add more!”

Ye Zhongquan sighed and said, “Chongqiu, you don’t understand many things, the owner of the Spring Return Pill has a very eccentric personality, he doesn’t value money very much, and he is a man who can’t be seen, even I don’t have his contact information, he contacts me for anything, so I can only try to help you communicate with him when he contacts me about this matter you mentioned. I can only try to communicate with him when he contacts me, but I can’t guarantee when I will be able to communicate and whether it will work out afterwards.”

An Chongqiu asked, “Uncle Ye, do you know the name of this person? If it’s not too convenient on your end, you can also reveal some information to me, so I can check it out myself.”

Ye Zhongquan glanced at Ye Chen, then said, “Sorry, Chongqiu, I really don’t know much about this person, I’ll tell you what, wait patiently first, I’ll give you a call when there’s news!”

Chapter 3979

Seeing that An Chongqiu was unwilling to reveal the purpose of buying the medicine, Ye Zhongquan followed Ye Chen’s previous instructions and prepared to first casually promise An Chongqiu and then give him a delaying tactic.

An Chongqiu also knew in his heart that Ye Zhongquan must be hiding something from him, so he spoke, “Uncle Ye, if you can help with this matter, the An family will definitely not treat you poorly!”

As he said that, An Chongqiu added, “I heard that the Ye family lost a lot of money because of the Ten Thousand Dragons Hall some time ago, if the An family helps, it won’t take long to make up for this loss!”

An Chongqiu thought he was well aware of the mindset of the rich and powerful when their value suddenly plummeted, the mindset of many rich and powerful was actually no different from that of a gambler, once there was a huge fluctuation in their assets, their mindset would all change greatly.

When the Ye family lost half of its fortune in one go, Ye Zhongquan, the head of the family, was bound to scratch his heart and soul, dreaming of recovering this part of the loss.

However, it is easy to lose half of the family’s fortune overnight, but it may take ten to twenty years or more to get it back.

If the An family gave Ye Zhongquan a slight hand, then Ye Zhongquan would definitely be grateful.

An Chongqiu’s speculation was not wrong, but he had completely misjudged the Ye family’s situation.

If the Ye family had really lost half of its assets, Ye Zhongquan would have racked his brains to make up for the loss.

But the reality was that the Ye family’s strength had not been affected in any way; on the contrary, if one counted Ye Chen’s strength, Ye Chen’s assets and Ye Chen’s connections, the Ye family’s strength had more than doubled.

Therefore, he did not feel anything at all about this olive branch thrown by An Chongqiu.

It's not that I don't want to help you, and it's not that I want to use this to negotiate any terms with you, but this matter you're asking me for is really not within my ability. "

An Chongqiu remembered that at that time, Ye Zhongquan had always been eager to cooperate with the An family, but every time he made a gesture of goodwill, the old man had rejected it without hesitation.

Just when he thought that Ye Zhongquan was trying to catch him and thinking of how to change his words, Ye Chen gave Ye Zhongquan a gesture to hang up, and Ye Zhongquan immediately said to An Chongqiu, "Chongqiu, I still have something to do, let's talk some other time."

After saying that, without waiting for An Chongqiu's response, he directly hung up the phone.

An Chongqiu was caught a bit off guard at the other end of the phone.

It seemed that there had never been another person other than the old man who had hung up on him so rudely.

As he was irritated and uncertain, Ye Zhongquan on the other side put his phone back into his pocket and said to Ye Chen, "The An family is indeed used to being arrogant, they avoided me as a poor relative some years ago, and now that they are begging me to do something, the arrogance in their bones has not changed."

Ye Chen said lightly, "The fact that this great uncle of mine could shout out on the spot that he wanted to take the Spring Return Pill away for thirty-seven billion dollars shows that they are indeed arrogant, so arrogant that they don't put the rules set by others in their eyes, always thinking that as long as there is enough money, any rule will be made to change for them."

Speaking here, Ye Chen smiled faintly and said casually, "It doesn't matter, since they feel good about themselves, let them be."

Then, Ye Chen added, "Right grandpa, I'm going to go to the United States in a couple of days, I might not be back for more than a month, so it will be hard for you to take care of things on the Ye family side."

Ye Zhongquan asked curiously, "Chen'er, why are you going to America all of a sudden? You're not going to visit the An family, are you?"

Ye Chen shook his head and laughed, "Why not, I'm accompanying Churan to attend a training session."

Ye Zhongquan nodded and said, "Okay, don't worry about the Ye family, as for your uncle's side, I won't rush to find him anyway, and if he wants to find me, I definitely won't see him."

"Good." Ye Chen stood up and said, "Grandpa, it's getting late, you should rest early, I should also go home, when are you going back to Yanjing, I'll see you off at the airport then."

Ye Zhongquan said, "No need to toss and turn, old people like me have less sleep, I wake up naturally at five o'clock, after I wake up, just have something to eat, let Xiao Chen take me to the airport, you don't have to come specifically to see me off."

When Ye Chen thought about it, it was still a bit early to go to the airport at five or six o'clock, so he nodded and said, "Grandpa, in that case, then I won't see you off, when I come back from the United States, I will go to Yanjing to see you then."

The following day.

The vast majority of the bidders who attended the auction returned to where they came from one after another with the legend of the Spring Return Pill.

Although An Chongqiu had checked out of the Buckingham Palace Hotel, he did not leave Jinling immediately, but planned to try his luck with Song Wanting again.

It just so happened that Ye Chen had also gone to Song's Group early this morning, and he was going to touch base with Song Wanting on matters related to the post-auction period.

Chapter 3980

When he came to Song Wanting's office, Song Wanting handed Ye Chen a copy of the information prepared in advance and said to him, "Master Ye, in yesterday's auction, we received US$148.7 billion in actual auction revenue in the Spring Return Pill auction portion, and another US$28 billion, which was Bernard Elnor's installment payment;"

"Followed by the four amulets you made, which fetched a total of US$530 million;"

"Lastly, there is the relief of our collection, which fetched a total of US$365 million."

Speaking of this, Song Wanting said with some embarrassment, "Master Ye, I'm really sorry, Jiqing Hall's resources are still a bit lacking in terms of ordinary artworks, we basically took out the best we could find, but compared to the top auction houses like Sotheby's and Christie's, there's still a big gap, so the amount sold wasn't really high"

Ye Chen said with a smile, "It doesn't matter, the reason why there is still a shortage this time is because Jiqing Hall's reputation has not yet been established, but now, Jiqing Hall's reputation among the world's top tycoons must have been greatly enhanced, when we prepare for the Hui Chun Dan auction next year, we only need to let the wind out in advance, those sellers with top artworks in hand will definitely come to Jiqing Hall in droves to cooperate."

Song Wanting nodded and said seriously, "Master Ye, this auction, I am so grateful to you! Thank you for giving me and Jiqingtang this opportunity, thanks to you, Jiqingtang can have such a chance to soar to great heights, thank you"

Ye Chen waved his hand and said, "Wanting, we are in a cooperative relationship, through cooperation, we each take what we need, mutual benefit and grow together, so you should not say thank you all the time."

Song Wanting nodded her head slightly in gratitude, and then hurriedly said, "Right Master Ye, this auction, the revenue from the Spring Return Pill and the Talisman added up to US$149.23 billion;"

“However, at the moment, from a financial perspective, there are no costs behind this income of over 140 billion dollars:”

“If we had no costs, this more than fourteen billion would basically be all net profit and subject to corporate income tax at 25, how do you think this should be co-ordinated in a reasonable and legal manner? Can the raw materials used to make the Spring Return Pill on your side, as well as the costs incurred in the process of making it, be included?”

Ye Chen laughed: “How much can the raw materials cost? With a revenue of US$149.23 billion, US$0.03 billion after the decimal point is too much to be considered as a cost, not to mention that I made the production process myself, so it’s impossible to quantify the cost.

Song Wanting was speechless with shock and said, “Master Ye, are you sure you won’t consider doing some planning? This is over thirty billion dollars”

Ye Chen waved his hand and said firmly, “No, just do as I said and pay the tax on all of it according to the net profit.”

Song Wanting took a deep breath, nodded and said, “Okay Master Ye, I’ll clear it with the finance later.”

Ye Chen nodded and added: “Right Wanting, in addition to donating all the money from Bernard Elnor’s allotment before, help me take out another ten billion dollars in the name of the auction and donate it to the China Charity Federation, but one has to specify that half of this money should be used for the livelihood, education and medical treatment of poor and young people under eighteen and infants and orphans, and the other half should be used for 70 years old and above for the living, medical care and old age of the poor, widows, orphans and handicapped elderly, with the additional requirement that they do not release the donor’s information to the public.”

Song Wanting was speechless with shock, but in her heart she was exclaiming, “That’s US$10 billion

Is it really such a crude donation?”

Ye Chen followed up by saying, “Right, donate another billion dollars to Jinling, there is no limit to the use, as long as it is helpful to the development of Jinling, use it for whatever you want.”

Song Wanting’s heart trembled as she listened.

I had seen people who did charity, but I had never really seen anyone who did it like this.

But Ye Chen wasn’t finished at this point.

Remembering something, he added: “Right Wanting, I also want to build a large orphanage in Jinling, the requirement is to accommodate at least more than 10,000 orphans, and in addition to giving them good living security, I also want to build a supporting kindergarten, as well as a twelve-year consistent school;”

“All construction costs, manpower costs, teacher costs, and daily maintenance costs will all be paid by me, and the team of teachers must be of high quality, not only to give the children an excellent life and education, but also to allow them to study from kindergarten all the way to high school graduation without any discrimination.”

“In addition, all children who get into university from this orphanage will have all their university tuition and living expenses covered by the orphanage:”

At this point, Ye Chen turned his words and added: “In addition, all children who go to university from here must sign an agreement with the orphanage that they must return to work in Jinling for at least five years after graduating from university or graduating with a master’s or doctorate, so that they can contribute to the development of Jinling.”
