

Ye Chen 3981

Chapter 3981

Although Ye Chen is not a native of Jinling, he has long regarded it as his second hometown.

He had lived in Jinling for nearly twenty years and now that he had some ability, he did want to do something for Jinling.

In particular, he wanted to do something for the orphans in Jinling, as well as the surrounding cities.

This complex of an orphanage and a 12-year school is one of the dreams that Ye Chen wants to try to realise.

He would actually often think back to his life in the orphanage and those little friends in the orphanage.

He often thought of his old self, of his sister Li Xiaofen, his good brother Zhao Hao, the sad and irritating Zhao Zhuo, and Jiang Ming, who had gone astray and was cut down by his own hand.

Before Tang Sihai found himself, none of them were actually much good.

The biggest reason for this was that none of them had actually undergone a very good higher education.

Of course, this is not the fault of the orphanage, nor is it Tang Sihai's fault.

After all, the orphanage itself is already very impressive for giving these children a shelter and keeping them warm and fed, and there is no orphanage that cares about these children going to university when they become adults.

Although Tang Sihai had the ability to manage, he did not dare to make the conditions in the orphanage too out of the ordinary for the sake of the orphanage's low profile and normal operation.

Moreover, in those days, most orphanages were in somewhat difficult conditions because of funding.

Because of this, although Ye Chen did very well in middle school and high school, after graduating from high school, he went into society early to work in order to make things better for his other younger siblings in the orphanage.

At that time, although Tang Sihai felt sorry for this, he also felt that this would rather do more good than harm to Ye Chen.

The reason was that a Ye Chen who worked at a construction site and a Ye Chen who studied at university must have a better chance of exposure than the latter.

Because of this consideration, Tang Sihai did not interfere with Ye Chen's decision.

Now, Ye Chen doesn't have the worries that Tang Sihai had back then, so he plans to build such a utopian orphanage, not only to give these children a good basic education and the opportunity to receive higher education, but also to let these children know how to be grateful and contribute to the development of the city in the future.

Song Wanting could probably understand Ye Chen's thoughts, so she spoke up and said, "Don't worry, Master Ye, I will definitely communicate with the city about this matter as soon as possible to see if the city can help with the site selection and related qualification issues."

Ye Chen nodded and instructed, "The place can be a bit remote, but the area must be large, we want to solve the problem of more than 10,000 children living, studying and daily leisure, arts and sports activities, in addition to the accommodation and living problems of the relevant staff, its scale should be at least the same as a 10,000 people level university, and possibly even larger."

Song Wanting said, "Master Ye don't worry, I will discuss this matter with the city in detail, if you want to do such a big good deed, the city will definitely be very supportive."

Ye Chen sighed, "I am hoping that through our Spring Return Pill auction, we can raise the international popularity and economic development of Jinling to a higher level. The new darling!"

Song Wanting laughed, "When the popularity of the Spring Return Pill keeps spreading, by then, I'm afraid that all the rich people from all over the world will come to Jinling to invest"

Ye Chen said confidently, "Don't worry, this day will come soon."

Song Wanting nodded, and suddenly remembering something, she asked Ye Chen: "Master Ye, when the time comes, who are you going to give the operation of this orphanage to? Should we hand it over to the city to run after we have built it all, or should we set up our own operating team?"

Ye Chen hesitated for a moment and said, "Personally, I am inclined to let one of the aunts from the orphanage take charge of it. She was in charge of it when I was small, and not only did she take care of us, but she was also very responsible and attentive, and she is also highly educated, so from what I know about her, she should be able to handle it."

Speaking of this, Ye Chen could not help but sigh: "It's just that she has now gone to Canada to recuperate, and I can't bear to make her work harder and harder."

Chapter 3982

Song Wanting thought about it and said, "Master Ye, the scale of your project is still very large, even if we have no problem with the funding, it will take at least two to three years for the hardware to go from site selection to construction and then to completion and acceptance. We have plenty of time to take our time."

"That's true." Ye Chen nodded his head and said, "You should talk to the city first, let's try to complete the site selection first and then get the project design out as soon as possible!"

"Okay." Song Wanting said, "I'll go and touch base as soon as possible."

Thinking of Auntie Li, Ye Chen thought of giving her and Li Xiaofen a call to ask how they were doing lately.

Ye Chen calculated that the two of them were settled in Vancouver, which was 16 hours later than China, and it should be around 6pm at the moment, so the time should not disturb their rest.

So, he said to Song Wanting, "Wanting, I'll make a phone call first."

“Okay Master Ye.”

Ye Chen picked up his phone and found Li Xiaofen’s WeChat, so he sent her a voice chat.

The connection was quickly made and Li Xiaofen’s delighted voice came out, “Brother Ye Chen! Why do you want to call me?”

Ye Chen smiled, “I missed you and Auntie Li, so I called to ask how you were doing in Canada and how you were getting used to it.”

Li Xiaofen smiled cheekily and said, “We’re fine here, I was working in a laundry in Chinatown, and Auntie Li was raising flowers and vegetables in her yard every day. I am now the shop manager and cashier of the convenience store!”

Ye Chen was surprised and asked, “You have opened a convenience store? Are you and Auntie Li the only two people?”

Li Xiaofen said, “At the beginning, it was just the two of us, but after we got into the swing of things, we were a bit too busy, so we recruited another shop a*sistant.”

Ye Chen asked, “Running a convenience store must be very tiring, right?”

“It’s fine.” Li Xiaofen smiled and said, “Our convenience store is similar in size to the convenience stores we can find everywhere in China, and we have a special supplier. ”

Li Xiaofen said: “Auntie Li is doing a great job, she is nice, polite to everyone, and is also willing to help others, so although the shop has not been open for a long time, but there are already many regular customers!”

Ye Chen asked, “Is Auntie Li here? I’d like to have a chat with Auntie Li.”

Li Xiaofen said, “Auntie Li is helping out at the community nursery cla*s.”

“Nursery cla*s?” Ye Chen asked curiously, “What kind of place is it?”

Li Xiaofen explained, “It’s called daycare, and it’s actually similar to the nurseries in China.

“The community in Chinatown has organised a semi-community nursery cla*s to help these parents look after their children during the working day, Auntie Li has worked in the orphanage for so many years and is the best at looking after children, and she loves children, so when she knew there was a shortage of staff in the nursery cla*s, she volunteered to help out.

Ye Chen could not help but sigh, “People like Auntie Li are really like candles, wherever they are, they will burn themselves and light up others”

“Who says otherwise.” Li Xiaofen said with a smile, “Brother Ye Chen, Auntie Li usually talks about you all the time, she misses you a lot, And I also, I especially miss you too... . if you have time, remember to come and see us!”

Chapter 3983

Hearing these words from Li Xiaofen, Ye Chen couldn’t help but feel a little ashamed.

Auntie Li and Li Xiaofen had gone to Canada for so long, but he had never visited them, and he didn't even know how they were living in Canada recently.

Thinking of this, he hurriedly said, "Xiaofen, I happen to be accompanying your sister-in-law to study in the United States in a few days, so I will be closer to you then, and when she finishes her studies, I will bring her over to see you and Auntie Li together!"

"Really?!" Li Xiaofen said in surprise, "Brother Ye Chen, you're coming to America with Sister Churan? What part of America are you going to? If it's convenient, I can come to see you guys too!"

Ye Chen said, "I'm going to Providence, on the east coast, which should be quite far from Vancouver."

Li Xiaofen said somewhat ruefully, "That's very far It's at least 3,000, almost 4,000 kilometres from my place to the east coast of the United States."

Ye Chen laughed: "It doesn't matter, more than three thousand kilometres, the plane will only take four or five hours, but you don't have to toss and turn, you usually have to look after the shop, you must be very busy, when the time comes, I will go over with your sister-in-law to see you."

Li Xiaofen hurriedly said, "Okay, brother Ye Chen, then we have a deal. I will tell Auntie Li the good news when she comes back, she will be very happy, don't let us go!"

Ye Chen then said, "Don't worry, I'll definitely go to see you guys then, I'll contact you before I go."

"Great, then I'll wait for your news!"

After agreeing with Li Xiaofen, Ye Chen then hung up the phone.

At this time, Song Wanting's secretary called her office landline and said, "Mr. Song, there's a gentleman called Huo Yuanzheng who wants to see you, saying he has a big deal to talk to you."

"Huo Yuanzheng?" Song Wanting first stared, then looked at Ye Chen and said, "Master Ye, it's that 099, I didn't expect to find me here."

Ye Chen nodded and spoke, "It must be for the Spring Return Pill."

Song Wanting was busy saying, "Then I'll have someone send him away."

Ye Chen thought for a moment, but still shook his head and said, "Forget it, he also came all the way from North America, so we shouldn't seem too unkind."

Saying that, Ye Chen added, "How about this, later on, you have someone bring him in, if he wants the Spring Return Pill, you tell him that you are only helping the owner of the Spring Return Pill to sell the Spring Return Pill, other than that, you can't do anything about the actual sale of the Spring Return Pill, by the way, tell him that I was the one who ordered him away yesterday, and that the Spring Return Pill is not in your hands, you can't help, if he someone in the family really wants the Spring Return Pill, let those who need it sign up in person for the Spring Return Pill auction next year."

Song Wanting asked again, "Master Ye, are you not going to leave him any chance at all?"

Ye Chen said seriously, "Not for the time being, so you should let him die and hurry back to wherever he came from."

"I understand Master Ye." Song Wanting nodded and asked again, "Master Ye, do you want to see him together then?"

Ye Chen shook his head and smiled, "I won't see him, I won't hide from you, his real name isn't anything like Huo Yuanzheng, but An Chongqiu, and he's also my great uncle, but maybe in his perception, I'm still unknown as to whether I'm alive or dead, so I don't plan to see him yet."

Song Wanting was stunned speechless by Ye Chen's words, and only after a long time did she exclaim: "Master Ye, he is really your great uncle, huh?!"

"Yes." Ye Chen nodded and said, "My mother's own brother."

Song Wanting's jaw dropped even further and she blurted out, "Then you still told me to expel him from the venue yesterday"

Ye Chen blandly said, "I didn't know his true identity at the time, and, even if I did, that situation would have necessitated his expulsion."

After a pause, Ye Chen added: "I am not holding this auction to open a back door for my own relatives, but to make these top tycoons, regardless of their status and background, must honestly bid for the Spring Return Pill according to my rules, they must not be allowed to use their money to override my rules, once I open this door, the nature of the whole thing will change. "

Chapter 3984

Song Wanting nodded gently and said, "I understand Master Ye, in that case, then I will have my secretary invite him to the parlour, I will meet him in the parlour, you wait here for a moment."

Ye Chen stood up and said, "It's better for me to go to the parlour and wait, you are the chairman of Song Group, for him to come to see you and you don't meet him in your own office will only make him think that you have a more important guest in your office, and since the auction just ended yesterday, he will definitely be thinking about it in his mind."

Song Wanting busily said, "Master Ye, you can go directly to my room at the back and take a rest."

With that, she stood up and pushed a piece of geometric decoration on the back wall directly away from the left side of the back wall of her office.

This turned out to be an invisible door that made perfect use of the background wall decoration and lines to hide itself.

On the other side of the invisible door was a lounge of around thirty square metres, the room had a bed, a toilet, a shower as well as a wardrobe and a ma*sage chair, basically a standard bachelor's flat.

Ye Chen was brightened by this design show, while Song Wanting introduced it at the side, "This was still left behind by grandpa before, he usually needed to take his lunch break at the company, so he made such a dark room, but I have replaced all the furniture inside with new ones, you can rest here for a while."

Ye Chen nodded and said, "Okay, I also happen to listen to what he is going to talk to you about."

“Good.”

Song Wanting closed the door and then asked her secretary to invite An Chongqiu in.

As soon as An Chongqiu entered, he said with a humble face, “Hello Miss Song, we meet again.”

Song Wanting gave a polite smile as a greeting, and then asked, “Mr. Huo is here to see me, is there something wrong?”

An Chongqiu was busy saying, “I’m not going to hide it from you or the matter of the Spring Return Pill Yesterday at the auction, it’s true that I wasn’t sensible enough and gave Miss Song trouble, but I genuinely want to buy a Spring Return Pill, so I want to ask Miss Song Miss Song do me a favor and ask the owner of the Spring Return Pill for me, can you sell me one privately, and if my offer yesterday wasn’t high enough, I can increase it some more.”

Song Wanting shook her head and said, “Sorry Mr Huo, in fact the one who ordered your expulsion yesterday was the owner of the Spring Return Pill himself, he was behind the whole auction and he was controlling everything, I was following his instructions completely.”

An Chongqiu was surprised and asked, “He was there yesterday?”

Song Wanting said blandly, “He wasn’t there, he just watched the whole thing through the video feed.”

Saying that, Song Wanting added, “He is a person who actually does not put money in his eyes, you think you are willing to spend US$370 billion on a Spring Return Pill, but as far as I know, I am afraid that the Spring Return Pill he has given out alone is not enough to count on one hand.”

An Chongqiu’s jaw dropped as he listened.

Song Wanting added at this time, “Mr. Huo, the owner of the Spring Return Pill is most concerned with rules, not money, even if you take more money out, he will not break his rules for you, and as you were expelled from the venue yesterday, from now on, you are not even qualified to participate in the Spring Return Pill auction again.”

Speaking here, Song Wanting looked at him and said seriously, “Mr. Huo, I suggest you should stop making similar attempts, since you insisted on gambling at the auction yesterday, if you lost the bet, you have to be willing to gamble and accept defeat, so you’d better hurry up and leave Jinling and go back to North America, and if you really have someone at home who needs the Spring Return Pill, let him sign up for it himself next year! “

Hearing Song Wanting’s advice, An Chongqiu hesitated for a moment and opened his mouth to ask, “Miss Song, do you know about The An Family?”

“The An Family?” Song Wanting frowned and asked casually, “Is it a TV series that was a hit some time ago?”

An Chongqiu said awkwardly, “It’s not a TV series, it’s an American Chinese family, the An Family.”

Song Wanting asked in mock surprise, "I think I heard that the An family seems to be one of the top three families in the world, and the highest ranking Chinese family in the world, what's wrong?"

An Chongqiu then breathed a sigh of relief and said seriously, "To be honest with you Miss Song, my real identity is the eldest son of the An family, An Chongqiu."

Song Wanting said with a shocked expression, "You're not called Huo Yuanzheng?"

An Chongqiu said truthfully, "Huo Yuanzheng is only one of my identities."

Song Wanting said seriously, "Mr. An, right? If you use a false identity to participate in the auction, according to the auction's rules, you will also be permanently deprived of the right to participate!"

An Chongqiu did not expect that Song Wanting would not marvel at his own initiative to reveal his true identity, but instead circled back to the rules of the auction.

An Chongqiu was already somewhat skeptical of life at this moment.

Because, in the past, any Chinese entrepreneur, even Mr Li Lao, who had once been the richest man in the openly Chinese, would bow down and grovel when meeting him.

However, now in Song Wanting's eyes, it did not matter whether he was from the An family or the Zhang or Li families, what mattered surprisingly was that he had touched the rules of the auction

He could not help but ask himself in his heart, "Could it be that my identity, An Chongqiu, is not even as important in her eyes as the rules of the auction?!"

Just as he was doubting his life, Song Wanting had already stood up and said nonchalantly, "Mr. An, right? Sorry, we don't welcome people like you here who even have to hide their true identity, please go back."

In his fifty years of life, An Chongqiu had never been so stifled, except for last night when he was thrown out of the auction on the spot by the security staff.

If it were anyone else, he would not have been moved by the invitation, but he did not expect to come to China to attend an auction and be thrown out one after another.

But reason overcame impulse and he could only say with a stiff upper lip, "Sorry Miss Song, my participation in the auction under an alias was also an unintentional mistake, so please be understanding, and Miss Song should have heard something about the strength of the An family, if Miss Song can help to bring a message to the owner of the Spring Return Pill, so that he can take time out of his busy schedule to meet with me, the An family will definitely do its best to repay Miss Song's help"

In An Chongqiu's opinion, this promise of his was indeed already worth a thousand dollars.

The An family's strength was at least a hundred times that of the Song family, and even a casual boost to the Song family could bring the Song family up a notch.

But he did not expect that Song Wanting would not give a D*mn about it.

She said without hesitation, "Mr. An, to you, money and status may be your passport to unimpeded access to the world, but I want to tell you that money and status simply won't work here!"

Saying that, Song Wanting added, "The owner of the Spring Return Pill told me clearly a long time ago that he would never change the rules for anyone, even the head of the Rothschild family is not qualified to do so, so what makes you think that your status will make him change his mind? So, I advise you to give up these unrealistic fantasies and go back to North America."

An Chongqiu had wanted to, using his true identity, impress the owner of the Spring Returning Dan behind him.

Perhaps after the other party heard that he was from the An family, he would be flattered and overjoyed, and immediately agree to meet with him right afterwards.

But what he did not expect was that the other party had even put out the word that even the Rothschild family's patriarch was not in his sights.

At this moment, An Chongqiu was devastated.

Song Wanting had basically blocked all avenues by saying this.

An Chongqiu was too embarrassed to continue to use his status as a member of the An family to find any sense of existence in this situation.

Thinking of this, he could only say awkwardly, "Alright since that's the case, then I won't give Miss Song any trouble."

Song Wanting nodded and said indifferently, "Mr. An take care, I won't see you off."

Chapter 3986

An Chongqiu thought that he might be able to use more high-end and scarce resources to make good relations with Song Wanting in the future, so he asked politely, "Miss Song, I wonder if we can leave a contact information for each other, so that if there is anything that we need to help the An family with in the future, we can always let me know."

Although the An family is a hundred times stronger than us, we don't have too many ambitions, we just want to run our own place in Jinling."

An Chongqiu had completely lost any sense of superiority.

So what if they had money and resources, even though they didn't, they didn't even look at them.

If he continued to show his superiority here, he would only end up making a fool of himself.

So, he stood up in a dishevelled manner and said politely, "Miss Song, I'll take my leave then."

Song Wanting nodded and said indifferently, "Mr. An I still have things to do, so I won't see you off."

An Chongqiu had already suffered enough blows and had lost his temper at this point, so he gave a sarcastic smile and nodded before turning around and walking out on his own.

As soon as An Chongqiu left, Song Wanting immediately took a few deep breaths nervously.

She then hurriedly walked into the lounge behind the concealed door and saw that Ye Chen was sitting on the single sofa with his legs crossed, and hurriedly asked, "Master Ye, would my attitude towards your uncle just now be too much"

Ye Chen laughed, "No, I think it's okay, you can't leave any hope for him in this situation."

Song Wanting nodded and said seriously, "I think so too, And I'm afraid that if I'm suddenly too polite to him, I'll look like I'm not taking a stand, After all, I'm representing the auction, representing you, and he's repeatedly tried to challenge the rules you've set, so if I'm polite to him, he might think that the auction really scorns his An family's status"

Ye Chen smiled faintly and said, "Wanting, you did the right thing, and the measure was also spot on, in this case, neither to be polite to him, nor to react too fiercely, this is just right, to suppress his self-confidence, frustrate him, and by the way, to completely destroy his hope of fighting against the rules."

Song Wanting also breathed a sigh of relief and said seriously, "As long as you don't have a problem with it"

Ye Chen nodded slightly and added, "Right Wanting, issue a notice to everyone attending the auction, warning anyone not to privately search for the owner of the Spring Return Pill, once found, they will likewise be permanently disqualified from attending the auction."

Song Wanting immediately said, "Okay Master Ye, I will have someone notify them one by one."

Ye Chen said, "It's still too troublesome to notify them one by one, it's best to have the technical staff develop another software, the previous one was specifically used for registration, and another software specifically for successful bidders who have registered and participated in the Spring Return Pill auction, as well as those whose background and financial strength meet our requirements. can be pushed directly to them through this software."

"Good!" Song Wanting said without a second thought, "I'll start working on the arrangements for this today."

Saying that, she hurriedly asked, "Master Ye, do you have any other functional requirements for this software?"

Ye Chen thought about it and suddenly had a new thought and said, "I want to develop a mission publishing function on this software."

"Mission publishing?" Song Wanting asked, "Can you tell me about the basic logic?"

Ye Chen then said, "I, as the official, can issue tasks to each of them through this software, and for each task, there will be a corresponding reward for whoever completes the tasks I issue."

Speaking of this, Ye Chen smiled and said, "The reward I give is not money, it is a virtual fragment of the Spring Return Pill!"

Chapter 3987

"A fragment of the Spring Returning Pill?!"

Hearing this, Song Wanting was astonished and couldn't help but ask: "Master Ye, what do you mean by this Spring Return Dan fragment?"

Ye Chen smiled and said, "It is a kind of virtual coin in our software, this kind of virtual coin is not sold to the public, and users are not allowed to trade with each other in any way, moreover, this kind of rejuvenation dan fragment is not linked to any currency money, it only has a fixed exchange rate with rejuvenation dan."

Saying that, Ye Chen added: "This exchange rate is set at 10,000 Echoing Spring Dan fragments equal to one Echoing Spring Dan."

"As long as whoever can collect 10,000 Spring Return Dan fragments in this software by completing the various tasks I issue, they will be able to come to me in Jinling to exchange for one complete Spring Return Dan."

Speaking here, Ye Chen continued, "This group of people is spread all over the world, and they all have their own resources as well as their own areas of expertise. clear, whoever helps me investigate first will get these one hundred Spring Returning Pill fragments."

Song Wanting brightened up and said offhandedly, "In that case, I'm afraid that the most important thing they do every day is to take up tasks on the software"

Ye Chen nodded and said seriously, "If I want this group of people to work for me, I must leave them a chance to get the Spring Return Pill by working for me, they are particularly desperate for it now, like rats that are starving and desperately circling around the granary."

"It's just that this granary of mine is built too sturdily and doesn't leave any opening for them to burrow in, so as long as I open a small opening slightly, they will desperately burrow in, even if the opening is so small that they have to get bruised all over in the process, but as long as they can still burrow in alive and live to eat the grain inside, they will do whatever it takes. "

"Only in this way can I make this group of people put aside their status, position, principles and dignity and do whatever it takes to be of use to me."

Song Wanting was suddenly enlightened.

She originally thought that the fragment of Spring Return Pill that Ye Chen was talking about should be some sort of mini-game embedded into the software, or a small benefit like signing up and giving away experience.

But to her surprise, Ye Chen was directly planning to create a new set of channels for this group of people to obtain the Spring Return Pill in this software.

This channel was much more likely for them than the auction, because the auction was too cruel and depended on money, and those who did not have enough money could only watch as others successfully auctioned for the Spring Return Pill.

In this new access, money was not really important, what mattered was who could best solve Ye Chen's most practical needs.

This was much more flexible and varied for Ye Chen.

He could use the auction to turn the Spring Return Dan into money, and even more so, he could use the Spring Return Dan fragments on this software to turn the Spring Return Dan into whatever he wanted.

He can use the Echoing Spring Dan for information, the Echoing Spring Dan for resources, the Echoing Spring Dan for contacts, the Echoing Spring Dan for everything.

Even, if he wanted to, he could trade the Spring Return Dan for someone else's life.

This instantly brought the efficacy of the Spring Return Pill, to the extreme!

Song Wanting admired Ye Chen's conception to the point of no return at this point, but while marvelling, a question came to mind, so she pursued it, "Master Ye, if it's 10,000 Spring Return Dan fragments to exchange for one Spring Return Dan, then collecting 10,000 Spring Return Dan fragments, would that be a little too far for them?"

"For example, if each of your missions rewards one hundred Spring Return Dan fragments, then at least one hundred missions must be completed before you can collect ten thousand, this is indeed too difficult, I am afraid that they will lose motivation when they think of this"

Chapter 3988

Ye Chen laughed, "Although 10,000 Spring Returning Dan fragments are equal to one Spring Returning Dan, it doesn't mean that you must save up all 10,000 Spring Returning Dan fragments before you can start exchanging them."

Ye Chen said, and continued, "When the time comes, I will set the minimum redemption threshold to one tenth of a solid Spring Return Pill by collecting one thousand Spring Return Pills;"

"This way, the hope won't be too slim for these people."

Song Wanting nodded and said, "Master Ye, our auction is only held once a year, so does this Spring Return Dan fragment of yours have to be redeemed every year at the time of the auction, or can he come to Jinling to redeem it at any time as long as he has saved up a thousand fragments?"

Ye Chen said with a smile on his face, "When our auction centre is completed, I will reserve a Spring Return Pill exchange centre inside, all those who want to exchange Spring Return Pills will only need to make an appointment a few days in advance, and they can come to the exchange centre at the appointed time to exchange the Spring Return Pills, this will also further increase their enthusiasm."

Saying that, Ye Chen added, "Although saving Spring Return Dan fragments may sound difficult, but with hard work, perhaps a few years or a dozen years can still be achieved, for those who are still in their prime, or just entering their old age, they can now treat it as a long term goal to achieve slowly."

Song Wanting agreed, "Indeed, those who are in a hurry and are very rich can pin their hopes on the auction, while another group of people who are very rich but not at the top of the scale can pin their hopes on coming to Jinling to invest and enter our high-end health and wellness real estate projects, and as for those who are not in a hurry and have slightly less assets than the first two, they can completely slowly save for themselves in this way. themselves to save up one and a half rejuvenation pills out!"

“Right.” Ye Chen nodded and smiled, “This is the effect I want.”

After saying that, Ye Chen added: “Don’t release the news about this matter, first have someone develop the software, after the software is developed, also don’t open the function of the Spring Return Dan fragment for the time being, when you need to use this function, directly open the permission in the software, and then just push the rules of play to them.”

Song Wanting immediately said, “Okay Master Ye, I will start arranging this, and I will make sure to keep it confidential.”

Ye Chen gave a hmph and said, “There’s nothing else, I’ll spend the next two days with my wife to prepare for my trip abroad, I’ll leave directly in a couple of days, you can contact me by phone or WeChat if there’s anything.”

“Good!” Song Wanting couldn’t hide her envy and said, “Master Ye, your wife is so happy”

Ye Chen asked casually, “Is that so?”

Song Wanting nodded and said, “Of course! Even an ordinary person would find it hard to spare more than a month to accompany his wife to go abroad for further studies, let alone you” So Ms. Xiao is really too happy”

Ye Chen smiled to himself and said, “You only see that I am going to accompany her to the United States for further studies this time, but during this period of time, all kinds of things come and go, and every now and then I have to run to foreign countries or even abroad, in fact I neglect her quite a lot.”

Song Wanting suddenly recalled that when she was in danger in Japan, Ye Chen had rushed to Japan overnight to rescue her, and she could not help but feel a strong sense of love and warmth in her heart.

So, she said to Ye Chen, “Master Ye, when you go to the United States this time, you should also give yourself a break, I will definitely do my best to do the things you have given me, please don’t worry!”

Chapter 3989

As the auction came to an end, Xiao Churan had already started preparing for her trip to America with Ye Chen.

Because she was going for a longer period of time, she carefully packed out two large suitcases of luggage, and made a list of preparations herself, following it one by one, fearing that she would leave something behind.

In contrast, Ye Chen was much more casual.

Apart from a few sets of change of clothes, he brought almost nothing else with him.

In his opinion, it would be more convenient to pack lightly and get everything he needed when he arrived in America, rather than going through the trouble of preparing all kinds of luggage.

However, the thrifty Xiao Churan did not think so, as she felt that many things were readily available at home, so if she packed them up and brought them with her, she would not have to spend money on buying more when she arrived in America.

Ye Chen knew her temperament, so he went along with her.

However, when it came to travel and accommodation, Ye Chen didn't give Xiao Churan the chance to save money.

He bought two first class tickets to fly to New York directly, and then booked a very practical Audi A6 Touring at a chain of car rental companies at the New York airport.

The driving licences of China and the US are mutually recognised, and Ye Chen had done the translation in advance so that he could use it normally when he arrived in the US.

As for accommodation, Ye Chen booked their only presidential suite at the Hilton Hotel near the Rhode Island School of Design.

The presidential suite had an area of over 500 square metres, which was a bit too large for two people.

However, Ye Chen saw that it had all the facilities, a small gym of its own, and because it was on the top floor, it also had an open-air pool.

Staying in such a room, one basically did not have to deal with the other guests of the hotel.

Ye Chen and Xiao Churan were about to leave for the United States, and his old husband Xiao Changkun had also started packing his bags for his upcoming trip to Korea.

He was leaving on the same day as Ye Chen and Xiao Churan, except that their flight was at 8.30am, while Ye Chen and Xiao Churan were on a flight at 12 noon.

As this was an exchange trip to Korea with Han Meiqing, Xiao Changkun was in an extraordinarily excited mood and always felt that it was no different from going on a honeymoon and enjoying the world of the two of them together.

Therefore, he had been looking forward to this trip to Korea for a long time.

Ma Lan saw that the rest of the family was busy with their trip abroad, and she was somewhat lonely in her own heart.

This was the first time that everyone had left home, leaving her alone.

Fortunately, Ye Chen had taken the initiative to honour the promise he had made to Ma Lan and transferred 500,000 RMB into her bank account the day before her departure.

After receiving the money, Ma Lan was naturally overwhelmed with excitement and all feelings of loneliness and despondency were swept away.

The money was enough for her to live in style in Jinling for a very long time.

After receiving the money, Ma Lan said to Ye Chen happily and excitedly, "Good son-in-law, you and Churan will stay in the United States, don't worry about mum, mum will definitely take care of herself!"

Xiao Churan looked at her mother's money-obsessed look and shook her head helplessly while instructing, "Mom, you must not spend money too extravagantly and wastefully."

Ma Lan muttered resentfully, "Okay, okay, I know! I'll be careful!"

Ye Chen said with a smile, "Mom, don't listen to Churan, if you have the money, you should spend it freely, preferably during the time we are not at home, and spend every cent of it."

When Ma Lan heard this, she smiled happily and said, "You are my good son-in-law! You've really hit the nail on the head!"

Chapter 3990

After saying that, she looked at Xiao Changkun at the side and spoke, "Xiao Changkun, leave me the keys to Cullinan's car."

Xiao Changkun looked at him warily, "What do you want the keys to my car for?"

Ma Lan blurted out, "Of course I want to drive it! What else would you want it for?"

Ma Lan said with a frown, "Besides, when did this car become yours? It's a gift from her son-in-law! You are just driving it in the light of your good son-in-law."

Xiao Changkun said in a serious manner, "It's true that this car was given to me by Ye Chen, but it was given to me by Miss Zhan by name, and my name is also written on the driving book!"

Ma Lan said impatiently, "I'm too lazy to argue with you, give me the car keys!"

"I won't give it to you!" Xiao Changkun blurted out, "With that skill of yours, it's just about enough to drive that BMW of Churan's. Can you drive a car as expensive as Kulinan?"

"Xiao Changkun, cut the f*cking crap!" Ma Lan said angrily, "If you don't leave me the keys to the car, I'll take off all four wheels of that car and sell it after you leave! I'll take the bricks and put them up for you, and you'll be back with a big f*cking glare!"

Xiao Changkun shivered in fear.

He did not doubt Ma Lan's courage, this b*tch was like a mad dog, not to mention selling the four wheels of the Cullinan, even if she had to take the Cullinan apart and sell the parts, she could do it.

Thinking of this, he had to give in and said, "Fine, fine, I'll let you drive it, I'll let you drive it, but you must be more careful when you drive it! Don't scrape and scuff me!"

Ma Lan said disdainfully, "Just take out the car keys, where's the nonsense!"

Xiao Changkun could only cross his heart and handed the car keys to Ma Lan.

When Ma Lan got the car keys, she was overjoyed, and she examined the car for a long time before putting the car keys into her pocket.

In the evening, Ye Chen helped Xiao Churan and put all their luggage in advance, all in order, on the inside of the bedroom door.

Xiao Churan once again checked the passports and other documents of the two people and confirmed that they were correct before lying down on the bed with peace of mind.

Remembering his promise with Li Xiaofen, Ye Chen said to her, "Honey, after you finish your master class, let's go to Vancouver, Canada together, to see Auntie Li and Xiaofen there."

Without thinking, Xiao Churan said, "Yes! I haven't seen Auntie Li for a long time either, I miss her!"

Ye Chen laughed, "I called Xiaofen two days ago, and they are having a pretty full life in Canada."

Saying that, Ye Chen then recounted the situation introduced by Li Xiaofen to Xiao Churan.

After hearing this, Xiao Churan said happily, "Hearing you say that, it feels like Auntie Li's life is so happy now, she has Xiaofen with her, there are no difficulties in terms of finances, and she can also take care of the little children in the nursery, so she must not be as tired as she was in the orphanage before."

"Yes." Ye Chen nodded and sighed, "Auntie Li is as kind to me as a mountain, I haven't been to see her since she left for Canada, I'm still quite ashamed when I think about it."

Xiao Churan hurriedly said, "If you want to see Auntie Li and Xiaofen sooner, then wait until you have settled down in the United States, then you can take the time to go and see them first, and then after I finish my studies, we can go together!"

Ye Chen thought about it and said, "Let's wait until we get to America, I wouldn't feel comfortable if I left you alone there."
