

Ye Chen 3991

Chapter 3991

At noon the following day, Ye Chen and Xiao Churan flew to New York on an Air China transatlantic flight.

The entire flight took 16 hours, and by the time they arrived in New York, it was already 2pm local time.

Ye Chen was used to the Concorde, which was three times faster than a civilian airliner, so when he first flew on this ordinary plane, it felt like he had descended from a high-speed train to a green train.

It was a good thing that he had bought a first class cabin with luxurious surroundings and the ability to sleep flat on his back, otherwise the journey would have been extraordinarily torturous.

Xiao Churan was also in very good shape after the sixteen-hour flight, not looking tired and with a bit of anticipation and excitement.

When they got off the plane, it took the couple another hour or so to complete the process of customs entry and picking up their luggage.

Ye Chen picked up the car he had set up in advance and after putting all the luggage into the trunk, he drove Xiao Churan to their final destination, Providence.

This was Xiao Churan's first time in the United States and her curiosity about a foreign country made her excited and she kept looking left and right on the way.

After driving north through the bustling city of New York, Ye Chen followed the navigation cues and drove in a northeasterly direction.

It was four hours before the two of them finally arrived at the Hilton Hotel in Providence.

Kerry West, who was in charge of hosting the masterclass, was already waiting at the hotel.

As soon as they walked into the hotel lobby, a white woman in the lobby lounge area ran over happily and said to Xiao Churan, "Churan, you've finally arrived!"

The one who spoke was Kylie West.

As she was the person in charge of this masterclass, she had returned to the United States two days before the start of the auction to start preparing for the start of the masterclass.

She heard Xiao Churan say that she would be at the Hilton Hotel in the afternoon, so she came over early to wait to greet her.

Xiao Churan was also very surprised to see her and said offhandedly, "Kelly, what brings you to the hotel?"

“Came to give you a welcome!” Kelly West said with a smile, “It’s after six o’clock, just in time for dinner. I’ve made a reservation at the Sky Restaurant in the Hilton, so after you’ve put your bags away and taken a short rest, we can go to dinner.”

Xiao Churan was busy saying, “I’m so sorry to have to break your bank.”

Kairi West said with a straight face, “You’re still so polite with me?”

Saying that, she looked at Ye Chen and asked with a smile, “This is your husband, right?”

Xiao Churan hurriedly nodded and said with a smile, “Kairi, let me introduce to you, this is my husband, Ye Chen.”

After saying that, she was busy saying to Ye Chen, “Ye Chen, this is what I’ve been telling you about, my idol, Kerri West.”

Ye Chen looked at Kairi Vester and said politely, “Hello Ms. Vester, I’ve heard a lot about you.”

Kylie Vest hurriedly extended her hand and said, “You are too kind, Mr Ye, I have admired your name for a long time even when I was in Jinling.”

Although Kylie West did not know what exactly Ye Chen’s origins and background were, she knew that this was a man that even Fei Ke Xin had to go out of her way to curry favour with, and this alone was proof that this man was anything but ordinary.

After the two shook hands and exchanged a few more polite words, Ye Chen politely said to the two of them, “You guys chat first, I’ll go and do the check-in procedures.”

The two nodded slightly, and Kelly West then asked Xiao Churan in a low voice, “Churan, why can’t you contact Fei’er in the past two days?”

Xiao Churan still did not know Fei Kexin’s true identity and thought that her good friend was the French Chinese Zhan Feier.

In fact, Xiao Churan had been trying to contact Fei Ke Xin in the past two days, but like Kelly West, Fei Ke Xin’s contact number had been switched off, and the whole person seemed to have evaporated without a trace.

So she said to Kelly West, “I’m not going to lie, I haven’t been able to contact her in the past two days either, could she have left China for something urgent?”

Kerri West hesitated for a moment, nodded gently and said, “That’s probably possible.”

Kerri West was not aware of what had happened to the Fei family, so she did not know that Fei Kexin had, at this time, already started her escape journey with her grandfather.

Moreover, Fekosin didn’t even dare to contact the two when she left in order not to leave a trail for her eldest uncle.

However, Kerri West didn’t think much of it.

Chapter 3992

After all, Fei Kexin was the eldest Fei family lady, not at all on the same level as herself, and there was no need for people to greet themselves if they had something that needed to be dealt with temporarily.

So she put the matter to the back of her mind and smiled, "Let's just ignore it for now, maybe one day she'll come over to us after she's done."

At this time, Ye Chen had also completed the check-in procedures and handed his luggage to the waiter to take upstairs first, then came to the two of them and said, "The procedures have been completed, would Ms Vester like to come up and sit with us?"

Kelly West shook her head with a smile and said, "I won't go over there, you guys go back to your rooms and pack up first, I'll wait for you in the dining room, but you don't need to rush, we'll eat just after seven."

Mr. and Mrs. Ye Chen then said goodbye to Kelly West for the time being and took the lift to the presidential suite on the top floor first.

As soon as they entered the lift, Xiao Churan said to Ye Chen, "Honey, Kairi couldn't contact Miss Zhan even in the past two days, she won't be in any trouble, right?"

Ye Chen laughed, "I don't think so, a rich girl like her, who enjoys life in all kinds of ways every day, what kind of trouble could she be in?"

Xiao Churan said, "But that shouldn't mean that she can't be contacted, her phone is switched off, her messages aren't returned, and there's no response to her WeChat messages."

Ye Chen said casually, "I think the odds are that she has something important to do back in France and will probably go back to Jinling after a while."

"Alright." Xiao Churan nodded gently and didn't think any more about it.

Ye Chen led Xiao Churan to the presidential suite on the top floor, and the moment the door brushed open, what caught his eyes was the oversized living room with an area of over a hundred square meters.

Because of the high floor, one side of the living room was covered with floor-to-ceiling glass windows, so that the entire city of Providence could be seen, and even the entire Rhode Island School of Design could be seen from here.

As soon as she saw this living room, Xiao Churan was stunned speechless and asked offhandedly, "Honey you what what type of room did you book? How come it's so big"

Ye Chen laughed, "This is their presidential suite, at the southernmost end of the entire top floor, a little better privacy and a little better environment."

Xiao Churan was surprised and asked, "You wouldn't have booked a presidential suite for a month"

Ye Chen said with a smile, "A month is definitely not enough, I booked it for forty days, if there is a change in my schedule I will extend my stay again."

Xiao Churan said: “Forty days here, I’m afraid it will cost a million husband, this is too extravagant Why don’t we change the room, for the two of us, an ordinary one-room suite will be enough

Ye Chen seriously said, “Chu Ran, you are here to further your education, when the time comes, in addition to cla*sses at school every day, you will certainly have to come back to review, draw, do all kinds of homework, how can you do without a separate study room? Besides, you usually go to school for cla*sses, I must be bored to death staying alone in the hotel, this presidential suite is large, it can somewhat relieve some of that, otherwise, it won’t be long before I can’t stand it.”

Once Xiao Churan heard this, she hurriedly said, “Honey, it’s really hard for you, coming all this way to accompany me

Ye Chen gave her a gentle scratch on her nose and laughed, “I am your husband, this kind of situation is definitely incumbent on me.”

Xiao Churan nodded and said, “I’ll go check our bedroom first, you help me bring in the luggage from the living room, I’ll simply tidy up!”

“Okay.” Ye Chen agreed, and Xiao Churan then hurriedly went to look for the bedroom.

This presidential suite was so large that one simply didn’t know what each room was for without getting familiar with it first.

Ye Chen then prepared to go and take his luggage, when the mobile phone in his pocket suddenly vibrated.

He took it out by hand and glanced at it, and found that the message came from a phone number that started with +1.

Ye Chen knew that the international area code for the whole of North America was +1, so instinctively he thought that the message might be the same as a welcome text message from some city in China, which opened to welcome to so-and-so city, but when he clicked on the text message, he suddenly found that it read, “Li Xiaofen is in trouble, please come to Vancouver quickly!”

Chapter 3993

When he saw this message, Ye Chen’s heart instantly tensed up and his first reaction was to immediately call this number back.

But what he didn’t expect was that just as he received the message from the other party, the other party had already switched off his phone.

As he was nervous, Ye Chen hurriedly sent a video call to Li Xiaofen.

The video was quickly connected and Li Xiaofen on the other end of the line was standing at the cashier’s desk. With a smile on her face, she said, “Brother Ye Chen, why are you sending me a video at this time, where are you?”

Seeing that everything was intact with Li Xiaofen, Ye Chen was instantly relieved, so he busily said, "Xiaofen, I just received a text message saying that you were in trouble and asked me to go to Vancouver immediately, what's going on? Are you in some kind of trouble?"

"Huh?" Li Xiaofen said with a surprised face, "I didn't encounter anything ah this is not in the convenience store watching the shop"

Ye Chen frowned and asked, "Are you sure there's nothing wrong? Then how come someone sent me a message saying you were in danger?"

Li Xiaofen was also confused and said, "Could it be a prank or some kind of fraudulent text message ah, everything is fine for me over here. I haven't encountered any trouble ah"

The first thing you need to do is to get the phone number.

Li Xiaofen's pair of willow curved eyebrows twisted into two balls and pondered for a moment. She said, "I really can't think of who it could be, although we have met quite a few friends over here, they certainly wouldn't know brother Ye Chen."

Saying that, she hurriedly asked, "Brother Ye Chen, tell me the phone number, I'll check it."

Ye Chen then reported the mobile phone number he had just texted to her.

Li Xiaofen looked at it and said with a frown, "Brother Ye Chen, this number is indeed a local Canadian mobile phone number, but I don't have this number saved in my phone either, I don't know who he is"

Saying that, Li Xiaofen said with a certainty, "I think this must be a prank, didn't people often use this in China to engage in telecommunication fraud in the past? Suddenly send a text message saying something like your son is now in a car accident and is in the hospital for emergency treatment, need to hurry to remit money or something like that, brother Ye Chen you must keep your eyes open."

"Well" Seeing that Li Xiaofen was indeed intact, Ye Chen also presumed that this was most likely a prank, so he said, "It's best if it's okay, but you still need to pay more attention, don't go out alone usually, and lock the doors and windows at night."

Li Xiaofen hurriedly said, "Don't worry brother Ye Chen, the law and order here in Vancouver is still very good, much better than the United States, and there are especially many Chinese here. Everyone is friendly with each other and will help each other with anything, so there will definitely be no danger."

Ye Chen nodded, then said, "If there are any problems. Remember to contact me at the first opportunity."

"Okay." Li Xiaofen hurriedly nodded.

At this time, a pleasant bell sound came from the video, and Li Xiaofen hurriedly switched the camera and said excitedly, "Brother Ye Chen, look who's here!"

In the picture, the door of the convenience store had been pushed open, and the one who pushed it open was none other than Auntie Li, who had taken care of Ye Chen at the orphanage for a whole decade.

In the picture, besides Auntie Li. There were also a few customers who were shopping in the shop, as well as a young girl wearing a coffee-coloured apron who seemed to be helping out.

At this time, Auntie Li laughingly pushes the door in, carrying a non-woven handbag in her hand. Seeing Li Xiaofen pointing her mobile phone at herself, she asked curiously, "Little Fen, who are you videoing with?"

"It's brother Ye Chen!" Li Xiaofen said excitedly, "Auntie Li, Brother Ye Chen and Sister Churan have arrived in America, come say hello to him!"

Upon hearing that it was a video from Ye Chen, Auntie Li said excitedly, "Really?"

After saying that, she hurried to the front of the cashier's desk, and Li Xiaofen switched the camera back to the front again. The two then appeared in the video together.

Ye Chen hurriedly waved respectfully and said, "Hello, Auntie Li!"

Auntie Li said happily, "Ye Chen, you've arrived in America now? When did you arrive?"

Ye Chen said with a smile, "Auntie Li, we just arrived at the hotel and our luggage hasn't been put down yet."

Saying that, Ye Chen asked, "Auntie Li, where are you coming back from?"

Auntie Li smiled and said, "I just came back from the daycare cla*s, I don't have anything to do, so I often go to help the young people in Chinatown to take care of the children."

Ye Chen nodded and said, "I heard Xiao Fen talk about it last time. How is your life over there?"

"Yes, it's quite good!" Auntie Li said with a smile, "Our usual activity area is in Chinatown, and the place where we live is also a Chinese community, except for the climate and environment is different. The rest feels similar to being in China."

At this time, Xiao Churan came out from the inner room and asked curiously, "Honey, who are you videoing with?"

Ye Chen hurriedly waved at her, "Churan. Come and say hello to Auntie Li!"

When Xiao Churan heard that Ye Chen was videoing with Auntie Li, she hurriedly ran over and came up to Ye Chen, waving happily at the video, "Auntie Li! Little Fan! Hello!"

Chapter 3994

Auntie Li smiled and said, "I just came back from the daycare cla*s, I don't have anything to do, so I often go to help the young people in Chinatown to take care of the children."

Ye Chen nodded and said, "I heard Xiao Fen talk about it last time. How is your life over there?"

"Yes, it's quite good!" Auntie Li said with a smile, "Our usual activity area is in Chinatown, and the place where we live is also a Chinese community, except for the climate and environment is different. The rest feels similar to being in China."

At this time, Xiao Churan came out from the inner room and asked curiously, "Honey, who are you videoing with?"

Ye Chen hurriedly waved at her, "Churan. Come and say hello to Auntie Li!"

When Xiao Churan heard that Ye Chen was videoing with Auntie Li, she hurriedly ran over and came up to Ye Chen, waving happily at the video, "Auntie Li! Little Fan! Hello!"

Auntie Li smiled and said, "Churan, you're still as pretty as ever! When are you and Ye Chen planning to have a baby? I'm still waiting to go back to China for your child's full moon reception!"

Xiao Churan blushed and said shyly, "Auntie Li, we we don't plan to have a child for the time being"

Auntie Li said seriously, "It's almost time to have one, even if you want it now, when you pull the oldest out, you'll have to be thirty when you have a second child, the further you go, the harder it will be."

Xiao Churan was ashamed, but she still agreed with her mouth. She said, "Okay Auntie Li, I know, we will do it as soon as possible."

After saying that, she gave Ye Chen another somewhat shy glance, then hurriedly turned her eyes back to her phone.

Auntie Li was in an extraordinarily good mood and couldn't help but sigh, "I don't know what's wrong with you kids, one by one you either don't get married or you don't want kids when you do get married. I've been looking forward to holding your children since five or six years ago, but I haven't been able to do so yet. I'm looking forward to good news from you two"

The first thing you need to do is to get a new baby.

Hearing this, Auntie Li was even happier and said, "Good, good, great!"

Auntie Li said, "Ye Chen and Chu Ran, you two have just arrived at the hotel, you must be very tired, take a good rest first. When you're done with your business in America, you must remember to come to Vancouver to see auntie!"

Xiao Churan hurriedly said, "Auntie Li, don't worry, Ye Chen and I have already agreed that we will come to see you as soon as we finish our business here, and we are not in a hurry to go back, we will stay at your place for a few more days to keep you company!"

Auntie Li was overwhelmed with relief and nodded her head, "That's really great! The houses here are generally very big. The house Xiao Fen and I live in has five bedrooms on the top and bottom two floors, and we were worried that it wouldn't be crowded enough, so when you come over, we'll stay here for a while!"

Ye Chen immediately smiled and said, "Okay, Auntie Li. Then it's a deal."

"Good!" Auntie Li said with a smile, "You guys get busy with your business, let's talk some other time!"

After hanging up the video, Ye Chen couldn't help but think back to the text message he had just sent.

Although he had confirmed that Li Xiaofen was safe and sound, he still had some doubts in his heart.

He really couldn't figure it out. What exactly was the purpose of the other party sending this text message.

If it was for a scam, but why didn't the other party continue to contact him?

If it was just for a prank, then the level of this prank was more or less clumsy. After all, one only needed a video to determine whether Li Xiaofen was really in danger.

In doubt, he opened that text message and replied to the other party, "Who the hell are you?"

But to his surprise, the message sank like a stone, and there was never a reply

Chapter 3995

Until Ye Chen and Xiao Churan, had dinner with Kelly West and returned to the room, the mysterious person who sent the text message, still had not given Ye Chen any reply.

Ye Chen also tried to call him quietly, but his phone was still switched off.

Ye Chen was still a bit uneasy, so he sent another text message back to the number, which read, "If you are a friend of Xiaofen's and are acting out of goodwill, please tell me some more specific information, thank you."

The message was sent, but it always sank like a stone.

Xiao Churan was still a bit tired after a long day's journey, so after taking a bath, she couldn't bear the drowsiness and went to bed.

After taking a bath, Ye Chen wrapped himself in a bathrobe and went to the terrace of the Presidential Suite on the top floor of the building, looking at the lights outside and feeling mixed emotions.

Although it was his first time in Providence, New York, two to three hundred kilometres away from Providence, was the city where his grandfather's family had settled.

A few thousand kilometres away, in the San Francisco Bay Area on the west coast, was Stanford University, where his mother, An Chengqi, had studied, and Silicon Valley, where he had built his own legend.

When he came to the United States again after more than 20 years, his thoughts of his mother came out like a tidal wave.

As he remembered his childhood memories with his parents, his heart dripped with blood, and he couldn't help but ask himself once again who had killed his parents back then, and what the other party's motive was.

In addition, he also wanted to know why his parents could still be killed when the Ye family was second to none in China and the An family stood at the top of the international pyramid.

As he thought about this, Ye Chen's heart was filled with mixed feelings.

What could he do even if he had the means to do so?

He still couldn't find out what had happened back then and what the hidden agenda was.

If he could get back his parents' lives, he would be willing to give up everything he had, even if he had to give up the Jiu Xuan Tian Jing.

It was a pity that the world would not give him a chance to exchange.

As he sighed, his mobile phone suddenly rang.

He had thought that it might be a message back from that mysterious person, but to his surprise, it was yet another strange phone number starting with +1.

Ye Chen retrieved his thoughts and pressed the answer button, asking alertly, "Hello, who is it?"

Lai Qing Hua's voice came from the other end of the line, "Young Master Ye, it's me, Lai Qing Hua."

Ye Chen faintly froze and asked in a respectful tone, "Mr. Lai, why do you have time to call me at this late hour?"

Lai Qinghua busily said, "Back to Young Master Ye, there was an important matter, I did not dare to delay, so I called you at the first opportunity."

Ye Chen asked, "Old Mr. Lai, what is the important matter, please tell me directly."

Lai Qing Hua said solemnly, "Your grandfather, just now, called me and asked me about the Spring Return Pill."

"My grandfather?" Ye Chen frowned and asked, "Was it my great uncle who told him about the Spring Return Pill after he returned?"

"Yes." Lai Qinghua said, "Your grandfather said that he wanted to buy the Spring Return Pill and hoped that I could help with the matchmaking."

Ye Chen asked him, "Old Mr. Lai, then did you ask him what he intended to do with buying the Spring Return Pill?"

"I did." Lai Qinghua said, "But your grandfather said it was inconvenient to reveal, so I presume that the odds are that he needs it himself, but he cannot let the outside world know that he is experiencing a health condition."

As he said that, Lai Qing Hua added, "He was looking for me to find out through what channel I got the Spring Return Pill, but I had already told him that this matter was a matter of heavenly opportunity, and it was also inconvenient to reveal."

"I also told him clearly that if he wanted to obtain the Spring Return Pill, he would have to sign up for next year's Spring Return Pill Auction."

"But I was afraid that he would monitor my phone, so I changed it to a phone that no one knows about, to give you a report."

“Also in the future you should not contact my previous phone, this one is not even known to my family, you can call this number to find me if you have something.”

“Okay!” Ye Chen responded and said, “It’s hard on you, Old Mr. Lai.”

“You should!” Lai Qinghua said, “I have just done a fortune reading for your grandfather, he has indeed had a lot of bad luck recently, and the next two to three years are overall more dangerous, but in the short term, there should be no danger, so you don’t have to worry too much, and if there are any updates over there, I will also relay them to you at the first opportunity.”

“Okay old Mr. Lai, you’ve worked hard.”

Chapter 3996

After hanging up Lai Qing Hua’s phone, Ye Chen couldn’t help but ponder in his heart, “Great uncle came to buy the Spring Return Pill, it seems that it should be for Grandpa, and combined with Old Mr. Lai’s trigram, it should be that Grandpa’s body has some kind of condition.”

Thinking of this, a thought also flashed through Ye Chen’s mind, was it to confirm Grandpa’s situation, and if the situation was critical, should he lend a helping hand.

However, when he thought back to the question he had just asked when he was thinking about his parents, Ye Chen’s heart was a little indignant.

If the An family was so strong, why had they not found out the truth about their parents’ death for twenty years after their death?

On top of that, he still remembered that when he followed his mother back to the United States to visit her family, his grandfather had never had a good face for her.

Whenever his mother returned to her room after she had tried to keep up with her grandparents and her relatives, she would always shed tears.

Grandpa’s family, on the other hand, treated his father even worse, and often when he came back to stay for some days, Grandpa would rarely say a few words to him.

So, thinking about all this, Ye Chen was more or less complaining to his grandfather.

Since he needed the Spring Return Pill at the moment and the situation was not very urgent, let him sign up for the auction himself next year.

With his financial strength, it would not be a problem for him to get a Spring Return Pill at the auction.

Apart from that, Ye Chen still had Li Xiaofen on his mind.

He always felt that the warning text message was unlikely to have been created out of nothing.

So, he waited for the other party to reply.

However, until early the next morning, Ye Chen still had not been able to wait for that mysterious person’s reply.

As Xiao Churan was still sound asleep in bed, Ye Chen called the waiter to bring breakfast to the room first.

Afterwards, Ye Chen added a small amount of Spring Returning Pill to Xiao Churan's glass of milk while she was still awake, as a way to help her recover her strength.

As the effect of the Spring Return Pill was too obvious, Ye Chen did not dare to add too much at once, so he planned to let her take one Spring Return Pill gradually over the next month or so.

After Xiao Churan woke up and ate breakfast, she really felt refreshed and the tiredness of yesterday's body instantly disappeared without a trace.

Not only that, she even felt her body was full of strength.

She could not help but express her doubts to Ye Chen, who only attributed it all to the fact that she had slept well last night.

Afterwards, Ye Chen changed his clothes and accompanied her to leave the hotel and walk to the Rhode Island School of Design to report for duty.

The Rhode Island School of Design, right next to the Hilton Hotel, was only a wall away from the hotel and the school, so it only took a few minutes to walk to the school.

At this time, the main entrance of the Rhode Island School of Design had already been hung with materials for this masterclass, and a number of design-related journalists could even be seen filming the event.

The reason for the media's interest in this masterclass is not only because there are many top designers who will be instructors in person, but also because the participants include many celebrity designers who are already well known around the world.

In the design world, this is considered an absolute big event, so it has received a lot of attention.

During the check-in process, Xiao Churan recognised many famous designers, and originally she couldn't resist and wanted to get their autographs for a photo, but Ye Chen kept reminding her that these people would be her classmates in the future, so she shouldn't lower herself to a lower level than others right from the start.

After Ye Chen accompanied Xiao Churan to complete all the check-in procedures, it was already noon.

The two of them went back to the hotel to get a car and went to downtown Providence to get familiar with the city they would be living in for a month or so.

In the city centre, Ye Chen chose a relatively high-end western restaurant and had lunch with Xiao Churan.

While they were enjoying their lunch, Ye Chen's mobile phone received a text message once again.

When he opened it, it was from that mysterious person!

Ye Chen hastily opened the message, only to see that the text message read: "Li Xiaofen is in great distress, it's urgent! Please come to Vancouver quickly!!!"

Chapter 3997

Seeing this text message, Ye Chen's brows tightened and he immediately called the other party.

However, a tone soon came from the phone, telling him that the other party had switched off his phone!

This caused Ye Chen's heart to feel a sense of anger at being teased.

So, he immediately stood up and said to Xiao Churan, "Wife, I'm going out to make a call."

Xiao Churan noticed that Ye Chen's face was not right and wanted to ask the reason, but she was afraid of delaying Ye Chen's business, so she nodded and said softly, "Go quickly."

Ye Chen took his mobile phone and went out of the restaurant, and in a location where there was no one around, he called Wan Bajun directly.

As soon as the call came through, he immediately said to Wan Bajun, "Bajun, I have a number that I need you to check for me! Find out exactly who is using this number, where the person is, and be as precise as possible with the location!"

Without thinking, Wan Bajun said, "Mr. Ye, please tell my subordinate the number you want to check, I'll have someone check it out!"

Ye Chen immediately told Wan Bajun the number.

After only three minutes, Wan Bajun called Ye Chen back.

After Ye Chen got through, Wan Bajun said, "Mr. Ye, I had someone check the phone number you sent me, and this number is a mobile phone number from Canada, and the operator is Bell Communications;"

"However, this is an anonymous prepaid mobile phone card, so I can't find out any information about the user, although most of these cards are more often purchased by foreign tourists, they can also be purchased by anyone at will in Canada, I'm afraid it will take some time to find out who it really is, and it will be very difficult;"

Speaking of this, Wan Breaking Jun added, "I have already asked my men, to try to determine the exact location of the other party based on the information of the base station they use, but to determine the exact coordinates of the other party, they need to keep the other party in the network for at least a minute or two, but the other party has a strong sense of anti-reconnaissance, he does not turn on the network for more than thirty seconds each time, so we can only find out his approximate location. "

Ye Chen was busy asking, "What is the approximate location?"

Wan Bajun explained, "The base station that the other party has used is located near Chinatown in Vancouver, Canada, the maximum coverage radius of the base station signal is more than two kilometres, so we can only determine that the other party is definitely in the area of Chinatown, the exact location cannot be determined yet."

When Ye Chen heard this, he was startled.

If the user of this mobile phone was not in Vancouver, then Ye Chen could also assume that this could be some kind of prank, or a kind of telecommunication scam in its warm-up phase.

No matter what the other party's purpose was, at least he was not a direct threat to Li Xiaofen.

However, Wan Bajun's men had already located the user of this mobile phone to Vancouver's Chinatown.

Then this proved that the user of this mobile phone was right next to Li Xiaofen!

This made Ye Chen's heart tense up again.

So, he asked Wan Bajun, "Is there any way to determine the other party's exact location as soon as possible? At least narrow down the accuracy to within a radius of 100 metres."

Wan Bajun explained, "Mr. Ye, if you want to narrow down the positioning accuracy to within a radius of 100 metres, you must let the other party stay in the network for at least a minute or two, so that it is possible to pinpoint his location through the data between him and multiple base stations, if the other party is only on for thirty seconds at a time, it is technically impossible to achieve accurate positioning. "

After listening to Wan Bajun's introduction, Ye Chen knew that this habit of the other party of turning off his phone after sending messages must be to avoid base station positioning, and this method also seemed to be very effective indeed now.

He then asked Wan Bajun, "Do you have manpower in Canada?"

Wan Bajun said ashamedly, "Back to Mr. Ye, the main area of activity of the Ten Thousand Dragon Temple is the Middle East and Africa, the North American side is the territory of the American mercenary corps as well as some overseas gangs, we generally do not intervene."

Saying that, Wan Bajun added, "But if you need it, I will send someone over now!"

Ye Chen fell into hesitation for a moment.

If Li Xiaofen's current situation was really an urgent one, then I'm afraid there was no time to delay.

And if Wan Bajun sent someone from the Middle East to Vancouver, Canada, the flight distance alone would be over 10,000 kilometres.

Chapter 3998

He doesn't have a Concorde, and it would take him more than ten hours to get there at the earliest.

In that case, if anything went wrong with Li Xiaofen in those ten hours, there would be no one to help her.

So, the closest person to Li Xiaofen is now herself.

After all, he could fly from here to Vancouver in just over four hours, and if he could rent a Gulfstream G650, he could be there in three hours.

So, Ye Chen had already made the decision to make a trip to Vancouver himself immediately!

He was also worried that if the person who had sent the text message was trying to divert the tiger from the mountain, then his wife Xiao Churan would definitely be in danger if she was left alone in the United States.

However, once he thought about the person who sent the text message, he was right beside Li Xiaofen, so the possibility that the other party's target was Xiao Churan, although it could not be said to be completely absent, was minimal.

However, for the sake of caution, Ye Chen still said to Wan Bajun, "Bajun, you immediately arrange for a few female warriors from the Ten Thousand Dragon Hall to come to the United States, your side of the world is only 6,000 kilometres away from the east coast of the United States, so you will be able to arrive by this evening at any rate, once you arrive, help me secretly protect my wife Xiao Churan."

Wan Bajun immediately said, "No problem Mr. Ye, I'll make the arrangements."

After saying that, he asked, "Mr. Ye, over in Canada, are you planning to go there yourself?"

"Yes." Ye Chen spoke, "You don't have to worry about the Canadian side, I'll take care of it."

The first thing Ye Chen did when he hung up Wan Breaking Jun's call was to ask Elder Ye to help him coordinate an official plane.

Although the Ye family could not yet have their own business jets all over the world, they at least had partnerships with all the major business jet leasing companies, so they immediately helped Ye Chen coordinate a Gulfstream G650 that would take off from Green Airport in Provident in an hour's time.

Ye Chen then immediately returned to the restaurant and before he could sit down, Xiao Churan, who was opposite him, asked cautiously, "Honey, is something wrong?"

Ye Chen hesitated for a moment, pulled out his mobile phone, opened the text message records with that mysterious person and pushed them to Xiao Churan.

After reading it, Xiao Churan was shocked and said, "Xiao Fen is in Canada, running a convenience store, what would be against her?"

Ye Chen shook his head and said, "I'm not too sure, we can't be sure if the other party is a prank or if it's really something."

Xiao Churan said, "Then do you want to tell Fanny and ask her to pay more attention? If you can't, you can also come to America with Auntie Li to look for us!"

Ye Chen said, "If it's true, avoiding the problem won't solve the problem. Auntie Li and Fanny have just settled down in Vancouver and have just integrated into the society there, it would be too hasty for them to leave because of a few warning text messages.

"It's also" Xiao Churan sighed and said, "Why don't we go over to see them first?"

Ye Chen said, "The master class officially starts the day after tomorrow, you'd better not toss and turn, I plan to go over there myself, I'll send you back to the hotel first later, after you return to the hotel, until the morning after tomorrow, just try not to go out."

Xiao Churan asked nervously, "Honey, will you be able to go by yourself? Why don't we find a way to call the police!"

Ye Chen shook his head, "I'd rather go by myself, you don't have to worry about me, don't you know my skills well? You still don't know my skills?"

He said, Ye Chen added, "Besides, I don't think Xiaofen will encounter any big trouble, at most, it will just be hooligans and gangsters collecting a protection fee or something."

Xiao Churan said with a worried face, "Then I don't feel comfortable with you going alone, why don't I come with you?"

Ye Chen shook his head and said, "If you come with me, not only will you not be of any help, I'm afraid that if there is any problem, you will also cause trouble for me, and if I am asked to protect you two alone, then I may not be able to handle it.

I have just bought a ticket to leave in an hour, so I will take you back to the hotel and then go directly to the airport!"

Chapter 3999

When Xiao Churan saw that Ye Chen's mind was already made up, she knew that it was useless to persuade him any further, so she said good-naturedly, "Alright, then you take care of everything yourself!"

Ye Chen nodded, got up and said, "Honey, let's pack up our things, please go back to the hotel to eat first."

Xiao Churan hurriedly said, "You don't need to worry about me, just go straight to the airport! I'll take a taxi back myself!"

"No way!" Ye Chen shook his head and said, "I'm not comfortable with you going back by yourself, I'll send you back to the hotel room, after you go back, you should not go out again."

Seeing Ye Chen's insistence, Xiao Churan had no choice but to nod her head.

Ye Chen asked the waiter to pack up the things that hadn't been touched, and then he drove the Audi A6 Touring that he had rented and sent Xiao Churan back to the hotel.

Being cautious, Ye Chen sent Xiao Churan back to her room and instructed her, “Honey, lock the door to your room by yourself and don’t go out if it’s unnecessary.”

“Okay!” Xiao Churan hastily agreed, then grabbed Ye Chen’s hand and pleaded, “Honey, you must be more careful, don’t be brave when you encounter any problems that can’t be solved, call the police in time, and if the police doesn’t work, ask the emba*sy for help!”

Ye Chen nodded and smiled, “Don’t worry wife, it’ll be fine, in case it’s a false alarm then I’ll come back after a quick spin.”

“Well” Xiao Churan shook Ye Chen’s hand hard and instructed, “Be safe!”

“Good!”

Ye Chen watched as Xiao Churan closed the door to his room before hurrying to the airport.

A Gulfstream G650, which Ye Zhongquan had someone coordinate, was already waiting at the airport.

This airliner, which was capable of reaching infinitely close to the speed of sound, was the fastest civilian airliner Ye Chen could find at the moment.

It was almost 1.40pm New York time when Ye Chen boarded the plane.

Thanks to the three-hour time difference between here and Vancouver, when Ye Chen’s plane landed in Vancouver, it was exactly 2pm local time in Vancouver.

After getting off the plane, Ye Chen immediately took a taxi and went straight to Vancouver’s Chinatown.

On the way to Chinatown, Ye Chen sent a WeChat to Li Xiaofen.

On the WeChat, Ye Chen asked her, “Xiaofen, send me the exact address of your convenience store, I’ll have someone send you and Auntie Li some of our local specialties from Jinling.”

If Ye Chen had said he wanted to send something to Li Xiaofen before, Li Xiaofen would never have accepted it.

Because in her past perception, Ye Chen had always had a hard life.

The time when he left the orphanage at the age of eighteen to work, suffering and hardship.

After he got married and joined the Xiao family, he was treated with disdain.

Later on, he gave everything he had for Auntie Li’s medical treatment.

However, since Li Xiaofen had followed her to Canada, she had heard about Ye Chen’s identity and knew that he was the youngest son of the Ye family from her.

Therefore, when she received this WeChat from Ye Chen, she was not at all polite to him and not only sent him the address, but also said with a smile, “Thank you, brother Ye Chen, I want to eat salt water duck and plate duck, the kind that can last for a long time and is not afraid of long distance transportation!”

Ye Chen readily agreed, then looked at the address and said to the driver who was driving, "Please go to No. 47 Hastings Street."

After saying that, he forwarded the address to Richard Chen and instructed, "Buy more Jinling specialties and send them to this address, and mail them regularly in the future."

Chen Zekai immediately replied, "Don't worry, Young Master, we will mail them on a monthly basis in the future!"

Half an hour later, the taxi that Ye Chen was riding in passed through a Chinese style pagoda and drove into Vancouver's Chinatown.

As soon as he entered Chinatown, Ye Chen felt as if he had returned to China in a second.

The storefronts on both sides of the Chinese street, as well as the various signboards hanging high up on both sides of the buildings, were almost all in Chinese.

Moreover, almost all the faces on both sides of the street are Chinese, and there are very few foreign faces here, which makes people feel as if they are in the streets of China.

Vancouver's Chinatown is one of the world's most famous and largest Chinatowns.

Chapter 4000

In this city, Chinese make up 21% of the entire population, which means that one in five people in Vancouver is Chinese.

And as Chinatown is a place with a high concentration of Chinese people, it is normal not to see foreigners here.

When the taxi drove up the street, the crowd around was even more bustling.

Due to the direction of travel, the driver parked his car across the road at 47 Hastings Street.

After Ye Chen paid and got out of the car, he saw the shop across the street called "Friends and Neighbours", which was the convenience store run by Auntie Li and Li Xiaofen.

The shop did not look very big, and in terms of width, apart from a double-opening glass door, there was only a glass window.

Apart from that, it can be seen that the shop is newly renovated and the overall neatness of the shop is a great deal higher than other shops around.

There were quite a few people buying things in the convenience store at this time, and Ye Chen could even see Li Xiaofen who was constantly busy in front of the cashier.

So, he deliberately stood for a while longer and waited for the wave of customers to check out before he smiled heartily and walked towards the convenience store.

At this moment, Li Xiaofen, who was sorting out the cash in the cash register behind the till, heard the wind chime of the pushing door and said, without looking up, "Welcome!"

By the shelves in the shop, a girl who was turning her back to Ye Chen and organising the shelves also said sweetly, "Welcome!"

Seeing that both of them were too busy to look at themselves, Ye Chen chose a chewing gum directly from the shelf and then handed it to Li Xiaofen.

Li Xiaofen was too busy to look up and just said habitually, "Hello, one dollar."

Ye Chen casually took out a one-dollar coin and placed it in front of Li Xiaofen.

It was a one-dollar denomination RMB coin, which, according to the exchange rate, was almost equal to 20 cents of the Canadian dollar.

When Li Xiaofen saw this one yuan coin, she looked up helplessly and said offhandedly, "Sir, did you take the wrong"

Before she could finish the three words "took the wrong one", Li Xiaofen saw Ye Chen who had a smiling face.

At this moment, her jaw dropped in shock, and only after a moment did she come back to her senses and shouted, "Oh my god! Brother Ye Chen?! Why are you here!!!"

With that, she climbed over from the cashier's desk and jumped into Ye Chen's arms in a flash, saying with surprise and joy, "Didn't you say you'd come only after Sister Churan's cla*s? How come you're here today?"

Ye Chen said with a smile, "It's your Sister Churan's cla*s, not me, I have nothing to do in America, so I came to see you first."

"Mamma!" Li Xiaofen excitedly hugged Ye Chen and jumped several times before picking up her mobile phone and said, "I'll call Auntie Li and tell her the good news!"

Ye Chen was busy saying, "Auntie Li must have gone to help in the nursery cla*s, right?"

"Yes!" Li Xiaofen nodded and said, "Auntie Li is in the nursery cla*s from 1:30 to 6:30 in the afternoon."

Ye Chen then said, "Then it's better not to tell her yet, let her get busy first so she doesn't get distracted, I'm not leaving today anyway, so it's just as well to wait for her in the shop."

Li Xiaofen smiled cheekily and nodded her head, "Good then, then you can wait in the shop and give her a surprise!"

With that, Li Xiaofen hurriedly beckoned to the girl in the shop who was packing up the shelves, "Claudia, come quickly, this is the brother Ye Chen I've been telling you about!"

The girl who was called Claudia turned around, looked at Ye Chen, waved her hand politely and said timidly, "Hello Mr. Ye"
