

Ye Chen 4071

Chapter 4071

Ye Chen knew that Zhao Yinsheng was not lying.

In order to stay alive, he had told everything he knew.

So, Ye Chen also honoured his promise and said to Zhao Yinsheng, "Congratulations, for being the only person on this yacht who survived."

Saying that, he looked at Wan Bajun and ordered, "Bajun, take him to Syria with those Italians."

Wan Bajun nodded and spoke, "Mr. Ye, my subordinate will now inform the cargo ship in the harbour to set sail, just as this ship of ours starts to head back, we will find a place to meet in the middle and transfer these people on board as well, then the cargo ship will go directly to Syria without stopping for a moment."

"Good!" Ye Chen instructed, "During the voyage, make sure to instruct the generals to guard strictly, and make sure not to let any of them escape!"

Wan Bajun immediately said, "Don't worry, Mr. Ye, the generals of the Ten Thousand Dragon Hall will definitely complete their mission 100%!"

Zhao Yinsheng asked nervously at this point, "Ye Mr. Ye Why did you bring me to Syria?!"

Ye Chen said in a cold voice: "In order to leave you a life, you only have two choices, either die here like these corpses in the sea, waiting to be salvaged; or honestly follow the generals of the Ten Thousand Dragon Temple to Syria, where you can be given a way to live, you can consider it yourself."

When Zhao Yinsheng heard this, he immediately had the sense to shut his mouth.

Everyone else had died, and he was the only one still alive.

At a time like this, he was already the luckiest one.

What else was there to hesitate about?

Thinking of this, he immediately said to Ye Chen, "Mr. Ye I am willing to go to West Syria"

Ye Chen nodded and said to Wan Breaking Jun, "Have someone take him down and return to the ship."

The freighter turned in the sea and headed in the direction it had come from.

On the deck, Ye Chen was facing the sea breeze, and his heart was as unsettled as the waves beneath his feet.

He could have two choices, one was to call it quits, and with the noise made tonight, even the Qiao family would not dare to come back to Vancouver to do anything wrong, and the gangs in Vancouver would definitely be in danger after tomorrow, and no one would dare to do anything wrong to Li Xiaofen again.

But then, Vancouver would be safe, but the rest of Vancouver might not change at all.

In that case, tragedies like this would continue to happen in other places and to other young girls.

His other option, however, was to dig down the line of the Joe family, all the way to its roots, and then root it out.

Admittedly, choosing the first one was the easiest, with everything coming to an end and not having to invest any more energy.

However, Ye Chen did not hesitate to choose the second one!

There were some things that it was just as well not to see, but to pretend not to see them after seeing them would be condemned by one's conscience.

So, he called Wan Bajun to him and opened his mouth to instruct, "Bajun, I will return to America first after dawn, you leave a few female warriors here to protect Little Fen and Auntie Li, oh yes, and that Claudia."

Wan Bajun immediately said, "Okay Mr. Ye, I plan to have half of my men escort the gang back to Syria with the ship, then leave a few female warriors in Canada, the rest, I will take with me to Seattle and start working on the investigation of the Qiao family, what do you think?"

Ye Chen nodded and said, "The Qiao family is in a special situation, although they are full of evil, they are actually just a supply chain of evil, like a dark river that is constantly supplying water to those evil beasts downstream, so we not only need to find out the scale and flow of this dark river, but also find out how many beasts are actually drawing water from this dark river downstream, the energy involved behind it is perhaps greater than all of our energy combined, so you must be careful and focus on the investigation first, don't make any rash moves."

Chapter 4072

Wan Bajun said without hesitation, "Okay Mr. Ye, my subordinate understands!"

Immediately afterwards, Wan Bajun hesitated for a moment and plucked up the courage to say to Ye Chen, "Mr. Ye, subordinate subordinate has a matter to ask you for advice"

Ye Chen glanced at him and said indifferently, "You want to ask how I sank Qiao Feiyu's yacht, right?"

"Yes....." Wan Bajun nodded and said with an arching hand, "Mr. Ye, my subordinate is wondering, is it possible that at the end of the martial path, one can enter your kind of realm?"

Ye Chen smiled faintly and shook his head, "Broken Jun, strictly speaking, I am not a martial daoist."

Wan Bajun was instantly appalled and muttered, "You are not a martial artist, could it be that the power system you cultivate is a step above martial arts?"

"You could say that." Ye Chen smiled, "Compared to the martial dao, the path I take is indeed wider and broader."

Hearing this, Wan Bajun nodded with a shocked expression.

Just now, Ye Chen's use of the Soul Piercing Blade to destroy his opponent's yacht had indeed overturned Wan Bajun's perception of power.

With that kind of killing power, even if he were to directly ignore the distance and directly attack the yacht with his two fists, it would simply be impossible to completely destroy or even completely pierce the entire stern of the large luxury yacht with a single strike.

It was several layers of thickened steel plates, and even a rocket would not have been able to achieve such a lethal impact.

At the very least, a light torpedo, or a light cruise missile would have to do the job.

Torpedoes and cruise missiles, moreover, rely on the destructive power of chemical explosions, not on sheer force.

If it were to be struck through entirely with force, the force required would be extremely high, I'm afraid, the kind of force that is far beyond the limits of what the human body can carry.

Even if Wan Bajun's body could emit such a powerful force, his body would simply not be able to withstand it.

Therefore, that kind of killing power, Wan Bajun simply did not even dare to think about it.

However, just now, Ye Chen had easily erupted with such a powerful killing power, and what was even more terrifying was that such a lethal means of attack could be released from a distance, which was simply unheard of.

At this moment, Wan Bajun's heart was filled with yearning for this higher power system of Ye Chen's.

However, he knew very well in his heart that he was not qualified to ask Ye Chen to teach him this power system, so he could only suppress this yearning in the bottom of his heart.

Naturally, Ye Chen also understood what Wan Bajun had in mind.

To a martial artist like Wan Bajun, power and strength were the greatest pursuit in his heart.

Seeing the tremendous killing power that he could produce by combining his aura with a magic weapon, he would definitely yearn for it immensely.

However, Ye Chen also knew very well that aura was his biggest secret and reliance, and such things could never be easily passed on to anyone.

Therefore, he said to Wan Bajun, "Bajun, you have not yet broken through the Dark Realm in the Martial Dao, so you don't really know what kind of new world it is after cultivating to the peak in the Martial Dao, so it is best not to be distracted for the time being, and it is the right way to break through your cultivation in the Martial Dao with all your might."

Wan Bajun nodded gently.

He also felt that his own creation in the martial path was not enough, and who knew what kind of height he could reach if he continued to cultivate in the martial path.

Thus, he clasped his hands in a fist and said respectfully and with a bit of shame, "What Mr. Ye said is extremely true, my subordinate has been taught!"

Ye Chen nodded slightly and spoke, "I promised before that I would help you raise your cultivation level and enter the Dark Realm, I will make good on my promise when I have finished settling these matters with the Qiao Family!"

Chapter 4073

The freighter Ye Chen was on slowly sailed into Vancouver harbour before the dawn broke.

At the same time, the freighter that Ye Chen had newly purchased was also ready for all the preparations before setting sail.

Even the cars driven over by the members of this Italian group had been driven onto the deck one after another by the soldiers of the Ten Thousand Dragons Temple, intending to take them away together.

After Ye Chen had docked, the members of the Italian group on board, as well as that Zhao Yinsheng, were all transferred to the cargo ship that was about to leave the port.

Wan Bajun assigned half of his soldiers to this freighter, and immediately afterwards, the freighter set off at full steam and sailed away from Vancouver harbour, towards the Middle East.

The eight hundred men from beautiful Sicily, who usually wore tweed coats, held cigars and carried machine guns, had finally embarked on a new journey in their lives, forced to work in the Middle East.

At the moment of departure, more than eight hundred people formed a large circle in the cargo hold and cried, their cries echoing in the large cargo hold, creating a tragic atmosphere.

They did not know when they would return from their trip to Syria, and that their lives would be a grey one afterwards.

Most of them were regretting that they had to join the mafia because they were so young and had the hands and feet to do so.

However, there was no point in regretting now, because Ye Chen was not prepared to leave them any room for regret.

After seeing the freighter leave, Wan Bajun asked Ye Chen, "Mr. Ye, what should we do with the girls who are still unconscious?"

Ye Chen pondered for a moment and said, "Later on, you should have someone find a safe place to put them temporarily, and after we evacuate, call the emergency number and have an ambulance take them away, the hospital will contact their families then."

"Good!" Wan Breaking Jun immediately arranged for it to go down, and the generals of the Ten Thousand Dragon Hall then took them to a safe area for the time being to be housed.

Remembering something, Wan Bajun hurriedly said to Ye Chen, "Mr. Ye, Miss Li's situation is also quite special, she is a key person wanted by the Qiao family, I am worried that the Qiao family will not die for her, moreover, this time we have almost completely wiped out Qiao Feiyu and his men, the Qiao family will definitely investigate this line thoroughly, what do you think should be done?"

Ye Chen said in a cold voice: "The Qiao family has suffered heavy losses this time, and the entire Italian group of more than eight hundred people are all missing, this matter will definitely cause an uproar when the day dawns, they can't investigate the Vanguard Dragon Temple, but they will definitely realize that the person who did all this is very powerful;"

"At that time, all the gangs in Vancouver, or people who want to do things in Vancouver, will definitely have to weigh in advance to see if they have the ability to get past the person who started all this."

"Moreover, when the Qiao family finds the bodies of Qiao Feiyu's gang, the first thing that comes to mind is definitely not to seek revenge, but to panic that their tracks have been compromised;"

"So I bet that the Qiao family will be afraid of not being able to play us on the one hand, and on the other hand, they will be afraid of things being revealed, so I believe that they will definitely not dare to come to Vancouver for a while in order not to get into trouble, on the contrary, they will also try every way to clear their relationship with Vancouver."

As for the local gangs in Vancouver, they will not dare to cross the border again, so Fanny will be safe for the time being."

Then, Ye Chen looked at Li Xiaofen beside him and said, "Xiaofen, don't leave Vancouver for the time being, because staying in Vancouver is the safest for you, once you leave Vancouver, the person behind this matter will definitely find you first."

Without thinking, Li Xiaofen said, "Okay brother Ye Chen, if you let me stay, then I will stay!"

Ye Chen nodded and said comfortingly, "You don't have to worry too much, the Ten Thousand Dragons Temple will keep a group of elites to protect your safety 24 hours a day, and then I will also ask the Broken Army to mobilize more elites to come to Canada to ensure the safety of all of you, so you and Claudia, and Auntie Li, should still stay in Vancouver for the time being and continue to live normally according to your usual routine. "

Originally, Ye Chen had also considered letting Li Xiaofen go back to her country for the time being to escape the storm, but after careful analysis, he felt that for Li Xiaofen, Vancouver was the safest place to be right now.

Chapter 4074

At this point, Ye Chen looked at Claudia at the side and instructed, "Claudia, you are more mature than Fanny in dealing with things, so you should help her with more ideas when she is around in the future."

Claudia was busy saying respectfully, "Okay Brother Ye Chen, I know you don't worry, if needed, I will try to help Sister Fanny think things through."

Ye Chen nodded and added, "You said before that you wanted to go back to school again, I think the time is almost ripe now, if there is anything you need to help with, just let me know."

Claudia hurriedly shook her head and said, "Don't bother brother Ye Chen, I kept my school registration at my original high school, so I can go back to cla*s anytime."

Ye Chen nodded slightly and instructed, "I see that you should be somewhat skilled, now that Guo Lei is dead, the whole Italian group will not give you any trouble in the future, so if you are bullied at school in the future, you don't have to put up with it anymore, just bully back, and if there is trouble that you can't solve, you have the Ten Thousand Dragons Temple to back you up."

"I know brother Ye Chen thank you" Claudia's eyes were red and she nodded gently, bean-sized tears dripping down as she nodded her head.

Ye Chen turned to look at Wan Breaking Jun and opened his mouth to ask, "Breaking Jun, if this sister of mine encounters any trouble at school that she cannot solve, you must step in in time."

Without thinking, Wan Bajun said, "Don't worry Mr. Ye, my subordinates will arrange everything and immediately send more men to Canada."

"Good!" Ye Chen nodded in satisfaction, and after glancing at the skyline which was already glowing with the white of a fish's belly and a red haze, he spoke, "It's getting light, let's go back."

At this time, Aunt Li was waiting anxiously at home.

It was only when Ye Chen returned with Li Xiaofen and Claudia, and saw that both girls were intact, that she was relieved.

She hurriedly asked after Ye Chen: "Ye Chen this what the hell is going on here? The people who tried to kidnap Xiao Fen last night, who were they?"

Ye Chen hurriedly told Auntie Li the cause and effect of the incident, but he did not describe the incident where he led the generals of the Ten Thousand Dragons Temple to go on a killing spree at sea.

After hearing this, Auntie Li turned pale with fear and said offhandedly, "In this world now, how can there still be such evil people"

Ye Chen said indifferently, "Auntie Li, even the most glamorous places have a dark side that cannot be seen, especially in Europe and America, with mixed races, numerous gangs, proliferation of guns and high crime rates, this Vancouver seems like a very pleasant place to live, but the security aspect is still far worse than at home."

“Indeed” Auntie Li sighed and looked at Li Xiaofen with a posteriori, “Ye Chen, thanks to you coming, otherwise Xiaofen would be afraid now”

The first thing that happened to her was that she got a little emotional and her tears came out of her eyes.

Ye Chen spoke at this time, “Auntie Li, why don’t you and Xiaofen go back to your country when this matter is over, I will have someone buy a house for you and Xiaofen in Jinling, and if Xiaofen still wants to do business, I will invest for her in Jinling.”

When Li Xiaofen heard this, her expression instantly surged with a hint of surprise.

She did want to go back to her country, other than that, after she went back, she could at least see Ye Chen more often.

Unlike in Canada, if not for the danger she had encountered this time, I am afraid it would have been difficult to see Ye Chen.

However, at this time, Auntie Li did not think twice and quickly waved her hand, “No, no, no. Housekeeper Tang has already taken a lot of trouble and spent a lot of money to settle us here in Canada, how can we give you any more trouble”

Ye Chen said, “Auntie Li, how can this be regarded as trouble! Like I said earlier, although Canada’s environment and climate are very good, there are indeed many hidden dangers in terms of law and order. This time I happen to be in the United States, not far away, so I can still come over in time if something happens.

Saying that, Ye Chen remembered that he had donated to build a large orphanage and hurriedly said, “By the way, Auntie Li, there is something else I didn’t bother to report to you.”

“The other day I was going to donate a large orphanage in Jinling, and it will be a comprehensive orphanage that includes preschool education as well as twelve years of consistent schooling, where the children will live and study, all in this orphanage;”

“This comprehensive orphanage is very large in scale, it can accommodate at least ten thousand orphans, and will be open to orphans in the province.

Chapter 4075

Ye Chen’s words startled Auntie Li.

She said in surprise, “Ye Chen, you are telling the truth?! A large orphanage for 10,000 people, this this would require a lot, a lot of money to be invested, I’m afraid?!”

Ye Chen smiled faintly and said seriously, “Auntie Li, I myself am considered half an orphan, the little ones who live and grow up together are also poor children without fathers and mothers, now that I have some ability, I should also do what I can for the orphan group, as for money, it doesn’t matter.”

The first time I considered this matter, I thought of asking you to go back to be the director, but when I thought of the fact that you have already retired and settled in Canada, it was hard to adapt to the environment here, so it would be unbearable for me to ask you to go back to work”

Speaking of this, Ye Chen added: “However, now I have seen the situation over here in Canada, there are indeed still some risks in terms of security issues, so I still hope that you can return to settle in your country, and by the way, you can also help me to make the orphanage.”

When Auntie Li heard this, she was in an overwhelming mood and said, “Good! Great! Ye Chen, auntie is willing to go back!”

Hearing this, Li Xiaofen at the side was in an extraordinarily excited mood, and was happy, when she suddenly remembered something and hurriedly said to Ye Chen again, “Brother Ye Chen, both Auntie Li and I are willing to go back to China, only the matter of the dean, I am afraid that Auntie Li’s body can’t come, after her kidney transplant, although her body has recovered, she still needs to take anti-rejection medicine regularly, and the doctor has also explained that she must pay attention to maintenance and must not work too hard

Hearing this, Ye Chen couldn’t help but ask in surprise, “Auntie Li, you were really sick in the first place?”

Ye Chen remembered that when he had just met Gu Qiuyi, he had specifically gone to Auntie Li for confirmation.

At that time, Auntie Li told herself that she had actually been obeying Tang Sihai’s orders to take care of herself at the orphanage, and that even being sick was a deliberate act of a bitter trick.

At that time, Auntie Li’s body had already recovered, so Ye Chen did not notice anything unusual.

Now when he heard Li Xiaofen say that Auntie Li had to take anti-rejection medicine for a long time, he immediately couldn’t help but ask about it.

Auntie Li also said with some shame, “Ye Chen at that time you came to the orphanage to find me, it was the Tang housekeeper who specially explained that I said that, I knew the truth of the matter, probably just a few minutes earlier than you, the reason why the Tang housekeeper wanted me to tell you those things was to inspire your desire to avenge your parents so that you could return to Yanjing

Speaking of this, Auntie Li could not help but sigh and lament, “In fact, you are not the only one who has been kept in the dark in the entire orphanage, so am I. Back then, of all the employees of the orphanage, I was the only one who was recruited, everyone else, without exception, was arranged by Housekeeper Tang, and most of them were your father’s old department

Hearing this, Ye Chen couldn’t help but sigh and said, “So that’s how it is Auntie Li, thank you! For taking care of me for so many years, I’ve made you and housekeeper Tang go through a lot of trouble!”

Auntie Li hurriedly waved her hand and said, “Don’t say that, I take care of you, that’s my job duty, that’s what I should do, and after I got sick, if it wasn’t for you and housekeeper Tang, how could I have had the chance to go to Yanjing to receive the best treatment Moreover, for other people with uremia, they transplant one kidney, I was transplanted two, the one to thank is actually me!”

Ye Chen remembered something, then he was busy saying, "Auntie Li, let me take your pulse! Let's see how your body is actually doing now."

Li Xiaofen at the side was surprised and asked, "Brother Ye Chen when did you learn to take your pulse?"

Ye Chen laughed, "I know a lot of things, so I can't report to you one by one."

Auntie Li had vaguely heard of Ye Chen's abilities when she was in Jinling, and there were even people who called him Master Ye, so she didn't doubt it and handed her hand to Ye Chen.

Chapter 4076

Ye Chen gently placed his finger on Auntie Li's pulse, and with a little spiritual qi, he sensed that Auntie Li's overall health was as healthy as that of a healthy person, and the two kidneys were in very good condition.

However, under the perception of the aura, he could vaguely feel some subtle rejection between his body and the two kidneys, which seemed to be the rejection of the transplanted organs, but this rejection was very mild and should be the effect of the anti-rejection medicine.

Ye Chen originally wanted to give Auntie Li a rejuvenation pill, but, on second thought, it would be somewhat abrupt to take out the rejuvenation pill now, and the violent effect of the rejuvenation pill would give Auntie Li and the others a bigger shock.

Moreover, for someone like Auntie Li, who had never known about the Spring Return Pill, the shock would probably take her a long time to digest.

What's more, Auntie Li's overall health is relatively healthy now, unlike when Gu Yanzhong was terminally ill, so there is no need to rush to use a strong medicine.

Besides, Ye Chen did not want to take out the Spring Return Pill and make Auntie Li feel that she owed herself a huge favour, so he planned to use a method that would be silent.

So, Ye Chen temporarily transferred more spiritual qi into Auntie Li's body first, allowing it to fill up her organs.

Ordinary people do not have aura, nor have they mastered the cultivation method, so their natural absorption of aura is very weak, and this aura in Auntie Li's body will be able to play a very good slow-release role, will continuously protect and nourish Auntie Li's body, and will be effective for at least three to five years.

During these three to five years, Auntie Li's physical condition would become better and better, and her person would become younger and younger, and the overall medicinal effect would actually be no worse than that of the Spring Return Pill.

But in this way, it is the same as delaying the medicinal effects of the Spring Return Pill, which would have been released within five minutes, to a slow release over a period of three to five years.

In this way, neither the person concerned, nor the other people around him, would feel too obviously, but would only feel as if the person was living younger and younger.

After all this, Ye Chen smiled faintly and said: "Auntie Li, your body is indeed recovering very well, but I have a suggestion, you don't need to take the anti-rejection medicine in the future, your body is different from other people's bodies, your body is very well matched with the transplanted kidney, if you take the anti-rejection medicine for a long time it will have long-term effects on your body instead, I suggest that you start from tonight Stop the medication first, and observe if your body feels better after stopping it, if so, then stop it completely."

Auntie Li was convinced by Ye Chen's words and said without hesitation, "OK! Then, starting tonight, stop the medicine and try it out!"

Ye Chen smiled faintly and nodded gently.

The slow-release effect of the aura had already started, only for a short period of time, Auntie Li would not feel anything obvious, but if she slept, that feeling would definitely be much more obvious.

That was why Ye Chen had deliberately asked her to stop the medicine, so that she would mistakenly think that her body had become better because she had stopped taking the medicine.

As for the original rejection reaction between the kidneys and the body, it had completely disappeared under the effect of the aura, so naturally, there was no need to take this medicine anymore.

In this way, Ye Chen believed that Auntie Li would not take the credit for her body getting better and better in the future, and this would not make her feel too much indebted to herself, all in one fell swoop!

After doing this, Ye Chen suddenly noticed that Claudia, who was eighteen years old, was standing alone with a somewhat downcast expression.

Ye Chen then opened his mouth and said to her, "Claudia, when the time comes, why don't you come along to Jinling too!"

Chapter 4077

"Huh?! Me?!"

Ye Chen's words caused Claudia to not come back to her senses for a moment.

She even thought she was hallucinating.

Because, just now, when Ye Chen had advised Auntie Li to go back, the instinctive thought in her heart was that she also wished to follow them to Huaxia.

However, when she thought of the fact that Li Xiaofen and Auntie Li were Ye Chen's relatives, but although she had also acknowledged Ye Chen as her brother, that was only a verbal promise, so how could she have the heart to raise such an idea?

Therefore, she knew very well in her heart that if both Auntie Li and Li Xiaofen went back to China, she would be alone again.

When Ye Chen suddenly invited her to go to Jinling with him, she was so excited that she did not dare to believe it.

However, Ye Chen said with a certain look on his face, "Claudia, there is no point for you to stay in Canada alone, why don't you follow Auntie Li and Xiaofen back to China? You can apply directly to the university in Jinling as a foreign student, as far as I know, the application pa*s rate for foreign students is very high."

At this stage, many universities in China are committed to creating international institutions, so the threshold for foreign students is set relatively low, and there are no such series of requirements as household registration, school registration and college entrance examination scores, so it is still relatively easy for foreign students to study.

Moreover, Ye Chen had some connections in Jinling, so he could also help Claudia to move around when the time came.

Hearing Ye Chen's words, Li Xiaofen immediately said excitedly, "Brother Ye Chen, is it really possible for Claudia to go to university in Jinling?"

Ye Chen nodded, "It shouldn't be difficult, I'll inquire about what process foreign students have to go through to apply to the university in Jinling when the time comes."

Li Xiaofen said excitedly, "That's great! Claudia's grades are very good! Even if we do have to take the exams, we'll be fine!"

With that, Li Xiaofen took Claudia's hand and said impatiently, "Claudia, when this is over, come back to Jinling with us!"

Claudia's heart was overwhelmed with excitement and equally grateful, but she still said a little nervously, "I I'm sure I'll cause you guys trouble"

"How could it be!" Li Xiaofen blurted out, "Claudia, if you don't come with us, me and Auntie Li and Brother Ye Chen will definitely worry about you, if you come back with us, we won't have any worries about leaving Canada!"

"Yes!" Auntie Li also said seriously, "Claudia, come back with us, we don't feel at ease if you stay here alone, not to mention that you don't have any relatives here anymore, you don't need to have too much attachment to this place, it's not bad for you to start afresh in another place."

Auntie Li continued, "Besides, if you come back with us, you won't cause us any trouble, you're just as much my child as Fanny is in my eyes, and I won't be so lonely with you two."

Claudia nodded her head with immense gratitude and choked up, "I've caused everyone trouble"

Li Xiaofen said with a smile, "We're all family, what trouble!"

As she said that, Li Xiaofen remembered something and asked, "Claudia, I remember that your mother is from Jinling?"

Claudia nodded gently, "Yes"

Li Xiaofen asked again, "Then do you still have relatives in Jinling?"

"I'm not really sure." Claudia said with some emotion, "My mother was quite rebellious when she was young, she came to Canada to study alone and insisted on marrying my father, my grandparents couldn't accept it, so my mother quietly immigrated and quietly married my father, my grandparents were very disappointed because of this, so basically contact was cut off before I was born."

Li Xiaofen nodded and said comfortingly, "It doesn't matter, we'll be your family from now on!"

Chapter 4078

In the early morning, the bright sunlight gradually spread throughout Vancouver.

This park-like city, under the morning light, was more revealing of its own charm.

But no one knows what kind of filth and nastiness lies in the dark side of the city.

Seattle, in the same time zone as Vancouver, is also at dawn.

A young man in his twenties or eighties is pacing anxiously back and forth in the living room of a luxurious seaside home on hundreds of acres of land.

The cigarette in his hand is almost burnt out, and his brow is furrowing.

Just as the cigarette burned to the end, a sharp pain suddenly came from his finger. He involuntarily shouted and subconsciously shook the cigarette away, and then asked his men in front of him with a gloomy face, "No news from Feiyu yet?"

The one who spoke was Qiao Feiyun, the youngest master of the Qiao family and Qiao Feiyu's elder brother.

The man in front of Qiao Feiyun carefully picked up the cigarette while saying respectfully, "Back to the young master, we have been trying to contact the third young master, but there has been no response, and the yacht's communicator has no answer, and the GPS signal has also disappeared and has not been restored."

Qiao Feiyun immediately followed up, "Have the boats and planes sent to look for them replied with news?"

"Not yet." His men hastily replied, "Young master, the sea has changed a lot and the GPS positioning error is quite large, plus it was not light before, so there is nothing yet."

"Patience?" Qiao Feiyun said through clenched teeth, "How can I be patient? The whole ship is f*cking missing! Even the ship has disappeared, this is unbelievable! Did something happen to the ship?"

Just after he finished, he said to himself, "But how could something happen to a yacht of that size when there was very little wind and waves at sea last night and nothing unexpected?"

“Besides, even if something happens to the boat, there are still two speedboats on board, so it won’t take long to sink the boat, so we can always abandon it and escape, right? If not, there’s nothing wrong with sending a distress signal, right?”

Qiao Feiyun naturally could not imagine what had happened to his brother last night.

The moment the yacht entered the water, the crew only thought about getting to the deck and preparing to escape, they didn’t have time to send a distress signal.

What’s more, these guys usually do things that are not visible, so their method of dealing with emergencies is to have a team of loaded bodyguards on board, with the principle of fighting when things go wrong and running if they can’t.

However, as they are relatively strong, they have not encountered any danger at all for such a long time, and every time they go out to pick up people, it is even easier and less complicated than going out fishing, so over time, everyone has forgotten the process of quick response.

Therefore, no one sent any distress messages to Qiao Feiyun at all last night either.

To Qiao Feiyun, it was as if his brother and dozens of his men had disappeared into thin air, with their boats, and he could not find any trace of them at all.

I have sent six speedboats and four planes to the last location where the yacht disappeared, considering that several hours have passed, so the search area is within a radius of ten nautical miles of the location. expand the search range to twenty nautical miles.”

Qiao Feiyun nodded through clenched teeth and said in a cold voice, “This matter should be kept strictly confidential, don’t let my parents know for the time being, got it?”

“Yes, Young Master, I understand!”

Chapter 4079

Meanwhile, Canada, Vancouver.

A significant number of Italian families in this city are in a state of extreme fear.

For they found that their family members had disappeared overnight.

Some had husbands missing from their homes.

Some had children missing from their homes.

Some had husbands and children, or even several brothers, missing from their homes.

At first, people didn’t feel too alarmed because they all knew very well that their own relatives, who were in unseemly occupations, were often absent at night and people had long since become accustomed to them.

However, when these families started to interchange among themselves, it was like opening a Pandora’s Box of fear

When one person, or a few people, from their own family go missing, it might be understandable that they are busy with something.

But when all the families around them have someone missing, the matter becomes extremely bizarre.

Many families recalled last night and said that their families had gone to bed, but suddenly they received a call from their accomplices, as if to say that the boss had something for them to do at the pier, so they all left their homes and went to the pier.

Then subsequently, the people disappeared.

What's even more frightening is that even the boss of the group, who was so looking for them to go to the pier, is equally unaccounted for.

And her wife, too, knew nothing of his whereabouts.

So the old men, women and children began to get together and gather useful information everywhere.

The first news that came back was that the casino, which was supposed to be open until morning, was empty of all men.

Only the female staff were left, and these were completely unconscious. A doctor was brought in and they were forcibly woken up by injecting them with drugs, after which the women all said that they had no recollection of what had happened.

They then went on to find the homes of some of the members and found that, surprisingly, they had been kidnapped while resting in their homes.

Their families, like the female staff in the bar, had all been put under anesthesia and had no memory of what had happened last night.

This instantly triggered a huge panic!

You know, over 800 adult males had disappeared overnight!

Moreover, they were members of the Mafia, who were usually very strong fighters!

When have they ever been the only ones to make others disappear?

And over eight hundred of them all together!

So the families, at a loss for words, flocked to the church of the Italian community for a rally.

While the families cried in the church, not knowing what to do, the priests of Italian origin, with a Bible in one hand and a crucifix in the other, kept praying for the missing 800 people, and even kept comforting the emotionally broken families one by one.

Then an elderly priest was brought out of the nursing home.

At an extraordinary time, everyone coincidentally thought of him and hoped that he would come out to preside over the situation.

The old godfather, who had served the Italian group for over fifty years, had never been the top leader, but because several of his wives and children had died in revenge by his enemies back then, he was regarded as a spiritual totem by the group's members, and his reputation was not small.

In the world of gangs, two kinds of people tend to have the most prestige.

One type of character is particularly powerful, such as someone who can slash his way alone from south to north and east to west, and who can fight dozens of people by himself and still not change his face or stand still; such people are legends in the gang world.

There is another kind, a particularly tragic character, for example, this person has been cut down countless times by his enemies, and his family has died and been injured because of himself, but he is the only one who is still as strong as an undefeatable little strong man.

Chapter 4080

Such people can become legends even through the tragic fate of their lives.

This old godfather was one of the latter.

He had five sons, which made him very proud for a while.

For, in the traditional Italian gang concept, sons were the only ones who could follow in their footsteps and carry on their Sicilian fighting spirit.

So, in this group, the preference for sons was a constant guiding principle.

In this group, if you don't have a son, you are ashamed to go out and greet people.

Those who don't have sons don't know how inferior and envious they feel when they see others with their sons out hacking people, dealing drugs and collecting protection money.

Therefore, every gang member is proud to have a son.

If anyone could have several sons, they could really walk with their nose in the air.

The old godfather had five sons, and he had all five sons in a row, so he was the envy of many people back then.

Four of the five sons followed in his footsteps and joined the gang, while the fifth son was still too young to join.

Originally, he had a lot to look forward to in life, as his four sons would not only get stronger as they joined the gang, but would also have more opportunities to move up the ladder, and one of them might become a junior leader in the near future.

During a gang fight, his four sons and a group of other associates drove seven or eight cars to the Russian gang's territory and took the Russians by surprise.

However, on their way home from a big victory, the Russians took a short cut to stop them and caught them off guard.

As a result, only the car driven by his four sons survived.

The four sons were then shot by the Russian gang.

The old godfather was naturally devastated afterwards, but to add to his devastation, his community was soon retaliated against by the Russian gangs and his wife and youngest son were also killed in the clash.

Since then, he has been the gang's worst totem.

In a sense, their family is full of loyalty in the eyes of the other gang members!

So the members of the Italian group gave him a private nickname, respectfully calling him "Old Godfather Ryan".

The Old Godfather was not called Ryan, but was so called to correspond with the classic American war movie "Saving Private Ryan".

In the film, four of the Ryan brothers join the army, three die, and the US government decides to bring back the last one, Ryan, no matter what.

In reality, all five of the old godfather's sons died, so, in the eyes of the members of the Italian group, he was even greater than Ryan.

That was why, everyone had given him such a nickname.

At this moment, the old godfather was in a wheelchair and was pushed to the church, and when everyone saw him, they all stood up and paid tribute to him.

Afterwards, someone said in tears, "Godfather, the whole group of over 800 people disappeared overnight, you must show us the way in this matter!"

Someone immediately rose and said, "Yes, Godfather! Look at all the helpless old men, women and children here, please help them!"

The old godfather spoke with a trembling voice: "I have served the group for many years and have never encountered anything so bizarre Is it true that everyone have gone missing?"

"Yes" someone cried, "We counted everyone who was in Vancouver and there is no one left"

"Oh holy moly" said the old godfather, shivering, "I can't think of any gang in Vancouver that has that kind of power"

Someone couldn't help but say, "Old Godfather, I'm afraid something bad will happen to my son, why don't we call the police This matter, I'm afraid only the police can find out the truth and give us an explanation!"

"Bullsh*t!" The old godfather was so angry he almost stood up and shouted in righteous indignation, "I've had five dead sons and never reported them to the police, but you've only had one son missing for one night and you can't wait to call the police? Do you know what is the most taboo thing for gangs all over the world? That's calling the police!"
