

Ye Chen 4101

Chapter 4101

“New York?!” Ye Chen was instantly surprised beyond belief.

He had heard that that Qiao Feiyun had also escaped to New York before he took off, but how could he have imagined that Gu Qiuyi would also be coming to New York?

So, he asked with concern, “Nui Nui, wasn’t your itinerary set long ago? Why did you make such a drastic change at the last minute?”

Gu Qiuyi smiled cheekily and said, “I know you are in Providence, which is very close to New York, right?”

Ye Chen was surprised and asked, “How did you know?”

“I asked someone else!” Gu Qiuyi said, “I asked around with Mr. Chen from Buckingham Palace, and he said that you went to America to accompany your studies.”

As she said that, Gu Qiuyi mumbled in mock anger, “I originally wanted to go to Jinling to see you and give you a surprise, so I called to ask Mr. Chen to cooperate, only to find out that you are no longer in Jinling.” Brother Ye Chen, why didn’t you tell me that you were going to America?”

Ye Chen said awkwardly, “I was afraid of delaying your business, besides, I didn’t come to America for fun, I was accompanying your sister-in-law to school.”

Gu Qiuyi was busy saying, “Ugh ugh ugh, don’t say that, I never admitted that was my sister-in-law at any time, in fact I don’t admit that anyone is my sister-in-law, I only admit that I am my own sister-in-law!”

Ye Chen gave a helpless light sigh and said, “Fine, fine, it’s my fault, I should have told you before I left, it won’t happen again, okay?”

“That’s more like it.” Gu Qiuyi was then satisfied, humming twice and muttering, “I’ll forgive you this time!”

Ye Chen rubbed the bridge of his nose and asked after him, “Nui Nui, you still haven’t told me why you suddenly changed your performance plan?”

Without thinking, Gu Qiuyi said, “Of course it’s for you! I heard that you’re going to be in Providence for a month, so I specially placed my first two concerts in New York and Boston, New York is more than two hundred kilometres away from you, and Boston is even closer, only a hundred kilometres at most, so you’ll have to come to the first two stops of my tour to cheer me on!”

Ye Chen didn’t expect that Gu Qiuyi’s temporary change in her travel plans was for herself, and he couldn’t help but be a little touched in his heart.

So, he asked, “Nui Nui, when is your first concert? In New York or Boston?”

Gu Qiuyi said, “The first stop is definitely New York, after all, it is the biggest city in the United States, and after New York comes Boston.”

Saying that, Gu Qiuyi added, "As for the time, the New York stop is two weeks later on the fifteenth, and the Boston stop is on the seventeenth."

Ye Chen did not expect the time to be so fast, so he asked, "Then when are you coming to America?"

Gu Qiuyi said, "I've been preparing for it in the past two days, I'll probably go there as soon as I finish my work here, the departure time will probably be in a week, ten days at the latest, because the repertoire, choreography and equipment of the North American tour are all unified, and the latter venues are scheduled to be rather confusing, so I need to reserve more time for live debugging and rehearsals before the first leg starts, so that the whole set of I had to set aside more time to do the set-up and rehearsals before the start of the first leg, so that the whole set of flow standards could be set properly and the performance later on could be easier."

According to Gu Qiuyi, she would fly to America within 7 to 10 days, and would definitely go to New York first, which made Ye Chen's heart a little worried.

Because, once he thought that that Qiao Feiyun had already gone to New York, Ye Chen's intuition told him that Qiao Feiyun either had a lot of associates or a lot of clients in New York.

Therefore, when he was on the plane, he was thinking that he must weave an absolute net in New York, so that he could take Qiao Feiyun, as well as his superiors and subordinates, from the big fish to the small shrimps, all together.

Since he was going to weave such a large net, it would naturally take some time to prepare, so the net would not be closed too soon.

Chapter 4102

In that case, when Gu Qiuyi arrived in New York, it might not be time to close the net on her own.

In that case, Gu Qiuyi would be in some danger.

So, Ye Chen hurriedly asked her, "Nui Nui, can you still push back the time of your performance a bit? It would be better to wait for half a month before going to New York."

"No way brother Ye Chen." Gu Qiuyi explained, "The performance time has already been set, and the organisers in the United States have already started producing promotional materials and even started the pre-sale of concert tickets, so it is definitely not possible to change the time at will."

The first time I saw you, I asked, "Brother Ye Chen, do you not want to see me? Or is it inconvenient to see me on your side? I can continue to disguise myself as your feng shui reading client, even if you still do the same as last time and bring her along to my concert, I won't be exposed ....."

Ye Chen hurriedly explained, "That's not what I meant ....." I just heard that that place in New York is not very peaceful ....."

Gu Qiuyi heard this explanation and said with a smile, "Aiya, brother Ye Chen, you are a bit worrying, although it is true that the security in the United States is not very good, but my overall trip this time is in public, and it is a more economically developed, more stable security area activities, in addition there is a security team in the United States, there is certainly no danger, you can rest assured! !"

Seeing this, Ye Chen knew that it would be difficult for him to make Gu Qiuyi's entire tour plan reshuffle based on a couple of words, so he could only accept this reality and instructed, "Nui Nui, then you must remember to tell me in advance before you leave for America, and don't give me any surprises, only then can I be completely at ease, got it?"

Without thinking, Gu Qiuyi said, "I know brother Ye Chen, don't worry! When my departure date is set, I'll tell you first!"

"Good ....."

Only after Ye Chen instructed Gu Qiuyi again and again did he end the call between the two of them.

And the first thing he did after hanging up the phone was to immediately call Wan Breaking Jun.

As soon as the call came through, he asked, "Broken Jun, have you arrived in New York yet?"

Wan Bajun respectfully said, "Back to Mr. Ye, my subordinate's plane has just landed at New York's JFK airport."

Ye Chen asked again, "Where is that Qiao Feiyun?"

Wan Bajun said, "Back to Mr. Ye, Qiao Feiyun's plane landed two hours earlier than mine."

Saying that, Wan Bajun said with shame, "Sorry Mr Ye, after I knew that Qiao Feiyun had gone to New York, I pulled off a few female warriors from Providence to urgently go to the New York airport to keep watch, intending to follow Qiao Feiyun to see where he was going and who he was meeting after landing, but my men never saw Qiao Feiyun leave the airport."

Ye Chen frowned and asked, "It's not likely that he hasn't left the airport in two hours, is it?"

Wan Bajun said, "My subordinate also thinks it's unlikely, so my subordinate thinks that it's not that Qiao Feiyun didn't leave the airport, but that we lost him so it's likely that he didn't leave the airport through normal channels."

Ye Chen asked him, "You mean that someone picked him up directly from inside the airport?"

"Yes!" Wan Breaking Jun explained, "There are very many capital privileges over here in the United States, it is normal to drive directly into the airport to pick up people, or even to fly a helicopter directly into the airport to pick up people, if Qiao Feiyun had left the airport in one of these two ways, it would indeed be very difficult for my people to detect, especially since the manpower would have been insufficient, and the passenger flow at JFK airport is just too big ....."

said, Wan Broken Army Shame: "Mr. Ye, subordinate this matter did not do a good job, also please blame you! But you do not worry, subordinates have already started to New York to mobilize troops, as long as Qiao Feiyun dare to show up, will definitely find him out!"

Chapter 4103

Wan Bu Jun's words did not surprise Ye Chen.

He knew very well that the United States was not the territory of the Ten Thousand Dragons Temple, and that Wan Breaking Army's large team was in the Middle East, so it was impossible to have a strong hold on this place.

What's more, New York is an international metropolis after all, with several civilian airports alone. JFK Kennedy International Airport has a throughput of at least tens of millions a year, and it would be difficult to find a person out from a single day's passenger flow of over 200,000.

What's more, this Qiao Feiyun is probably using a privileged passage to leave the airport, which makes it even more impossible to track him.

Therefore, it was almost inevitable that he would lose track of him for the time being.

So Ye Chen spoke, "Broken Jun, you don't need to blame yourself too much, this kind of thing is perfectly normal, I can understand."

As he said that, Ye Chen added, "Now that he's in New York, he's probably looking for asylum with his superiors, so he won't come out to do anything wrong in the next few days, so you can take advantage of this window to complete your control in New York."

Wan Bajun immediately assured, "Don't worry, Mr. Ye, I will definitely set up a net in New York, as long as he dares to show up in New York, I will definitely finish setting up the control at the first time!"

"Good!" Ye Chen said, "You must have had a hard time running back and forth these few days, so take a good rest in New York for two days first, and we'll be in touch if there's anything."

"Okay Mr. Ye, I'll have someone continue to keep an eye on the airport so that the kid surnamed Qiao doesn't play any tricks."

At this moment, New York JFK International Airport.

Qiao Feiyun's Boeing business jet had been parked in the hangar for two hours.

The plane had driven all the way into the hangar from the time it landed, but the cabin door had never been opened after the plane had come to a stop.

Qiao Feiyun sat in the plane and kept staring at the time on his watch.

He had originally promised Fei Hoang that he would tell him when the plane took off, but he had never contacted Fei Hoang from the beginning to the end.

The reason he did so was to make a time difference.

Qiao Feiyun was smart, he could tell from his brother's corpse that his brother had experienced severe torture by the mysterious man before he died, and that he must have already confessed everything he knew.

Otherwise, as long as the other side hadn't gotten the information they wanted, they would have left him alive and not let him die, even if they had cut him into a pig.

Although his brother didn't know much, he would at least give himself up.

This meant that his identity had been exposed to the mystery man.

And in his haste, he had flown from Seattle to New York, and there was no way that this journey could have been concealed.

So he was worried that the other side had already set up control at JFK in advance, just waiting for him to show up.

So, he deliberately delayed for two hours.

Chapter 4104

For the past two hours, he had been sitting in the plane, searching the internet for all information related to Gu Qiuyi.

At this moment, seeing that two hours had passed, he didn't rush to get off the plane, but took out his mobile phone and called Fei Hao Yang.

As soon as the call came through, Fei Hao Yang asked, "Feiyun, you wouldn't have been dragging your feet until now and just about to take off, would you?"

Qiao Feiyun hurriedly said, "Sorry, Young Master Fei, I didn't tell you when I took off earlier, but I've actually arrived in New York and am still at the airport."

"Arrived?" Fei Hao Yang said with some displeasure, "f*ck, I asked you to tell me in advance so that I could have the butler rush to pick you up, why didn't you say hello?"

Qiao Feiyun said flatteringly, "Don't be angry, Young Master Fei, the reason I didn't tell you was because I didn't want to cause you any trouble, you think, after all, I am the actual operator of these things, in case others know that I am here, it will be somewhat risky for you."

Fei Hao Yang, who knew that Qiao Feiyun had really been exposed, he thought that the reason why Qiao Feiyun was so cautious was to better protect his privacy, so his dissatisfaction just now also instantly dissipated and he said smilingly, "Feiyun, your kid's greatest merit over the years is caution, so this matter of Gu Qiuyi, in my mind, only you can help me achieve my goal! "

The two of us are university classmates, this relationship is written in both of our files, anyone who wants to investigate can find out, you come to New York now to see me, to my home for a few days, no one will have any suspicion if they know."

In fact, Fei Hao Yang had already made a firewall for himself.

First of all, he was sure that once Qiao Feiyun was exposed, he would never dare to bite himself.

Because once he dared to bite himself, then he would definitely put to exterminate his whole family.

Although the two men were in cahoots and had done many unconscionable things together, this did not mean that they were complete comrades.

On the contrary, the two had always kept each other in check.

Qiao Feiyun gambled that if something really happened to him, Fei Haoyang would not dare to ignore it. The two of them have always been at odds with each other.

For Qiao Feiyun, this was also true.

He knew very well in his heart that after the accident, as long as he bit the bullet and didn't say anything, Fei Hao Yang was afraid that he would leave a back door and would definitely try his best to help.

If Fei Hao Yang really tried his best, but still couldn't do anything, then he certainly couldn't sell him out, after all, his own family was still alive.

Fei Hao Yang has long been prepared that once Qiao Feiyun is defeated, he will be the first to set aside all involvement, he is just his college cla*s mate, the relationship is good but that's all.

He did not know about his activities from the beginning to the end, and he was not involved in them.

The others could not get any evidence and naturally they would not suspect him.

Qiao Feiyun knew this very well in his heart, and the reason he said this was just to take the opportunity to show his loyalty to Fei Hao Yang.

Seeing that Fei Hao Yang insisted on having his butler pick him up, he spoke up, "Young Master Fei, in that case, then you can send a helicopter over, I'll wait at the hangar."

Fei Hao Yang usually returned to New York by landing at the airport and transferring to a helicopter to go home, this set of operations was routine for him, so he didn't think much of it when he heard this and immediately said, "Wait, I'll talk to the butler."

Chapter 4105

Twenty minutes later, a Bell helicopter landed in front of Qiao Feiyun's hangar.

Only then did Qiao Feiyun step out of the hangar in the night and quickly boarded the helicopter.

The helicopter's engine was not even switched off and it accelerated straight away, leaving the airport in just two to three minutes.

After taking off, the helicopter flew directly to the Long Island area in eastern New York.

Long Island is one of the most prestigious and affluent areas in the United States. Unlike Manhattan, which is a bustling city, Long Island is very quiet because it is far from the city.

Moreover, the Long Island area has some of the best beaches in New York. Almost all of the wealthy areas here are top-notch estates built on the coastline, and the Fay family's estate, which covers even more than 300 hectares, not only has a kilometre-long private beach, but even its own golf course.

In this manor, there are five oversized villa buildings alone, each of which is comparable to a luxury hotel.

Qiao Feiyun has had the privilege of visiting this estate several times before, and each time he has been deeply shocked.

Other than that, the price of land for villas on the edge of a prime coast like Long Island is now ridiculously high. Nowadays, buying a one-hectare plot of land in a similar location costs tens of millions of dollars, not to mention this oversized manor of over two hundred hectares.

The scarcity of such top luxury mansions can no longer be replicated in an area like Long Island.

If the estate were to be put up for sale, it would not be possible without tens of billions of dollars.

If the estate was handed over to a developer, it would create a superb villa complex of at least two to three hundred top luxury homes, easily accommodating thousands of high society elites.

This is a huge luxury estate that serves only a few dozen people in the Fei family, a top-notch living experience that can easily be ranked in the top five in the United States.

The five villas in the manor are also well-defined, with the largest villa located in the middle and the other four, in the four corners of the northeast, southeast, northwest and southwest, respectively.

Fei Hao Yang, his grandfather, his parents and his family originally lived in the villa in the northeast corner, but with the seizure of power from the old man Fei Jianzhong, his grandfather arranged for his family to move to the large central villa where Fei Jianzhong used to live, and this villa happened to be vacant, so Fei Hao Yang directly asked his housekeeper to bring Qiao Feiyun here.

The study that had belonged to Fei Ho Yang's grandfather had now become Fei Ho Yang's private domain, and even his father, who had coveted it, had to relent and give it to him.

Qiao Feiyun, led by the butler, quickly arrived at the luxurious study in the mansion, which was over a hundred square metres in size.

This poster was the promotional poster for Gu Qiuyi's New York concert.

As soon as Qiao Feiyun came in, he saw the poster, and as soon as Fei Hao Yang saw him, he immediately greeted him warmly, patting him on the shoulder with one hand and pointing at the stunningly beautiful Gu Qiuyi on the poster with the other, he said with a smile, "Look, Feiyun, the promotional materials for Gu Qiuyi's concert have already been made! This is the poster that hasn't been officially released yet, and I just got it."

Qiao Feiyun was surprised and asked, "Young Master Fei, this poster is not yet on the market, how did you get it? Is there some kind of internal relationship?"

"That's right!" Fei Hao Yang exclaimed, "You're still smart, let me tell you, getting a poster is no big deal, but I've already figured out all her partners for this concert in New York, she's on tour in North America this time, and she's working more deeply with the Chinese Chamber of Commerce in America, and it's said that there's a vice president inside the Chinese Chamber of Commerce who is a friend of her father."

The Chinese Chamber of Commerce has a vice president who is a friend of her father's." said Fei Hao Yang, "All the printing and production of her promotional materials are entrusted to a Chinese printer in New York, who is also a member of the Chamber of Commerce, but unfortunately, the Fei family has never looked up to this Chinese Chamber of Commerce, and I have no dealings with them, so I will try to see if I can find the Chamber of Commerce and find a chance to get to know her. If you can create the right time to do it, it would be great!”

I found out that this Gu Qiuyi seems to be very keen on doing charity work, and she is especially keen on charity projects related to orphans. ”

Fei Hao Yang said excitedly, “Speak up!”

Chapter 4106

Seeing that he had successfully aroused Fei Hoang’s interest, Qiao Feiyun respectfully introduced, “My idea is that you take the lead in cooperating with the Chinese Chamber of Commerce to hold a charity fundraising dinner in New York, and you can first put up twenty million dollars as part of the charity fund, and claim to the public that the money will be used specifically to set up a charity fund.”

Fei Hao Yang nodded, then wiggled his fingers slightly and spoke, “Go on!”

Qiao Feiyun continued, “When you advertise to the public, say that this charity fund will be used specifically to improve the living and educational conditions of all Chinese orphans in North America, although I don’t know if the Chinese Chamber of Commerce is interested in this kind of charity activity, but you are after all the young master of the Fei family, if you can find the Chinese Chamber of Commerce to cooperate, they will definitely be flattered, and even if they are not willing to do charity, they will definitely actively cooperate with you, so there won’t be any problem with the whole plan up to this point.”

“Well, that makes sense.” Fei Hao Yang nodded slightly in approval, and asked, “And then?”

Qiao Feiyun then said, “Then you will set a time with the Chinese Chamber of Commerce for the dinner to start, say right after Gu Qiuyi’s arrival in New York and before the New York concert, so that we can ensure that Gu Qiuyi will be in New York at that time and will most likely be able to find the time to attend;”

“I presume that the Chinese Chamber of Commerce is now busy with the publicity and matchmaking related to Gu Qiuyi’s concert, but they dare not neglect you even more, so both matters will definitely be on the highest level by then;”

“So, you can easily and naturally hear about Gu Qiuyi’s concert from them in the process of docking with them;”

“When the time comes, you should go along with it, mention it to the Chinese Chamber of Commerce, and say that Miss Gu is the light of the Chinese, if she can appreciate her face, it will certainly have a great impact on the auction, and if she can appreciate her face, you personally pledge an additional twenty million dollars, when Gu Qiuyi knows about it, the probability is that she will appreciate her face!”

This way, we will have enough time to prepare the venue, so we can dig a foolproof trap in advance, and if we can lure Gu Qiuyi out, it will be easy to deal with her! ”

When Fei Hao Yang heard this, his eyes lit up!

He said with a look of admiration, “What a great way to lure a snake out of a hole, brilliant!”

After saying that, he hurriedly asked again, “Feiyun, what do you think the chances of her falling for it are?”

Qiao Feiyun thought about it and said seriously, “I think it’s at least 90%!”

Fei Hao Yang asked, “Why are you so sure?”

Qiao Feiyun explained, “Young Master Fei, think about it, Gu Qiuyi is passionate about charity, so if we hold a charity dinner, isn’t that just like throwing a charity dinner? If you don’t even go to the charity dinner when you are invited, you will be scolded to death. I believe this matter will most likely be agreed by Gu Qiuyi by then.”

When Fei Hao Yang heard this, he nodded his head in delight and said, “It makes sense, it does make sense! Then I will communicate with the Chinese Chamber of Commerce tomorrow to set the charity dinner in motion!”

Qiao Feiyun instructed, “Young Master Fei, once this matter is finalised, you must immediately launch a public opinion campaign to let all North American Chinese know about this charity dinner, so that if Gu Qiuyi intends to refuse, the influence of the charity dinner will also put more pressure on her!”

Chapter 4107

Fei Hao Yang said approvingly, “Yun Fei, it’s still you! After you said that, I’m really f*cking enlightened!”

Qiao Feiyun said with a smile, “You’re welcome, Master Fei. I’m just a little smart, I’m no match for you.”

Fei Hao Yang laughed and asked, “If Gu Qiuyi agrees to attend the charity dinner, how should we proceed?”

Qiao Feiyun said, “This is much simpler, after Gu Qiuyi arrives, we can arrange for her to go to the lounge first, when the lounge is as close to the window as possible, there is also a ventilation pipe, I arranged some trained armed personnel to ambush her in advance, when she enters the lounge, directly use LSD to knock her down, and then take her away through the window or ventilation pipe, unnoticed;”

“If the police come to investigate, you can just ask questions and say that it might be a long-standing conspiracy, and let the police investigate the rest!”

I will have someone leave some evidence and clues to interfere with the police, disguise this as an ordinary kidnapping for ransom, and then offer a huge ransom to Gu Qiuyi’s family, so that no one will suspect you, because after all, the Fei family has much more assets than the Gu family, and no one will believe that you would kidnap Gu Qiuyi to demand ransom.”

The ransom money will be paid out to the Gu family, but if we don’t get it, it doesn’t matter, I’ll leave a good backhand, so that if they fail, they’ll be dead and won’t leave any clues for the police.”

“In this way, we get the money after tearing the ticket, is the normal operation of the robbers; can not get the money to tear the ticket, is also the normal operation of the robbers; at that time, Gu Qiuyi may have destroyed the body, it is impossible for anyone to find her in this life, this case will inevitably become an unsolved case, even if the attention of people for decades, but still an unsolved case. ”

Fei Hao Yang couldn't help but laugh: "Wonderful! This way, Gu Qiuyi will disappear forever, leaving the police with such an unsolved kidnapping case that can never be solved, which might be discussed by internet users worldwide for decades, and even be listed as one of the top ten unsolved cases of the 21st century, it's fun to think about!"

After saying that, Fei Hao Yang remembered something and added, "Right Feiyun, what if she doesn't take the bait for the charity dinner, what will happen then?"

Qiao Feiyun was busy saying, "Young Master Fei, there are definitely many kinds of plans to be made, this is just one of them, if Gu Qiuyi doesn't take the bait, then we definitely have other alternative plans, it's just that I don't have a good idea of other plans yet, and I'm afraid that all other plans will be very difficult to execute."

Speaking of this, Qiao Feiyun added: "There are only a few opportunities suitable for us to strike, one is to do it on the road, and one is to do it in the hotel;"

"If we do it on the road, we will make the most noise, and considering that she must have quite a few security personnel accompanying her, it will definitely lead to a gun battle, and we will need to be equipped with at least a large number of automatic weapons in order to succeed, which should be much more difficult than robbing a money transport truck;"

"If we do it at the hotel, we'll have to do it quietly, preferably under the noses of the security personnel and unnoticed to get rid of the people ....."

Speaking of this, Qiao Feiyun smacked his lips and said, "It's just that this kind of thing requires too much skill ....." It seems that ordinary people can't do it ....."

Fei Hao Yang frowned slightly and asked, "Should we try the Japanese ninja? They seem to be the best at stealing chickens and dogs!"

Chapter 4108

"Ninja?" When Qiao Feiyun heard this, he was a bit stunned for a moment and couldn't help but ask, "Young Master Fei, do you know anything about Japanese ninjas?"

Fei Hao Yang nodded, "More or less, someone under my father's hand used to get Japanese ninjas to do things, and they were said to be quite good."

Qiao Feiyun was busy saying, "If there are reliable ninjas, you might as well invite some to New York first, but since they are acting as the executors of the alternative, we can't let them know exactly what they are going to do until the alternative is activated."

"Yes." Fei Hao Yang said with a smile, "Don't worry about this, I'll make the arrangements and have them send some top experts over first."

Saying that, Fei Hao Yang added, "Right Feiyun, having the ninjas wait for an opportunity to strike at the hotel is considered our plan b, but apart from that, we have to think of another plan c, just in case, I think intercepting Gu Qiuyi's convoy is also a way, you find a way to gather a group of mercenaries, just like those ninjas, just in case."

"Good!" Qiao Feiyun said without thinking, "Don't worry, Young Master Fei, I'll arrange these!"

Fei Hao Yang nodded in satisfaction and smiled, "Alright, that's all we'll talk about today, it's getting late, you get some rest early, I think this Gu Qiuyi will be coming to the US in a few days, so why don't you just don't go back to Seattle for now, and stay here peacefully these days."

When Qiao Feiyun heard this, he was naturally eager to do so and hurriedly said, "No problem Young Master Fei, I will not leave for the time being until I can help you take care of Gu Qiuyi."

At this moment, Ye Chen had already returned to the hotel in Providence.

Only when Xiao Churan saw that he had returned safely did her hanging heart finally drop, and then she eagerly asked some details about Ye Chen's trip to Canada this time.

Ye Chen did not want her to worry, so he made the seriousness of the matter as weak as possible.

In the end, it came out of his mouth that the matter was just a little bit trivial, only that the young girl who had sent him the text message had overreacted a little bit.

Xiao Churan heard Ye Chen's words and naturally believed it to be true, after all, in her opinion, Canada, an old developed country, is not as chaotic as the United States, and Li Xiaofen, a girl, would not offend anyone in her daily life, so naturally she could not encounter any real danger.

So, the matter was over with Xiao Churan.

The following day, Xiao Churan's master cla*s at the Rhode Island School of Design officially began.

The news of the new master cla*s had aroused great interest in the design community, and the Rhode Island School of Design had also officially announced the list of students for the master cla*s.

As the industry's most talked-about advanced training course, the Master Cla*s list has always been a key focus for the industry, as it is customary for those who make it onto the list to become rising stars in the design field in a month's time.

Xiao Churan's name has also created a lot of interest and discussion in the field of Chinese designers.

This is mainly because, apart from Xiao Churan, all the people in this master cla*s are already established in the field of design, and a casual search on the internet will reveal some successful cases they have completed independently.

Xiao Churan was the only one who was not famous at all, so many Chinese designers were curious to know how he had been selected for this master cla*s.

This also put a lot of psychological pressure on Xiao Churan, who could also feel the gap between herself and the others in the cla*s, so from the first day onwards, she worked harder and more seriously than anyone else in the course of listening to the cla*s.

It was also on the day that Xiao Churan's master cla*s started that Fei Hao Yang took the initiative to approach the president of the New York Chinese Chamber of Commerce, Lu Si Nian, in order to prepare early.

Lu Si Nian is forty-eight years old and is a sixth generation Chinese American.

Chapter 4109

His great-great-great grandfather came across the ocean to the United States in the late Qing Dynasty and was one of the many Chinese workers who participated in the construction of the American Pacific Railroad.

From that generation onwards, the Lu family took root in the United States through the hard-working qualities of the Chinese people.

In the earliest days, the Lu family, who went to America as Chinese workers, were at the bottom of the pecking order in American society at that time.

Now, the Lu family has a family fortune of tens of billions of dollars in the United States, which is a model of Chinese struggle.

At the same time, the Lu family also carried forward the characteristics of the businessmen of the southeastern coastal generation in China, and were very keen to unite with their compatriots and develop as a group.

So, decades ago, Lu Si Nian's great grandfather founded the New York Chinese Chamber of Commerce, which has gradually become one of the largest Chinese chambers of commerce in the United States.

After Lu Si-nian became the president of the New York Chinese Chamber of Commerce, he worked to develop the New York Chinese Chamber of Commerce into the All-American Chinese Chamber of Commerce, and after his continuous communication and mediation with Chinese chambers of commerce around the world, most of the Chinese chambers of commerce in the United States were interested in merging and renaming the Chamber as the All-American Chinese Chamber of Commerce.

The majority of the Chinese Chambers of Commerce in the US are interested in merging and renaming themselves as the All American Chinese Chamber of Commerce, and Lu Si Nian is also fighting to become the first president of the All American Chinese Chamber of Commerce after the merger.

However, there are two other Chinese Chambers of Commerce that are no less powerful than the New York Chinese Chamber of Commerce, namely the Los Angeles Chinese Chamber of Commerce and the Chicago Chinese Chamber of Commerce.

How to compete with the presidents of these two Chinese Chambers of Commerce is a headache for Lu Si Nian recently.

Therefore, he has been thinking of ways to make the New York Chinese Chamber of Commerce more visible and more influential before the merger, so that he can pull ahead of the other two presidents.

It was for this reason that the Executive Vice President of the New York Chinese Chamber of Commerce (NYCC) had specifically approached the NYCC for the collaboration of Gu Qiuyi's concert, much to Lu's delight.

When he was waiting impatiently and eagerly for Gu Qiuyi to come to America, he did not expect the youngest son of the Fei family, Fei Hao Yang, to take the initiative to approach him.

In the United States, there are two major Chinese families that all Chinese chambers of commerce are eager to enlist.

Although the Fei family is far less powerful than the An family, it is still a great deal stronger than the other Chinese families in North America. The An family does not care to participate in such chambers of commerce, so the Fei family also follows suit and plays it safe.

Previously, Lu Si Nian had repeatedly tried to invite Fei Xue Bin, Fei Hao Yang's father, to dinner, but Fei Xue Bin had never given him the face.

Now, when Fei Hao Yang took the initiative to come to his door, Lu Si Nian was naturally excited to the point of no return, and respectfully invited the young Fei Hao Yang to his office.

As soon as he arrived at his office, he said solicitously, "Oh, I didn't know that Mr. Fei was here today, so I'm really sorry to have missed you so much! It is a great honour for you to come to the New York Chinese Chamber of Commerce."

He introduced himself and said, "Mr. Fei, my name is Lu Si Nian and I am the President of the New York Chinese Chamber of Commerce!"

Fei Hao Yang was very pleased with this compliment, smiled slightly and said, "President Lu, I heard that our New York Chinese Chamber of Commerce is the largest Chinese Chamber of Commerce in the United States, and I think President Lu must be credited for this!"

Lu Sinian hurriedly said, "Aiya, Mr. Fei is very complimentary ..... The New York Chinese Chamber of Commerce has been around for decades, and it is thanks to the previous presidents that the Chamber has been able to achieve what it has today."

Saying that, Lu Si Nian carefully asked, "Mr. Fei, I wonder what is the reason for your big visit today?"

Fei Hao Yang smiled slightly and said arrogantly, "I came to see you because I want to do some cooperation with your New York Chinese Chamber of Commerce, and if the cooperation is pleasant, I can consider representing the Fei family and formally joining your Chamber of Commerce!"

Chapter 4110

Fei Hao Yang's light-hearted words were like a thunderstorm to Lu Si Nian's ears.

If we look at the entire United States, there is no other Chinese Chamber of Commerce that can invite a family of the magnitude of the Fei family.

After all, for many associations, the Fei family's assets alone might be more than the entire assets of all the members of the entire association combined, and under such circumstances, the Fei family would naturally be unwilling to play along with them.

The difference was like a billionaire who could not possibly join a club of millionaires whose assets per capita were only one or two million.

However, Fei Hao Yang came to the door and offered to join the New York Chinese Chamber of Commerce, and when Lu Si Nian heard this, he was naturally thrilled beyond measure.

So he hurriedly asked respectfully, "Young Master Fei, I wonder what kind of cooperation you want to engage in with us? Don't worry, as long as you say the word, the entire New York Chinese Chamber of Commerce will give its full support!"

Fei Hao Yang nodded and said with a smile, "I am trying to do some charity work with you guys."

"Charity?" Lu Si Nian asked in astonishment, "Young Master Fei, you ..... What kind of charity do you want to do? How do you need us to cooperate?"

Fei Hao Yang said with a serious face, "I want to set up a North American Chinese orphan relief fund and take out a sum of money to specifically support our Chinese orphans in North America, to provide them with better relief and guarantee their lives and education."

"Oops!" Lu Sinian exclaimed, "Young Master Fei, you are doing a great service! Although there are not many Chinese orphans in North America, once they do become orphans, the situation is quite a bit more difficult than that of orphans at home, and if a charity fund is set up specifically for them, it will mean a lot to them!"

Saying that, Lu Si Nian was busy asking, "Young Master Fei, how do we need to cooperate in this matter?"

Fei Hao Yang said seriously, "My idea is that I will pay for a charity dinner, invite some Chinese entrepreneurs in New York, and then we will all donate some money together, and this charity fund will be officially established. The Chinese have to help the Chinese in such matters! That's why I thought of your Chinese Chamber of Commerce."

I am going to start with 20 million US dollars, and then we will see if our compatriots in the Chinese Chamber of Commerce can also contribute."

Lu Sinian said without thinking, "Don't worry, Young Master Fei, our Chinese Chamber of Commerce is naturally obliged to contribute to such matters."

Fei Hao Yang said, "There is no need to donate too much, this time I plan to adopt a pledging system, from the day this charity fund is established, I will personally bear half of all the funds, and the remaining half will be raised from the whole society."

Lu Si Nian nodded: "No problem, our Chinese Chamber of Commerce has over two hundred members, it's still easy to raise twenty million dollars!"

After saying this, Lu Sinian asked, "Young Master Fei, when do you plan to hold this charity dinner?"

Fei Hao Yang said, "My current plan is the evening of the 11th, and the venue will be the banquet hall of the Wangfu Hotel in New York, but for this charity dinner, I have to ask Chairman Lu to arrange for some manpower to help with the preparations, as if it is a joint effort."

Wangfu Hotel, a Chinese five-star hotel brand of the Fei family, has more than three hundred Chinese style five-star hotels in many countries around the world, and has developed very rapidly overseas over the years, and has become the most well-known Chinese hotel brand in the world.
