Chapter 4121

Then, Yohiko Ito, who had the last laugh, put a lot of pressure on the Iga family, making it difficult for them to fight.

It was only when the Iga clan's strength plummeted that Yohiko Ito threw in the towel on the shattered ninja clan.

Hattori Hanzo, the current head of the Iga clan, was forced to submit to the Ito clan for the sake of the Iga clan's future.

The name Hattori Hanzo is really more of a title, and every head of the Iga clan, upon inheriting the clan, changes his or her real name to Hattori Hanzo.

At this moment, this current Hattori Hanzo had just received a phone call from an American.

On the phone, the American, who was a stranger, gave him an offer he could hardly refuse.

That American was willing to offer eight Iga ninja eight million dollars to carry out a mission in the United States.

Although the other party did not specify exactly what the mission was, the offer of eighty million dollars still made Hattori Hanzo's heart flutter.

Since the destruction of the Matsumoto clan, the Iga clan's life had become increasingly difficult, and although they were now subservient to the Ito clan, they were not well received by the Ito clan, so few missions were given to them.

As a result, the Iga clan's financial shortfall is growing.

With the ninja and their families, and the youngsters in training, the Iga family has hundreds of people to feed, and the daily expenses are astronomical.

Not being able to earn money means that many people cannot continue their careers as ninja, and will eventually have to drift into other fields, leading to a decline in the family's talent.

So, this US$80 million mission instantly excited Hattori Hanzo beyond belief.

If this money came to him, it would be enough for the Iga clan to live on a shoestring for three years!

So he agreed to it almost without a second thought, the only condition being a deposit of at least fifty per cent up front.

The American client was no slouch either.

Within an hour, the huge sum of US$40 million had been credited to the Iga family's account.

At the same time, the client demanded that their ninja arrive in New York within two days.

Hattori Hanzo knew in his heart that since the other party had given such a large sum of money, it proved that the matter was either extremely dangerous or sinister.

Just like when he had worked with Ryojin Matsumoto, the high rewards came with high risks.

So he even thought that the other party was probably just like Ryojin Matsumoto, who had asked his family's ninja to do something extremely sinister and poisonous.

However, at this moment, he no longer had the heart to hesitate too much.

For, the entire Iga clan needed money too much to keep going.

Otherwise, this ninja clan, which had been in power since the 16th century alongside Tokugawa Ieyasu, would probably have to leave the stage of the four great ninja clans altogether.

Hattori Hanzo has no choice but to keep the family alive!

Chapter 4122

The US$80 million promised to the Iga family by Qiao Feiyun was paid in two instalments.

A 50% deposit was paid first, while the remaining 50% would have to wait for the successful conclusion of the mission.

Moreover, Qiao Feiyun gave a promise of an additional US$2 million pension for each person in the event of a death.

Hattori Hanzo had sent his only son, Hattori Kazuo, to ensure that the mission would be completed successfully.

This time, he specifically asked Ichio Hattori to lead the team to the United States to complete the mission, in order to ensure that the mission would be completed as smoothly and triumphantly as possible.

He called Kazuo Hattori to his study and told him the situation, "Kazuo, pick seven of your best men and go to America as soon as possible!"

Kazuo Hattori said with some concern, "Father, since we have pledged our allegiance to the Ito family, we should first report this to the Ito family and ask for their approval, right? Otherwise, if they know that we are acting without permission, I am afraid there will be some trouble."

Hattori Hanzo waved his hand and said in a cold voice, "Don't worry about the Ito clan, they don't care about us Iga ninja. If this continues, we will sooner or later starve to death!"

When we set off for China, she never told us who our enemy was going to be. This is clearly a trick to send us to our deaths!"

Hattori Kazuo said, "Father, you don't have to understand this matter so well. It is likely that Miss Ito had already known in her heart that Young Master Ye would win and was just asking us to go and make up a crowd."

Hattori Hanzo snorted coldly, "No matter what, that woman has been hiding something from us, and this matter makes me very unhappy in my heart!"

Saying that, Hattori Hanzo looked at Hattori Kazuo and said with unparalleled seriousness, "Kazuo, you should know that the top families in the country now are no longer in the era of the tripod"

"When there was a tripod, it was when the three clans held each other in check, guarded each other and targeted each other, that the importance of our ninja was reflected"

"But now, the Ito family has laughed all the way to the end, if you look at all of Japan, except for the Yamaguchi group, no one is a rival of the Ito family anymore, in this situation, how can the Ito family still need ninja?"

"What's more, the four ninja clans are all loyal to the Ito clan, but the Ito clan basically no longer needs ninja, which leads to everyone's economy being stretched to the limit, if this continues, everyone will starve to death, if no one needs ninja and no one pays for ninja, I'm afraid ninja will all die out!"

"We We can't ask the Japanese government for subsidies and turn ninja into an intangible cultural heritage, can we?"

"In that case, wouldn't you, the descendants of the great ninja, have to spend your days in tourist attractions, performing ninjutsu for the tourists to earn money?"

"How would we be able to live up to our ancestors?"

Hattori Kazuo was speechless.

What his father had said was not alarmist; ninjutsu, a profession that had become very marginal in modern society, had survived because there were large families willing to pay for them.

Chapter 4123

But once the great families stopped paying for the ninja, then the profession lost its ground of survival.

Therefore, the Iga family, as it is now, would have to find a way to stand on its own feet.

With this in mind, his expression also turned serious as he bowed and said, "Father-sama, I understand what you have in mind! Please rest assured that I will do my utmost to complete this mission!"

Hattori Hanzo nodded in satisfaction and admonished, "Kazuo, when you go to America this time, you must be careful to keep a low profile, and when you enter the country, do not use your original identity, let alone let the Ito family know about it."

At this point, Hattori Hanzo added, "I want you to go to America this time, I also want you to examine the situation in America, the environment for ninja to survive in Japan is already harsh, but America will definitely be much better, if it is suitable, we might as well bring all of the Iga family to America!"

"To America?!" Hattori Kazuo's eyes widened and he blurted out, "Father, the situation in America is very complicated The local gangs are intricate, and the gangs formed by European, African, and Asian immigrants there are exceptionally strong in combat, and with the proliferation of guns in America, our ninja advantage will be greatly diminished when we get there."

"No." Hattori Hanzo shook his head, "It is the fact that everyone relies on guns to solve their problems that will show our unique ninja advantage, otherwise our employers on the American side wouldn't have gone to such great lengths to invite us over this time! This proves that there must be a market and a demand for ninjas in America, so you can examine them properly before making a decision once you arrive.”

Hattori Kazuo nodded respectfully, “Yes father, I understand!”

Ever since Ye Chen had agreed to accompany Gu Qiuyi to the charity dinner, he had been thinking about what kind of reason he should use to explain this matter to Xiao Churan.

Because, not only did he have to accompany Gu Qiuyi to the dinner on the 11th, he also promised Gu Qiuyi that he would go to New York and Boston to support her concerts on the 15th and 17th, respectively.

The concerts were easy, after all, his wife Xiao Churan also liked Gu Qiuyi very much, so if he took her to the concerts, she would definitely be very excited.

The hard part was how to explain to his wife about going to New York on the 11th.

Just when Ye Chen had not thought of a good wording, Xiao Churan told him cheerfully, “Honey! Gu Qiuyi is coming to America for a concert!”

Ye Chen asked curiously, “You just found out about it?”

“Yes.” Xiao Churan said, “I’ve been so busy with training these past few days that I rarely pay attention to these news, I only found out about it today because I happened to see the promotional posters at school”

The first time I saw the posters, I found out about them. Gu Qiuyi has a concert in New York on the 15th and in Boston on the 17th, Boston is the closest to us, will you accompany me to see it”

Ye Chen then went along with her words and said with a smile, “If you really want to see it so badly, then why don’t you go to both shows.”

“Huh?” Xiao Churan said in surprise, “Isn’t going to both shows a little too greedy, And, And tickets must be hard to buy too, Especially the New York station, New York has a large population and many rich people, so I guess it’s hard to grab tickets, Boston might be easier.”

Ye Chen then smiled and said, “Aiya, then your luck is really good, Gu Qiuyi’s team is saying that they want me to go to New York to inspect the feng shui of the New York concert venues, I was hesitating to say yes, since you want to see her concerts, then I’ll help you get the tickets for these two concerts along with it!”

Chapter 4124

“Really?!”

Xiao Churan was surprised to hear Ye Chen’s words and asked, “Honey, Gu Qiuyi’s team is really going to invite you to New York to see feng shui?!”

Ye Chen nodded and said in a serious manner, "Of course, I'm a famous Master Ye. They originally thought I was in China and were worried that I wouldn't be willing to come, but it just so happened that I was in the United States and not too far away, so they said a thousand things and had to invite me over."

Although Xiao Churan was very excited, she was also a bit puzzled and asked, "Honey, do you need to look at feng shui for a concert?"

Ye Chen laughed: "The entertainment industry is most concerned about feng shui, not only do residential companies need to do a good feng shui layout, movies and TV shows have to have an opening ceremony before they start shooting, touring concerts like this, in order to ensure that the subsequent performances go smoothly, the first show must do enough work on feng shui, just like the opening ceremony, to make a good fortune."

In fact, Ye Chen didn't know if the singer would do feng shui before the concert, but at the moment, he could only use the reason of looking at feng shui to dispel Xiao Churan's doubts.

Xiao Churan also did not suspect much and nodded, "In that case, then husband, you must take a good look at Miss Gu, this tour is her last tour before she permanently retires from the entertainment industry, it is very significant and must not leave any regrets."

Ye Chen nodded and smiled, "Don't worry wife, I will do my best to help them get the feng shui right when the time comes."

Saying that, Ye Chen added, "Right wife, it won't take me too long to go to New York to see the feng shui, I'll go there in the afternoon of the 11th and I should be back in the evening."

Xiao Churan asked him, "Will it be too tiring to come back at night, you still have to drive for three hours, if it's too late, why don't you just rest in New York for the night?"

However, Ye Chen did not plan to spend the night in New York, and if he took a helicopter on the way back and forth, he could also buy himself some more time.

Two days later.

Once they arrived in New York, they checked in at the Wangfu Hotel as Qiao Feiyun had requested.

Once they had checked in without incident, Kazuo Hattori received a phone call from his employer, Qiao Feiyun, who told him to bring his men to the hotel's banquet building immediately.

Kazuo Hattori thought that his employer was hosting a banquet for them, but as soon as they arrived at the banquet building, they saw a notice on the entrance of the banquet building that it was closed for business.

The notice stated that the banquet hall of the Wangfu Hotel was closed due to a malfunction in the fresh air ventilation system.

It seemed logical to everyone that the hotel's hardware was in need of repair, so no one cared.

Just as Kazuo Hattori was surprised, a young man of Asian descent came out, looked at Kazuo Hattori and asked, "Excuse me, is this Mr. Hattori from Japan?"

Kazuo Hattori hurriedly bowed and said, "Yes, it's me!"

The other man nodded and spoke, "Please come with me."

Chapter 4125

Kazuo Hattori and eight others followed the depressed young man into the banquet building.

At that moment, there was not even a single staff member in sight inside the banquet building, let alone anyone doing maintenance.

The young man led them through the large banquet hall, then passed several empty boxes with open doors, and finally stopped at the door of a box with a closed door.

With that, the young man knocked on the door and spoke, "Mr. Yun, Mr. Hattori and the others have arrived."

Inside the box, Qiao Feiyun said aloud, "Invite them in!"

The young man immediately pushed open the door and said to Hattori Kazuo, "Mr. Hattori, please do."

Hattori Kazuo also saw Qiao Feiyun in the room at this time.

He did not know Qiao Feiyun before today, nor had he seen any reports related to him in any media, so he was curious about this Qiao Feiyun in front of him.

However, he did not gawk at Qiao Feiyun too much, but said very respectfully, "Hello Mr. Yun, I am Hattori Kazuo, the son of this Hattori Hanzo of the Iga ninja!"

Qiao Feiyun nodded with a smile and said, "Mr. Hattori, I have heard a lot about your Iga ninja, and today I finally get to meet you!"

Hattori Kazuo bowed and said, "Mr. Yun, you flatter me!"

Qiao Feiyun smiled slightly, looked at Hattori Kazuo and said seriously, "Mr. Hattori, I am not going to be polite with you, let's get right to the point, I invited you to New York because I want you to help me kidnap someone."

Hattori Kazuo immediately said in a loud voice, "Please don't worry, Mr. Yun, there is an old Chinese saying, take money from others, and we Iga ninja have always done the same."

Saying that, Hattori Kazuo added, "However, I still need some more detailed clues from you, Mr. Yun, such as who the person I need to kidnap is and where he is, so that I can carry out further investigation and formulate a plan of action!"

“No need to go to such trouble!” Qiao Feiyun shook his head with a smile and waved his hand, “There will be a charity dinner here on the night of the 11th in three days’ time, at that time, the target person you want to kidnap will be placed in this lounge, at the entrance of the room, there should be at least four bodyguards guarding the room, as for the room, there should only be the target person and her entourage;”

“And all you have to do is to take out all the bodyguards outside silently, and then take out everyone in this room except the target, after that, you carry the bodies of the bodyguards into the room, and then take the target away from here silently;”

Speaking here, Qiao Feiyun instructed, “By the way, the target person you can make her unconscious, but you must leave her alive for me, and she must not be injured.”

Hattori Kazuo looked around the room and said, “Mr. Yun, this room doesn’t have any windows, so if we do it in here and take the person away, then we may only have one option left, the ventilation duct, can you show me the design blueprint first?”

Qiao Feiyun shook his head, “You don’t need to go through the trouble of the ventilation duct, I will give you the details of a man, that man’s name is Chen Fu, he is the supervisor here, you just find the opportunity to kidnap all his family members and force him to bring you into the banquet site.”

With that, Qiao Feiyun then told Hattori Kazuo his general plan, after making appropriate deletions.

After listening to it, although Hattori Kazuo’s heart was a little appalled, he still nodded gently and said, “I understand the general process, first kidnap Chen Fu’s family, let Chen Fu arrange for us to work as waiters at the banquet hall on the 11th, then take the opportunity to take the target away from here, and after handing them over to you at the pier, we will leave New York by boat. ”

Saying that, Qiao Feiyun added, “You guys get familiar with the place first, see how to kill and transport people out and still make sure it’s silent, if there’s anything you need, just ask!”

Chapter 4126

The first thought that came to Hattori Kazuo’s mind after he had thoroughly surveyed the scene was that this mission seemed a little too easy.

You know that when they helped Ryojin Matsumoto to kidnap Su Zhi Fei and Su Zhi Yu, the mission was much more difficult than this.

That time it was to silently take out all of the Su family’s entourage and then take the Su siblings away from a building several dozen storeys high, this mission as a whole seemed much easier than that one.

That operation against the Su siblings had also involved Kazuo Hattori, only after the mission was successful, he did not take the siblings to Kyoto.

So, this mission was not technically difficult in his eyes.

After exploring the scene as a whole, Hattori Kazuo asked Qiao Feiyun, “Mr. Yun, I wonder if you can reveal any information about the target person this time?”

Qiao Feiyun said indifferently, "You don't need to know the identity of the target for the time being, I will tell you on the 11th."

According to Qiao Feiyun's plan, the matter of inviting Gu Qiuyi to the charity dinner was to be kept absolutely confidential at all times.

Even the word of communication with Gu Qiuyi was for her to attend as a mystery guest, which would not only increase the mystery of the charity dinner, but also ensure that Gu Qiuyi would not be tracked down and chattered by the media and fans when she came.

When Gu Qiuyi arrived, the pre-arranged staff would bring her and her entourage directly into the lounge, and a special VIP lane was prepared for her, so that Gu Qiuyi's motorcade could park directly in the backyard of the ballroom and enter the lounge directly through the back door.

That way, even the members of the New York Chinese Chamber of Commerce who were attending the charity dinner that night did not know that the famous Gu Qiuyi would be under the same roof as them.

Therefore, it was even more unlikely that Qiao Feiyun would let Kazuo Hattori know the target of the kidnapping in advance.

Moreover, what Qiao Feiyun did not know was that Hattori Kazuo not only knew about Gu Qiuyi, but also personally liked Gu Qiuyi's works and was considered a fan of Gu Qiuyi.

Not only that, back at the time on Ye Ling Mountain, Hattori Kazuo had personally seen Gu Qiuyi appearing next to Ye Chen.

If he had known that the target of the kidnapping was Gu Qiuyi, he would have left the United States without saying a word.

In his heart, he knew that although money was a good thing, he had to have a life to spend.

Hattori Kazuo, who was in the dark, saw that Qiao Feiyun was unwilling to reveal information about the target, so he stopped asking and changed the subject, asking, "By the way, Mr. Yun, may I ask what are the origins of the other party's bodyguards, are there any ninjas, or martial arts masters from China?"

"No." Qiao Feiyun said with certainty, "Her bodyguards, who are all from US-based security companies, are basically retired US Army Special Forces and Special Police."

Hattori Kazuo nodded gently.

The overall strength of the Iga ninja was considered the highest among the four major ninja clans in Japan, so the only thing he was actually afraid of in his heart was the martial arts experts of China.

In the past, he also did not put Chinese martial arts masters in his eyes, until he saw Ye Chen's strength with his own eyes on Mount Ye Ling, at that moment he realised that Japanese ninjutsu, in front of Chinese martial arts, was not worth mentioning at all.

After ascertaining that the target could not have a martial arts expert by his side, the only worry in Hattori Kazuo's heart was completely dispelled.

As far as he was concerned, he would be able to complete this mission with ease and return home in triumph.

The day after Kazuo Hattori arrived in New York with the Iga ninja, Gu Qiuyi arrived on a chartered plane with her own team of over 100 performers.

There was a lot of enthusiasm from Chinese people all over the United States, and many American fans were also excited.

When the plane arrived at JFK, thousands of fans went to the airport to greet them.

The scene was so big that it caused traffic and order chaos at the airport at one point.

It was a 40-minute drive from JFK to the Buckingham Palace Hotel in New York where Gu Qiuyi was staying.

However, due to the frenzy of the fans, it took two and a half hours for Gu Qiuyi to arrive at the hotel.

And before she even arrived at the hotel, many local American media had already reported the riot at the airport.

However, these media basically could not believe that a Chinese female singer had such a strong fan base in the United States.

Chapter 4127

After all, they had always felt that American singers were the global leaders of pop music.

Therefore, the high-minded ones thought to themselves that a Chinese female singer could not possibly have such a strong influence.

Some local media even deliberately questioned and questioned, thinking that the fans who met her at the airport must all be groupies hired by Gu Qiuyi's agency at their expense.

Gu Qiuyi also responded to these Western media's questions with strength.

Tickets for her New York and Boston concerts opened on time, three hours after her arrival in the US.

The two concerts, with a total of 90,000 tickets, were instantly snapped up in less than a minute, generating sales of over US$100 million!

Although the US performance market is mature, the star base is also very large, so it is difficult for most shows to sell out, and even if they could, it would be impossible to sell out in such a short period of time.

This piece of news instantly made headlines in all the entertainment media in the US.

Even Gu Qiuyi's North American partners for this tour did not expect her concert to have such strong box office appeal.

This instantly made Gu Qiuyi the hottest topic in the entire American entertainment industry, bar none.

The day after she arrived in the US, Gu Qiuyi attended a press conference organised by her agency, her first public appearance since arriving in the US.

It was broadcast live on major media outlets across the United States and gathered tens of millions of simultaneous viewers on television as well as on multiple online platforms, once again showing American society the influence of this Chinese diva.

When Kazuo Hattori saw the news on television, his first thought was surprisingly regretful that he did not have the opportunity to stay in New York and see Gu Qiuyi's concert with his own eyes.

After all, Gu Qiuyi's concert started on the 15th, and he, after completing his mission on the 11th night, had to leave the United States overnight.

With this regret in mind, Kazuo Hattori led seven of his men to kidnap the nine members of Chen Fu's family, the general manager of the Wangfu Hotel banquet hall, from their home in New York.

After these nine people were taken to the suburbs, Qiao Feiyun arranged for a container truck to load all nine people into it and pulled them out of New York in one go, stopping at an abandoned container yard.

After work, Chen Fu drove his Mercedes sedan back home and was surprised to find that the house, which had been noisy all the time, was empty.

His wife was not there, his four children were not there, and his parents and two Chinese nannies were also unaccounted for.

However, the house as a whole was very tidy and did not look like any accident had happened.

Just as Chen Fu pulled out his mobile phone to call his wife and ask her what had happened, his phone rang first.

Surprisingly, it was a video call from his wife.

Without any hesitation, Chen Fu immediately pressed the answer button. The moment the screen was connected, his whole body was struck by lightning, his legs went limp and he fell to the ground with a poof.

In the video, his parents, wife and children, as well as his two nannies, were all hanging in a container, their mouths were wrapped in black tape and they could only struggle while letting out painful whimpers.

At this point, a ninja's voice came over the video: "If you want your family to live, then don't call the police, and don't alert anyone, and do as we say.

At this point, the other party changed his tone and said in a cold voice, "However, if you dare to call the police or tell anyone else about this matter, then this is what will happen to them!"

As soon as the words left his mouth, a dagger flew out of the video screen and plunged into the eyebrow of one of the nannies with great speed!

The nanny, who was still struggling, stopped moving instantly and died completely.

The nanny, who was still struggling, instantly stopped moving and died completely. Her expression was distorted with fear and she couldn't rest in peace

Chapter 4128

At this moment, Chen Fu was so frightened that he almost cried out in pain.

He had no time to mourn for his tragically dead nanny, so he went mad and pleaded bitterly into the phone, "I beg you not to hurt my family, I will definitely agree to whatever conditions you ask"

The other party said with satisfaction, "I hope you can be as cooperative as you say you are, if you dare to play small with us, I guarantee you won't even see your family's corpses!"

Chen Fu cried, "I will cooperate I will cooperate! Please tell me exactly what you need me to do!"

The other party said indifferently, "Go and open the door now, my leader will communicate with you face to face."

Chen Fu listened and faintly froze, then immediately afterwards, he heard the doorbell ring.

He panicked and said into the phone, "I am going to open the door"

The other party said in a cold voice: "Chen Fu, remember what I told you, if you dare to play small, all your family members will die a miserable death!"

After saying that, the other party simply hung up the phone.

Chen Fu, who was paralyzed, rolled and crawled to the door and opened it with great difficulty.

As soon as the door opened, he saw Hattori Kazuo standing outside the door.

Hattori Kazuo had actually been waiting near Chen Fu's house for his return, so they could time it right and call him as soon as he arrived home, in case he called the police or informed others.

However, Hattori Kazuo had already given his face a disguise before coming over this time.

Japanese ninjas had been studying the art of disguise since hundreds of years ago, and with the aid of various technological materials nowadays, their disguise had become so refined that it was impossible for ordinary people to see any clues.

That was why Hattori Ichigo dared to come to see Chen Fu in such a brazen manner.

The moment Chen Fu saw Hattori Kazuo, he fell to his knees and cried, "I beg you to let my family go I beg you"

Hattori Kazuo stepped forward directly, helped him up with one hand, closed the door to the room with the other, and dragged him right to the living room sofa.

After that, Hattori Kazuo threw Chen Fu on the sofa and sat himself opposite him, saying indifferently, "Chen Fu, if you want to save your family, the only chance you have is to cooperate with me, as long as you cooperate with me obediently, after the matter is completed, I will definitely send your family back."

Chen Fu hurriedly said, "You name it, as long as you can send my family back safely, let me do anything!"

Hattori Kazuo nodded and said indifferently, "What I want you to do is simple, on the night of the 11th, there is a charity dinner in your banquet hall, I need you to arrange for me and my people to go in as waiters, you just need to arrange us in smoothly, and you will be considered to have completed your task."

When Chen Fu heard this, he immediately turned pale with fear.

He did not know that Gu Qiuyi would be one of the guests at this charity dinner, he only knew that this charity dinner was organized by his own young master, Fei Hao Yang, together with the Chinese Chamber of Commerce.

So when he heard Hattori Kazuo's words, his first thought was that these people must be trying to do harm to Fei Hao Yang!

Thinking of this, he said in a panic, "The owner behind the Wangfu Hotel is very powerful, you'd better not mess with otherwise"

Hattori Kazuo rudely interrupted him and said in a cold voice, "If you still want your family to live, don't talk such nonsense to me, just tell me if you can do what I ask?!"

Chen Fu said with a sobbing voice: "If you are going to do anything bad and I take you in, they will not spare me afterwards"

Hattori Kazuo smiled and said, "Then perhaps you can sacrifice yourself for the safety of your family."

Chen Fu asked him rhetorically, "Even if I did what you said, what guarantee do you have that my family will be released?!"

Hattori Kazuo laughed, "In this matter, you can only choose to trust me, I can't give you any guarantee other than a promise."

Chapter 4129

With that, Hattori Kazuo turned his words and said in a stern voice, "To begin with, if you don't do as I say, your family will definitely die!"

Then, Hattori Kazuo's expression eased a little more instantly and said seriously, "Chen Fu, I am not some kind of psychopathic murderer either, I just want to finish my mission and leave the US safely with the money, so I don't need to kill your family."

Chen Fu said warily, "Who knows if you will kill people after the deed is done? In the vast majority of kidnapping cases, the kidnapers will kill the hostages to avoid exposure!"

"Exterminate?" Hattori Ichigo laughed contemptuously and said, "Use your head Chen Fu, I came to see you today in my real face, and I will also appear at the banquet hall in my real face on the night of the 11th, and I will also be caught by all the surveillance cameras in the banquet hall then. Isn't that self-deceiving?"

Hearing this, Chen Fu also more or less believed in Hattori Kazuo's words in his heart.

According to his conventional understanding of criminals, the reason for killing to silence them was to avoid exposure, and Hattori Kazuo's words did make sense, since they were themselves meant to be exposed, killing to silence them was tantamount to covering one's ears.

Thinking of this, he looked at Kazuo Hattori and said offhandedly, "Yes! I promise you! Please make sure you don't hurt my family!"

"Don't worry." Hattori Kazuo smiled faintly and said seriously, "On the night of the 11th, my men will feed and drink your family, then hide the container in an absolutely safe place, and when I leave the United States, I will send you the location of the container, and you will be able to rescue them that night."

Speaking of this, Hattori Kazuo added thoughtfully, "Chen Fu, after we leave, the police will probably look for you to investigate and even list you as a suspect, you don't have to be afraid, just tell the truth, you can even directly tell the police the location of the container and let them help you to rescue your family, this way they will also believe more in what you say, I believe that even if they believe that even if they hold you responsible, it won't be too heavy, at most you will go to jail for a few years, but your family will all be able to survive safely."

When Chen Fu heard this, he felt a little more grateful to Hattori Kazuo.

It was because he had not expected that these kidnapers would think so carefully about themselves, and they did seem to have some kindness in them.

It was also Hattori Kazuo's words of attack that had completely dispelled Chen Fu's doubts.

He then looked at Hattori Kazuo and said, "On the 11th night, bringing you to the banquet hall as a waiter, that's all I have to do, right?"

Hattori Kazuo laughed, "Not just me, but eight people, and as long as you get the eight of us in there, your job is done."

As far as I know, the charity dinner you are having on the 11th night will be very large, with at least two to three hundred guests present, and the dinner will be of a very high standard, so you will definitely need more staff, and when the time comes, you can tell the others that the eight of us are from other departments, or from other The other people will definitely not be suspicious."

Chen Fu nodded gently.

In order to maximise profits, the hotel really did not normally have a very sufficient number of staff, and usually needed and requisitioned them on an ad hoc basis.

In New York's free labour market, there are a large number of temporary workers who work one day and lie down for three days. As long as they don't have money to eat, they will work around to earn some living expenses.

One day they are working as a waiter in a hotel, the next day they are working as a dishwasher in a restaurant, and the next two days they are working as porters on a construction site.

So, if he arranged for eight temporary workers to come in at that time, he would certainly not arouse any suspicion.

Thinking of this, he gritted his teeth and said to Kazuo Hattori, "Fine! I promise you! I will definitely put you guys in when the time comes!"

Chapter 4130

Soon the time came for the eleventh.

Hidden beneath the busy morning rush of New York is an undercurrent that is surging at breakneck speed.

More than a thousand people from the Ten Thousand Dragons Temple had already arrived in New York, hiding in all corners of the city.

And both Qiao Feiyun and Fei Hao Yang were already waiting impatiently.

Early in the morning, Fei Hao Yang called Qiao Feiyun to his study and said excitedly and nervously, "Feiyun, almost all the headlines in the media these days are about Gu Qiuyi, if she disappears tonight, it will probably cause a global sensation immediately.

Qiao Feiyun nodded confidently and smiled, "Young Master Fei, the Iga ninjas have already taken care of Chen Fu, they will enter the hotel ballroom as temporary waiters today under Chen Fu's arrangement. All the tools they needed were already transported inside the ballroom last night with Chen Fu's help, and they will make their move on Gu Qiuyi tonight at around 7:20pm sharp."

At this time, everyone will be in the ballroom and the sound of the ballroom will form a perfect cover and barrier to ensure that when the ninjas make their move, no one else will notice the clues. "

"After they have won, they will immediately leave through the back door, and by the time your assistant goes to invite Gu Qiuyi to make her entrance at seven forty, they will find that everyone else is dead except Gu Qiuyi, and at that time, the scene will naturally be very chaotic, all you have to do is to call the police immediately and leave the rest to the police."

After they are buried in the Atlantic Ocean, the trail will be completely closed and no one will be able to find out what happened to Gu Qiuyi. "

"Good!"

Qiao Feiyun's words gave Fei Hao Yang a piece of mind, and he said with a smile, "Tonight, I'm going to let Gu Qiuyi have sex under me!"

The best thing for you to do is to put on a show, run around the police station to follow up on the case, appeal to all the Chinese in New York to pool their efforts, offer a big reward for useful information, etc., so as to leave a good impression on the public first. This time, the incident will bring a little negative impact to the Fei family, you have to find a way to make up for this negative impact."

Fei Hao Yang nodded approvingly and spoke, "Just do as you say!"

After saying that, Fei Hao Yang asked Qiao Fei Yun, "Fei Yun, what are your personal arrangements for tonight?"

Qiao Feiyun said, "Young Master Fei, I will personally wait at the pier tonight, the pier has prepared two boats, one to send those Japanese ninjas to see the Great God Amaterasu, and one to send Gu Qiuyi to my island, I will finish docking with those ninjas then escort Gu Qiuyi to the island."

"Good." Fei Hao Yang said with a wicked face, "Then wait for me on the island, I'll rush over there tomorrow after I'm done with the matter at hand!"

Meanwhile, three hundred kilometres away in Providence.

Ye Chen and Xiao Churan were having breakfast together in their hotel room.

Xiao Churan knew that Ye Chen was going to New York today, so she asked with concern, "Honey, when are you leaving for New York?"

Ye Chen looked at the time and said casually, "Let's leave around eleven o'clock."

Xiao Churan nodded and said, "Then take care of yourself on the way, I'll have something to eat at the school cafeteria at noon if you're not here, you go about your business, don't worry about me."

"Good." Ye Chen smiled slightly and said, "I'm sure I won't be able to make it back in time for dinner, so you can go back to the hotel after cla*s and call the catering department to order food, it's not very safe here in America, so don't eat out at night."

Xiao Churan nodded and said, "Don't worry, I'll go straight back to the hotel after cla*s this afternoon."

Ye Chen was not worried about Xiao Churan's personal safety, after all, Wan Bajun had planted a number of female soldiers from Wan Long Temple in the hotel to secretly protect Xiao Churan's safety, with these people around, he could also travel to New York without worry.

After breakfast, Xiao Churan cleaned up, said goodbye to Ye Chen and left for school.

Not long after Xiao Churan left, Gu Qiuyi called and asked impatiently, "Brother Ye Chen, when are you going to leave? The helicopter is ready and can pick you up from the hotel anytime."

Ye Chen looked at the time, it was just after nine o'clock, so he said, "There's no need to be in such a hurry, if you have something to do, just get busy first, I can wait until noon."

Gu Qiuyi said, "I'm not in a hurry, I'm waiting for you to come and have lunch with me, I've already booked the restaurant!"

Ye Chen was surprised and asked, "Nui Nui, don't you have to work during the day?"
