

Ye Chen 4161

Chapter 4161

After a short pause, Li Yalin added: "Take all the staff here tonight and check if there is a decrease in the number of people, and ask each one to identify the others to see if there are any missing or missing people!"

Li Yalin then said to Ye Chen, "Since you are the only indirect witnesses who were at the scene, although you are not exactly eyewitnesses, you will be of great help to us in solving the case, so later on you will have to go back with our police car and make a statement."

Ye Chen said, "Miss Gu is a public figure, and if she goes in and out of the police station at this time, in case word gets out, your American media will not know how to make up fake news to gain attention, it is not very convenient."

Saying that, Ye Chen added, "How about this, we go back to the hotel first, if you want to make a statement, come to the hotel, we will definitely cooperate fully."

Li Yalin nodded and said, "That's fine, once I've arranged things at the scene, I'll bring someone to visit the hotel."

Ye Chen asked him, "Then can we leave now?"

"Yes."

Fei Xuebin, who was at the side, said discontentedly, "My son is still unaccounted for, and until my son is found, no one is allowed to leave here!"

Ye Chen frowned and asked in return, "On what grounds?!"

After saying that, he didn't talk much to Fei Xuebin and immediately looked at Li Yalin and said seriously, "Inspector Li, I now seriously suspect that this matter is premeditated and the Fei family is highly suspect!"

Fei Xuebin gritted his teeth and roared, "What did you say?!"

Ye Chen repeated, "I said, the Fei family is highly suspicious!"

Fei Xuebin was annoyed in his heart and was about to speak up, but Li Yalin at the side asked very seriously, "Why do you think so?"

Ye Chen said seriously, "This matter itself is very strange, that young master of the Fei family, insisted on inviting Miss Gu to the charity dinner, but then deliberately said that he was going to invite her to be some kind of mystery guest, so the vast majority of people outside didn't even know that Miss Gu was here, and they also deliberately arranged for us to be in this kind of lounge without even a window, saying something about waiting for the right time before It's just a charity event, it doesn't seem necessary to go through all this trouble, does it? It seems like there's some kind of conspiracy."

Speaking of this, Ye Chen added: "Moreover, what's even weirder is that not long after we came in, there was no signal on our mobile phones, and there's still no signal now! I seriously suspect that someone has blocked the wireless communication here!"

Hearing this, Li Yalin subconsciously took out his mobile phone to take a look, and sure enough, there was no signal or service whatsoever!

He instantly frowned and shouted out of the blue, "Johnson, block off the entire banquet hall and use professional equipment to troubleshoot and see where the shield actually is!"

At this moment, a police officer quickly ran over and spoke, "Inspector, the surveillance records we just confirmed, all the surveillance footage near this lounge has been replaced ahead of time, using footage related to the last banquet five days ago."

Li Yalin frowned and asked, "Such a big problem, the security department didn't find it?!"

The officer replied, "We consulted the security guards on duty at the surveillance room, they said they didn't know there were important VIPs tonight and thought the VIP room was empty today, so their attention wasn't even near the VIP room, so when these surveillance probes were playing the video recorded a few days ago, they didn't notice anything unusual."

Hearing this, Ye Chen said in a cold voice, "I told you that this matter was premeditated, it was simply someone deliberately trying to hide the fact that Miss Gu had arrived here from everyone! Moreover, even if those few ninjas could have gotten in, they couldn't have gotten the surveillance footage from a few days ago, let alone hacked into the surveillance system, this is clearly an inside job!"

Fei Xuebin asked in astonishment, "Li Yalin, what does this mean? Do you suspect someone from the Fei family?"

Chapter 4162

Li Yalin had always been dissatisfied with Fei Xuebin.

On the one hand, he did not like Fei Xuebin, and on the other hand, he had heard that Fei Xuebin's father, Fei Shanhai, had taken advantage of the opportunity to seize power, and since he admired Fei Jianzhong and Fei Laozi, he had a strong dislike for Fei Shanhai and Fei Xuebin.

The main reason why Fei Xuebin could not do anything about Li Yalin was that Li Yalin was really famous and even had a very high political status in the White House.

Li Yalin is known as the light of the Chinese in the United States, and has even received an award from the current president for solving a serial murder case that lasted for ten years.

If anything happened to him, I am afraid that the Chinese in the US would stage a march to seek justice for him.

If he dared to do anything to Li Yalin, the Fei family would definitely suffer heavy losses.

At this time, Li Yalin looked at Fei Xuebin and said in a very when cold tone, "Fei Xuebin, although your son is missing now, in my opinion, your son may not be innocent of all these things today!"

As he said, he looked around at the week and said coldly, "You are a smart person, think about it yourself, a charity dinner could have been simple and straightforward, but your son had to go to such great lengths to pull off such a stunt, could he still have any good intentions?"

Fei Xuebin was speechless.

Although he was an uncaring man, he was also a wise man, and he also felt that his son's staging of such a thing was a bit perverse.

He knew that Fei Hao Yang had never been a fan of charity, and he was not interested in showing up at the family's usual charity events, but this time, he would donate tens of millions of dollars and take the initiative to hold a charity dinner and a charity foundation.

This, coupled with all the other strange and unconventional details, gave him a vague impression that there was a sense of deliberate intent, as if his son really had other plans.

However, Fei Xuebin could not admit this, so he said to Li Yalin in a strong tone: "Li, don't forget that the victim in this matter is my son! He is the one who has been kidnapped! Your immediate priority for the New York Police is to find my son and bring him back safely!"

Li Yalin smiled and spoke, "We police officers have our police procedures when handling cases, we don't need or allow other people to tell us what to do."

After saying that, he immediately turned around and asked the men beside him, "Have the staff all been gathered?"

One of them nodded and said, "They have already been arranged to take statements in separate rooms, and they will all be gathered in the conference room immediately after the statements are taken, and then they will be allowed to cross-identify them one by one."

"Good!" Li Yalin spoke, "Take me to the conference room!"

After saying that, he looked at Ye Chen and spoke, "You can leave a contact for my assistant to go back to the hotel first, and I will have someone contact you if I need your cooperation."

"Okay." Ye Chen nodded and said to Chen Duoduo, "Duoduo, leave a contact for the officer."

Chen Duoduo hurriedly took out a business card and handed it to the officer beside Li Yalin.

At this time, Li Yalin looked at Fei Xuebin again and said coldly, "Fei Xuebin, you can go too, if there is any news, I will have someone inform you."

Fei Xuebin was furious enough and blurted out, "This is our Fei family's hotel, you want me to leave? Where am I going to go?"

Li Yalin said impatiently, "Go wherever you like, this is the scene of the crime, from now on it is closed for management, all unrelated people must evacuate!"

He then instructed the officer beside him, "Gather the guests outside, check the identity of everyone, if there are no suspicious people, let them go home first, but everyone is not allowed to leave New York for the next week, and they must be on call."

The officer immediately nodded and said, "Yes Inspector, I'll arrange it now!"

Fei Xuebin's face turned blue with anger.

Chapter 4163

Several officers with walkie-talkies on their shoulders and pistols in the waist of their trousers came forward and said to the crowd, "You have heard the Inspector's words, please leave the scene immediately."

Fei Xuebin, who had never been so angry, kicked the wall and cursed, "Li Yalin, you're a f*cking bully!"

A police officer immediately stepped forward and warned in a loud voice, "Sir, if you don't leave and continue to damage the scene, I will have to take enforcement action against you!"

Fei Xuebin gritted his teeth and said, "I'll see who dares to touch me!"

Several policemen knew Fei Xuebin's identity, and when they saw his fury, they did not dare to come forward.

Li Yalin turned around and spoke, "Fine, Fei Xuebin, since your head is so iron, then stay here."

When Fei Xue Bin saw Li Yalin's compromise, he finally felt a little better in his heart, as he had been overpowered by him tonight.

So, he snorted and said arrogantly, "Li Yalin, this time you'll have to behave yourself!"

When Li Yalin saw how arrogant he was, he didn't get angry and said with a smile, "Right, Fei Xuebin, we are obliged to tell the public about such a big incident, so I guess many media will come back later to report on it, so you should stay and have a good chat with the media."

After saying that, Li Yalin instructed, "Don't leave, we will hold a short press conference later, you can be a special guest."

When Fei Xuebin heard this, his whole mind exploded.

He hadn't intended to stay here for sure, it was just that Li Yalin had driven himself away and made him hold his anger in his heart, so he had confronted him.

But who would have thought that this guy would want to hold a press conference here!

To Fei Xuebin, even if he was beaten to death, he would never attend any press conference and openly tell the world that his son had been kidnapped.

How could he afford to be ashamed of himself?

Thinking of this, he immediately said stiffly, "I don't have time to stay here and raise dirt with you! You can have your own launch, I still have to go find my son!"

Li Yalin sneered twice and sneered, "What? I'm bullying people by letting you go, what do you mean by leaving on your own?"

Fei Xuebin said furiously, "I can stay and go whenever I want, why do I need to explain to you what I mean?"

After saying these words, Fei Xuebin turned around with a belly full of anger and walked away without looking back.

Meanwhile.

In the middle of the Fei family's estate in New York, Qiao Feiyun was staying in the guest room that Fei Hao Yang had prepared for him, anxiously waiting for news from Kazuo Hattori.

Originally, he thought he had everything under control tonight, but to his surprise, it all went wrong right away.

He picked up his mobile phone and called Kazuo Hattori, but his call was still unreachable, so he hurriedly contacted Fei Hao Yang again, only to find that Fei Hao Yang had not responded either.

He called Sun Hao, Fei's assistant, but he still couldn't get through.

Just when he was at a loss as to what to do, the Fei family's bodyguards suddenly exploded, all of them rushing to get out.

So he hurriedly stopped one of the bodyguards and asked after him, "What's going on?"

The bodyguard said nervously, "Young Master Hao Yang has gone missing, and the Eldest Young Master has asked us to go out and look for clues!"

"What?!" Qiao Feiyun asked in a panic, "Wasn't Young Master Fei at a charity dinner? How could he go missing?"

The bodyguard explained, "Young Master Hao Yang went missing at the charity dinner, and it's said that quite a few people died at the scene!"

Chapter 4164

The bodyguard's words caused Qiao Feiyun to panic a little.

He subconsciously asked after him, "What kind of people are the dead ones?!"

The bodyguard shook his head and said, "That's not clear."

After saying that, he did not care to say more to Qiao Feiyun and hurriedly left.

Qiao Feiyun's brain subconsciously spun rapidly as he thought to himself, "Fei Hao Yang has actually disappeared, who the hell did this? What about those Iga ninjas? Could they be the ones who died?"

To Qiao Feiyun, he had never even thought that the eight Iga ninjas he had found would be after Fei Hoang.

So, in his heart, he surmised that the odds were that Fei Hao Yang had been kidnapped by other enemies.

Qiao Feiyun had done a lot of bad things in his life, but he could swear to the world that he had nothing to do with Fei Hao Yang's disappearance.

It was rare for him to encounter anything that he could be as blameless about as this incident.

Therefore, he was not worried at all that Fei Hao Yang's disappearance would have anything to do with him. The only thing he was worried about was that if something really happened to Fei Hao Yang, he might lose his shelter for a while.

That way, in case the murderer who killed his brother was still after him, then he might be in big trouble.

However, on second thought, Qiao Feiyun thought that he should not worry too much for the time being.

After all, he was living in the Fei family, and the fact that he was safe these days was proof that the other party had not yet been able to investigate the Fei family, and that he was still safe for now.

Therefore, what he had to do next was to continue to spend as much time as possible at the Fei family, regardless of whether Fei Hao Yang could return safely or not.

This was not a difficult task for Qiao Feiyun, as Fei Hao Yang had placed him in the villa that the Fei family had moved out of, which was already unused, so as long as he was inside, the Fei family would probably not be able to pay attention to him.

Even if they did, it didn't matter, he could tell them openly that he was a friend of Fei Hao Yang's, and the Fei family would not kick him out.

When he thought of this, Qiao Feiyun's mind was slightly calmed down a few points.

The New York police had already gathered all the banquet hall staff, all of them.

Li Yalin concluded that there must be a Japanese ninja mole among them, and the immediate task now was to find this mole out.

Instead of following the normal procedure of first approaching the person in charge, Chen Fu, to find out what was going on, Li Yalin treated Chen Fu as one of the suspects, along with the other staff members, and grouped them all together in the crowd.

In this way, he did not have to listen to anyone's side of the story and identified the problem directly from the crowd.

What Li Yalin did was to have his police officers take a few high-resolution frontal photos of each person first. Afterwards, he had someone pick out one of these people first and bring him to the next room, so that after he had looked at all the photos of everyone, he could ask him if there was anyone among the people present who he had clearly seen today but was not present at the scene now.

If the other person said no, he was temporarily taken to a corner and guarded by a police officer, who did not allow him to communicate with anyone, thus ensuring that he could not conspire with anyone else.

The dozen or so people questioned at the beginning were all official employees of the Wangfu Hotel, and when Chen Fu had put Kazuo Hattori and the others in, he had intentionally told them not to have any contact with the old staff, so none of these old staff could tell that eight people were missing from the scene.

Soon, it was the turn of a casual worker who had just been hired to help out today.

He was originally a young Chinese student at an ordinary university in New York. His family had sent him to study abroad in the hope that he would achieve something, but unexpectedly, he had lost himself after coming to the US, and he had been immersed in spending and drinking every day, and had come back to spend all the tuition money his parents had sent him.

He was expelled from the school because he could not pay his tuition fees.

According to the US visa policy, once expelled from a school, the visa becomes invalid and in this case, the normal procedure is to leave the US before finding a solution.

However, this young man had no face to go home to face his parents, so he blacked out in New York.

Chapter 4165

To survive, he spent his days in an internet cafe in Chinatown, where he lived and ate every day, and earned his living by helping others with their games and working part-time.

Once the income from the coaching was not enough, he would go out and find a casual job with daily pay, earn enough money to continue to dive into the cafe, and then come back to work when he ran out of money.

At this moment, he was standing in the conference room with the others, waiting for the police to question him one by one.

However, he was particularly nervous because, unlike the others, his visa had long been invalidated and he now belonged to the category of illegal immigrants, so if the police found him, he would definitely be handed over to the Immigration Department, which had only one solution for black people like him: deportation.

Apprehensive, he was tempted to ask those who had been questioned and brought back by the police whether the police checked their identity documents when questioning them.

However, all those who had been questioned had been taken to another corner, so he had no chance to ask them even if he wanted to.

At this time, a policeman came to him and spoke, "You come with me."

This young man did not dare to disobey and hurriedly followed the policeman out of the conference room and into the next room.

As soon as he entered the next room, he saw Li Yalin, who also had a Chinese face.

When Li Yalin saw him, he smiled slightly, pointed to the single sofa in front of him and smiled, "Come, young man, have a seat."

The young man nodded nervously and sat down anxiously opposite him.

Seeing his nervous forehead covered with beads of sweat and his fingers and calves trembling all the time, Li Yalin casually asked, "Young man, what's your name?"

The young man said nervously, "I my name is Zhang Hengkai"

"Zhang Hengkai" Li Yalin laughed, "You must be an illegal immigrant, right?"

Zhang Hengkai's face turned pale with fear as he stammered and asked, "You how do you how do you know"

Li Yalin laughed: "To tell you the truth, this case I'm investigating today is very big, it's never the work of ordinary people, you have such poor psychological quality, it's definitely impossible for you to be their accomplice, so the only reason you're so nervous is because you have a ghost in your heart."

The only explanation is that you are not a regular employee here, and most of the time your work and rest is irregular, so the reason why you are here is that you are not a regular employee. The odds are that you're just doing a short job and earning some living expenses, right?"

When Zhang Hengkai heard this, his heart became even more nervous, he didn't dare to answer casually because he was afraid that Li Yalin was deliberately scamming himself.

When Li Yalin saw that he didn't say anything, he smiled slightly and continued: "Having ghosts in your heart, irregular work and rest, and working short hours to earn money, all together, you must be an illegal immigrant. If you are not an illegal immigrant, they will naturally not give you a hard time, but if you are indeed an illegal immigrant, then they will definitely not hesitate to send you back to your country."

Zhang Hengkai was scared half to death by his words and could not help but choke up, "Please don't send me back to China If I go back like this, my father will beat me to death... .."

Li Yalin nodded and smiled, "Don't worry, as I said earlier, I'm here to investigate a big case, to catch an illegal immigrant like you, it's not necessary for me, a detective, to personally take action."

He said, he threw a mobile phone in front of Zhang Hengkai and spoke, "Take a good look at the photos in here, and think about every person you have seen since you came here today, then tell me if there is anyone missing in here, if you cooperate well, then not only can I let you off the hook, I might even give you some cash privately in return. "

As soon as Zhang Hengkai heard this, he took the phone over without a second thought, and then immediately flipped through the photos inside.

As he flipped through them, he muttered, "I haven't seen many of the people in here"

Li Yalin admonished, "You don't need to care about the ones you haven't seen, you only need to care about the ones you've seen but aren't in here."

Zhang Hengkai hurriedly nodded, and after flipping through all the photos, he said with some confusion, "Eh the little Japanese guys I came with, they don't seem to be in here!"

Chapter 4166

Li Yalin's spirits were lifted and he looked at him and asked, "What is this about the Japanese?"

Zhang Hengkai dared not delay and hurriedly said, "I was recruited by the hotel as a temporary worker, and there were a dozen temporary workers who came in with me, and there were several Japanese among them, but they are not in these photos!"

Li Yalin asked, "What did the Japanese you mentioned look like? What are their characteristics?"

Zhang Hengkai pondered for a moment and said, "Well, they look like the faces of ordinary people, but as for their characteristics, they all have serious expressions, they don't smile, and they never speak, they only make eye contact, they are sneaky, they don't look like good people."

Li Yalin was surprised and asked, "They don't speak, how do you know they are Japanese?"

Zhang Hengkai said, "On the way here, I overheard the screen of one of them on his mobile phone, and his phone was in Japanese."

Li Yalin asked again, "Have you had any encounters since you arrived at the hotel?"

"Nope." Zhang Hengkai replied, "When we arrived at the hotel, we were a*signed to help in the back kitchen at that time. But immediately afterwards a few of them were a*signed different jobs and then they left the back kitchen together."

Li Yalin continued to ask: "Then let me ask you, who was the person who recruited you in? And who was the one who a*signed you jobs? Especially who was the one who a*signed work to those Japanese people?"

Zhang Hengkai busily said, "The person who recruited us in was Manager Chen, but I don't know exactly what his name is Chen, that is, he a*signed us the work in the back kitchen, and he was also the one who a*signed other work to those Japanese people in the middle of the day."

Li Yalin took out the hotel's staff book, found the page of Chen Fu, handed it to Zhang Hengkai and opened his mouth to ask, "Is that him?"

Zhang Hengkai took a glance at the photo on the staff booklet and immediately concluded, "Yes, it's him!"

He then said to Zhang Hengkai, "You've done a good job."

With that, he took out his money clip from his pocket again, took out 500 US dollars in cash from it and handed it to Zhang Hengkai, saying, "Take this money for now, and if there are any problems that need consultation, I will look for you again."

Zhang Hengkai was flattered as he took the cash and subconsciously asked, "Inspector Li I don't have to go to the police station again, do I?"

Li Yalin knew what Zhang Hengkai was worried about and nodded, "Don't worry, you will be allowed to leave when today's matter is over, but before you go, leave a contact information for the police officer, either by phone or WhatsApp on the American side, WeChat or email in China."

Zhang Hengkai was delighted and said busily, "Don't worry, I'll leave my WeChat then"

"Good." Li Yalin nodded, and then had Zhang Hengkai taken away, and ordered, "Bring the hotel banquet hall's manager Chen over."

At this moment, Chen Fu was standing incomparably nervous in the middle of the crowd.

After he learned that Fei Hao Yang had been kidnapped and disappeared from the banquet hall, his whole body was scared out of its wits.

He had never dreamed that the real target of those Japanese would be his own young master.

Now that the young master had disappeared, he himself had become an accomplice.

And he did not dare to confess this to the police, or to Fei Xuebin.

Chapter 4167

Because, the lives of his family, wife and children were in the hands of those Japanese.

It did not matter if he died, but if he could not get their lives back, what was the point of living?

Just as he was apprehensive, a police officer came to him and opened his mouth to ask, "Are you Chen Fu?"

Chen Fu nodded his head and said in some panic, "Yes it's me"

The police officer waved at him and spoke coldly, "You come with me."

Chen Fu's heart was even more panicked, but at this moment he had no other choice but to follow the police officer with heavy steps to Li Yalin's temporary office next door.

As soon as he entered, Chen Fu was shaking with fear.

He had heard of Li Yalin's reputation for a long time, so he was very afraid of being seen by Li Yalin.

So, he came to Li Yalin with fearful hands and stammered, "Li Li Inspector Li How are you"

Li Yalin stared at him and suddenly pressed on in a cold voice, "Chen Fu! Let me ask you! Why did you collude with the Japanese ninjas and kidnap the young master of your Fei family?"

Li Yalin's sudden angry shout made Chen Fu's heart and soul horrified, he panicked and slyly argued, "I I didn't I really didn't"

Li Yalin said in a cold voice: "You still lie? Those Japanese ninjas were recruited by you! If you just recruited them in, I guess I can still believe that you did it inadvertently, but to recruit them in and then arrange them to the place where the incident happened, this is clearly premeditated! So you're their mole!"

Chen Fu was still resisting and shook his head repeatedly, "Not me I didn't I don't know any Japanese ninjas at all"

Li Yalin looked at his forehead and cheeks, beads of sweat kept dripping down one after another, so he sneered: "Chen Fu, it's fine for you to argue with me, but I have to warn you, if you don't cooperate with me properly, then I will feed the information I have now to Fei Xuebin, the person who disappeared tonight is Fei Xuebin's son, I don't need to remind you of this matter, right? What do you think he will do to you when he finds out about this?"

When Chen Fu heard this, his psychological defenses instantly collapsed completely, he knelt down in front of Li Yalin at once and said in tears, "Inspector Li, I have some hardships, Inspector Li It was the Japanese who kidnapped my family's wife and children, and said that if I didn't obey their orders, they would kill my wife and children. They also killed one of my nannies in order to force me to give in! I was also forced to do so"

At this point, Chen Fu looked at Li Yalin and choked up, "Inspector Li, I know I am guilty, I deserve to die, even if the young master wants me dead, I have nothing to say I only beg you to save my family of seven, they are innocent... .."

From the moment Chen Fu entered, Li Yalin guessed from his apprehensive expression that he would definitely not be an accomplice in this matter.

After all, how would that gang of ninjas, who acted in a dry and ruthless style, cooperate with an ordinary person with extremely poor psychological qualities like him.

The only possibility was that they had coerced Chen Fu.

Therefore, he did not doubt Chen Fu's words at all.

He then said to Chen Fu, "Chen Fu, if you want to save your wife and children, you must tell me everything you know, including when and where this gang met you, what they said, and what messages they left!"

As far as Li Yalin was concerned, he desperately needed to find the images of those Japanese ninjas now, he had to get the facial features of the gang before he could catch them, and he was on a very tight schedule, if he didn't speed up, the gang might just sneak out of the country!

Chapter 4168

In Li Yalin's view, the surveillance records that had been tampered with were only within the confines of the hotel, but Chen Fu's contact with the Japanese ninjas outside the hotel must have been difficult to avoid all municipal surveillance.

So, as long as Chen Fu could provide the time and place of his contact with the ninjas outside the hotel, Li Yalin would be able to find out the visual data of the men.

While Li Yalin was mobilising his police force and searching for visuals based on Chen Fu's confession, Ye Chen had already left the Wangfu Hotel with Gu Qiuyi, Chen Duo Duo and Chen Zhao Zhong.

Considering that the charity dinner had gone down the drain and there was no dinner at once, Ye Chen suggested that everyone find a place to have dinner first.

He believed that Chen Zhaozhong must still have something to say to him.

Moreover, he also wanted to hear what other suggestions Chen Zhaozhong had to follow up.

He was afraid that if Ye Chen did not handle the matter properly, it would lead to a big disaster.

So he suggested, "Why don't we go to my place? The food is a little bit more basic, but it's better than talking conveniently."

Ye Chen naturally had no problem with this, so he looked at Gu Qiuyi, who smiled cheekily and said, "Uncle Zhong's roast goose is the best, I haven't had enough!"

The four of them were escorted by their bodyguards and made their way to Chinatown. At this time, Chen Zhao Zhong's shop was already closed and the guys had already closed and left, so Chen Zhao Zhong invited Ye Chen and the others to the first floor while he himself went to prepare the meal.

At this time, Ye Chen also received the information from Wan Bajun that Hattori Kazuo and the others, as well as Fei Hao Yang of the Fei family, were now under his control.

Ye Chen instructed him to make sure to keep all nine of them under control and not to let them have any contact with the outside world.

At the same time, he also instructed Wan Bajun to draw more manpower to the vicinity of the Fei family's property, as he believed that Qiao Feiyun was now hiding in the Fei family.

It was just that the Fei family was so big and heavily guarded that it would be easy for the Wan Long Temple to kill its way in, but if it wanted to sneak in silently and find Qiao Feiyun, it would be almost impossible.

Once the commotion became too loud, the Ten Thousand Dragons Hall would definitely reveal its whereabouts.

This time, Ye Chen did not want to directly expose the Ten Thousand Dragons Hall. If the Ten Thousand Dragons Hall was exposed now, there would be one less trump card to catch the other side off guard when they came to the United States to compete with the Rothschilds in the future.

The best solution is to lay a net around the Fei family and wait for that son of a b*tch Qiao Feiyun to get in on his own!

After preparing the meal, Chen Zhao Zhong greeted everyone and after everyone sat down, he looked at Ye Chen and asked in a lowered voice, "Young Master Ye, I don't quite understand one thing, why are those Japanese ninjas so afraid of you?"

Ye Chen smiled, "Have you heard about the incident where the Ye family was sought revenge by the Ten Thousand Dragons Temple some time ago?"

Chen Zhao Zhong nodded and said, "I only heard about it afterwards, they said that the Ye family gave up half of their assets to the Ten Thousand Dragons Temple to escape a disaster, so when I saw you today, I had not mentioned this matter."

Ye Chen waved his hand and casually said, "This is just a rumour I deliberately let out, the real situation is just the opposite, not only did the Ye family not give up half of its assets to the Ten Thousand Dragons Hall, the Ten Thousand Dragons Hall instead all gave their allegiance to me, I just didn't want the Ye family to have a big tree, that's why there was this rumour."

Chen Zhao Zhong was dumbfounded as he listened, Ye Chen had not told him this earlier, so he could not believe his ears.

Chapter 4169

The famous Ten Thousand Dragons Temple was now under Ye Chen's command, this was definitely a great addition to the Ye family's strength, don't look at the fact that the Fei family had hundreds of billions of dollars in assets, but it was impossible for them to form a mercenary army of the size of the Ten Thousand Dragons Temple.

Ye Chen then added: "As for those ninjas today, they are all forces under the command of a friend's family of mine in Japan, and they had seen me before back on Mount Ye Ling, which is why they were afraid."

It took Chen Zhao Zhong a long moment to digest what Ye Chen had said about this matter, and he could not help but sigh, "Young Master Ye, with your current strength, I am afraid that the Ye family can be ranked number one in the whole of East Asia as well as Southeast Asia!"

Ye Chen smiled faintly and spoke, "Just being number one in East Asia as well as Southeast Asia is not enough, the Saudi Royal Family in West Asia is second only to the Rothschild Family in terms of strength in the world, if the Ye Family wants to become number one in all of Asia, they must surpass the Saudi Royal Family, and if they want to become number one in the world, they must surpass the Rothschild Family, there is still a long way to go."

Chen Zhao Zhong nodded and said with emotion, "I believe that with your strength, Young Master Ye, it is only a matter of time before the Ye family stands at the top of the world."

Ye Chen smiled blandly, "I hope that this time will be as short as possible."

Chen Zhao Zhong could not help but be impressed by Ye Chen.

Previously, he did not believe that Ye Chen could make the Ye family stand at the top of the world, but now, looking at Ye Chen's calm and confident look, he suddenly felt that it was not impossible.

This reminded him of Ye Chen's father, Ye Changyang.

Even when Ye was at his peak, he had only dared to think of this goal as a beautiful vision, never daring to think that it could one day be realised.

However, Ye Chen, who was in his twenties, had already started to pursue this goal.

While feeling emotional, he could not help but ask, “Young Master Ye, what are your plans regarding that Fei Hao Yang? This person is a time bomb, the slightest carelessness will most likely trigger a huge side effect.”

Ye Chen laughed coldly and said, “Uncle Zhong, don’t worry, let alone a mere Fei Hao Yang, even if it’s Fei Xuebin or Fei Shanhai, I don’t put it in my eyes, the big deal is to abolish Fei Shanhai, Fei Xuebin and Fei Hao Yang’s lineage, and then pull back Elder Fei Jianzhong to become the head of the Fei family again.”

Chen Zhao Zhong asked in horror, “Young Master Ye you know the whereabouts of Elder Fei Jianzhong Fei?! The Fei family has been searching for him like crazy! To Fei Shanhai, as long as Old Master Fei doesn’t die, he won’t be able to sit securely in the position of family head!”

Ye Chen laughed: “Fei Jianzhong, and his granddaughter Fei Kexin, are all properly arranged by me. Originally, I was only returning a favor to Fei Kexin by saving the lives of her grandchildren, and I had no intention of helping them return to the Fei family, but since the Fei family has produced such an a*shole as Fei Hao Yang, who has set his mind on Nui Nui and Xiaofen’s heads, then I have to rea*sess this matter. ”

I have a feeling he won’t stop there, he might come back to do something else, if he doesn’t know any better, then I’ll take care of him too, and then I’ll ask Master Fei to have a chat with Fei Shanhai. ”

Chen Zhaozhong nodded and said, “Fei Xuebin himself is a straw man and has not made much of a mark over the years, but Fei Shanhai is still a man of some skill, otherwise he would not have seized the opportunity to usurp Elder Fei’s position.”

He said, Chen Zhaozhong added: “If we can get Elder Fei to come back to deal with him, it can indeed have a four-two-two effect, Elder Fei is in China, being fled by his own son’s power, his heart must also want to reverse the situation, once he catches the opportunity, with his style of action, he will never leave a way back for Fei Shanhai.”

Ye Chen shook his head, “If he just doesn’t leave a way out for Fei Shanhai, that’s not enough, if I let him come back, he will have to do so without leaving a way out for Fei Shanhai’s family!”

Chapter 4170

Last second, Chen Zhao Zhong still felt that Ye Chen had put himself on thin ice by having those ninjas kidnap Fei Hao Yang, but in this second, he realized that in Ye Chen’s eyes, the Fei family was not a behemoth at all.

On the contrary, in his eyes, the Fei family was a plate of vegetables.

Whether it was Fei Xuebin or Fei Shanhai, neither had any advantage over Ye Chen.

On the one hand, Ye Chen had the Ten Thousand Dragons Hall in his hand, so if he really had to fight the Fei family face to face, the Fei family was no match at all.

On the other hand, Ye Chen still had Fei Jianzhong, the great emperor of the Fei family, in his hands.

If Ye Chen really sent Fei Jianzhong back to the United States, and then used the strength of the Ten Thousand Dragons Temple to protect Fei Jianzhong, then I am afraid that Fei Shanhai would have to give up the position of family head again.

If not, once the whole United States knows that Fei Shanhai took advantage of the opportunity to seize his father's power and ordered him not to return to the United States even after his death, he will become a street rat that everyone will shout at.

He might even be subject to a judicial investigation.

Therefore, no matter how much Fei Shanhai and Fei Xuebin could jump around, as long as Ye Chen played this trump card, it would be an ace bomb for them, father and son.

In this situation, even if Ye Chen killed Fei Hao Yang in front of these two fathers, I am afraid that they would not even dare to say a fart aloud.

So, Chen Zhao Zhong asked Ye Chen, "Young Master Ye, what are you going to do next in this matter?"

Ye Chen said coldly, "Once that Qiao Feiyun has emerged, we will get him and Fei Hao Yang together and finish off the two scum to eliminate the scum for the people!"

Chen Zhao Zhong asked again, "Then do you plan to expose their despicable deeds?"

"Of course!" Ye Chen spoke, "The reason why I didn't just kill off Fei Hao Yang is to dig up all of his and Qiao Feiyun's deeds and expose them all, it would be great if we could wipe them out as a group."

Chen Zhao Zhong nodded and suddenly had a plan in mind and spoke, "Young Master Ye, if you want to make a bigger deal out of this, I do have a four-two solution."

Ye Chen was delighted and humbly asked for advice, "Uncle Zhong, what is your good solution?"

Hattori Kazuo, with seven Iga ninjas, drove the rubbish removal truck and brought the unconscious Fei Hao Yang all the way out of New York City, he had already contacted Wan Breaking Army in advance and was following Wan Breaking Army's instructions to bring the man to the designated place.

After a drive of over an hour, Kazuo Hattori drove the car directly to a deserted gas station in the suburbs.

As soon as the car stopped, more than twenty people immediately rushed out of the darkness and surrounded the rubbish removal truck.

Wan Bajun himself went to the driver's side and said to Kazuo Hattori, "Keep the car running, everyone out!"

Hattori Kazuo recognized Wan Breaking Jun at once and hurriedly pushed open the car door and stepped down, saying nervously, "Wan Hello Mr. Wan I I was ordered by Master Ye to send Fei Hao Yang to see you"

At this time, an Iga ninja also stepped down from the passenger side, and six other ninjas stepped out of the trash removal vehicle's compartment one after another.

And Fei Hoang was still in an unconscious state as he was dragged out of the carriage.

Wan Bajun looked at Hattori Kazuo and spoke, "You few, go with my men."

Hattori Kazuo dared not make a fuss and said, "Yes, Mr. Wan, we'll do as you say!"

Wan Bajun waved his hand at his men, and immediately a dozen of them came up and picked up Fei Hao Yang and put him into a commercial vehicle, and then took Hattori Kazuo and eight others to different cars.
