Chapter 4191

Li Yalin's expression was surprised. He wanted to ask something, but held back, and busily said, "I'll have someone pick you up!"

"Okay."

Soon, An Chongqiu, who was wearing a duck-tongue cap and a black mask on his face. Led by a police officer, he walked up.

He carried two kraft paper shopping bags and came straight to Li Yalin's office.

As soon as Li Yalin saw him, he asked in surprise, "Chongqiu, what brings you to New York? Didn't I hear some time ago that you had returned to China?"

"Yes." An Chongqiu nodded and smiled bitterly, "I went to China, but I ended up in a mess, so I came back in disgrace."

Li Yalin asked curiously, "What happened? Is there someone else who can give you a hard time?"

"Don't mention it." An Chongqiu said helplessly, "This matter is really a long story."

After that, he put two kraft paper bags on the table and asked, "You're off duty now, right? I've brought some food from Chinatown and a bottle of your favorite Xifeng wine, if you can drink it, we'll have a few drinks."

Li Yalin laughed, "I'm already f*cking off work. I didn't dare to go home because I was afraid that those melon goon media would block me."

As he said that, he hurriedly took out the bottle of Xifeng wine from the bag, exclaiming, "Holy sh*t, this wine must have been stored for decades, right?"

An Chongqiu nodded, "It's said to be from the early days of the founding of the country."

Li Yalin sighed, "If my old man were still alive, he would be overjoyed to see this wine!"

Li Yalin's ancestors were from the northwest of China, and he was already a wealthy and well-known businessman in the northwest during the Republic of China. The family fled the country to the United States after the Second World War, and then put down roots in the United States.

Li Yalin and An Chongqiu are similar in age, both in their fifties, and both are Chinese descendants born and raised in the United States. Although they did not grow up in the Northwest, many of their habits are consistent with those of Northwesterners because of the influence of their fathers.

Li Yalin's grandfather and father, all of whom had an exclusive love of Xifeng wine, were the same to his generation.

At this time, An Chongqiu took out some packed cold dishes from a kraft paper bag, including marinated pork, pig's ears and other things, as well as some refreshing cold vegetables, peanuts and other things.

As he opened and arranged the items one by one, he sighed, "Oh dear, but that particularly good Cantonese roast goose in Chinatown is not open today. Otherwise I would have bought an extra roast goose for dinner."

Li Yalin bristled, "What's so good about that stuff? It's sweet and greasy, so I might as well just roast it."

An Chongqiu laughed: "That is Cantonese style, if you roast it in a high oven and then slice it into meat for you to eat in a roll, won't it become Yanjing roast duck?"

As he said that, An Chongqiu handed him a pair of chopsticks, and Li Yalin found two disposable water cups. Two glasses of wine were poured.

Li Yalin picked up the cups and said impatiently, "Come on, let's go for one!"

An Chongqiu nodded, and the two paper cups clinked symbolically. Each then took a sip.

Then, An Chongqiu put down his cup and asked, "You and I have been brothers for many years, is there anything I can help you with at the moment? Although the An family's focus has shifted to the West Coast in the past few years, New York is after all our old stomping grounds. But New York is our old base after all, we still have a lot of manpower here, so we should be able to help you some."

Li Yalin smiled heartily and spoke, "Thank you for your kind words, but I feel that this matter at hand can't be solved with a lot of people, the clues are broken too completely all at once, as if they were cut off directly by a knife in the void, it looks like a very large and professional team is behind it, if I can't find a breakthrough point for this team, then this case may never be solved."

An Chongqiu nodded and sighed, "I really didn't expect that someone could kidnap the Fei family in New York and still leave you, a Chinese detective, in the dark, could it be that there is some big shot from New York?"

Chapter 4192

Hearing An Chongqiu's judgment, Li Yalin laughed bitterly, "I'm thinking the same as you, in New York, there aren't many people who can touch the Fei family, counting the Rothschilds and your An family, there are at most four or five people who have this power, but this time, the way these people are playing is not like the style of either of you."

"Indeed." An Chongqiu said approvingly, "This kind of play is just not something that a few of the big families can do, at a glance this path is very wild, surprisingly wild."

"You think so too?" Li Yalin sighed, "For a while I thought it might be some new gang, usually new gangs want to make a name for themselves, they have to do something big and shocking, but when I think about it, it doesn't seem right, any gang that plays like this is basically dead, there is no gang that can compete with the Fei family's strength."

An Chongqiu agreed, "And I can be sure that this gang isn't in it for the money, if they were really in it for the money, they wouldn't have made such an exaggerated offer of a 200 billion USD ransom, it's basically the same as kidnapping a few pa*sers-by in New York and then going to the American government to demand an entire fleet of aircraft carriers, which is just as unrealistic."

Li Yalin nodded: "Not for money, this matter is even weirder."

Saying that, he asked An Chongqiu, “Chongqiu, you’ve watched those videos that are hot on the internet, right?”

An Chongqiu nodded, “Watched it.”

Li Yalin frowned, “I don’t know why, but I always feel that there is something evil about it! It’s evil! The two videos are one after the other, ostensibly to suppress the Fei family in terms of public opinion, but in the end, the Fei family seized the opportunity to pull back, allowing the Fei family to play a perfect game of suppressing first and then raising later but in reality, it gives me the feeling as if someone is deliberately manipulating all this, just to leave such a chance for the Fei family to suppress first and then raise later”

An Chongqiu said, “I’m calling you to remind you of this, I also think this matter is very strange! From that video, the other side looked like they were just vulgarly teasing and intimidating Fei Xuebin, and their methods were crude, but everything that happened behind the scenes gave me a feeling as if this matter wasn’t as crude as it appeared to be! Instead of being crude, it was precise to the extreme! So precise that he was able to predict every step of the Fei family’s actions in advance and deliberately used this tactic to lure the Fei family to the public.”

Li Yalin slapped his thigh and said offhandedly, “Right! That’s it! They’re fishing! Trying to fish the entire Fei family out of the deep sea and expose themselves to the attention of the world of their own accord”

Saying that, he hurriedly asked, “Chongqiu, what exactly do you think he wants?!”

An Chongqiu smacked his lips and said, “If they hadn’t cut off Fei Hao Yang’s ears, I might think that this was all a good show directed by the Fei family themselves, so that the Fei family’s reputation could rise quickly, and at the same time make Fei Hao Yang’s reputation spread far and wide, laying an extraordinary foundation for Fei Hao Yang, just think about it, when everyone in the world was expecting Fei Hao Yang to return safely, they Then, when everyone in the world is expecting Fei Hoang to return safely, they will come up with a successful rescue drama, so that Fei Hoang will come out after a thousand cries, and then the whole world will celebrate and cheer together and have a perfect ending.

Li Yalin picked up, “But they did cut off Fei Hoang’s ear! I had someone use AI restoration technology to maximise the picture quality of those videos, enlarged the image of that pair of ears in the video and compared it with Fei Hoang’s previous physical features, and it is indeed his ears, there can be no mistake!”

“Right.” An Chongqiu said gruffly, “It is this that makes me reject the hypothesis that the Fei family is definitely not the manipulator behind the scenes, the real manipulator behind the scenes is the one who has premeditatedly drawn the Fei family into the spotlight a little.”

Li Yalin pursued, “Luring a snake out of a hole, and in front of the whole world, what exactly is the purpose of this?”

Chapter 4193

An Chongqiu slowly said, “Since that hypothesis just now is not valid then there is only one other possibility left for the other party’s motive.”

Li Yalin said, "You mean that this gang's target is not Fei Hao Yang, but the entire Fei family?!"

"That's right!" An Chongqiu said excitedly, "We both can really think together!"

Li Yalin sighed, "But I still don't quite understand why they want to draw the Fei family into the spotlight, are they going to strike at the Fei family in front of the whole world?! That's too arrogant, the whole world won't forgive them, and when that happens, they'll definitely become the public enemy of all! The loss will not be worth the gain!"

An Chongqiu frowned slightly and said in a deep voice: "Unless unless they have absolute certainty that they can completely reverse the current situation!"

An Chongqiu's rare expression became a little frightened, and he blurted out: "I see! This must be a public execution!"

"Public execution" muttered Li Yalin, repeating the sentence, his eyes suddenly lit up and he blurted out, "I see! If we follow your deduction, that mysterious person must have got hold of a huge scandal of the Fei family, and even once this scandal is exposed, I am afraid that the entire Fei family will suffer a devastating blow! And they deliberately used this method to draw the Fei family into the world's spotlight, just to make the Fei family ruinous!"

An Chongqiu nodded his head and said gruffly, "That's right! I presume that's what's going on!"

Li Yalin said with a horrified expression, "Then this is really a public execution first depressing and then raising and then dropping hard"

Speaking of which, Li Yalin tapped the table repeatedly, and muttered, "What is it, to have such great ability... Could it be... could it be the Fei family? The old man has come back to seize power?!"

An Chongqiu was about to speak when Li Yalin shook his head again in a hurry, "No! Even if Elder Fei came back, he couldn't possibly take his own great-grandson, moreover, Elder Fei has been completely hollowed out, there can't be a mysterious force left"

Seeing that his friend was puzzled, An Chongqiu couldn't help but laugh, "It seems that even you, a Chinese sleuth, have times when you can't figure it out."

Li Yalin laughed bitterly, "The main thing is that this matter really defies common sense, if the other side is really this strong, there's no way we haven't heard of it, in this society nowadays, how can someone accumulate such a powerful force without moving?"

An Chongqiu gave a bitter smile and spoke, "Yalin, many things do defy common sense, in a word, it is actually that we ourselves are ignorant"

Saying that, he looked at Li Yalin and asked, "Do you believe that there is a medicine in this world, just one as big as a quail's egg, but 300 billion dollars can't even buy it?"

Li Yalin's jaw dropped as he listened and blurted out, "What are you saying?! US$300 billion for a single medicine?! Did I hear you right?"

An Chongqiu nodded his head with certainty, "Yes! You heard it right, it's 300 billion dollars!"

Li Yalin frowned, "Is it some kind of targeted drug that can cure cancer and sell for 300 billion dollars along with the patent? But that's too expensive"

An Chongqiu laughed: "And the patent You're thinking big! Just one Chinese pill, spend three hundred billion dollars just to buy that one pill, not only will you still not be given the formula, you are not even allowed to take it with you, you have to eat it on the spot when you buy it on the spot."

"F*ck" Li Yalin exploded and bristled, "F*cking crazy, how dare you sell this for 300 billion dollars? It's simply more ruthless than these kidnapers! At such an expensive price, which idiot would buy it?"

Chapter 4194

Li Yalin's offhand remark caused An Chongqiu's face to darken.

However, he didn't move as he lifted his gla*s of wine and took a large sip before smacking his lips and saying lightly, "The stupid bd you're talking about is me."

Li Yalin looked at him dumbfounded and blurted out, "f*ck! What the hell? You're letting someone fool you, aren't you?"

"No." An Chongqiu waved his hand and laughed at himself through the strength of his drink, "I let someone cheat me, I f*cking bid up to 370 billion dollars, and I could barely kneel down to them on the spot, but they didn't sell it to me, and even kicked me out of the auction hall."

Li Yalin felt his outlook had been turned upside down and subconsciously asked, "What kind of medicine can make you ask for three hundred and seventy billion dollars? What is the concept of three hundred billion Alibaba's market value today is only 292.8 billion dollars, that is to say, put the whole Alibaba into it, still can't f*cking exchange for a medicine?!"

An Chongqiu said very seriously: "Can't exchange, if I could exchange it I would have exchanged it long ago, frown I don't even surname An."

After saying that, An Chongqiu looked at Li Yalin and asked curiously, "You are a policeman, why are you so interested in stocks? How about stock speculation?"

Li Yalin gave a sarcastic laugh and shook off his hand, "Don't f*cking mention it, I have some savings in hand and bought all the shares of this company, so far, I've lost more than half of it."

An Chongqiu cursed: "D*mn, you should f*cking tell me about it, I'll give you some information, whether short or long, you're guaranteed to make a few times profit!"

Li Yalin said seriously, "You know me, I don't have much money, just a lot of righteousness and no place to use it, besides, I'm a federal police officer, if I still rely on inside information to speculate on stocks, that's a violation of the law, the FBI will investigate me."

"Also." An Chongqiu shook his head and sighed, "I told you a long time ago, don't be a cop, there's no point, but you just don't listen."

Li Yalin waved his hand, "Let's not talk about me, let's talk about that drug of yours, what kind of drug is it, can it be worth 300 f*cking billion dollars?"

An Chongqiu said with an expression of fascination: "It's a miracle drug that can cure all diseases in the body, turn dead wood into spring, and turn back the clock twenty years"

Li Yalin frowned: "Where is such a divine thing, you have watched too many movies, right?"

An Chongqiu smiled, "You haven't seen it with your own eyes, so no matter what I say you won't believe it, but after you see its effects with your own eyes, you'll be in awe like me."

With that, An Chongqiu recounted to Li Yalin what he had seen with his own eyes at the Spring Return Pill auction that day.

Li Yalin was dumbfounded after hearing this and said, "It's f*cking unbelievable that there is such a miraculous thing in this world, so miraculous that I can't think of any scientific basis for it, I feel that all the books I read in America were f*cking wasted."

An Chongqiu laughed, "That's why I said earlier that many things we find unlikely, maybe it's not the thing itself that's wrong, it's just that we don't know enough about it."

Li Yalin sighed and said, "If there really was such a medicine, my old man might be able to live for more years, but there's no ball to use, I can't afford to buy this medicine even if it's available."

After saying that, he remembered something, looked at An Chongqiu and asked, "Why did you go and buy this? Who are you buying it for?"

An Chongqiu let out a light sigh, "To buy it for the old man, his symptoms of Alzheimer's are getting worse and worse now."

"Alzheimer's?" Li Yalin blurted out, "It's Alzheimer's, right?! When did Uncle An get this disease?"

An Chongqiu said with emotion, "It's been more than two years since he got it. At first, I noticed that he was always forgetting things easily. ..."

"At that time we had the best specialists intervene and also took him through some systematic training to combat the condition, but the cause of this disease is functional decompensation of the brain, so there was nothing medically effective to treat it, and his condition continued to deteriorate after that."

Chapter 4195

The more recent the events, the less he could remember, but the more distant the events, the less he could remember. Continue to deteriorate, the last ten years of things can not remember, see my son again do not recognize, because in his memory, my son is ten years ago the state of the young man"

Hearing this, Li Yalin could not help but lament, "Uncle An is a lordly figure among the global Chinese, tough and strong all his life, having this disease is really a great torture for him"

An Chongqiu covered his face and took a deep breath as hard as he could, then his eyes were a little red as he said, "His condition has been deteriorating, his memory has degraded from three to five years to ten or so years, and half a year ago to almost twenty years ago"

Saying that, An Chongqiu was silent for a moment, and tears couldn't help but come to his eyes.

Li Yalin's eyes widened as he blurted out, "Chongqiu, what happened to your sister was also almost twenty years ago, right"

"Yes" An Chongqiu lamented, "His current memory is stuck in the time when my sister just died, that was the most painful stage of his life, at that time he was extremely regretful and self-condemned and in tears every day, when his memory was stuck here, he woke up every day and held a picture of my sister and wept in secret, saying all the time that he had killed my sister, and his whole person became in a particularly bad state."

Li Yalin was busy asking, "Then did this past period of time get better? I mean, is it better for him when his memory continues to degrade for a while, to the stage before your sister's accident, when he and your sister were sulking in a cold war?"

An Chongqiu nodded and said, "I thought the same thing before, but how could I have thought that he hadn't experienced any more memory degradation in the past six months Maybe it was too much of a shock for him during this time, so his memory got stuck here and couldn't pa*s... .."

Li Yalin was momentarily stunned for a moment before muttering, "Memory stuck in the most painful stage of life this this is too D*mn cruel"

"Yeah" An Chongqiu said with red eyes, "It's too D*mn cruel so basically every day for the past six months he woke up and had to go through the the pain of having just lost his beloved daughter"

He said, hammering his heart, gritting his teeth and saying, "As a child, seeing my own father living in that kind of extreme pain every day, I don't feel good in my heart"

Li Yalin's nose is also a little sour, can't help but rub it, opened his mouth and asked: "What did the doctor say? There is a good way? Let's not talk about treatment, even if we let him get worse and worse ah"

An Chongqiu shook his head and said with dismay, "There is nothing the doctor can do, this kind of disease, good or bad, is not interfered with by external forces, in the end, this is the old man's own heart demons, so many years he has not really let go."

Speaking of this, An Chongqiu took a sip of wine and said to Li Yalin: "So you can understand, I, a fool, why I was willing to spend more than 300 billion dollars to buy that rejuvenation pill,..... With it, the old man will be relieved"

Li Yalin didn't say anything, alone, he poured his gla*s full, then drained it in one gulp, before saying guiltily, "Sorry Chongqiu, this sh*tty mouth of mine, it stinks too D*mn much, you don't mind."

An Chongqiu waved his hand and laughed, "I've known you for so many f*cking years, how could I not know what kind of temper you have?"

Li Yalin nodded and asked him, "So what's your next plan?"

An Chongqiu said, "Come back for a break, and after a while I have to go to China again to see if I can find the owner of that Spring Return Pill, no matter what, I have to ask him for a Spring Return Pill"

At this point, he let out a long sigh, his eyes looked at the bottle of wine that was almost at the bottom, his eyes hollow as he said softly, "Even though the old man made a thousand mistakes back then, adding up all the sins he suffered in the past six months, it is considered to have paid off the debt"

Chapter 4196

An Chongqiu's words had kept Li Yalin silent for a long time.

The fact that he had only heard a little about An Chengqi's incident back then, out of professional sensitivity, he once wanted to find out what the hidden agenda was behind that incident, but there were very few people who knew about that incident, and they all kept it to themselves, so he didn't get himself into trouble.

However, thinking of An Chengqin, he could not help but sigh: "Chongqiu, your sister is really a pity If she were still alive, the world of the rich, I'm afraid it would be a different picture."

An Chongqiu nodded gently.

As the younger brother with the smallest age gap with An Chengqi, he understood best what kind of strength his sister actually had.

It could be said that the An family had become what it was today, with the ancestors of the An family taking half of the credit and his sister An Chengqing alone taking half of the credit.

Thinking about this, he could not help but sigh: "My sister has been strong all her life, never giving up on what she has decided, and the old man doted on her to the utmost. If she had not insisted on marrying far away, the old man would not have had a cold war with her for many years, and if my sister had not married Ye Chang Ying, so many things would not have happened later."

Saying that, An Chongqiu couldn't help but wave his hand and sigh lightly, "Ai, talking about this now, it can only be a sigh of relief."

"Ye Chang Ying" Li Yalin muttered under his breath and said, "I don't have any impression of Ye Chang Ying, I think I have never met him till the end."

An Chongqiu nodded, "It's normal that you haven't seen him, the old man has always despised him, and he rarely comes to the An family."

Li Yalin was busy saying, "Let me ask one more question, why does the old man have such a strong prejudice against your brother-in-law?"

An Chongqiu shrugged his shoulders and said helplessly, "In fact, my brother-in-law's family is also ranked very high in China, and even reached the first and second position at one time, but compared to the An family, it is still much worse, especially when the two of them fell in love, it happened to be the stage of the great rise of Silicon Valley, and the series of investments my sister made in Silicon Valley, all began to be wildly profitable, so the old master The old man always felt that my brother-in-law was deliberately approaching my sister in order to get close to the An family, so he had some preconceived notions about him.

The two of them would live and develop in the United States after they got married, and the old man later relented, meaning that as long as my brother-in-law stayed, he would no longer oppose their marriage..." ..."

Li Yalin exclaimed, "Did the old man mean to make your brother-in-law a son-in-law?"

"It's not quite a door-to-door son-in-law, is it?" An Chongqiu explained, "The old man only meant for the two of them to stay in the United States, and he didn't say that they should give birth to a child with the surname An, so this shouldn't be considered a son-in-law, right?"

Li Yalin shook his head, "It's not that bad, you have to know that he is not a phoenix man or poor boy who has nothing, he is also from a famous family, just not as rich as the An family, how could he accept the condition of staying in the woman's family to develop?"

An Chongqiu nodded: "That's also true, but the old man himself felt that this was already a big concession and the other party shouldn't have any objections at this time, but my brother-in-law also felt that this was a matter of principle that couldn't be compromised, so the two sides hadn't been able to resolve their differences."

Li Yalin nodded slightly, and after a moment of silence, he asked, "Hey yes, I remember that your sister has a son, once she brought the child back to see the old lady by herself, I even met him, how is that child now?"

Chapter 4197

An Chongqiu was slightly stunned, then sighed and said with some melancholy, "After my sister and brother-in-law's accident, that nephew of mine disappeared, for so many years, many people are looking for him, but there have been no clues, don't look at the old man's mouth, he never said anything, but in fact, in these twenty years, he hasn't stopped looking."

Saying that, he paused briefly and added: "The year my sister's accident happened, the old man set up a special trust fund at JP Morgan Bank, putting a billion dollars into it every year;"

"This money was used for two purposes, one was dedicated to finding that nephew of mine, and the other was to give him the rest of the money when he was found;"

"No, after twenty years have passed, the principal has been put in a total of twenty billion dollars, and hiring multiple teams to find people around the world over the past twenty years has cost less than half of that, almost six or seven billion dollars, I think."

Li Yalin's jaw dropped as he listened and blurted out, "It costs that much to find someone?!"

"Yes." An Chongqiu explained, "In the information age, it seems easy to find someone, but in fact, the world is so big that if you miss a corner, you may not be able to find that person for the rest of your life, so it takes multiple teams to spread out the map of the world and then search it little by little, hundreds or thousands of people, running around, feeding people and horses, the cost is indeed very high. "

"On top of that, there's the cost of intelligence, whether the information is useful or not, as long as there's information coming back to you, you have to pay a fee, and you can't get help from local authorities, police and gangs for this kind of thing for fear of information leaks and good intentions, so it has to be your own team looking a little bit at a time;”

“And once you find a suspect, you have to do everything you can to obtain the other party’s DNA for comparison, which is also a big cost, and no less than tens of millions of DNA comparisons have been done over the years alone.”

Li Yalin asked in disbelief, “And that’s not even found?!”

“No” An Chongqiu sighed, “It’s weird to say, we’ve been to almost everywhere in the world where people are, but we just can’t find it, maybe it’s in the wrong direction.”

Li Yalin asked again, “Did you look for it domestically?”

“Of course.” An Chongqiu said, “At that time, we started with the place of origin, and after turning the place of origin upside down, we started to gradually spread to the whole country. If we couldn’t find the whole country, we searched for those countries bordering the land, then spread to the whole Asia and then spread to the whole world.”

Li Yalin asked, “Have you sent anyone to check your brother-in-law’s family? Maybe they have hidden the child.”

An Chongqiu smiled sarcastically, “Of course we did, not only did we check, we had sent our top team to monitor them in those first few years, but we never found any clues.”

“But we didn’t give up, after all, which one of these big families wouldn’t play some tricks? Out of absolute caution, we wouldn’t give up until we had 100% confirmation, just in case they were hiding too deep.”

“So, fifteen years ago, we sent another group of people to infiltrate them, and one of them took a whole ten years to become the personal butler of the first heir of their family.”

“That time frame was almost five years ago, I think, and that was when we were finally able to be 100% sure that my brother-in-law’s family, too, did indeed not know the whereabouts of that great nephew of mine! And the old man of their family was looking for him everywhere, just like we were”

“You see this before and after, we just to confirm whether the person is in my brother-in-law’s family or not, or whether they know any clues or not, it took a whole fifteen years, all the human resources and energy we put into it, basically all in vain.”

“In the end, when we saw that the basket was empty, we withdrew all the people back”

Chapter 4198

After listening to An Chongqiu’s words, Li Yalin simply subverted the three views and exclaimed, “You guys are more ruthless than spy warfare The whole World War II was fought from 39 to 45 only six years, you guys even lasted fifteen years ”

“Yes.” An Chongqiu seriously said: “You see, these big families are basically doing things in this way, not afraid to spend money, not afraid of wasting time and energy, at all costs, only to not leave any mistakes, the hidden engineering behind this you simply can not imagine, we in order to not show traces of the talents we cultivate to several big families in the country, more than ten years ago specifically In order to unobtrusively send the talents we cultivate to the several big families in China, we joined hands with Huaxia more than ten years ago to organize a campaign to promote the development of Chinese overseas Chinese senior students back to China, we sent nearly a hundred Chinese overseas Chinese graduates from major universities in the United States back to China in one breath, so that they could enter these families through social recruitment to struggle and fight from scratch;”

“This is something that we have continued for more than ten years, and for all these ten years, we have had to pay these people exorbitant fees privately on a continuous basis.”

“So you can understand why so much money was spent, can’t you?”

Li Yalin nodded and lamented, “Understood before and after twenty years and spending billions of dollars on something that has no results, only you rich people can afford to burn so much money.”

An Chongqiu smiled faintly: “It’s not exactly burning money, although so much was spent, but the money was spent little by little for twenty years, and the money was put in the trust with interest, the profit was also very considerable, until half a year ago, the account balance was almost thirty-five or sixty billion, right?”

Li Yalin exclaimed, “How come it’s so much? Haven’t we already spent several billion?”

An Chongqiu nodded his head and said, “It’s just a matter of earning as you spend. In previous years, trust returns were very high, and in good years, it was normal to earn more than 10 points a year.

So, you may sound like we were stupid, or even a stickler, and spent a lot of money for nothing, but in fact, it didn’t cost us anything, and we had people to do everything, so we didn’t have to do it ourselves.

Li Yalin was convinced and sighed, “Profit rolls on, money makes money, in times of peace, you rich people are really wealthy for a thousand generations”

After saying that, he smiled to himself again, “Unlike me, I just f*cking know how to arrest people and solve crimes, I have no economic acumen at all.”

An Chongqiu said seriously, “In theory, as long as the descendants of a rich person keep their hands to themselves and don’t go out and do anything with their money, even if the rich person only has $100 million to put in a trust, it will ensure that his descendants will never lack money to spend.”

Li Yalin couldn’t help but sigh: “If we could find that great nephew of yours, wouldn’t he be worth thirty or forty billion dollars more out of thin air?!”

“More than that.” An Chongqiu said, “When the old man’s condition worsened, he was afraid that one day he would lose his consciousness and lose his ability to take care of himself, so he filled the account with more than 60 billion dollars, making up 100 billion dollars, then he changed the terms of the trust, leaving the 100 billion dollars of principal untouched and giving it all to my nephew, and only taking out the annual profits to find someone. The profits are still billions of dollars a year.”

“So if I could find that great nephew of mine, his value would increase by a hundred billion dollars out of thin air!”

Chapter 4199

After hearing this, Li Yalin lit a cigar and took a slow puff, then sat up straight, straightened his collar and grinned, "Chongqiu, what do you think about me being your nephew?"

An Chongqiu was stunned, then he reacted and cursed with a smile, "F*ck you."

Li Yalin laughed and said, "It's worth it to be your nephew. 100 billion dollars, according to the way you rich people play, you won't even finish spending the interest when you die"

An Chongqiu shook his head and laughed: "I just don't know if that nephew of mine can still find it, if he can really find it, I guess he hasn't suffered a lot over the years, with the contribution his mother made to the An family, taking this 100 billion dollars isn't much."

He said, he could not help but regret: "Unfortunately, the old man is sick, really see him, may not be able to recognize, even if you tell the old man that is him, the old man may not believe, if the old man is healthy, really see him, I'm afraid will take out some more money to him, so many years he rarely said, but also really miss this grandson in his heart. "

Then, he added: "Oh yes, the old lady also saved a lot of money for her grandson, always saying that when she finds him she will give it all to him, although it is not as much as hundred or eighty billion, but ten or eighty billion is definitely still there."

Li Yalin was already a bit numbed by the shock, so he wasn't surprised, he just teased, "You, as a great uncle, don't show it?"

"Does that even need to be said?" An Chongqiu seriously said: "I most admire my sister in my life, my nephew if I can find back, I give a 18.8 billion meaning, Kai Feng, Zhaonan, Yo Yo and the three of them, it is estimated that one can not be less than a hundred counted down, almost two thousand"

Li Yalin cried and laughed: "Pull out is also a Forbes world's richest man"

The first one in the world is not even in the top ten."

The actual world's largest and most popular brand name is the "Billion Dollar". It's quite a lot to say, but when it matters, you can't even buy a Spring Return Pill."

Li Yalin smiled sarcastically, "It seems you have a deep resentment towards this Spring Return Pill"

An Chongqiu nodded and said seriously, "I really have too much resentment, in all my life, I, An Chongqiu, have never suffered such stifling, that owner of the Spring Return Pill, is definitely a character! I gave him US$370 billion, but to him, that much money is no match for his principles"

Saying that, An Chongqiu asked Li Yalin, "Do you know how Master Fei Jianzhong Fei, was taken over by his son?"

"Not too sure." Li Yalin said, "The Fei family didn't put out any news to the outside world either, they said to the public that it was because the old man was getting old and the board of directors agreed that he was not suitable for the position of the family head anymore, but I know that they must have taken advantage of the opportunity to take advantage of the old man's trip to China and hollowed him out."

An Chongqiu grunted, "Getting older is just rhetoric, just those losers in the Fei family, combined, are no match for a ninety-something year old Master Fei, the real reason here is because Master Fei also went to the auction for the Spring Return Pill, and he bid up to US$200 billion, originally after I was kicked out, it should have been him who successfully auctioned for the Spring Return Pill, but his son Fei Shanhai broke his back, which was also tantamount to breaking his way out of life, and with that old man's health condition, I think it will be a year at most."

"Gra*s" Li Yalin cursed offhandedly, "This is so f*cking uncalled for! It's clear that he doesn't want the old man to live too long or spend too much money"

"Yes." An Chongqiu nodded and said, "So, the matter of Fei Shanhai's grandson being kidnapped and a ransom of two hundred billion dollars being demanded, I thought it was quite interesting after I heard the wind, isn't this a good f*cking reincarnation of heaven?"

Chapter 4200

At the same time, the Fei family's butler, as well as some of his inner circle, were urgently approaching international families who owned Concorde airliners.

After this incident, Fei Shanhai could not wait to buy a Concorde for any future contingencies that might occur.

Because, without a Concorde, it would take at least thirteen hours to send someone from New York to Japan.

But with a Concorde, they could arrive in five and a half hours.

In normal times, a difference of seven or eight hours is nothing, but in critical times, this is enough time to create too many variables.

As the request for the Concorde was a normal request for the Fei family, it was not confidential, so the men did not avoid people, and basically found a relatively quiet place, and then hurriedly started to communicate with each other on the phone.

They were all competing with each other, and whoever could help the Fei family secure a Concorde in the first place would surely be a great achievement.

When the maid, carrying the Richard Miller watch presented by Qiao Feiyun, returned to Villa One, she was surprised to find that many people were constantly on the phone, as if something big was happening.

Remembering Qiao Feiyun's explanation, she hastily found a male a*sistant who had always had a few words for her and had even repeatedly tried to go further with her, and asked curiously, "Song Peng, why aren't you off work and resting yet?"

He had always admired the maid's beauty and had long had thoughts in his heart, but the maid knew that he only had thoughts about her in that area, not that he wanted to marry her in a normal relationship, so she had never given him the chance to go further.

This Song Peng was not surprised to see her at this time, he just smiled and said, "I still have some unfinished business, why are you not off work too?"

The maid said, "I was worried about Grandma's health and came over to see if there was anything I could do to help."

Song Peng didn't doubt it and nodded, seeing no one around, with a few frivolous smiles on his face, he spoke, "How about I take you to Las Vegas when Xiao Yuan is off work for the weekend?"

"To Vegas?" The maid said awkwardly, "Just the two of us?"

"Yes!" Song Peng laughed, "Of course it's just the two of us, recently Beyoncé had a big show at the Las Vegas casino, haven't you always liked her? Take you there to see it and meet the world."

The maid didn't say anything, but in her heart she couldn't help but despise it.

If she had heard of such things in the past, she would have been very eager to see them.

But now, how could a mere Beyoncé be in her good books?

As far as she was concerned, she was the one who was going to be the young grandmother of the Qiao family.

So, she was almost ready to say no on the spot.

But then she remembered Qiao Feiyun's instructions, so she deliberately kept an extra eye on him and looked at Song Peng, smiling, "If there's really a chance, of course I don't have a problem, but there's so much going on at home right now, so it's hard for us to take a break from work for a while, right?"

Song Peng brushed aside his mouth and said casually, "We are just ordinary wage earners, we have to take a break when we should, there is no need to worry too much about the master's family, besides, sometimes it is not always your turn to worry even if you want to, take your maids as an example, usually so many maids take shifts, if something happens and they all flock to Grandma's room without taking a break, Grandma can't I can't stand it."

The maid nodded: "You seem to have a point"
