

Ye Chen 4261

Chapter 4261

When An Chongqiu heard this, the whole person was immediately shocked, instantly sat up straight, and asked out of the blue: "What's going on?"

On the other end of the phone, Ye Chen's sister-in-law An Youyou choked out, "The doctor said it was a brain hemorrhage"

"Cerebral hemorrhage?" An Chongqiu hurriedly asked, "What exactly is going on?"

An Youyou sobbed, "Dad's mental state has really been too bad recently this period of time, always unable to sleep, in pain every day, and in a very bad mood and has been very resistant to doctors, and his body is getting weaker and weaker"

"Just now dad went to the bathroom by himself and suddenly fainted and fell down, the doctor from the medical centre rushed over and judged it to be a brain haemorrhage and it has caused multiple organ failure, he is now in a deep coma, the doctor said he has at most one or two days left... .."

An Chongqiu immediately became anxious and blurted out, "How could multiple organs fail all of a sudden? What are all these doctors doing? Can't they even cure Dad with their abilities?"

An Youyou said helplessly, "The doctors said they've done everything they can, Dad's health signs are getting worse and worse, basically there's no chance of him getting better"

An Chongqiu asked, "What about those national medical saints? What about the martial arts masters? What about the Taoist masters of heaven? Is there nothing they can do?!"

"There's nothing they can do" An Youyou said in tears, "Several national doctors have also seen him and all said there's nothing they can do, and the martial arts masters also said that Dad's condition is already hanging by a thread and there's no way out... .."

Saying that, An Youyou added, "Mom has sent someone to ask Hong Tianshui, she said that there is a life-renewing elixir from Hong Tianshui, saying that it can keep a dying person alive for seven to ten days, but I am not sure if there is really something like that"

An Chongqiu said offhandedly, "I don't know if the Life Renewing Pill is useful, but the Spring Returning Pill will definitely work!"

After saying that, he said to An Youyou, "Youyou, you and the second and third generation try to take care of Mom and Dad! I'm going to go to China and ask for a rejuvenation pill for Dad!"

An Youyou blurted out, "Big brother! The family is like headless flies right now, you'd better come back quickly! If you're here, we'll have a backbone! If you delay any longer, I'm really afraid you won't be able to see the last of Dad"

Only then did An Chongqiu realise that even if he knew that the Spring Return Pill could save his father's life, in this situation, I'm afraid it would simply be too late.

What's more, he was not at all sure that he could buy the Spring Return Pill, after all, he didn't even know who actually had it, and if he blindly returned to Jinling, I was afraid that it would be difficult to meet the owner of the Spring Return Pill.

If he went back to Jinling blindly, it would be difficult to meet the owner of the Spring Return Pill.

Thinking of this, he hurriedly said, "Yo Yo you take it easy, I'll go back now!"

After saying that, he hung up the phone, he stood up straight away and said to Li Yalin in a panic, "Old Li, my father is critically ill, I need to hurry back."

Without thinking, Li Yalin stood up and blurted out, "I'll go with you!"

An Chongqiu waved his hand and said seriously, "You forget that there are big events in New York soon, you absolutely cannot leave New York now, it's better to stay here and keep watch."

After saying that, he took out his wallet, took out all the cash inside and put it on the table, and said to Li Yalin, "I'm leaving, take care of yourself! Call me if you need anything!"

Li Yalin had to nod gently and said, "If there's anything new on the old man's side, tell me at the first opportunity!"

"Good!"

An Chongqiu said, and the man had already run out of the restaurant.

Immediately afterwards, he got into his car and said to the driver, "Hurry up, go to the airport! Contact the crew and prepare to take off back to Los Angeles immediately!"

At the same time, Ye Chen's expression on the first floor had become very ugly.

Chapter 4262

He had also heard An Chongqiu's phone call with his little aunt An Youyou, and knew that Grandpa's life was now hanging by a thread.

At this moment, his heart could not help but tense up.

He just didn't understand how Grandpa, who was so rich and only seventy years old, could be dying so early in life.

According to his sister's description on the phone, Grandpa had already run out of oil and in this case, apart from his own elixir, I was afraid that there was no medicine under the sky that could cure him.

In other words, if he did not help himself, Grandpa would probably not be able to survive this hurdle.

No matter what, he was his mother's father, and he had a quarter of his bloodline in him, so no matter how much prejudice he had against him, he could never refuse to save him from death.

However, at the moment, he himself was not mentally prepared to meet with Grandpa's family.

Just as Ye Chen was torn, Gu Qiuyi saw that something was wrong with him and hurriedly asked, "Brother Ye Chen, what's wrong with you?"

Ye Chen looked at Gu Qiuyi, hesitated for a moment and said, "Nui Nui, if it's convenient for you, can you go to Los Angeles on my behalf?"

Without thinking, Gu Qiuyi nodded and said, "Yes! Brother Ye Chen, what do you want me to go to Los Angeles for?"

Ye Chen said, "You go to Los Angeles and look for my grandmother at the An family."

Saying that, Ye Chen took out a blood dispersing and heart saving pill from his pocket and handed it to Gu Qiuyi's hand, saying solemnly, "You hand this pill to my grandmother and ask her to give it to my grandfather."

Gu Qiuyi was surprised and said, "Brother Ye Chen, your grandfather is sick?"

"Mm." Ye Chen nodded, unable to hide his worry and said, "It sounds as if he is seriously ill."

Gu Qiuyi was busy asking, "Then why don't you just give the medicine to your great-uncle? Isn't he just downstairs?"

Ye Chen shook his head and said, "He's already gone."

After saying that, Ye Chen added, "Besides, I'm not ready to meet with them right now."

Gu Qiuyi nodded gently and added, "Brother Ye Chen, I don't know exactly where the An family is in Los Angeles ah Moreover, for a family as big as the An family, security must be very strict, I don't know if they will let me in... .."

Ye Chen seriously said, "You don't need to worry about this, you fly over first, I'll ask Wan Breaking Army to investigate the address of my grandfather's family in Los Angeles, once you arrive at the An family, just tell the An family's underlings that you are my fiancée and want to pay a visit to my grandparents, they will definitely let you in."

Hearing the word fiancée, Gu Qiuyi was instantly shy and happy, her neatly set shellfish teeth gently tore into her lower lip as she said shyly, "Then that then if grandma and the others ask you up, how should I answer?"

Ye Chen said, "Just say that you haven't found news of me yet."

Gu Qiuyi said with some concern, "But I always have to explain where the blood dispersal heart saving pills came from otherwise they may not believe me"

Ye Chen then said, "Don't let them realize that you're here to deliver the medicine, just act like you're here because you want to pay a visit and when you heard that my grandfather was sick, you took the medicine out to him without thinking."

Saying that, Ye Chen added: "If they don't believe in the efficacy of this medicine, you say that this medicine was obtained by Uncle Gu by chance, and then tell them that Uncle Gu was cured by this medicine when his pancreatic cancer had developed to an advanced stage, and that there are two pills in total, your father took one, and you have the remaining one here! I believe they should have heard about Uncle Gu's advanced pancreatic cancer cure, and even if they hadn't, with their strength, they would be able to seek proof within minutes!"

Chapter 4263

In fact, on Ye Chen's person, he had always kept three kinds of pills, namely the Blood Dispersing Heart Saving Pill, the Spring Returning Pill and even the Peiyuan Pill.

The reason why he asked Gu Qiuyi to send a Blood Dispersing Heart Saving Pill instead of a Spring Returning Pill was that, on the one hand, he thought that since his elder uncle had just been expelled from the Spring Returning Pill auction, if Gu Qiuyi went there with a Spring Returning Pill, it was very likely that she would reveal her identity, and on the other hand, it was also because in his heart, he still had some difficulty in letting go of his feelings towards his grandfather.

In his opinion, with the efficacy of the Blood Dispersing and Heart Saving Pill, it was already enough to save Grandpa's life, why did he need to use the Spring Return Pill?

What's more, back then, his father had not suffered much discrimination in the An family, and taking out a Blood Dissipation Heart Saving Pill himself was already repaying his grievances with virtue, and there was no need to continue to rise to a higher level.

Gu Qiuyi did not know the trade-offs in Ye Chen's heart, she only knew that the situation was urgent and she absolutely could not delay.

So, she hurriedly said, "Brother Ye Chen, then I'll go to the airport now!"

Ye Chen said, "There's no rush for this moment, you should first call Duo Duo to arrange for a flight, I'll also ask Wan Breaking Army to arrange for a few female generals to accompany you, make sure to ensure your personal safety."

Gu Qiuyi nodded and said, "Then I'll call Duo Duo right now!"

At this moment, Chen Duoduo had just finished signing the contract with the representative of the Fei family, buying the performance venue that the Fei family had just bought out for a symbolic price of one dollar.

As soon as Gu Qiuyi's call came through, she couldn't wait to pick up the phone and said excitedly, "Oh my God, Qiuyi, the Fei family has sold the venue to us! This is too incredible! How on earth did you and Ye Chen manage to do that?"

After saying that, she hurriedly added, "Duo Duo, hurry up and arrange the plane, I have to fly to Los Angeles soon, have the crew get ready, the sooner the better."

"Huh?" Chen Duoduo was surprised and asked, "Qiuyi, we're having our final rehearsal tomorrow and the show starts the day after tomorrow, what are you doing going to Los Angeles at this time, it's at least seven or eight hours for a round trip, right?"

Gu Qiuyi blurted out, "Oh, it's urgent, I can't explain it now, you hurry up and arrange it for me, if it goes well I can be back by this evening, it won't delay the rehearsal tomorrow!"

"Alright" Chen Duo Duo had no choice but to say, "I'll call the crew now then."

Gu Qiuyi admonished, "Tell them to hurry up as much as possible, I'm going to the airport now!"

"Okay, I know."

After Gu Qiuyi hung up the phone, she said to Ye Chen, "Brother Ye Chen, then I'll move to the airport now."

Ye Chen stood up and spoke, "I'll walk you there."

Gu Qiu Yi took his arm and said petulantly, "Brother Ye Chen, if you don't have anything to do, you can go with me, so you can wait for me at the airport and not go to the An family!"

Ye Chen shook his head and said, "This evening Fei Jianzhong and Fei Kexin will arrive, and it's time to cash in on the big gift I prepared for the Fei family, there are still many things waiting for me to do here, so we both have to split up."

"Alright" Gu Qiuyi knew that Ye Chen had other things to attend to, so she said good-naturedly, "Then I'll go there by myself and come back to see you first after I'm done."

"Good!"

At this time, Li Yalin downstairs had also lost his interest in drinking by himself, and he beckoned to Chen Zhaozhong, saying, "Boss, the money is on the table for you."

Chen Zhao Zhong poked his head out and took one look at the pile of hundred dollar bills on the table and said, "Inspector Li, you don't need so much money, you can just keep a hundred dollars."

Chapter 4264

Li Yalin said, "I didn't give this money, it's from that friend of mine, how can I put it in my own pocket, you can keep it, I'm leaving."

He stood up, wiped his mouth with a piece of paper, turned around and walked out.

Only when Chen Zhaozhong saw him leave the door did he really breathe a sigh of relief.

He was not afraid that Li Yalin would find out about his status as an illegal immigrant, but he was only afraid that he would notice that he had met him before and subsequently link the disappearance of Fei Hao Yang to himself.

Ye Chen and Gu Qiuyi had visited his shop more than once, and once he was exposed, Li Yalin would be able to follow the trail and find Ye Chen.

And the case of Fei Hao Yang's disappearance was not a seamless one, Li Yalin could not find the clues only because they were well hidden, but once he found the clues and grabbed the head of a rope, he would be able to bring the whole case out.

As he was thinking this, he saw that Ye Chen and Gu Qiuyi had also walked down, so he hurriedly stepped forward and said, "Young Master Ye, why are you down here? That Inspector Li has just gone out, so he probably hasn't gone far yet."

Ye Chen said, "Uncle Zhong, we have to go first, we'll come back to you later."

As soon as Chen Zhao Zhong heard Ye Chen say that he had an urgent matter, she immediately stopped holding back. She first went to the door and looked out, and when she saw that Li Yalin had already left in his car, she said, "Inspector Li's car has left, so if you have an urgent matter, go ahead and do it, and if there is anything you need from me, just say something."

"Okay Uncle Zhong."

Ye Chen and Gu Qiuyi said goodbye to Chen Zhao Zhong, then they got into the car and also headed towards the airport.

.....

Meanwhile.

Fei Jianzhong and Fei Kexin were sitting in a Gulfstream business jet, unable to hide their nervousness.

Inside the cabin, Yuan Zixu and Su Ruoli were both resting their eyes while this grandfather and grandson duo, were both staring out of the window into the pitch blackness.

From the moment the helicopter arrived in Colombo, the capital of Sri Lanka, they had no idea where they were going next.

When they boarded the plane, no one told them where it was going.

With the plane flying above thick clouds, it was impossible to tell where they were going, so the two grandchildren were even more apprehensive.

After staring out of the window for a long time, Fei Jianzhong could not help but ask Fei Kexin in a low voice, "Kexin, where do you think Mr. Ye is going to arrange for us to go? The plane has been flying for several hours, if it's going to Syria, it should be arriving soon, right?"

Fei Kexin nodded, carefully recalled the world map and spoke, "It should take at least six hours to fly from Sri Lanka to Syria, it has been seven hours since we took off, if we were going to Syria, the plane should have descended in altitude long ago, but now the plane is still cruising normally, I reckon we are still early to our destination."

Fei Jianzhong frowned and asked, "Flying at this speed, no matter which direction we go, I'm afraid we're out of Asia. Could it be that Mr. Ye already doesn't intend for us to go to Syria, but has other arrangements for us?"

Fei Ke Xin agreed, "Out of Asia for sure, but it's not clear where we're going out of Asia"

Saying that, she looked at Fei Jianzhong and said seriously, "Grandpa, you should not worry too much, Mr. Ye will definitely give us a proper arrangement."

Fei Jianzhong nodded, but still said with some melancholy, "I definitely believe in Mr. Ye, but this unknown feeling is still a bit apprehensive, I'm not afraid that something will happen to me, but I'm afraid that you will be in danger by my involvement."

"It won't happen." Fei Ke Xin said very firmly, "Since Mr. Ye has stepped in to help us, he will definitely not let us encounter any further danger! No matter where this plane is flying to, even if it's to New York, with Mr. Ye, I'm not afraid!"

Chapter 4265

JFK Airport, New York.

Two private planes took off twenty minutes apart.

On the plane that took off first was Ye Chen's great uncle, An Chongqiu, while on the plane that took off later was Gu Qiuyi, who was holding the Blood Dispersing and Heart Saving Pill.

An Chongqiu's heart was in turmoil at this moment.

His heart was full of tension and heartache for his father, and he had not thought for a moment that he would wait for his father to pass away and divide the An family's assets.

Moreover, he knew very well that his father was the backbone of the An family, and if he were to pass away at this time, the entire An family would be greatly wounded.

Therefore, in his heart, he did not want his father to suffer such an ordeal.

Compared to other families, the An family is relatively more united and there is little conflict between the siblings.

The main reason why the An family was so united was because of the unexpected death of An Chengqing.

The death of An Chengqi not only caused the entire An family a great deal of pain, but also made the An family blame themselves for so many years.

Everyone knew that if the An family had supported An Chengqin's choice and her marriage to the Ye family, An Chengqin would not have gone to Jinling with Ye Chen after Ye Changyang and the Ye family had fallen out.

Going to Jinling was a desperate choice for the three of them.

If the An family had been the strong backing of An Chengqing, and An Chengqing and her husband had been wronged in Yanjing, they would have taken Ye Chen back to her mother's home to settle down.

In that case, the tragedy that followed might not have happened.

It was also from the time of An Chengqing and Ye Changyang's accident that Ye Chen's grandfather changed his thinking on how to manage the An family.

The five words of family harmony and prosperity then became his only philosophy of family governance.

Under the old man's promotion for so many years, the An family gradually got used to putting their family first in everything.

Once anything conflicted with family harmony, they had to unconditionally put their family first.

After so many years, the An family was indeed much more united under his leadership than even the average large family.

Moreover, the old man was indeed wise and very meticulous in the functional structure of the entire An family.

He let An Chongqiu, who had a relatively soft personality, take the lead internally, let An Kefeng, who had a relatively strong personality, take the lead externally, let An Zhaonan, who was the third, assist An Kefeng in the organisation of the entire An family's industries, and let An Youyou, who was the youngest, oversee the financial and legal affairs of the entire An family.

At the same time, he also gave An Chongqiu and An Youyou the right to veto in the board of directors' meetings, as a meltdown mechanism at critical times, to prevent An Kaifeng from acting arbitrarily when he is in power.

If something happens to him as the head of the family, all the children will listen to An Chongqiu when they enter the family home, while the other three siblings will discuss the decision when they leave the family home.

If An Kaifeng wants to act arbitrarily, An Chongqiu, who knows the most about finance and legal affairs, can use his veto power to melt away his control.

If An Kaifeng wants to join forces with An Zhaonan and An Youyou for other plans, An Chongqiu can also use his veto power to block them and avert the risks for the An family.

The four siblings appear to be working in tandem with each other, while at the same time keeping each other in check.

If the family is already at odds within itself, it will certainly lead to collusion and open rivalry between all parties.

But the good thing is that the An family is united, so the four of them have always worked very well together.

Chapter 4266

Everyone puts the interests of the An family first, and even if there is any disagreement, they can still be objective and discuss it democratically.

It was because of this structure that the old man suddenly fell ill and An Kaifeng, An Zhaonan and An Youyou all put aside all their business and rushed back home.

At this time, Gu Qiuyi was sitting on the plane, looking at the white plastic box of waxed and sealed pills in her hand, her heart excited.

Although she knew that she shouldn't feel this way under such circumstances, she simply couldn't control her heart.

Because, Ye Chen had actually asked herself to go to his grandparents' house as his fiancée!

This, in Gu Qiuyi's eyes, was an acknowledgement from Ye Chen to her.

Compared to his previous ambiguity, Ye Chen's attitude this time, in her opinion, was a big step forward!

However, Gu Qiuyi did not know that the reason why Ye Chen let her go to the An family as his fiancée was based on the premise that Gu Qiuyi had not found herself.

Gu Qiuyi was already married to himself, so it was only right for her to visit the An family as his fiancée.

But how could he have imagined that this would become a great encouragement to Gu Qiuyi?

It was late afternoon.

The plane that An Chongqiu was on landed on the private runway of an estate in the suburbs of Los Angeles.

This is the An family's estate in Los Angeles.

The entire estate not only covers a huge area, but also has three private runways, as well as several medium to large hangars, where at least five or six private jets of different sizes are parked.

When the An family bought the land, they were so bold as to build an airport on their own estate.

Such things, however, are not uncommon in the sparsely populated United States.

As soon as An Chongqiu's plane touched down on the runway inside the estate, it glided directly in front of the main building of the estate.

This main building could no longer be described as a villa, it had a very large floor area, the whole of which was spread out in a U-shape, and was a few points larger than a normal five-star resort hotel.

It was basically equal to a small city, with not only various residential, leisure, entertainment and office areas, but also equipped with the An family's own hospital.

Ye Chen's sister-in-law, An Youyou, was already waiting downstairs at this time. The plane glided directly in front of the building, and just as it stopped, the boarding car over there drove straight over and finished docking with the hatch.

The moment the hatch opened, An Chongqiu flew down and saw An Youyou standing below with red eyes, and hurriedly went up and asked, "Youyou, how's Dad?"

An Youyou's eyes kept flowing with tears, wiping them with her hands while choking, "Dad's condition is very bad, an hour ago, Hong Tianshui came with a life-sustaining pill, but after Dad took it, there was no improvement at all, the doctor said Dad's indicators were still dropping and he might not make it through the night Hong Tianshui said, Dad The situation is still too serious, if he had taken the Life Renewing Pill earlier, it might still be effective"

An Chongqiu cursed in anger, "Life renewal pill, life renewal pill! If you can't renew your life, what the hell do you call a life-renewal pill! The only thing that can be said about this is that it's a charlatan!"

He was originally going to be in seclusion for five years, but he was about to leave in five months. Today, he did not hesitate to take it out and give it to Dad."

An Chongqiu said in a cold voice: "This piece of crap is probably not even one tenth of a millionth of the Spring Return Pill, what a Taoist treasure, I'm not afraid to make a fool of myself by saying it!"

After saying that, he waved his hand distractedly, "Forget it, let's not talk about it, where is dad, take me there quickly!"

Chapter 4267

This medical centre is not only staffed by top experts from several departments, but is even equipped with several ICU intensive care units, maternity wards and operating theatres.

The hardware facilities here are fully capable of handling even the most complex organ transplant operations in the world.

At this moment, the An family's oldest son, An Qishan, was lying in the largest ICU ward of the medical centre.

His body is plugged with all kinds of equipment and tubes, and his entire face is covered in an oxygen mask, barely maintaining his faint breath on a ventilator.

A few doctors kept at his heels, but there was nothing more they could do now.

In their eyes, An Qishan's life was still coming to an end, just like the wick that had burned the last drop of oil, the flame was so small that it was almost invisible, and at the same time it was still shrinking irregularly, as if it might go out at any moment.

It was not that they did not want to intervene, but in such a situation, even a little bit of breathing might blow out the last flame, so the best way to deal with it was not to interfere with it and let it burn the last few drops of oil left in the wick.

The rest of the An family's children and grandchildren were all staying in the lounge outside the ICU.

Ye Chen's second and third uncles were sitting side by side on a combination sofa, in addition to an old man with white hair and beard, who was sitting opposite them, chanting something with one hand.

The rest of the An family's grandchildren and women were sitting on the benches on either side of the sofa, looking sad.

When An Youyou and An Chongqiu darted in, everyone stood up immediately.

An Kai Feng rushed over with red eyes, grabbed An Chong Qiu's arm and choked up, "Big brother you're finally back"

An Zhaonan also couldn't help but snifle and said in a trembling voice, "Big brother, dad has been in a coma and hasn't woken up yet, mum is inside with him, you should go check it out quickly."

An Chongqiu nodded heavily and spoke in a very firm tone, "Don't be too pessimistic yet, Dad has been through all kinds of big storms in his life, such a small problem is nothing to him, he will definitely be able to pull through."

Everyone nodded their heads, but their expressions did not show any confidence.

When An Chongqiu saw that everyone was dead, he himself was a bit panicked, so he hurriedly said, "You guys wait outside first, I'll go in and check on Dad!"

After saying that, he pushed the door alone and went in.

When the old lady saw him come in, her emotions got the better of her and she said in tears, "Chongqiu, Chongqiu your father can't seem to hold on anymore. ...Mom what should I do ah Chongqiu"

As she spoke, the old lady's body was already a little shaky and nearly tipped to one side.

An Chongqiu hurriedly went forward and held her up with both hands, forcing down the urge to cry and choked out, "Mom is fine, Dad will be fine he is just too tired lately and needs a good rest, maybe Maybe he'll wake up in a little while"

The old lady kept slowly shaking her head and looked at An Qishan on the hospital bed, her eyes full of sorrow and despair.

She was also a highly educated person who had been through the radical changes in the world in the past decades, how could she not be aware of her husband's current situation.

She took her husband's hand in one hand and her eldest son An Chongqiu's hand in the other and murmured softly, "Your father ah is missing your sister too much this time... Even the strongest body can't hold up after such a torment"

Hearing these words, An Chongqiu could no longer control his emotions and cried out in silent pain alone.

At this time, the old lady looked up at An Chongqiu and said seriously, "Chongqiu ah If your father cannot survive this hurdle, you should go to Yanjing and go to the Ye family"

An Chongqiu was surprised and asked, "Mom you are"

The old lady continued, "You go to the Ye family to apologize to your brother-in-law's father and find a way to beg him to agree to let you move your sister back from the Ye family's ancestral tomb, I want her to come back to stay with your father"

“This” An Chongqiu hurriedly said, “Mom things haven’t come to that yet, you shouldn’t think about these things so early”

Chapter 4268

The old lady shook her head, wiped away her tears, and said expressionlessly, “All the methods that can be used have been used, and the methods that cannot be used have also been tried, I have even invited the Hong Tian Shi, whom your father has always resented, and now I really don’t know what other methods there are”

An Chongqiu knew that his father did not believe in religion, let alone metaphysics, whether it was Master Hong Tian from Jindan Daomen or Master Lai from I Ching gossip. There are no two liars in the arena.

If it were not a last resort, his mother would never have invited him to the house.

At this time, An Chongqiu, who had been consoling his younger siblings and comforting his mother, had grown more and more desperate in his own heart.

In his opinion, the old man, this time, was afraid that he would really not be able to pull through.

At the same time.

The private plane that Gu Qiuyi was on had already dropped its altitude to less than two thousand meters.

The crew, at this moment, had already pointed its direction towards the runway of the Fei family and was preparing to land there.

Earlier, Gu Qiuyi had obtained the exact location of the An family’s manor from Ye Chen via satellite phone, and had also obtained the information that in the An family’s manor, there was its own 4E class runway.

A runway of this level could basically cater for the normal take-off and landing of all types of aircraft except the fully loaded Airbus A380.

In order to race against time, Ye Chen then wanted Gu Qiuyi to land directly at the An family.

However, the Fei family has always been heavily guarded and if there were no known aircraft to take off or land, they would block the airport runway with multiple heavy vehicles to avoid any miscreants landing directly at the Ye family’s estate, so in order to land here, the plane would first have to go through the permission of the Fei family’s ground control staff.

So, the captain immediately radioed in and called the Fei family runway controllers.

ANAP is the call sign of the Fijia runway registered with civil aviation, and immediately after the call from the airport, a query came over the radio, "B9733, this is ANAP, please identify yourself."

The captain hurriedly said, "I have a special and important guest on board who would like to visit the old lady of the An family, please give permission for my plane to land directly at the An family runway."

The other party immediately said, "We have not received any report about the visitor's plane at the moment, no plane is allowed to land here, if it is a visit, please contact the main family first, we will open the runway as soon as we receive the order from the main family."

The captain said, "The important guest on board my plane has a special status, she does not have the contact information of the Fei family at the moment, so please inform them on your behalf."

"Sorry." The other party refused without a second thought, "Our code of work is to receive orders, which plane can land only when the main family tells us which plane is to land, we are not authorised to make requests to the main family, there are obstacles on the runway, we suggest you go to a public airport to land."

When the captain saw that the other party would not relent, he hurriedly said through the cabin radio, "Miss Gu, the staff on the other side of the ground will not allow us to land, in that case, we can only go to Los Angeles International Airport to land."

When Gu Qiuyi heard this, her heart tightened: "If we land at Los Angeles International Airport, we will definitely be delayed a lot when we leave the airport and transfer to a car"

Thinking of this, she hurriedly opened her seat belt, quickly went to the Cockpit and said to the captain, "Open the radio, I'll talk to them!"

The captain immediately took off his headset and handed it to Gu Qiuyi, then pressed the talk button and said, "Miss Gu, you can talk now."

Gu Qiuyi put on her headset and said eagerly, "I am brother Ye Chen's fiancée have something important to see brother Ye Chen's grandmother!"

The young staff on the other end did not know who Ye Chen was, and when he saw that the registration number of this plane started with B, he knew that this plane was from China, so he said very seriously, "This is the An family, there is no one called Ye Chen, please turn away immediately, otherwise I will complain to the FAA, and in serious cases, your plane will be banned from flying into US territorial airspace!"

Gu Qiuyi stomped her foot in anxiety and blurted out, "How dare you!!! I'm telling you! Ye Chen's brother is the son of Auntie An Chengqin!"

Chapter 4269

This staff member of the An family didn't know who Ye Chen was, but he naturally knew An Chengqi's name like the back of his hand!

As soon as he heard Gu Qiuyi say that that Ye Chen was An Chengqi's son, this man was instantly appalled!

He immediately thought that his main family had been searching everywhere for the whereabouts of that son left behind by An Chengqi for so many years, but there had never been any clues.

Could this be the important clue that had been delivered to his door?!

Thinking of this, he immediately approved the plane's landing request, while hurriedly picking up the phone to report to his higher-ups.

These six words, An Chengqiu's son, were like a thunderbolt, causing the An family's butler to rush into the medical centre even as he rolled and crawled.

At this moment, An Chongqiu was still doing his best to comfort his mother while forcing himself to endure the pain.

The housekeeper ran over in a panic, not caring about everyone outside, and pushed the door open straight away, saying breathlessly, "Mrs. Da... ..the Grand Young Master"

An Chongqiu saw that the always stable housekeeper had actually panicked a bit and even ventured into his father's ward, and could not help but reprimand, "Uncle Dong, what's wrong with you?! Don't you know to knock on the door first?"

Everyone else gathered around at this point, wondering if something urgent had happened.

"From China?" An Chongqiu frowned and asked, "What kind of people?"

The butler swallowed and spoke, "It's the daughter-in-law that Missy appointed back then!"

"What Grand Miss", An Chongqiu didn't even react for a moment.

The old lady, who was incomparably sad, suddenly blurted out at this time, "It's the doll's marriage that Chengqi appointed for Chen'er! It's Chen's fiancée! Where is she?"

The housekeeper said, "She's on the plane, she's about to land!"

An Chongqiu was surprised and asked, "Mom, what's going on? Chen'er Chen'er has a fiancée?!"

The old lady said with some excitement, "When Chen'er was small, your sister had arranged a marriage for him, the other party was your brother-in-law's good brother, but at that time the child was still small, your sister only told me about this matter, should not have talked to you later your sister and they met with an accident, this matter was not mentioned again The girl was too young, so I thought the matter must have been closed"

Speaking here, the old lady suddenly widened her eyes and asked with excitement to the point of crying, "Chongqiu you say could it be that Chen'er has come back"

“Chen’er?!” An Chongqiu all of a sudden also some emotional excitement, said offhand: “God has eyes! Dad has searched for Chen’er for so many years without finding him, if Chen’er comes back at this time, it will make up for Dad’s great regret”

The old lady was trembling with excitement and turned to grab An Qishan’s hand, crying and saying, “Qishan, did you hear that? This time maybe it’s really Chen’s return, our grandson is back! You can’t leave now! You have to wait to see your grandson!”

As soon as these words were spoken, the various parameters on the monitor beside An Qishan rose with the naked eye!

The doctor was immediately excited and said out of the blue, “Master’s physical condition has rebounded! The heart rate, blood pressure and blood oxygen have all increased!”

When the crowd heard this, they were instantly surprised.

Since the old man had been in a coma, his physical signs had been declining, not to mention rising, and there was no chance of stopping the decline.

The old lady was also overjoyed, wiping away her tears as she said impatiently, “Quick! Help me to go outside! I want to see Chen’er get off the plane with my own eyes!”

An Chongqiu hurriedly helped the old lady to go outside, and Ye Chen’s second uncle, third uncle and sister-in-law also subconsciously followed her.

Chapter 4270

Seeing this, An Chongqiu hurriedly said, “Kai Feng, don’t go, just stay here and guard Dad, in case there are any unexpected situations, you can also respond in time.”

An Kaifeng was a little hesitant, but after thinking about it, he agreed to go.

In fact, he was eager to go out with everyone to see if it was Ye Chen who had returned or not.

After all, of the An family siblings, although everyone had deep feelings for An Chengqing, An Kai Feng’s feelings for his sister An Chengqing were the deepest among the siblings.

He had always been a thundering, strong man, but that was only gradually developed after An Chengqing’s death.

When An Chengqing was alive, he was the most devout follower of An Chengqing.

It was only after An Chengqi’s death that he began to imitate his sister’s style of behaviour and gradually became what he is today.

But deep down in his heart, he felt that he was not as capable as his sister.

At this moment.

The An family’s hearts were getting more and more nervous.

The old lady couldn't help but ask the sons and daughters around her, "Do you think Chen'er will be on the plane?!"

Everyone dared not answer one by one, after all, Ye Chen had been missing for almost twenty years, they simply did not dare to hope that Ye Chen would return at this time.

In the past, they had made a few oops, several times they thought they had found Ye Chen, but in the end, it was all confirmed through DNA and they were just having an empty joy.

So this time, everyone was also worried that this time it would still be a dream of Nanke.

As the roar of the plane's engines got closer and closer, the plane Gu Qiuyi was on finally landed smoothly at the end of the runway, followed by an even louder whirring sound as the counter-thrust mechanism of the plane's engine opened.

A few moments later, the plane had slowed down, and under the guidance of the ground guidance vehicle, it slowly glided to the main entrance of the main building.

The moment the hatch opened, the An family's hearts were in their throats.

And at that moment, Gu Qiuyi, who was inside the hatch, was also tense to the extreme.

Immediately afterwards, the hatch opened.

The moment the An family saw Gu Qiuyi, several of the young grandchildren immediately let out a shriek, "It's Gu Qiuyi?!"

As the top stream in Chinese singers, Gu Qiuyi's popularity was indeed very high.

Several of Ye Chen's younger siblings knew of her and all liked her songs very much.

Therefore, when they saw Gu Qiuyi coming down from the cabin, they were all surprised beyond addition.

The old lady was so nervous at this moment that she kept looking behind Gu Qiuyi, but when she saw that there was no longer anyone else behind Gu Qiuyi, her heart was suddenly lost again.

She knew that her grandson was definitely not on the plane.

Gu Qiuyi had already walked up to the crowd by this time, forcing down her nervousness and spoke, "Hello everyone, I'm Gu Qiuyi is brother Ye Chen's fiancée"

"Gu Qiuyi" The old lady looked at her and hurriedly asked after her, "Are you the young girl from the Gu family that Chengqi had said?!"

Gu Qiuyi nodded hastily and said respectfully, "That's right, it's me"

After saying that, she asked politely, "You must be brother Ye Chen's grandmother, right?"

The old lady nodded gently, "It's me Good child, tell grandma, do you have the whereabouts of Chen'er?"
