

Ye Chen 4281

Chapter 4281

In fact, at one point, Master Hong's heart was very torn.

He originally did not believe in this Blood Dispersing and Heart Saving Pill.

He always felt that if the Life Renewing Pill, which he held as precious, was useless, there must be nothing in this world that could save An Qishan's life.

But he never thought that a young actress would have such a miraculous elixir that could even bring back a person who was almost declared dead!

The point is, originally, An Qishan was on his deathbed, but this Blood Dispersing and Heart Saving Pill not only pulled him back from the ghost gate, but even made him recover instantly as if he was not injured, this kind of medicinal effect, completely overturned Master Hong's understanding of the word pills.

Although people who cultivate the Dao focus on the unity of heaven and man and on cultivating their bodies and nurturing their natures, what they actually value most is the way of alchemy.

During the feudal era, the Daoist priests who used mercury and vermilion sand to make pills and then ate the emperor to death were basically their predecessors.

When Hong Tian Shi first started his monastic life, he also wanted to study the ancient art of alchemy, but there are too few ancient texts on elixirs in existence today, and the only few elixir recipes that have survived have been tested by him and are not very useful, so it is difficult to make progress in this area.

Over the years, he had tried to collect all kinds of materials and recipes, and then he had tried to make many kinds of pills, but basically he had not made any useful pills.

His repeated failures did not make him give up his pursuit of the art of alchemy. On the contrary, as he grew older, his sense of crisis became stronger and stronger, so, in order to be able to truly make pills that would benefit his life and prolong his life, he began a long retreat, locking himself up in his dojo every day to study the art of alchemy.

Only, up until now, there had been little success.

Because of the countless setbacks he had suffered, he even thought that there was no such thing as an elixir that could bring back the dead or prolong life in this world, and that everything was just a fabrication of the old Taoist ancestors.

However, now that he had seen the Blood Dispersing and Heart Saving Pill, he had become excited about the art of alchemy again.

That's why he came over to ask Gu Qiuyi for information about the Blood Dispersing and Heart Saving Pill.

Gu Qiuyi didn't have any preconceptions about him, so she replied directly, "This medicine was obtained by my father by chance, but he never told me exactly how he got it."

When Hong Tian Shi heard this, he immediately said in a heartbeat, "Then could you please Miss Gu, give me your father's contact information, I really want to know where exactly I got such a magical elixir"

Gu Qiuyi did not expect this Hong Tian Shi to want to break the sand pot and ask questions to the end, so she could only say, "Sorry, my father is usually busy, please understand."

Hong Tian Shi said in a panic, "Never mind never mind, your father just needs to be able to spare a few minutes to talk to me about the general process of getting the elixir, if he is really not available, I can also fly to the country to meet with him for advice"

When An Chongqiu, who had returned with the land deed, saw that Heavenly Master Hong was pestering Gu Qiuyi, his expression was a bit ugly and he said, "Heavenly Master Hong, just now you scoffed at this Blood Dispersing and Heart Saving Pill, and now you are asking questions with a cheeky face, this is not appropriate, is it? Don't you monks all say that you are pure of heart and desire?"

When Master Hong heard An Chongqiu's mockery, although he couldn't face it, he said sincerely and frankly, "Young Master An, I'm not ashamed to say that I've been sitting in a well and watching the sky."

Saying this, he hurriedly added, "It is also because I have realized where my problem lies that I really want to see the outside world, so I would also like to ask Young Master An and Miss Gu to make it happen"

When An Chongqiu saw that Hong Tian Shi had such a good attitude in admitting his mistakes, he swallowed back all the sarcastic sarcasm that he had originally prepared in his mind.

Chapter 4282

However, he also did not want to continue to pester Gu Qiuyi, so he looked at him and said very seriously: "Master Hong, I have just told you that there is not only one kind of elixir in this world, there is also a kind of rejuvenation elixir, which can not only cure all diseases and bring back the dead, but can even make a person twenty years younger, so instead of holding on to the blood circulation and heart saving elixir and not letting go, you should go and find one. So instead of holding on to the Blood Dispersing and Heart Saving Pill, why don't you go and look for this Spring Returning Pill?"

Hearing this, Hong Tian Shi was dumbfounded and asked out of turn, "Young Master An, are you really not joking with me? Is there really a miracle pill in this world that can return one to old age?"

An Chongqiu nodded seriously and spoke, "I used to scoff at such things, just like you. It wasn't until I saw it with my own eyes that I realised just how miraculous this medicine really is, and if you are truly obsessed with the Dao of Dan, then you might as well go and properly search for clues to the Spring Return Pill."

Young Master Hong asked with unbridled excitement, "Young Master An, where did you see the Spring Return Pill with your own eyes?"

An Chongqiu faintly spat out four words, "China, Jinling."

“Jinling?!” At once, Master Hong became a little impatient and bowed with both hands, “Thank you, Young Master An! Poor Dao will go back to the Daoist temple to prepare and set off for Jinling as soon as possible!”

After saying that, he looked at Ye Chen’s grandmother and said with a face full of shame, “Madam, this time, instead of being able to cure Mr. An, the poor Taoist almost caused a great disaster because of his own stupidity, I am really ashamed

The old lady quickly spoke up, “Heavenly Master Hong must not say that, when Qi Shan was critically ill, you were able to come out of seclusion at the first opportunity, and at the same time did not hesitate to take out the Life Renewing Pill, this, I am very grateful in my heart!”

Hong Tian Shi sighed and said with emotion, “I am ashamed of myself, I have been a monk for dozens of years, but I still have not been able to set my mind straight, I am really ashamed of my ancestor

After saying that, he once again bowed to the old lady and said seriously, “Madam, since Mr. An is already unharmed, then the poor Taoist will leave now!”

The old lady was busy saying, “There is no need to be in such a hurry, Master Hong, at least have dinner at home before you leave, I will have someone send you back then.”

“No need.” Grandmaster Hong shook his head and said reverently, “I’d better hurry back and pack up, then book the earliest flight to Jinling tomorrow.”

Hearing this, Gu Qiuyi couldn’t help but feel a little anxious in her heart, she didn’t expect that Heavenly Master Hong would just do what he said, if this really went to Jinling, it might even bring trouble to brother Ye Chen.

However, there was nothing she could do to stop Hong Tian Shi, so she could only sigh in her heart and plan to tell Ye Chen about it as soon as she returned to New York, telling him to be careful of this Hong Tian Shi when he returns to Jin Ling.

At this moment, Ye Chen did not know about Gu Qiuyi’s experience in Los Angeles.

Ever since Gu Qiuyi took the plane to Los Angeles, he had been worried about Grandpa’s health.

Moreover, Ye Chen was also afraid that Grandpa’s condition was serious and Gu Qiuyi would not be able to save him in time.

So, he couldn’t help but send a message to Gu Qiuyi.

Gu Qiuyi’s phone shook for a moment, hiding from the others and unlocking it, only to find that it was a text message from Ye Chen, with only four words: “How is it?”

She hurriedly replied quickly with her finger, “Grandpa is already fine, except that he also suffers from Alzheimer’s disease, his memory seems to have deteriorated a bit, and the Blood Dispersing and Heart Saving Pill failed to cure him of this problem

When Ye Chen saw this paragraph, he couldn’t help but frown and muttered, “Alzheimer’s? Could it be that Great Uncle went to Jinling to take the Returning Spring Pill just to cure Grandpa of this disease?”

Chapter 4284

Fei Jianzhong asked rhetorically, "Then why didn't he send us to Syria? This is obviously what he arranged for us, but before we got to Syria, he sent another plane to bring us to New York"

Fei Ke Xin shook her head and said in a low voice, "I don't know why Mr. Ye did that either, but I believe Mr. Ye would never harm us."

After saying that, she looked at Fei Jianzhong and said with certainty, "Grandpa, we have been desperate for a long time, and it was Mr. Ye who saved us and has been protecting us, so we must unconditionally believe in all the arrangements he has made."

Fei Jianzhong hesitated for a moment, sighed lightly and said in a low voice, "When we come back from overseas, we will definitely be arranged to land at the international terminal, and once we land we must first go through customs, your eldest uncle must have prepared everything to deal with this long ago, as long as the two of us pass through customs, he will be the first to get the news."

Said, Fei Jianzhong continued, "How strong our Fei family is in New York, I don't need to tell you know, although I don't know what Mr. Ye wants to do, but I'm really worried that he will misread the form"

"It won't happen!" Fei Ke Xin said without hesitation, "With Mr. Ye's ability, everything he wants to do must be within his grasp, grandpa, all we have to do now is to do as we are told, if the plane does land in New York later, Miss Su will definitely receive Mr. Ye's next arrangement, maybe, this is a good opportunity for us instead. "

Fei Jianzhong looked bewildered and asked her, "What good opportunity could it be to go deep into a tiger's den"

Fei Ke Xin shook her head, "I don't know, maybe it's 'if you don't enter the tiger's den, how can you get the tiger's son'?"

The plane was flying fast.

Ten minutes later, the coastline was already clearly visible.

And the plane had, by this time, started to drop in altitude.

After another ten minutes, Fei Jianzhong could already see the brightly lit Long Beach and the most iconic building in the whole of New York, the Statue of Liberty.

By this time, Fei Jianzhong was extremely apprehensive, but Fei Kexin was becoming more and more calm.

With New York right in front of her, she suddenly had a feeling that this trip to New York was a blessing rather than a curse.

She thought to herself, "Mr Ye's decision to let me and my grandfather return to New York can in no way be an attempt to harm our grandchildren."

"After all, if Mr Ye can even refuse a request of several hundred billion dollars for the Spring Return Pill, it is by no means possible that he was bribed by the eldest uncle."

“Since it’s not to harm us, then Mr. Ye must have his deepest intention in doing so.”

“Perhaps, Mr. Ye is planning to use some kind of power to force Uncle to allow Grandpa and I to return to New York.”

“In that case, grandpa and I wouldn’t have to hide in the east.”

Thinking of this, her brows relaxed and her heart, too, could not help but surge with a few unknown leaps of joy.

Soon, the plane landed at New York’s JFK airport.

At this moment, Fei Jianzhong’s heart was in his throat.

Fei Kexin, on the other hand, was getting more and more calm and anticipatory.

Before the plane had even stopped, Su Ruoli received a message from Ye Chen, so, after the plane had stopped, she stood up and said to Fei Jianzhong and Fei Kexin, “Both of you, Mr Ye has just sent a message, telling us to go straight through customs, he is waiting for us outside customs.”

Chapter 4285

As soon as he heard that Ye Chen was outside, Fei Jianzhong’s apprehensive heart instantly sighed with relief.

If Ye Chen was there, he had nothing to worry about.

After all, he knew very well what Ye Chen was capable of.

His own eldest son was definitely not a match for Ye Chen.

On the other hand, when Fei Ke Xin heard that Ye Chen was waiting for her outside, she became nervous all of a sudden and thought anxiously in her heart, “Oh, I really didn’t expect that Mr. Ye had arrived in New York, let alone that I would meet Mr. Ye in New York... Had I known that I was going to meet Mr. Ye, I would have gone to the bathroom to put on makeup before I got off the plane... ..”

“I’ve been floating at sea all this time, I’ve been vegetarian all day, and I don’t know if Mr. Ye will be disappointed when he sees it

Su Ruoli had no idea what Fei Ke Xin was thinking, seeing her expression a bit anxious, she went forward and comforted her, “Ke Xin, you don’t need to worry too much, since Mr. Ye is in New York, no one will do anything to you.”

Fei Kexin knew that Su Ruoli had misunderstood her, but she did not want to explain too much, lest Su Ruoli would see the delicate and shy girl’s heart deep inside her.

So she nodded gently and said seriously, “Don’t worry, I’m not scared at all.”

Su Ruoli smiled heartily and spoke, “Then let’s go down!”

When the group got off the plane, they went straight to the customs clearance area of the business jet building, where Ye Chen was already standing at the exit of the customs clearance waiting.

Fei Ke Xin had already seen Ye Chen before she passed through customs, and when she saw him smiling slightly at her, she also waved shyly at him.

The four of them then queued up at different windows to cross the border.

Fei Jianzhong, Fei Kexin and Yuan Zixu were all American nationals, and Su Ruoli had previously obtained an American green card to facilitate the protection of Su Shoudao, so they were able to enter directly through the self-service customs entrance by swiping their passports, which was very efficient.

Once the four of them had passed through customs, they came to Ye Chen.

Although Fei Ke Xin was a little unsure of her vegetarian face, she could hardly hide her jubilation as she said to Ye Chen, "Mr. Ye, what brings you to New York?"

Ye Chen smiled faintly and said, "I came to do some business."

At the side, Fei Jianzhong also hurriedly bowed to Ye Chen and said respectfully, "Mr. Ye, we meet again!"

Ye Chen nodded slightly and said with a smile, "Old Mr. Fei, how does it feel to be back in New York?"

Fei Jianzhong could not help but let out a long sigh and said, "I'm not going to lie, Mr. Ye, I'm still a bit apprehensive."

Ye Chen smiled and said, "I asked you two to come back because there is a big event that I want you two to witness live."

Saying that, he looked at the time and spoke, "Let's just hurry up and leave, I guess it won't take long for the Fei family to know that you have returned, so let's go before they receive the news."

"Good!" Fei Jianzhong hurriedly agreed, as he was worried that his son would send someone after him.

He knew very well that the Fei family had the ability to monitor the customs entry and exit information of the whole United States, the moment he and his granddaughter entered from the airport and finished clearing customs, the information would be immediately fed into the immigration system, and soon his son would receive the news.

So, he hurriedly followed Ye Chen out of the airport's business jet building.

At this moment, outside the business jet building, a helicopter was already waiting on the ground tarmac. Ye Chen took the four people on board the helicopter and it immediately pulled up and flew towards Long Beach.

As early as when Fei Jianzhong and Fei Kexin cleared customs, the Fei family's informant planted in the customs office had already received an early warning from the system.

This person had long received instructions from Fei Shanhai to report to him as soon as Fei Kexin and Fei Jianzhong returned to China, so he immediately sent a text message to Fei Shanhai, which read, "Fei Jianzhong and Fei Kexin, have entered customs from New York's JFK Airport two minutes ago!"

Unfortunately, Fei Shanhai was currently lying in a hospital bed in his own medical department in a five-day state due to acute alcohol poisoning.

Chapter 4286

He and his son had been poured with a large amount of liquor by Ye Chen during the day, and were straight away drunk to the point of unconsciousness.

The maid later brought them here and after a brief check of the situation, the doctor found that both of them were already suffering from symptoms of severe alcohol poisoning and immediately started resuscitation.

Resuscitation of such alcoholic patients is very troublesome, not only do they have to be given gastric lavage and fluids, but they even have to be given haemodialysis so as to quickly reduce the alcohol level in their blood.

Both father and son are not young, and after such a round of torment, they have lost half of their lives.

Although Fei Xuebin was younger than Fei Shanhai, he drank more than Fei Shanhai, so after all this, their symptoms were basically the same.

Therefore, it was not until this moment that both father and son woke up.

Although both of them had woken up, they were both extremely weak, and could not even lift their arms, not to mention getting out of bed and moving around.

They were surrounded by Fei Shanhai's wife, Fei Xuebin's wife and several younger siblings.

When the old lady saw that the two of them had finally opened their eyes, she cried and complained, "You two are both old enough, why are you so clueless? The doctor said that if you had come a little late, you would have lost both your lives! How can you be so generous? Don't you know that my precious grandson has not been found yet?"

At this moment, Fei Shanhai felt dizzy and his mouth was dry, and his whole body was as uncomfortable as it could be.

Originally, he didn't want to say a word in his heart when he was in such a situation, but when he heard his wife complaining so much, he couldn't help but say with an aggrieved face, "Do you think I want to drink so much? It's not because that bd Ye forced me to!"

"Ah?!" The old lady exclaimed, "Which one is Ye?"

At the side, Fei Xuebin said resentfully, "We invited that Gu Qiuyi to be our guest at noon, and that guy surnamed Ye came with Gu Qiuyi."

The old lady was even more puzzled and blurted out, "You drank when he told you to, and you drank to death one by one, are you two heartless?"

Fei Shanhai was being scolded by the old lady in front of her children, and felt even more uncomfortable. At that time, Ye's attitude was very clear: if we didn't drink the wine, we would be killed, so what could we do?"

The old lady said angrily, "It's against him! A nobody dares to be so arrogant in the Fei family! Where is he?"

“Gone long ago.” Fei Xuebin said with a depressed expression, “That Ye is so strong that even Zhang Chuan is no match for him, moreover, even Hao Yang was kidnapped by him! What do you think we could do at that time?

The old lady was horrified and asked, “What did you say? Ho-yeung was kidnapped by him?!”

“Yes

Fei Xuebin’s younger brother Fei Xuejin couldn’t help but say, “No wonder that Zhang Chuan kept kneeling in the restaurant, no one would call him, I thought this guy was kneeling there to repent because you two had too much to drink and you were afraid that we would punish him... ..”

“Bullsh*t!” Fei Xuebin said angrily, “He’s just afraid of that Ye guy! It seems that Ye has destroyed his cultivation, that’s why he’s kneeling there, not daring to move! I’ll f*cking kill that bd!”

Remembering something, Fei Xuejin spoke up, “Right, big brother, Zhang Chuan told me that the man named Ye has given word that he will come again tonight!”

Fei Shanhai and Fei Xuebin both shivered in fear and said, “What did you say?”

Chapter 4287

To the father and son of the Fei family, although they had only met Ye Chen once or twice, they were already extremely fearful of him.

This was the fundamental reason why they did not dare to seek revenge on Ye Chen even after they had been mentally and physically humiliated by him, and knowing that he had kidnapped their grandson.

However, they never thought that just because they did not dare to go to Ye Chen, it did not mean that Ye Chen did not dare to come to them.

Fei Shanhai was frightened and scared, and said in a hurry, “Quick! Quickly get all the bodyguards together! Make sure they are armed and ready! If that Ye dares to come, shoot me to death!!!”

Fei Xuejin didn’t dare to delay and said, “Yes dad, I’ll go and arrange it now!”

Fei Shanhai added, “Quick! Take me to the emergency shelter first!”

For a large family like the Fei family, all kinds of safety hazards had to be taken into account, so they had an emergency shelter built a hundred metres underground inside the manor.

This emergency shelter can only withstand a nuclear attack, and is basically on the same level as the emergency shelter at the White House.

As long as one can hide inside the emergency shelter and close the pa*sageway completely, even the Great Immortals cannot help the people inside.

Moreover, it is equipped with a very powerful life support system and a large amount of supplies, so it is not a problem for a dozen people to live in it for a year.

It was only that this emergency shelter, since its construction until now, had never really been put into use and was only maintained as a backup facility.

The Fei family also believed that as long as there was no World War 3, this place would not be used.

But no one expected that this emergency shelter would be put to use today because of a young man.

The old lady was still a bit confused and said, "Shanghai, is there a need for you to make such a fuss? Even if that Ye kid is stronger than Zhang Chuan, but our Fei family has so many armed bodyguards, can't we still beat him alone?"

Fei Shanghai couldn't hide his nervousness, "I don't know if so many bodyguards can help him, but I don't dare to take any risks! You're the one who didn't let anyone hold you down and pour a few pounds of white wine, if you were me, you'd be scared too!"

With that, he said unquestioningly, "Cut the crap and take me to the emergency shelter! Immediately! Immediately!"

The old lady had no choice, so she said to her third son, Fei Xuemin, "Xuemin, hurry up and have someone arrange to take your father to the emergency shelter."

At this moment, Fei Xuebin hurriedly said, "I want to go!"

The old lady glared at him and said with hatred, "Look at you, you're so useless! That Ye kidnapped your son and cut off his ear! Instead of daring to avenge your son, you've become a shrinking violet!"

Hearing these words, Fei Shanghai's expression turned ugly.

When his wife scolded his son for being a shrinking turtle, wasn't it the same as scolding himself as well?

At this moment, Fei Xuebin's face was even more embarrassed, and he was in a bit of a dilemma.

At this moment, Fei Shanghai's butler came over in a panic and rushed in without even knocking, saying, "Master, it's not good!"

Fei Shanghai shivered in fear and subconsciously asked, "What's going on? Is the man named Ye back?"

The housekeeper hurriedly shook his head and said, "It's the Grand Master and Miss Ke Xin who have returned!"

As soon as Fei Shanghai heard this, he was stunned and asked out of turn, "How did they come back? When did they come back?! Where is everyone?"

The butler hurriedly said, "The people entered customs at JFK about 10 minutes ago, I don't know where they are now."

Chapter 4288

Fei Shanghai was furious and blurted out, "Didn't I tell you that you must tell me as soon as they return, why did it take you 10 minutes to report to me?"

The butler said helplessly, "The informant on the immigration side is in direct contact with you, he sent you a message and you didn't reply, that's why he found me"

Fei Shanhai exclaimed, "Where's my phone?!"

The old lady subconsciously said, "You were in first aid and your clothes had to come off, so I put the phone away for you along with your clothes"

"b*d!" Fei Shanhai cursed angrily, "Do you know how much I was delayed for ten minutes?! I had several a*sasins standing by 24 hours a day near the airport to take them both out the first time they dared to return to New York, and now ten minutes have pa*sed! They've already disappeared!"

The old lady said aggrievedly, "How did I know this would happen"

Fei Shanhai glared at her in exasperation and said angrily, "I'll settle the score with you later!"

Saying that, he muttered, "The old man dares to come back at this time, maybe he knows we're in trouble and wants to take this opportunity to flip the tables! This old fox is really extraordinary, he's over ninety years old, and he still manages to find an opportunity to kill a comeback at a time like this!"

Fei Xuebin hurriedly asked, "Dad, so what do we do now?"

After thinking about it, Fei Shanhai said to his third son, Fei Xuemin, "Xuemin, immediately release the secret flower to the public, no matter who can kill them both, I will give one billion dollars! Hurry up! Be quick! Make sure that anyone in the whole of New York who dares to kill, or who doesn't dare to kill, takes to the streets with a gun to find their whereabouts!"

At this moment, Fei Shanhai had already thrown his deepest fear of Ye Chen out of his heart.

He knew very well that his father's return at this time was definitely not a good thing, and was likely to be to regain the position of family head.

Fei Shanhai had waited for so many years before finally waiting for an opportunity to force Fei Jianzhong to abdicate using apparently legal means, coupled with the threat of death.

However, once Fei Jianzhong returned, he could still take back the vast majority of the Fei family's a*sets in name only.

Although Fei Jianzhong had lost his position as chairman, he could ask for a division of the Fei family's a*sets and divest himself of that portion of the Fei Group's a*sets.

Once he gets his way, then 90 percent of the Fei family's a*sets will be under Fei Jianzhong's name.

At that time, even if he could still sit as the head of the Fei family, the Fei family would never be the current Fei family, and its size would shrink by at least ten times.

Therefore, Fei Shanhai immediately considered getting rid of his father and niece as the most urgent task at hand.

At this time, the old lady asked him, "Are you still going to the emergency shelter?"

"No." Fei Shanhai shook his head and said, "If I go to the emergency shelter now, in case the old man kills back and I'm not there, the others might just fall over themselves! I have to sit here at this time no matter what I say!"

After saying that, he was ruthless and gritted his teeth, "At a time like this, we must not let Old Master take advantage of the opportunity to turn the tide no matter what! If that Ye dares to come tonight, we'll fight him no matter what. If he doesn't come, we'll find a way to take out the old man!"

Chapter 4289

From Fei Shanhai's point of view, the position of the Fei family head was his lifelong pursuit, and he had waited for so many years to finally get what he wanted, so now he was naturally unwilling to let go of it.

Seeing that his father looked like he was determined to fight to the death, Fei Xuebin hurriedly said, "Dad! Why don't we contact Li Yalin directly? Tell him the clue about Hao Yang's kidnapping and let him deal with that Ye!"

Hearing this, Fei Shanhai could not help but stifle his sigh and said, "If we had told Li Yalin directly at noon and let Li Yalin deal with him, we could indeed rest easy"

Speaking of this, Fei Shanhai angrily rebuked incomparably, "But that son of a b*tch surnamed Ye had it all figured out a long time ago!"

Fei Xuebin was a little surprised and asked, "Dad, isn't that surnamed Ye afraid that we will call the police? Even if he's powerful, he can't possibly go against the entire American police, right?"

Fei Shanhai said in a disheartened voice, "Of course he doesn't want to go against the police, so he doesn't want us to go to the police either, because of this, he got us both drunk at noon, so as to buy himself time. What if the police come and so does the old man, can we still finish the old man off in front of the police? Wouldn't the old master enter the Fei family in a dignified manner then?"

When Fei Xuebin heard this, he couldn't help but exclaim, "Dad! Are you saying that the one surnamed Ye knew at noon that Old Master was coming back?"

"Mm!" Fei Shanhai said with certainty, "I think he didn't just know that simply, it's likely that old master has been in his hands all this time! He's also the one who told the old man to come back at this time!"

Fei Xuebin's heart thudded and he blurted out, "Then doesn't that mean that the surnamed Ye has been eyeing us for a long time?!"

"Yes!" Fei Shanhai said in a stern voice, "That must be the case!"

As he was speaking, his second son, Fei Xuejin, ran back in stride and said offhandedly, "Dad, big brother, the family's bodyguards have all gathered, a total of one hundred and thirty-six people, fully armed!"

"Good!" Fei Shanhai suddenly felt much more confident and said, "Gather more than half of the men here, and order them to shoot that Ye guy to death whenever he dares to come!"

"Yes!" Fei Xuejin immediately nodded and said, "I'll give the order now!"

"Don't rush yet!" Fei Shanhai called out to him and said out of the blue, "Also, no matter who that Ye has with him later, kill them all together, kill them all! If we kill Ye, we'll all get an equal share of one billion dollars, and on top of that, for every additional person we kill, we'll get an additional 100 million dollars!"

What Fei Shanhai was thinking was that it would be best if his father and niece came along with Ye tonight.

In that case, when the bodyguards saw Ye for the money, they would definitely open fire and kill him and the people around him regardless.

In that case, he would be completely rid of his biggest problem.

Fei Xuejin immediately sent down the order, and the one hundred and thirty-six bodyguards were thrilled to hear about the huge reward!

Just as Fei Shanhai had expected, the bounty of hundreds of millions of dollars immediately made the bodyguards start to shake their fists and wait for the opportunity to kill!

At that moment, the entire Fei family suddenly went dark, all the lights went out in an instant, and all the electrical equipment was instantly switched off due to a power cut.

Fei Shanhai was trembling with fear in the ICU, and when he saw the darkness around him, he asked nervously, "What's going on? Why did the power go out when it was fine? Don't we have multiple power lines?"

Chapter 4290

Fei Xuebin was also nervous and blurted out, "Dad, our Fei family estate has three power lines, and we spent a lot of money to find electrical talents from China to make a foolproof power supply system, these three lines belong to different power supply companies, any problem with the power supply of any one or even any two companies will not affect our normal use of electricity"

The three lines belong to different power supply companies, any one or even any two companies' power supply problems will not affect our normal use of electricity" said Fei Xuebin and said, "And also at that time, grandfather also let those professionals, underground in the estate to make a large-capacity backup battery and generator set, in extreme cases, once the three power supply lines all fail, our battery set can seamlessly switch, continue to provide us with At the same time, the diesel generator set buried underground will also start immediately, with our diesel reserves, even if we lose power for a year, we can still completely cope, there should not be such a complete power failure"

Fei Shanhai said in a panic, "The situation that shouldn't have occurred has occurred, that means you're talking about all the backup measures going wrong!"

"That can't be right!" Fei Xuebin blurted out, "We have a team of over 30 engineers dedicated to the daily maintenance and upkeep of this equipment, how could it all go wrong at once?"

Fei Shanhai blurted out, "Why do you need to ask? It must have been Ye who started it! He must have done this!"

"That's not possible either" Fei Xuebin said offhandedly, "If you want to say he cut our power lines from the outside, that's possible, but our batteries and generator sets are built underground, as are the emergency shelters Without our blueprints, they might not be able to find them, and even if they could locate them, I'm afraid they wouldn't be able to get in."

This just finished, all the lights suddenly came back on.

Fei Xuebin breathed a sigh of relief and said offhandedly, "There's power again, I guess the system is malfunctioning somehow."

Still frowning, Fei Shanhai spoke, "With such a complete power supply system, how could there still be such a malfunction?"

As soon as the words left his mouth, he heard someone outside suddenly shout in panic, "Everyone, be careful, I feel like someone is sneaking in!"

The Fei family instantly became nervous, when someone else shouted outside, "Oh no! The brothers outside have all lost contact!"

"Quick! Quickly turn on the safety and fire if you see anyone!"

Fei Xuebin said in a panic, "Could someone really have sneaked in? It couldn't be that Ye, could it?"

After that, he looked at Fei Shanhai and blurted out, "Dad! That Ye is a martial arts master, in case he bypasses the others and directly captures the thief first, we'll be in trouble!"

When Fei Shanhai heard this, he was equally frightened and said, "Quick! Get the bodyguards in! Protect me closely!"

As he was saying that, he heard a very thick voice from outside, "I am Wan Bajun, the Master of the Ten Thousand Dragon Hall! If you bodyguards don't want to die, you should put down your guns, raise your hands and surrender!"

"If you surrender, I guarantee on my character that I will not make things difficult for you!"

"But if any of you dare to make an enemy of the Dragon Palace and resist, I will not only make his head fall to the ground, but after today, I will also make his family's life worse than death!"
