

Ye Chen 4321

Chapter 4321

A few moments later, the entire Fei family, led by Fei Jianzhong and Fei Kexin, walked out of the Fei family villa in unison and respectfully escorted Ye Chen out.

At this moment, a helicopter had been waiting on the lawn outside the door for a long time.

Surrounded by the Fei family, Ye Chen arrived at the helicopter and turned to Fei Ke Xin, "It's alright, go and do your own thing."

Fei Ke Xin nodded gently and said respectfully, "Mr Ye, have a safe journey."

Ye Chen looked at her and instructed in a low voice, "Miss Fei, I will ask Wan Bu Jun to keep some men to help you through this period of transition, you should also be alert to potential threats from within the Fei family, although dogs can bite, they are still very useful if they can be tamed."

Fei Ke Xin was incredibly grateful and said earnestly, "Thank you Mr. Ye, I will definitely pay attention"

Ye Chen nodded slightly and smiled, "In that case, then I will leave first, call me if you need anything."

After saying that, Ye Chen took a step and boarded the helicopter.

Immediately afterwards, the helicopter slowly took off amidst Fei Ke Xin's reluctance and the Fei family's annotations, flying towards the northeast.

Once Ye Chen left, many members of the Fei family finally breathed a sigh of relief.

At this moment, Fei Shanhai also had a feeling of survival after the robbery, his whole body instantly relaxed, as if all his strength had been exhausted.

His son, Fei Xuebin, was the same.

At this moment, they had almost put Fei Hao Yang's death behind them and were thankful that they had survived.

Fei Jianzhong's heart was also filled with boundless emotion. Although he had not been able to take back the Fei family's headship today, he had reaped the most coveted Spring Return Pill, so things could be said to have ended super satisfactorily for him.

To him, nothing was more important than the Spring Return Pill.

Fei Hao Yang's death was now irrelevant to him. After all, to a certain extent, he had Fei Hao Yang to thank for it. If he hadn't messed with Ye Chen, he wouldn't have had the chance to return to New York, let alone get Ye Chen's Spring Return Pill.

At this moment, what Fei Ke Xin missed most was her parents, so she immediately asked her eldest uncle Fei Shanhai, "Where are my parents and family now?"

Fei Shanhai's expression tightened and he quickly said, "Ke Xin, your parents, they have already moved out from the Fei family, if I remember correctly, they should have gone to Miami, your father has a villa by the sea there, they all went there for a holiday"

Fei Ke Xin frowned, "I could believe it if my parents went on holiday, but my brother and sister have actual positions in the group, how could they go to Miami on holiday? Don't they need to work anymore?"

Fei Shanhai's heart was instantly disturbed.

Fei Ke Xin's parents and relatives had been kicked out of the Fei family the first time he seized power.

And her older siblings who had actual positions in the group had all been fired outright without exception.

And in order to prevent them from posing any threat to himself, Fei Shanhai explicitly forbade them from participating in any public activities, and would only give them their freedom after he knew that his kingdom was secure and the old man was completely gone.

Therefore, it can be said that Fei Kexin's family was forced by him to go to Miami and put under house arrest.

Now that Fei Kexin had become the head of the Fei family and had the backing of Ye Chen and the Ten Thousand Dragons Temple, Fei Shanhai was worried about her settling scores after the fall, so deep inside he was extremely nervous and could only say with a stiff upper lip, "Kexin to be honest let your family go to Miami was my intention. people to go to Miami was my intention I was thinking that it would be relatively more reassuring for me if they left New York"

At this point, he was afraid of Fei Ke Xin's anger, he hurriedly said with an apologetic face, "I'm sorry Kexin uncle is also confused, you must not be insensitive to me"

Chapter 4322

The reason for asking him is to point him out. Seeing that his attitude of admitting his mistake is not bad, Fei Ke Xin said, "Uncle, as the saying goes, the world is bustling with profit, the world is bustling with profit, what you did is very inappropriate and even immoral, but I can understand to a certain extent. "

"Yes, yes, yes" said Fei Shanhai with a compensating smile on his face, "Thank you Kexin long live understanding, long live understanding"

Fei Ke Xin blandly said, "Eldest uncle, I can leave these matters alone, but you have to leave for a trip to Miami overnight, personally apologize to my parents' family and bring them back one by one."

"OK!" Fei Shanhai did not expect that Fei Ke Xin would be so generous as to give himself a step, and while his heart was excited, he said almost without thinking, "Then I will prepare and fly to Miami!"

As he was speaking, a general from the Dragon Palace ran over and said to Fei Kexin, "Miss Fei, there are some police cars outside the gate, saying that Inspector Li Yalin Li wants to see Fei Shanhai."

"Li Yalin?" Fei Ke Xin frowned slightly and spoke, "Isn't he the Chinese sleuth?"

After saying that, she turned to Fei Shanhai and asked, "Eldest uncle, do you have a friendship with Li Yalin? Or is he investigating Fei Hao Yang's case?"

Fei Shanhai hurriedly said, "Ke Xin you don't know, before you came back, Mr. Ye first had someone kidnap Hao Yang, then cut off both of Hao Yang's ears and openly demanded two hundred billion dollars in digital crypto currency, your elder brother went to meet with them, and they even seized the opportunity to speculate online, making the whole world know about Hao Yang's kidnapping and this case happens to be this Li Yalin's responsibility, he has been unable to find out the clues and is also very impatient, he has already come here once before, I didn't pay any attention to him, I don't know why he is looking for him again now."

When Fei Ke Xin heard these words, she couldn't help but feel: "It seems that Mr. Ye had a plan, he was behind the attack to push the waves, just to let the matter come to light, the Fei family's reputation suffered a crushing blow"

Fei Shanhai hurriedly said: "Ke Xin, this Li Yalin is not a fuel-efficient lamp, do you think someone should send them away first?"

Fei Ke Xin shook her head and said, "It can be sent away for a while but not for a lifetime, invite them in, I will go and meet him for a while."

Upon hearing this, the General of the Ten Thousand Dragons Hall immediately said respectfully, "Yes, Miss Fei."

At this time, Fei Ke Xin said to Fei Jianzhong as well as Fei Shanhai, "Grandfather and eldest uncle, it is hard for you to meet Inspector Li with me, as for the others, just go back and rest first."

Fei Jianzhong and Fei Shanhai naturally had no problem with this, while the others hurriedly prepared to leave first.

Fei Shanhai called on his son Fei Xuebin and said, "Xuebin, arrange for a flight, and after I accompany Ke to meet Inspector Li, we will go to Miami together."

Fei Xuebin hurriedly said, "Yes, Dad, I'll go and make the arrangements."

A few moments later, several police cars drove into the Fei family estate from the main gate.

These cars made their way to the front of the main villa and were led into the parlour by a general from the Hall of Ten Thousand Dragons.

Once inside the hall, Li Yalin looked at Fei Shanhai and said offhandedly, "Mr. Fei, there are not many hours left before the 48 hours left by the kidnappers, do you have any clues on your side to synchronize with me?!"

As soon as the words left his mouth, Li Yalin suddenly saw Fei Jianzhong sitting next to Fei Shanhai, only that the current Fei Jianzhong seemed a little younger than the last time he saw him, so he didn't recognise him at once.

When he recognized Fei Jianzhong, he was dumbfounded and said offhandedly, "Mr. Fei Fei Lao? When did you you come back?!"

Chapter 4323

As a highly ranked Chinese detective in New York, Li Yalin was naturally very familiar with Fei Jianzhong.

He knew that Fei Jianzhong had been taken over by his son Fei Shanhai, and he had even heard that Fei Shanhai was spreading dark flowers everywhere to buy Fei Jianzhong's head.

However, he never expected that at this moment, Fei Jianzhong was sitting peacefully by Fei Shanhai's side.

This made him not understand for a moment what was going on here.

At this moment, Fei Jianzhong slightly arched his hand at Li Yalin and spoke, "I am grateful for Detective Li's concern, I just returned today."

After saying that, he pointed at Fei Ke Xin beside him and said with a smile, "Inspector Li, let me introduce to you, this is my most beloved little granddaughter Fei Ke Xin, I don't know if you two have met."

Li Yalin looked at Fei Kexin and said politely, "Hello Miss Fei, we have met before at a few events, we just haven't spoken to each other."

Fei Kexin also said with great respect, "Inspector Li, I have also heard a lot about you, but I just never had the chance to get to know you."

At this time, Fei Jianzhong spoke, "Inspector Li, Ke Xin has now officially become the new head of the Fei family, from now on she alone will be in charge of the entire Fei family, if you have any matters, you can just talk to her directly."

When Li Yalin heard this, his heart was even more shocked.

The fact that Fei Jianzhong could return to the United States safely was in itself already very surprising to him, after all, in his opinion, since Fei Shanhai had succeeded in seizing power, he had enough strength to make it impossible for Fei Jianzhong to ever return to the United States alive.

Therefore, it was already unbelievable that Fei Jianzhong could come back alive, and it was even more bizarre and even a bit weird that Fei Shanhai would give up the family headship, which he had managed to snatch with great difficulty, to Fei Kexin.

Imagine what kind of person would be so stupid as to give up the power that he had just seized and had not yet warmed up so easily?

So he thought that the only possibility was that Fei Shanhai had been forced to give up his position as head of the family.

But this made him even more puzzled: "Elder Fei has already been taken away from his power, and even has to do everything he can to avoid being hunted outside, so how can he be able to force Fei Shanhai, who is already sitting on a high position, to abdicate?"

"Moreover, even if this Fei Shanhai's brain was kicked by a donkey and turned into broken tofu, there is no way he would make such a decision"

“Could it be that there is some external force more powerful than Fei Shanhai that is helping Fei Jianzhong?!”

“Thinking about it seems to be the only possibility

The idea was that he could not help but think of the events leading up to and following the kidnapping of Fei Hao Yang, and his heart was even more astonished, always feeling that both events were permeated with a strong conspiracy theory, and there might even be some kind of connection that he could not see or feel at the moment.

So he couldn't help but ask Fei Shanhai, “Mr Fei, have you come up with any new clues about the kidnapping of your son Fei Hao Yang? Could the kidnappers not have come for money, but for another purpose?”

Fei Shanhai said awkwardly, “This honestly Inspector Li, I don't have a clue in my mind either

Li Yalin intuitively thought that Fei Shanhai must not be telling himself the truth, however, in front of Fei Jianzhong and Fei Kexin, he could not ask the root of the matter, so he opened his mouth and asked, “Mr. Fei, then did you prepare the cryptocurrency they requested for the kidnappers?”

Fei Shanhai said awkwardly, “Well Detective Li now my niece Ke Xin is in charge of all the big and small affairs of the Fei family, so you'd better ask her about this matter... ..”

Chapter 4324

Li Yalin frowned slightly, turned his face to Fei Kexin and asked, “Miss Fei, since you are the head of the Fei family, how do you plan to respond to the kidnapping of Fei Hao Yang?”

Fei Ke Xin calculated the time, thinking that Ye Chen should soon have someone publish those videos first, so she could not expose any breach in front of Li Yalin just yet.

So she said to Li Yalin with a firm face, “Inspector Li, although Hao Yang is a little older than me, he is my eldest nephew and the eldest son and grandson of the Fei family, so we will naturally do our best to bring him back. ...”

Li Yalin didn't know if Fei Ke Xin really meant what she said, but he could only say seriously, “We in the NYPD have been doing our best to search for any clues, but these kidnappers are so professional that we don't have any substantial clues in a short period of time. We don't even know what kind of power the people who kidnapped him actually are.”

In my opinion, the kidnappers' series of actions are more like a long-planned public execution against the Fei family. They probably already have some unspeakable scandals about Mr. Fei, and then deliberately made his kidnapping public knowledge, and also deliberately led public opinion to lead public opinion into sympathy for Duke Fei, so that if they then exposed Duke Fei's scandal, they would be able to achieve the effect of first raising the profile and then suppressing it, which would then also have a huge negative impact on the Fei family.”

Deep inside Fei Ke Xin's heart, she could not help but be a little surprised, it seemed that this Inspector Li had already figured out the cause and effect of the matter, only that she had not grasped the specific clues of it for the time being.

However, she could only pretend to be confused and said, "Inspector Li, to be honest, I don't quite understand what you mean, Hao Yang is very young and has just stepped into society not long ago, what kind of scandal can he have?"

Li Yalin shook his head, "I am not sure about this, but I am certain that since these kidnappers kidnapped him and cut off his ears and made it known to the world, then I am also certain that a scandal must have happened to him."

Saying that, he looked at Fei Shanhai and said seriously, "Mr. Fei, I have told you the same thing once before, I feel as if you know something, but for some reason did not tell me, but what I want to remind you is that there is also less and less time left before the kidnappers leave, if the kidnappers really make public the huge scandal of Fei Hao Yang, then not only will the Fei family's reputation be ruined. If the kidnappers really disclose the huge scandal of Fei Hao Yang, then not only will the Fei family be discredited, but our police will also be faced with a dilemma! It is likely that by that time, the public will no longer support us in rescuing Fei Hao Yang, if we continue, we may lose the hearts and minds of the people, if we don't, we will lose our dignity as police officers"

Fei Shanhai said with immense embarrassment, "Inspector Li I really don't know! That grandson of mine, all aspects are"

Speaking of this, Fei Shanhai had some difficulty in speaking all of a sudden.

He originally wanted to say that that grandson of his was excellent in all aspects and would definitely not have any scandals.

However, in his mind, he couldn't help but recall those videos of Fei Hao Yang's inhumane brutal acts, which made him lose the courage to even continue lying.

He felt that if he still said in front of other people at this time that Fei Hao Yang was excellent in all aspects, those girls who died in vain at Fei Hao Yang's hands would definitely turn into life-threatening evil spirits to seek revenge on him.

Seeing that he had become stumbling all of a sudden, Li Yalin could not help but ask, "Mr. Fei, what do you want to say?"

Fei Shanhai dodged his eyes and said stiffly, "I want to say Hao Yang, this child, is really quite"

The word excellent had by now reached Fei Shanhai's lips, but he just couldn't bring himself to say the two words.

Just when he was having a hard time for these two words, a police officer ran in in a hurry and said in a panic: "Inspector something big has happened"

Chapter 4325

The policeman's words caused everyone, including Li Yalin, to involuntarily tighten their hearts.

Li Yalin couldn't help but urge, "What's the big deal, tell me clearly!"

The policeman said with a frightened expression, "It's a video! Someone has exposed a large number of videos on the internet, and the content of those videos is really tragic the internet has completely exploded!"

Li Yalin questioned offhandedly, "What exactly is the content of the videos about!?"

The policeman swallowed and said with a dry mouth, "It's all related to Fei Hao Yang It's all about him abusing and killing various girls Although the victims' faces have been blurred, it's still possible to other identity traits, it was determined that the victims were at least 20 or more"

"What?!" Li Yalin's jaw dropped as he listened.

The fact that Fei Hao Yang had been exposed to a huge scandal was something he had already prepared for, but he really didn't think that the scandal would be this big!

At this time, his men handed him a mobile phone and spoke, "Inspector Li, take a look for yourself"

Li Yalin took the phone and casually clicked on one of them, after just a few seconds of looking at it, his face immediately turned iron blue and muttered under his breath, "This is really an unprecedented and shocking case"

He immediately followed up, "Have you investigated who the publisher actually is?"

"Checked." The policeman replied, "We had someone check their IP address and found found"

Seeing the policeman stammering, Li Yalin instantly shouted angrily, "Speak quickly!"

The policeman could only say stiffly, "Back to Inspector Li, the IP address we found is here."

Li Yalin frowned and asked, "What do you mean? Is the other party right here in New York?"

"No....." The policeman shook his head, reached out and pulled Li Yalin aside and lowered his voice, "Detective Li, the other party is in the Fei family!"

"How is it possible" Li Yalin stared at him with wide eyes and likewise lowered his voice: "These videos must have been sent by the kidnappers, these kidnappers are extremely shrewd, all the clues are extremely well disguised, how could they deliberately leave such a big loophole"

Li Yalin did not know that at this time, all the bodyguards of the Fei family had been replaced with generals of the Vanguard Dragon Temple, and the generals of the Vanguard Dragon Temple, under Ye Chen's instructions, did not even bother to use any hacking methods, and directly finished uploading and publishing the videos in the Fei family, using the Fei family's network.

And the policeman also nodded and agreed, "I also think they deliberately used technical means to change their IP address to the Fei family."

Li Yalin couldn't help but say with some annoyance, "What era is it now, there are still people who want to abuse lynching and engage in some kind of scapegoating, since they have the evidence, why don't they just submit it to the police?!"

The policeman said incomparably embarrassed, "Chief we are both Chinese, frankly speaking, do you really believe in what Bai Zuo is pushing? The video shows Fei Hao Yang's actions, if handed over to the police, he will definitely not die, this kind of person, how can we not die in order to civilian anger?"

Li Yalin was speechless at once.

He just felt that what the mystery man had done behind the scenes had caused him, a Chinese detective, to suffer a great blow to his face.

But when he calmed down and analysed the matter, he also felt that the scum of the earth like Fei Hao Yang should be completely exterminated by the most primitive means, otherwise, with his financial power, he could live like a dirt emperor in prison.

However, when he thought of such a big case popping up under his hands just before he retired, his whole body felt very frustrated.

Chapter 4326

At this time, his men also said with some frustration, "Chief, I really don't understand why we haven't received any clues about missing young girls lately when they have killed so many people? It seems like there are no reports of young women going missing in New York at all recently"

Li Yalin said in a cold voice: "They wouldn't be so stupid as to look for prey from New York, as I see it, most of these girls they killed should have been secretly sent here after being kidnapped from the west coast, or even from abroad."

Speaking of this, Li Yalin suddenly remembered something and blurted out, "I see! The reason they were able to go undetected for so long and for so many crimes is because they never start from their side, but this time, Fei Hao Yang made a fatal mistake"

The handlers hurriedly asked, "Chief, what was the fatal mistake?"

Li Yalin blurted out, "It's Gu Qiuyi!"

"Gu Qiuyi?!" The subordinate exclaimed, "That big star?!"

"That's right!" Li Yalin nodded, "I've always felt that the kidnapping of Fei Hao Yang smelled wrong from the beginning to the end, and now it seems that it must be because he set his eyes on Gu Qiuyi that he got himself killed!"

The handlers couldn't help but ask, "Chief, so what you're saying is that this matter was done by someone close to Gu Qiuyi?"

Li Yalin frowned slightly and spoke, "I met Gu Qiuyi at the Wangfu Hotel the night Fei Haoyang disappeared, I felt that she was a young girl and did not seem like someone with this kind of ability"

Saying that, Li Yalin added: "That Gu Qiuyi, although her family's condition is also very good, but compared to the Fei family, it's not a little bit worse"

The next man nodded gently and said, "In that case, it should have nothing to do with her, after all, she is also a newcomer to China, even if she has some strength in China, she will not be able to show anything when she arrives in New York, she is definitely not enough in front of the Fei family."

Li Yalin nodded slightly, but his mind unconsciously recalled that when he met Gu Qiuyi that day, those people who were beside Gu Qiuyi, among them was a young man who dared to call out to Fei Xuebin, which impressed him deeply.

He wondered in his heart, "What is that young man's identity? If he knew Fei Xuebin's identity, why did he dare to be so rude to Fei Xuebin? Could this matter have something to do with him?"

But when you think about it, it doesn't feel right: "It's just a young man, even if he has extraordinary guts, he may not have such great strength, to kidnap Fei Hao Yang under the eyes of the Fei family, and still be able to plan everything without leaking, it's not just guts that's enough and The Fei family's old man and first lady suddenly returned unharmed, and not only were they not killed by Fei Shanhai's men, but that Fei Kexin suddenly became the new head of the family, which is also very strange"

Li Yalin felt, all of a sudden, that his brain was a little bit inadequate.

He knew that these things were all very perverse, and that when things are perverse, there must be a demon, and he just hadn't caught this demon out yet.

And, for a moment, he couldn't catch any useful clues.

So, he turned around and looked angrily at Fei Shanhai, frowning and questioning, "Fei Shanhai, such a big thing has happened to the Fei family, I see that your expression doesn't seem to be surprised, tell me, all these things, did you already know about it?!"

Fei Shanhai came back to his senses and hurriedly waved his hands and said, "Inspector Li I simply don't understand what you are talking about my grandson he he is not such a person ah"

Li Yalin stared deadly at Fei Shanhai and said in a cold voice: "Fine! It's still acting now! There hasn't been such a bad case in the United States for decades, once the case is confirmed, your Fei family's reputation will be in tatters, at that time, you won't even have tears to cry!"

Fei Ke Xin stepped forward at this time and said seriously, "Inspector Li, since these crimes were, indeed, committed by the Fei family, then the Fei family is also ready to take responsibility for them!"

Li Yalin nodded and said in a cold voice, "I hope you can bear the burden!"

After saying that, he immediately said to the police officers around him, "Close the squad immediately! Call all officers to return to the station for a meeting immediately!"

Chapter 4327

At this point in time, Li Yalin no longer cared about the kidnapping of Fei Hao Yang.

After the skyrocketing scandal broke out, it would not only trigger the American public's anger towards the Fei family, but also their disappointment with the entire American law enforcement system.

After all, with so many innocent young girls dying unnaturally, the police had failed to solve the case, and the one who finally brought the matter to light was the kidnapper who was previously hated by everyone.

The kidnapper instantly became a hero who was applauded by the world, while Fei Hao Yang, who was originally pitied beyond measure, became an object of scorn and abuse by the world.

Along with the plummeting reputation, apart from the Fei family, there was also the New York Police.

Therefore, Li Yalin had to study the current situation with his leaders and colleagues and find a way to restore the face of the NYPD a little bit.

On the way back to the police station by car, Li Yalin was distracted by the fact that there were so many clues that he could not sort out, so he planned to call his old friend An Chongqiu.

To Li Yalin, An Chongqiu was not only his good brother for many years, but also a mentor and friend.

He was a hot-tempered man, while An Chongqiu was a much gentler one, so the two of them not only got along well, but also opened up to each other in terms of thinking.

During their conversation earlier, they had speculated that someone was going to publicly execute the Fei family, and now it had come true, so Li Yalin also wanted to talk to An Chongqiu about the sudden change before him to see if he had any different thoughts.

However, he felt that it was already so late in the day that it would be a bit presumptuous to call, not to mention that he didn't know if the An family's old man had come through, so it wasn't really appropriate to call at this time, so he put the phone down again.

However, he did not know that the An family was chatting fervently around Gu Qiuyi.

The old lady held Gu Qiuyi's hand and never let go of it all night, while Ye Chen's sister-in-law and several aunts and uncles also gathered around Gu Qiuyi, looking at her in any way they liked.

Gu Qiu Yi herself was a bit flattered, being surrounded by so many people, not to mention the warmth, and she received a large number of gifts, all of which were worth a lot of money.

She knew very well in her heart that the An family attached so much importance to her because, on the one hand, she had saved the old man's life with the Blood Dispersing Heart Pill given by Ye Chen, and, on the other hand, because she was Ye Chen's fiancée and the An family missed Ye Chen very much, so they were also very warm and sincere towards her.

This also made her heart extraordinarily happy. In her opinion, the An family would be her solid backing in the future, and once the three-year agreement was up, if Ye Chen dared to renege, I was afraid that the An family would not even agree.

However, seeing that the time had already reached the latter part of the night, Gu Qiuyi was also a bit worried about the old lady's health, plus she had to make final preparations for the performance tomorrow morning, so she really couldn't continue to spend so much time, so she spoke up and said: "Grandma it's really late, you must be very tired, you'd better It's too late for me to bother you"

The old lady said, "It's okay, it's okay, grandma is not tired at all. For so many years, my biggest problem is that I can't find my grandson, I was afraid that I would never have the chance to see him again in my life."

Gu Qiuyi nodded and said seriously, "Grandma, don't worry, I will definitely come over to see you and grandpa as often as I can!"

She continued with some embarrassment, "Grandma, it's really late today, I have to do the final rehearsal for the show early tomorrow morning, I have to fly back to New York almost now, I'll get some sleep on the way, and it will be almost dawn by then."

Chapter 4328

Only then did the old lady understand that Gu Qiuyi had her own business to attend to, so she hurriedly said, "Oops, it was an oversight on Grandma's part, I didn't realize you had something to do."

After that, she hurriedly said to her eldest son, An Chongqiu, "Chongqiu, you go and arrange for a flight, I will accompany my daughter to New York with Youyou, and we will be there to support her during her concert."

An Chongqiu nodded and said, "Then I'll go and make the arrangements."

As soon as Gu Qiuyi heard this, her heart burst with anxiety.

She didn't dare let the old lady and Ye Chen's sister-in-law go to her concert together, after all, Ye Chen and Xiao Churan had already booked to go back to support her, and if the old lady and the girls also went, they would definitely recognise Ye Chen when they saw him.

Although Gu Qiuyi very much hoped that Ye Chen could let go of his hard feelings and identify with his grandmother's family, she also respected Ye Chen's own choice, and since Ye Chen was not yet ready, she should not try to speed things up.

Otherwise, Ye Chen would definitely feel uncomfortable.

So she hurriedly spoke, "Grandma, you shouldn't be so fussy, my concert isn't just a New York show either, the Los Angeles leg of the tour is in a few days, so you can support me directly at home then."

Saying that, she gave a slight pause and continued, "Besides, although Grandpa's body has recovered, the other symptoms have not subsided, so it's better for you to stay by her side and take care of her at critical times."

Ye Chen's sister-in-law, An Youyou, also said, "Yes, Mom, Dad's memory has not recovered either, so it's better for you to stay with him, there are many concerts in North America, we can wait for her to come to Los Angeles and then go to support her. If Dad is in better shape, even he can come along to the venue, and why would you need to make the trip to New York on a big night?"

The old lady hesitated for a moment and sighed slightly.

Her heart had already been convinced by her daughter, but she still couldn't help but take Gu Qiuyi's hand and say with a few choked sobs, "Nui Nui grandma really can't let you go you can suddenly appear today, grandma's heart is really happy I really want to keep you around for more days, otherwise you would have left so soon, grandmother still feels like it was all a dream

Gu Qiuyi was busy saying, "Grandma, don't worry, after I'm busy with the farewell concert this time, I'll quit acting completely, I'll have plenty of time to keep you company then!"

She hurriedly added, "Maybe we'll be able to find brother Ye Chen soon, and when that time comes, we'll both come to Los Angeles to keep you company!"

When the old lady heard this, tears instantly came to her eyes again, she held Gu Qiuyi's hand and said seriously, "Good, good! Grandma is sure that we will get Chen'er back! I'm still waiting to see you two get married and to hold my grandson! When the time comes, you and your family will settle in Los Angeles and keep Grandma company"

Gu Qiuyi nodded solemnly and said seriously, "Grandma, don't worry, we will all be with you when the time comes!"

The old lady nodded in relief, reached out and wiped her tears, and said, "Good child, since you have something to do tomorrow, grandma will not keep you much longer, but you saved your grandfather's life, we did not have time to thank you properly, I really feel sorry for you, and you are also my future grandson-in-law, so you came all this way and did not stay at home for one night!"

Gu Qiuyi busy said: "Grandma, you have said, I am your future grandson-in-law, then with me still so polite to do tonight is really the situation does not allow, but you do not worry, I will certainly come to see you often in the future, then every day in the An family to rub food and drink, you drive me I do not leave! "

"Good!" The old lady said with great relief, "With your words, grandma is relieved!"

After saying that, she stood up and said, "Go, grandma will take you to the plane!"

Chapter 4329

The An family watched Gu Qiuyi's private jet take off before they turned around and returned to the villa with reluctance.

The old lady even burst into tears after Gu Qiuyi left and choked up as she said to her children, "This is the good fruit that your sister has planted for your father and for us If she hadn't arranged this marriage for Chen'er, I'm afraid your father would not have been able to overcome this hurdle today" . I'm afraid your father wouldn't have been able to pa*s this hurdle"

An Chongqiu also could not help but sigh: "Mom, you're right, if it wasn't for Miss Gu's blood-saving pill, Dad would have pa*sed away tonight"

The old lady said seriously, "We owe the Gu family a great debt of gratitude for this, so we must thank them personally for their kindness, and I think that when your father is a little better, we should all go to Yanjing and thank Nui's father in person.

An Chongqiu nodded, "Mom, you are right, such a big favor, we really need to thank him in person, but Dad's memory is rather poor now, I'm afraid he will soon forget such things, when he hears that he has to go to Yanjing, I'm afraid he will not want to go."

An Chongqiu knew very well in his heart that after his sister's family's accident, the old man had always been very repulsed by Yanjing and Jinling, and in his daily life, he would slap the table and curse angrily even when he heard the names of these two places, and his current memory happened to be stuck shortly after his sister's death, so if he was asked to go to Yanjing under such circumstances, he would definitely be very repulsed.

Hearing this, the old lady nodded slightly and sighed, "This is indeed a problem, let's see the state of your father when the time comes, if we can talk to him and let him know what the situation is, perhaps he can still accept it, the big deal is to tell him once a day."

Saying that, the old lady sighed and added, "In fact, I want to take your father with me to Yanjing, there is another private intention"

Several people hurriedly looked at the old lady, waiting for her to say more.

At this time, the old lady said seriously, "I want to take your father to the Ye family to see your sister, and by the way, to lift all the bad blood with the Ye family for so many years."

After a pause, the old lady continued: "Over the years, although we have not had any contact with the Ye family, and even your father's heart was once very dissatisfied with them but, after all, the Ye family is your sister's in-laws, not to mention, although the whereabouts of Chen'er is still unknown, but his body flowing, is the Ye family and the An family's The future if Chen's son is found, for his sake, we are also bound to and the Ye family to release the former suspicion, rather than then break the divide, it is better to talk about it earlier, so that when we find Chen's son, we will be able to give him a complete and harmonious family, by then he has the support of both the An family and the Ye family, can also be on the right track as soon as possible, you think?"

An Chongqiu pondered for a moment and nodded, "Mother, I agree with your decision."

An Kaifeng also said seriously, "Ma, I share the same view as big brother."

An Zhaonan and An Youyou also followed suit without thinking, expressing the same attitude.

The old lady nodded in relief and lamented, "What I'm most worried about now is that your father won't be able to wait for the day when Chen'er returns, we've been searching for Chen'er for twenty years and have found nothing so far, I don't know how much longer it will take to find his whereabouts"

Speaking of this, the old lady's eyes reddened and she sighed, "A year or two might be okay, but three years, five years, ten years or eight years, he definitely won't be able to wait"

Chapter 4330

Hearing this, An Chongqiu could not help but sigh, "If only I could buy the Spring Return Pill, all these problems of Dad's could be solved."

When the old lady saw the effect of the Blood Dispersing and Heart Saving Pill today, she instantly had great confidence in the pill again, so she hurriedly said, "Chongqiu, let's go back to the living room, you can give mum a good explanation of what this Spring Returning Pill is all about, recently mum has also heard people talk about it, but she always felt that what they said was too fantastical and not like the real thing, so she couldn't tell if it was true or not."

An Kaifeng nodded and agreed, "Yes, big brother, many people in the circle have been talking about the miraculous effects of the Spring Return Pill recently.

An Chongqiu looked at the time and said, "Mum, it's too late tonight, why don't you go back and rest first, I'll go with Kai Feng to keep Dad company, when you're well rested, I'll talk to you and everyone else about the Spring Return Pill tomorrow."

The old lady waved her hand and said, "No, I'm not tired at all, if Nui Nui hadn't left, I could have dragged her to talk all night, now that she's back in New York, my heart is empty, so I don't want to sleep even more."

She looked around the room and said to everyone, "Let's not rush to rest tonight, let's just organise a family meeting and have a good chat."

When everyone saw that the old lady had said this, they all agreed to do so, and a group of people surrounded her and returned to the living room.

After sitting down in the living room, An Chongqiu recounted in detail the whole process of his previous trip to Jinling.

When everyone heard his account of the miraculous effects that the Spring Return Pill had brought to those bidders, they were all astonished.

An Kaifeng said in awe, "Big brother, I thought these rumours must have been greatly exaggerated, but according to you, the rumours out there are not exaggerated at all, this stuff can really turn back the clock?!"

"Yes!" An Chongqiu sighed, "It's just a pity that I've only seen the effect of a quarter of the Spring Return Pill, I didn't have the chance to see what kind of miraculous performance a whole Spring Return Pill has after taking it"

An Kaifeng immediately said, "This is simple, I will have someone go directly to investigate the guy who got the Spring Return Pill tomorrow to see how much he has changed before and after."

I think that since he can afford to buy the Spring Return Pill, he must have his own medical team, and all his medical records and health conditions must have been recorded in great detail. , exactly what kind of physical state he was in."

"Moreover, I'm sure that after he took the Revitalising Pill, he would have had his own medical team conduct a new assessment of his body at the first opportunity, using scientific means to visually present all the changes that occurred in his body before and after taking the Revitalising Pill, so as long as we can get his medical records, we'll be able to find out just how effective a whole Revitalising Pill really is! "

An Chongqiu said, "Mom, in fact, the safest way is to take Dad to the auction of the Spring Return Pill next year and auction it off and take it on the spot at the auction hall."

The old lady sighed and said, "But according to what you said, they only hold the auction once a year, and this year's has just ended, so the next one will have to wait another year. would be out of luck"

The auction is the last plan, if we can get the Spring Return Pill through other channels before the auction, that would be great!"
