

Ye Chen 4341

Chapter 4341

The words of his men made Li Yalin's spirit shake.

He hurriedly asked, "What have you found out?"

His subordinate immediately reported, "We've found Gu Qiuyi's movement line before she left for the airport yesterday, and she actually has a spatial intersection with you, chief!"

"What?!" As a police detective, Li Yalin naturally knew what spatial intersection meant, it meant that he was once in the same physical space as Gu Qiuyi, which made him exclaim at once, "A spatial intersection in what place?!"

The henchman said, "She went to Fei's at noon yesterday first, then from Fei's she went to a Cantonese style roast goose restaurant in Chinatown, and after she arrived at the roast goose restaurant, you and Mr. An also arrived at that roast goose restaurant!"

"f*ck!" Li Yalin burst out and cursed, "So that's what happened!"

When Li Yalin heard this, he was actually a little disappointed in his heart.

He had originally wanted to, by digging deeper into this line of Gu Qiuyi, draw out the mysterious person hiding behind her to protect her.

Moreover, he had always felt that Gu Qiuyi must have a very strong intelligence network, which was why she was able to get the news of the An family's old man's critical illness in such a short period of time.

However, after hearing such a report from his men, he realized that it turned out that the matter was a coincidence, that it was Gu Qiuyi herself who was at that roast goose shop at that time, so it was not surprising that the content of An Chongqiu's chat with himself was overheard by her

Thinking of this, he sighed lightly and asked again, "Who did Gu Qiuyi go with? When did she leave?"

I watched the surrounding CCTV footage, I can't be sure exactly who Gu Qiuyi was with, but she arrived first before you at the time, and when she left it was Mr. An who left first, you probably came out after waiting for two or three minutes, Gu Qiuyi came out a minute or two after you, and after she came out, she went straight to the airport. "

Li Yalin was busy saying, "Send me the video to see!"

"Okay."

Soon, Li Yalin's phone received a video.

This video, originated from the surveillance probe that was diagonally opposite the roast goose shop.

After Li Yalin opened it, he saw the arrival of the car Gu Qiuyi and Ye Chen were in at the Roast Goose Shop.

However, because the front entrance of the roast goose shop was just at the dead end of this surveillance camera, the video could not see what happened when the people got out of the car.

If he could find the frontal CCTV footage, Li Yalin would be able to see that after Gu Qiuyi got out of the car, she naturally and intimately took a man who was travelling with her into the roast goose shop.

And that man was Ye Chen, whom the An family had been searching for for twenty years!

In the video, shortly after the car in which Gu Qiuyi and Ye Chen were riding had stopped, Li Yalin saw that his and An Chongqiu's car had also entered the surveillance area.

Li Yalin looked at the video and sucked his teeth, then called the other party and asked, "Can't you find any other surveillance cameras? Preferably one that can capture people on the other side."

The other party replied, "No, this is the only security camera that can capture the roast goose shop."

Li Yalin cursed and said, "f*ck, I've already suggested to the mayor that he allocate money to set up a skynet system in New York, but he just won't approve it, look at China, the surveillance coverage rate in first-tier cities has already exceeded 95%! And look at New York, it took until last year for all the f*cking underground stations to be installed with surveillance!"

Chapter 4342

The other party said helplessly, "Boss, even if we install the skynet in New York, it's useless. Even if we can install 100,000 cameras overnight, half of them will be smashed by the gang members the next day, and the remaining half will be dismantled by homeless people for cigarettes and burgers"

Li Yalin sighed and said, "Forget it, you can look for any other clues."

The other party was busy asking, "Should we ask the owner of that roast goose shop? Maybe the roast goose shop has its own surveillance."

Li Yalin immediately said, "Don't go yet, that Gu Qiuyi, as the most famous singer in the Chinese field, even went to this roast goose restaurant for dinner, it is likely that she knows the owner, so if you go to ask him, you will scare the snake."

The first thing you need to do is to go inside the restaurant and see if there are any surveillance cameras. If there are, have someone act out a mobile phone snatching scene in the afternoon, and then go to the shop with a different brother and say that you need to retrieve their surveillance footage. ."

The other party laughed: "I'll go to head, you're still the best! Then I'll wait for them to open the door and go over to take a look first!"

After Li Yalin gave a hmph, he hung up the phone.

After hanging up the phone, he flipped back to the video he had just seen, and then he pulled back the progress bar, he then saw An Chongqiu's car leaving the roast goose shop quickly first, and shortly after that, he himself also walked out of the roast goose shop, and right after that, the car that Gu Qiuyi was in then also drove away from Chinatown in the same direction as An Chongqiu.

Seeing this, he couldn't help but mutter, "When I went to this shop with Chongqiu that day, it was already long after dinner and the shop seemed to be empty, so where is Gu Qiuyi?"

With this in mind, he closed his eyes and recalled in his mind what had happened in the roast goose shop that day.

Soon, the images of that day presented themselves in his mind's eye.

Having been a detective for a long time, he had a very strong passive memory. He might not have noticed a small detail at the scene at the time, but those details had actually been stored mechanically in his mind like a video recorder, and recalling it was like rewinding and rewatching it all over again, and many of the details of that time could be captured again.

He soon remembered that in the roast goose shop that day, there was a wooden staircase going up on the right hand side. When he and An Chongqiu entered the door that day, they did not deliberately pay attention to the staircase, but in the image that suddenly flashed in his mind, the staircase was not empty at that time, but the four legs of two people appeared in the top right corner of the image in his mind.

He immediately confirmed in his mind that when he and An Chongqiu had arrived at the roast goose shop that day, Gu Qiuyi should have just gone up with another person.

He then couldn't help but murmur, "Who was the other person? Was it her agent? Or was it the kid who disliked Fei Xuebin so much that he was speechless when Fei Hao Yang was kidnapped that day?"

Thinking of this, his mind could not help but recall Ye Chen's performance that day again.

When he thought of Ye Chen, he couldn't help but think: "After Fei Hao Yang was kidnapped that day, under Fei Xuebin's aggressive posture, that kid was able to do nothing to fear or even let go of him, so it shows that he was extremely confident in his heart, but why was he so confident? You know, this is the Fei family's territory, and he accompanied Gu Qiuyi to the charity dinner organised by Fei Hao Yang, so he must know what the Fei family's strength and background is."

"Knowing what the Fei family is capable of, he still doesn't put Fei Xuebin in his eyes at all, this kind of person, is he too strong, or is he too crazy?"

Chapter 4343

As Li Yalin thought of this, he felt more and more that there seemed to be some secrets in that young man's body.

He felt that a person, whether he was crazy or strong, had to have enough backbone, so he wanted to find out why that young man had the backbone to face the line head-on with Fei Xuebin.

This young man, in his opinion, might become a breakthrough point.

However, what he was most worried about now was that he did not know how he could reasonably approach that young man.

After all, if a person's rash approach did not have a reasonable enough reason, then he would definitely suspect the other party's motive for approaching him.

For a wise man, once he sensed that something was wrong, he would immediately respond in such a way that the other party could not find any breakthrough point.

Just when he was worried about this matter, An Chongqiu suddenly called.

Without any hesitation, Li Yalin pressed the answer button directly.

On the other end of the line, An Chongqiu asked straight away, "Old Li, did you find anything new last night?"

In fact, An Chongqiu hadn't slept much last night, and his mind had been wondering where exactly Gu Qiuyi had learned the news of the old man's critical illness.

However, after all, he had told Li Yalin yesterday that he did not want to investigate Gu Qiuyi, so now he was too embarrassed to ask Li Yalin directly, so he could only ask vaguely if there were any new discoveries.

Li Yalin had been good buddies with An Chongqiu for many years, so he naturally knew what was on his brother's mind, so he replied directly, "I had someone trace the source backwards from JFK Airport, and you may not believe me when I say it, when we were eating roast goose in Chinatown, this Gu Qiuyi was also there."

"What?!" An Chongqiu asked, incomparably surprised, "She was also in the shop? That can't be, there were only two of us in the shop at that time, apart from the owner and his mate, right?"

Li Yalin said, "You may not have noticed, but I thought back carefully, when we entered the shop, there were two people who went upstairs before us, and one of them was Gu Qiuyi."

An Chongqiu blurted out, "I can't believe there's such a coincidence! This means that Miss Gu didn't get the news of the old man's critical illness from anyone else, she heard it directly from me"

"Right." Li Yalin gave a sarcastic laugh and said, "It seems like I overthought this matter, I thought yesterday that there must be some conspiracy theory here, but to my surprise, things are just so coincidental, at that time after you said that the old master was seriously ill and rushed to the airport, I didn't take long to leave as well, after I left Gu Qiuyi's car also left Chinatown, in the same direction as you, it must have gone directly That would explain why she arrived in Los Angeles around the same time as you."

An Chongqiu sighed, "It seems that the old man was really blessed with a great life If the two of us hadn't gone to eat roast goose that day, the old man certainly wouldn't have been able to pass this hurdle either"

"Yes." Li Yalin sighed, "Speaking of which, this Miss Gu is also really affectionate, after hearing about this matter, she immediately went to Los Angeles in a flash, it seems that the reason why she would go to Los Angeles is not to pay a visit, but to save the old master."

An Chongqiu said with immense emotion, "I really didn't expect that the hidden story of the matter would be like this In that case, our An family owes Miss Gu an even greater debt of gratitude"

Li Yalin hummed, but soon muttered with some doubt, "Chongqiu, there is one thing I don't understand, you don't mind if I say it."

Chapter 4344

An Chongqiu then said, "Just say it."

Li Yalin said, "Look, since this Miss Gu has the medicine that can save the old man, and she also knows that you were downstairs at that time, then why do you think she didn't just give you the medicine?"

Saying that, Li Yalin added, "And look, she didn't go after you immediately after you left, she waited until I left before coming out, which feels like she was deliberately trying to avoid you."

"This" An Chongqiu couldn't think of a reason, so he said, "You said she didn't give me the medicine straight away, most likely because she was afraid I wouldn't believe it, right? If I didn't believe her medicine, whether I would accept it is one question, and whether I would give it to the old man if I did, is another."

Li Yalin sighed and said, "Perhaps, but I always feel that in none of these things does the logic flow completely."

An Chongqiu then said, "Alright, then you shouldn't be too suspicious, I just received a news push, the press spokesman of the Fei family announced to the public that the Fei family is going to hold a press conference at eight in the morning, and it will be simulcast live on the whole network, so I guess that the newly appointed young lady is going to step in and save the day."

Li Yalin smiled sarcastically, "To save the day this mess, I don't think anyone else would be able to clean it up."

An Chongqiu said, "At this time, if you break your arm, you still have a chance, depending on whether this little girl has the courage."

Li Yalin laughed, "Then I'd like to see how capable this little girl really is! If she can save the day and try to moderate the public anger, she will be doing me a favour, otherwise, I'd be really f*cking worried"

Li Yalin lamented, "A dead Fei Hao Yang, a dead Qiao Fei Yun, and dozens of brutalized young girls, so many human cases, really rubbed our NYPD's face on the concrete"

An Chongqiu said, "The good thing is that those young girls are not missing in New York, this you can still exculpate yourselves."

Saying that, An Chongqiu reminded, "But Old Li, you have to find a way to stabilize the situation first, you can't let things go any further downhill."

"Yes." Li Yalin spoke, "I'll have a morning meeting with them in a moment, an attitude should be clear, no matter what, no more people can die in New York because of this incident."

As soon as the words left his mouth, one of his subordinates pushed the door without knocking and said in a panic, "Inspector, something big has happened!"

When Li Yalin heard this, his head buzzed with a sharp pain.

He thought his nerves were already big enough, but he didn't expect that he would still be tortured into a nervous breakdown by the words 'something big has happened'.

He didn't know how many times he had heard these four words, and every time he heard them, his nerves had to be ravaged and stimulated.

So he could only ask stiffly, "What's the big f*cking deal again?!"

The killer deliberately left them floating less than a metre from the surface of the water. Early in the morning a boat saw a group of things bobbing around in the water and thought they were some kind of large fish, only to find out they were all dead when they got to them."

"Holy sh*t!" Li Yalin stood up with a start and blurted out, "How could so many people die? Have the dead been identified?!"

"It's confirmed." The subordinate said incomparably nervously, "The nearest precinct has already sent someone there, and after a preliminary investigation of the scene, it can be determined that the dead are almost all dignitaries in New York as well as the gentry of big families"

"Among them are the heir to the Rothschild collateral family, and the eldest son of the Hudson family the son-in-law of the Brant family, who is of English noble birth"

Chapter 4345

The report from his subordinates made Li Yalin furious.

He really did not expect that so many bodies would suddenly be found in New York not long after Fei Hao Yang and Qiao Fei Yun had died, and they were all prominent figures.

Subconsciously, he asked, "Has the forensic pathologist gone yet?"

The subordinate replied, "Yes, even the FBI got wind of it and sent someone over to investigate."

Li Yalin asked with a black face, "When did these people die?!"

"Last night." The subordinate replied offhandedly, "The coroner said the time of death was no more than eight hours."

"D*mn it!" Li Yalin said without thinking, "It must be the same gang as the one that killed Fei Hao Yang"

After saying that, he immediately ordered, "Hurry up and have them transfer all the corpses to the morgue at the autopsy centre, and don't let any media come near or let anyone be interviewed by the media! If anyone dares to quietly give information to the media, once caught, I will not spare him!"

The subordinate was busy saying, "I'll talk to them now!"

As the subordinate turned and walked away, Li Yalin slammed the ashtray onto the ground, and the gla*s ashtray instantly fell to pieces.

At this moment, his heart was already burning with rage.

He really didn't expect that after he had just said that no more people should die in New York, the echoes of his words had not yet completely dissipated in this room, and immediately there were so many more murders.

What he didn't expect was that these people would have the audacity to play such a big game in New York, which didn't even take the NYPD into account!

This reminded him of what happened to the Tokyo Police Department some time ago.

During those days of the Great Tokyo Chaos, the situation faced by the Tokyo Police Department should be no different from his own.

Thinking of this, he thought of that Su Ruoli who had entered the country with Fei Jianzhong and Fei Kexin.

He wondered, "Could it be that Su Ruoli is responsible for this again? Good! I'll go and meet her then! Let's see how capable she really is!"

With his mind made up, Li Yalin picked up the landline on his desk, dialed a short number and ordered, "Tell the second team to get ready, we'll leave in two minutes!"

After saying that, he hung up the phone and realised that his mobile phone was still on, so he picked it up and said to An Chongqiu, "Chongqiu, I have some urgent business to attend to, so I'll leave it for now."

An Chongqiu said, "Old Li, I advise you not to try to hide this matter, because it won't be long before the murderer will definitely take the initiative to release the video and evidence with these dozen people."

Li Yalin asked, "You mean that these people, like Fei Hao Yang, have done a lot of heartless things?"

"Definitely." An Chongqiu spoke, "Although the murderers behind the scene are vicious in their methods, to be honest, what they have done is considered to be punishing evil and eliminating violence, so I believe they will not kill without reason, and once they do, it proves that these people must have committed the worst crimes."

Saying that, An Chongqiu added: "With their style of action, this matter will definitely be exposed at a suitable time, and by then everyone will definitely know about it, so there is no need for you to hide it for now, you might as well take the initiative to announce it to the public in an open and honest manner."

Li Yalin let out a long sigh and said helplessly, "Ai! The impact of this incident on the NYPD is too bad, if we announce it now, I'm afraid it will immediately hit the headlines, and in less than a minute, the mayor and council members will all be calling, so we won't know how to deal with it then"

After that, he added: "It's impossible to hide this kind of thing, so I have to leave the police station first. If any scandals are exposed later, let the director explain to the ma*s media, I just took this opportunity to hide, I will retire soon, and I can't become a public enemy before I retire."

Chapter 4346

An Chongqiu then said, "That makes sense, it's good to avoid some right and wrong, then you take care of your safety, we'll be in touch if there's anything."

"Good!" After hanging up the phone, Li Yalin hurriedly packed his things and hurriedly left the police station.

He had just gotten into his car and was about to head to the Fei family estate when his phone received a push from the world's largest video software.

The headline of the tweet was shocking to his eyes: Thirteen murderers linked to Fei Hao Yang in New York were executed by mysterious forces last night!

He hastily clicked on the tweet and was horrified to find that the other party had revealed many more videos related to the abuses, and the protagonists of these videos were no longer Fei Hoang, but the thirteen victims who were found in the Hudson River today!

These thirteen people, compared to Fei Hoang's actions, can only be described as more brutal than ever, with horrendous cruelty.

And at the end of the video of their sadistic killings is a video taken late at night on the sea.

The video shows the thirteen men being executed, one by one, being thrown from the boat into the water like dumplings, and the filmmaker gives each of the thirteen men a close-up of their faces with a strong light, and it is clear that they have all died horribly, each of them unconscious and with eyes full of terror.

Each time the video gave a face, the screen would take a short pause and then the letters would type next to it the person's name, origin and relevant information.

Each of these thirteen people is the son of a wealthy family of great renown in New York, and each is the offspring of a powerful family worth billions of dollars.

As soon as the video was released, it once again exploded on the internet and the media followed it up in the shortest possible time.

The public was outraged, and the Internet was full of vitriol against the thirteen and their families, which soon led to a ma*s hatred of the general public, the middle cla*s, and the upper cla*s.

In a flash, everyone in New York's high society was afraid that after this incident, the whole society would be watching every member of the high society and digging up all their scandals.

Li Yalin's top boss called him at the first opportunity and told him to prepare a press conference immediately to make a statement to the media and the public and to stabilise the situation.

But Li Yalin refused to accept such an a*signment and blurted out, "I'm on my way to the autopsy centre, let someone else do it."

The supervisor said angrily, "Fei Hao Yang disappeared in your jurisdiction, and so many cases have arisen in the background, which should also go under your name, so of course it is most appropriate for you to come and find a press conference at such a time!"

Li Yalin said without thinking, "Either you let me go to the autopsy centre and I'll do my best to find clues and try to solve the case, or you can just give me a quick word and I'll retire immediately, I really don't want to be involved in this matter at all!"

Upon hearing this, the supervisor said angrily, "Inspector Li! Don't threaten me with in-situ retirement! Even if you want to retire early, it has to be after the press conference!"

Li Yalin also gave up and spoke, "In that case, then I promise you with my personality that I will announce my early retirement directly at the press conference, and as for this case, I won't say a word, not even a single word!"

"You" the supervisor was furious, but in the face of Li Yalin's attitude, he had no choice but to say angrily: "I'll cover for you, but you'd better solve the case quickly! But you'd better solve the case quickly! Otherwise, even if you retire, you will still be pointed out on the streets of New York!"

Hearing this, Li Yalin immediately said, "Don't worry, if this case is not solved, I will hold a conference and personally apologise to the American people!"

Chapter 4347

After hanging up the phone with his superior, Li Yalin said to his subordinate at the first opportunity, "No more autopsy centre, go to Fei's Group!"

His subordinate hurriedly asked, "Inspector, what are you going to do at Fay's Group? Fei's Group will soon hold a press conference, almost all the media in New York are there, wouldn't you go at this time wouldn't you"

When the handlers said this, they stumbled all of a sudden and stammered for half a day without saying anything further.

Li Yalin coldly asked: "Wouldn't it be what? You f*cking say it!"

The underling could only pluck up courage and say with a stiff head, "Isn't it the same as throwing oneself into the net?"

Li Yalin gritted his teeth and cursed: "f*ck you! I am a police officer, not a murderer, how can I be considered to have thrown myself into the net?"

His subordinate said anxiously, "But the media are waiting to interview you."

Li Yalin knew that what his men said was not wrong.

With so many major cases happening in New York in one night, and with so many innocent women's deaths involved, the reporters in all of New York were now most eager to interview the head of the police.

There are also orders from above that no one is allowed to give interviews to the media in private without permission from above.

The reason why the media are so afraid of interviews is that in such cases, the police have long been the target of media and public accusations.

As long as they are allowed to seize the opportunity, no matter who gives the interview, they will definitely be verbally abused by them.

Therefore, the reason why the top did not allow interviews was also because they were afraid that the police officers' dumbfounded and red-faced appearance when asked by reporters would be filmed by the media and broadcasted to the whole country or even the whole world.

This was also why Li Yalin lied to his superiors and said he was going to the autopsy centre.

If he had said that he wanted to go to Fei's group and meet that Su Ruoli, I am afraid that his boss would have broken into a tirade.

However, at the moment, there was nothing else Li Yalin could do.

The only clue he could get hold of was that Su Ruoli had come to New York with Fei Kexin, so if he wanted to know whether or not it was the Dragon Palace that was behind this matter, Su Ruoli was the only way to break through.

So, he said to his subordinate with an iron heart: "From now on, don't say anything, don't ask anything, just do whatever I tell you to do and do as you're told, if the top blames me, I'll take the blame for everything."

When his men heard this, they knew that Li Yalin had already made up his mind, so they had the sense not to say more, then they immediately picked up the intercom and said to the cars following behind them, "We're not going to the autopsy centre, you guys follow me."

At this moment.

It was less than five minutes until eight o'clock.

Not only was the release hall of Fei's group packed, even the aisles were full of people.

Media from all walks of life had set up all kinds of long and short guns, fearing that they would miss every single shot and clip of the launch.

In addition to this, many media outlets also broadcasted the event live, in real time, to the whole world via the dual platforms of cable TV and the internet.

As Fei Hoang's case has become a worldwide sensation, not only are people in the United States watching the conference, but people in other countries are also watching the conference in different time zones, at different times of the day, and through different online platforms.

In the lounge next door to the launch hall, Fei Kexin, dressed in a black skirt with a white shirt, was ready to go on stage, her expression calm and confident.

The three generations of grandchildren, Fei Jianzhong, Fei Shanhai and Fei Xuebin, all had nervous faces.

They didn't know what situation was waiting for them in a moment, perhaps as soon as they walked into the release hall, countless people would take off their leather shoes and throw them.

Chapter 4348

Fei Xuebin, as Fei Hao Yang's father, was the most nervous deep down. After all, he knew that his son did not teach his father, and now that Fei Hao Yang had died, the first person people would think of to take it out would be him.

Seeing that the time was getting closer and closer to eight o'clock, he said to Fei Kexin apprehensively, "Kexin maybe I won't go up later"

Fei Kexin said firmly, "Today's conference, none of the four of us can be missing!"

Fei Xuebin said in a panic: "I'm afraid that if I show up later, it will immediately cause public outrage, in case it affects the rhythm of your launch, it will be bad"

"Never mind." Fei Ke Xin said without leaving any room for error, "After you and your eldest uncle and grandfather take the stage, you don't have to say or do anything, the words will be said by me alone, you only need to apologize with me when I apologize and bow with me when I bow."

Fei Xuebin was about to say something else when Fei Jianzhong next to him shouted coldly, "Xuebin! Your son has caused such a big trouble, if you, as a father, don't even show up, what should others think of our Fei family?!"

Fei Xue Bin said in shame, "Grandpa, you're right"

Fei Jianzhong looked at him coldly, and then looked at Fei Shanhai who was scowling at the side, and said coldly, "Everyone in the Fei family, including me, must obey Kexin's orders, otherwise, get out of the Fei family before it's too late and go outside as a foreign relative!"

Fei Xuebin shrank his neck and hurriedly said, "I know grandpa"

At this moment, Su Ruoli, who was dressed in a black suit, pushed open the door to the room, striding to Fei Ke Xin and spoke, "Miss Fei, there is still one last minute left."

"Good." Fei Ke Xin nodded and asked, "Ruo Li, Mr. Ye isn't coming over?"

"Yes." Su Ruoli said, "Mr. Ye is watching the live broadcast at the hotel, he asked me to pa*s on seven words to you, set it to death."

Fei Ke Xin pursed her lips and nodded her head forcefully, "I know help me thank Mr. Ye!"

After saying that, she took out her mobile phone and looked at it, there were still forty seconds left until exactly eight o'clock, so she switched it off and said to the three grandchildren around her, "It's almost time, let's go out!"

Fei Jianzhong, Fei Shanhai, and Fei Xuebin all had awe-inspiring expressions.

From their point of view, the upcoming launch was like they were going to be stripped naked and paraded through the streets, making them feel apprehensive and unsettled.

But now, there was no room for them to back out, so they could only follow Fei Ke Xin's lead and walk out of the lounge.

The main door of the lounge was directly connected to the stage entrance of the release hall.

After passing through the several-metre long passage, the four of them appeared directly on the side of the stage of the launch hall.

The journalists, who had been waiting for their turn, saw that someone had emerged from the passageway and, regardless of the circumstances, all the cameras were aimed at the entrance, with the sound of the shutter crackling like a hundred thousand mouse traps being triggered at once.

Only after the first round of photos had been taken did the journalists, out of professional instinct, realise that the first person to walk out of the entrance was not Fei Shanhai, the head of the Fei family!

The huge change that happened in the Fei family last night had not been officially announced to the outside world.

Therefore, when people saw a beautiful young woman, who was the first to take the stage through the entrance, each one was speechless with shock.

Many people didn't even know who Fei Kexin was, so one by one, they all mingled below, wondering what this woman actually did.

Many media reporters even preemptively cursed, "These men from the Fei family are too shameless, to push a girl out as a shield at a critical moment!"

Such voices instantly sparked everyone's approval.

However, no one expected that when Fei Ke Xin walked to the speaker's platform and stood behind the microphone, the first words she said dropped a heavy bomb on the crowd.

Only to see her vermilion lips lightly open and she said calmly, "Hello, friends of the media, I am the new chairman of the Fei Group, Fei Kexin!"

Chapter 4349

Fei Kexin's throwaway remark caused the whole scene to burst into a flurry.

No one had expected that the Fei family would have a new chairman at this critical moment.

And what was even more unexpected was that this new chairman was a woman.

One must know that even in the United States, the patriarchal mindset of those big families is extremely serious.

There are so many big families in the United States with a fortune of more than ten billion dollars, and almost none of them would give the position of leader to a woman.

Moreover, it was such a young woman.

However, when one looked behind Fei Ke Xin, the previous family head, Fei Shanhai, and the previous family head, Fei Jianzhong, were all listed.

This also meant that the young Fei Ke Xin was not joking with everyone.

With the previous two family heads standing up for her, she was definitely the leader of the new generation of the Fei family.

The crowd was shocked beyond belief.

They really couldn't understand why Fei Jia had made such a decision. At such a time, even if she needed to find someone to take the blame or find someone to act as a shield, there was no need to give up the position of family head, right?

If he could become the head of the family after taking the blame, and if he could become the head of the Fei family, which has almost a trillion dollars in assets, then I am afraid no one would refuse.

Just as the media reporters were horrified, Fei Ke Xin got straight to the point and said, "I believe that everyone here should have seen the series of videos that were exposed on the internet yesterday, and I, as well as the rest of the Fei family, did not know about the unforgivable crimes committed by Fei Hao Yang until yesterday, just like you all."

As soon as many people heard Fei Kexin say that she only knew about these things yesterday, they immediately felt that Fei Kexin was about to start dumping the pot.

One of the young male reporters said to the others around her, "I think she's going to say that we didn't know anything, that what Fei Haiyang did was his own doing, that we had nothing to do with it, and that we were victims of it! f*ckin' hell!"

The viewers in front of the television sets, computers and mobile phones watching the live broadcast had similar thoughts in their minds.

They had seen a lot of this, the big families dumping the pot at critical moments.

So, they also expected that the Fei family would definitely use this way to clear their name.

However, no one expected that Fei Kexin, immediately afterwards, would say incomparably piously, "Although we also just learned about all this last night, our Fei family still has a major responsibility that cannot be shirked for what Fei Hao Yang did!"

With these words, Fei Ke Xin immediately made the reporters on the scene and the viewers watching the live broadcast feel a sense of relief.

This phrase of having a major responsibility that cannot be shirked was, in the eyes of the journalists and viewers, an extremely rare wording.

This is because, in the past, even if a big family had a good attitude in admitting their fault, they would at most admit a secondary responsibility, such as their own lack of supervision or something like that.

It was extremely rare for someone like Fei Kexin to put the words "major responsibility" on himself right out of the gate.

At this point, everyone put away their earlier contempt and began to listen intently to what Fei Kexin had to say next.

At this time, Fei Ke Xin said seriously, "The reason why I say that our Fei family has a major responsibility that cannot be shirked is mainly due to the following aspects;"

Chapter 4350

"First, the Fei family's education of Fei Hao Yang was indeed extremely inappropriate! It is the Fei family's fault for failing to establish a healthy and kind outlook on life, worldview and values for him, allowing his character and acting style to continuously go to extremes and even bring such significant harm to society!"

"Secondly, the Fei family has been extremely negligent in supervising what Fei Hao Yang has done though not! Fei Hao Yang has been doing wrong for so many years and we didn't even know about it until yesterday, this is a clear dereliction of duty and incompetence within the Fei family! If we could have discovered his problems as early as possible, he wouldn't have been able to harm so many innocent women, so this, too, is the Fei family's fault!"

"Thirdly, the Fei family's wealth, status and resources have inadvertently become key factors in aiding and abetting Fei Hao Yang and allowing him to keep committing felonies, if it wasn't for the Fei family's aura, Fei Hao Yang wouldn't have had the opportunity to commit so many felonies one after another, so this, too, remains the Fei family's fault!"

Fei Ke Xin said three points of the Fei family's faults in a row, instantly making everyone dumbfounded as they listened.

From everyone's point of view, Fei Kexin's words did not include any words of favouritism or shirking of responsibility, on the contrary, she also took the initiative to admit all the direct and indirect responsibilities, which really made everyone's attitude towards her change greatly.

At this point, Fei Ke Xin continued, "In addition to that, I would like to state one thing, that is, I personally, only just took over the Fei family last night, so, whether there is anyone else involved in the Fei family or not, I can't make a 100% guarantee to you all yet!"

"But what I can promise you all is that in the time to come, the Fei family will take the initiative to cooperate with the police and conduct an in-depth investigation into every member of the Fei family as well as the Fei family's employees!"

"At that time, we will make all the contents of the investigation open to the community. We will never condone it if we find that there are other people involved!"

With these words, Fei Ke Xin threw another thunderbolt into the hearts of the reporters and viewers!

It was rare enough to admit at such a time that there were problems with Fei Hoang's education, improper supervision and potential accomplices, but what everyone didn't expect was that Fei Ke Xin would even want to conduct a thorough investigation into the Fei family.

As soon as these words were spoken, everyone understood that Fei Ke Xin really wanted to solve all the problems thoroughly, without any half-hearted or perfunctory elements.

As a result, there were already journalists on the stage who could not help but applaud.

Their attitude towards Fei Ke Xin had also changed drastically at this moment!

At this time, Fei Ke Xin continued, "Apart from cooperating with the investigation and digging out all the rubbish within the Fei family and removing it completely, we also have an extremely important matter to resolve, and that is to start the compensation work for all the victims' families!"

At these words, everyone stared closely at Fei Ke Xin.

Taking the initiative to compensate the families, this was taking the attitude of handling the issue to a new level.

Therefore, everyone was eager to know how Fei Ke Xin was going to deal with the issue of compensation for the victims' families.

Before disclosing the compensation, I would like to make it clear that we know very well that even if we compensate the victims with more money, it is impossible to bring them back from the dead and completely mend the trauma in their hearts, but we are still willing to do everything we can to help the victims' families to solve their future problems. We are willing to do what we can to help the victims' families with their future lives, so that they can be as far away from their grief as possible."

At this point, Fei Ke Xin gave a slight pause and said in a loud voice, "Therefore, I hereby formally announce that the Fei family will pay a lump sum of US$1 billion as compensation to the families of each victim who died as a result of Fei Hao Yang's cruelty!"
