

Ye Chen 4361

Chapter 4361

Ye Chen saw Uncle Zhong giving himself a wink, and although he didn't know exactly what the situation was, he had a good idea of what he meant, and knew that this woman who had been robbed of her mobile phone must have been a fraud.

However, Ye Chen did not leave immediately, but followed the woman into Uncle Zhong's roast goose shop with a swagger.

Once inside, Ye Chen deliberately found a corner with his back to the door and sat down, then greeted Uncle Zhong, "Please have a roast goose with rice."

Chen Zhao Zhong originally did not want Ye Chen to come in now, but seeing that he was sitting in a rather secluded position, he did not say anything more and promised, "Okay, wait a moment, I have to call the police for this girl first."

After saying that, Chen Zhao Zhong took out his mobile phone, entered the three numbers 911, then looked at the girl and asked, "Girl, do you want to tell the police yourself or should I do it for you?"

The girl looked at Chen Zhaozhong gratefully and said, "Just lend me your phone for a while, I'll tell the police myself."

"Okay." Chen Zhao Zhong handed her his mobile phone directly to her, and after the other party took it, she dialed the 911 police number.

On the phone, the girl told the operator about her phone being robbed, then gave the other party the address, and when the other party finished registering, she hung up and handed the phone back to Chen Zhaozhong, thanking her, "Thank you, boss, I've already reported it to the police, they'll be here in a minute."

"You're welcome." Chen Zhao Zhong smiled faintly, put away the phone and said, "Do you want something to eat? This meal is on me."

The girl was busy saying, "No, no, I've just eaten, thank you, boss."

"You're welcome." Chen Zhao Zhong nodded and said to the man, "Pour a gla*s of water for this lady."

Without saying a word, the mate immediately brought over a gla*s of lemon water and handed it to the girl.

The girl said gratefully, "Boss, thank you so much."

Chen Zhao Zhong smiled faintly and said, "It doesn't matter, we are all Chinese, we should help each other."

With that, Chen Zhao Zhong said, "Sit by yourself for a while, I will go and prepare the meal for the guests."

The girl said, "You go about your business, don't mind me!"

In less than ten minutes, a police car stopped at the entrance and two New York police officers stepped out and entered the shop, asking, "Who just called 911?"

The girl hastily raised her hand and said, "It was me."

One of the police officers looked at the girl and asked, "We were told by the main desk that your phone had been robbed, what happened?"

The girl then said, "About 10 minutes ago, I was talking to a friend in front of this restaurant, and suddenly a man came and took my phone away."

The policeman nodded and asked, "Was there only one person on the other side?"

The girl said, "There was only one person when he grabbed my phone, but he quickly got into a car and left."

The policeman asked again, "Did you get a good look at the person who took your phone? What was his race and how tall was he? Was his weight on the fat side or thin side?"

The girl thought for a moment and said, "He was so fast that I didn't react at once, so I didn't get a good look at him, but what I can say for sure is that he was yellow, medium height, on the thin side and very agile."

The policeman said helplessly, "Yellow people of medium height and thin are a dime a dozen in Chinatown, so without detailed facial features, catching someone is rather difficult."

With that, the other man explained, "Actually, as you know, street snatching of mobile phones, laptops, and ladies' backpacks happens at least a thousand times a day on the streets of New York, and the vast majority of them are very difficult to catch."

Chapter 4362

Another police officer looked around the shop at this point and pointed to one of the surveillance cameras pointing towards the door and said, "Since it happened right in front of the shop, this surveillance camera must be able to capture it, right? If we can get images of the suspects, it will be relatively easy to catch them."

After saying that, he looked at Chen Zhao Zhong and said seriously, "Boss, we need to bring back the hard disk in your hard disk recorder to retrieve the surveillance footage and assist in solving the case."

When he finished speaking to Chen Zhao Zhong, he immediately said to his colleague, "Go and take down the hard disk, we will go straight back and take this girl back to make a statement."

"Good!" The man nodded without thinking and immediately asked Chen Zhao Zhong, "Boss, where is the hard disk recorder of your surveillance system? Where is it?"

Chen Zhao Zhong said with an embarrassed face, "Officer, the hard disk recorder is there, but there is no hard disk inside ....."

"No hard drive?!" The policeman in charge frowned and asked, "I see that the working light of your security camera is on, how can there be no hard disk?"

Chen Zhao Zhong directly from the counter will be connected to a hard disk recorder out, said: "You see, indeed no hard disk, my hard disk has long been broken, has not bought a new one, my shop itself is relatively small, there are no evil intentions of people thinking about, so whether there is surveillance video does not matter, so I simply did not change, directly to the camera power, just as a bluff."

The policeman walked quickly to the front, found that the hard disk recorder hard disk space is indeed empty, face immediately fell down, a depressed face said: "I say boss ..... you ..... you are too stingy it! How much does a hard drive cost? A large capacity one won't cost more than two or three hundred dollars! How can you even save this money?"

Chen Zhao Zhong said helplessly, "To tell you the truth, officer, business in Chinatown is really difficult, usually all aspects of the fight, hard work to earn a little money, their own hands really can not leave a few."

The policeman was so angry that he could not speak for half a day.

However, angry is angry, he is also very clear in his heart, this kind of thing they can not do anything at all.

Since there was no hard disk in the hard disk recorder, there was no way to store any surveillance footage, so the trick the boss had devised was basically aborted.

As such, there was no point in staying here, so he said to the woman, "Madam, why don't you come back to the station with us and take a statement, and we will try to find other clues to help solve the case."

The woman was helpless, so she nodded and said, "All right, I'll come with you then."

The policeman turned around and walked out, and when he was almost at the door, he turned to Chen Zhaozhong and said, "Tomorrow, go and buy a hard disk!"

Chen Zhaozhong nodded and said, "Yes, yes, don't worry, I'll go buy it tomorrow!"

The policeman turned around and left, and soon the two of them came to the police car at the entrance, sat the woman in the back of the police car, started the car and left the scene.

At this point, only the mate and Ye Chen were left in the shop, so Chen Zhao Zhong asked the mate to hang a suspended sign on the door.

After hanging it, the fellow then went to the basement alone to rest, Chen Zhao Zhong sat opposite Ye Chen and spoke, "Young Master Ye, the police are already on my place, I don't know exactly what it's about, but I reckon it must have something to do with you."

"Something to do with me?" Ye Chen frowned and asked, "Uncle Zhong do you mean to say that those two policemen just now were running after me?"

Chapter 4363

“It should be.” Chen Zhao Zhong said seriously, “Look at that woman and those two policemen just now, they put on such a big show, but they actually wanted to get rid of the CCTV footage from my shop, so they went to such great lengths, they must have had another plan.”

Ye Chen asked with some curiosity, “Uncle Zhong, how did you judge that the woman and the two policemen were acting?”

Chen Zhao Zhong explained, “When the shop first opened this morning, a middle-aged Chinese man came in and ordered a random meal after sitting down, and then kept staring at the three security cameras on the ground floor. So I guessed at the time that he was either a gangster who wanted to rob some cash from me or a plainclothes cop.”

Ye Chen pursued, “What happened after that? He left after dinner?”

“Yes.” Chen Zhao Zhong said, “That guy finished his meal very quickly, paid and left in a hurry, and as soon as he left, I hurriedly dismantled the hard disk in the hard disk recorder.”

Ye Chen nodded and said seriously, “Since we ruled out the other party being a gangster who intended to rob some cash, then it’s probably the police.”

“Right.” Chen Zhao Zhong said, “I was afraid that the police had made such a big detour to find the CCTV footage of you and Miss Gu, so I destroyed the hard drive first, but then there was a sudden scene of robbing a mobile phone at the entrance just now, and when these two events were connected, the other party’s motive was clear. That’s why I gave you a wink and told you not to come over yet.”

Ye Chen suddenly understood, and couldn’t help but ask: “Uncle Zhong, to be honest, if you hadn’t given me a wink, I really wouldn’t have seen anything wrong with this matter, how did you tell?”

Chen Zhao Zhong smiled faintly: “They this scene, the script is quite well thought out, but the director and actors choreography is still a bit clumsy, to put it bluntly is not keyed to the details, you write the script is not keyed to the details, that careful people look at it will certainly be able to see the flawed place.”

Saying that, Chen Zhao Zhong added: “This is like people saying that there is no real perfect crime in the world, but in my opinion, although it cannot be done absolutely perfectly, it can be done relatively perfectly, as long as the murderer’s heart, is finer than all the police officers, then even if his crime does not reach absolute perfection, it will not be discovered.”

Ye Chen nodded with an educated face, and could not help but ask with great curiosity, “Uncle Zhong, how did you discover that there was something wrong with this woman?”

Chen Zhao Zhong said, “You may not know much about Chinatown, but although there are mixed opinions and a lot of chaos in Chinatown, there are really no Chinese who dare to rob in the street here. So it’s not very logical that this woman was robbed in front of my shop in broad daylight. Combined with the guy who came to the shop this morning, I’m basically sure she’s up to no good.”

“Apart from that, another thing that is not right is that in a place like Chinatown, it is unlikely that a police officer would come within half an hour if a call to the police was made, this time it surprisingly came in less than ten minutes, so it looks like they were prepared for this.”

Ye Chen asked in disbelief, "Chinatown is such a good location, no police came in half an hour after the police call was made?"

"Right." Chen Zhao Zhong said, "In the United States, but all places where ethnic minorities are piled up, the police generally do not bother much, on the one hand, there are many gangs and a high degree of autonomy, the police are generally reluctant to get involved, on the other hand, no one in the district gives sponsorship to the police, so the police force in this area itself is small, naturally the response speed will not be fast."

The police in these precincts are not paid by the city government, but by the wealthy people in the rich neighborhoods, and the cars they use for patrol are also donated by the rich people in the rich neighborhoods, and in such places, not only are there people on duty 24 hours a day on duty, but there are also police patrols 24 hours a day, but for places where ethnic minorities gather, the police are usually not seen at all."

Chapter 4364

Ye Chen nodded gently and sighed, "So that's how it is, for someone like me who doesn't understand the situation, I can't see anything unusual here at all."

Ye Chen was very impressed with Chen Zhao Zhong's keenness in details and could not help but praise him, "I reckon they must have thought they had performed very well, they just did not expect to be able to hide from your discerning eyes."

Chen Zhaozhong waved his hand and said modestly, "Young Master Ye has praised me, how can I be considered to have a discerning eye?"

Chen Zhao Zhong said, smiling slightly, and added, "It is not an exaggeration to say that after staying in a place for a long time, even if the sound of the dog barking next door has changed a bit more than usual, you can hear it."

When Chen Zhao Zhong said this, he asked Ye Chen with concern, "Young Master Ye, why are the police focusing on you? Is it because they have some clues from the Ten Thousand Dragon Temple?"

Ye Chen shook his head and said, "The Ten Thousand Dragons Temple didn't leave any clues, rather it was me who had a matter that I had not thought through and let a girl with a more sensitive identity send the Fei family's grandchildren to New York, I really didn't think about it in such detail at that time, I just naturally let that girl bring people over, but neglected that she would leave clues after she entered the country."

Saying that, Ye Chen added, "Li Yalin had already led people to cordon off the Fei Group's headquarters, fortunately I received the news in advance and let that girl leave first, otherwise if she was really found by the New York police, things would really be a bit tricky."

Chen Zhao Zhong hurriedly asked, "Young Master Ye, what exactly is the situation, can you tell me in detail?"

Ye Chen had nothing to hide from Chen Zhaozhong, so he told Chen Zhaozhong the whole story of how he had asked Su Ruoli to escort the two grandchildren of the Fei family to Syria and then asked her to send them to New York on short notice.

After hearing this, Chen Zhaozhong nodded slightly and said, "It's true that there was a slight lack of consideration in this matter, but it's understandable, you have handled the whole matter very well, and it's only natural that one or two small details were not considered."

Speaking of this, Chen Zhao Zhong sighed, "Li Yalin is a bit ill-considered this time! Blocking Fei's group with such fanfare, if he can't find anyone, his good days will come to an end."

"Yes." Ye Chen nodded, "I also didn't expect that he would act so impulsively."

"It's also understandable." Chen Zhao Zhong said, "He used to be too smooth, he solved almost all of his own cases, and when other people asked him for help with cases they couldn't solve, he also succeeded in solving them one after another, and his fame was immense, now that he was about to retire, something big happened in New York, and what was affected, was his reputation and image that he had worked so hard for half of his life, at such a time, his mentality would definitely be greatly affected. "

It is like a professor in the field of mathematics, who has never been able to overcome any difficult problems in his life, and could have retired with a winning record, but at this time there are a dozen of puzzles that he cannot solve, and everyone is at the bottom of the podium to see how he solves them, under such circumstances, it is certainly difficult for him to control his mind. "

"That's also true." Ye Chen nodded in agreement and said, "This matter is indeed a bit unfair to him as well."

Chen Zhao Zhong smiled faintly and said, "Time is also fate, not everyone can have smooth sailing, there will always be some setbacks, it's just a matter of sooner or later."

After saying that, he asked Ye Chen, "Mr. Ye, since you said that the Ten Thousand Dragons Temple did not leak any clues about you, then why did the police find me here?"

Ye Chen thought for a moment and spoke, "It should be because of my great uncle ....."

Chapter 4365

Now that Ye Chen thought about it, at that time, he heard the news of Grandpa's critical illness on the first floor of the restaurant, and then immediately asked Gu Qiuyi to bring the blood dispersal heart saving pills to Los Angeles, a move that he did not have time to do any cover-up at all.

Therefore, as long as the great uncle's side started backtracking from Gu Qiuyi's trajectory after her arrival in Los Angeles, they would definitely focus their attention on Uncle Zhong's roast goose restaurant.

Chen Zhao Zhong could see Ye Chen's helplessness and knew what he was thinking, so he spoke up and said comfortingly, "Young Master Ye, human lives are at stake, you had no other good choice at that time, and it's a good thing that your Great Uncle should not have noticed your presence yet."

Ye Chen sighed, "I came to your shop with my daughter, if he found the CCTV footage, he would probably recognise me. I guess Li Yalin sent someone to find the CCTV footage of your place to find out who my daughter was with and what was so special about her."

Chen Zhao Zhong smiled slightly and said, "You can rest assured that there are not many security cameras outside of Chinatown, there used to be some, but they were smashed to bits when they were installed, and then they simply stopped installing them."

The camera is also mounted on the top of the inside of the door and then angled to encompass the entire shop entrance, but because the angle of the camera is angled downwards at forty-five degrees, it can only reach the pavement on its own side at most, not the motorway, let alone the opposite side. It can't film the opposite side, so you don't need to worry."

Hearing this, Ye Chen nodded gently, "That would be best."

Chen Zhao Zhong said somewhat despondently, "Young Master Ye, since you don't want to expose yourself, then my place, you should try not to come here in the future ..... your great uncle and Li Yalin have their eyes on this place, they will definitely focus on my place in the future."

"Yes." Ye Chen nodded and said seriously, "After Nui Nui's concert tomorrow, I may not come back to New York for a short period of time, this place is golden, but not in the middle, behind the paper-drenched financial capital, I don't know how many dirty deeds are hidden, so I don't have a good impression of this place either."

Chen Zhao Zhong smiled and nodded his head with some melancholy, "It is rare to find another city in the world that breeds as much evil as New York, whether it is the glamorous Wall Street or the slums, where there is a great deal of group evil everywhere;"

"The evil of the slums is straightforward, violence, shootings, drug bays, human trade, but the evil of Wall Street is far more horrific than the slums, where successful people sitting in Wall Street skyscrapers can decide the lives and deaths of tens, hundreds of thousands or even millions of people in some third world country just by sitting together and smoking a cigar, treating human lives like crap in the face of profit."

Ye Chen could see that Chen Zhao Zhong was also quite emotional, so he could not help but ask: "Uncle Zhong, you have been in America for so many years, have you ever thought of going back?"

Chen Zhao Zhong was slightly stunned, then he looked up at Ye Chen and said seriously, "Young Master Ye, to be honest, I want to go back, although my old father is no longer here, but my mother is still alive, and now that she is past her 80s and 90s, I also want to do my filial piety by her old man ....."

Speaking of this, Chen Zhao Zhong sighed lightly, "It's just that, when Mr. Gu went to make peace with Liu Sheng for me back then, I promised the surname Liu in front of both of them that I would never return to Hong Kong Island in this life."

Ye Chen said indifferently, "Uncle Zhong, I really don't care about Liu Sheng on Hong Kong Island, as long as you want to go back, I will solve all this for you."

Chen Zhao Zhong stood up, clasped his hands together and said, "Young Master Ye, you are extremely powerful, not to mention one Liu, even if there are ten Liu's, they will never be your opponent ....."

Chapter 4366

At this point, Chen Zhao Zhong was ashamed and said, "But, Young Master Ye, a gentleman's word is a promise that cannot be followed by a team of horses! I am not afraid of death, but I am afraid that others will poke my backbone and call me a villain who has gone back on his word. .... So ..... please don't put pressure on Liu for my sake, since he kept his promise and didn't come after me again, I should also keep my promise and never return to Hong Kong Island. return to Hong Kong Island!"

Ye Chen was slightly stunned as he listened, and felt in his heart that Chen Zhao Zhong was open and honest, but at the same time he felt that he was too decent and had set the moral bar too high, and that he was only torturing himself.

However, Ye Chen could see the determination in his eyes at this time, and knew that this matter could not be done in accordance with his own ideas, and that in order to make Chen Zhaozhong put aside what happened back then and move forward, it was still necessary to follow what the old ancestors had said, that the bell had to be untied.

Otherwise, even if he asked the Ten Thousand Dragons Temple to escort Chen Zhaozhong back to Hong Kong Island and used his strength to force Liu to grovel, Chen Zhaozhong would still feel inferior to the other party in his heart.

Although he had an agreement with Liu not to return to Hong Kong Island, he had not agreed with Liu not to return to the mainland, so if he could not return to Hong Kong Island, he could still return to the mainland with himself and work for the Ye Group.

However, when the words were on his lips, Ye Chen did not say them in the end.

He knew that, given Chen Zhao Zhong's character, he would not refuse his request on account of his father's kindness to him and the fact that he had saved his life.

But he also knew that that incident, and the people involved in it, was a knot in Chen Zhaozhong's heart.

One should not let him devote himself to the business of the Ye Group before his knot in his heart was opened.

Therefore, Ye Chen decided that after his wife Xiao Churan's master class in the United States was over, he would take some time to go to Hong Kong Island and have a good chat with that Liu, preferably so that he could personally retract his initial request to Chen Zhaozhong and allow Chen Zhaozhong to return to Hong Kong Island freely.

After he had returned to Hong Kong and had settled his mind, he would then offer him an olive branch.

If I have the ability to do so, I will make Liu's heart and soul come to New York to ask you to return, if I do not have the ability, I will not use my strength to force Liu's hand. "

Hearing this, Chen Zhao Zhong wanted to say something, but hesitated for a moment and then held back.

Immediately, he looked at Ye Chen, nodded gratefully and said seriously, "Thank you Young Master Ye for understanding!"

Ye Chen looked at the time and spoke, "Uncle Zhong, I still have some things to take care of, so I won't bother you. If you have time, we'll see you then."

Chen Zhao Zhong shook his head and said, "Young Master Ye, I won't be going to Miss Gu's concert, your great uncle should still be in Los Angeles today, and Li Yalin's attention is on the Fei Group for the time being, so when they each finish their business at hand, they will probably come to me to ask about Miss Fei."

"As long as Li Yalin didn't recognise that I was beside Miss Gu when Fei Hao Yang disappeared that day, then I could still say that Miss Gu came to the shop and just happened to come over for a meal, and I was only focused on making a living all day long and didn't know any big stars, so I didn't notice;"

"If they don't have a clue that I know Miss Gu, I guess they can stall it this time without any problems, but if they find out that I went to Miss Gu's concert tomorrow, this matter will be hard to explain, and maybe Li Yalin will remember me too."

Ye Chen nodded understandingly and said, "Uncle Zhong, in that case, then I'll come back to see you when I next have the chance to come to New York!"

Chapter 4367

Hearing that Ye Chen was leaving, Chen Zhao Zhong had an extraordinarily complicated expression.

Although he had only just met Ye Chen, he had developed a very affectionate feeling towards him because Ye Chen's father had been kind to him, and because Ye Chen's persona was also greatly appreciated by him.

Especially when he saw that he was now powerful and had achieved great results, he felt sincerely pleased for Ye Chang Ying.

At a certain moment, he also thought of serving Ye Chen to repay Ye Changye's kindness.

However, on second thought, he felt that he was just an illegal immigrant who had been buying roast goose in Chinatown for more than 10 years, while Ye Chen had already become a top tycoon worth hundreds of billions of dollars, so the difference between him and Ye Chen was really huge.

After all, with such a huge difference in strength, even if one has a pa*sion to repay the favour, in the eyes of outsiders, it would just be a way to climb up the ladder under the guise of repaying the favour.

What's more, Ye Chen might not really need his help, and perhaps if he opened his mouth, he would just be adding to his troubles.

So, after thinking about it, Chen Zhaozhong gave up on the idea of offering himself.

What he didn't know was that although Ye Chen was eager for wise men, he didn't want to burden him with a heavy past to serve himself.

Therefore, his intention was to first help Chen Zhao Zhong to achieve nirvana and rebirth.

Moreover, with Ye Chen's character, he did not like to hang on to things before they were done, so he did not reveal half a word to Chen Zhaozhong.

As he parted, Chen Zhao Zhong's eyes were red and he said to Ye Chen, "Young Master Ye, please take care of yourself!"

Ye Chen also said respectfully, "Don't worry, Uncle Zhong, I will."

Saying that, Ye Chen took out a blood dispersing and heart saving pill from his pocket and placed it in Chen Zhao Zhong's hand, saying earnestly, "Uncle Zhong, this pill can cure a hundred diseases and help a thousand wounds, so you should keep it with you for emergencies."

Chen Zhaozhong hurriedly wanted to stuff the pill back into Ye Chen's hand and said with trepidation, "Young Master Ye, how can I ..... How can I accept this great gift ..... Please take it back!"

Ye Chen shook his head, pushed him away with a little force and said seriously, "Uncle Zhong, if my father were alive, he would consider you as his brother and I believe that you would also consider me as your own son, so it is only natural for me, as a junior, to pay respect to you."

After saying this, Ye Chen took two steps back, gave him a slight arch of his hand and said, "See you later" before turning to leave.

By the time Chen Zhaozhong came out after him, Ye Chen had already gone far away.

At that moment, Ye Chen was walking as fast as he could and did not look back. Looking at the medicine box in his hand, Chen Zhao Zhong only felt a lump in his throat, and without realising it, he was already in tears.

After saying goodbye to Chen Zhaozhong, Ye Chen took a car to Long Beach.

Su Ruoli had already evacuated in time, but Wan Breaking Army and the other members of the Ten Thousand Dragon Hall were still here.

So, Ye Chen went straight to the villa that the Ten Thousand Dragons Temple had rented.

After Wan Bajun had been ordered in the early hours of the morning to take care of all the scum in New York who were involved with Fei Hao Yang, he was here waiting for Ye Chen's next instructions.

Upon Ye Chen's arrival, he personally ran out of the villa to greet him and said respectfully, "Mr. Ye, the tasks you gave me have all been successfully completed."

Ye Chen nodded and spoke, "Broken Jun, you have done a good job this time, not only have you killed all the scum you should have killed, you have also done a very good job, it is almost time for you and the other brothers to withdraw, the ten billion dollars that the Fei family gave to the Ten Thousand Dragon Temple has already arrived, after you return, you should build up the base of the Ten Thousand Dragon Temple properly."

Wan Bajun said gratefully, "Don't worry Mr. Ye, my subordinates will do their best and not let you down!"

Chapter 4368

Ye Chen nodded slightly and instructed, "Have the brothers evacuate in an orderly manner, don't leave any clues for the New York Police."

Wan Bajun said, "Don't worry, Mr. Ye, I have already arranged for my men to deal with this place in a comprehensive manner, so no clues will be left behind."

Ye Chen looked at the villa and said, "Why don't you buy the villa you rented and keep it as the stronghold of the Ten Thousand Dragons Temple in New York."

"Good!" Wan Bajun immediately agreed and said, "Then I will have my men go to the agent today to talk about it and buy it as soon as possible."

After saying that, Wan Bajun added, "Mr. Ye, I see that New York is not peaceful recently, do you need me to leave some of my men here to help Miss Fei?"

"No need." Ye Chen waved his hand and said, "Fei Ke Xin has just sat as the head of the Fei family, if I were to keep people by her side at this time, it would give others the impression that I am trying to develop her into a puppet, so it is better not to cause such a misunderstanding."

Saying that, Ye Chen added, "Right, after this villa is bought, you can pick a few of the core members of the Ten Thousand Dragons Hall with the cleanest identities and have them stay here temporarily, just in case."

"No problem!" Wan Breaking Jun said, "Then my subordinate will make the arrangements later."

"Good." Ye Chen nodded and added, "Right Broken Jun, there is one more thing that I need you to do."

Wan Bajun said respectfully, "Mr. Ye, if there is anything you want, just give me an order."

Ye Chen sighed and sighed, "Those videos I exposed out, in order to respect those innocent girls who died tragically, their facial features were blurred, this will definitely affect the subsequent confirmation of the victims' true identities, so you go back and send the original files of these videos to the New York police in an anonymous way, so that they can work with the Fei family to determine all the victims' identities, which will also allow the Fay family to complete the compensation as soon as possible."

"Okay." Wan Bajun spoke, "I'll arrange for a technician to send an email to the New York Police directly from the overseas server later, and send them all the video files."

At this moment, Fei's group headquarters.

A large number of police officers and swat police had already surrounded Fei's headquarters building.

All members of the building, whether they were employees, journalists or members of the Fei family, had to pass through the exits one by one in an orderly manner and undergo a full inspection as required by the police.

The police checked everyone's identity in detail through face-to-face and fingerprint verification.

Su Ruoli's identity was obvious, a young, tall Asian woman.

But the police still wouldn't let go of any woman of any other colour or age, even if they knew they were looking for a woman, they still checked the identity of every male thoroughly, just in case there was any oversight and Su Ruoli took advantage of the opportunity to escape.

The extremely strict screening had caused everyone to grumble, especially those media reporters who hadn't had the chance to leave yet.

So everyone simply didn't rush to leave, and one by one, they all picked up their cameras and microphones and started reporting directly from the scene.

For a while, people all over America were watching the police action, wondering why the NYPD was making such a fuss over Fei's group, after all, Fei's group had just done an impeccable crisis PR, and the public's concern for Fei's group and Fei Kexin was at an all-time high.

Li Yalin was staying inside the makeshift command centre set up on site at the moment, convinced that he had come today out of the blue and there was no way Su Ruoli would have a chance to escape.

Now, what he was waiting for was to clear everyone from the Fei Group and then bring his men in to catch them in a jar!

At this time, his most trusted man called him.

When he saw the other party's call, Li Yalin became excited, and after picking up the phone, he immediately asked, "What's up, have you found the CCTV footage of the roast goose shop?"

Chapter 4369

At this moment, Li Yalin's heart was filled with two things.

One was to catch the murderer who had committed the killing spree in New York in the past two days.

The other is to help his good friend An Chongqiu find out what secrets Gu Qiuyi is carrying.

At the moment, Fei's group was under full control and it was only a matter of time before Su Ruoli was found. Therefore, when he received the call, he was expecting his men to send him good news.

However, the voice on the other end of the phone said helplessly, "Chief, we have acted out a whole drama as you instructed, but to our surprise, there is no hard disk in the surveillance camera of that barbecue restaurant."

"No hard drive?!" Li Yalin poured cold water over his entire body and asked offhandedly, "Why is there no hard disk? Did someone take it away in advance?"

The colleague I sent out replied, "The feedback from the colleague I sent out, that boss said that the hard drive had broken down before and it hadn't been replaced with a new one."

Li Yalin asked offhandedly, "What about the broken hard disk? Wasn't it in the machine?"

The underling said, "No, I also asked, and he said that the hard disk space in the surveillance video recorder was indeed empty."

Li Yalin's expression froze and he said with a tight frown, "This isn't right! If it really is a bad hard drive and he is not prepared to repair it, then there is absolutely no need for him to take the hard drive out of the hard drive machine, it's like if your computer cpu is broken and then you are prepared to put this computer aside to idle, it's already idle, would you still be the only one to key off the computer cpu?"

"This ....." The handlers mused and asked offhand, "Boss, you mean to say that there's something wrong with that shop owner?"

“There is definitely something wrong with this person.” Li Yalin said in a cold voice: “Check that owner’s information for me, and also send some men to quietly put him under surveillance so that he doesn’t escape.”

Saying that, Li Yalin instructed again, “You have to remember that you must not alert the snake!”

“Yes!” The handlers immediately agreed and said, “I’ll arrange it then.”

After hanging up the phone, the person in charge on this side of the scene ran over again and said, “Inspector Li, the people at Fei’s group headquarters have almost been evacuated, there is no sign of that Su Ruoli yet, the special operations team will go in immediately with life detectors and search and rescue dogs.”

Li Yalin nodded and said, “Order down to make sure to search in a carpet style, combined with the architectural blueprint of the Fei Group’s headquarters building, don’t let go of any passage where there is a possibility of escape!”

The other party immediately said, “Please don’t worry, Inspector Li, we have cut off all the pipes connecting the group’s headquarters to the outside world, unless the other party turns into a fly and flies out, then it is definitely impossible for them to escape.”

“That’s good.” Li Yalin ordered, “Let the special warfare team begin! Before it gets dark, make sure to find that Su Ruoli for me!”

Meanwhile, Ye Chen had already left Long Beach and headed to the venue where Gu Qiuyi was performing.

As Gu Qiuyi was unable to carry her mobile phone with her during the rehearsals on stage, she had pulled a WeChat group in advance, pulling herself, Ye Chen and her manager Chen Duoduo into a group and putting Chen Duoduo in charge of receiving Ye Chen.

All the cast and crew associated with the performance were fully engaged in the rehearsals, except for Gu Qiuyi’s agent Chen Duoduo who had nothing to do.

For Chen Duoduo, she was most busy before the show, such as negotiating various collaborations, promoting and coordinating various media resources, and researching how to help Gu Qiuyi with the resource exchange.

However, once the show entered the countdown, it also meant that her preliminary work had basically been completed, so she was free at this time.

Knowing that Ye Chen was coming, Chen Duoduo had been waiting outside the venue early, and when he saw Ye Chen arrive, he said, “Mr Ye, you’re here! Qiu Yi is rehearsing and asked me to receive you!”

Ye Chen looked at Chen Duoduo and asked in surprise, “Miss Duoduo, we have known each other for a long time, why have you suddenly become so polite today?”

Chapter 4370

Chen Duo Duo laughed heatedly, "Look what you said Mr. Ye, I, Chen Duo Duo, have always been very polite to you."

Ye Chen teased, "This is not the time for you to point at me and call me a negative person."

Chen Duoduo said with a serious face, "No, no, no, adults, one must learn to return one size to another, you did act like a negative man in dealing with Qiu Yi, but in other aspects you are still very giving."

After saying that, she ignored Ye Chen's depressed expression and pointed to the large performance venue behind her, saying with a smile, "Look, this is the best performance venue in New York, we were worried before that we might not even have the chance to use it after being set up by the Fei family, but who would have thought that this venue would all become ours directly now ....."

Speaking of this, she said to Ye Chen with a look of admiration, "Mr. Ye, it still has to be you!"

Ye Chen was somewhat in tears and laughter at this point.

Chen Duoduo was quirky, sometimes speaking with a gun in her mouth, but sometimes giving a rare feeling of frankness and truthfulness.

So when she stepped on him, he really didn't know what to say in reply.

So he could only change the subject and said, "By the way, what is the layout inside this venue? Is there a vip box?"

"Yes." Chen Duoduo replied smoothly, and then asked, "Mr. Ye, you wouldn't want to watch the show in a box tomorrow, would you?"

Ye Chen nodded: "That's right, the vip box should be low-key."

Chen Duoduo said, "Low-profile is low-profile, but it's also the furthest away, at the head of the last row, when Qiu Yi is on stage, she probably won't be able to see you."

Ye Chen said seriously, "The situation is special, so I will not show my face first this time."

For Ye Chen, his biggest worry was that someone from Grandma's family would come over to support the show tomorrow, in which case there was a high probability that he would recognise himself once he was seen.

Chen Duoduo was also more understanding of Ye Chen's request and spoke, "Then I'll take you in for a look around, you can see the venue first."

"Good."

Soon, Ye Chen was led by Chen Duoduo into the interior of the venue.

At this moment, Gu Qiuyi was busy rehearsing on stage.

Thus, Chen Duoduo became Ye Chen's guide and led him, taking him around the entire performance venue.

It was a large arena that could hold tens of thousands of people, and the audience seats were distributed in a stepped pattern, with those closer to the stage being lower and those further away being higher.

At the end of the arena, directly above the highest row of seats, there is a row of private VIP boxes, which are usually reserved for VIPs when the arena is hosting important sporting events.

This allows the VIPs to join their friends for a drink and a chat while overlooking the game from above, while still maintaining a high level of privacy.

In some European football stadiums, many celebrities have their own private box, and when there is a match, they meet up with their friends to drink and watch the game in the box.

Ye Chen immediately spotted this seat, so he asked Gu Qiuyi's assistant Chen Duoduo, "Duoduo, has the VIP room been sold for this concert?"

"No." Chen Duoduo said, "All of Qiuyi's concerts only sell tickets for the audience in different areas, not the VIP room, which is not usually activated."

Ye Chen nodded, pointed to the middlemost box and spoke, "Then leave this one for me."
