

Ye Chen 4381

Chapter 4381

The old man's sudden outburst caused a group of people to look at each other in disbelief.

Everyone knew that this was a hurdle that the old man had never been able to get past in his heart.

He had never understood why, with the An family's strength and sincerity back then, Ye Chang Ying had insisted on returning to Yanjing.

But the others knew in their hearts that the old man's thoughts were too egotistical.

He always had that superior thinking at work when dealing with Ye Chang Ying.

It was like a big boss who wanted to poach someone, the other party could only earn a million by going to another company, but he was willing to offer 10 million or even tens of millions.

All in all, in his opinion, the other party had no reason to reject him.

But how could he have imagined that Ye Chang Ying would just not be willing to accept his olive branch?

This kept the old man frustrated and even a little annoyed in his heart.

Originally, he had admired Ye Chang Ying, even though his family was far less powerful than the An family, he could see that Ye Chang Ying was definitely a person, even more outstanding than his own three sons.

It was also because deep down he recognised Ye Chang Ying that he was so determined to have him join the An family.

He knew very well that among his sons and daughters, his eldest daughter, An Chengqing, was the most outstanding, and that Ye Chang Ying was not only equal to his daughter, but also highly complementary.

If they were to stay with the An family, the An family would be able to rise to the top of the world, perhaps surpassing the Saudi royal family and the Rothschilds.

However, Ye Changzhi did not.

He had a proud heart and his own ambitions.

He didn't want to stay with the An family, but wanted to return to his own country, his own family, whether for his family or for the whole family.

One insisted on staying and the other insisted on leaving, and this drove the old man An very mad for a while.

What was even more unacceptable to him was that his daughter was determined to go with Ye Changyang, which made him even more furious.

He had originally wanted to keep Ye Chang Ying and An Chengqing together, but instead things were going to go to hell and back.

It was for this reason that the old man had never been kind to Ye Chang Ying and their relationship was like that of enemies.

After An Chengqing and Ye Changye got married in Yanjing, the old man became furious whenever he heard the word Ye Changye, and this has remained the case until now.

Seeing that the old man was fighting with himself again, the old lady at the side hurriedly said, "Come on, Qishan, Chang Ying has been gone for so many years, so you should not say such words again."

The old man's eyebrows knitted in anger and he asked, "He's the one who didn't know any better! In the end, he caused Chengqi to be implicated! My daughter has been killed by him, and I can't even scold him!"

The old lady said with relief, "Chengqi chose his own path, and it was his own decision to live and die, not anyone else's."

The old man said indignantly, "You're completely deceiving yourself and others with that bd logic! Although Chengqi chose her own path, as her husband, Ye Changye should have protected her! He should always think of her and think about her! How can he not be responsible for what happened to Chengqi as a husband?"

The old lady said anxiously with red eyes, "But Chang Ying is no longer here either! How do you know he didn't protect Chengqi at the time? It's just that things were beyond his ability, he even put his life on the line, what else can you ask him to do?"

The old man said emotionally, "Couldn't I have hated him when he died?"

After saying this, the old man looked around at his sons and daughters and questioned, "Do you think that even if Ye Chang Ying dies, can I still hate him?"

The sons and daughters looked at each other at this point, not knowing how to answer.

The old lady sighed helplessly and solemnly reminded, "Qishan, I have to make it clear to you, whether you hate Chang Ying in your heart or not, I can't care, but the attitude you show towards Chang Ying must be changed in the future!"

The old man's stubbornness came to the fore and he said sternly, "I won't change! When I die, even if the King of Hell calls on the Jade Emperor and the Buddha to hold a trial, I will never change my attitude towards Ye Chang Ying!"

Chapter 4382

The old lady said angrily, "Good! You can do it! You won't change! When Chen'er comes back and the family mentions Chengqi and Chang Ying, if you dare to say this to Chen'er's face, Chen'er will definitely break off relations with you and never see each other again! If you force my grandson away, who I've managed to get back, I'll cut you off too! Wait and see if you don't believe me!"

The old man was still furious just now, but when he heard these words, he was like a deflated ball.

He knew that naturally, it was unlikely that the old lady would break off her relationship with him, but if his grandson Ye Chen really came back and he still had this attitude, then his grandson would definitely not forgive himself.

After all, no one would accept other people humiliating their deceased parents.

Thinking of this, the old man sighed deeply and spoke in a disheveled manner, "You're right I'll change I'll definitely change"

After saying that, he also lamented somewhat downcastly, "I don't know if I will be able to see Chen'er again before I die"

When the old lady saw his attitude change, her tone also loosened up and she spoke comfortingly, "Don't worry, I believe it won't take long for Chen'er to come back."

The old man was busy asking, "Why are you so sure?"

The old lady said seriously, "Nui Nui has come, and Chen'er can't be far behind. For the sake of Nui Nui's infatuation, God will definitely let Chen'er come back too."

"God" the old man could not help but mutter a sentence when he heard this, half believing and half doubting in his heart.

At this time, An Chongqiu, who was on the side, spoke up, "Dad, you were able to have a scare this time, all thanks to Chen'er's fiancée, I think this is the will of God, if God is so fond of you, he will definitely let you see Chen'er alive."

When the old man heard this, he nodded thoughtfully.

At that moment, a staff member came quickly and said respectfully, "Master and Madam, Inspector Li from the NYPD is downstairs and says he wants to come up for a visit."

His Lordship said in surprise, "Ari? Quickly, get this boy up here!"

The old lady stepped aside and reminded, "Yarin isn't a few years removed from Chong Qiu, and he's over fifty this year."

"Oh" the old man suddenly snapped back to his senses, he thought it was twenty years ago when he remembered Li Yalin just now.

Soon, Li Yalin took the lift to the top floor of the Anbang Building, accompanied by the staff.

As soon as he saw the old man, he hurriedly stepped forward and said respectfully, "Uncle An, are you feeling well? Originally I wanted to go to Los Angeles with Chong Qiu to see you, but things were just a bit too much the other day and I didn't go away, so please forgive me!"

The old man looked at Li Yalin and asked in surprise, "You are Yalin?"

Li Yalin was stunned, looked at the others and then at the old man, and nodded hastily, "It's me, Uncle An, I'm Yalin, Li Yalin."

The old man couldn't help but say, "You how come you're now like your father who was almost gone for two years, your aunt told me you were over fifty this year, I think you must be over sixty at least, what's going on? How did you create this for yourself"

Li Yalin said awkwardly, "Why have been busy working all these years, transitional work, and do not pay attention to maintenance, but not older than the average person of the same age"

Said, Li Yalin added: "Oh yes Uncle Li, you do not look at me only fifty years old, already early retirement."

The old man was even more puzzled and asked with a frown, "How come you retired so early?"

Li Yalin laughed bitterly, "I had planned to retire next year, these years too neglect my wife and children, they are angry with me, two years ago they moved to Houston, if I do not retire early to go over to keep them company, I am afraid that in the future will have to cut off relations with me."

The old man couldn't help but ask, "Planning to retire next year, how come you're retiring early now?"

Li Yalin shrugged his shoulders awkwardly, "Uncle An, this matter is just a child without a mother, it's a long story"

Chapter 4382

Chapter 4384

As An Kaifeng had greeted him in advance, so as soon as everyone was seated, the waiters immediately brought the prepared meals one after another.

An Kaifeng took the initiative to have someone bring another bottle of white wine, intending to join his elder brother and accompany Li Yalin to have a few drinks.

The old man seemed to be very concerned about Li Yalin's current predicament and kept asking him what had happened recently.

Li Yalin was not in a position to say much, and only vaguely said that he had not dealt with a few major cases recently, so when he saw that he did not want to talk about them, he did not ask any more questions.

Li Yalin didn't have many friends because of his personality, plus his mother left early and his father raised him alone and didn't renew his marriage, so Li Yalin didn't have many siblings.

In the last few years, his wife took the children to Houston and he became even more isolated in New York. Although his family has had a good relationship with the An family since his father's generation, there was a huge disparity, so Li Yalin didn't feel comfortable coming to visit.

If it wasn't for the blow An Chongqiu received when he bought the Spring Returning Pill in Jinling some time ago, and it happened that Li Yalin was stuck with the case of Fei Hao Yang's kidnapping, the two of them wouldn't have actually had much chance to meet often.

So now, sitting among the An family, the lonely Li Yalin has found a bit of home, and the depression in his heart has been eased a bit.

While he was exchanging glasses with An Chongqiu, An Kaifeng and An Zhaonan, Li Yalin received a text message.

The message was sent by his beloved henchman, in which the other party said that he had found out the identity of the owner of the roast goose shop through an informant on Hong Kong Island.

Li Yalin suddenly flinched and hurriedly excused himself to go to the washroom and came out to give the other party a call back.

As soon as the call came through, he asked, "Xiao Wu, what's the new discovery?!"

The other party said on the phone, "Boss, the owner of the roast goose shop, whose real name is Chen Zhao Zhong, is a black man who came to the United States from Hong Kong Island more than 20 years ago. ran away and came to New York."

The other party added, "You know this Chen Zhao Zhong, back then, he was known all over Hong Kong Island, he did a big thing that has made the whole Hong Kong Island talk to this day, that is, he abducted the girlfriend of that big tycoon, the two of them were smuggled to America together."

"f*ck" Li Yalin smacked his lips and exclaimed, "This guy is still a f*cking lover!"

"Yes." The other party added: "Oh yes chief, I also found out one more thing, this Chen Zhao Zhong and that big star called Gu Qiuyi are indeed acquainted, the information fed back by the informant mentioned that Gu Yanzhong, that is Gu Qiuyi's father, had made a special trip to Hong Kong Island to meet with that big tycoon for his sake."

Hearing this, Li Yalin could not help but frown and spoke, "This this seems to round up ah in this way, Gu Qiuyi, a big star, would go to a small roast goose shop in Chinatown, it would be logical"

"Yes." The other party said, "I also think it's quite logical, and I think this line should have nothing to do with Fei Hao Yang's kidnapping, so I'm rushing to report it to you."

Li Yalin laughed at himself, "I have already retired early, how can I talk about reporting, if you have any latest developments in this case in the future, just reveal a little to me appropriately without violating the rules."

Chapter 4385

The confirmation of Chen Zhao Zhong's identity, on the contrary, made Li Yalin a little disappointed.

He would have liked to hear some extraordinary information, the kind of information that would make one think that there must be something in it.

However, the information returned by his men immediately dispelled his doubts about Chen Zhao Zhong.

As a veteran detective, he knew very well that one could disguise the present, but it was difficult to bury the past.

This was why many criminals, even after they had cleared their names and become successful people that everyone admired, would still end up in jail for their past crimes.

Chen Zhao Zhong's affairs from 20 to 30 years ago were all dug up, enough to corroborate his relationship with Gu Qiuyi.

Therefore, it was only natural for Gu Qiuyi to go to his roast goose restaurant for dinner.

And it made sense that when Gu Qiuyi was eating at the roast goose shop, she happened to hear An Chongqiu talk about the old man being critically ill, and subsequently travelled a thousand miles to deliver the medicine.

As for why Chen Zhao Zhong deliberately destroyed the CCTV, Li Yalin had a very reasonable explanation in mind, after all, Gu Qiuyi was a big star and Chen Zhao Zhong's past proved that he was not an ordinary person.

Since it was reasonable, it meant that there was no need to pursue this line of enquiry any further.

Therefore, Li Yalin could only hope that the police could continue to dig deeper along the clues from the Hall of Ten Thousand Dragons.

Right now, this was the only clue that was a relatively clear direction of investigation.

However, the other party said in a somewhat helpless tone at this time: "Chief, Bruno, who took over from you, has already had a meeting with us today, this case, the direction of the investigation turned to the identification of the victim, as well as the investigation of the specific details of the victim's kidnapping, the Fei group side, the above has also given notice, meaning not to bother, so the line of the Ten Thousand Dragon Temple, basically will not The line of the Ten Thousand Dragons Temple will basically not be investigated anymore

Li Yalin couldn't help but ask: "Ten Thousand Dragons Temple has killed so many people in New York, so if you don't investigate it, you won't investigate it?"

"Yes." The other party said, "The more you investigate this matter, the trickier it gets, from the mayor to the director, no one recommends further investigation."

Li Yalin asked again, "Those who were killed were all direct members of well-known big families, can they swallow this?"

The other party said, "You don't know, the deceased families have all come over to say hello privately, and they have also made it clear that they don't want the investigation to continue, the more the investigation will affect the family's reputation, so they now want to be like the Fei family, and rush to come up with a sum of money to compensate the victims, so that the matter can be put to rest as soon as possible."

Li Yalin was stunned for a moment and said offhandedly, "In that case, the case of Fei Hao Yang and these people being killed is basically like closing the case internally!"

"Yes, that's the nature of it, it just won't be announced to the public like that."

Li Yalin was immediately disappointed to the extreme as he spoke, "Su Ruoli has run away, the Ten Thousand Dragon Temple is no longer investigating, and that Chen Zhao Zhong doesn't have any problems, so it's basically impossible for this case to come to light."

The other party said helplessly, "Chief, this is indeed the situation now"

Li Yalin couldn't help but let out a long sigh, his whole body disappointed to the core.

What he did not know at this moment was that because he had asked someone to investigate Chen Zhao Zhong, almost at the same time, on the other side of the world, a file about Chen Zhao Zhong appeared in front of a top tycoon on Hong Kong Island.

This top tycoon was the same Liu Sheng who once admired Chen Zhao Zhong immensely and later hated him immensely.

Liu Sheng was not his real name.

His real name is Lau Ka Fai, and he is one of the most powerful property developers, shipping companies and investors on Hong Kong Island.

The reason why people call him Liu Sheng is that he has a very good popular base on Hong Kong Island. In the eyes of the Hong Kong people, Liu Jiahui is flamboyant, wealthy, charitable and extremely gentlemanly, so everyone calls him Liu Sheng.

He has had many affairs in Hong Kong over the years and every woman he has had an affair with, even when they have gone their separate ways, still praises him as a rare and good man.

There are many wealthy men who have had affairs, but there is hardly any other who can do what he did.

Chapter 4386

It was late at night on Hong Kong Island, and Liu Jiahui was in his study, wearing a robe made of silk, when he saw the message handed to him by his butler.

He flipped it open and looked at it a few times, his expression growing more and more grim as he said in a cold voice, "I've searched for so many years without finding any clues about him, but I didn't expect this son of a b*tch to be hiding in Chinatown and opening a restaurant! And the way he looks now, he looks pretty f*cking bad! Even if I saw him face to face, I'm afraid I wouldn't recognise him!"

The butler was busy saying, "Master, this Chen Zhao Zhong, is really well hidden, it is said that he has hardly shaved for more than twenty years, his hair has grown a bit longer, and his temperament has been a lot more restrained, if it wasn't for the police over in the US investigating his profile this time, it would really be hard for us to find any trace of him."

Liu Jiahui frowned and asked, "Why are the American police investigating him? Did he commit a crime in America?"

The butler said, "My informant told me that the police seemed to have suspected him for those things that happened in New York two days ago, plus he was a black person in the US, so the US police found a way to check his identity and then looked for his previous information from this side of Hong Kong Island."

Liu gritted his teeth and said, "This deadbeat, I always thought that with his intelligence, he would definitely go and buy a new identity and continue to do what he is best at, finance or stocks, and find a way to make a comeback, but I never thought he would go and open such a shabby roast goose shop, what a f*cking loser!"

Liu Jiahui is not as gentle as he seems, or as he appears to outsiders.

At heart, he is actually an extremely small-minded and vindictive person.

He had never given up his desire to kill Chen Zhaozhong over the years.

It was just that Chen Zhao Zhong had hidden himself so well that he had not been able to find him out for so many years.

When his beloved woman came back from the United States, she did not say anything about her life in the United States. Liu Jiahui tried to press her several times, but the other party just wouldn't say anything, and even let out the word that as long as he stopped pursuing Chen Zhaozhong, she would keep him in peace for the rest of her life, which made him very stifled for a while.

But he really loved that woman, so he eventually gave up asking.

However, he never gave up trying to finish off Chen Zhao Zhong.

So, he had also talked to his woman about letting Chen Zhao Zhong live as long as he kept his promise and never returned to Hong Kong Island.

But.

Right now, there was a perfect opportunity for him to not break his promise and to get what he wanted at the same time.

So, after reading those information, he sneered and spoke, "Since the American police know that he is an illegal immigrant, then according to the American law, the police should deport him, right?"

"Yes." The butler said, "Under normal circumstances, he should be deported back to wherever he came from, he left from Hong Kong Island, so if he is deported, he will definitely be deported back to Hong Kong Island."

Liu Jiahui nodded and smiled playfully, "Ah Quan, I don't care what you use, make sure that the American police repatriate him back to Hong Kong Island! Then you should send out word to all the gang leaders on Hong Kong Island that Chen will be back soon and that the $30 million I spent back then is still valid! Whoever kills him, the 30 million will be theirs!"

With that, Liu Jiahui added, "By the way, turn the 30 million from Hong Kong dollars into US dollars!"

The butler was busy saying, "Master, you promised Ye Chang Ying at that time, and later Gu Yanzhong, and you also promised on the wife's side, if you really kill the surnamed Chen, will the follow-up be more tricky"

"What are you afraid of?" Liu Jiahui sneered, "I did promise Ye Changyang, I promised Gu Yanzhong, and I also promised Madam to let him go, but I let him go on the condition that he can never return to Hong Kong Island in his lifetime!"

"If he comes back, even if he didn't come back voluntarily and was repatriated by the Americans, then he's still back!"

"Then since he has come back, then no one can blame me for being ruthless!"

The butler instantly realized and blurted out, "Master, your move is really high!"

Chapter 4387

Meanwhile, New York's Chinatown.

Because it was lunchtime, Chen Zhao Zhong's restaurant was doing good business.

Just the two of them, he and his mate, were already busy.

However, while Chen Zhao Zhong was waiting for his customers, he had also been quietly surveying outside the door.

Because, he noticed that, since this morning, there was always a car that would park across the road in front of his shop.

Although the other party had changed four cars and different locations, Chen Zhao Zhong could still tell that the four cars, despite their different locations, could all see the front entrance of his roast goose shop.

This made his heart vaguely apprehensive.

He knew that the NYPD must be on to him.

Being watched by the police made Chen Zhao Zhong's heart inevitably nervous.

The mate could see that something was wrong with him and hurriedly went up to him and asked, "Uncle Zhong, what's wrong with you?"

"Nothing, " Chen Zhao Zhong smiled sarcastically and said, "You go ahead and get busy, don't worry about me."

The mate nodded gently and said, "If you are tired, go down and rest for a while, I can do it alone."

Chen Zhao Zhong nodded gratefully, but had no intention of leaving.

At that moment, the car across the road suddenly started up and drove away from Chinatown.

He thought that the other side would soon switch to another car to take its turn, but to his surprise, after this car had gone, no other suspicious vehicles appeared.

This gave him a little relief.

But soon, his brow furrowed again.

He immediately took off his over-sleeves and apron and said to the mate, "Keung-boy, put up the suspension, close the shop straight after the customers have left, and then come and find me downstairs."

The mate didn't know why he was suddenly in such a hurry and nodded his head and said, "Okay Uncle Zhong I got it!"

When Chen Zhao Zhong finished speaking, he went to the basement alone, there were two rooms downstairs, which were his and his mate Qiang Chai's bedrooms.

When Chen Zhao Zhong returned to his room, the first thing he did was to start packing his luggage, he only picked the things that meant the most to him and packed them into his suitcase, other than that he didn't even pack a change of clothes.

Half an hour later, Chen Zhao Zhong had packed a modest suitcase.

The mate, Keung Chai, walked quickly down the stairs and said at the door, "Uncle Chung, the customers have all left and I've closed the door."

"Good." Chen Zhao Zhong said, "Qiang Zai you come in."

"Okay." Strong Boy pushed open the door and just as he walked into the bedroom, he found Chen Zhao Zhong packing his things, so he was surprised and asked, "Uncle Zhong, where are you going?"

Chen Zhao Zhong looked at Qiang Zai and said, "Qiang Zai, I may have to return to Hong Kong Island in the near future, after I leave, this shop will be handed over to you."

Keung was surprised and asked, "Uncle Chung you how can you go back to Hong Kong Island? That Liu surname will kill you"

Chen Zhao Zhong smiled faintly, "I was illegally staying in the United States, I am considered an illegal immigrant, since the police have already found me, I guess there is not much time left before I am deported, even if I don't want to go, I can't help it."

Even if I don't want to go, I can't help it." Qiang said, "Uncle Zhong, you can't just wait to be deported back! Why don't you leave New York and hide out for a while?"

"No." Chen Zhao Zhong waved his hand and said indifferently, "I'm tired of hiding after more than twenty years, if I continue to hide like this, I'll have to despise myself."

Chapter 4388

After saying that, he looked at Qiang Zai and said seriously, "I've always wanted to go back, but I've never been able to muster up the courage, so it's just as well to take this opportunity to go back and help me make a decision."

Strong Boy said nervously, "Uncle Zhong! You can live if you hide! In case Liu's name doesn't intend to let you go, you'll be dead if you go back!"

Chen Zhao Zhong laughed, "Even if he wants me dead, he has to wait for the right moment, he can't just kill me at customs when I've just been repatriated back, can he? Besides, I was repatriated to Hong Kong Island, the customs officers will definitely have to take me through the process, I believe that even if Liu is capable, he would not dare to make a move on me at the customs, this way, I can notify my family in advance and ask them to come to the customs to meet me, as long as I can meet my family, even if I am killed by him right out of the gate, I will accept it."

At this point, Chen Zhao Zhong smiled faintly and added, "Qiang Zai, you don't need to persuade me about this matter, I have my own decision, you just run this roast goose shop well, the rest, don't worry about me."

With red eyes and choked sobs, Keung said, "Uncle Chung I don't want to run the roast goose shop, I just want to follow you around and be an honest little runner"

Keung has a very strong bond with Chan Siu Chung.

He was originally a Chinese from Southeast Asia. His parents had gone down to the South Seas to work in the early years, but met with some local unrest, so they smuggled him to the United States with the young one, intending to put down roots there.

However, the boat used by the snakeheads to transport them hit a reef and sank when it was close to the US coastline, drowning half of the dozens of illegal immigrants in one boat.

Keung's parents were both buried at sea in that disaster, while the young boy was left floating for hours on a small plank of wood before he was finally rescued by a Chinese boat runner.

Those who survived the accident were young, half-grown children like Keung, whose parents gave them life-saving floating objects to keep them alive.

The Chinese who ran the boat, like Chen Zhao Zhong, were all illegal immigrants or illegal residents of the United States, and these black people usually helped each other and had a small circle of their own.

When several of the children were rescued back to New York, these Chinese got together and had a meeting.

They felt that these children were in such a miserable situation that if they were not taken in, they would either starve to death on the streets, be repatriated by the US government or sent to an orphanage, so after discussion, those who could afford it, adopted an orphan.

Keung was adopted by Chan Siu Chung.

He was just ten years old when he was brought back to this roast goose shop, but now he is twenty-two years old.

Since he had no legal status, Chen Zhao Zhong taught Qiang to read while he ran the shop, and then he started to help him in the back kitchen.

Later on, when he became an adult, he simply worked as a worker in the roast goose shop.

He was so grateful to Chen Zhao Zhong for his kindness that he always treated him like a father, and even made up his mind that he would stay with Chen Zhao Zhong for the rest of his life and help him when he grew old.

However, he had never expected that Chen Zhaozhong would now decide to return to Hong Kong to die.

Seeing that his eyes were red and tears were streaming down his face, he smiled and said, "Keung, I have no children, and since you came here, I have been cooking roast goose in the back kitchen all these years and have never hidden my skills from you. If you have the chance, go back to Southeast Asia and get your original identity back, then get married and have children and settle down."

After that, he looked at Keung and smiled slightly, "Of course, if I'm lucky enough not to die this time, you can also come to Hong Kong Island to look for me in the future!"

Chapter 4389

It was afternoon.

In order to stagger the entrance time with Grandpa's family, Ye Chen deliberately took Xiao Churan and arrived at the concert venue early.

At this moment, there were already many fans waiting anxiously inside and outside the venue, and it was not yet time for the venue to start entering, so these fans surrounded the venue to the fullest.

Luckily, there was originally a VIP channel in the arena, and there were special security personnel outside the channel to maintain order, so there was no interference from fans here.

Before arriving at the venue, Ye Chen had greeted Gu Qiuyi's manager Chen Duo Duo in advance, so when his car arrived at the entrance of the VIP lane, the security guard saw the license plate and opened the car blocker to let it go without any question.

The VIP channel is like a sunken tunnel, after the car drives in, it is basically the same as driving into the underground of the stadium, and this channel is completely straight, from the entrance, you can see the opposite far away through the light of the exit, and the VIP reception is in the middle of this channel.

The advantage of this design is that it ensures the maximum possible safety for the VIPs, as the entire passage can be seen very clearly at a glance and is surrounded by smooth concrete walls, making it impossible for anyone to hide in the passage.

The VIP reception area in the middle of the passageway is actually a recessed car park, where VIP vehicles normally park directly to enter the venue, and it is also very convenient when walking.

Chen Duoduo was standing at the edge of the car park waiting at this moment, and when he saw Ye Chen driving in, he hurriedly waved to his car.

Ye Chen responded by flashing his headlights, and then, guided by Chen Duo Duo's gestures, parked his car in the car park.

There were already several business cars parked on the car park and Ye Chen recognised at once that this was Gu Qiuyi's convoy.

Xiao Churan was a little surprised at this time and asked, "Honey, where are we now?"

Ye Chen smiled, "The VIP channel, we are watching the show in the VIP box tonight."

Xiao Churan was surprised and asked, "Why are you watching in a box? It must have cost a lot of money, right?"

Ye Chen smiled, "Miss Gu's concert didn't sell boxes to the public this time, so all the boxes above are basically empty, so the boxes are free for us to use, and if we go to the boxes to watch the show, we can also save the organizer two tickets for the inside, after all, she has so many fans, two more tickets will bring in two more people."

Xiao Churan nodded gently, and then followed Ye Chen down the car.

As soon as Chen Duoduo saw Ye Chen, he very politely went forward and said, "Master Ye you are here."

After saying that, he looked at Xiao Churan and smiled, "Hello Mrs. Ye, we meet again."

Back when Ye Chen had just reunited with Gu Qiuyi and brought Xiao Churan to have dinner with Gu Qiuyi, Chen Duo Duo had met Xiao Churan at the dinner table before.

Xiao Churan also had an impression of her and hurriedly said, "Hello, Miss Chen! I've given you trouble this time."

"No, no." Chen Duoduo said in a serious manner, "Master Ye has helped us so much, it is us who have caused trouble for Master Ye."

As she said that, Chen Duoduo deliberately added, "Mrs. Ye, during this period of time, we have been working hard for Master Ye to run to New York because of feng shui matters, so we have delayed Master Ye's world with you, you must not mind."

Xiao Churan didn't know she was saying this on purpose, so she said, "Miss Chen is very kind, this is also my husband's job, it's all due."

Chen Duo Duo smiled faintly and nodded gently.

In fact, she had a lot of double entendres or words of meaning to say to Xiao Xiangran, but she knew in her heart that she could not be too reckless in front of Ye Chen, so she stopped at the point and said with a smile, "Master Ye, Mrs. Ye, let me take you two to the VIP box first."

Ye Chen saw that Chen Duoduo also knew how to take things as they came, so he didn't bother much with her in his heart and said blandly, "Thank you for your hard work, Miss Chen."

"I should, I should." Chen Duoduo smilingly led Ye Chen and Xiao Churan through the VIP channel and directly took the lift to the top floor.

Because of the large scale of the venue, the VIP box was located in a place that was basically already about as high as seven or eight floors, and this entire upper area was the VIP area of the venue.

Here, the entrances and exits, as well as the various facilities and passageways, were all completely isolated from the audience in the venue below, ensuring the privacy of the VIPs to a great extent.

As only two VIP boxes were given to Ye Chen, Xiao Churan and Grandparents' family for tonight's concert, none of the other boxes were open to the public, so there were very few staff on this floor, only security personnel were guarding the entrances and exits, and after entering, it was all empty, with no staff in sight.

This was also deliberate on Gu Qiuyi's part, after all, Ye Chen himself liked to keep a low profile, and the An family was also a very high-profile public figure, so privacy had to be adequately guaranteed, and the fewer the staff, the less exposure there would be.

Chen Duoduo brought Ye Chen and Xiao Churan to a box in the middle position, and when the door opened, it was almost like a luxury hotel suite inside.

Upon entering, there was a luxurious meeting room with a mini bar, the bar of which was already filled with fresh fruits, desserts and snacks, while the wine rack at the back was also filled with a wide range of high-end drinks.

Across the minibar, there were two sets of sofas sitting opposite each other in the centre, and further on past the parlour, there were two rows of sofas facing the floor-to-ceiling windows, one high and one low, which were the areas for watching the show.

Chapter 4390

Chen Duoduo introduced to Ye Chen and Xiao Churan, "Master Ye and Mrs Ye, the boxes here are specially soundproofed, so even if there are people next door, they won't cause any disturbance to you, and the floor-to-ceiling windows in front are one-way glasses, so you don't have to worry about the outside seeing the inside."

Xiao Churan said with some concern, "Miss Chen, the sound insulation here is so good and there is such a large piece of glass, so will the concert sound be affected when listening inside?"

Xiao Churan was a loyal fan of Gu Qiyi's, and to her, the most important thing about coming to see Gu Qiyi's concert was the audio-visual effect, in case the audio-visual effect was greatly reduced, even if it was inside the luxurious VIP room, it would definitely be very regrettable.

Chen Duoduo could see Xiao Churan's concern and pointed to the top left and right corners of the floor-to-ceiling windows, as well as the sides and top of the sofa, and said to Xiao Churan: "Ms. Xiao doesn't need to worry about the audio-visual effect, like you said earlier, the box has soundproofing measures and the front glass is also thicker, so the sound from the outside audio will indeed be weakened a lot when watching the show from here, therefore, the box itself is installed with 7.4.4 embedded panoramic sound, the audio of the live performance will be played directly through the sound, which can effectively filter the noise from the live audience, the immersive experience will be better, and the volume level is also adjustable, the overall audio-visual effect will be better than the inside venue."

Xiao Churan breathed a sigh of relief and said, "Then I'm relieved"

Chen Duoduo nodded and said to the two of them, "Master Ye and Mrs. Ye, our staff have prepared drinks and desserts in advance, and there are also bathrooms inside the boxes, so after the show starts, for the sake of your viewing experience, the waiter people will not take the initiative to come to the door, if you two have any needs, you can directly press the call bell, and our staff will come at the first opportunity, in addition Please also try not to go out during the performance, there is no staff stationed outside and the sound is noisy at the beginning of the performance, in case there is any unexpected situation, it may be difficult to respond in time."

Ye Chen knew that Chen Duoduo was implicitly reminding Xiao Churan not to go out as much as possible, and as for Ye Chen himself, he would definitely not go out unless it was necessary, so as to avoid the possibility of meeting his grandmother's family as much as possible.

Xiao Churan knew nothing of Chen Duo Duo's intentions and said, almost without thinking, "Don't worry, Miss Chen, we won't go anywhere."

Chen Duo Duo smiled faintly, then looked at the time again and said, "There are some VIPs sitting in the next box tonight, they will arrive in ten minutes, I have to go and receive them, so I won't bother you two anymore."

Xiao Churan nodded and said, "If Miss Chen has something to do, go ahead and get busy, don't mind us."

"Good." Chen Duo Duo nodded and said to Ye Chen again, "Mr. Ye, I will go out first then."

After Chen Duoduo left, Ye Chen sat down on the sofa in the meeting area, a little lost in thought, thinking that his grandparents would arrive in ten minutes, his heart once again surged with a little nervousness and apprehension.

Xiao Churan saw that Ye Chen was not in the right state, so she sat beside him and asked with concern, "What's wrong with you, husband? Are you not feeling well?"

Ye Chen smiled faintly and said, "I've always been running back and forth between two places these past few days, so I'm probably a bit tired."

Xiao Churan said with some self-condemnation, "If I had known we wouldn't have driven here, you must have been quite tired from driving all this way, and you accompanied me everywhere"

After saying that, she hurriedly said, "Why don't we not go anywhere tomorrow, just take a good rest at the hotel, I will drive tomorrow."

Ye Chen smiled, "No, I'll rest for a while, don't you worry."

Xiao Churan thought that Ye Chen was trying to be brave, so she took his hand and said softly, "Honey, if you feel tired in the future, tell me in advance, we can change any plan, but your body must come first."

Ye Chen nodded gently and smiled, "Don't worry wife, I know."

Xiao Churan leaned slightly on Ye Chen's shoulder and said softly, "Let's turn down the sound a bit later, and if you are tired, you can sleep here for a while."

Seeing that Xiao Churan was so concerned about himself, Ye Chen couldn't help but be a little touched, and slightly swept her up in his arms, feeling a lot more secure in his heart.

About ten minutes later, Ye Chen's keen sense of hearing caught the sound of noisy footsteps.

As the footsteps got closer, he heard Chen Duo Duo's voice: "Grandpa An, Grandma An, this is the private room arranged for you all tonight!"

At this moment, Ye Chen heard a familiar yet unfamiliar voice, his grandmother smiled very gently and said, "Thank you little Chen, thank Nui Nui for us too, this visit must not have caused you much trouble!"

Although he hadn't heard his grandmother's voice again for many years, Ye Chen still recognised it immediately.

His body also involuntarily shook because of Grandma's voice, and Xiao Churan, who was beside him, hurriedly raised her head and asked, "What's wrong with you, husband?"

Ye Chen was slightly stunned, then calmed down and said in a hurry, "Nothing, I almost fell asleep just now"
