

Ye Chen 4391

Chapter 4391

At this moment, Ye Chen's attention was almost entirely on his grandparents who were a wall away from him.

He heard Chen Duo Duo say to his grandmother in a respectful tone, "Grandma An you mustn't be so polite, you are Qiu Yi's grandmother, we don't know how honoured you and Grandpa An are to come to Qiu Yi's concert!"

The old lady smiled and said, "Nui Nui is now one of the most well-known Chinese stars in the world, it is us who are honoured to come to her concert."

The old man at the side couldn't help but sigh, "To be able to bring a concert to America and have such a strong appeal, Miss Gu is indeed considered a light of the Chinese."

The old lady said, "What Miss Gu, that's your future grandson-in-law, don't call her that, her maiden name is Nui Nui."

The old man said with a smile, "Yes, yes, the wife is right to criticise."

Chen Duoduo couldn't help but sigh, "You two have such a good relationship, unlike my grandparents, who fight every day and don't let anyone get away."

The old man laughed, "Then that's your grandfather's problem, a man, if he wants to live an easy life as he wishes, he must give in to his wife in the mouth."

"Yes!" Chen Duoduo laughed, "When we get back, I'll tell him your tricks so he can learn them properly!"

As he joked, Chen Duoduo took the An family into the box, and after introducing the general situation of the box to them, he said to the crowd, "The show doesn't start for another forty minutes, so you can take a break, now the audience is about to start entering, I'll go over and see if there's anything I can help with, if the hospital needs anything, just press the call bell to call the service staff Or give me a call."

Ye Chen's grandmother said with a smile, "It's hard for you Xiao Chen, you can go ahead and get busy if you have other things to do, don't mind us."

Saying that, the old lady remembered something and hastily asked again, "By the way Xiao Chen, is it convenient for Nui Nui to have time after the show? If it's convenient, we'll wait to meet her, if she's not convenient, then we won't bother much."

Chen Duo Duo was busy saying, "Convenient, Qiu Yi has instructed me to tell you all to wait for her in the box for a while after the show if you're not in a hurry to leave, she'll come over after she's finished with her business."

"Good!" The old lady said with a smile, "Then we'll wait for her here after the show."

All these conversations were heard word for word by Ye Chen.

He knew that Gu Qiuyi had come over to see her grandparents after the performance, partly out of respect, and partly for her own sake.

This was because Gu Qiuyi was worried that she and Xiao Churan would meet up with Grandma's family when they left after the show, so she had deliberately made this arrangement.

After the performance, the grandmother's family would naturally wait for Gu Qiuyi in the box, while she could take advantage of this time to take Xiao Churan and leave directly.

In this way, although the two parties were only separated by a wall, they would not have any chance to face each other.

Moreover, as each compartment had been given a very strict acoustic treatment in order to achieve the best acoustics, the two compartments were doubly soundproofed from each other, and under such circumstances, even if Ye Chen and Xiao Churan spoke loudly in the room, it was impossible for the next door to hear them.

Even if a martial arts expert of the Ming Realm Great Perfection realm like Wan Bajun came over, it would be impossible for him to hear the conversation next door.

Unless one was like Ye Chen, who had an aura to protect his body, only then could he use his pervasive aura to sense every move next door.

After Chen Duoduo left, Ye Chen could sense that there were fourteen people in the box next door, and outside the box door, there were four people standing.

However, aura was not omnipotent, and although Ye Chen could sense the number of people, he could not rely on his aura to identify each person on the other side.

However, he did manage to perceive that the four people outside the door were all martial arts experts, one of them, the strongest, had reached the level of an eight-star martial artist, comparable to the strength of Wan Bajun when he had killed up Ye Lingshan at that time, of the other three, the weakest one had the level of a six-star martial artist, and the other two, both seven-star martial artists.

It seemed that the An family's strength was indeed extraordinary, and this configuration of bodyguards was the strongest Ye Chen had seen so far, bar none.

At this moment, Ye Chen suddenly received a message from Chen Duo Duo, the message was just five words: Li Yalin was also here.

Ye Chen was slightly stunned, he did not expect that Li Yalin would also be here.

Chapter 4392

Originally, Grandma's family had not seen him for the past twenty years, but Li Yalin had met with him just a few days ago.

This also made Ye Chen a little more cautious, as long as the show was not yet over, then he must not step out of this door when it was unnecessary.

Inside the box next door.

The old man and the old lady were sitting on the sofa, An Chongqiu and his wife were next to the old couple, and opposite them in turn sat An Kaifeng, An Zhaonan, both husband and wife, and Ye Chen's sister-in-law An Youyou.

As for Li Yalin, he ran straight to the bar and poured a gla*s of whisky, sitting on a long stool at the bar and sipping it himself.

Apart from the four An siblings and Ye Chen's three aunts and uncles, the two sons of An Kaifeng, An Zhaonan's eldest daughter and An Youyou's twelve-year-old only daughter were also here tonight.

These offspring, all of whom are Ye Chen's cousins, are also considered to be fans of Gu Qiuyi, so they came along from Los Angeles.

An Chongqiu's two daughters are also very fond of Gu Qiuyi, but the eldest daughter is studying for a PhD at Stanford and the second daughter is studying in the UK, so they are quite busy with their studies.

However, An Chongqiu's two daughters had specifically instructed several other siblings in the An family's own internal family chat software to try to take more concert videos of the two of them.

Although Ye Chen could not perceive their identities, he had pretty much identified each one of them after listening to them chatting idly for a few moments.

Among them, the eldest son of second uncle An Kai Feng's family, he had met once when he was young, but at that time, this cousin was still in infancy.

As for the eldest daughter of Young Uncle An Zhaonan's family and the only daughter of Young Aunt An Youyou, Ye Chen had not yet met any of them.

At this time, An Chongqiu could see that Li Yalin was a bit bored with drinking alone, so he walked over to the bar, sat down beside him and asked, "Why, hasn't your mood eased up a bit?"

Li Yalin laughed bitterly, "What the hell, we've known each other for so many years, you know me, and I'm really upset that I've suffered such a big loss without a chance to get it back!"

An Chongqiu poured himself a gla*s of wine, clinked gla*ses with him and said, "Old Li, let's look ahead, your days as a police officer are long, but they are over."

Li Yalin nodded gently and sighed, "You're right, got to look forward ....."

An Chongqiu asked him, "You said earlier that you wanted to go to Houston to be with your wife and kids, have you told them yet?"

"Not yet." Li Yalin laughed bitterly: "It's not that I'm still upset ..... I always thought there might be a chance for this case to come to light ....."

An Chongqiu seriously said, "Old Li, listen to my advice, go back tonight and pack your bags, tomorrow morning set the earliest plane to Houston."

After saying that, An Chongqiu added: "Forget it, I'll arrange a plane to send you there!"

Li Yalin said with a somewhat hesitant expression, "This is too fast ....."

An Chongqiu said seriously, "It's too fast!"

Li Yalin couldn't decide for a while.

He did want to leave, but he was also really reluctant.

Just then, Li Yalin's phone suddenly received a message, he opened it and his expression quickly became excited as he hurriedly said to An Chongqiu, "You just said you arranged for a plane to take me to Houston?"

An Chongqiu nodded his head and said, "That's right, just one word from you!"

Without thinking, Li Yalin said, "Tonight, then! I'll go to the airport after the show!"

An Chongqiu was surprised and asked, "Why are you so eager all of a sudden?"

Li Yalin grinned and said, "My daughter just sent me a message saying she's pregnant!"

Chapter 4393

When An Chongqiu heard the news, he too instantly became happy and said with a smile, "No wonder your f*cking mouth is grinning from ear to ear, so you're going to be a grandfather!"

"Yes!" Li Yalin said excitedly, "The old generation says that relatives are related from generation to generation, so it's true! As soon as my daughter said she was pregnant, I didn't want to stay in New York for a f*cking minute, I wanted to fly over tonight and surprise them both!"

An Chongqiu laughed, "Oh, you know how to surprise your wife and kids now, you old elm? That's good, you've made progress!"

After saying that, An Chongqiu said, "Come on, you don't have to dilly-dally here, I'll have the crew get ready, you go to the airport now!"

Li Yalin hurriedly said, "No, no, no, we agreed to accompany the old man and the old lady, I can't just arrive and leave, there's no hurry, I'll leave after the show."

An Chongqiu waved his hand and said, "It doesn't matter! You can tell them, they'll understand."

"Don't." Li Yalin whispered, "I haven't seen the old man for such a long time, so it's hard to spend time with him, I don't care if it's two hours more, just say hello to the crew and I'll come back after the show."

Seeing his insistence, An Chongqiu nodded and said, "That's fine, then I'll say hello to the crew now and ask them to prepare in advance."

"Got it!" Li Yalin smiled heatedly and said, "Thanks brother!"

An Chongqiu laughed, "We are brothers, why are you still so polite with me?"

After saying that, he immediately took out his mobile phone and arranged the flight for Li Yalin, then he held a gla*s of wine and walked up to everyone and said with a smile, "Mom and Dad, let me interject, Yalin is going to be a grandfather soon, let's celebrate Yalin with tea instead of wine!"

Hearing this, the old man smiled with delight and said, "Yes, yes! A new baby is a great thing, you are blessed!"

After saying this, he lifted the cup of tea in front of him and said with a smile, "Come, I'll drink to you, congratulations on your upcoming promotion!"

All the people also picked up their tea and drinks and said words of congratulations under their breath.

The An family has been in the United States for a long time, and their thinking from top to bottom is more or less westernised. The obvious characteristic is that they are more open in their emotion management, and when they encounter a happy event, they are genuinely happy, so they don't have the usual formalities between different backups, and they are all very happy.

Seeing the An family celebrating with such enthusiasm, Li Yalin blushed and said unnaturally, "Thank you all! When the baby is born, I will definitely bring it to the An family to ask for New Year's money then!"

The old man said smilingly, "Come! You must come! And bring your aunt with you! If the baby is a boy, I'll have to give your aunt another big red envelope!"

Li Yalin was puzzled by the old man and asked, "Uncle An, how can you give a red packet to your aunt when you have a new baby in the family? Where does this come from?"

The old man said seriously, "You're always thinking about solving cases, I have to do more for your dead old man!"

After that, he added, "You only have one girl in your family, but your Li family's legacy cannot be broken! If your aunt is willing to give birth to a son who will take the family name of Li and help my brothers continue their legacy, I, An Qishan, will definitely give him a big red packet that will allow him to be clothed and fed for the rest of his life!"

Li Yalin was stunned to hear this, and then his eyes reddened and he deliberately touched his nose to hide it, and said with a sarcastic smile, "Uncle An, it's a long time ago, we can't be so old and feudal ....."

Chapter 4394

The old man said seriously, "Yalin, this is not feudalism, this is heritage! Since ancient times, you have only heard of worshipping one's own ancestors, have you ever heard of anyone worshipping an ancestor with a foreign surname? Do you know what your grandfather's grandfather's surname was, and do you know what your grandfather's grandfather's surname was? Do you know what it means to break off the incense?"

Li Yalin was busy saying, "Uncle An, breaking off the incense, that doesn't mean the bloodline is broken ....." Then as long as this child has offspring in the future, won't this bloodline of mine be passed on?"

The old man waved his hand and said with a solemn expression, "Yalin, the term "broken incense" is not that complicated, to put it bluntly, it means that there is simply no one to light incense for the ancestors of this lineage, to put it more bluntly, there is no one to worship!"

Hearing this, Li Yalin could no longer hold back the tears in his eyes, and two lines of hot tears rolled down his somewhat tanned cheeks.

He understood the meaning of the old man's words, and deep down in his heart he also agreed with this concept of the old man.

The older generation of Chinese people who had gone abroad to fight for their lives had all wished for prosperity and children, and this naturally included Li Yalin's father.

But although Li Yalin had five sisters, he was the only male in the family.

His wife was willing to bear more children for him, but as fate would have it, she suffered a serious haemorrhage during the birth of his daughter, and the doctors removed her womb to save her life.

So, Li Yalin only had that one only daughter.

At this moment, when the old lady on the side saw that Li Yalin was a big man who had shed tears, she quickly said to the old man, "Aiya, you old feudalist! It's a long time ago, but you're still doing that patriarchal thing!"

After saying that, he hurriedly said to Li Yalin: "Yalin, don't listen to your Uncle An's nonsense, this old feudal consciousness should have been removed long ago!"

The old man had always been obedient to the old lady in his words, but at this time he said sternly, "If it were anyone else, I would have advised him to do the same, but with Yalin, I can't! He can think for himself, but I know better than anyone what my old friend will think.

He said, looking at Li Yalin who was silently weeping, he waved his hand with dignity and said, "Yalin, you don't have to worry about anything in this matter, whether the baby is born as a boy or a girl, you bring your aunt here! If it's a boy, I'll be able to convince him to give the child the surname Li, if it's a girl, I'll try to convince him to have another one with your daughter! Don't interfere, don't say a word, just pretend you don't know, and if anyone has a name for being an old feudalist or an old b****d, just throw it at my head, I don't care!"

Li Yalin nodded heavily with tears in his eyes at this moment and said with gratitude, "Uncle An ..... thank you ..... thank you!"

Li Yalin knew that his son-in-law was excellent and had a high heart, something that perhaps only An Qishan could really do.

Overwhelmed with emotion, his legs bent forward uncontrollably and he was about to kneel down and kowtow to An Qishan.

An Chongqiu was quick and pulled him back and said, "Old Li, what are you doing?"

An Qishan scolded, "b****d, they say there is gold under a man's knees, you are here to show me! Stand still and don't kneel for me until the day I die!"

Li Yalin was really moved from the bottom of his heart, but seeing that An Qishan was angry, he hurriedly said, "Okay Uncle An ..... I know ....."

The old man nodded in satisfaction and urged, "Why are you still standing here, hurry up and go to the airport!"

An Chongqiu was busy saying, "Dad, I was telling him to hurry up, but he insisted on staying with you for a while."

At this time, the music suddenly started to play, and in the midst of the very powerful music, the lights in the venue were dimmed by at least 70%, and the two large LED screens to the left and right of the stage were instantly lit up and began to play the opening material of Gu Qiuyi's world tour.

The opening video, which is 20 minutes long, was created by a Hollywood team at great cost, with stunning sound and visual effects.

The content of the video is a cosmic battle that takes place in the future, so the audio-visual effects at the beginning seem to be earth-shattering.

The plot of the video is that an alien race has invaded Earth and wiped out almost all of the Earth fleet, leaving only one ship piloted by a female warrior to survive.

In order to save the planet, the warrior woman pilots her ship through a wormhole and travels all the way from the future back to modern day Earth.

Chapter 4395

As her ship crosses the Earth's atmosphere, the Earth's air forces send their best fighters to intercept it, and she ejects just as a missile is about to destroy the ship, taking a parachute all the way down.

But when the parachute malfunctioned and failed to open, the warrior woman swooped down towards the ground at a tremendous speed.

As originally set up, the LED screens and all the lights on the set would have gone out and all sound would have ceased at the moment the fighter woman was about to hit the ground.

After ten seconds of absolute darkness, the stage lights would instantly all come on and dozens of light pillars would be aimed at the top of the stage in unison, at which time Gu Qiuyi, dressed in sci-fi armour, would descend from the sky in conjunction with the weave technology, using her song titled 'From the Future' to give an absolutely stunning and perfect opening to the entire concert.

However, at this moment, the video had only just started to play and when people saw a Star Wars presented in the video, everyone was a bit confused.

When the old man saw that the show was already about to start, he hurriedly said to Li Yalin, "Yalin, don't waste time with me here, hurry back to stay with your wife and children!"

After saying that, he looked at An Chongqiu and instructed, "Chongqiu, tell the crew to get ready at the airport and have the driver take Yalin to the airport!"

An Chongqiu nodded and said to Li Yalin, "Old Li, hurry up, stay with your family and don't go anywhere until the baby is born."

"Good!" Li Yalin knew that the old man was thinking of himself, so he nodded heavily and said, "Uncle An, Auntie, I'll go first then."

The old man waved his hand, "Go on, let Chong Qiu see you off."

Li Yalin busily said, "No, no, let him accompany you guys, I'll go down by myself."

After saying that, he said to An Chongqiu, "You send a message to the driver, just don't send me."

Seeing that his whole condition was much better, An Chongqiu nodded and said, "Okay, come and send a message when you arrive."

Li Yalin nodded, said another greeting to the group and hurriedly left the room.

After Li Yalin went out, the video showed the flagship of the human space fleet receiving a fatal blow from the enemy, and Xiao Churan excitedly took Ye Chen's hand and shouted, "Honey! Is this a movie? The effect is too realistic!"

Ye Chen was so shouted by Xiao Churan, so he subconsciously withdrew some of the aura he had released, no longer paying attention to what grandparents were talking about, but focused on the screen and said seriously, "I think this should be a specially made opening video, the former King Michael Jackson, loved such magnificent opening special effects. "

Just as Ye Chen finished speaking, in the screen, the human flagship exploded with a bang!

The immense flagship, a series of violent explosions starting from the inside, the whole falling apart!

The sound effects of the explosion were heard through the countless powerful sound effects in the scene, creating a wave of sound that hit everyone's senses.

While everyone's attention, was focused on the video, Li Yalin walked through the corridor of the VIP area and arrived at the entrance of the lift lobby.

The appalling wave of sound made him feel the ba*s vibrating his entire chest even when he was in the area.

Just then, the lights of the four lifts not far in front of him suddenly came on at the same time, and just as he was a little dismayed, the lift doors suddenly opened.

In the four lifts, at least twenty black-clothed warriors, armed to the teeth, appeared!

These black-clad warriors wore bulletproof vests and bulletproof masks, and all of them carried dark automatic rifles in their hands, while the muzzles of each automatic rifle were fitted with thick and long silencers.

When Li Yalin saw this scene, his pupils suddenly shrank, and just as he wanted to shout, bullets were instantly released from the muzzles of multiple guns.

In an instant, Li Yalin was hit by dozens of bullets and blasted to the ground!

Immediately afterwards, the beige wool carpet beneath him was soaked with his blood in a striking blood red .....

Chapter 4396

The moment Li Yalin fell to the ground, one of the men in the lift, didn't even give Li Yalin another look.

One of them saw Li Yalin's dead face and blurted out through the intercom system in his helmet, "Boss, this man seems to be NYPD detective Li Yalin!"

The man at the head of the group said contemptuously, "What Li Yalin Liu Yalin, in my opinion, it's just an appetizer, not enough for the whole f*cking gang to have a chopstick."

After saying that, he ordered, "All of you, form up in battle formation, remember our aim, don't leave anyone alive!"

The other twenty or so men heard the chief's voice very clearly because they were wearing active noise-cancelling headphones, so they held their guns in their right hands and raised the two fingers of their index and middle fingers to the side of their temples with their left hands.

This gesture meant that they had received the order.

Immediately afterwards, the twenty or so people in the four lifts walked out of the lifts at the same time and at the same pace, in the standard Special Forces six-man battle formation and with the most advanced a*sault rifles.

The special clothing and equipment they were wearing had been carefully silenced, with the fabric of their clothes making almost no sound, and even the head of each zip on their clothes was wrapped in black cotton to avoid impact with the zip itself.

The soles of the combat boots are also specially treated and are all Velcro tightened, with no laces or metal parts, even when walking, they do not make any noise.

In addition, this entire VIP area is like a hotel, all covered by carpets, more than twenty people walk up and down with hardly any sound.

Such extreme combat details are hard to match even for the top special forces.

And their equipment, too, was extremely advanced.

Their main weapon, the latest one-man weapon from the German hk company – the hk433 a*sault rifle.

This gun has a high rate of fire, is powerful and far more accurate than ordinary standard weapons.

Moreover, the gang had also specifically adopted the specially made 5.56 calibre dum-dum ammunition. In close range combat, this small calibre bullet not only has a high muzzle velocity and high killing power, but the specially made dum-dum ammunition has an extremely strong cavity effect, and can form a large cavity in the body when it hits the flesh, thus causing great damage to the human body.

At this moment, they skipped over Li Yalin's corpse while advancing noiselessly.

This corpse was no longer within their concern, their target, the VIP box where the An family members were!

At this moment, four experts from the An Family were guarding the entrance.

But at this point in the opening video, the sounds of the fleet exploding and weapons firing were all over the place, and the subwoofer was making such a huge sound wave that even the reinforced concrete structure of the floor shook as a result.

In the face of this surging sound, other sounds lose their propagation almost completely.

Add to this the fact that the ears, eyes and nose, themselves extremely susceptible organs, once a particular sound is too loud, the human ear, under the influence of this huge sound, almost loses its ability to resolve other sounds that are on the weak side.

This is why, at a concert or a bar, when two people are talking face to face, neither of them can hear the other unless they are lying next to each other's ears and shouting towards them.

Therefore, it was more difficult for the four An family experts to hear the sound of the gunshots with silencers and the footsteps of the other party, which they were trying to conceal, against the loud background sound, than it was to hear the buzzing of mosquitoes at an airfield.

At such a time, they were still completely unaware that a great danger was approaching!

And Ye Chen, too, was equally ignorant of what was happening outside as he had just withdrawn his aura and focused his attention on the opening video playing live!

However, the killer was extremely well prepared.

Before they even entered the corner of the corridor, they had already used their life detectors to find out exactly what was going on behind the corner.

The man who operated the life-detector immediately reported to the group in a special sign language.

The sign language read that there were four people at the door of the proximal box close to them, thirteen people in the proximal box and two more in the other box immediately inside the proximal box.

The leader of the group had a slight frown on his face.

The information he had received did not include the situation in the next compartment.

All he knew was that the box here was not open to the public tonight, and the An family, I believe, were the only guests.

Chapter 4397

Now it seemed that the information had been wrong.

However, at the moment, he could no longer care about these minor surprises.

He immediately made a neck-wiping gesture to the crowd, the implication being that all of them, including the two in the next compartment, were to be taken out!

They had been killing people on sight all the way up anyway, and killing people on sight was their code of action for the night.

Afterwards, the crowd got ready, and between the wave of the leader's hand, they tacitly divided into high, medium and low, three heights, and killed at great speed into that aisle leading to the vip box!

The four experts of the An Family suddenly found the enemy coming at this moment, and the eight-star martial artist in the lead was aghast and shouted out of the blue, "There's an enemy!"

As he said that, his whole body quickly forced his true qi from his body to the surface of his body, arming his skin into armour, and at the same time, he pulled out a soft sword coiled around his waist!

The other three also reacted swiftly and began to run their true qi almost immediately.

This was the standard procedure for martial arts masters to defend themselves against their enemies.

However, the enemy did not care about martial arts!

More than twenty extremely powerful assault rifles were wildly declaring the bullets in their magazines at an extremely fast speed.

Each bullet, after being accelerated and rotated by the rifling, came towards the four men with deadly force!

The man at the head of the group swung his soft sword and slashed wildly, his speed was extremely fast, and the soft sword suddenly became incomparably hard and sharpened like mud with a shake in his hand!

In a flash, at least a dozen bullets were cut in half by him, but there were more than a dozen bullets coming at him!

Hundreds of rounds!

More bullets, one after another, struck his body!

His true qi was so powerful that the bullets initially hit his body as if they were hitting a brick wall!

If the opponent had fought alone, he could have cut down most of the bullets with just his own strength, and the remaining bullets, though impossible to cut down completely, would not have caused fatal damage to his body due to the protection of his true qi.

However, the bad thing is that the other side has too many people and too many guns .....

Bullets, too many! .....

More than twenty magazines had discharged six or seven hundred rounds of bullets in a matter of seconds!

And in this straight alleyway, there was no way for them to hide!

At first, the bullets only made these martial arts masters' bodies shake, but they couldn't hurt them physically.

But before a second had passed, their true qi was depleted at an extremely fast rate under the rain of bullets!

The martial arts masters' true qi was depleting rapidly, but the opponent's bullets, however, did not stop at all!

What's more, what's even less martial is that the gun is tireless!

A gun has a capacity of thirty rounds, and there is hardly any difference in power between the first and last rounds!

This meant that the fate of these four masters was doomed to tragedy from the moment these men suddenly appeared!

Soon, the body of the eight-star martial artist at the head of the group reached its limit, and the bullet went from being unable to invade his body, to the bullet being able to invade half of his body, to the entire bullet not entering his body or even completely piercing through his body, the whole process took less than three seconds.

The reason why it was so fast was that this assault rifle, with a rate of fire of 700 rounds per minute, only took less than three seconds to empty its magazine of 30 rounds of ammunition!

So, in less than three seconds, these four experts of the An Family were sieved by the bullets!

Chapter 4398

As the saying goes, a chaotic fist kills a teacher.

Even a martial arts master could not possibly resist in the face of such a density of bullets.

This is why the rules of this world have always been in the hands of guns and missiles, not in the hands of these martial arts masters.

How could a body of flesh and blood resist the saturated attacks of modern weapons!

And Ye Chen, having withdrawn his aura and attention in advance, only instantly realised that something big had happened outside the moment the bullets whizzed past the door of his compartment!

Between lightning and fire, a lot of thoughts went through his mind.

Who was the enemy? Who was the target? Could Grandpa and Grandma's family next door be in danger?!

At this instant, he looked at Xiao Churan, who was still engrossed in watching the opening video, and almost without thinking, he nudged a piece of aura into the back of her head, and Xiao Churan instantly lost all consciousness and collapsed on top of the sofa.

Ye Chen then rolled over and with a huge burst of strength, he instantly rushed from the floor-to-ceiling window of the compartment to the door with a single bound.

The moment he opened the door of the compartment inwards, two bloody corpses collapsed in the doorway!

The power of the special Dum-Dum bullets was so terrifying that when it hit the wrist, it could blow the whole wrist off, when it hit the arm, the whole arm would be torn apart, when it hit the chest cavity, the front was a small hole as big as a small thumb, while the back, was a cavity bigger than a bowl, the original Google meridians as well as the five internal organs had already been blown into pieces, it was unbearable!

The miserable state of the two men made Ye Chen's heart angry.

Sure enough, there was no martial virtue!

People say that killing is just a matter of head, so it's not enough to be unethical in martial arts, but to use such a cruel saturation attack, simply not even leaving the whole body of the opponent!

Since the door of Ye Chen's compartment was open to the inside and there were no lights on inside, the other party's attention was not on Ye Chen's room at this time.

The man at the head of the group walked from a distance while sneering unrestrainedly, "What kind of bullsh*t eight-star martial artist is worse than a dog! Next time I change to 7.62 special armour-piercing ammunition, even a Ming realm Grand Perfection martial arts expert will be f*cking smashed to pieces!"

And at this time, that eight-star martial artist was still keeping his last shred of consciousness even though his body had been beaten into a sieve.

With his last ounce of strength, he reached out and pushed open the compartment where the An family members were, and then he lost consciousness and fell into the room with a crash!

At the last moment before he died, he thought that he had to inform the family head, even if it was just a few seconds in advance, so that he could be prepared.

Otherwise, with the soundproofing in the room, and the professionalism of these brazen bandits, it was likely that the An family would not even know to look back when they died.

The moment he pushed open the door, light instantly flooded in, and the An family members who were immersed in the opening video, realising the light coming from behind, turned their heads, and with this look, everyone was instantly horrified to the core, while several of the women and children had already screamed out in terror!

Just then, the opening video of the fierce planetary battle had also settled, the explosions and roars had disappeared, and the scene was instantly quiet as the woman warrior in the video fled alone towards the wormhole.

At this time, the screams of several of the An family's women seemed extremely piercing.

However, the vip area itself had excellent sound insulation, plus it was not completely quiet outside, so it was impossible for such screams to be heard by the people outside.

An Chongqiu was the quickest to react at this moment, he pulled An Kaifeng violently and shouted out of the blue, "Kaifeng! You stay with me and block the front!"

An Kaifeng didn't even think about it and roared through clenched teeth, "Good! We'll kill both of us first!"

An Qishan then blurted out, "Chongqiu! Don't be impulsive, negotiate the terms! No matter how much money they want, say yes without a second thought! The whole family is here tonight, we can't afford to gamble or lose!"

These words from An Qishan caused the three sons of the An family to have their scalps tingled.

As their father had said, today, the two oldest members of the An family, as well as their four children, were all here.

In addition, there were three daughters-in-law and several grandchildren.

If they don't survive today's crisis, the three generations of the An family, the old, the middle and the young, the old and the middle generations, will be completely dead!

And how can there be a perfect egg under the nest?

If they succeed today, how will the remaining grandchildren, who are lucky enough not to be here, escape their pursuit?

Chapter 4399

At that moment, at the end of the corridor outside the door!

Seeing that all four martial arts masters had died in one shot, the bandit in the lead immediately took off his helmet and shouted excitedly from the corridor, "An Qishan, don't struggle in vain, all of you must die tonight!"

When An Qishan and the others heard this, their faces instantly turned ashen.

It seemed that this was not a kidnapping, not blackmail, but a long-planned murder!

An Qishan instantly burst into old tears, having been a great man all his life, but he never thought that he would suffer the destruction of his family in his later years.

Now, even if the An family had trillions of dollars, what could they do? It would not bring back the lives of their children and grandchildren!

At this moment, the other members of the An family were also completely desperate.

They all realised in an instant that today's situation was certain death!

Four martial arts masters had already been killed, how could a group of ordinary people with no power to tie their hands escape?

At this moment, a group of bandits had already rushed to the door.

The leader of the group took a big step forward and stood in the doorway, looking coldly at the panicked An family in the room and sneering, "Oh, so many people, I'm sorry to say I'm going to have to kill them all!"

After saying that, he lifted his gun, pointing it at An Qishan, and asked with a cold smile, "An Qishan, what are your last words?"

An Qishan stood up and said without any condescension, "I don't know where I have offended you, but if you really have a grudge against me, please spare my family!"

The man sneered and said with utmost contempt, "It's not just you I want to kill, it's every one of you!"

After saying that, he said in a stern voice, "No more nonsense with you, I'll send you on your way now!"

At this moment, a figure suddenly appeared to his right, and immediately afterwards, a cold voice could be heard, "If you want to send them on their way, have you asked me?!"

The one who spoke was none other than Ye Chen!

The man at the head of the group, as well as the soldiers behind him with loaded guns, were all startled by Ye Chen's sudden voice.

They had already known that there were two other unlucky people in the next room, and were planning to go over and finish them off as well after killing the An family members, but unexpectedly, the person in that room had come out of his own accord!

He even dared to say such arrogant words!

It was like playing with a lantern in a sh*thole, looking for death!

The man at the head of the group turned his head to look at Ye Chen, and while he was shocked, he couldn't help but sneer, "Kid, even if you're looking for death, you have to come first! Don't worry, you're behind them in line, I'll send you on your way after I kill them!"

After saying that, he was ready to pull the trigger to shoot all the An family members to death!

At this time, Ye Chen said in a cold voice, "A mere mole, you are still worthy of shouting in front of me, do you really think that with a burning stick in your hand, you are invincible?"

As he said that, a cold light flashed in his hand, and an invisible blade flew out from his hand!

This cold light was Ye Chen's Soul Piercing Blade!

The man at the head of the group did not expect Ye Chen to be so arrogant, but before his anger could be aroused, he suddenly felt a sharp pain in both arms!

Immediately afterwards, the gun in his hands, along with his hands, wrists and half of his arms, fell off at the same time!

When he looked at his arms, they had been severed from above the elbow joints!

The cuts were so neat that it was as if they had been instantly severed by an invisible knife, and blood gushed out from the flat cuts!

His two broken arms were like two sprayers spraying pesticides.

Only, instead of pesticides, what came out of the sprayer was the 36-degree, fresh, warm blood inside him!

Chapter 4400

The intense pain and the two sheets of high pressure blood in front of him terrified the leader to the core!

As soon as he opened his mouth to scream out of unbearable pain, his screams stopped abruptly!

This was because his eyes were shocked to discover that on the other side of his body, six of his men were standing overlapping, each with their left shoulder severed without exception!

What was most horrifying was that not only were the left shoulders of the six men severed, but the firearms in their hands, which were on the same level as the void cut, were also neatly sliced open!

The look on his face was horrified!

The other bandits around him also looked at Ye Chen as if they had seen a ghost, their jaws dropped, confused as to whether he was a man or a ghost!

At this moment, the An family were in the box and saw with their own eyes that the man's arms had been cut off instantly and two pieces of blood sprayed in through the door, everyone was horrified to the core, wondering who this sudden god of killing was.

However, although they were completely stunned by this sudden scene, an uncontrollable excitement welled up deep inside them.

The excitement was because one second they were at the mercy of others and could be shot to death at any moment, and the next second, a mysterious man of great strength suddenly appeared to protect them.

This made them see the light of life in the midst of a desperate situation of death.

At this moment, the man at the head of the group did not care to treat his wounds and looked at Ye Chen with the utmost fear, his voice trembling visibly as he asked, "You ..... are ..... who are you... .."

Ye Chen smiled faintly and said disdainfully, "How wanton, a mere mole that can't even hold a burning stick, how can he be worthy to ask me about my identity?!"

The man's body trembled at Ye Chen's smile and he yelled out, "Shoot him! Kill him!!!"

In his eyes, bullets were the best weapon!

At this time, the front few subconsciously raised their guns and fired at Ye Chen.

While Ye Chen didn't even blink, he said in a cold voice: "More burning sticks are still burning sticks!"

To Ye Chen, without the abundant spiritual energy provided by the Peiyuan Dan, it would have been impossible for him to continuously resist the saturated attacks of more than ten assault rifles.

However, since the Peiyuan Dan had been refined and his body's spiritual energy had improved greatly, his strength was no longer shaken by such ordinary weapons!

Without moving, he turned his aura in front of him, forming an invisible barrier.

Numerous incoming bullets spurted out with powerful kinetic energy, rushing towards Ye Chen at almost the speed of sound!

For a while, the dull sound of the silencer and the sound of the bullet casings being thrown out in the air together formed a wonderful mechanical music.

The gang's magazines were instantly emptied, and the crisp sound of an empty chamber hanging up was heard almost simultaneously.

Just when they thought they had a sure shot, the next thing they knew, everyone on the other side was scared out of their wits!

Because!

They found out!

The bullets they had fired!

It was as if they had been casted with a stasis spell, stopping in front of Ye Chen in an instant!

The sadness of eight-star martial artists was that their true qi, their strength, was not yet able to open up an absolute gap in level with modern firearms.

But!

What an eight-star martial artist could not do, Ye Chen could!

The strength of his aura had long surpa*sed the powerful kinetic energy carried by the bullets!

It was as if an incredibly hard steel armour could never be pierced by a bullet from a plastic toy gun!

The strength of the aura was already in a position of absolute crushing!

The crowd of people almost collapsed, and those with slightly less mental strength already had their legs starting to go weak.

At this time, Ye Chen sneered, "Now it's my turn, right?"

This one sentence caused everyone to instantly fall into a hole of ice!

They had already seen the terrifying strength of Ye Chen, who could cut off seven people and eight arms with a single slash in the void, so how could the people present be his match!

The ones at the end of the line had even turned around and prepared to flee!

However, Ye Chen would not give them a chance!

They had just used a saturation attack in this straight corridor, leaving those four martial arts experts of the An Family nowhere to hide.

After only a few dozen seconds, the wind and water had taken a turn!

Now, they too had experienced the despair of those four martial arts experts!

Ye Chen's expression chilled as he shouted coldly, "Want to run? Can you run away?"
