

Ye Chen 4411

Chapter 4411

Soon, Fei Ke Xin's men, brought up an emotional Chen Duo Duo.

Chen Duoduo was in a very tense and shocked mood, because she didn't know exactly what this gang was doing, and that this gang had taken charge of the entire VIP area directly and silently!

Even her own staff, without exception, had disappeared without a trace, which gave her a few unpleasant feelings in her heart.

However, the moment she saw Ye Chen, her nervousness instantly eased a little and she hurriedly asked, "Mr Ye, what the hell is going on here? Are these people your people?"

Ye Chen glanced at Fei Kexin and said indifferently, "These are the people that Miss Fei brought with her, I hired them to help."

Chen Duo Duo was surprised and asked, "Did something happen?"

Ye Chen didn't answer, but asked her with a bit of caution, "Who are the people who know that the An family is here tonight?"

"No one." Chen Duo Duo spoke, "Other than Qiu Yi and I, no one else knows."

Saying that, she asked nervously, "What's wrong?! What is going on?!"

Ye Chen said in a cold voice, "There was an attack on the An family by bandits just now."

"Attack?!" Chen Duo Duo was dumbstruck and said offhandedly, "When did that happen?"

After saying that, she subconsciously looked around from side to side and said doubtfully, "But Mr. Ye ..... it doesn't look like there was an attack here at all ....."

Ye Chen looked at her and continued to ask: "Duo Duo let me ask you, when did you all know that the An family would come over to watch the concert? After you knew, what did you all do?"

Chen Duoduo was busy saying, "Qiu Yi received a call from the An family's old lady in the morning and knew that they were coming over to watch the show, then she immediately called you, Mr Ye, to confirm, and only after you agreed did we arrange the An family's private room next door to yours."

Ye Chen asked again, "After you and Qiu Yi had confirmed the private room, did you tell anyone else about this?"

"Of course not!" Chen Duo Duo said offhandedly, "Qiu Yi and I also knew that the An family members were extraordinary, so in order to keep it absolutely confidential, the two of us didn't tell any of the staff from beginning to end who was actually coming tonight, not even our most trusted assistants around us!"

Chen Duo Duo added, "Moreover, in order to keep it as confidential as possible, Qiu Yi also pulled out a large portion of the original staff here, because she felt that the An family itself had brought along bodyguards, not to mention that we knew that you, Mr Ye, were right next door, and she felt that since you were there, there was absolutely no need to add too many staff here, as that would also increase the risk of information leaking out. ”

Speaking of this, Chen Duo Duo’s eyes widened and she blurted out, “Mr Ye, you don’t suspect me of leaking the information, do you?!”

Ye Chen looked at her and had already dispelled any doubts he had about Chen Duoduo in his heart.

Not only because Chen Duoduo’s performance, eyes and expression at this moment did not show any element of weakness or lying, but more importantly, Chen Duoduo was aware that he was here.

If Chen Duoduo was the mole or if Chen Duoduo had leaked information, then she could not have only leaked information about her grandparents’ family, she would have told the other party about herself as well, after all, she was the biggest variable here tonight.

So, from this point alone, it was certain that the mole was definitely not Chen Duoduo.

Thinking of this, Ye Chen continued to ask, “If we go by what you said, before the An family came tonight, apart from you and Nui Nui, no one knew which private room they would be placed in, right?”

Chapter 4412

“Right!” Chen Duo Duo said categorically, “We didn’t order anyone else to do this, and I personally took the An family in when they arrived, and I didn’t even let the staff follow them during the process of taking them upstairs, and after they were settled, I also specifically explained to the staff that no one was allowed to go upstairs to disturb the guests in the box without being summoned by them, but of course I can’t absolutely guarantee that no one on our staff must know the identity of the An family after they arrive ……”

Saying that, Chen Duoduo added: “But I think that if you suspect that there is a mole here, it is unlikely that the mole is here, because our staff here, even if they know the movement of the An family members, it is after the An family members have come, and it is only a few minutes after the An family members have come.”

When Ye Chen thought about the signal being blocked, he asked her, “Did any staff come to this floor during the day today? Is there a possibility that they might have brought in some sort of small shielding device?”

Chen Duoduo frowned and said, “During the daytime, our attention was on the scene and backstage, and we didn’t pay too much attention to the VIP area, so I can’t guarantee you this, but we can check the surveillance video of the VIP area.”

Saying that, Chen Duo Duo added: “Like I said earlier, neither Qiu Yi nor I leaked the information, so even if someone came over during the day and installed the shielding equipment, they wouldn’t know which room to install ah, there are a total of two dozen private rooms here, did they install it in every room?”

Ye Chen took his mobile phone and walked into a few compartments near the corridor, and found that within these compartments, the signal was not affected in any way.

In that case, it really didn’t seem like the staff had arranged it in advance either.

Thinking about this, Ye Chen's brow furrowed even tighter.

He felt as if he had entered a dead end.

On the one hand, judging from the objective circumstances, this matter must have been staged by someone to make it possible.

On the other hand, Gu Qiuyi and Chen Duo Duo had a strong sense of secrecy and had not leaked this information from the source, so it was unlikely that there was a problem here.

Moreover, Ye Chen figured out one more thing.

If the other party's aim was to kill the An family, then since they could send in the shielding equipment, they could also send in a small bomb.

If they had sent a small bomb in directly, everything would have been easily solved, so why would they bother to block the signal first and then kill them?

However, judging from An Chongqiu's feedback just now, the shielding device was actually there.

This seemed to be a paradox of sorts everywhere, making every one of his speculations not quite hold up.

Thinking about this, Ye Chen was stuck for a moment.

Just at this moment, something suddenly occurred to him.

In his mind, he thought, "The shielding device, could it have been brought in by a certain member of the Fei family?!"

He had previously felt that if there was a mole in the Fei family, the mole should not be someone who was present, but someone who was not present.

For example, his own sister-in-law, whom he had never met, or other grandchildren who had not been there.

But now, he suddenly had a bad feeling.

When he thought of this, he immediately said to Fei Ke Xin, "Miss Fei, it would be hard for you to arrange for a few of your most trusted people to go to my grandparents' box and check to see where the shielding device is, or who actually has it. of their belongings, and if anyone makes a small move, control them immediately."

Fei Ke Xin was busy saying, "I'll have Yuan Shi keep watch downstairs, he's the most trustworthy person, besides Yuan Shi, there are a few bodyguards he personally trained, they're all very trustworthy."

"Good." Ye Chen nodded and said, "Then let Master Yuan go!"

Chapter 4413

At this moment, the An family, who had survived the robbery, were sitting on the sofa without saying a word, and several of the young grandchildren were in a very depressed state at this moment because they had suffered a considerable amount of excitement.

The adults, on the other hand, were all in a somewhat dishevelled mood.

Just a moment ago, when Fei Kexin's men were cleaning up the scene outside the door, Ye Chen's three uncles, had been dissecting what had happened with the old man, during which the group had even had a heated argument.

They wanted to know which link had gone so significantly wrong that it had nearly brought the entire An family to its knees.

At first, An Kaifeng suspected that Ye Chen's sister-in-law, who was also An Youyou's husband, was the most suspicious.

This was because, tonight, everyone was there, but he was the only one who didn't show up for something.

After all, it was a matter of life and death for the whole family, so An Kaifeng did not avoid An Youyou when discussing the matter.

An Zhaonan has a similar personality to his second brother An Kaifeng, and they usually work together a lot, so he also very decisively expressed his support for his second brother An Kaifeng's speculation, and felt that his brother-in-law was the most suspicious.

However, An Youyou had a different opinion, as she felt that it was unlikely that her husband had done this.

The reason is that her and her husband's only daughter is also here today, and her husband usually treats his daughter with great affection. As the saying goes, tigers do not eat their children, so if he really wanted to make a move against the An family, then at least he would not have let his daughter follow him.

Moreover, she felt that her husband did not have sufficient motive to commit the crime.

If her husband was after money, he was not himself the first, second or even third in line of succession to the An family's assets.

Even if all the An family members died, the vast majority of the An family assets would be inherited by the surviving grandchildren.

And as his own husband, he was merely the legal heir to his own share of the inheritance and would only inherit his own small portion of the An family's interest, so if he did so, he would be doing more of a job for others.

Unless after he killed the An family present today, he then killed the rest of the An grandchildren as well.

However, if he really did that, the US police, as well as the FBI, would never sit idly by and do nothing. After all, with the entire immediate family dead and only one son-in-law left to inherit the family fortune, any fool would know that there must be something wrong here.

Therefore, the husband could not have done such a stupid thing either.

An Chongqiu, as well as the old lady, did not think that An Youyou's husband would do such a thing either.

They were more suspicious that the matter might have been kept secret by Gu Qiuyi's side, and that they had leaked the news and attracted enemies.

Since everyone had their own opinions and they could only stay in this box and could not leave, so Elder An stopped the speculation and discussion and asked them not to argue about this matter until the exact result of the investigation was known.

So, everyone fell into silence.

At this time, Yuan Zixu, with a few of his inner circle, knocked on the door of the box and then pushed the door in.

Seeing Yuan Zixu enter, the An family all immediately looked at him.

Originally, they thought it was their saviour who had arrived, but the Yuan Zixu in the light did not match the figure of the one who had just saved their lives.

At this time, Yuan Zixu looked around the week and took the initiative to ask, "Gentlemen, in view of the seriousness of tonight's matter, so please continue to wait here patiently and leave here after the show, if you have any needs now you can tell me and I will try to help you out."

Senior An Qishan spoke up at this time, "This gentleman, I wonder if I could make a phone call, I want to make sure that a few grandchildren who didn't make it are safe."

Yuan Zixu said seriously, "Sorry old man, we can't let you contact the outside world just yet."

After that, he focused on the crowd and spoke, "In order to ensure everyone's safety, now please hand over all your personal belongings and we will conduct a full security check to check out the safety hazards here."

An Chongqiu asked, "What all do I need to hand over?"

Chapter 4414

"Everything." Yuan Zixu stopped beating around the bush at this point and got straight to the point, saying with a serious face, "Gentlemen, from now on, we need you to hand in all your personal belongings, and please stand to the left for men and to the right for women, with your fingers open on your chest, and we will arrange for someone of the same gender to search you."

Hearing this, Master An frowned and asked, "This gentleman, you suspect that there is a mole among us?"

Yuan Zixu arched his hand and said seriously, "Old sir, I am also under orders, and you all must cooperate! Please forgive me if I have offended you!"

At this point, An Kaifeng said with some dissatisfaction, "This gentleman, aren't you going too far in suspecting us and even searching us for no reason? Don't forget that we are the victims! Besides, you don't look like a police officer, who gave you the right to search us?"

An Kaifeng's personality itself was hard and aggressive, and as the heir of the current generation of the An family, Yuan Zixu's tough attitude caused him some instinctive physical discomfort.

Yuan Zixu did not give him any good looks at this moment, he said coldly, "Sorry, it was the person who saved your lives just now who gave me this right, he said that all of you sitting here must cooperate unconditionally, no one may refuse for any reason!"

As soon as he heard that it was the person who had just saved his life who had ordered him to do so, An Kaifeng's displeasure immediately dissipated.

That scene just now was deeply impressive to him.

He had seen with his own eyes the bandit standing at the doorway, having his arms and legs severed by some unknown weapon across the air, and that moment had given him a huge impact.

Therefore, when Yuan Zixu mentioned his life-saving benefactor, the resistance in An Kaifeng's heart immediately dissipated involuntarily, while he also said with an apologetic face, "Since it is an order from your benefactor, then we will definitely cooperate!"

After saying that, in order to show his sincerity, he took the initiative to take out his mobile phone, watch and other personal belongings and put them on the coffee table in the middle of the two rows of sofas, then he stood up on his left side, with his hands open in front of his chest.

Master An followed closely behind, and while pulling out his own things, he opened his mouth and said to the others, "Since it was ordered by the benefactor, there is naturally an intention, no one should have any doubts, we must cooperate properly!"

With that, all the people also started, pulling out things from their own pockets.

Yuan Zixu followed Ye Chen's instructions, keeping his attention on the movements of each person's hands at all times to ensure that they were not making any other small moves under his nose.

According to Ye Chen's speculation, if the shielding equipment had been brought in by a certain member of the An family, then it was definitely unlikely that he would have had the chance to get rid of it, and the odds were that he would still carry it quietly on his person and find the right opportunity to get rid of it when he was leaving.

So, if one looked carefully enough, one would definitely be able to find out the shielding device.

Moreover, it would be even better if the device could be recovered directly from someone's body, so that the suspect could be directly identified.

When Yuan Zixu saw that everyone had taken out their belongings and then stood to one side, except for one woman who kept her head down and never moved, he said in a stern voice, "This lady, please cooperate by taking out your personal belongings."

The 16 or 17 year old girl next to her hastily reached out and shook her arm and spoke, "Mom, you're the only one left, hurry up."

This woman was Ye Chen's third aunt, third uncle An Zhaonan's wife.

And the girl beside her shaking her arm was An Zhaonan and her eldest daughter, An Xiaoya, who was only sixteen years old.

At this moment, Yuan Zixu's brow suddenly furrowed, as if he had caught something unusual!

Immediately afterwards, Ye Chen's third aunt, under An Xiaoya's shaking, collapsed onto the sofa in one smooth motion.

At this moment, her face was pale to the extreme, white foam was hanging from the corners of her mouth, her eyes were also staring extremely wide, and her body had begun to stiffen, she had already died of gas!

Chapter 4415

The sudden death of Ye Chen's third aunt caught Yuan Zixu, as well as the entire An family, off guard.

Her sixteen-year-old daughter almost collapsed on the spot, hugging her mother's corpse and shaking it repeatedly, breaking down and crying, "Mom ..... what's wrong with you Mom ..... don't scare me... .."

An Zhaonan was also on the verge of collapse, he was just about to go forward to check, but was grabbed by his second brother An Kaifeng.

An Zhaonan looked back at An Kaifeng with a surprised expression and questioned offhandedly, "Second brother, what are you pulling me for? Something's happened to Li Qin!"

An Kaifeng yelled with a black face, "Look at how she died! Remember how that bandit leader took poison and killed himself just now?!"

"Suicide ....." An Zhaonan's expression was horrified beyond belief as he asked offhandedly, "You ..... are saying that... ..Li Qin committed suicide by taking poison?!"

An Kaifeng pointed at the corpse and asked in a cold voice, "Is there any other possibility than suicide?!"

Yuan Zixu immediately rushed forward at this time, picked up Ye Chen's third aunt in his arms, and said to the crowd, "Don't move yet!"

After saying that, he also said to the people he had brought with him, "Keep an eye on them!"

As soon as the words left his mouth, he ran out of the box with the body in his arms, towards where Ye Chen was.

When Ye Chen saw him come out carrying a middle-aged woman who showed no signs of life, his brow furrowed.

Chen Duoduo had seen Ye Chen's third aunt, and although she had never spoken, after all, this was a living person a few minutes ago, and now when Yuan Zixu carried her out, she was already dead, which made her take a few steps back and cover her eyes in fear.

Ye Chen was about to ask a question, Yuan Zixu said with a shameful face: "Mr. Ye, it is my work is not good, just now in the process of searching, all the attention is focused on the hands of each person, afraid that they have any small movements, but did not expect that this woman died of poison ....." "

I don't even know how she actually took the poison ..... I clearly watched everyone's hands and confirmed that her hands hadn't moved ah ..... ”

Ye Chen said with a serious expression, “Mr. Yuan doesn't need to blame himself, it's not your fault.”

With that, he reached out and pinched open the middle-aged woman's mouth, and sure enough, he found broken dentures in her mouth, as well as an empty space with a missing tooth in the upper left of her dental bed.

He then sent a trace of aura into her body and found that the poison had already spread throughout her body, including her brain, through her blood circulation.

So it seemed that this person could not be saved.

Ye Chen could not help but be appalled in his heart.

From the missing teeth in her mouth, to the shattered dentures, it could be seen that this woman had by no means been temporarily bribed, but had long been a member of the bandits, and had even been trained as a dead soldier by the bandits' organisation.

Otherwise, how could she have bitten her dentures and died of poison without hesitation when she was about to be exposed?

This situation made Ye Chen shocked and a little worried at the same time.

Even a family as large as the An Family could be infiltrated by bandits, and not to the level of subordinates, but directly to the extent of direct family members, it was extraordinary!

One must know that the An family members who are here today are only the three daughters-in-law of the An family, apart from the An family's own old, middle and young generations.

In other words, this woman's identity could be one of his three aunts and uncles, or possibly his own sister-in-law.

However, Ye Chen remembered that he had only met his first and second aunts when he was a child, and had not met his third aunt, while he had not seen his sister-in-law for many years as well, and could not confirm who this woman really was.

Thinking of this, Ye Chen then asked, “Mr. Yuan, have you paid attention to the An family's reaction and can you deduce who this person is?”

Yuan Zixu thought for a moment and hurriedly said, “There was a man, I think it was her husband, that man called one of the other men second brother, I heard him talk about this woman's name, it seemed to be Li Qin.”

Chapter 4416

When Ye Chen heard this, he immediately surmised that this person should be his third aunt.

After all, the only person who could be called second brother was his own second uncle, An Kaifeng.

And the only people who could call him second brother were third uncle An Zhaonan as well as his sister-in-law An Youyou.

Ye Chen's greatest fear was that if this woman was his own sister-in-law An Youyou, it would mean that the An family's own people had been infiltrated, a situation that was really unacceptable from either side.

Therefore, when he heard that it was Third Aunt, he was slightly relieved in his heart.

However, it was only a slight relief.

Third Aunt had been married to Third Uncle An Zhaonan for at least ten years, so why on earth would the pillowtop take the form of a dead man?

If she had been brainwashed in the middle of the process, one would have to wonder at the strength of that mysterious organisation, which was able to train the daughter-in-law of a top-notch, well-bred family to become a deadly warrior, a brainwashing ability of the highest order.

If she was a member of the mysterious organization and had been buried undercover by the mysterious organization in advance, then the strength and strategy of the mysterious organization would be even more terrifying!

To be able to train a dead soldier to willingly marry into the An family, to share a bed with third uncle An Zhaonan for more than ten years, and to raise a child together, this kind of layout ability is simply outrageous!

Moreover, this organisation, even allowing this woman to sacrifice her husband and daughter, and even her own life, this kind of control also sends chills down the spine!

If that's the case, then this mysterious organisation must be incredibly powerful!

And today's attack was only the tip of the iceberg for that mysterious organisation!

Thinking of this, Ye Chen's head was already growing bigger and bigger.

He felt that he could no longer leave Grandpa's family here and had to get them to return to their safety first as soon as possible.

At the same time, they should also be told to hurry up and start a thorough investigation from the background of Third Aunt's identity and family background.

Although Ye Chen did not know who Third Aunt's surname was or what family she was from, he could be sure of one thing: Third Aunt's identity and background would never be that of an ordinary family, otherwise it would not have been possible for her to be married into the An family.

Moreover, before Third Aunt married into the An family, the An family would certainly conduct a close background investigation on her and her family, if the other party could hide so much that even the An family could not investigate, then the ability in this was indeed not small, digging deep into her family background, they would definitely find clues!

Thinking of this, Ye Chen said to Fei Kexin, "Miss Fei, it would be hard for you and Mr. Yuan to communicate with my grandfather's family, so that they can immediately gather people to cover their departure, and then it would also be hard for you and Mr. Yuan to escort them all the way until they arrive safely."

Without thinking, Fei Ke Xin said, "Yes, Mr. Ye, I'll make the arrangements then!"

After saying that, Fei Ke Xin remembered something and hurriedly asked, "Mr. Ye, I just returned to New York, and the news about the Fei family has been widely publicized.

Ye Chen said, "Just say that you were also entrusted by someone, if they repeatedly ask, you can say that you are also returning a favor and do not know the other party's true identity."

Fei Ke Xin nodded: "I understand Mr. Ye! The An family must know that my grandfather and I were being hunted in China but suddenly returned to the Fei family a few days ago, I will just tell them straight out that you are the benefactor who saved my grandfather and I in China, as for your real identity, I will say that I don't know it either like them, this way they should be more likely to believe it!"

Chapter 4418

When Ye Chen returned to the box, outside the floor-to-ceiling window, Gu Qiuyi's performance was still going on, while on the sofa beside him, Xiao Churan was also sound asleep.

Instead of rushing to wake Xiao Churan, Ye Chen gently helped her up and let her lean on his shoulder, then sat motionlessly on the sofa, watching Gu Qiuyi on the stage while using his aura to sense the situation in the next room.

At this moment, the An family's emotions had reached a low point.

Every one of them was extremely sad and dejected.

The one who was the most devastated was Ye Chen's third uncle, An Zhaonan.

He couldn't understand how his wife, who was married to him, could become one of the bandits.

His world view on affection and love had mostly collapsed at this moment.

His daughter, on the other hand, was still immersed in the emotions of her mother's death and could not extricate herself from it. Luckily, her sister-in-law, An Yo Yo, held her in her arms and kept comforting her.

An Kaifeng, who was the most similar to the old man, was shaking violently with his fists clenched and his body trembling.

After a long silence, he opened his mouth and said to the crowd, "I just thought carefully, tonight should be the first time in these ten or twenty years that our whole family has gathered so completely outside the An family, except for Zidong who didn't come, almost everyone else is here ....."

The old man nodded gently and sighed, "Even when we came here, we took two planes, just in case something happened to the whole family together, this time we were really too careless ....."

The old lady was in tears as she blamed herself, "It's all my fault ..... I was the one who suggested coming to support Nui Nui, after all, she has been kind to our An family ....."

An Chongqiu said, "Mom, how can I blame you? I'm sure we'll learn from our mistakes and take safety to the highest level."

The old man took the old lady's hand and said seriously, "Chongqiu is right, you are not to blame for this incident, it is me and your three sons who are to blame for not thinking these things through."

An Kaifeng spoke up at this time, "Dad, mum, big brother, you didn't get the point of what I just said ....."

Everyone couldn't help but look at An Kaifeng.

An Kaifeng continued, "It is true that we were paralyzed and careless this time, but this is only one of the points, what is more important is that our family has only been paralyzed this one time in the past ten to twenty years before the other side caught the opportunity, what does this prove? It proves that the other party did not happen to meet our negligence, on the contrary, it proves that the other party has probably been thinking of how to put us to death in one step for the past ten or twenty years!"

They all knew what An Kaifeng's words meant.

At this time, An Kaifeng added, "Let me say something, Zhaonan, don't bring your personal emotions after listening. And it is a conspiracy against the entire An family, a conspiracy that has been planned for a very long time, hidden very deeply, and with a very heavy heart to kill, a huge conspiracy!"

At this point, An Kaifeng gave a slight pause and said with a cold expression, "I have a feeling that maybe this matter is somehow related to what happened to my sister back then!"

Chapter 4419

An Kaifeng's words struck Ye Chen as a whole.

Ye Chen had always wanted to find out the truth about his parents' murder, but he had not been able to find any concrete clues until now.

When he heard An Kaifeng mention his mother, he immediately got up his spirits and waited for the An family to follow up, while also expecting them to reveal some insider information.

However, Elder An's next words poured a pot of cold water over Ye Chen's head.

He said in a serious tone, "The matter of your sister and your brother-in-law's murder has not yet led to any clues, back then I once thought it was the Rothschild family's work, but after so long, no evidence was found that the Rothschild family had a direct relationship with this matter. Why don't they stop? Your sister and your brother-in-law, how on earth did they offend them back then that they could make them still go out of their way to finish off our whole family after such a long time?"

The crowd immediately fell into silence.

As for Ye Chen, his entire body was struck by lightning.

For a while, he thought that the Rothschild family must have been involved in the death of his parents.

During this period of time, he had been desperately trying to accumulate energy and improve his overall strength, just to prepare for the day when he would face the Rothschild family.

However, from what Grandpa said, it seemed that this matter was not obviously related to the Rothschild family either.

This instantly put Ye Chen in a quandary again.

He really could not imagine that apart from a super family as rich as the Rothschilds, what other family could be so powerful that they would not even put the An family in their sights.

Although the Saudi royal family was also very wealthy, the characteristics of that group of Middle Eastern tycoons were also very obvious; they were simply not willing to get involved in matters outside their homeland.

They have never had any ambitions to expand in their lives, instead they want to do everything they can to ensure that their family's fortunes are secure.

It was as if they had purchased dozens of cannonballs from China 20 or 30 years ago at great expense, not for foreign expansion, but to enhance their self-defence and deterrence.

To put it bluntly, this is a foolish son of a landlord's family, guarding a large pile of family wealth, desperately trying to build his own walls higher and stronger, and he is doing so for one purpose only: if I don't get out, none of you will come in.

So, Ye Chen could also conclude that the death of his parents had nothing to do with the Saudi royal family.

But then, the whole thing started to confuse again.

If it wasn't the Saudi royal family, and the Rothschilds didn't seem to have anything to do with it, then who the hell could it be!

Just as Ye Chen was having a headache, Fei Ke Xin led Yuan Zixu, arrived outside the door of the box where the An family was, and knocked gently on the door.

When the old man heard the knock, he hurriedly spoke, "Please come in!"

As soon as the words left his mouth, Fei Ke Xin pushed the door open and entered.

The moment they saw Fei Kexin, each and every one of the An family members was even more astonished.

They all knew Fei Ke Xin, and before today's incident, they were still discussing Fei Ke Xin's return to the Fei family and miraculously becoming the new head of the Fei family.

Moreover, they were all very appreciative of Fei Ke Xin's textbook crisis communication.

Therefore, as soon as Fei Kexin entered the door, they instantly recognised her.

Chapter 4420

After entering, Fei Kexin said to the old man very politely, “Old Mr. An, I am Fei Kexin of the Fei family, and I have been entrusted by my benefactor to come over to help this time, and my benefactor said that you can first call your men to contact them to come over for support, and after determining an absolutely safe place, I will arrange for men to escort them all the way.”

An Kai Feng was surprised and asked, “Miss Fei, who exactly is the benefactor you are talking about? Is it the benefactor who saved us just now?!”

Fei Ke Xin nodded and said, “That’s right, it’s him.”

Saying that, Fei Ke Xin added, “The benefactor asked me to come over to help deal with the scene, so I brought my men over urgently, and now that the outside has all been dealt with, you all can prepare to leave as well.”

Master An said in a very polite tone, “Little girl, may I dare to ask, this benefactor, who is he? He is the life-saving benefactor of more than ten members of our An family, and we would like to find an opportunity to properly repay this kindness!”

When my grandfather and I were in China, my eldest uncle took advantage of the opportunity to take away the family headship and paid a lot of money for my life and my grandfather’s. He saved us and kept us under close protection. ....”

He asked me to convey to you that he doesn’t like to be noticed in his life, so he is warning you not to try to investigate his identity, or else you will suffer the consequences!

When Elder An heard this, his expression was instantly extraordinarily disappointed.

He couldn’t help but say, “Your Grace saved our family’s lives and helped us find the traitor lurking in the family, for such a great kindness, at least give us a chance to pay our respects and repay our kindness in person .....

The fact that you and your grandfather and I are also indebted to him is why I am here today, so if you really want to repay your kindness, you will have the opportunity to do so in the future.”

Master An nodded gently and said, “Thank you, Miss Fei, I understand.

Fei Kexin then said, “Yes, I will definitely convey your words to His Excellency.”

After saying that, she took out her mobile phone and handed it to Master An, saying, “There is no signal in the room, so please move to the door and call the An family’s bodyguard team.”

As soon as Fei KeXin’s words fell, a pink mobile phone lit up among the pile of An family’s belongings on the coffee table, as if it had received a push.

Seeing this, An Kaifeng hurriedly picked up his own phone and, after unlocking it, exclaimed, “There’s a signal on the phone! What’s going on here?!”

Elder An’s brows knitted slightly as he said in a cold voice, “We haven’t touched anything here, so I guess the shielding device was on Li Qin all along, and after she went out, the signal was restored.”

An Kai Feng subconsciously exclaimed, “..... Fortunately, she brought only the shielding device, if it was a bomb, then the consequences would be unthinkable .....”

An Youyou spoke up, “Second brother, if third sister-in-law had a bomb on her, it would be very difficult to get through airport security.”

An Kai Feng smiled to himself, “That’s true .....”

After saying that, he then said to the old man, “Dad, I’ll call and arrange for someone to come over, let’s hurry back to Los Angeles!”

Master An shook his head and said, “Don’t go back to Los Angeles, go back to Anbang Mansion!”

“An Bang Mansion?!” An Kaifeng asked with a surprised look on his face, “Dad, we’re going to Anbang Mansion with the whole family? The security level there isn’t enough either!”

The old man said categorically, “Thanks to your sister, it’s the safest place!”
