

Ye Chen 4441

Chapter 4441

Before Ma Lan could react, Qian Hongyan on the side had already exploded.

She blurted out, "I remember that your shop never offers discounts, so how come it is more than 80,000 yuan cheaper all of a sudden!"

The saleswoman said with a smile, "You are right, Madam, we really never have discounts in our shop, today is the only time we have a special offer, and only today!"

Ma Lan was also impressed.

A brand that never goes on sale is 80,000 cheaper straight away, that's a great bargain!

As the saying goes, if you have a bargain, you don't take advantage of it.

If she didn't buy this necklace, she would wake up at night with a loss.

So, she quietly opened her phone and glanced at her account balance in the bank app and there was still 362,000 left in her account.

In the past few days when Ye Chen and Xiao Churan had been gone, she had not only charged her 80,000 yuan super VIP membership card at the beauty salon, she had also taken Qian Hongyan to several big meals and bought herself some new clothes, so she had spent her money very quickly indeed.

Now even if you take out all the money, you are still short of 38,000 yuan, what's more, you can't spend it all, you still have to live for the next half month!

If I were to spend all the money, wouldn't I have to eat dirt for the rest of my life?

The Rolls-Royce wouldn't even be able to afford to fill up with fuel by then, so I couldn't really sell the four wheels, could I?

Ma Lan was in a dilemma.

The saleswoman, who was like a human being, saw that her expression was somewhat torn, so she asked very politely and tentatively, "Madam, is it not convenient for you financially right now?"

After saying that, she was afraid that Ma Lan was not happy, she also hurriedly gave a supplementary sentence: "I know many successful people like you do not put too much cash in their bank cards, and many successful people like you usually put their money in their wealth management, and only leave a small portion of their money as daily flow."

When Ma Lan heard this, she was relieved, wasn't this the best stepping stone? So she hurriedly said, "Yes, yes, yes! I usually put my money in my wealth management too, the bank card balance only has some pocket money in it, and to be honest, my pocket money is not really enough for 400,000."

The female guide nodded and said seriously, "Like the wealth management you purchased, even with the fastest redemption time, I guess it will take tomorrow to arrive at the account, right?"

“Yes, yes, yes!” Ma Lan sighed and said with a grumbling face, “Let me tell you, these banks are particularly unpleasant, when you buy their wealth management, they take your money away in a second, and when you redeem your money from the wealth management first, they usually take the 2nd day to arrive, and if there are holidays and weekends, you still have to wait until they finish their holidays to arrive.”

In fact, Ma Lan has not bought a single penny of wealth management now.

But in the earliest days, when she was in control of the family’s finances, she did buy some wealth management.

In the beginning, she also bought wealth management in the bank, but later on, the interest rate of bank wealth management was too low, so she ran to buy PtoP, and finally the platform burst into flames, or Ye Chen helped to get the money back.

Seeing that Ma Lan was taking advantage of the situation, the shop assistant smiled and asked, “Madam, how much pocket money do you have in your balance now?”

Ma Lan pretended to pick up her mobile phone and said with a smile, “Let me take a look, I don’t know exactly how much money.”

After saying that, she opened the bank app and gave the female guide a glance at the balance page, saying helplessly, “Oh, it’s really unfortunate, I only have 362,000 left in this pocket money

The shop assistant nodded and said seriously, “It doesn’t matter lady, we have a hidden activity today, while there are no other customers in the shop, I will only tell you the details of this activity.”

Ma Lan was busy asking, “There’s an event? What is it? Can I get another bargain?”

The saleswoman explained, “Well, we have a quota for high-end customers, and if you get this high-end customer, you can get a discount of about 40,000 yuan, so you can buy this necklace for only 360,000 yuan, and on top of that, you can enjoy an additional cashback!”

Ma Lan was surprised and asked, “What kind of rebate?”

Chapter 4442

The saleswoman said, “20% cashback, you bought the necklace for 360,000, after the transaction, we will return 20% to you, which is 72,000.”

“My mother

Ma Lan blurted out, “Does that mean that I can buy this necklace for less than three hundred thousand dollars after participating in various activities?”

“Yes!” The saleswoman took her calculator and said, “The actual arrival price is only $288,000, a full $200,000 cheaper!”

Ma Lan went crazy with joy.

Just as Marashi was excited, the shop a*sistant said, "By the way, after you make your purchase, you can come to the shop around 1:00 or 2:00 in the afternoon to participate in the lucky draw, which is free of charge, with the highest prize worth 1.2 million."

"Holy sh*t!" Ma Lan exclaimed, "What a prize, it's worth a million and two hundred thousand!"

The shop a*sistant laughed, "I don't know exactly what the prize is, to be honest, I'll have to find out when you come."

Ma Lan thought to herself, "To get a bargain of 200,000 yuan for nothing, and to have the chance to draw a grand prize of 1.2 million yuan, this is like a money bag falling from the sky What kind of luck am I having today?"

She thought of this, and almost without thinking, she said, "Yes! I'll buy it! I'll take it now!"

After saying that, she immediately took her bank card out from her Hermes.

Qian Hongyan was on the verge of tears of envy, thinking to herself, "What kind of dog luck is this b*tch Ma Lan! I'm so poor every day, I've never even picked up a dollar dime!"

At this time, when the shop a*sistant saw that Ma Lan had taken out her bank card, she immediately nodded and said with a smile, "Then I will swipe your 360,000 yuan!"

After saying that, she entered the amount on the POS machine, swiped Ma Lan's bank card on the POS machine, and handed it to Ma Lan, "Madam, please enter your pa*sword."

Ma Lan still retained the last of her composure, she knew that after this money was swiped out, she would have just over 2,000 left on her card.

So she hurriedly asked, "Girl, is it true what you said about the cashback?"

"Of course." The shop a*sistant nodded and said, "You can swipe your card first, and I will apply for cashback for you afterwards."

If the 72,000 returned, she would still have 74,000 left to spend, so if she saved it, she would definitely have enough to spend until her daughter and son-in-law returned.

As Ma Lan entered her pa*sword, a transaction voucher was printed out automatically.

The saleswoman handed the voucher to Ma Lan for her signature and then smiled, "Congratulations, ma'am, this necklace is yours, I'll wrap it up for you."

Ma Lan was also delighted and nodded while asking, "Hey right girl, this cashback of yours, when will it arrive?"

The saleswoman was busy saying, "Yes ma'am, the cashback is operated by the finance of our headquarters in China, I need to send your transaction voucher, and the money will be credited to this card you paid after the vetting is completed there."

"Ah?!" Ma Lan was shocked and asked out of the blue, "So how long will it take to arrive?!"

The shop assistant said, "Under normal circumstances, it should be five to seven working days, after all, logistics also need time."

Ma Lan immediately anxious, subconsciously said: "Oh why didn't you say so I thought the cashback would arrive immediately"

The female guide hurriedly said, "Madam, if you are really in a hurry, you can redeem some from the finance first, because this cashback of ours does take time, I am really sorry! However, I'm sure for a high-end customer like you, it's impossible to use this 70,000 or so dollars in a hurry, right?"

Chapter 4443

When Ma Lan heard this, she was a bit tearless.

But in order to maintain her status as a noblewoman, she could only break her teeth and swallow them in her stomach.

After all, she thought in her heart, "I can't have a big fight with this sale over the arrival time of this 70,000 yuan, after all, doing sales is quite good to me, giving me so many discounts"

"What's more, they didn't say that the 70,000 yuan won't be paid, they just want to go through the process normally, how can I get into a fight with them because of this? In case people come to a sentence that forget it, money back to you, this is not a waste of time?"

Thinking of this, Ma Lan could not help but sigh in his heart: "The main thing is that I only have this 2,000 yuan left in my card now. 2,000 yuan, enough to spend for a few days"

Thinking of the idea, Ma Lan did not continue to talk about this issue, but pretended to laugh at the salesman casually: "It's okay, it's okay! I'll go back and redeem a little pocket money first."

The salesman nodded and said, "Then don't forget to come to the shop around one o'clock or two for the lucky draw."

"OK!" Ma Lan said with a smile, "Try to take your grand prize then!"

The salesman smiled, "I'm sure you'll have no problem!"

Ma Lan nodded, put away her necklace and said to Qian Hongyan, "Hongyan, let's go."

Qian Hongyan was so envious that she answered absentmindedly and followed Ma Lan out of the shop.

Once outside, Qian Hongyan couldn't help but say, "Sister Lan your luck is really too good, such a good thing for you to catch, there is really no one this is a bargain of a full 200,000 ah! "

Ma Lan was also happy and said with a smile, "To tell you the truth, ever since I cleared the line with Xiao's family, I feel that this luck of mine is getting better and better."

Qian Hongyan sighed, "When will I be able to draw a clear line with this family, especially that dead old lady, I'm sick of seeing her every day!"

Ma Lan said smilingly, "What do you care about her, she doesn't have many years left to live anyway."

Qian Hongyan nodded and remembered something and asked Ma Lan, "Sister Lan, you said you would buy me a Chow Tai Fook, why don't we go and have a look?"

Ma Lan said with an embarrassed expression, "What are you looking at? I only have 2,000 in my card, how can I look at it? I can't even afford to buy it."

Qian Hongyan was depressed and said, "So why don't you redeem some of your wealth now and come back tomorrow to buy it?"

"Redemption? What the hell, " Ma Lan did not pretend to be a p*ssy in front of Qian Hongyan, and said, "You know my situation, the money was given by Ye Chen, Ye Chen left me 500,000 before he left, and now there are only 2,000 left."

"Huh?" Qian Hongyan exclaimed, "Half a million is all spent?!"

Ma Lan shrugged, "Yes, it's all spent, we're just waiting for their cashback to arrive."

Qian Hongyan had no choice but to nod her head and say, "Then we can only hope that they will arrive soon"

After saying that, she cautiously said, "That, Sister Lan when the money arrives, you must not forget what you promised me"

Ma Lan nodded and said briskly, "Since I promised you, I will definitely not go back on my word."

"That's good." Qian Hongyan breathed a sigh of relief and said to her, "Sister Arashi, the harbour city building is full of delicious food, don't you have to go to the shop this afternoon for the lottery, so let's go up and find a place to have lunch?"

Ma Lan waved her hand and said with a sad face, "If we eat up here, a casual meal for two people will cost more than a thousand, and with the money I have left, I guess it will take me more than a week."

Ma Lan said, "Let's go back to Tangchen Yipin, order outside, order two ramen noodles, and come back after dinner to draw the lottery."

Qian Hongyan said, "There's no need to go back, I know a good Lanzhou Ramen restaurant around here, it's only 15 yuan for one person, let's go there and deal with it."

Ma Lan bristled, "You want me to drive a Rolls Royce to eat Lanzhou cuisine? I can't afford that!"

Qian Hongyan said helplessly, "Fine then, let's go back to Tangchen Yipin"

The two of them drove back to Tangchen Yipin. After ordering the meal, Ma Lan couldn't wait to put on her new necklace, and brought a small dressing mirror and kept taking pictures of herself sitting in the restaurant, which cost over a million dollars, and ate a bowl of ramen for one person.

After the meal, Marashi kept thinking about the raffle.

She didn't expect to win any 1.2 million dollar jackpot, as long as she could slightly win something, it would be all for nothing to her.

After eating, Ma Lan and Qian Hongyan returned to Harbour City again.

Chapter 4444

At this time, the shop manager of the jewellery shop had already received the raffle tickets that Song Wanting had had sent over.

The raffle tickets were made by the printer on an ad hoc basis this morning, and still had a strong smell of ink.

When Ma Lan walked into the shop with Qian Hongyan, the salesperson from the morning rushed to welcome her and said with a smile, "Madam, you are here! Please move to our shop manager's office!"

Saying that, she deliberately lowered her voice and said to Ma Lan, "Madam, our lucky draw today is limited to high-end customers like you, ordinary customers in the shop are not entitled to it, so let's keep a low profile and not let them know."

Ma Lan understood.

She just liked the feeling of being different.

So she immediately winked at Qian Hongyan and the two of them followed the salesperson to the shop manager's office at the back.

The shop manager had been waiting here for a long time and when he saw Ma Lan enter, he said smilingly, "Hello, madam! I am the shop manager of this shop, you can call me Zhang!"

Ma Lan nodded her head and asked curiously, "Shopkeeper Zhang, what is the lottery for when you ask me to come here?"

The shop manager smiled, "Madam, let me tell you in general, our lucky draw is only for high-end VIP customers, the prizes are worth a minimum of 100,000 and a maximum of 1.2 million, and the winning rate is very high."

"Ooh!" Ma Lan was instantly energised and said, "The worst prize is worth 100,000? You guys are too generous with your money!"

"Yes." The shop manager said with a smile, "This is our group's activity, mainly to give back to our VIP customers."

Ma Lan was busy asking, "Can you reveal what the prizes are? Especially the first prize, which is worth 1.2 million, what exactly is it?"

The shop manager smiled, "The first prize is our mystery prize, only you can find out what it is by scratching the ticket."

Saying that, he said somewhat apologetically, "By the way ma'am, I have to apologise for one thing, our head office has sent out a notice today, because we have to do a financial audit recently, so the payment will be a little bit slower, and you may have to wait for about 20 days or so for that cashback."

"What?!" When Ma Lan heard this, her eyes went black.

If she had to wait for a week for more than 2,000 yuan, she could grit her teeth and hold on.

But to make her last for more than 20 days, that was no different from hell to her.

She had just filled up a tank of petrol for her Rolls Royce yesterday, and it cost more than a thousand dollars to fill up the highest standard of 98 petrol.

The shopkeeper said casually at this time, "But I believe that for a top class person like you, this amount of money should not be in a hurry, and I heard Xiao Liu say that you have already redeemed part of your wealth management seat pocket money, right?"

Ma Lan at this time is dumb, can not say bitter, can only helplessly nod and said, "Ah yes yes"

The shop manager nodded and hurriedly moved a raffle box from under his desk and said to Ma Lan, "Madam, you'd better draw first!"

Ma Lan sighed and rubbed her hands together and said, "Come on, let's try to draw a first prize to see what's so good that it can be worth one million two hundred thousand dollars!"

As he said that, Ma Lan reached out and selected a lottery ticket from inside and took it out.

The shopkeeper hastily put the raffle box back and then said to Ma Lan, "Madam, you can scratch it open and have a look!"

When she saw the words "First Prize" in front of her eyes, she was overjoyed and exclaimed, "Oh my God, it's the first prize! Hahahaha, what a first prize! My goodness! My luck is too good! I'm not dreaming!"

Chapter 4445

When she saw the words First Prize, Ma Lan's heart still surged up.

When Qian Hongyan behind her heard what she said, she hurriedly came forward and lowered her head to look.

At this moment, Qian Hongyan's heart was killing her.

"Drawing the first prize as soon as you reach out, is this still a f*cking human being?"

"Seeing this stinking b*tch, Ma Lan, win a million and two, is really worse than losing a million and two myself!"

Ma Lan was already overjoyed by this time, and she hurriedly asked the shopkeeper, "What exactly is the prize for the first prize?"

The shopkeeper said, "Go ahead and scratch the prize, it's written underneath, but you'll have to scratch it to find out."

Ma Lan mumbled, "It better be a million and two hundred thousand dollars in gold bars, I'll sell it on the other hand!"

After saying that, she couldn't help but mutter, "Or a one and a half million dollar car would be fine, the discount rate is still quite high when a new car changes hands"

As a line of words was scratched out, she eyed the line and her whole body was dumbfounded.

One word popped out of her mouth, "Congratulations happy you won... ..got bay streamG six five zero private people... ..fly machine"

Seeing this, Marlane's eyes widened and she blurted out, "OMG! It says I've won a private jet! A private jet! My goodness, I haven't even driven this Rolls Royce yet, and I was given a private jet"

The shop manager said awkwardly, "Madam, if you scratch further back, there should be another line underneath"

Speaking of which, Ma Lan subconsciously read it out coherently, "Congratulations on your Gulfstream G650 private jet, premium charter to the United States once What does this mean?"

The shop manager was busy explaining, "Oops! Congratulations ma'am, you can get a free flight to the US on a Gulfstream G650 private jet!"

"What the hell is this? What kind of prize is this" said Ma Lan, tearless, "Besides, what kind of plane is this? The price for a flight to the US is a million and two? How much can I pay for a ticket?"

The shop manager said, "Madam, you must know that business jets are always very expensive, especially the Gulfstream G650, which is one of the best business jets on the market today.

Ma Lan threw the winning ticket in front of him and hurriedly said, "I don't want to go to America, why don't you give me a discount, I don't want more, just give me a discount of one million."

The shop manager said seriously, "Madam, this matter is not up to me."

With that, he turned the winning ticket over and pointed to the note on the back, saying, "Look, it's already written here that all prizes are non-cashable and non-transferable."

Ma Lan, anxious and sweating, blurted out, "But what am I going to do in America! It's a $1.2 million charter flight! What a waste of a big plane with just me on it!"

The shop manager said, "Madam, this is a free benefit anyway, so if you don't want it, just give it up."

Then, remembering something, he added, "Oh yes, I'll take my mobile phone and record a video for you later, you just have to personally say to the camera that you give up this right to redeem the prize, and I'll be able to deliver on my side."

He then reminded again, "And ah lady, your cashback amount, I will tell you when our finance can pay."

He made Marashi realise that she had run out of money!

"Right now, I only have a measly two thousand dollars left in my hand, if I want to use this amount of money to live through the majority of the rest of the month, then I can only scrimp and save and buy food to cook at home every day, or eat cheap takeaways at home"

"Other than that, I'm afraid I wouldn't be able to afford that fuel even if I just drove my Rolls-Royce out for a leisurely drive every day"

Chapter 4446

"In contrast, if I go to America at this time, I can totally join my daughter and son-in-law ah! I'll be able to follow Ye Chen once I get to the US and eat and drink spicy food, and have a good time in the US, isn't that much better than eating chaff in Townsend?"

"Moreover, when I get to America, I can completely excuse that I don't have any dollars on me and not spend a single penny, so that it won't reveal the fact that I've spent all my money!"

Thinking of this, Ma Lan's expression instantly turned cloudy and rainy.

She hurriedly asked, "This plane flies to America, is it possible to fly anywhere?"

"Yes!" The shopkeeper said seriously, "You can specify any civilian airport in the US as long as it is, in which case you can fly there directly."

If you are going to a smaller city, you will have to change planes again, and then you will have to toss and turn two or three times. But if you take a private jet, all you have to do is eat, sleep and play, and when you've had enough, you can go straight to your destination."

When Ma Lan heard this, she said, "Good, good! That's great! Then arrange for me to go to that what's the name of a city in the United States, I forgot it in my hurry."

The shop manager asked tentatively, "Is it Providence?"

Marashi brightened up, "That's right that's right! That's the place! Is there an airport there?"

The shopkeeper thought for a moment and said, "I think so, the civil aviation industry is more developed in the United States, and there seems to be an airport in every city."

Ma Lan slapped the table and said, "Yes! Let's go here! When can we leave?"

"Anytime." The shopkeeper said with a smile, "If you have a US visa, you can leave today, if you don't, we have a fast track to help you apply, the earliest you can apply is tomorrow, and you can leave tomorrow night."

Without thinking, Ma Lan said, "Good! Tomorrow then!"

After that, she said with an overjoyed expression, "My daughter and son-in-law are there, and when they were videoed earlier, they said they had gotten a presidential suite at the best hotel in the area for permanent stay, and that guy, it's really too grand! I heard that there are several bedrooms alone, so I'm going to go over there to have fun with them for a few days!"

Qian Hongyan, who was envious, couldn't help but ask, "Sister Lan, the plane is chartered anyway, so you're flying alone or two, why don't you bring me along, so I can be your companion? There are so many rooms, it's just as well to leave them empty, so I can share one with you. It's not fun for you to go away alone, so I can take care of you and keep you company."

If she went to the US and joined Ye Chen and Xiao Churan, she would definitely be at the bottom of the family hierarchy and there would be no one around to kiss her a*s all the time.

If she took Qian Hongyan with her, it would be different. She would be like a nanny in front of her all day long, so she could take her with her and use her as a servant.

Thinking of this, she immediately said to the shopkeeper, "Can you get a visa for my sister, so that we can go to America together?"

Without thinking, the shopkeeper said, "Sorry, ma'am, that's not possible, we only offer single-person flights and visas."

Ma Lan said unhappily, "What's wrong with you guys? I just took a taxi and wanted to pick up a friend on the way the driver wouldn't dare refuse."

The shop manager laughed, "The driver takes your money, of course he has to follow your command, we are the prize, all the interpretation rights belong to our company, so if you want to cash in this prize, you have to follow our company's rules, otherwise it will only be considered that you automatically give up."

Hearing this, Ma Lan immediately threw Qian Hongyan to the clouds and spoke without hesitation, "Fine! I'll go by myself then!"

Chapter 4447

Regarding the matter of going to America, although Ma Lan had already decided in her own mind, she did not know how to talk to Ye Chen and Xiao Churan for a while.

Of course, she did not dare to say that she had already spent all her money and now had no money to live on, and that she had won a big prize of a free flight to America, so she flew over to join her daughter and son-in-law.

So, she made up her mind to first approach her daughter Xiao Churan to sell her misery.

However, as it was already 2am in the United States, Ma Lan hesitated for a moment and decided to wait until the evening in China and the morning in the United States to talk to Xiao Churan by video.

At the same time, Ye Chen, who was in the United States, made sure that Xiao Churan was asleep and then sent some aura into Xiao Churan's brain to ensure that she could sleep more soundly before getting up and dressing and leaving the Buckingham Palace Hotel.

He had to go and meet the man whose arms and legs he had cut off.

To find out what the other man really was.

Wan Bajun was sitting alone in the driver's seat, and when he saw Ye Chen coming out, he was ready to push the door and get out to open the door for Ye Chen.

Ye Chen waved his hand at him, accelerated himself by two steps, pulled open the passenger door and got in directly.

As soon as he got into the car, Ye Chen asked, "How is the situation with that guy?"

Wan Bajun respectfully replied, "Back to Mr. Ye, that man has been safely controlled, with special people keeping an eye on him at all times, and to ensure absolute safety, I had all his teeth pulled out, he has no arms or legs, so it's impossible for him to commit suicide."

"Good." Ye Chen nodded in satisfaction and asked again, "Did you find anything when you disposed of those bandits' bodies?"

"Yes." Wan Bajun said, "We have probably checked it out and there are a few points to report to you."

First of all, their weapons and equipment were very advanced, and the cost of their individual equipment was several times more expensive than that of the American Special Forces. The amount of gunpowder in the bullets has been specially increased, raising the power of the bullets to another level."

"With a bullet of this power, it's already remarkable that an eight-star martial artist can carry dozens of rounds, a normal person, even one at the level of boxing champion Tyson or Boulder Johnson, would definitely be killed in one shot."

Speaking of this, Wan Bajun continued, "Secondly, although these people are not martial artists, they seem to have been physically enhanced in some way, other than that, their physical strength is very strong, definitely not human!"

Ye Chen asked curiously, "How did you find out that their physical strength was very strong? When I faced them, I didn't find that they had any cultivation level, nor did I find anything special about them."

The recoil is comparable to that of a large-calibre sniper rifle. Under such circumstances, even a well-trained special forces soldier would have to lie on the ground when firing and use his shoulder to hold the butt of the gun against that recoil. If you stand up and hold the gun, it's usually impossible to hold the muzzle down, one shot can make your arms go numb, and it's even more impossible to hold the gun and fire in bursts, and the fact that they can stand and fire the entire clip quickly proves that they have extraordinary physical strength."

“Moreover, my people’s feedback said that their skin, flesh and bones, are much stronger than the average person, even more so than martial arts masters, because their meridians are not opened up, so they all rely on the strength of their skin and bones to enhance their combat power.”

Saying that, Wan Breaking Jun added, “I suspect that they should have other ways to increase the physical quality of these bandits drastically, after all, continuous firing of this intensity would be difficult enough for a three-star martial artist to hold steady, and for them to be able to quickly fire a full clip and still have their faces unchanged, their strength is at least above a four-star martial artist.”

Ye Chen couldn’t help but frown and said in a cold voice, “These people are well armed and trained, they are methodical and well prepared to face martial masters, even if they are not martial masters, they must know martial masters very well and know where their weaknesses are before they target their tactics.”

“Right!” Wan Bajun said seriously, “No matter what kind of organisation they actually are, this method of theirs that can drastically improve the physical quality of ordinary people is really terrifying, although there are tens of thousands of mercenaries under the command of the Ten Thousand Dragon Hall, only a few hundred of them can really practice martial arts, the rest simply don’t have the qualification, and of these few hundred, most of them will never break through to the three-star martial artist height, and this group of people can actually use unknown methods to raise ordinary people to this level, if they can achieve ma*s coverage, their strength is definitely not to be underestimated!”

Saying that, Ye Chen asked him, “Have you heard of it?”

“Back to Mr. Ye, neither has my subordinate.” Wan Bajun said, “I know there are some martial arts people out there who have joined some mercenary groups, but this is the first time I’ve encountered this kind today, and I don’t have any direct clues yet, however, before that batch of corpses is disposed of, I’ve asked them to collect faces, fingerprints as well as DNA, when the time comes, I’ll find a way to do a comparison in the worldwide database, starting with the identity of this group of people We’ll be able to dig up more clues along with them once we’ve identified the members of them.”

“Good!” Ye Chen nodded and admonished, “This gang may be very dangerous, the real strength of the organization behind them may be above the Ten Thousand Dragon Hall, you investigate along the identity of these people, make sure to be concealed, don’t expose them, it’s not time to face the enemy head on.”

Wan Bajun said solemnly, “Okay Mr. Ye, my subordinate understands.”

Ye Chen nodded and said, “Go to Long Island, meet that guy.”

Twenty minutes later.

When Ye Chen stepped into the basement, he saw the bandit leader of today's group of bandits, who was currently immobilized in a chair, his entire body was extremely depressed and dying.

His amputated limbs were wrapped in bandages, and the edges of his mouth were full of blood. Above the broken arm, someone had stuck an infusion needle into him, and a packet of medicinal fluid was hanging above it, which was being continuously delivered to his body.

Wan Bajun said to Ye Chen, "Mr Ye, this guy has been resisting very strongly, I had someone give him a sedative, he should be passed out now."

Ye Chen nodded and walked forward, reaching out and gently tapping his hand on the other man's head.

Immediately afterwards, he saw the person's body tremble lightly, and then slowly raised his head.

The man opened his eyes, saw Ye Chen in front of him, his expression was a moment of shock, and he blurted out, "It's you"

Ye Chen sneered, "What? Still surprised to see me?"

The man thought of Ye Chen's ability to cut off his legs and those of more than twenty of his subordinates with a single move in empty space, and asked out of fear, "You who the hell are you!"

Ye Chen blandly said, "It's not your turn to ask me questions now."

Saying that, Ye Chen stared at him and said in a stern voice: "Listen carefully to every word I am going to say, my methods, I believe you have already experienced, so I don't have to say much, from now on asking questions, you must know everything and say everything, if I feel that you are fooling me, I will make your life worse than death and will not give you a second chance, do you hear me?!"

Chapter 4449

Ye Chen's words made the man in front of him fearful to the core.

He couldn't help but think of the bloodbath a few hours ago, where Ye Chen had turned him and his men all into invalids with just his own strength.

This kind of devastating and terrifying strength was something he had never heard of before.

What was even more terrifying was that he hadn't seen Ye Chen make a single move the entire time!

Not even Ye Chen had made any physical contact with them, at all.

This was the point that made him despair the most.

From what he knew about martial arts masters, even a Dark Realm master could not achieve such a bizarre long-range strike!

At most, a martial arts expert's internal force and true qi could only achieve what was known as striking a bull through the air, and the distance would be extremely limited and the power would be greatly reduced.

For someone like Ye Chen, who was able to explode with such killing power without any contact at all, in his opinion, his strength had reached that of a demigod!

He still remembered clearly that when he had bitten his false teeth and the venom had penetrated his whole body with his blood, Ye Chen was able to use a mysterious power to draw back all the toxins from his body.

Even now, he could clearly feel that the venom was still intact in his abdomen, and that mysterious power had wrapped all the venom so tightly that the venom was completely isolated from his own body.

So, at this moment, Ye Chen, in his eyes, was like the God of Death wielding a scythe.

In terror, he begged offhandedly, "Sir, please give me a pain kill me"

"You want pain?" Ye Chen sneered and said indifferently, "To tell you the truth, the people you want to kill today are my grandparents' family, do you think I will give you pain? Since you want pain, then I'm going to make you suffer, and suffer for the rest of your life."

After saying that, Ye Chen stared at him and said coldly, "I see that you are only in your thirties, although you have lost your arms and legs, it should not be a problem to live for another few decades, it just so happens that I also have some spiritual medicines that can prolong your life, so it should be easy for you to live for another sixty or seventy years to make up a full life, it just so happens that nowadays there are more high technologies and there are some medicines that can make your nervous system amplify pain by hundreds of times, the two The combination will make every day for the rest of your life a whole new experience!"

Hearing this, the man suddenly laughed and shook his head, "Impossible Even if you don't give me a painful experience, in a few more days, I will definitely die"

Ye Chen couldn't help but frown and asked in a cold voice, "What? Do you think that you are still capable of killing yourself now?"

The man shook his head and laughed bitterly, "With this ghostly appearance, how can I still have the ability to commit suicide."

When the seven days are up, if we don't return to our destiny, our skin and flesh will crumble and we will die.

"Seven days?" Hearing this, Ye Chen coldly snorted in disdain and stepped forward to press one hand on the top of his head.

It was only then that Ye Chen realised that this man's physique was indeed different from that of ordinary people.

None of the eight strange meridians were open, but the strength of his body was not inferior to that of a five-star martial artist in the slightest, as if it was like steel and iron.

Moreover, even though his limbs had been severed, underneath the existing sinews and flesh, his sense of strength was very surging, and the strength of his heartbeat was much stronger than that of an ordinary person, and every beat was like a high-pressure pump, pumping blood violently to the veins all over his body.

It was just that right now he had lost too much blood, and although the strength of his heartbeat was strong, his blood vessels were somewhat dried up.

Chapter 4450

In addition, what surprised Ye Chen even more was that this man appeared to be steel and iron, but he was not really steel and iron, but relied entirely on the surging strength hidden beneath his flesh and bones.

This power, which seemed to be only temporarily stored in him and helped him to strengthen his body, was not tamed by him, but was forcibly bound within him by some kind of power.

This was because, as Ye Chen discovered, this power kept trying to pound outwards.

As this force continued to impact, the force that was binding it, was also gradually weakening, just a little bit each time.

So it seemed that in a few days' time, this force would indeed break through this binding, and by then, it was estimated that his body would probably be washed to pieces by this force.

At this time, Ye Chen also finally understood why, after praying in vain for him to give him a pain, he instead acted as if he had resigned himself to his fate.

It seemed that even if he didn't give him a painful experience, he would definitely die a few days later.

Ye Chen smiled faintly at this time and spoke, "Don't worry, with me around, you can't die."

After he said that, he used his own aura to directly seal the force that had been pounding outwards within him firmly.

Given the strength of that force, after Ye Chen's aura sealed it, even if it itself could keep on pounding without any decay, it would not be possible to rush out in 10,000 years.

The man, who had previously had a disheveled expression, immediately looked at Ye Chen in shock and asked offhandedly, "What have you done to me?"

Ye Chen sneered, "That power within you that you couldn't suppress on your own has now been completely sealed by me, so that you can live a long life! If you still don't give an honest explanation, you might have to live in hell for the next few decades."

If he doesn't give an honest explanation in the next few days, take him to Syria, build a cellar and keep him there, strip him naked and throw him in an iron cage, electrify the cage, and inject him with a sufficient amount of drugs to make him feel the electricity amplified a hundred times 7×24 hours. hours to feel what it's like to be subjected to electric shocks that are magnified a hundred times!"

When the man heard Ye Chen's words, he trembled violently in fear.

Seeing Ye Chen's cold expression, he knew that what Ye Chen had just said was definitely not half-hearted.

If he really refused to cooperate, he was afraid that he would experience the general pain of the eighteenth level of hell for the rest of his life

He was not afraid of death.

Those brothers who were with him were not afraid of death.

He was also not afraid of torture.

After all, he had been trained so harshly for so many years that he had an extraordinary capacity for enduring all kinds of torture.

Thinking of this, he broke down emotionally and said, "I'll tell you! I'll tell you everything! As long as you promise to give me a painful answer after I finish, I will tell you everything!"

Ye Chen said in a cold voice, "You are not qualified to negotiate with me, if you want me to give you a painful answer, then answer my questions properly!"

The man nodded fearfully and said, "You can ask, I will answer what I know!"

Ye Chen asked in a cold voice, "What kind of organization are you?"

"Organization" The man hesitated for a moment and spoke, "I don't know what kind of organization we are I only know that people like us, in the organization inside, are called dead soldiers."

Ye Chen pursued, "What is a dead soldier?!"

When he heard Ye Chen's question, the man shouted in a loud voice with wide eyes and a loud voice like a reflex: "A dead soldier is one who lives for death and is ready to die generously for the British Lord!"
