

Ye Chen 4461

Chapter 4461

Fang Jiaxin is the first love of Chen Zhao Zhong.

In her youth, she was once known as the goddess of Hong Kong Island, causing countless tycoons and elites to fall under her skirt.

She was separated from Chen Zhao Zhong when he went to study in the United States. Immediately afterwards, Liu Jia Hui, with his aura of being a top tycoon and his generosity in throwing money around, turned her into a lover he kept in his mansion in Shixun Road.

At that time, Fang Jiaxin was almost like having the world at her fingertips in terms of material possessions.

She could take a luxurious private jet to feed the pigeons in the squares of London in the early morning, then take the same plane to the romantic Aegean Sea in the evening, and when she woke up, she could go shopping in the luxury malls of New York or Tokyo as she chose.

If she was not in a hurry, she could take one of Liu Jiahui's private cruises from Hong Kong Island to the Maldives in the Indian Ocean, or to Tahiti in the South Pacific.

In short, whatever she wanted at that time was within her reach.

But even so, after Chan Siu Chung returned to Hong Kong Island, her old love affair with Chan Siu Chung flared up.

It was then that she realised that even with all the material things she had, there was still a hole in her heart that could never be filled, and that hole was Chen Zhao Zhong.

So when she ran away to America with Chen Zhao Zhong, the whole island couldn't understand why she had left so decisively.

It was only after she arrived in America that she gradually realised that although the void in her heart had been filled, the rest was almost all empty.

She could no longer sleep until she woke up and look at a map of the world to find an impromptu destination, nor could she enjoy the world's most expensive and finest goods and services as she had done before.

At that moment, she realised what it was that she had given up.

What she had given up was not Liu Jiahui, but all the extremes that had been accumulated in all walks of life after thousands of years of development in human civilised society.

The private jet that he used to fly in united the most sophisticated civil aviation technology in this world, as well as the best interior decoration materials, and the same was true of the cruise ship that he was on.

The clothes one wore, almost all of them the most expensive ready-to-wear in the world of merchandise, crafted by the best designers.

The jewellery she wore was probably the rarest and rarest of its kind in the world.

Even the mattress she once slept on was a work of art, hand-crafted by a group of Swedish artisans from wool harvested from horses' tails and goats.

Her clothes, food, accommodation, food and drink were all the best in the world.

But when she eloped with Chen Zhao Zhong, she realised that although she was flying, it was so painful to sit in a cramped economy class for more than ten hours, and that a cruise ship was a product of another world, unattainable.

Her clothes were no longer made by the best designers in France, England and Italy, but by women workers in third world countries, on chaotic assembly lines, stepping on sewing machines that smelled of motor oil, producing the same cheap clothes for millions of people.

It was at that moment that she realised what a stupid choice she had made.

It was also at that moment that she decided to do everything she could to return to Liu Jiahui's side.

Fortunately, after she came back, Liu Jiahui accepted her again despite her past, and even welcomed her into his home with open arms after the death of her original spouse.

And for the next twenty years, she enjoyed the best of everything in the world, just as she had back then.

But Chen Zhao Zhong remained a void deep inside her that could not be filled.

Chapter 4462

However, because of the existence of this void, when she knew that Chen Zhaozhong was going to be sent back, and that countless people were ready to take his life, she was still unable to accept it, so she came to Liu Jiahui in a fury to demand an explanation.

However, she had overestimated her status in Liu Jiahui's mind.

She also underestimated the hatred that Chen Zhao Zhong had in Liu Jiahui's mind.

When the slap hit her face, she was a bit frightened for a while.

She was afraid that she would lose everything around her again.

So, she hurriedly explained to Liu Jiahui: "Jiahui you don't misunderstand I really don't mean anything else I just"

Liu Jiahui said in a cold voice: "Don't you say anything! I don't want to hear exactly what you mean, I just want to tell you that in the future, you are not allowed to mention anything related to the three words Chen Zhao Zhong in front of me again, otherwise, you will get as far away as you can from me!"

Fang Jiabin was horrified beyond belief.

She knew that although Liu Jiahui liked herself and was extremely possessive of her, he had always been wary of her.

Although she had married him, a*set-wise, she had always been insulated from him.

Before Liu Jiahui married himself at the beginning, he had already made himself sign an agreement to voluntarily give up all the joint a*sets of the couple.

So, as long as Liu Jiahui divorced her, she would only have the option of netting out her family.

So, while she was in tears, she said to Liu Jiahui, "Jiahui I was wrong don't worry I will never make you angry again" "

Liu Jiahui nodded expressionlessly and said in a cold voice, "Mrs. Han should still be waiting for you."

Fang Jiabin hurriedly said, "Right Mrs. Han is still waiting for me at the horse farm Jiahui, then I will leave first, what do you want to eat in the evening, I will ask the maid to prepare it for you in advance."

"No need." Liu Jiahui waved his hand, "I'm a bit annoyed right now, I want to be alone."

Fang Jiabin said with trepidation, "Okay then I'll leave first" "

The next day.

It was early morning in New York.

When Xiao Churan opened her eyes, Ye Chen was still sleeping soundly beside her.

She did not know that Ye Chen had gone out alone last night and did not return until nearly dawn.

After getting up, she asked the hotel's catering department to bring her breakfast, just as Ye Chen also came out of the bedroom, so she smiled and asked, "How did you sleep, husband?"

"Quite well." Ye Chen smiled faintly and casually replied, in fact he hadn't slept at all, he was just lying in bed, his thoughts stirring about things related to that mysterious organisation.

Xiao Churan greeted him, "Breakfast has been delivered, come and eat!"

Ye Chen nodded, and the two of them had just sat down at the dining table when Ma Lan's video was sent to Xiao Churan.

Once the video was through, Xiao Churan looked at Ma Lan in the video and asked with a smile, "Mom, why are you sending a video so early?"

Ma Lan's mouth turned up, crying and selling misery to Xiao Churan, saying, "Churan ah mum really misses you ah you don't know how lonely mum is at home alone since you and Ye Chen left, I really don't want to stay at home by myself for a minute. I really don't want to stay in this house by myself for a minute" "

Chapter 4463

On the other side, Ma Lan was shedding tears into the camera while carefully throwing the eye drops into the dead corner where the video could not be filmed.

Xiao Churan saw her mother's tears at the other end of the video because she was lonely, so she was heartbroken and subconsciously said, "Mom, why don't you go out for a trip first? Ye Chen gave you 500,000 yuan, why don't you sign up for a high-end tour and go out for a while, when you've had enough, we should also go back."

When Ma Lan heard this, she said, "Daughter, this is a good idea, but how can I afford to go on a trip?"

Thinking of this, she wiped her eyes while choking back tears and said, "Chu Ran mum doesn't want to go out to play now mum just misses you"

Xiao Churan said helplessly, "Mom, I still have more than 20 days left in my course, I can't go back for a while"

In fact, Xiao Churan hadn't thought about whether she could let Ma Lan come to the United States.

But she subconsciously felt that it must not be very convenient for her mother to come to the United States either.

First of all, you have to go for a visa, the US visa is a bit more troublesome, you have to go to the emba*sy for an interview, and there is a certain risk of being rejected.

Besides, she knew that her mother was a rowdy person, and if she came to America, she and Ye Chen would not be able to live in peace.

Xiao Churan was fine with herself, as Ma Lan was her mother, so she could accept even if she was a bit more rambunctious and had a lot of miscellaneous things to do.

But she was afraid that Ye Chen would not feel comfortable.

Therefore, she did not dare to ask her mother to come over without permission.

However, at this time, Ye Chen was very quick to come over and said smilingly into the video, "Mom, if you feel too lonely at home, apply for a visa to come to America for a while."

Xiao Churan was incredulous when she heard this, she really didn't expect that Ye Chen could agree to let Mom come over without thinking.

Ma Lan also did not expect Ye Chen to agree so readily, and over here she immediately exploded with excitement, cheering excitedly, "Aiya good son-in-law! Is it true what you said good son-in-law?!"

"Of course." Ye Chen said with a smile, "We also have enough rooms here, so you have a place to stay when you come."

Ma Lan immediately blurted out, "That's great! I happen to have a friend who has a channel at the emba*sy there, and he said that he can get a visa very quickly!"

Xiao Churan was surprised and asked, "Mom, you still know a friend who has channels at the emba*sy?"

Ma Lan smiled unnaturally and said, "Hey, it's just a mahjong friend who used to play mahjong, her daughter works at the emba*sy and said she could help out through the back door!"

Xiao Churan didn't suspect anything, so she said, "Mom, let me know if you get the visa, I'll buy you a ticket."

Ma Lan said, "No, no, my good son-in-law has given me so much pocket money, how can I let you buy my mum a ticket?"

Chapter 4464

Ye Chen then reminded, "Mom, if you are afraid of the ha*sle of connecting flights you can fly straight to New York and we will pick you up in New York, if you want to be quicker you can connect in New York and fly to Providence."

Ma Lan said to herself, "I must have let the private plane I won fly straight to Providence, who needs to go to New York to make a round trip"

But naturally, she couldn't say it explicitly, so she hurriedly said, "You two just wait for me in Providence, I'll transfer there then, and save you all the trouble of going all the way to New York to pick me up."

"Good!" Ye Chen said without a second thought, "Then we'll wait for you here!"

Xiao Churan was also very happy in her heart and said, "Mom, remember to tell us when your schedule is set so we can pick you up at the airport in advance!"

"Okay!" Ma Lan felt very proud of her own resourcefulness and said with a smile, "Mom, let you know when it's ready!"

After hanging up the phone, Xiao Churan hurriedly asked Ye Chen, "Honey, Mom's coming to America won't cause you any trouble, right? She has a lot of things to do, so I'm afraid your mood will be affected."

"No." Ye Chen said with a smile, "It's good for mum to come to America for fun, and she can keep you company in the meantime, you've been away from home for so long, you must miss her a lot too."

Xiao Churan nodded gently and said, "I've never been so far away from home for so long since I grew up, so I'm sure I miss her a little."

Ye Chen smiled slightly and said, "Our hotel room in Providence is so big, it's really too spacious for two people to stay, and it's a bit more lively when Mom comes."

When Xiao Churan saw that Ye Chen really didn't mind, she was relieved and said softly, "Honey, thank you!"

The next morning.

Ma Lan had already gotten her visa to the United States.

The person from the jewellery company confirmed with her that the departure time of the plane was this afternoon, so Ma Lan changed into her prettiest clothes at noon, carried the Hermes gift from Ye Chen, took the business car provided by the jewellery company, and arrived at the Jinling airport.

At the airport, Ma Lan experienced for the first time the high-end courtesy of boarding at the VIP floor. The luxury business car carried her alone to the tarmac, where two beautiful ground staff escorted her while carrying her luggage, and boarded the private plane to the United States.

This Gulfstream G650, a business jet owned by the Song Group, was specially transferred over by Song Wanting this time to give Ma Lan a ride alone.

The interior of the plane was naturally luxurious, making Ma Lan feel as if she had entered a palace in the sky as soon as she entered.

The large and luxurious cabin, where she was the only passenger, made her feel that her vanity was infinitely magnified.

As soon as she sat down on the incredibly soft oversized recliner, three beautiful female flight attendants approached her.

Chapter 4465

Ma Lan has a spirited personality, but the essence of her spiritedness stems from being strong.

She had been despised for most of her fifty years of life, especially after she married into the Xiao family.

The contempt of her in-laws and the cowardice of her husband at one point caused her self-esteem to be trampled on, which not only made her more and more spirited, but also aggravated her extreme quest for face.

Now that she had finally flown in a private jet, it was only natural that she should enjoy and remember the experience.

More importantly, she had to show it off in her circle of friends.

After all, they were on such a flight, and the income from serving Ma Lan alone was several times more than serving a whole airliner with hundreds of people, so they naturally had to treat Ma Lan as if she was the old Buddha.

After taking the video with satisfaction, Ma Lan specially created a grouping in order not to expose it in front of her family, blocking out Ye Chen, Xiao Churan and Xiao Changkun, and then posted a friend circle with the following text: "The feeling of travelling on a private jet is different, everywhere is permeated with an imperial-like dignified atmosphere!"

After posting her friend circle, she subconsciously asked the head steward, "Hey waiter, will there be no internet after we take off?"

The flight attendant said, "There is no internet during the critical take-off and climb phase, but after the plane has stabilised, I will turn on the cabin WiFi for you, and you will be able to connect to the internet then."

Satisfied, Ma Lan nodded and smiled, "OK, then tell the captain to hurry up and take off."

As she said this, she thought to herself, "I've already sent out my circle of friends, and when I get online after I'm in the sky, I'll probably get a lot of likes from people. They'll be envious of me."

With this in mind, Ma Lan put her phone aside and looked out of the window in a wonderful mood.

The plane soon took off and went straight into the sky.

About half an hour later, the plane rose to a cruising altitude of 11,000 metres, the cabin steward turned on the cabin WiFi and said to Ma Lan, "Ms. Ma, our WiFi has been turned on, you can now connect to the internet, the WiFi name is your name, there is no pa*sword."

Ma Lan immediately took out her mobile phone and connected to the WiFi, then she couldn't wait to open WeChat to see just how big a number that red alert would show up in her circle of friends.

However, after opening it, she found that there was not even a single alert in her circle of friends!

This meant that not a single person had liked her or left her a message in her circle of friends in all the time since she had sent it out.

She couldn't help but mutter in her mind, "There's something wrong with this network, isn't there? It can't be that it's been more than half an hour and no one has liked or left a message for me!"

Thinking about this, she couldn't help but ask the stewardess, "Is there something wrong with your wireless network? It says I'm connected, but I don't seem to be connected to the network."

The flight attendant said, "No, we're using satellite internet, the speed is a little slower but the signal is very good and the connection is very stable."

Ma Lan was about to speak when the friend's suddenly popped up with an alert of a red circle with a number 1 in it.

She hurriedly had to tap it, and it immediately turned into the number 2.

She was overjoyed and thought, "Finally, someone has commented on my friend circle!"

There were two alerts, both from Qian Hongyan.

One was a like from Qian Hongyan, and the other was a comment from Qian Hongyan, which read: "Have a good trip, Sister Arashi!"

Ma Lan was immediately depressed beyond belief.

The fact that she could receive Qian Hongyan's likes and comments proved that the network on the plane must be fine, and it also proved that no one else had indeed commented on her circle of friends for so long since she took off.

This made Ma Lan feel very indignant and could not help but curse in his heart: "D*mn it! Usually when I take a picture of a broken flower in the park, or when my hand is not steady enough to take a false picture, there are many people who like me, how come today I am on a private plane and these people don't give me a like? D*mn, jealous! It must be jealousy!"

Chapter 4466

And for the rest of the flight, Marashi was hardly in the mood to sleep.

She had to open her circle of friends every few moments to take a look, but, until the time the plane flew over the United States, there was still only one like and one comment from Qian Hongyan in her circle of friends.

This made her almost drop her phone a few times, but in the end she had to accept the reality.

So she could only comfort herself in her heart: "Hey, how many good people can there be in her circle of friends, apart from her family? They're all just guys who can't see the good in others! If you don't give me a like, forget it. I'm going to America on a private jet, do you still need a like? What a joke!"

When she found out that her circle of friends still had no likes and comments, she was even more exasperated and threw her phone to the side, closing her eyes to rest.

After more than 10 hours of flying, Ma Lan's Gulfstream G650 finally landed at Providence Airport in the United States.

At this moment, it was just after ten o'clock in the evening, US time.

Ye Chen and Xiao Churan had just finished watching Gu Qiuyi's second concert in Boston and were on their way back to Providence by car.

Ye Chen had actually known about Ma Lan's movements for a long time, and he had received the news as soon as the plane landed.

However, Ye Chen also knew that Ma Lan did not dare to let herself and Xiao Churan know that she had come on a private plane, so she would definitely wait until she got off the plane before contacting Xiao Churan.

Ye Chen wasn't worried about Ma Lan going through customs alone, after all, Ma Lan had gone to university and definitely had basic English conversation skills.

Half an hour later, Xiao Churan's mobile phone suddenly received a call from the US mainland.

She didn't think much about it, so she picked up the phone and said in English, "Hi."

On the other end of the line, Ma Lan's excited voice came out, "Churan! It's me! I've arrived in America!"

When Xiao Churan heard her mother's voice, she froze, and only after half a day did she come back to her senses and ask, "Mom, when did you arrive in America? Why didn't you tell us before you left?"

Ma Lan laughed, "I just wanted to surprise you and Ye Chen. Besides, the flight was so long, if I had told you guys in advance, you would have been worried about me, so I flew here first!"

For the first time, Xiao Churan found that her mother had become understanding and knew how to think about others

However, how could she know that Ma Lan was actually doing this because she was afraid that the fact that she had spent all her money would be revealed.

Therefore, Xiao Churan hurriedly asked her, "Mom where are you? Is it the New York airport? Ye Chen and I will go over to pick you up now!"

Ma Lan said, "I'm not in New York, I'm in that Providence of yours!"

"Huh?" Xiao Churan said in surprise, "Mom you came over on your own special plane?"

"Yeah." Ma Lan said, "You said you had to fly to New York first, so I made my own connection."

Xiao Churan asked, "Have you gone through customs yet? Have you finished the immigration formalities?"

"Yes, I did." Ma Lan said, "I'm in the lobby of the airport, why don't you come and pick me up now? If it's not convenient, I can take a taxi, but I'm in a hurry and didn't go to the bank to exchange dollars, so I asked the air hostess for the coins I called.

Xiao Churan didn't think much about it and asked Ye Chen out of the blue, "Honey, Mom has arrived at the airport, how far are we from the airport? Is it convenient to pick her up?"

"Convenient." Ye Chen glanced at the navigation and said, "It's convenient, it's only ten minutes from here to the airport."

Xiao Churan said, "Mom, Ye Chen and I are on our way back, we are only ten minutes away from you, why don't you wait for us at the airport for a while, we will go and pick you up!"

Ma Lan was overwhelmed with joy and said, "That's really great! Mum will be waiting for you here!"

Chapter 4467

"Twenty minutes later, Ye Chen and Xiao Churan received Ma Lan at the airport after a long absence.

When she saw Xiao Churan and Ye Chen, Ma Lan was extraordinarily excited and said cheerfully, "Aiya, Churan, Ye Chen, mum has missed you all this time!"

Xiao Churan said with a smile, "I thought you must be very comfortable at home by yourself, free and clear."

Ma Lan laughed, "Comfortable yes, but it's just too lonely to be alone all the time!"

With that, she said with a chagrined look, "I came to America this time and forgot to change my dollars and bring my bank card, did you bring enough money?"

Xiao Churan didn't think much of it and said with a smile, "Mom, you came to America to find us, how can we still let you spend your own money, just stay here in a practical manner."

Ye Chen also interjected, "Yes mum, coming to America, we definitely can't let you spend money by yourself, electronic payment is not very convenient here in America, I will give you a VISA credit card later and get you some cash."

Saying that, Ye Chen added: "Right mum, the security here in America is not very good, you must not carry too much cash on you when you go out."

When Ma Lan heard that Ye Chen was going to give her card and cash, her eyes lit up with excitement and she said, "You really deserve to be a good son-in-law, or else people would say that a son-in-law is half a son! Having a son-in-law as filial as you is even more reliable than having a son of your own!"

Ye Chen smiled faintly and did not deny it.

He knew Ma Lan's character too well, not to mention that she was so spirited that she wanted to put a hole in the sky, but as long as she was given a small favour, her attitude would immediately make a 180 degree turn.

Therefore, a small amount of money was a very good deal for Ye Chen to get hold of Ma Lan.

Afterwards, the two drove Ma Lan to the hotel.

She ran around the room a few times and couldn't get the whole layout of the suite right, so she exclaimed one after another, "D*mn, this presidential suite is too big! Just the two of you for so many days? How wasteful it must be!"

Xiao Churan said helplessly, "I also didn't know that Ye Chen had packed such a big room, it's indeed too wasteful"

Ye Chen laughed at this point, "It's okay, isn't making money just to spend it, besides, this isn't a big expense, the income from one visit to someone's feng shui is enough to live here for a few months."

Ma Lan was so happy and praised, "My son-in-law is great! This is like making money with the wind!"

Xiao Churan was busy saying, "Mom, it's not easy for Ye Chen to make money either, he travels all over the place and even went to New York to read feng shui for people a few days ago."

"Ooh!" Ma Lan exclaimed, "Good son-in-law still has business in America? That's amazing!"

Ye Chen said casually, "I rely on some friends to introduce me to each other, because they trust me, so they keep introducing me to new clients. Otherwise, it would be very difficult for me to take up a friend's order."

Ma Lan nodded in agreement and said, "My good son-in-law is right, they are introducing us to clients out of face, not only can we not shirk them, we must also serve them well so that they can introduce us to more clients!"

Xiao Churan said helplessly, "Husband, you should talk to these friends of yours and ask them to introduce less clients to you in the future, so that it will be easier in the future."

Before Ye Chen could say anything, Ma Lan blurted out, "Good son-in-law, you can't just think about relaxation at such a young age! Don't listen to Chu Ran, young people must have a positive and hard-working heart, how can they just lie flat in their twenties? In modern society, money is hard to earn and sh*t is hard to eat, so earning more money in your bank account is the most important thing!"

Xiao Churan said, "Mom, what I meant was for Ye Chen to take fewer orders, and I didn't mean for him to lie flat"

Ma Lan seriously said, "It's only right to earn more money while you're young, if you don't work hard when you're young, it'll be too late to work hard when you're old! Don't be like your father and spend the rest of your life in a muddle!"

Chapter 4468

At this time, Ye Chen suddenly received a phone call from Wan Bajun.

So, he immediately pressed the answer button and spoke, "Hello, Mr. Wan."

On the other end of the line, Wan Bajun immediately spoke, "Hello, is this Master Ye Chen Ye? I was introduced by Mr. Chen and would like to ask you to read the feng shui of my house."

Ye Chen was busy saying, "Oh, so you are a friend of Mr. Chen! How do you do? I wonder what your home is like?"

Wan Bajun then said, "My family is in Shixun Road on Hong Kong Island, a villa covering an area of about 8,000 square feet. Recently, people in my family have been injured or fallen ill for no apparent reason, and many things are not in order, so I feel that there is a feng shui problem, so I would like to ask a feng shui master to come and take a look."

Ye Chen was surprised and asked, "Your family Hong Kong Island ah?"

"Right." Wan Xiaojun asked, "I wonder if Master Ye has time recently? If so, I would like you to come over personally, my current situation is indeed a hundred thousand times more urgent"

Ye Chen said, "Mr. Chen may not have told you, I am in the United States, not in Jinling, and going to Hong Kong Island may be a bit of a problem."

Wan Bajun on the other end of the phone was busy saying, "Master Ye, I hope you'll take the time to come and help me adjust no matter what, otherwise, I'm afraid my family will be involved."

Xiao Churan could vaguely hear Wan Bajun's voice in the phone receiver, and when she learned that someone from Hong Kong Island wanted to invite her husband to see feng shui, she looked at Ye Chen with a nervous face, not knowing whether Ye Chen would agree to the other party next.

Ye Chen was also rather embarrassed at this time and spoke, "I am recently in the United States to accompany my wife in her studies, so it may not be very convenient for me to go to Hong Kong Island"

The other party immediately said, "Master Ye, Mr. Chen has been telling me that you are not only profound in feng shui, but also very warm-hearted, I am in a real emergency, you can't just ignore it"

Ye Chen hesitated for a moment, then said, "I'll discuss it with my wife first, and then I'll reply to you later."

Wan Xiaojun was busy saying, "Master Ye, please make sure you talk to Mrs. Ye clearly, this is a matter of human life, you must agree! As for the reward, don't worry, I'll pay you at double the amount!"

Ye Chen said, "Good I will pass it on to her."

After saying that, he hung up the phone and said to Xiao Churan, "Wife, Mr. Chen Zekai Chen of Jinling, introduced me to a client, the other party is from Hong Kong Island, there is something wrong with the feng shui of his home, it is said to be quite serious, look"

Xiao Churan's expression was torn and struggling, hesitating for a moment, helplessly said, "I heard it all Since it's all about people's lives, how can I stop you from going"

Ye Chen understood and said in a hurry, "Wife, you're really too kind! In that case, then I'll tell him! Book a flight to Hong Kong Island tomorrow morning!"

Xiao Churan nodded and said helplessly, "Since the situation is very urgent, then you should go early, it just so happens that Ma can accompany me when she arrives, and you don't have to worry about it."

Ma Lan also said without thinking, "Yes, good son-in-law, career is the most important, if you have something to do, go to work, Churan has mother to accompany, you can rest assured!"

Ye Chen then said, "Then it's hard for you, mum."

Ma Lan said, "You're still so polite to mum! Really!"

After that, she reminded Ye Chen: "Good son-in-law, if there are any specialties in Hong Kong Island, remember to bring some back for mum!"

Chapter 4469

After agreeing with Xiao Churan to go to Hong Kong Island, Ye Chen gave Wan Bajun a call.

As soon as the call came through, Wan Bajun asked on the other end of the line, "Master Ye, have you discussed this with your wife yet? I wonder if you can come and save the day?"

Ye Chen said, "My wife and I have already discussed it. You are also lucky that my mother-in-law has just arrived in the United States and can help me take care of my wife, otherwise I really wouldn't be able to come over to help you."

Wan Bajun said, "That's great! Mr. Ye, see what time is suitable for you, I will arrange a business jet from the United States to send you over!"

Ye Chen excused himself and said, "No need for a business jet, I can just buy a ticket."

Wan Bajun said, "If you were to change planes, it would take at least twenty hours or more, and you might not be able to get the earliest ticket, so it would be faster to get a business jet!"

Ye Chen then muttered, "That's right, it's urgent, so naturally the sooner the better, then fine, then it'll be hard for you to arrange the plane, I can leave early tomorrow morning."

"Good!" Wan Bajun said without thinking, "Then I'll make the arrangements, is it okay for you to take off at 8am local time?"

"No problem!"

Wan Bajun said excitedly, "That's great, Master Ye! I'll pick you up at the airport then!"

Ye Chen then said, "Then I'll see you on Hong Kong Island!"

After saying goodbye to Wan Bajun, Ye Chen hung up the phone and said to Xiao Churan, "Wife, the situation of this client's family is rather urgent, so I may have to leave early tomorrow morning."

Xiao Churan said with an expression of reluctance and some heartache, "It's too hard to catch a plane early in the morning"

Ye Chen smiled and said, "It's just getting up a little early, nothing hard, this client seems to be quite powerful, he said he would arrange a business jet for me, the next morning, I will fly directly from here to Hong Kong Island, and I will sleep all the way there."

Hearing Ye Chen's words about a business jet, Ma Lan said, "Yes, yes, yes! The business jet is so comfortable! If you want to sit, you can sit on the single sofa in the front, which can be ma*saged, heated and ventilated, and when you are tired of sitting, you can go to the back bedroom to sleep, the big bed is more comfortable than the bed at home! And the flight attendants are so good!"

Xiao Churan couldn't help but say, "Mom, you've never flown on a business jet, so you're talking as if you have."

The first time I saw this was on TV, I saw people flying on private jets. You can always see on TV the images of people flying in private jets, the inside is just like a luxury room in a hotel, as comfortable as it can be."

Xiao Churan shook her head helplessly and turned to Ye Chen and said, "Honey, then I'll see you off at the airport tomorrow morning."

Ye Chen didn't refuse and nodded, "Okay, then it will be hard for my wife to drive and make the trip."

The next day.

She and Ye Chen got up and had a simple breakfast before driving to the airport in Providence.

After driving the car to the airport and parking it at the entrance, Ye Chen said to Xiao Churan, "Honey, you don't have to take me in, just drive straight back."

Xiao Churan said reluctantly, "I still want to take you in."

Ye Chen laughed, "You can only take me to the security check, besides, they have arranged an official flight for me, so I can go directly to the VIP lane, so I don't even have to wait in line.

When Xiao Churan saw Ye Chen's insistence, she had no choice but to nod, "Alright then, then hubby, you take care of your safety, and the other person out there should take care of their food and living, and eat on time, got it?"

Ye Chen said smilingly, "Okay, I know, don't worry! When I'm done with my business, I'll come back to keep you company at the first opportunity!"

"Mmm!" Xiao Churan nodded heavily and then said, "Hurry up and go in, isn't the flight taking off at eight o'clock? There's only half an hour left now."

"Okay." Ye Chen got down from the car, and after Xiao Churan sat in the cab, he waved his hand at her and said, "Honey, I'll go first, you drive carefully on your way back."

Chapter 4470

Xiao Churan nodded obediently and said in a soft voice, "Tell me in advance when you're done, I'll pick you up at the airport when you come back."

"Okay!"

Ye Chen watched Xiao Churan drive away before he turned around and walked into the airport.

At exactly eight o'clock, the plane took off on time and flew at breakneck speed towards Hong Kong Island.

Fourteen hours later, it was already 10am Hong Kong Island time.

The business jet Ye Chen was on still had more than an hour's flight left to Hong Kong Island.

So, Ye Chen called He Zhiqiu and told her that he would be arriving on Hong Kong Island soon and asked him to inform Liu Jiahui to meet him at the airport.

Ever since he had asked the US immigration authorities to start the deportation process for Chen Zhaozhong, he had been a bit over-excited and had been lying in bed every night, finding it difficult to sleep, his mind constantly thinking about all the problems he had had with Chen Zhaozhong and the shame he had suffered because of him over the years.

If he were not constrained by the law and the fact that the whole island knew about his hatred for Chen Zhao Zhong, Liu Jia Hui would have liked to execute Chen Zhao Zhong himself.

After all, that was the only way to relieve him of his hatred once and for all.

At this moment, he is in a bizarre dream in which Chan Siu Chung is finally deported back to Hong Kong Island and he has come to the airport to wait in order to witness Chan's tragic death.

Liu Jiahui was naturally excited and could not wait to see Chen Zhao Zhong killed by the chaotic shooting, but at that moment, everyone's guns suddenly turned around and aimed at him.

Just as he was stunned, Chen Zhaozhong suddenly smiled coldly at him and then gave a slight wave of his hand.

Immediately afterwards, the gun-wielding assassins immediately pulled the trigger and the bullets hit him wildly, causing him to sit up with a scream of fright.

Fang Jiabin was putting on make-up in the bathroom at this moment, and when she heard the commotion, she hurriedly ran over and asked nervously, "What's wrong with you, Jiahui? Did you have a nightmare?"

Liu Jiahui didn't have time to pay attention to her, but just kept reassuring himself: "It's okay dreams and reality are reversed"

As he was saying that, his mobile phone suddenly rang.

He grabbed it and found that the caller was He Zhiqiu, so he immediately pressed the answer button and said, "Hello, Mr. He! I'm calling so early, what can I do for you?"

He Zhiqiu said on the other end of the line, "Mr. Liu, my assistant will arrive on Hong Kong Island in an hour, so if it's convenient for you, you'd better pick him up at the airport."

Liu Jiahui was naturally very upset when he heard He Zhiqiu ask herself to pick up her assistant.

In his opinion, when He Zhiqiu's assistant arrived, it would be almost enough for him to find a hotel to personally entertain her, was it not a bit too much to ask him to pick up the plane at the airport?

At this moment, He Zhiqiu said again, "By the way, Mr Liu, I forgot to tell you before, this assistant of mine was personally appointed by the two major shareholders of Isu Shipping, Miss Ito and Miss Su, and he has more say in many matters than I do, so if Mr Liu wants to promote cooperation between our two sides, please make sure to do a good job of reception."

When Liu Jiahui heard this, his mind immediately changed 180 degrees and he said, "Don't worry, Mr. He, I will personally go to the airport to meet and greet your assistant, he is new to Hong Kong Island, he must not be familiar with it, why not let him stay at my home, I have plenty of rooms!"
