

Ye Chen 4591

Chapter 4591

After hearing Ye Chen's last request, Liu Jiahui's entire body instantly let out a sigh of relief.

At this moment, he truly felt what it meant to be alive after a robbery.

Since this was already the last thing Ye Chen had asked himself to do, it meant that he had not only saved his life, but also his fortune of US$20 billion in the next ten years.

Compared to this, the small amount of compensation that needed to be paid to Chen Zhao Zhong could almost be considered a drop in the bucket.

As for the villa, it was only a mere dime to him.

Although he had to go to Yanjing to repent for three months, this was already considered extrajudicial and lenient to Liu Jiahui, who had just suffered a death threat.

Therefore, he naturally did not dare to have any dissatisfaction in his heart.

On the contrary, he was also finally able to put his heart down.

Thus, he immediately made his attitude clear to Ye Chen and said reverently, "Mr. Ye, don't worry, I will definitely finish the other matters as soon as possible, and then immediately set off for Yanjing!"

Ye Chen nodded and spoke, "By the way, I instruct you, from today onwards, your family's life is closely related to Uncle Zhong's family, if Uncle Zhong's family is safe and sound, then you can also be safe and sound, but if anything untoward happens to them, even if it is just an accident, I will make you take joint and several responsibility, do you understand?"

Liu Jiahui was such a shrewd person, how could he not hear the meaning beyond Ye Chen's words.

Ye Chen wanted to make sure that he, from now on, would never dare to threaten Chen Zhao Zhong again, which was why he had tied his own personal safety, together with Chen Zhao Zhong.

In this way, not only did he, Liu Jiahui, not dare to find an opportunity to harm Chen Zhaozhong, but he was even afraid that Chen Zhaozhong himself might be in trouble.

So, without thinking, he said, "Mr. Ye, I understand"

"Good." Ye Chen nodded and spoke, "Now I want you to retract your previous dark flower to all of Hong Kong Island."

"Yes, yes, yes!" Liu Jiahui immediately took out his mobile phone and said under his breath, "I'll do as I'm told!"

Dark flowers are something that has been around since ancient times.

It has a few more traditional rituals compared to the simple and brutal purchase of a murderer.

On Hong Kong Island, not everyone can just release a dark flower, and not everyone who releases a dark flower wants others to know who he is.

For a person to release a dark flower, it is not just a matter of saying that after killing a certain person, he will pay as much or as little as he wants and a whole bunch of killers will flock to him.

The secret flower, only if the release is done through a designated intermediary, will be recognised by the killers.

And this middleman has to be authoritative enough and trustworthy enough for everyone.

Therefore, in this field, there is a set of traditional yet strict industry rules.

Liu Jiahui had to pay US$33 million to the middleman in advance for the release of US$30 million in dark flowers.

Of this, $30 million is the reward for the dark flower itself, while the other $3 million is the middleman's benefit fee.

Only after receiving the money would the middlemen turn to release the Dark Flower to the whole underground world, because they have very high prestige and influence in the underground world, so once they release the Dark Flower, all the killers would not have any question.

Moreover, middlemen are not simply acting as a deal broker, there are times when the dark flowers are so big that they can easily trigger many people to fight for them, and in the end, disputes may even arise because it is impossible to determine who is the real successor.

At such times, there is also a need for an intermediary to step in and make an objective judgement to decide the true ownership of this dark flower.

Liu Jiahui immediately called this middleman at this time, and in front of Ye Chen and the others, he turned on the speaker and said, "I want to take back the $30 million dark flower that I released earlier."

The other party asked, "Mr. Liu, are you sure you want to take back this dark flower? This dark flower of yours is the highest amount of money in Hong Kong over the years, and many a*sa*sins are out today, if you withdraw it at this time, I am afraid that if you release it again in the future, people will not be so motivated."

Liu Jiahui said without a second thought, "I am sure to withdraw it, immediately, immediately!"

The other party was slightly silent for a moment and said, "Mr. Liu, if you are sure to take it back, the three million commission will not be refunded, do you have any objection to this?"

Liu Jiahui blurted out, "No objection!"

Chapter 4592

"Good, I will now issue a message to inform everyone that Dark Flower has withdrawn, and the thirty million dollars will be refunded in the same way within 24 hours."

.....

At this very moment.

Just outside Hong Kong Island International Airport, there were already a number of a*sa*sins waiting anxiously.

Most of these a*sa*sins did not know each other, but they were lurking near the airport at this moment, all of them wanted to get the US$30 million Dark Flower to feed and clothe themselves from now on, so each one of them could not hold back, waiting for the moment Chen Zhao Zhong came out from the airport, they immediately launched an attack.

Some had already set up sniper rifles in the shadows, others were disguised as tourists, waiting outside the airport exit with their pistols, and some even parked their cars by the roadside, planning to drive straight into Chen Zhao Zhong when he came out.

Just as they were waiting to get their hands on him, they suddenly received a message, which was very simple, with only four words: "Dark Flower withdrawn."

"f*ck!"

"What the hell!"

"I'll top your lungs!"

These killers, who were waiting like vipers, were all cursing at this moment.

Thirty million dark flowers had unexpectedly been withdrawn, and the opportunity to get rich at their fingertips had instantly vanished.

Although they were upset, they understood in their hearts that there was no point in being upset, even if they killed the man, they would not get any money.

So, the vast majority of the killers immediately began to withdraw.

The a*sa*sins disguised as tourists stopped their cars and left, the a*sa*sins parked on the roadside drove away, and the a*sa*sins hiding in the shadows ready to snipe Chen Zhao Zhong, all immediately put away their guns and prepared to leave.

However, there were still a few killers who had not left.

One of them was hiding in a room on the 18th floor of the Airline Hotel opposite the airport, using the scope of his sniper rifle to lock on to the exit of the airport while cursing and swearing: "I'll be D*mned, you Liu Jiahui really deserved it! The man who cuckolded you finally came back after 20 years, and you suddenly wimped out. You think I don't have to pay for my work? You think it doesn't cost me to rent this hotel?"

He gritted his teeth and said coldly, "I'll finish off Chen Zhao Zhong for you today, and then I'll collect the money from you! If you f*cking dare to renege on the bill, I'll finish you off too!"

Several other a*sa*sins hiding in the shadows were of the same mindset at this time.

Although the issuer of the 30 million dark flowers had not left his name, they all knew in their hearts that the dark flowers must have been released by Liu Jiahui, so their thought was to kill the dark flowers regardless of whether they were withdrawn or not, and to find Liu Jiahui after killing him to demand an explanation, even if it was extortion, they would still want to knock off a sum from Liu Jiahui's hand.

Just as the man was staring intently at the airport exit, he felt a cold, hard object suddenly pressed against the back of his head.

His whole body was instantly crept out with fear because he hadn't heard any movement at all and couldn't figure out at all why someone would suddenly appear behind him and point a gun at the back of his head.

So he asked nervously, "This brother, you're pointing a gun at me, I wonder what kind of grudge we have against each other?"

The man behind him questioned in a cold voice, "Dark Flower has already withdrawn, why don't you leave yet?"

The a*sa*sin thought it was a peer and hurriedly said, "Everyone must want to get that Dark Flower, why don't we both join forces, or maybe I can just help you to finish off that Chen Zhao Zhong, what do you think?"

The man behind him grunted and said, "Sorry, I'm from the Ten Thousand Dragons Hall, I've been watching you for a long time, if you had just gotten the message and gotten out, I would have spared your life, but unfortunately, you didn't take the path you were given to live!"

The man was terrified to the core, he couldn't understand why people from the Ten Thousand Dragons Temple would be watching him.

So he subconsciously turned his head, looked at the young man behind him and subconsciously asked, "The hall The Hall of Ten Thousand Dragons Hall actually put this kind of dark flower in their eyes as well?"

That Warlord of the Ten Thousand Dragons Hall sneered, "We didn't come to Hong Kong Island to take the dark flower, but we will f*ck whoever wants to take the dark flower!"

Saying that, he immediately grabbed the man's collar and threw him straight out of the 18th floor window of the hotel with his gun!

Chapter 4593

As the a*sa*sin fell, outside the airport exit, several a*sa*sins hidden in the crowd were suddenly subdued by other members of the Dragon Palace in disguise.

The killers who were hiding in the cars waiting for an opportunity to move were also immediately caught in the front and back of the cars set up by the members of the Dragon Palace and before they could react, they were broken into by the members of the Dragon Palace and taken away directly.

Only now did these killers realise that they had been closely monitored by the generals of the Dragon Palace. Those who left the scene immediately after receiving the news of Dark Flower's withdrawal were not embarra*sed by the Dragon Palace, while those who did not want to leave became prisoners of the Dragon Palace.

At this moment, in the VIP lounge of the airport, Liu Jiahui said to Ye Chen as if relieved, "Mr. Ye, Dark Flower has withdrawn, those a*sa*sins must have received the news, you can rest a*sured"

Ye Chen ignored him, but looked at Wan Bajun and asked, "Bajun, is everything taken care of?"

Wan Bajun respectfully said, "Mr. Ye, Dark Flower has indeed withdrawn, but there are still some a*sa*sins within our control area that have not left, but our men have dealt with them, killing one and capturing seven."

"Well done." Ye Chen nodded slightly and spoke, "Send these seven people to Syria as well, so as not to affect the long term peace of Hong Kong Island."

Wan Bajun immediately arched his hand and said, "My subordinates follow orders!"

Ye Chen looked at Liu Jiahui and said indifferently, "Mr. Liu, the grudge between you and me as well as Uncle Zhong will be completely concluded after you return from Yanjing Ye Lingshan, you want to cooperate with Iso Shipping, at that time I will also arrange a special person to dock with you, as long as you can keep your promise from now on, I, Ye Chen, have no other demands on you and will not make things difficult for you. "

Hearing these words, Liu Jiahui truly put his heart down and said respectfully, "Thank you Mr. Ye for your generosity!"

Saying that, he hurriedly said to Chen Zhao Zhong again, "Ah Zhong, the money that I promised you, I will write a cheque to you today!"

On the side, Chen Zhao Zhong spoke up, "Young Master Ye, I don't want this money, let's donate it all."

Ye Chen nodded and said, "It is your freedom to dispose of this money, Uncle Zhong, no matter what, I will support it."

Chen Zhao Zhong then said, "These years I have been in the United States in the dark and met many Chinese orphans like Qiang Zai, so 20% of this money will be used to support those Chinese orphans who have fallen overseas, and the rest will all be donated to Project Hope."

"Good." Ye Chen did not have any objections and spoke, "Uncle Zhong is a man of great love, since you have decided, let's do it as you wish."

At this time, Fang Jiaxin, who had not spoken, was torn for half a day before she could not help but remind, "Ah Zhong ah you your mother has suffered a stroke, her health is very poor and she is being hospitalized at the church hospital, you'd better leave some money for her cure her"

Chen Zhao Zhong was stunned and asked out of the blue, "When did that happen?!"

"Just a few days ago" Fang Jiaxin dared not look at Chen Zhaozhong's eyes and said in a low voice: "I went to the hospital to see her, the doctor said the situation is very unpromising, it is best to send her to the United States for treatment, otherwise I am afraid that her time is running out"

Chen Zhao Zhong's heart was in a panic, he looked at Fang Jia Xin and said gratefully, "Thank you Mrs. Liu."

After saying that, he turned to Ye Chen and said, "Young Master Ye, I want to go see my mother first!"

Ye Chen then said, "Uncle Zhong, let me accompany you."

Chen Zhao Zhong hesitated slightly for a moment, but agreed and said respectfully, "Then I'll be grateful to Young Master Ye."

Ye Chen then said to Wan Bajun, "Bajun, prepare the car and go to the church hospital."

"Okay Mr. Ye."

Ye Chen turned to Liu Jiahui and said, "Mr. Liu, you can go as well, hurry up and take care of the rest of the matters, it would be best to get the villa done tomorrow."

Chapter 4594

"Fine, fine!" Liu Jiahui nodded his head without thinking and said, "Don't worry Mr. Ye, I will settle this matter tonight!"

Ye Chen nodded in satisfaction, and then looked at Liu Manqiong, whose eyes were red at the side, and said with an arching hand, "Miss Manqiong, please forgive me for having offended you so much today."

Liu Manqiong looked at Ye Chen gamely with a pair of big eyes that held tears in them, wanting to say something, but nothing came out.

Liu Jiahui hurriedly reminded in a low voice at the side, "Manqiong! Mr. Ye is talking to you! What are you still doing being silly, why don't you hurry up and answer!"

Liu Manqiong stubbornly turned her face to the side and reached out to wipe away the tears that had slipped down the corners of her eyes.

Ye Chen felt guilty, but did not know how to explain, so he said to Liu Jiahui, "Mr. Liu, since Miss Manqiong does not want to care about me, you do not have to force yourself."

Liu Jiahui laughed twice in embarrassment and spoke, "My daughter does not know how to be polite let Mr. Ye laugh"

Ye Chen slightly shook his head, turned to look at Fei Kexin and spoke, "Miss Fei, it's hard for you and Mr. Yuan to fly over so far, if you're not in a hurry to go back, I'll treat you to dinner tonight."

Fei Ke Xin smiled, "Good, I'm not in a hurry at all, if Mr. Ye still has to stay on Hong Kong Island for a day or two, I can wait for you on Hong Kong Island, after Mr. Ye finishes his business, we can go back together."

"Good." He planned to return to the United States after Uncle Zhong's family moved into their new home, and since Fei Ke Xin was not in a hurry to leave, he could take the same flight with her.

Fei Ke Xin asked Ye Chen again, "Which hotel are you staying at, Mr Ye?"

Ye Chen looked at Liu Jiahui and Liu Manqiong and said, "I haven't looked for a hotel yet."

Fei Ke Xin also probably saw the reason, so she said, "Then I will choose a hotel and book a room for you as well."

Ye Chen nodded, "Then it will be hard for Miss Fei."

Liu Manqiong looked up at Ye Chen and wanted to say something, but didn't say anything.

On the side, Liu Jiahui was a little disappointed, although he had just been abused by Ye Chen, he still had a cheap desire in his heart to continue to invite Ye Chen and Fei Ke Xin to stay at his house.

However, he also knew that, in this situation, if he still wanted to have some face, he would not be able to open this mouth, so he hesitated and did not say anything.

Ye Chen did not delay any longer and left with Chen Zhaozhong and Wan Bajun.

Fei Ke Xin was also ready to leave, but before she left, she deliberately came to Liu Manqiong, took out a business card from her bag and handed it to Liu Manqiong, saying with a smile, "Miss Liu, I am Fei Ke Xin, this is my business card, if you need anything in the future, you can always contact me."

Liu Manqiong had still been in a trance and in pain, when she suddenly saw the business card handed over by Fei Ke Xin, her whole body was a bit stunned.

She had come over later, so she hadn't even spoken to Fei Ke Xin, and she didn't know why this famous person at the helm of the Fei family had taken the initiative to give herself her business card.

Seeing that her daughter was still dazed, Liu Jiahui at the side quickly reminded her in a low voice, "Manqiong, Miss Fei is talking to you!"

Only then did Liu Manqiong come back to her senses and said in a panic, "Thank you Miss Fei"

Fei Ke Xin smiled kindly and said seriously, "No need to be so polite."

After saying that, she stuffed her business card into Liu Manqiong's hand and smiled blandly, "Miss Liu, I have to leave first, let's contact later."

Liu Manqiong nodded gently and was polite for a while before seeing Fei Ke Xin off.

Fei Ke Xin took Yuan Zixu out of the airport before Yuan Zixu asked with some confusion, "Miss, you seem to be very concerned about that Miss Liu?"

Fei Ke Xin smiled faintly and shook her head, "It's Mr. Ye who is more concerned about her, I just love the house."

Chapter 4595

"Ahem Miss, did you just say that you love the house?!"

Yuan Zixu looked at Fei Ke Xin in surprise, not expecting her to say it so lightly.

Fei Ke Xin welcomed Yuan Zixu's astonished look and laughed, "Master Yuan, you are at least a martial arts master with ears to hear all directions, I just said my words so clearly, did you not hear them clearly?"

Yuan Zixu was busy saying, "No no I just didn't expect this to come out of your mouth Missy, I was a bit surprised"

Fei Ke Xin smiled and said seriously, "Master Yuan need not be surprised, I'm not the only one who likes Mr. Ye, did you notice that Miss Liu just now, how sultry she looked at Mr. Ye, a woman, how sultry she looked at a man, how much she loved him in her heart."

Yuan Zixu nodded and laughed, "You are right about that"

Fei Ke Xin couldn't help but sigh, "Aiya, Mr. Ye has only been on Hong Kong Island for two days, I'm not surprised that in two days she likes to have Mr. Ye, but in two days she can make Mr. Ye's heart ache, I really didn't expect that."

Yuan Zixu was surprised and asked, "How come I didn't see that Mr. Ye was heartbroken about that Miss Liu?"

Fei Ke Xin smiled and said, "That's probably because you didn't observe carefully enough."

Yuan Zixu smiled to himself and then asked Fei Kexin, "Miss, since you also like Mr. Ye, then Miss Liu is your rival, why do you take the initiative to make friends with her?"

Fei Ke Xin laughed, "If Mr. Ye was not married, then she would be my rival in love, but the problem is that Mr. Ye is already married, so she is my comrade, my comrade, my sister."

Saying that, she added, "There is an adjective between men called difficult brother and difficult sister, and she and I, too, are considered difficult sisters and difficult sisters."

Yuan Zixu was dumbfounded by Fei Kexin's bluntness, but on second thought, it was only natural that this young lady, who was no ordinary woman, should act in such a dashing and straightforward manner.

Thinking of this, he said casually, "Miss, it is said that Mr. Ye has many confidantes, the big star Gu Qiuyi, Su Zhiyu of the Su family and Ito Nanaiko of the Ito family, all of whom are heirs to great families like you."

"Right." Fei Ke Xin sighed, "What you said, and that's just a small number of them, there are so many contenders! And each and every one of them looks so powerful, I don't seem to have any advantages at all other than being a bit smart"

Saying that, she turned her head to Yuan Zixu and asked, "Master Yuan, do you think there's any surprising way to win here?"

"Cough cough" Yuan Zixu coughed lightly in embarrassment and spoke, "Miss, to be honest, Mr. Ye is a strange man, not at all something that someone like me can guess, in terms of intelligence, you are much smarter than me, if you can't even if you can't think of any surprising ways to win, I can't even do it."

Fei Ke Xin said helplessly, "If it is how to refuse a man to chase me, then I am definitely experienced, but how to chase a man, I am not experienced at all"

After saying that, she sighed and shook her head, "Forget it, it's a long road, take your time."

Speaking of this, Fei Ke Xin couldn't help but mutter softly, "I see Mr. Ye seemed quite helpless when he was leaving, right now it would be good to help Mr. Ye and Miss Liu clear their differences first."

Yuan Zixu was even more puzzled: “Eldest Miss, what kind of chess are you playing here”

I don’t have any other ideas, I just give my heart and soul to Mr. Ye, even if I don’t end up on the podium, at least I’ll be repaying the favor.”

At this moment.

Ye Chen and Chen Zhaozhong were sitting in the car driven by Wan Xiaojun, speeding to the church hospital.

Chapter 4596

On the way, Chen Zhao Zhong looked more and more anxious, with cold sweat crop after cold sweat crop on his forehead.

Seeing that he was nervous, Ye Chen said, “Uncle Zhong, you don’t have to worry too much, the old man will definitely be able to turn his life around.”

Chen Zhaozhong let out a long sigh, “My mother is over 80 years old, and I am afraid that a stroke at this age will not be very optimistic.”

Ye Chen smiled faintly, “Don’t worry, there will be no problem.”

Chen Zhao Zhong nodded slightly, but his expression was still worried.

Wan Bajun soon drove the car to the entrance of the church hospital.

Without waiting for the car to stop, Chen Zhao Zhong hurriedly pushed the door and got out, dashing all the way to the lobby.

He went to the nurse’s desk to ask for information about his mother, and the nurse on duty quickly found out the department and bed number of the old lady.

Chen Zhaozhong hurriedly followed the instructions and raced to the ward where his mother was.

When he arrived at the door, he stopped and knocked gently on the door.

A woman’s voice soon came from inside: “Please come in.”

Chen Zhaozhong pushed open the door of the ward and saw that there was only one bed inside the ward. The old lady was wearing an oxygen mask and was lying very weakly on the bed.

When the five middle-aged men saw Chen Zhao Zhong at the door, they all stood frozen on the spot as if struck by lightning, and one of the older women asked in shock, “Brother? Is it really you, big brother?”

Chen Zhao Zhong looked at her and couldn’t hide his excitement as he asked, “Are you, you Xiao Lian?”

The woman heard Chen Zhao Zhong call her name, tears immediately came out of her eyes, she hurriedly ran over and hugged Chen Zhao Zhong, crying, “Big brother, why did you come back, the surname Liu has been trying to kill you, you ran back at this time, if he knows, he will definitely not let you go

The other man and woman also rushed up at this time, the two also hugged Chen Zhao Zhong tightly, crying and asking the same question.

This man and two women, is Chen Zhao Zhong's younger brother and two sisters.

When Chen Zhao Zhong ran away with Fang Jia Xin, the eldest of his siblings was still studying and the youngest was not yet an adult.

In the blink of an eye, twenty years have passed and his younger brother, who was still studying at university, is now in his forties, while his younger sister, who was still in secondary school, is now married to a woman.

And apart from his younger brother and sister, the other two men, his two brothers-in-law, he is meeting for the first time today.

In all the years that Chen Zhaozhong has been in the United States, he has never met with his family in all these years, although he often uses email to contact them.

Even though his family knew that he was in New York's Chinatown, no one dared to visit him in New York for his safety.

Moreover, nowadays, they are all in the relatively bottom class on Hong Kong Island, making a decent living and knowing very little about the outside world, and they have not heard of the news that Chen Zhao Zhong will be extradited back.

Therefore, when they suddenly saw Chen Zhaozhong return, apart from being excited, they were more worried that Liu Jiahui would kill him once he returned.

Chen Zhao Zhong held back his tears and comforted them, "You don't have to worry, Mr Liu and I have already sort of cleared the air."

After saying that, he hurriedly asked, "How is Ma's condition?"

Chen Zhao Zhong's younger brother said in tears, "Big brother, mum is already in a deep coma, the doctor has long said that she would not wake up, the doctor called us this morning and said that mum should only be in the next day or two"

When Chen Zhao Zhong heard this, he rushed to the hospital bed and took the old lady's hand in both hands, crying, "Mom, it's me, Ah Zhong. I'm back to see you, open your eyes and see if I'm okay, Mom!"

Chapter 4597

At this moment, the old lady had lost all her senses and her life breath was even very weak.

Chen Zhaozhong and his mother had not seen each other for twenty years, and now they were finally reunited, but he did not expect that his mother was already dying, and it had become difficult for her to even look at him.

Thinking back on the twenty years he had not been able to be there for his parents, Chen broke down and cried like a child as he held his mother's hand.

His younger siblings were affected by him and also gathered around his mother's bed and cried.

Seeing this, Ye Chen deliberately took out a blood dispersing heart saving pill from his body, walked up and handed it to Chen Zhao Zhong, "Uncle Zhong, this pill should be able to cure your mother, so you should feed it to her now."

Chen Zhao Zhong looked at the elixir and instantly remembered something, so he subconsciously went to his pocket and pulled out a small wooden box from it and said seriously, "Young Master Ye, the elixir you gave me before, I still carry it close to me all the time, this, can it cure my mother?"

Ye Chen nodded and said, "Yes, my grandfather was extremely ill before and was saved by an elixir."

Chen Zhao Zhong could not hold back his delight and said, "That would be great, thank you Young Master Ye, I will give this to my mother to take!"

After saying that, he immediately opened the wooden box and took out the blood dispersing and heart saving pill from inside.

Ye Chen didn't insist any further and silently withdrew the pill he had taken out.

Chen Zhao Zhong immediately took off his mother's oxygen mask and said to his brother, "Ah Zu, help me help my mother up."

His brother hurriedly did as he was told and gently lifted the upper half of the old lady's body up.

Chen Zhao Zhong put the elixir given to him by Ye Chen into the old lady's mouth, and then stared at her with rapt attention, expecting a miracle to happen.

And the Blood Dispersing and Heart Saving Pill never disappointed.

After only a few seconds, the old lady's waxy face took on a colour of blood and her breathing, which had been extremely weak, gradually became even and strong.

Perhaps because she hadn't adjusted to the light at once, the old lady couldn't see anything for a while, and she said in a vague voice: "Joe I just had a dream I dreamed that your big brother came back"

Several of the children were speechless with shock, no one had expected that Ye Chen's elixir would be so effective, in a matter of ten seconds, the person had awakened from a deep coma!

The old mother's first words after she woke up also made Chen Zhao Zhong cry out instantly, he choked out, "Mom, I'm Ah Zhong, I'm back!"

"Ah Ah Zhong?!"

The old lady's body was stunned as she raised her hand to rub her eyes.

After her vision gradually returned and the scene in front of her gradually became clearer, she stared at Chen Zhao Zhong with wide eyes for a long time before suddenly reaching out her hand to slap him and cursed angrily, “b*d, who told you to come back!”

After that, she looked angrily at her second son and two daughters and questioned, “Who told you to call your elder brother back? Didn’t I tell you that I can’t tell him even if I die! As soon as he returns to Hong Kong Island, Liu’s name will kill him!”

Chen Zhao Zhong was busy saying, “Mom, don’t worry, I’ve made up with Liu, no one will want me dead!”

“How is that possible?” The old lady couldn’t believe it and blurted out, “Last time Jia Xin came to see me, she even asked me to tell you not to go back to Hong Kong Island, saying that Liu refused to let you go for so many years, you made him be laughed at by the whole Hong Kong Island, he has always hated you to the core, how could he reconcile with you?”

Chen Zhao Zhong turned around, pointed at Ye Chen, and said to the old lady, “Mom, thanks to Young Master Ye’s help in mediating between me, Liu Jia Hui also reconciled with me because of his face.”

Saying that, Chen Zhao Zhong added, “By the way mum, it is also thanks to the elixir Young Master Ye gave you that you were able to wake up.”

The old lady looked at Ye Chen and was surprised to see how young he was, but she still said with great respect, “Young Master Ye, on behalf of our whole family, I thank you for your great kindness!”

Ye Chen said, “Granny, don’t be polite, Uncle Zhong was my father’s best friend, this is all I should do.”

Chapter 4598

Saying that, Ye Chen asked with concern, “How are you feeling now? Is there any obvious discomfort?”

The old lady suddenly froze and said in surprise, “Aiya, after hearing you say that I really don’t seem to be uncomfortable anywhere”

The old lady tried to sit up by herself and felt very light. Earlier, she had almost lost half of her life because of the stroke, but now she did not feel the slightest sign of stroke and her whole body was in a surprisingly good condition.

Several of the children were shocked and speechless.

The doctors even thought that the old lady was dying and would pa*s away in a day or two.

However, Chen Zhaozhong’s elder brother fed her an unknown elixir, and as a result, not only did she lose her stroke symptoms, but she was also glowing, which was really unbelievable.

Chen Zhao Zhong hurriedly looked at Ye Chen and asked him, “Young Master Ye, is my mother ready to be discharged from the hospital?”

Ye Chen nodded, “Basically, there is no longer any need to stay in hospital for observation.”

Chen Zhao Zhong was excited and said to the old lady, “Mom, let’s go home!”

The old lady said, "There's no rush to go home first, you've hardly come home for a reunion, we have to go to Sandy Ridge first, you haven't come back for so many years, you must go to pay respect to your dad first!"

"Sandy Ridge?" Chen Zhao Zhong was surprised and asked, "Dad is buried in Sandy Ridge? That place is too remote, I remember it was a place that the Hong Kong government used to use exclusively for the burial of nameless corpses"

His younger brother Chen Zhaozu, who was on the side, hurriedly explained, "Big brother, you haven't been back to Hong Kong Island for many years, so you may not know much about the situation on Hong Kong Island."

Said Chen Zhaozu, his eyes red, continued, "Back then, before Dad left, in order to give him medical treatment, the family's money was almost spent, after he left, the family simply could not afford to buy a decent cemetery"

"In fact, not to mention the cemetery, at that time we could not even afford to buy a niche, coincidentally at that time the Sandy Ridge Cemetery was about to be developed, a new batch of cemeteries were built, and it was only with the help of Miss Fang that we were able to buy a regular cemetery for Dad in Sandy Ridge, compared to those who could only be dedicated to the deceased in a niche, it was already very rare for Dad to be truly laid to rest"

Chen Zhao Zhong's little sister also could not help but choke up, "It is still the fault of us children who are incapable of" Otherwise, there is no need for Miss Fang to help out, because of this matter, Liu Jiahui even scolded her"

Chen Zhao Zhong pursed his lips and subconsciously asked, "Jia Xin" Oh no, Mrs. Liu does she come over often?"

Chen Zhao Zhong's little sister explained, "At first, she came often, when Liu Jia Hui first married her, she was very spoiled and basically let her do everything, so she often came over to see mum and dad, then after dad died, she didn't dare to come blatantly anymore, and came less often, the other day mum was hospitalized, she even came specially, and gave some money, but we didn't confiscate"

She paused and added: "Big brother" In fact" In fact, thanks to Miss Fang's care over the years, the family has been able to come this far" So you shouldn't hate her too much for what happened back then"

Chen Zhao Zhong's expression was a bit complicated for a moment, and he couldn't help but ask, "For so many years, how come none of you have ever told me about these things?"

The little sister hesitated for a moment and spoke, "Miss Fang didn't let us tell you" She said she had already put you through a lot of trouble and didn't want you to suffer any more because of her after she left you"

At this moment, Chen Zhao Zhong's heart was filled with mixed feelings.

Although he had long since let go of the matter of Fang Jiabin leaving him, once he heard that the other party had never forgotten his parents and family for so many years, his heart instantly throbbed a little again.

There are times when, if the other party is desperate enough, the one who is hurt can come out with a vengeance.

However, the fear is that this kind of inseparable state, suddenly learn that the other party in his heart is more or less still have some place for himself, that kind of feeling is more likely to make people fall deeper into it

Meanwhile.

The Liu family had also returned to Shi Xundao's mansion by car.

On the way back, Liu Jiahui and Fang Jiaxin took one car, while Liu Manqiong drove her own Tesla.

Liu Jiahui could see that his daughter was in a trance and lost in thought, so he wanted her to go back with him in the car, but Liu Manqiong refused.

Liu Manqiong was distracted and wanted to be alone, but to her surprise, all she could think of on the drive back was Ye Chen.

The more she thought about it, the more she felt that Ye Chen seemed to have been burned into her heart.

However, when she thought that Ye Chen had been deceiving herself from the beginning to the end, she could not help but have more complaints against Ye Chen in her heart.

Luckily, although she was preoccupied, she did not encounter any unexpected incidents on the way back and drove the car home safely.

When she parked the car, Liu Jiahui got out of the front car as if he had lost his soul, as if he was recovering from a serious illness, and even his movement was a little difficult.

Fang Jiaxin welcomed this and hurriedly held him up, asking with concern, "Jiahui, are you all right?"

Liu Jiahui sighed, waved his hand feebly and said, "Let's talk about it at home."

Liu Manqiong also felt a bit sorry for her dad, and hurriedly walked to the other side to hold him in place.

When the three of them entered the villa, Liu Jiahui let the two of them bring him to the sofa and sat down.

The moment he sat down, Liu Jiahui let out a long breath as if he was relieved and sighed, "I have lived for more than 50 years, but today is the most frightening day"

Fang Jiaxin choked back tears and said, "I'm sorry Jiahui, it's all my fault"

"Don't blame you." Liu Jiahui waved his hand and sighed, "It's because I've been too wild myself, always thinking that a mere Chen Zhao Zhong is just a stink bug in front of me, as long as he appears, I can slap him to death" But I never thought that the powerful Ye Chang Ying would have a son"

Fang Jiaxin said, "That Ye Chang Ying, I've heard Chen Zhao Zhong talk about it before, if I remember correctly, he seems to be the son-in-law of the An family in America."

"Yes" Liu Jiahui said with a palpitating heart, "Back then, Ye Chang Ying had a great reputation in the Chinese field, but the most famous one was his wife, An Chengqing That was really the light of the Chinese Anyone who talks about her can't help but give her a thumbs up"

I used to think that all three of his family were dead, after all, I had never heard that their son was still alive, but I didn't expect that their son would be a real a*set now Not to mention the An family, a giant, just the Ten Thousand Dragons Hall alone is already a scary sight"

After a pause, Liu Jiahui sighed, "Chen Zhaozhong has such a backing, I am convinced of my loss this time."

Fang Jiaxin at the side was busy saying, "Jiahui, when you go to Yanjing in a few days, I will also accompany you."

Liu Jiahui looked at her and said seriously, "It's very hard to go to Yanjing, Ye Chen asked me to go to his dad's grave to repent, I can't leave for three months, I'm afraid I'll be sleeping in the wind and I don't know how much I have to suffer."

"It's okay!" Fang Jiaxin said without thinking, "Since we are husband and wife, we are meant to share difficulties."

Liu Jiahui smiled mockingly and suddenly said, "In fact, if you still have Chen Zhao Zhong in your heart, you can consider renewing your relationship with him, he now has such a backer as Ye Chen, plus his own ability is outstanding, his future must be unlimited."

I've been telling you since I came back from the US that I'm done with him and it's impossible for me to go back in my life. I've been feeling more guilty about him for so many years, after all, I made him drift away for so many years, so I've been quietly taking care of his family for my own good"

Chapter 4600

I've been telling you since I came back from the US that I'm done with him and it's impossible for me to go back in my life. I've been feeling more guilty about him for so many years, after all, I made him drift away for so many years, so I've been quietly taking care of his family for my own good"

I've been looking at Liu Jiahui with tears in my eyes and said sincerely, "Jiahui, after today's incident, he can return to Hong Kong Island safely and reunite with his family safely, that hurdle in my heart is also over, from now on, I just want to live a good life with you, just like the vows we made when we got married, in poverty or in sickness"

A lifetime of flowers, Liu Jiahui's heart suddenly surged with an unprecedented feeling of emotion.

In the past, when he faced every woman, he had an attitude of superiority, he felt that these women were the objects of his favor and were extremely lucky to be in his good graces.

It was because of such a transcendent mentality that he could indulge in flamboyance for so many years.

Although Fang Jiabin was the one he liked the most among all his women, in his heart, he still looked down on her.

When Fang Jiabin followed Chen Zhaozhong to the United States, in his eyes, it was like having his favourite toy snatched away from him, and when Fang Jiabin returned, he only wanted to keep this lost and found toy tied to him forever.

But ask him if he really loved Fang Jiabin, his answer must be in the negative.

Even though he did love Fang Jiabin back then, after Fang Jiabin ran away once, he kept himself in check and did not invest too much in this woman.

And over the years, he had followed through very well.

Even though Fang Jiabin was Mrs. Liu, she did not have the opportunity to dominate his family's assets, and even if she was married, she would still be nothing more than a canary to be bred.

But at this moment, he suddenly felt that deep inside himself, he seemed to have been touched by Fang Jiabin's words just now.

He had spent his whole life with complete pride in the flowers, but the moment he knelt down in front of Ye Chen and begged for forgiveness, his pride had long since vanished.

Now he was more like a general who had lost a battle, without the pride he had previously felt, but because the woman beside him had never left him, a softness had arisen in his heart.

It was a softness that could make a defeated man feel a little warmth.

So, with a light sigh, he nodded and spoke, "If you have truly let go of him in your heart, then let's live our lives well from now on, and let's write off the past."

Hearing these words, Fang Jiabin was moved to tears.

Over the years, she also knew how Liu Jiahui had treated herself.

Although she was not willing to do so, she at least had the self-awareness to know why Liu Jiahui had a hard-on for her.

For so many years, she had been trying to find an opportunity to bridge this divide, but had been powerless to do so.

But who would have thought that today, after Liu Jiahui had suffered a calamity, the ill feelings she had towards herself would suddenly be removed, which made her heart overwhelmed.

Liu Manqiong, who was at the side, had also experienced a subtle change in her heart.

In the past, she had been discontented with Fang Jiabin, but now she suddenly felt some sympathy for this woman.

Moreover, seeing that she and her father had completely bridged the gap between them, Liu Manqiong felt a little bit of relief in her heart.

However, she did not want to watch the two of them confess their true feelings here, so she stood up and said, "I'll go back to my room to rest for a while."

Liu Jiahui was busy asking, "Manqiong, have you contacted Miss Fei yet?"

"No." Liu Manqiong was surprised and asked, "Why are you asking about this?"

Liu Jiahui said, "I was thinking that you could get in touch with Miss Fei a bit more."

Liu Manqiong shook her head and said, "I'm not from the same world as her, there's nothing to get in touch with."

Liu Jiahui said seriously, "Miss Fei must know more about Ye Chen, from her, she should be able to know some information related to Ye Chen!"
