

Ye Chen 4671

Chapter 4671

When Fei Jianzhong arrived at the entrance of the main villa of the Fei family estate, with the help of his butler, Fei Kexin's motorcade also arrived just in time.

The rest of the Fei family had also followed.

When Fei Ke Xin got out of the car and saw her grandfather personally come out to greet her, she immediately understood what was in her grandfather's mind, and when she thought that she still had the Blood Dispersing and Heart Saving Pill that Ye Chen had given her in her pocket, her heart was more or less apprehensive.

She knew that her grandfather's expectation for the Spring Return Pill and the Blood Dispersing Heart Saving Pill had surpassed everything, and as a granddaughter, she should not hesitate to take this pill out and give it to her grandfather.

However, once she thought of Ye Chen's previous instructions, she could only resist this impulse.

She then hurriedly walked over to the old master and said respectfully, "Grandfather, why have you even come out personally."

With an eager gaze, the old master said with a smile on his lips, "You are the head of the Fei family and have just returned from so far away, so naturally I had to come out to greet and cleanse your dust."

As he said that, he hurriedly asked again, "This time, it should be done very securely, right? I saw a report about it on the news, that Liu Jiahui, it seems, shook hands with Chen Zhao Zhong and made peace?"

"Yes." Fei Kexin nodded and said, "With Mr. Ye sitting in, Liu Jiahui wouldn't dare to do anything to Mr. Chen, besides, Mr. Ye has also given him enough face this time, I can see that he is still quite happy."

"That's good." The old man said with a smile, "Mr. Ye is as kind to our Fei family as a mountain, it's an honour for us to be able to do something for him in a small way."

When he said this, the old man was tempted to ask Fei Ke Xin, "After you helped Ye Chen this time, did Ye Chen show anything."

However, he could not ask such a straightforward question, so he said with a smile, "Ke Xin, hurry up and go inside, and also tell grandpa the specific details of this trip to Hong Kong Island."

Fei Kexin nodded slightly, greeted the other people, and then went to the study with Fei Jianzhong.

This study in the main villa of the Fei family had actually always been used by Fei Jianzhong.

The study has an area of over 100 square metres and is extremely well-decorated, even the imperial study of an ancient emperor would hardly be comparable to it.

It was also the place where Fei Jianzhong made many of the major decisions affecting the Fei family.

Right now, although Fei Ke Xin had become the head of the Fei family, she had not taken over the old man's place, and this was still the old man's home turf.

But today the situation was a little different.

After entering with the old master, Fei Kexin subconsciously prepared to go to the seat in front of the book case and sit down, while the old master reached out his hand in an empty space and stopped her, saying to her, "Kexin, you sit inside."

Fei Jianzhong's book case was specially acquired from an auction at great expense. The table was made entirely of top-quality Hainan Huanghuali wood, and the craftsmanship was extremely elaborate, with a history of over 500 years, passed down in order through the Ming and Qing dynasties, of which it had even reached the hands of the imperial chancellor.

Fei Jianzhong visited a chair, also made of Hainan Huanghuali, on the inside of the study case, which was his special seat, while on the outside of the case, three slightly smaller chairs were placed.

Normally, in his study, the only people who could sit in front of this bookcase, apart from him, were the limited number of people in the Fei family, and when Fei Ke Xin came, it was only natural that he chose one of the three chairs.

Chapter 4672

However, today, Fei Jianzhong asked her to sit on the inside, which was something that she had never done before in her memory.

Seeing Fei Ke Xin's surprised expression, Fei Jianzhong said with a smile, "Ke Xin, now that you are the head of the Fei family, it is only right that you sit in this seat."

Fei Kexin hurriedly said, "Grandpa, this is your study, your book case, even if I am the head of the Fei family, I am only your granddaughter here, if I am in the group, I am sitting in the chairman's office that is official business, but at home, how can I sit in your seat ....." "

Fei Jianzhong waved his hand and said seriously, "Fei family is a family business, home is business, business is home, you are the head of the Fei family, this identity is not only the chairman of the Fei Group, but also the leader of the entire Fei family, even I, is also subject to your command, follow orders with you."

After saying that, without waiting for Fei Ke Xin to speak, he first sat down on one of the three chairs before saying to Fei Ke Xin, "Ke Xin, please do."

Fei Ke Xin was instantly a little stressed, but still nodded gently and said, "Thank you, Grandpa."

After saying that, she carefully sat down opposite Fei Jianzhong.

Only then did Fei Jianzhong nod in satisfaction and said with a smile, "Come, tell grandpa about the journey to Hong Kong Island this time."

Fei Ke Xin didn't have anything to hide and told almost everything about herself and Ye Chen before they got on the plane.

However, there was one thing she did not say, and that was the matter of Ye Chen giving Liu Manqiong a blood dispersing heart saving pill.

The reason why she didn't say it was also because she was worried that after hearing it, other thoughts would sprout in grandpa's heart.

After all, she knew too well how much he wanted to live, so if he really got hot-headed and got the idea of Liu Manqiong's blood dispersal pills, I was afraid that he might make a big mistake if he was not careful.

Even if he had gone to Liu Manqiong to buy the Blood Dissipation Pill, Ye Chen would have had something to say to him if word of this had reached his ears.

So, she then directly made the matter of the blood dispersing and heart saving pills out of the narrative.

After hearing this, Fei Jianzhong could not help but sigh, "Liu Jiahui is really lucky, if not for this daughter of his, I think he would definitely not have been able to pa*s this hurdle!"

"Yes." Fei Ke Xin also agreed and said, "You have never seen Liu Manqiong, she is indeed a fairy-like, well-behaved and beautiful lady, especially when she cries, that pearly look is truly a pity to me, if I were a man, I would also be moved by her."

Fei Jianzhong tsked, "Aiya, it's really hard for a hero to get over a beauty, even if Mr. Ye has such an uncanny ability, in front of a beautiful woman, he can't help himself."

Fei Ke Xin shrugged and said, "Mr. Ye is probably more empathetic towards Liu Manqiong, although their childhood experiences are not quite the same, they also have a lot in common, people, the rarest thing is empathy, when men and women of the opposite sex find the same frequency in something very important, that kind of good feeling is uncontrollable."

Fei Jianzhong nodded and added, "It seems that you did help Mr. Ye a lot this time when you went to Hong Kong Island, Mr. Ye asked you to endorse Liu Jiahui, that is because of Liu Manqiong's face and wanted to give Liu Jiahui a chance."

Fei Ke Xin smiled, "Actually, I didn't do much, I just stepped in and said a few words, but for someone of Liu Jiahui's size, it did still do a lot."

Fei Jianzhong asked again, "Then Mr Ye should be very satisfied this time, right? Not only did he solve all of Chen Zhao Zhong's troubles, he also settled all of his family members, but he also got to know Liu Manqiong, his confidante, and before he left, he also gave Liu Manqiong's father some face, did enough to appease him, and even incidentally settled the ten-year US$10 billion funding for the Wan Long Temple. "

"Yes." Fei Ke Xin nodded and said, "Mr. Ye has indeed gained a lot from his trip to Hong Kong Island this time."

Fei Jianzhong smiled and said, "That's good, that's good!"

After saying that, he gave a slight pause and struggled for a moment in his heart, but he still couldn't control himself and asked, "Right Kexin, you helped Mr. Ye this time, didn't he show any sign?"

Chapter 4673

The moment she was asked this question by her grandfather, Fei Ke Xin's heart was more or less in a state of panic.

But fortunately, Ye Chen had given her a precautionary shot about this matter long ago, so she didn't have to deal with it in a disorderly manner.

She then spoke calmly, "Grandpa, Mr. Ye clearly said on his way back that he was very satisfied with the Fei family's performance in many matters during this period of time, so he will personally come to New York some time later to meet you and express his gratitude to you in person."

Fei Jianzhong was a little nervous all of a sudden and couldn't help but ask, "Ke Xin, did Mr. Ye really say that?"

"Yes." Fei Ke Xin nodded and said in a gradual manner, "Originally, Mr. Ye said that he would definitely show something to the Fei family, and I requested that he would give more consideration to your situation, Grandpa, and take care of your situation and feelings as much as possible."

Fei Ke Xin was considered to have an extra little thought at this point.

In fact, Ye Chen had given the Fei family two rewards this time in order to show his recognition of the Fei family.

One, was the blood dispersal and heart saving pill that was hidden on his own body.

The other, was the 10,000 gold promise to keep grandfather alive for another ten years.

Fei Ke Xin knew that Ye Chen had done all this to consolidate his dominance in the Fei family, so he could not let down Ye Chen's expectations of him.

Right now was a good opportunity for her to show off in front of her grandfather, which was why she deliberately described Ye Chen's second reward as her own initiative to transfer all of Ye Chen's rewards for the entire Fei family to her grandfather alone.

Although saying so made her heart more or less weak, she could only try her best to overcome the obstacle in her heart considering the ultimate goal of the matter.

When Fei Jianzhong heard Fei Kexin say so, his heart was naturally surprised beyond measure, and he could not help but speak up, "Kexin, you ..... you say so, has Mr. Ye agreed?"

Looking at Fei Jianzhong's peculiar and incomparable eyes, Fei Kexin gently nodded and said seriously, "Mr. Ye has already agreed."

Fei Jianzhong hurriedly asked again, "Ke Xin, with your deduction, what kind of reward will Mr. Ye ..... give me for this matter?"

Fei Ke Xin seriously said, "Grandfather, Mr. Ye knows your biggest difficulty at the moment, I believe he will definitely send charcoal in snow."

Fei Jianzhong's eyes lit up and he said offhandedly, "If that's really the case, that would be great!"

As he said that, he could not help but look at Fei Ke Xin and sighed, “Ke Xin, grandpa has survived until today thanks to you, if not for you, this old bone of grandpa would have been buried in the earth long ago .....

Fei Ke Xin smiled faintly and said seriously, “Grandpa, in fact, you and I have survived to this day thanks to Mr. Ye.”

“Yes .....” Fei Jianzhong couldn’t help but feel a lot of emotions and said from the bottom of his heart, “It’s really a blessing in three lives to be associated with Mr. Ye.”

Speaking of this, he remembered something and hurriedly asked, “Ke Xin, did Mr. Ye say when he would come to New York?”

“No.” Fei Ke Xin said, “Mr. Ye only said that he would find time to come over before he returns home, he didn’t say exactly which day, but Mr. Ye will only be accompanying his wife to the United States for a month or so in total this time, so I reckon it will only be around twenty days in the future at the latest.”

“Good, great!” Fei Jianzhong exclaimed, “In that case, it seems that my old bones will still be in the ground three or two more years later .....”

Providence.

Chapter 4674

Ma Lan, who was walking with the middle-aged and elderly storm troopers, was in an extraordinarily good mood.

Earlier, the money Ye Chen gave her, she took to buy a Goddess Dream, and also won a jackpot worth one million two hundred thousand dollars, unexpectedly Ye Chen unexpectedly coincidentally, gave her another identical necklace, so that she just go back to sell this necklace, it is like she earned a necklace for nothing, and also experienced an excellent private plane trip, followed by a few days tour of the United States.

She could then go back to New York for a couple of days of fun and then return home satisfied.

When she returns, she will be able to get back to her old life again, and it will be so relaxing.

Because of her good mood, Ma Lan’s mouth was grinning and happy as she strolled around.

As she breathed with her mouth open, she soon felt her mouth was dry and her breath was uneven, causing her to lose the pace of the group, and she gradually fell out of line.

At this time, the deputy leader of the marching team, a Chinese woman who had settled in the United States, saw that Ma Lan had fallen behind, so she hurriedly came over and said with a smile, “Oh Ma Lan, why did you fall behind so quickly today?”

The woman’s name was Chen Liping, two years older than Ma Lan, and Ma Lan always called her Sister Chen.

This Sister Chen had never worked in the United States, it was said that her son and daughter-in-law had started their own business in the United States, and she and her husband had followed him to live in the United States and help with the children in the meantime.

Coincidentally, Sister Chen's hometown is in the same province as Ma Lan's. Although they are not in the same city, the two cities are next to each other, not far away from each other.

Ma Lan is a person who is usually above her station, and if she really met her hometown outside, she would not necessarily have the feeling of seeing her hometown with tears in her eyes. The car that she usually drives to the rampage is also a high end Porsche Cayenne worth several million dollars.

Unlike herself, although she lived in a mansion and drove a luxury car, she did not own it, and her real disposable assets were far less.

It was precisely for this reason that she had a few more friendships with this Sister Chen.

Seeing that this Sister Chen had come over to offer her condolences, Ma Lan panted and explained, "Aiya Sister Chen, I don't know what happened today, my mouth is so dry and I feel that my physical exertion is also much greater than before."

Chen Liping smiled and explained, "You, ah, must remember to close your mouth and breathe through your nose when you walk, and must adjust the rhythm of your breathing so that you can be in the best condition."

Ma Lan nodded and said with a smile, "Okay, okay, I'll adjust it again, Sister Chen, you follow the group first, don't worry about me, I'll just walk slowly by myself."

Chen Liping waved her hand, "Why, the aim of our storm troop is not to abandon and not to give up, how can we let you fall behind alone? I'll walk with you, it just so happens that my joints are not feeling well today and I'm not fit to walk too fast."

Ma Lan asked her, "What's wrong with Sister Chen's joints? Do you have arthritis?"

Chen Liping laughed, "It's just a little problem I have, it usually clears up in a few days."

As she said that, she digressed and asked curiously, "By the way Ma Lan, what happy event did you meet today? Why are you so happy? I can see that you are so happy all the way, what good things do you have to share with me?"

Ma Lan said smilingly, "It's not a happy occasion, I'm just going back to China soon, I've had enough of being in America for a while, so I want to go back soon."

Chen Liping faintly stared, a different look flashed in her eyes, and then she said with a reluctant face, "Oh, you've only been here for a few days and you're going back, it's rare for me to meet a sister with a similar temperament like you."

Ma Lan said with a smile, "It's okay, Sister Chen, we have contact information, we can get together again when you arrive in China or when I come back to America."

Chen Liping said with a regretful expression, "Hey, I was going to invite you to our home one day for a meal and introduce my husband and son and daughter-in-law to you."

Ma Lan was surprised and said, "Oh, that's great, we're not going to New York until Friday anyway, how about tomorrow night? I'll bring my daughter and my son-in-law over to pay a visit!"

Chen Liping hesitated for a moment and then agreed, saying, "OK, then we have a deal!"

Chapter 4675

When Ma Lan returned to the presidential suite of the Hilton Hotel, the first thing she asked Xiao Churan and Ye Chen was, "Churan, good son-in-law, do you two have something to do tomorrow night?"

Xiao Churan asked curiously, "What's wrong, Mom?"

Ma Lan explained, "Mom has a very close sister in the storm troopers, she said she wants to invite us to her home for a family dinner. I'm leaving soon, so I'm going to her house for dinner before I leave."

Xiao Churan was a bit surprised and asked, "Mom ..... you can still find a soulmate you can get along with?"

Ma Lan brushed aside her mouth, "Aiyo, look at you, don't you have any friends? Then didn't your Aunt Zhao, your Aunt Sun, your Aunt Liu, and I all used to be quite close?"

Xiao Churan asked awkwardly, "Were they very close to you? Why do I remember that you seemed to just play mahjong together and go to the beauty salon together, and then somehow you fell out."

Ma Lan was instantly a little embarrassed and waved her hand in a panic: "Those are all old history, let's not mention them!"

In fact, the reason why Ma Lan's friends broke up was because after she had stolen Ye Chen's bank card and transferred the money away, she felt that she had become rich and instantly despised those old sisters.

At that time, Ma Lan had even undermined them on the phone, but to her surprise, she was sent to the prison after that incident and experienced life inside the high walls for a few days.

Ma Lan is a person who, for a long time, could be described as a collection of Chinese shrews.

First of all, she is extremely snobbish, whoever has money is the father, never mind whether the money can be spent on herself, she also kneels down first.

She has been following Mrs. Xiao's and Qian Hongyan's footsteps for so many years, and during the first three years of Ye Chen's marriage to Xiao Churan, she has been trying to get Xiao Churan to divorce Ye Chen and marry another rich man, which is the best reflection of her character.

In addition to this, Ma Lan was also extremely narrow-minded, and in six simple words, she said, "Hate people, laugh at them."

Therefore, Ma Lan really did not have any close friends.

Although Xiao Churan was not extremely intelligent, she knew her mother very well and felt that a person like her mother had nothing to do with the words "soulmate" or "friend".

Ma Lan also knew why her daughter was questioning her, so she said unnaturally, “Churan, you can’t still look at your mother the way you did before, you have to look at her from a developmental perspective. process of becoming better?”

Ma Lan said, a little emotional, and continued, “Tell yourself, what kind of attitude do I have towards Ye Chen now? That’s like hating your heart and lungs!”

Seeing that her mother was a bit agitated, Xiao Churan quickly nodded and said, “You’re right, mum, it’s my vision that can’t keep up with the development .....

After saying that, she hurriedly changed the subject and asked, “By the way mum, what does your sister do?”

Ma Lan was busy saying, “She just emigrated here with her son and daughter-in-law and is here to help them look after their children.”

Then Ma Lan explained, “By the way, this sister and Ma are from the same hometown! Her hometown is not far from your grandmother’s.

Chapter 4676

Xiao Churan nodded and said, “Mom, I don’t know Ye Chen and this aunt either, so it’s not appropriate to go to their home as a guest, and you know Ye Chen’s character, he’s not that social, so why don’t you go by yourself?”

“How can I do that .....” Ma Lan said seriously, “Mom has told them that this is a party for both families, so the older generation can get to know each other, and the younger generation can also get to know each other and make friends. It’s a good idea to have more friends.”

He said, and Ma Lan said solemnly, “You two can’t let Mom go back on her word on this kind of thing!”

Xiao Churan looked at Ye Chen and asked, “Honey, what do you think .....”

Ye Chen smiled faintly, “Since mum has already spoken to others, it’s really inappropriate for us not to go.”

Ma Lan hurriedly nodded her head one after another and said offhandedly, “It still has to be my good son-in-law at the critical moment!”

She said, “Then it’s a deal, tomorrow at 6pm, we’ll go there together, Churan, you’ll go to your normal class tomorrow, and my good son-in-law will go with me to buy some gifts, it’s not good to go empty-handed when we visit someone’s home for the first time.”

Xiao Churan saw that Ye Chen had agreed, so she couldn’t say anything else, so she nodded and said, “Okay then.”

The following afternoon.

Ma Lan called out to Ye Chen and drove around downtown Providence.

Marashi picked through a number of gift shops and finally, at Ye Chen's suggestion, bought a set of beautiful tableware worth several hundred dollars as an accompanying gift.

Ye Chen felt that when visiting a home as an ordinary friend, the accompanying gift must not be too expensive, otherwise it would not seem so pure.

Ma Lan also knew that Sister Chen's family was well-off and not short of money, so it was not so important that the items were expensive, but mainly a token of appreciation.

At half past five, the two of them picked up Xiao Churan at the entrance of the school, and then Ye Chen drove to the neighbourhood where the other party lived, according to the location he had sent to Ma Lan.

The destination was about ten kilometres away from the city centre, but the roads were in good condition, so the drive was quick and took about twenty minutes.

The community is a very upmarket, high-end neighbourhood in Providence, with very sparse architecture and well-kept buildings, landscaping and roads.

On top of that, there were police cars parked along the main road in and out of the community. In the United States, communities that can have police officers on duty to protect them are very powerful, because police officers are not free, but on the contrary, the cost is very high, so high that ordinary communities simply cannot afford it.

Ye Chen followed the navigation and parked his car in front of a very sophisticated three-storey villa.

At that moment, the door of the house inside the low hedge wall opened and a woman of similar age to Ma Lan, the same Sister Chen with whom Ma Lan was very close, came out of the door to welcome her.

Seeing Ma Lan, Sister Chen said very happily, "Aiya Ma Lan, you're finally here!"

After saying that, she saw Ye Chen and Xiao Churan also get down from the car, so she said with a smile, "These two are your daughter and son-in-law, right? Welcome, come and have a seat in the house!"

This Sister Chen's enthusiasm made Ye Chen feel as if she was a bit deliberate.

However, Ye Chen did not think much of it, and after waiting for Ma Lan to exchange a few pleasantries with the other party, he followed her into the villa, together with Xiao Churan.

Chapter 4677

Chen Liping warmly invited Ye Chen's family into the house, and by now, the aroma of the meal could already be smelled in the living room.

The interior of the villa was very elaborately decorated, and at a glance, it had taken a lot of effort, even compared to the villas in Townsend One.

There were many pictures of adults and children hanging on the walls of the home, each of them very warm and welcoming.

Ma Lan looked around and had a new perception of Sister Chen's strength, then she hurriedly introduced Chen Liping to Xiao Churan and Ye Chen, saying with a smile, "This is the one I always tell you about, the vice captain of our storm troop, Sister Chen Liping Chen, you have to call her Auntie Chen!"

Saying that, he also said to Chen Liping, "Sister Chen, this is my daughter Xiao Churan, and next to her is my son-in-law Ye Chen."

Xiao Churan politely said to Chen Liping, "Hello Auntie Chen, I've taken the liberty to disturb you!"

Chen Liping said with a smile, "You're welcome! Although your mother and I have known each other for a short time, we have gotten to know each other very well. I've wanted to invite you to our home for a long time, but your mother said that your husband had gone to Hong Kong Island for a business trip some time ago, so I thought I would invite you when your husband came back, but I didn't expect that your mother would return to China soon.

Ma Lan could not help but sigh, "Sister Chen, to be honest, I originally planned to stay in America until I returned home with my daughter and son-in-law, but I couldn't help but feel homesick this time, so I had to go back alone first."

Chen Liping nodded and said seriously, "I understand, I was just like you when I first came to America, it was just a few days, and then I wanted to go back home every day and night.

Ma Lan smilingly nodded in agreement, in fact she did not have any sense of belonging to her hometown in her heart.

She had no money to live on at home, and when she came to America to live in a hotel with her daughter and son-in-law, she thought of the hotel as home.

Then, Ma Lan took out the gift she bought this afternoon and handed it to Chen Liping, smiling, "Sister Chen, it's the first time I came to your home, and I don't know what you like, so I bought you a set of tableware, I hope you don't mind."

Chen Liping was busy complaining, "Look at you, just come here, it's just like coming back to your own home, what else to buy, really ....."

Ma Lan was also used to this kind of Chinese hospitality and said with a smile, "Why, it's not much money, it's just a little token of appreciation."

Chen Liping nodded and said with a smile, "Next time, don't go to such lengths, how embarrassing really."

At this time, a woman of about thirty came over and smiled warmly when she saw Ma Lan, "You must be Auntie Ma, I've been hearing my mother talk about you for the past few days, she said she got on well with you!"

Chen Liping hurriedly introduced her, "Ma Lan, let me introduce you, this is my daughter-in-law, Sun Huina, just call her Huina."

Saying that, she also introduced her daughter-in-law, "Huina, this is Auntie Ma, and the two next to her are Auntie Ma's daughter and son-in-law."

After greeting Xiao Churan and Ye Chen, Sun Huina said with a smile, "You guys sit down for a while, my father-in-law and my husband are cooking in the kitchen, so we can eat later."

Chen Liping said with a smile, "Come on, let's sit on the sofa for a while, they will call us later when we can eat."

Ma Lan was not polite and said with a smile, "By the way, Sister Chen, don't you have a pair of grandchildren? Why don't you see them?"

Chen Liping said casually, "The two children have gone to Disney with their uncle's family to play and will not be back until the day after tomorrow."

Ma Lan asked in surprise, "Does your family still have relatives in America?"

"Yes." Chen Liping nodded, "The children's uncle's family is settled in Los Angeles, and my husband has a cousin whose family is settled in California, so we all move around quite frequently."

Chapter 4678

Saying that, Chen Liping added, "Actually, our family doesn't live in Providence very often, we only moved here from Chicago last year when my son's business made it this way, and in a while, we may have to move to New York again."

Ma Lan sighed, "It's a lot of moving around all the time."

Chen Liping said casually, "It doesn't matter if we move, we've been buying a house wherever we move to for the past few years."

Ma Lan inwardly marvelled at the financial power of Chen Liping's family, buying a house seemed to be like a game in her mouth, bought at the drop of a hat.

So she couldn't help but ask, "Sister Chen, New York is not cheap, is it?"

Chen Liping smiled slightly and said, "Actually, it's fine. In a place where every inch of land is gold, the high price of housing has its own value."

Ma Lan couldn't help but ask, "How much does it cost to buy a flat in New York?"

Chen Liping thought about it and said casually, "To buy a large flat in Manhattan, you have to prepare ten to twenty million dollars, and the villas in Long Beach start at least thirty to fifty million dollars."

Ma Lan was shocked speechless and blurted out, "That's too expensive ....."

"It's okay." Remembering Ma Lan's earlier bragging about living in a Townsend and driving a Rolls Royce in China, Chen Liping said with a smile, "A big villa like your family's in Townsend would buy a very nice and good house in New York if it was converted into US dollars."

Ma Lan smiled and nodded, but she couldn't help but feel a little inferior in her heart.

She felt that she was still far behind Chen Liping. Although she lived in a luxury house and drove a luxury car, she didn't own either of these things.

But Chen Liping's situation was different. According to Chen Liping, she had made a lot of money in her business in China in the early years, and she had even invested in the American stock market and real estate after coming to the United States, and she had made a lot of money.

This is why Ma Lan wanted to make friends with Chen Liping.

Thinking of this, she couldn't help but sigh, "You're stronger than me, Sister Chen."

Chen Liping said modestly, "I was actually lucky, my family's capital was not so generous a few years ago, mainly because two years ago, I plunged into a few stocks of our Chinese companies in the United States and earned almost twenty times."

"Twenty times?!" Ma Lan felt dizzy and asked out of the blue, "What stocks can go up twenty times?"

Chen Liping laughed: "A few of our domestic new energy car stocks, the lowest time a share fell to a dollar, but later the new energy concept burst into flames, all of a sudden rushed to several dozen dollars, the peak rose forty to fifty times, I can be considered a late plunge, and out of the earlier, there are more powerful, earned more than thirty times."

Ma Lan heard the eyes red, exclaimed: "more than thirty times ..... invest 10,000 to earn more than 300,000, invest 300,000 to earn a hundred million ....."

Saying that, she hurriedly asked Chen Liping: "Sister Chen, how much did you invest at that time?"

Chen Liping said, "It's not much, just 200,000."

"D*mn ....." Ma Lan exclaimed, "This ..... is more than sixty million! Or dollars ..... Sister Chen you're too good too! Next time you have such a good thing, can you take me with you too?"

Chen Liping smiled faintly: "OK, let your kids open a dollar account for you sometime later, I'll take you to speculate in US stocks then."

When Ma Lan heard this, she thanked him profusely and agreed: "Great, thank you, Sister Chen! I'll get one as soon as I get back to China!"

At this moment, a middle-aged man in his thirties, wearing gla*s and an apron, came out, and when he saw the beautiful Xiao Churan, his pupils suddenly contracted and his expression was stunned for a moment, then he quickly adjusted and said with a smile, "Mom, the meal is ready, please ask the guests to move to the dining room!"

Chapter 4679

When Chen Liping heard that the meal was ready, she immediately warmly invited Ye Chen's family to move to the dining room.

At this moment, in the restaurant, there was a man in his sixties who was busy setting the plates.

The young man who went to ask them to eat was Chen Liping's son, named Man Yingjie.

After inviting the family to sit down at the dining table, he smiled and asked Ye Chen, "What kind of wine does Ye like to drink? I have red wine and Maotai here."

Ye Chen politely said, "Sorry Uncle Man, I still have to drive, so I won't drink."

Hearing this, Man Jinshan was not angry and said with a smile, "It's alright, don't drink if you're driving."

After saying that, he looked at his son, Man Yingjie, and said, "Yingjie, if you don't have anything else to do tonight, can we have a drink?"

Man Yingjie smiled and nodded, "Let's have some then."

Chen Liping hastily urged, "You two should drink a little less."

The father and son agreed, and then Man Yingjie took out a bottle of Moutai, opened it impatiently, and poured a glass for himself and a glass for his father.

It could be seen that both father and son were somewhat addicted to wine, so from the moment the bottle was opened and the fragrance of wine wafted out, the two of them appeared to be somewhat restrained.

However, although both of them craved wine, neither of them lifted their glasses, but could not help but look at Chen Liping.

Chen Liping said to Ma Lan with a smile at this time, "Ma Lan, let's stop drinking and just start!"

Ma Lan was already not a drinker, so she readily agreed.

While eating, Chen Liping remembered something and said to Marashi, "Marashi, what day is your flight?"

Ma Lan said, "I'm flying on Sunday night."

Chen Liping said, "Oh, I have a sister who is also going back to China at the weekend, she is also leaving from New York, so maybe you two can be companions."

Ma Lan was surprised and asked, "Really? It would be great if we could be companions. It's a 10-hour journey, and it's going to kill anyone who's bored."

Chen Liping took out her mobile phone and said, "I'll ask her, she said a few days ago that she was going back to China recently, and I had asked her to bring something back to my father, so I went to New York to deliver it to her."

Chen Liping said, "Let me ask her what her flight number is and if it's the same flight as yours, if it is, I'll send you her contact information, so you can contact her when you arrive in New York and have some company."

Naturally, Ma Lan was full of agreement and smiled, "Then ask her, my flight number is CX845, I have to fly to Hong Kong Island first before connecting."

Chen Liping kept tapping on her fingertips while saying, "Okay, I'll ask her for you, if it's the same flight, you'll go together, she's going back to Guangdong Province, the odds are that she's also going to Hong Kong Island for a connecting flight."

Soon, Chen Liping handed her mobile phone to Ma Lan and said with a smile, "Aiya, look, she is also on this flight!"

Ma Lan fixed her eyes on the chat page and found that the other party had indeed replied to Chen Liping with a line that read CX845.

She also couldn't help but say in surprise, "OMG this is too much of a coincidence."

"Yes." Chen Liping said with a smile, "This sister is very powerful, their family specializes in import and export trade between China and the United States, their fortune is several billion, you should get to know her, it might be helpful to you in the future."

Ma Lan was overjoyed and said, "That's really great, Sister Chen, go back and push her WeChat business card to me, I'll add her."

Chapter 4680

"Good." Chen Liping nodded and said, "Let's eat first, I'll talk to her after we finish eating."

By now, the father and son duo of Man Jinshan and Man Yingjie had already started pushing and exchanging gla*s'es.

Both seemed to love to drink, the father raised his gla*s and shouted at his son to go one by one, and just as the two finished drinking, the son raised his gla*s again and wanted to go one by one with his father.

On the side, Man Yingjie's wife didn't care, playing with her mobile phone while eating by herself, and rarely talking during the time.

However, what made Ye Chen feel uncomfortable was that although that Man Yingjie was drinking all the time, his eyes always quietly looked for opportunities to glance at his wife Xiao Churan.

Moreover, those eyes were lustful and had bad intentions at first glance.

Ye Chen couldn't help but return a warning look, and only then did Man Yingjie finally show some restraint.

What was strange was that Man Yingjie's wife occasionally looked up to pick up a dish and could see her husband stealing glances at Xiao Churan from time to time.

Yet, Ye Chen did not see her blocking it in any way.

Normally on such occasions, even if his wife could not be angry with her husband in public, she would at least give him a warning wink, or give him a little action under the table to make him restrain himself.

But this Sun Huina didn't seem to care who Man Yingjie was looking at, as if it was none of her business.

The atmosphere at the table was slightly strange, Ma Lan and Chen Liping were chatting feverishly, Man Jinshan and Man Yingjie were drinking feverishly, while Sun Huina was just playing with her mobile phone, leaving Ye Chen and Xiao Churan to look at each other.

After the meal was over, Ma Lan and Chen Liping chatted for a while more before they were ready to leave.

As they were leaving, Ma Lan did not forget to remind Chen Liping, "Sister Chen, remember to push your friend's WeChat to me later."

Chen Liping smiled, "Okay, I'll push it to you."

Then, she instructed Ye Chen, "Little Ye, drive slowly on the road and pay attention to safety."

Ye Chen nodded and said thank you, then he started the car and left Chen Liping's house.

On the way, Ye Chen said to Ma Lan, "Mom, why do I feel that this Auntie Chen's family is all strange?"

"Does it?" Ma Lan spoke, "I don't feel strange in any way."

Xiao Churan, who was beside her, also said, "Mum, I do feel strange too, but I can't tell what's strange.

Ma Lan said, "Why? I'm going back to China soon, so I might not have the chance to see her again, even if I wanted to, I wouldn't have the chance."

Xiao Churan remembered something and admonished, "When you go back to China, even if she wants to take you to speculate in the stock market, you must not agree to it.

"Okay, okay, mum knows!"

Ma Lan said, while she already had an idea in her mind, she planned to sell the necklace as soon as she returned, and then exchange the money into dollars and open a US stock account to follow Chen Liping to learn how to speculate in stocks.

The experience of spending all her money and being forced to come to the United States had taught her one thing: one should never be without money at any time, otherwise, even if you live in a Townsend and drive a Rolls Royce, you will still not be able to eat.

Therefore, she is now desperate to accumulate some capital for herself so that she can have more confidence in the future.

However, she certainly would not say so in front of her daughter, so she casually said, "I am just curious to ask, don't worry, I am not going to speculate in stocks, that kind of thing, it is completely cut leeks."

Xiao Churan nodded and said gratefully, "Mom, it's good that you know, but don't dream of getting rich overnight!"
