

Ye Chen 4681

Chapter 4681

After sending off Ma Lan's family, the expressions of Chen Liping's family of four, who were originally warm and welcoming, all suddenly became somewhat silent.

Chen Liping's expression was somewhat cold, while the other three had the feeling that the show was finally over and they could finally take a break and relax.

Chen Liping returned to the room with a sullen face and sat straight down on the sofa, looking up at Man Jinshan and Man Yingjie.

Immediately afterwards, Chen Liping cursed, "You two sons of b*tches, you only know how to f*cking drink! No matter what time of day it is, as long as you see wine, it's like seeing your father, and the smell of wine is sure to take your souls away! Don't you two know that business is important? If you still can't get rid of this f*cking problem, get the f*ck out of here!"

She then pointed at Sun Huina, who was around thirty, and scolded in a cold voice, "And you! All you know is to keep your head down and play with your phone, what's in that f*cking phone? Can playing with the phone give you f*cking money?!"

The three of them were caught off guard by the scolding, and the younger one, Man Yingjie, explained nervously, "Auntie Mei, we just thought you and that Ma had talked almost enough you personally, the three of us are of no use other than to accompany you, so instead of saying more and making more mistakes, it's better to It's safer to talk less"

"Put your mother's fart!" The three of us are not just a sidekick, it's safer to keep our mouths shut. I have no other mules available now, if anything happens to Marashi, I'll be D*mned if I'm going to get blamed!"

The older Manjinshan said, "Sister Mei, I see that Ma Lan has been fooled by you, this should be safe, let Lao Xu meet and then make some efforts, this will definitely be done."

Chen Liping said coldly, "I'm not worried about Ma Lan, but I'm worried that her daughter and son-in-law will do bad things."

Chen Liping said, "I always thought that Ma Lan was bragging when she said that she lived in a Townsend and drove a Rolls Royce in Jinling, but when I saw her say that today, her daughter and son-in-law didn't look at all, so it should probably be true."

Manjinshan said in surprise, "If she can afford to live in a place like JINLING and drive a Rolls Royce, then it proves that this Ma Lan's family background is not ordinary, let's use her as a mule, won't something happen?"

"Something wrong? What's going to happen?" Chen Liping gave a cold snort and said, "The lease on our house is almost up, we've played through this mu of land in Providence, just like those nomads, one pasture is finished and the next one is replaced, we won't be back for another eight to ten years."

“Yes!” Sun Huina, who hadn’t said anything, said, “And we’re not the ones who deliver the goods directly, the delivery is operated by Auntie Xu’s side, this is the firewall Auntie Mei has set up for us, even if something does happen, it will be Auntie Xu first.”

“The first thing is that if the case comes to her, she won’t dare to punish us. Besides, apart from first-degree murder, it’s basically impossible to get the death penalty for other crimes. “

Chapter 4682

Chen Liping nodded and her tone softened a little, saying lightly, “Even if something happens to Lao Xu, it doesn’t matter, she doesn’t know our true identity, even if we are investigated, it will be hard to find us.”

Manchu asked again, “Aunt Mei, if that Ma Lan succeeds in bringing the goods to Hong Kong Island, should we arrange for someone to kidnap her again? After all, her family is quite thick, we can’t just let her go for nothing!”

Chen Liping laughed coldly, “Of course, if we let her help us bring the goods, it will only cost us a million dollars, but if we kidnap her, we might be able to knock out a few million dollars! But we’ll have to wait until she successfully arrives on Hong Kong Island, in case she’s caught in New York, it won’t help at all.”

“I’m going to go to the storm troopers, there’s an old man who’s visiting his family in the US, he’s been making eyes at me lately, he’s going back in a couple of days, so I think I can get him. We’ll move to Seattle.”

Man Yingjie hurriedly said, “Auntie Mei, Seattle is a bit too far, isn’t it? It’s several thousand kilometres east and west

Chen Liping said coldly, “What do you know, every time you change places, it’s about being as far away as possible! When Seattle is finished, we will leave the United States for the time being, go to Toronto and Vancouver for another turn, and we will not return to the United States during this year.”

After that, she stared at Manchinshan and Man Yingjie and said in a cold voice, “If you two keep on drinking like this, I won’t take you with me anymore, you’d better go back to northern Myanmar!”

The two men hastily assured, “Don’t worry, we both will never be greedy for drinks again

Chen Liping then glared at Sun Huina, who shivered in fear straight away and said repeatedly, “Don’t worry Aunt Mei, I’ll never play with my phone again

Chen Liping saw all three of them make a promise, her expression then eased a little, and she said in a cold voice, “I’m leaving, you guys hurry up and pack up!”

At this time, Manchu Yingjie suddenly received a message, opened it and said, “Aunt Mei, the blood match result of that old lady Zhou’s son came out last time, there is a patient in the United States who can match with him, the buyer offered $500,000, but he asked for the transplant to be completed as soon as possible, what do you think about the arrangement?”

“A match?” Chen Liping’s eyes lit up with surprise and said, “You tell him that if it is expedited, he will have to pay US$800,000, pay a deposit of US$400,000 first, he can go to Mexico next week for the operation, and let the family pay the remaining US$400,000 before he gets off the operating table.”

Man Yingjie was busy saying, "Aunt Mei, this buyer's financial situation is not bad, but $800,000 might be a bit difficult too"

Chen Liping scolded with a look of contempt, "D*mn it, if you have difficulties, go find a way! He wants a heart, not a kidney! In order to save him, I'd have to take someone else's life, $800,000 is considered cheap!"

"If he wasn't in a hurry, I could still find a buyer for the liver and kidney and do the surgery together, but since he's in a hurry, he'll have to pay me for the damage.

With that, Chen Liping flung her hand and said in a cold voice, "Call him now!"

Chapter 4683

Hearing Chen Liping's instructions, Man Yingjie nodded hastily, took out his mobile phone, found a contact named "Customer 15" and called the other party.

A frail voice came on the other end of the line and asked, "Hello, have you found a suitable match for me?"

The other party is a middle-aged man around forty years old, strong and powerful, after the successful transplant, you will be able to use it for 20 to 30 years.

As soon as the other party heard this, he immediately said, "Didn't we agree on half a million dollars?"

Mangying Jie said disdainfully, "Five hundred thousand dollars is the carpool price, this is the exclusive price, you can wait for the carpool if you are not in a hurry, but I guess you will have to wait at least another month or two."

"This" The other party became anxious all of a sudden and said offhandedly, "But I I can't wait that long"

"That's your problem." Manchu Yingjie said coldly: "Anyway, I've made the situation clear to you, do it or not you can consider it yourself, anyway, you're not the only one in the queue behind you, you can take your time to think about it, I'll give the next one in line a call."

When the other party heard this, he immediately panicked and hurriedly said, "No, no, I'll think of a way to get the money together next week"

The first thing you need to do is to prepare 400,000 tomorrow, and I'll arrange a time for you to operate when the money arrives."

After saying that, he simply hung up the phone.

As soon as the phone hung up, he immediately said to Chen Liping, "Aunt Mei, the client has agreed."

"Good." Chen Liping hummed and laughed, took out her mobile phone, and dialed a number while walking outside.

Once the call came through, Chen Liping smiled and said to the other party, "Sister Zhou, the matter you asked me to inquire about, there is now a reply"

“Yes, yes, the results of the medical examination are also out, your son’s results show that he is healthy and there is nothing wrong with him

“You don’t have to worry about that, I’m still here!”

“I’ve already spoken to my friend and told him to go in and start as a senior seaman

“Oh, no thanks, no thanks, you’re not being polite to me, really

“Salary, I heard it starts at $5,000 a month, and with all the allowances, it comes to $6,000

“Yes, you heard right, that’s six thousand dollars, money is quite a lot, but also hard ah, go out, ten months, eight months without home, once the ship arrived at sea, and home contact is cut off, bitter. ”

“The company will have a ship out next week, so if your son’s side is OK, he’ll be able to get on board next week.”

“Next week from Mexico, wait for me for two days, I want to give you an address, then you can tell him to report directly to Mexico!”

“You don’t have to thank me, we’re all from the same village, it’s only right to help, just wait for my news!”

After hanging up the phone, a cruel smile wiped across the corner of Chen Liping’s mouth.

This old lady, whom she had met in a restaurant in Providence, was quite old and was cleaning the restaurant.

Once she met such people who were having a hard time making ends meet and wanted to find a job to support their families, she would use a well-paid crew member as bait to lure the person to Mexico, where she would then murder the target and sell the organs.

Chapter 4684

She then used the high pay as bait to lure them to Mexico, where they would be murdered and sold for their organs.

The other party naturally did not suspect, plus the free medical examination was not done for nothing, so they directly did a comprehensive medical examination in the United States.

In the process of the medical examination, these devils have already started to look for matches among patients in need of organs all over North America, and once the matches are successful, they will start to negotiate the price.

The reason for choosing Mexico is that it is a chaotic, gang-ridden country with many areas that are out of reach of the police, making it much easier to kill, operate on or dispose of bodies than in the US and Canada.

And when people go missing from Mexico, the families don’t usually notice anything unusual because they are told to tell the family that they are about to board the ship and won’t be able to contact them for the next few months.

By the time a year and a half, or even longer, has passed and the family has not been able to wait for news and realise that something has gone wrong, the person is no longer likely to be found.

This would also give Chen Liping and others, enough time.

And for someone like Chen Liping, as long as it's money, no matter how shady or dirty it is, she doesn't care.

Apart from this kind of thing, she also specifically selects her compatriots who come to the US to visit their relatives, and uses a chain of tricks to lure them into becoming mules for transporting prohibited items; once the target falls for it, the next step is life or death.

If caught in the U.S., it's basically a life sentence, and if caught at home, it's basically a death sentence.

If they are lucky enough to succeed, the other side will have no reward at all and will not even know that they have walked through the door of a ghost.

When Chen Liping has achieved her goal in one place, she will start again in another place and with a different identity. Thus, those who have helped her to bring in goods but were kept in the dark and still want to maintain friendships with Chen Liping will suddenly find that the person suddenly disappears one day later and no news of her can be found anymore.

Using this deception, Chen Liping has made huge returns for herself, while sending many innocent people to prison and even to the guillotine.

But she doesn't care at all about the fate or life and death of these people; to her, money is the only thing worth caring about, and everything else can make way for it.

And the reason why Chen Liping likes to coax these vegetarians into helping out is, apart from the fact that these vegetarians only cost emotions and no money, more importantly, because these vegetarians don't know anything, their whole state will be extremely natural, so they won't even show the slightest bit of nervousness and unnaturalness when they face the customs officers as well as the security personnel.

Even for the most professionally trained people, it is impossible to achieve that natural state that vegetarians have when they are completely in the dark.

Therefore, the success rate of such vegetarians in going through customs is also much higher.

Moreover, by creating the persona of a successful person, a big sister and at the same time a helpful person, Chen Liping makes it easy for her targets, like Ma Lan, to befriend her, thinking that if such a successful woman can become friends with her, there will be no harm but good in the future.

Unbeknownst to her, it is this mentality that makes Chen Liping's success rate in getting people into trouble surprisingly high.

Anyone who gets to know Chen Liping well will basically fall into the trap she has carefully prepared.

And right now, Chen Liping's number one prey is Ma Lan!

Chapter 4685

After the family returned to the hotel, Ma Lan received a business card message from Chen Liping.

The nickname of the other party was “Grateful Heart”, and from her avatar, she looked like a very well-kept woman in her 40s.

Moreover, the picture in the avatar was taken on a very luxurious private jet.

After all, Ma Lan was also someone who had been on a private jet, and the luxurious trip to the United States was a trip she would never forget.

So, when she saw this woman’s avatar, she instinctively thought in her heart that this woman must be very powerful.

So, she silently went back to her room, added the other party’s friend, and wrote on the application message, “Hello, I am a friend of Sister Chen.”

After sending the message, the other party quickly approved her friend request, and then sent her a smiley face, followed by a voice message, “Hello, you are Ma Lan, right?”

Ma Lan hurriedly replied, “Yes, it’s me, I think Sister Chen has told you everything, right? I happen to be flying from New York to Hong Kong Island this Sunday, and then connecting back to the Mainland.”

The other party replied, “Oh, that’s great, then we should both be on the same flight, by the way, are you in first cla*s or economy cla*s?”

Ma Lan hurriedly said, “My son-in-law has bought me first cla*s.”

The other party laughed, “That’s good, I’ve also bought first cla*s, let’s check in together after we meet at the airport, we can choose a closer seat then.”

“Okay, okay.” Ma Lan smiled and agreed, then asked, “I wonder what your name is?”

The other party replied, “My surname is Zong, my name is Zong Qihua.”

Ma Lan smiled and said, “Oh, that’s not a common surname!”

The other party laughed, “Not bad, one of my cousins is in the beverage business, very famous in China, you should have heard of him.”

As he said that, the other party sent me a person’s encyclopedia, and when Ma Lan clicked on it, he was almost scared!

This rich man, surnamed Zong, was a famous beverage king, and his family’s a*sets exceeded 100 billion, and that was in US dollars!

Ma Lan’s heart was in shock and she couldn’t help but ask, “Oh my God, is this Mr. Zong a relative of yours?”

“Yes.” The woman who called herself Zong Qihua said very modestly, “But we are distant relatives, not that close, and our family’s business is not as big as theirs, their family a*sets have already exceeded a hundred billion dollars, our family only has a few billion dollars, not even a fraction of theirs. It’s a far cry from that.”

If you hadn't mentioned that my family name was very rare, I wouldn't have told you about this relationship, after all, it's a distant relative, so it seems like I'm a bit of a fox."

Hearing these words from the other side, deep inside Ma Lan's heart, she immediately admired this woman named Zong Qihua.

In her opinion, some people's modesty was false modesty and true pride, while some people's modesty was true modesty and no pride, and Zong Qihua was the latter.

He was obviously worth billions of dollars, yet he still talked about himself as if he was worthless.

Ma Lan couldn't help but sigh in his heart: "The difference between people is indeed huge! I'm so crazy to carry a basic Hermes and take a private jet from a lottery, but I didn't expect that he would be so low-profile when he is worth billions of dollars."

While sighing, Marashi suddenly remembered something and thought, "If she is so rich, why doesn't she take a private jet?"

Thinking of this, Ma Lan was ready to ask about it.

Chapter 4686

It was not because she had doubts about Zong Qihua's identity, but because she thought that if the other party really had a private jet or could afford to charter one, wouldn't she be able to rub it in again?

Just as Ma Lan was about to ask, the other party sent another message, Ma Lan hurriedly clicked play, and the other party said in the voice: "Aiya, since you are Sister Chen's friend, then I should have let you go back with me in my family's private jet, so as to save you the trouble, anyway, to me, a private jet pulls one or two, it's the same, only this time period it's just unfortunate that my plane has reached its regular maintenance flight hours and is now flying to Georgia for maintenance, and they have a backlog of planes at Gulfstream recently, so it won't be back for a while."

When Ma Lan heard this, she was slightly disappointed, but at the same time she felt that people were really powerful, they had their own private planes, which was not something ordinary people could do.

Remembering that the other party mentioned Gulfstream, she said with a smile, "Oh, your family's private jet is also a Gulfstream, right? When I came to the US this time, I chartered a Gulfstream G650 from Jinling, that plane is really nice, it flies fast and steady, and the environment inside is also first class!"

The other party laughed and said, "It's not first class, it's just a medium level among private jets."

I'm sorry, but I have to go and entertain the head of the New York branch of Citibank, so I'll talk to you when you arrive in New York."

When Marashi heard this, she was even more impressed with her.

She knew of Citibank, which was a multinational bank headquartered in New York.

What's more, Marashi had once suffered a big loss at Citibank, and when she heard about it, she felt a chill in her back and a soreness in her right leg.

So, she hurriedly said, "It's fine, it's fine, just get busy if you have something to do, I'll contact you when we get to New York!"

After saying this, the other party gave Ma Lan a handshake emoji back, and then did not send any more messages.

Ma Lan also did not say anything else, but hurriedly clicked on the other party's circle of friends and scrolled down a little.

When she looked at it, it was like a knife in the butt and an eye opener.

This woman's circle of friends is almost all about travelling, eating, drinking and having fun.

She's been photographed on a private jet, on a luxury yacht, riding horses and playing golf, and running around the world.

She even took a special trip to the North and South Poles on a scientific research vessel!

Ma Lan looked at the other party's colourful life and sighed in his heart, "D*mn, they are both living their lives, how come they are living their lives in such a dazzling way, but I have to spend most of my life with that loser Xiao Changkun, and I have lost all the best years of my life"

As she sighed, Ma Lan did not realize that she had fallen deeper and deeper into this scam.

Moreover, she did not notice that, in fact, although there were many pictures of this woman's circle of friends, not many of them actually showed her face.

Moreover, many of the pictures she posted of famous scenic spots around the world were actually material found from the internet.

As long as Ma Lan took a little trouble to download all these scenic pictures to her phone and then searched for them with an image search engine, she would be able to find the real source of these pictures.

It's just a pity that although Marashi is not a nice person, her understanding of the world is still relatively simple. Moreover, her understanding of mobile phones, the internet and social software is too superficial and she does not possess basic dialectical skills.

And the more such a person is, the easier it is to be targeted by people with bad intentions!

Chapter 4687

The time soon arrived on Friday.

Because she was leaving for New York today, she got up early in the morning and started packing her suitcase.

Now, Ma Lan was already eager to return.

After Xiao Churan finished her cla*sses in the afternoon, Ye Chen drove Ma Lan to pick up Xiao Churan in front of the school, and the three of them drove to New York directly.

According to Ye Chen's plan, after arriving in New York on Friday evening, he would first take Ma Lan for a stroll around New York at night and see the Statue of Liberty, then take her around New York on Saturday, and on Sunday during the day, he would take her shopping in New York, and then take her to the airport in the afternoon.

For Ma Lan, although her visit to the United States was short, it was still a trip, so she had to buy some local souvenirs and souvenirs from New York.

On the drive to New York, Ma Lan sat alone in the back row, took out her mobile phone and sent a message to Zong Qihua, informing her that she would arrive in New York tonight.

Zong Qihua soon sent back a voice message, which Ma Lan converted into text so that Ye Chen and his daughter would not hear the content.

The text read: Ma Lan, this time you came to New York, I, as the host, originally intended to treat you to a big meal and show you around properly, but in the past two days because I'm going back to China, so many things on the American side have to be dealt with before I leave, so I'm especially busy, I'm really sorry How about this, after we arrive in Hong Kong Island The first thing you need to do is not rush back to the mainland, I happen to have a villa on Shixun Road in Hong Kong Island, you and I will play in Hong Kong Island for a few days, then stay at my home, give me a chance to do my best as a host, play well for a few days before you go back to the mainland.

As the content of the voice recognition was displayed bit by bit, when Ma Lan saw the first half of the message she was still a little disappointed inwardly, but when she saw the second half of the message, her heart instantly got excited again.

She couldn't help but think in her heart, "I've never been to Hong Kong Island since I grew up, and I can only stay for a few hours when I land this time. I don't have to spend any money, but she is so rich that she certainly won't even condescend to me"

The idea of this is that she happily agreed and hurriedly replied, "Yes! I don't have anything important to do back anyway, so why don't I just stay on Hong Kong Island for a few days, I'll have to give you trouble then."

The other party quickly replied: "With this relationship with Sister Chen, you don't have to be polite with me at all times, so let's say that for now, I have things to do here, let's talk about it when we get to the airport!"

"No problem." Ma Lan cheerfully replied with three words, and then asked Ye Chen with fake curiosity, "Hey yes, good son-in-law, didn't you just come back from Hong Kong Island? Do you know what Shixun Dao is?"

Ye Chen was surprised and asked, "Mom, why do you suddenly want to ask this?"

Ma Lan lied, "I was just looking at my friends' circle, and a friend said that this place was very famous, and this was the first time I had heard of it, so I asked you about it."

Ye Chen didn't think much about it, so he replied casually, "Shixun Road is a luxury residential area on Hong Kong Island, the most expensive houses in Hong Kong are basically there, and the people who live there are the richest people on Hong Kong Island."

Chapter 4688

"Holy sh*t!" Once Ma Lan heard this, she immediately exclaimed, "This place is so powerful!"

As she said that, Ma Lan's heart had a little more admiration for Zong Qihua's strength.

She didn't even realise that the con man had already established an indestructible persona of a rich man in her heart, through special words and means, before he had even met with her.

Now, with excitement in her heart, Ma Lan began to plan her itinerary for the next period of time, starting with a good two days in New York, then flying to Hong Kong Island and enjoying herself for a few days in the most expensive and wealthy district in the whole of Hong Kong Island.

The first thing you need to do is to post more about your friends and let them have a good look at your dashing lifestyle.

This time, Ye Chen still chose the Ye family's Buckingham Palace Hotel in New York.

Chen Zekai instructed the hotel in advance to reserve a presidential suite for Ye Chen.

After checking in, Ye Chen took Xiao Churan and Ma Lan, had a dinner at the hotel, and then took Ma Lan on a tour of New York's night scenery with Xiao Churan.

While Xiao Churan was taking a picture of Ma Lan with the Statue of Liberty, he went to the side and called Fei Ke Xin.

When the call was answered, Fei Ke Xin said respectfully on the other end, "Good evening Mr. Ye."

Ye Chen gave a hint and said, "Miss Fei, I'm calling to tell you that I've arrived in New York, and if nothing happens, I'll be visiting your home tomorrow night, so just let Master Fei know and ask him to wait at home."

Fei Ke Xin said excitedly, "That's great! I told Grandpa that you are coming to New York in the near future, and he has been very excited, and was just asking me when you will arrive in New York."

Saying that, Fei Ke Xin hurriedly asked again, "Mr. Ye, what time are you coming over tomorrow night?"

Ye Chen smiled faintly and spoke, "Around eight o'clock tomorrow night."

Fei Ke Xin said excitedly, "Good, I'll have someone prepare a banquet in advance tomorrow night!"

"There's no need to bother." Ye Chen said, "I'm coming with my wife and mother-in-law this time, I'll accompany them to dinner tomorrow night before I go over, I won't stay too long, so there's no need to prepare anything extra."

Fei Ke Xin said with some regret, "You've come so far and you're not having a meal at home, Ke Xin is really a bit sorry"

"It's fine." Ye Cen said blandly, "I came to New York this time, mainly to send my mother-in-law back, she has a flight the evening after tomorrow, and she's going to meet with the old man by the way, so there's no need to care too much about the formality."

Once Fei Ke Xin heard that Ye Chen's mother-in-law was on the evening flight the day after tomorrow, she knew that she must be flying on a regular airline, so she was busy saying, "Mr. Ye, the Fei family has several business and private planes at the New York airport, why don't I arrange a special plane to take your mother-in-law back."

Ye Chen did not think twice and said, "It is not necessary, I have already arranged a special plane for her when I came here, there is no need to go back, my mother-in-law generally does not understand her ways, it is still necessary to let her pick up some ground, otherwise she drifts too much, and with her character, if she drifts too high, there is no telling what she will fall into in the future."

When Fei Ke Xin heard this, she couldn't help but let out a low laugh.

In fact, she had investigated Ye Chen and Ye Chen's wife's family back in Jinling, and regarding Ma Lan's person, although Fei Kexin had little contact with her, she had already learned all about her strange deeds.

So she didn't insist any more and said with a smile, "Mr. Ye, Kexin will be waiting for you at home tomorrow!"

Chapter 4689

The following day, Ye Chen and Xiao Churan accompanied Ma Lan to New York for a day of fun.

During lunch, Ye Chen mentioned to them that he had a client in New York who wanted to talk to him about something in the evening, but they didn't think much of it, after all, Ye Chen was very busy with his "business" and they were prepared for it.

After accompanying them to dinner, Ye Chen drove them back to the hotel before driving himself to the Fei family's private estate in Long Island.

Originally, Ye Chen only wanted to come and meet Master Fei, to give him a promise he had always dreamed of in front of Fei Ke Xin, and to make sure he would support her as long as he lived.

But what Ye Chen did not expect was that, knowing that he was coming, Elder Fei had informed everyone in the Fei family last night, asking all the immediate family members of the Fei family, no matter where they were, to rush back to the Fei family tonight to welcome Ye Chen's grand arrival.

Fei Jianzhong was, after all, the number two person in the Fei family, so his order, with no objection from Fei Ke Xin, was not dared to be broken by anyone.

So, when Ye Chen drove into the Fei family manor, he found that all those who greeted him on both sides of the road were all members of the Fei family.

At the end of the road, the two people who were standing respectfully were Fei Kexin and Fei Jianzhong.

As soon as Ye Chen parked the car, Fei Jianzhong, with the help of Fei Kexin, came to the car door.

After Ye Chen got out of the car, Fei Jianzhong was the first to lead the bow and said respectfully, "Welcome Mr. Ye!"

The group of Fei family members around him also said with one voice, "Welcome Mr. Ye!"

Among the crowd, Ye Chen also saw Fei Jianzhong's eldest son, Fei Shanhai, Fei Hao Yang's grandfather, and Fei Xue Bin, Fei Hao Yang's father.

These two were standing among the crowd at this time, also with respectful and humble faces, no longer looking arrogant and domineering as they did in the past.

Apart from that, there were also some unfamiliar faces, which seemed to have not been seen before.

Ye Chen did not expect that he had only come to meet Fei Jianzhong and Fei Kexin, but as a result, the Fei family had made such a big scene.

Ye Chen was surprised and said, "Gentlemen, isn't this show a little too grand?"

Fei Jianzhong looked at Ye Chen and said respectfully, "Mr. Ye, you are the benefactor of the Fei family, knowing that you are coming, the entire Fei family attaches great importance to it and does not dare to treat it with any negligence!"

Ye Chen waved his hand and said blandly, "My interactions with the Fei family will become more and more frequent in the future, so you all do not need to make such a big fuss."

As he said that, he said to Fei Jianzhong, "Old Mr. Fei, I came here mainly to talk to you and Miss Fei about something, I wonder if I can move to a place where we can talk quietly?"

Fei Jianzhong hurriedly said, "No problem, then please ask Mr. Ye to move to the study!"

With that, Fei Ke Xin assisted Fei Jianzhong and stepped into the villa together with Ye Chen.

The other members of Fei's family, on the other hand, all stood in place one by one.

They knew that Ye Chen had something to discuss with the old man and Fei Kexin, so they were definitely not qualified to follow, and after the execution of Fei Haoyang, Ye Chen had become the most disobedient being in the eyes of the Fei family, so they coincidentally stood in place, waiting for Ye Chen to come out before respectfully escorting him out of the Fei family.

Ye Chen, on the other hand, went with his grandfather and grandson to the study.

When the three of them walked up to the expensive book case, Fei Jianzhong made a point of speaking up and introducing them, "Mr Ye, now that Ke Xin is the head of the Fei family, I have also passed on the master seat of this book case to her, so please sit in the honoured guest seat directly opposite Ke Xin!"

Chapter 4690

Ye Chen nodded gently, he understood the meaning of Elder Fei's words, which was to tell himself that he had completely and unreservedly handed over the great power of the Fei family to Fei Ke Xin.

The configuration of the chairs in the study case was somewhat elaborate, as the couch in the master's seat was only for one person, so it was considerably wider than the guest seat opposite, and was ten centimetres higher.

The design is similar to that of the emperor's dragon chair, to highlight the position of the head of the family.

Fei Kexin said nervously, "Mr Ye, you are here, how dare Kexin sit higher than you It's better to ask you to sit on the master's seat!"

Ye Chen smiled slightly and gently waved his hand and said, "You are the master of this house, no matter who comes, so you are the biggest here, and I, as a guest, can't take away the master's seat."

With that, he pulled away the seat opposite to Fei Ke Xin and sat down straight away.

Fei Kexin was at a loss as to what to do, but it was Fei Jianzhong who spoke up, "Kexin, you should follow Mr. Ye's instructions, Mr. Ye is right, you are the head of the Fei family, no one else is qualified to be the master of this seat except you."

Fei Kexin had no choice but to sit down with a stiff upper lip.

In fact, the Chinese people were most concerned about respect and inferiority when it came to etiquette.

It was like at the dinner table, whoever had a higher status would have a higher gla*s when they toasted, and if someone who was not senior and strong enough still held their gla*s high, they might have to be taught a lesson on the spot.

Fei Ke Xin also did not want to be seated higher than Ye Chen, and her heart could not help but feel remorseful: "Why didn't I think of this earlier, if I had thought of it, I would have changed all the seats to the same Looks like we'll just have to pay attention next time"

After Fei Ke Xin had settled down, Fei Jian Zhong only slowly sat down next to Ye Chen, at this moment, he was filled with anticipation and at the same time, could not help but be a little nervous.

So, he couldn't help but ask Ye Chen: "Mr. Ye, I wonder what is the reason for your big visit tonight?"

Ye Chen smiled lightly and said, "During this period of time, thanks to Kexin and the Fei family, they have solved many difficult matters for me, so I am here to thank you."

Fei Kexin hurriedly said, "Mr. Ye It is an honour for the Fei family to be able to help you, how can we afford to thank you"

Ye Chen waved his hand, "As long as I receive help from others, I must say thank you, this is the way of being a person taught to me by my parents since I was young."

Saying that, he looked at Fei Jianzhong and said seriously, "Old Mr. Fei, when I came back from Hong Kong Island, I asked Miss Fei if there was anything I could help with, and Miss Ye said that she had no other affliction other than being rather worried about your health, so I came here this time, mainly at Miss Fei's request, to solve some pressing problems for you. "

When Fei Ke Xin heard this, she knew that Ye Chen was asking for a favour for herself.

And when Fei Jianzhong heard these words, he was also a little more moved and recognized this granddaughter of his in his heart.

In addition, he also looked forward to Ye Chen's next statement even more. He did not expect Ye Chen to give him a Spring Return Pill, but he felt that he could still think about the Blood Dispersing and Heart Saving Pill.

Just as he was looking forward to it, Ye Chen said, "Old Mr. Fei, we have known each other for so long, so I won't try to sell you short. Since Miss Fei's greatest concern is your health, then I, Ye Chen, will make a statement here today. As long as you can support Miss Fei in managing the Fei family properly, in return, I will guarantee your old man another ten years of life!"

Fei Jianzhong was immediately overwhelmed with excitement and hurriedly asked: Ye Mr. Ye What you said Are you telling the truth?!"

Ye Chen nodded and said with a straight face, "What I, Ye Chen, have promised, I will do what I say."

Fei Jianzhong suddenly burst into old tears.

Ten years, this promise was heavier than a mountain to him!

He then stood up, clasped his hands together and respectfully said, "Fei Jianzhong, kowtow to Mr Ye's kindness, I will never forget your great kindness!"

After saying this, he was about to bend his knees and kneel down.

At this time, Ye Chen reached out to stop him and said seriously, "Old Mr. Fei, don't be in a hurry to thank me, I still have one condition that you must agree to."

Fei Jianzhong said, "Mr. Ye, please speak, not to mention one condition, even if there were ten or a hundred, I would never hesitate!"

Ye Chen said indifferently, "I want you to completely give up bidding for the Spring Return Pill from now on!"
