

Ye Chen 4701

Chapter 4701

“Leierfa?” Qian Hongyan asked, full of confusion, “What’s a Leerfa?”

Ma Lan blurted out, “It’s the Lexus Van King, you know, the most expensive van in the world! The domestic arrival price is more than three million!”

Qian Hongyan was dumbfounded: “More than three million for a van? If you use it all to buy a Wuling Hongguang, it will be longer than a coal train, so isn’t there something wrong with spending so much money on that?”

“You don’t know sh*t.” You can’t figure out why rich people spend hundreds of millions of dollars on private jets, so you can’t figure out why they spend over three million dollars on a van either.

After a pause, Ma Lan added, “Besides, what is a $3 million or so car to someone? People’s billions of dollars are deposited in the bank, and the interest is more than that in a day!”

“That’s impressive .....” Qian Hongyan couldn’t help but ask, “Sister Lan, how can you know such a rich friend, being worth billions of dollars, that’s not equal to tens of billions of RMB!”

Ma Lan said with a smile, “It’s a friend I met in the United States, there are many Chinese overseas Chinese here in the United States, so I met a few friends who are more opportunistic.”

Qian Hongyan couldn’t help but sigh, “Aiya! I still have to go out to see the world, Sister Lan you went to the United States for a trip, and you were able to meet such rich people, this upper-cla*s society’s eyes and connections, opened up at once!”

“That’s right!” Ma Lan said proudly, “If it is not said that people go to higher places, water flows down to lower places, we really need to go out more in the future to see the world.”

Qian Hongyan complimented, “Sister Lan is right! The gap between us is getting bigger and bigger because of you .....”

The difference between the two of us is getting bigger and bigger because of you ” said Qian Hongyan, changing the topic and asking, “Hey, Sister Lan, when you come back, can you take me to Chow Tai Fook for a look? You promised me when you bought Bulgari that you would buy me a Chow Tai Fook to wear it .....”

Ma Lan smiled contemptuously, and she knew that Qian Hongyan must mention this.

He even knew that Qian Hongyan had only sent the video to herself for this one purpose.

So she said casually, “Aiyo, don’t worry, I will do what I promised you.”

To Ma Lan, as long as she left the United States and sold the Goddess Dream that Ye Chen had given to her, it would be at least three or four hundred thousand dollars, which would be more than enough to buy Qian Hongyan a necklace from Chow Tai Fook?

Thinking of this, she suddenly realised that she didn’t even need to wait until she returned to Jinling to sell it, she could just go and sell it as soon as she arrived in Hong Kong Island.

Having made up her mind, she said to Qian Hongyan in a very ambitious manner, "Let's do it this way Hongyan, you don't have to wait until I go back to Jinling and then let me show you, I will just buy one for you at Chow Tai Fook on Hong Kong Island this time and bring it back with me."

As soon as Qian Hongyan heard this, she said excitedly, "Really? That's really great! Thank you so much, Sister Lan!"

Ma Lan grinned and said, "Alright, I'll hang up now if there's nothing else, I'll rest for a while, I'll be boarding the plane soon."

Qian Hongyan thanked her and hung up the video, Ma Lan locked the phone and mocked, "Qian Hongyan, Qian Hongyan, even a piece of Chow Tai Fook has been on your mind for so long, you really have no talent!"

As she mumbled, several American police officers of various colours and with loaded guns suddenly burst into the VIP lounge.

One of them, a female Chinese-American policeman, looked around the lounge and immediately locked onto Ma Lan, then walked up to her quickly and asked in a cold voice, "You are Ma Lan, right?"

Ma Lan was a little surprised by the sudden arrival of the policeman.

Chapter 4702

She looked at the policewoman with a surprised look on her face and asked, "It's me, what's wrong?"

The policewoman continued, "Let me check your personal information with you, you are Ma Lan from Jinling, China, and you are going to take Cathay Pacific flight cx845 from New York to Hong Kong Island this time, right?"

"Right ....." Ma Lan was even more puzzled and asked in disbelief, "What's wrong with my flight?"

The policewoman said in a cold voice, "There's no problem with the flight, but there is a problem with your luggage! Please come with us and assist in the investigation."

Ma Lan said, "What could be wrong with my luggage? It was all New York souvenirs except for personal clothes, I didn't put any lithium batteries or anything like that in there ....."

The policewoman snorted coldly, "Don't make unnecessary sophistry, there are other passengers here, in order not to affect other people's flight, please come with me voluntarily."

With that, she pulled the handcuffs from her waist and warned, "Listen carefully to what I say, you have the right to remain silent, otherwise anything you say may be used as evidence against you, you have the right to have a lawyer present at your trial, if you can't afford one, we will appoint one for you, do you understand these rights?"

Marashi panicked and blurted out, "What the hell! I am a distinguished first class passenger! Who gave you the audacity to come here and arrest me? Besides, what law have I broken?"

The policewoman said coldly, "Ma Lan, as an ethnic Chinese, I warn you kindly that this is America! Don't try any kind of resistance here, or you will be the one who suffers!"

Ma Lan said angrily, "Don't give me that sh*t, I'm not afraid to sit up and act right! I'm not afraid of you cops anywhere I go, not to mention the United States, even if it's the United Nations! I don't even call myself Maran if I frown!"

The policewoman had obviously lost her patience, so she took out her handcuffs and said in a stern voice: "Marashi! I am asking you to turn around and put your hands behind your back, you must not resist or run away, otherwise my colleagues may use instruments on you, including but not limited to electric shock tasers, you better cooperate!"

Seeing that a number of people were milling around, Marashi felt that his face as a distinguished guest of the first cla*s cabin was instantly lost.

Her anger went wild, causing her to yell at the top of her lungs, "I'm telling you, don't mess with me like this! I didn't spend all this money on a first cla*s ticket just to be P*ssed off at you American cops! I'm about to board a plane back to my country, so get the hell out of my way and don't delay my trip!"

The policewoman shook her head helplessly when she saw Maran's obstinacy and said to the two white male policemen beside her, "Take her away!"

The two policemen had been listening to Marashi for half a day, and although they didn't know what she was talking about, they could see that she was very arrogant, and they had been preparing to take action.

One of them grabbed Marashi and threw her onto the wool carpet in the first cla*s lounge in a hug.

The other officer rushed forward and grabbed Marashi's hair with one hand and yanked him backwards, causing him to scream in pain, but he didn't care and pressed his knee into Marashi's back, pinning him to the ground.

Another of his colleagues immediately put both of Marashi's hands behind his back and handcuffed him to the ground.

Marashi screamed in pain and shouted at the top of his lungs, "Murder! The American police are killing people! Somebody help!"

The white policeman, who had Marashi on one knee, cursed, "Hey, you shut the f*ck up!"

At least Marashi had gone to university and could hear that the white policeman was cursing at her and telling her to shut up.

She gritted her teeth and cursed, "I can put up with you if you tell me to shut up, but you're still f*cking with me? Who are you f*cking with? You're so f*cked up! Listen to me, i'm your mother! How dare you! Watch your mouth, I tell you!"

Chapter 4703

Although the white policeman could not understand Chinese, he could still understand Ma Lan's English interspersed with Chinese and English.

She was so furious that she said that she was her mother, and immediately added more force to her knees and pressed her hard against Marashi.

She felt a sharp pain inside her body, which almost took her breath away, and then she heard an even stronger pain.

In this instant, Ma Lan's cold sweat broke out as she cried out, "My ribs are broken! My ribs are broken! Help, I'm dying of pain ....."

With that, she looked at the policewoman and said offhandedly, "Tell him to stop, or I'm going to be crushed to death by him! Is this the way you treat first class passengers?!"

The policewoman said in a cold voice, "This is the first time I've encountered a drug dealer like you, do you think that buying a first class ticket is the same as having judicial immunity?!"

Ma Lan froze and asked her, "What ..... What drug dealer?!"

The policewoman sneered, "Still playing dumb here, our customs officers found over one hundred and eighty ounces, equivalent to over five thousand grams of new synthetic contraband in one of the suitcases you checked in, do you know that these high grade contraband are enough to put you in jail in the US until you die?!"

"What?!" Ma Lan was scared out of her wits for an instant and said out of the blue, "This ..... How is this possible? I'm a law-abiding citizen! How could there be contraband in my luggage? I've never seen anything like that before! I don't even know what that kind of thing looks like!"

After saying that, she suddenly thought of that Zong Qihua and her brain exploded with a buzz.

At this moment, she finally woke up from her dream and realized clearly what kind of a trap she had fallen into.

So, she broke down and said out loud, "I ..... I'm innocent! I've been set up and used! It's all because that b*****d Zong Qihua lied to me, you must investigate and clear my name!"

Only now did Ma Lan realise what a scary scam she had fallen into.

She knew that she had packed her luggage herself and knew exactly what was in it, and that she had not opened it the whole time, so there could not be any contraband.

Since the police said that contraband had been found in one of the two suitcases she had checked in, it must be the suitcase that Zong Qihua had asked herself to help bring back to Hong Kong Island!

When she thought of this, it dawned on Ma Lan that Zong Qihua was not a successful businesswoman at all, nor was she a distant relative of the beverage king, she was a complete fraud! She had acted so hard just to trick herself and help her bring contraband out of the country!

Moreover, the police had already said that the contraband found in that suitcase amounted to more than 5,000 grams, which would undoubtedly be enough for a death sentence if it were in China.

Her whole being was incomparably regretful and frightened, and she said to the policewoman in tears, "Comrade American policeman ..... I was really deceived, it was a woman named Zong Qihua who entrusted me to bring the suitcase to Hong Kong Island, I have no idea what exactly is inside this suitcase, I am innocent! You must do something for me!"

The policewoman laughed coldly and said, "How much did the other party promise you in payment, and how dare you do something like carrying luggage across the border for someone else?"

Chapter 4704

Ma Lan hurriedly said, "I didn't ask for a penny of payment, it was purely out of a favor between friends ....."

When she said this, Ma Lan was actually very vain.

She knew very well that the only reason she had agreed to help Zong Qihua with her luggage was because he had said that he would give her a Lexus LM300 later and would take her to Hong Kong Island for a few days to enjoy herself.

However, Ma Lan thought that these were all verbal promises anyway and she had not received a single penny from the woman, so it was unlikely that the police would be able to find any evidence.

The policewoman gave Marashi a slightly compa*sionate look, and then, together with her colleague, took Marashi to the police station they had located next to the airport terminal.

Marashi was crying and wailing all the way because of her willingness to break a rib, hoping to get treatment first, but the policewoman said, "It's only a broken rib, there's no need to go to hospital at all, our health doctor will come later to give you a simple fix and then some oral anti-inflammatory medicine will do."

Ma Lan cried out, "You guys are so devoid of humanitarian spirit, aren't you?! I want to file a complaint against you guys! Oh no! I'm going to sue you, I'm going to take you to court, I'm not finished with you until you pay me ten or twenty million dollars!"

With that, Ma Lan remembered something and deliberately exclaimed, "There was a Vietnamese-American who was forcibly deported on one of your planes a few years ago, and the internet said that he was finally paid US$140 million!"

The policewoman said lightly, "First of all, the incident you are talking about was a dispute between the airline and the pa*senger, while what you are experiencing now is a criminal case in which the American police arrested a transnational drug dealer, and given that you arrested and had the intention to resist, the law enforcement officers are entitled to use force to arrest you;"

"Secondly, the entire process of our law enforcement is captured on the law enforcement recorder, if you have any objections to our law enforcement, you can challenge it with your lawyer, and I believe your lawyer, when the time comes, will give you the answer."

When Ma Lan saw that she couldn't even bluff this policewoman with her broken ribs, she realised that this matter must be very serious.

So her tone softened all of a sudden and she choked up and asked, "Comrade police ..... I am really innocent. .... What do you have to do to prove my innocence?"

The other side said blandly, "The only way to prove your innocence in this matter is to catch the other side and to prove your innocence by admitting that you didn't know. Otherwise, there would be no way to prove your innocence, after all, all these contraband were found from your checked luggage, if you can't prove that you didn't know about it, then you can't be cleared of suspicion!"

Ma Lan panicked and hurriedly said, "I have chat records with her, she's been playing me for a long time, the chat records are proof of my innocence!"

The policewoman shook her head, "If you can prove your innocence unilaterally with chat records alone, then this matter is too simple. In the future, all drug dealers will concoct a chat record and then come over to the plane with a big profit if they succeed, and if they fail, they will produce the chat records and say they are innocent. Do you think there are so many loopholes in the law for you to exploit?"

Upon hearing this, Ma Lan said eagerly, "Then why are you still standing here? Grab that Zong Qiuhoa!!! She hasn't left the airport yet, she won't get out of New York for a while! If we catch her and interrogate her, we'll be able to prove my innocence!"

The policewoman said coldly, "You don't need to tell us how to handle the case, right now we need to give you a full statement first, if you have a lawyer we can inform one for you, if you don't we'll assign one to you, your choice."

Ma Lan said offhandedly, "I want to call my family, I want to call my daughter and son-in-law!"

Chapter 4705

Seeing that Marashi wanted to contact her family, the policewoman nodded, "Good, you have the right to contact your family and have your family arrange a lawyer for you in a criminal case."

After that, she took out Marashi's mobile phone, handed it to Marashi and spoke, "Remember you can only call your family or your lawyer, if you call your accomplice to inform him, it will only make you more guilty!"

Ma Lan cried, "Do you not understand human language? I've already told you that I was wrongly accused and victimised, where is the accomplice?"

The policewoman said indifferently, "It is not up to you or me to decide whether you were wrongly accused or whether you were victimized, but when the trial starts, the judge's verdict will prevail."

Ma Lan gave the policewoman a gambling look, then immediately picked up her mobile phone and called Xiao Churan.

Xiao Churan received the call and the first thing she said when she picked up was to ask Ma Lan, "Mom, have you boarded the plane yet?"

As soon as Ma Lan heard her daughter's voice, the aggression and fear in her heart instantly exploded and she cried out, "Churan ..... My good daughter ..... You must save mommy, if you don't save mommy, she will die in America ....."

Xiao Churan suddenly became nervous and quickly asked, "Mom what's wrong with you?!"

Ma Lan cried, "It's the friend that Sister Chen introduced me to, she asked me to bring her a piece of luggage to Hong Kong Island, but it turned out that before I even got on the plane, the police arrested me, saying that a large amount of contraband was found inside my luggage, saying that there were more than five thousand grams ..... Now they have arrested me and crushed one of my ribs ..... Now I have to inform my lawyer ..... What am I going to do .....

She said, crying helplessly and painfully, "Churan, tell Ye Chen quickly, tell Ye Chen to hurry up and find a good and reliable lawyer for mum, saying that nothing can make mum go to jail in America!"

"What?!" Xiao Churan felt dazed and confused, and immediately became disoriented, quickly looked at Ye Chen and said in fear: "Honey ..... Mum she ..... She was arrested by the police ..... The police said they found a lot of contraband in her luggage and broke one of her ribs ..... What's going to happen ....."

In fact, Ye Chen had already heard what Ma Lan had said on the phone.

At this moment he immediately recalled that he had previously felt that Sister Chen's family didn't seem right, but now it seemed that it was estimated that her family were all just actors who were cooperating with her performance.

The persona of successful people and enthusiastic overseas Chinese was nothing more than a persona set up to deceive fellow countrymen.

And the fundamental reason why that Chen had been very warm to Ma Lan was actually to use her to transport contraband to Hong Kong Island.

Xiao Churan had already panicked at this point, she couldn't control the tears flowing out of her eyes and asked Ye Chen: "Honey ..... What should I do now? ..... The police said they want mum to hire a lawyer or they will a*sign one ....."

Ye Chen nodded and said, "You tell mum not to talk nonsense inside for now, I'll get help from my clients in the US and arrange for an experienced lawyer to go over."

Xiao Churan was busy asking, "Honey, is your client in New York professional in this area? Does he have resources in this area?"

Ye Chen said seriously, "Don't worry, she's still a bit powerful in New York, so it shouldn't be a problem to arrange a good lawyer, and it's definitely much better than the public lawyer arranged by the police."

Xiao Churan said, "Then you should call your client and ask her for help ..... Mum said that the police told her that if this matter is not cleared, I am afraid that she will be sentenced to life imprisonment."

Ye Chen was very calm and said, "This kind of thing cannot be rushed, you only need to remember one thing, Ma herself subjectively certainly can't, knowing that it is contraband and still deliberately carry it, so as long as you can prove this, you can prove that she is innocent, then also don't have to bear any criminal consequences."

When Ma Lan on the other end of the phone heard Ye Chen's words, she cried and said, "Good son-in-law, the reason is indeed what you said, but the key is that if no one is caught, there will be no proof of death ....."

Chapter 4706

Ye Chen spoke, "Mom, you don't have to worry or be afraid, this matter will definitely be resolved successfully, only that it may be a little bit more troublesome, so I'll have to be a bit of a burden to you during this period of time."

Ma Lan cried and asked, "Save me, good son-in-law! I'm so scared! If this goes badly, Ma will be imprisoned for life ..... Mum is someone who has been in a detention center, it's too scary in there ....."

Ye Chen said seriously, "Don't worry mum, I promise you won't be sentenced to life imprisonment, this matter will definitely be resolved before Churan graduates, and you will definitely be able to return to China with us by then."

Ma Lan hurriedly asked, "Good son-in-law, is everything you said true? It's now just over half a month before Churan graduates and returns to China ....."

Ye Chen gave a hmph and said, "Don't worry, I, Ye Chen, will do what I say!"

Hearing Ye Chen's firm tone, Ma Lan's nerves, which were tense due to fear, finally soothed a little.

She cried and said, "Good son-in-law, the rest of mum's life depends on you ..... You ..... You mustn't go back on your word ....."

Ye Chen said indifferently, "Mom, after this incident, I hope you can grow a long memory, never, never trust others casually again, and even more so, don't just think about being greedy for small bargains every day and end up suffering a big loss because of it."

At the other end of the phone, Ma Lan nodded her head like a choked sob, "Don't worry ..... As long as I can regain my freedom this time, I will never be greedy even if I am given a mountain of gold and silver in front of my mother in the future ....."

The first time I thought about it, I remembered that I was arrested by the police for stealing Ye Chen's bank card, and I couldn't wait to smack myself twice. You've already learned your lesson once before, how can you still fall for this kind of evil trick this time ..... How could Ye Chen have tens of billions of dollars in his card? By the same token, how could a person you just met give you a multi-million dollar car and invite you to her villa for a holiday? This kind of thing is plainly impossible, so why don't you grow a memory ....."

Ye Chen also heard Ma Lan's remorse, so he said lightly, "Mom, don't say anything to them for now, I will arrange for a lawyer to go over and help you settle this matter within an hour."

"Okay, okay!" When Ma Lan heard Ye Chen say that he could have the lawyer over in an hour, she quickly said, "It must still be my good son-in-law, to have such strong power even in a place as far away as New York where the sky is high and the emperor is far away!"

The policewoman beside her spoke up at this time, "All right, call time is up, give me the phone."

Ma Lan had to nod, and as she handed over the phone, she said loudly, "Good son-in-law! Mum is counting on you!!!"

The phone was then hung up by the policewoman.

On this side, Xiao Churan cried and asked Ye Chen: "Honey, what are you going to do next ....."

Ye Chen said indifferently, "I'll send you back to Providence first, tomorrow is Monday, you still have cla*sses to attend, so you just do your cla*sses at school for the next few days, I'll take care of things on Mom's side in New York."

Xiao Churan choked out, "What's going on? How can I be in the mood for cla*s? ..... Let's just turn around and go back to New York ....."

Ye Chen said very seriously, "Churan, I'll tell you the truth, don't dislike to hear it."

Xiao Churan was busy saying, "Honey, you say ....."

Ye Chen said with a serious expression, "This matter that mum encountered, you can't help in any way, and if you follow me in New York, it's impossible to have any positive effect other than adding to the chaos."

After a pause, Ye Chen added: "Instead of that, you should go back to Providence and concentrate on taking care of your cla*sses, and I can really let go of this matter if I go back to New York alone, otherwise, in case this matter doesn't work out for me, Mom will probably have to stay in prison in the United States for the rest of her life!"

Chapter 4707

To Ye Chen, solving this matter was not difficult to say the least, but to really say that it was satisfactorily resolved was by no means an easy task.

The crime that Ma Lan is now suspected of is a felony among felonies in any country or region in this world.

Moreover, because of the sheer volume of contraband she was carrying, this is a crime that carries the death penalty in many countries.

If all those behind this matter could be arrested, Marashi could only be truly and legally cleared of suspicion, otherwise she would have to use special means to get her out of prison.

But that would mean an international criminal record for Marashi, which would be a real problem in the future.

And to solve such a gang of criminals who specialised in victimising fellow countrymen, some extraordinary means would have to be used, and if Xiao Churan kept following, not only would his own hands be tied, but he would also have to divert extra energy to look after her and protect her.

Therefore, for Ye Chen, the best solution was to leave Xiao Churan alone in Providence and solve the problem of Maran himself in New York.

Moreover, there were always female warriors from the Hall of Ten Thousand Dragons on standby at all times in Providence, and he himself did not have to worry about Xiao Churan's personal safety at all.

When Xiao Churan heard these words from Ye Chen, she could not help but feel a little scared in her heart as well.

Not only was she afraid that her mother would be imprisoned in the United States, but she was also afraid that if she followed Ye Chen, it would really affect his plan to save her.

After thinking about it, in order to ensure that her mother could get out safely to the greatest extent possible, Xiao Churan had no choice but to nod and choke up, "Then fine ..... then I will wait for your news in Providence ....."

Saying that, she looked at Ye Chen and said pitifully, "Honey, my mother will have to ask you ..... please make sure you save her ....."

Ye Chen nodded and said softly, "Don't worry wife, with me here, mum will definitely be fine."

Saying that, Ye Chen also instructed, "Honey, you must not tell anyone about this matter, not even Dad, if Dad asks, just say that she recently went out with a travel group, but I don't think Dad will ask about her, he is probably having fun doing exchanges in Korea by himself."

Xiao Churan also knew the specifics of her parents' relationship, sighed helplessly and said, "My dad can't really count on it, he's going on an exchange this time, maybe there's that Auntie Han ..... and the two of them had a story earlier, and then they were having an affair... .."

Ye Chen hurriedly said, "All right, now is not the time to discuss them, now the priority is to find a way to get Ma out of this matter."

"Yes ....." Xiao Churan nodded hastily and said, "Honey you hurry up and get your friends to help, let the lawyer go over there first ....."

"Okay." Ye Chen nodded and took out his mobile phone and made a call to Fei Jianzhong.

The reason why he didn't call Fei Ke Xin was also because his wife was around, and he always felt that it was better to do more than one thing.

Fei Jianzhong didn't expect that Ye Chen would call him, so he was a bit flattered and picked up the phone and asked, "Mr. Ye, what do you want from me?"

Ye Chen politely said, "Mr. Fei, I need your help with something."

Chapter 4708

Fei Jianzhong hurriedly said, "Please speak, Mr. Ye! As long as I can do it, I will do whatever I can!"

Ye Chen said, "My mother-in-law was taken advantage of by a group of people and was caught carrying contraband out of New York's JFK airport without knowing it.

When Fei Jianzhong heard this, his whole body was dumbfounded, he really couldn't imagine what kind of person would be so unafraid of death to provoke Ye Chen's head.

However, he quickly came back to his senses and said very seriously, "Don't worry, Mr. Ye, I'll have the best law firm send the best criminal lawyer over!"

Ye Chen said with a somewhat grim expression, "There is one more thing, my mother-in-law said that one of her ribs was broken by the police, I think that since this is a civilised society now, even if the nature of the criminal is even worse, it should be put to the court for trial, not for the American police to abuse lynching, not to mention that my mother-in-law herself was used by someone, even if the matter has not been investigated clearly, she is Even if the matter is not yet investigated, she is only a suspect and should not be treated in such a way, so I hope that the lawyer you have arranged can help her get justice.”

Hearing these words, Fei Jianzhong immediately assured, “Don’t worry, Mr. Ye, I will definitely take care of this matter for you!”

Ye Chen gave a hint and said, “Then I’ll thank Old Mr. Fei in advance!”

Fei Jianzhong said with some trepidation, “Mr. Ye, you must not be so polite to me, it is an honour for me to share your worries!”

Ye Chen said, “I don’t have to say much more than that, I have to take my wife to Providence, and if I return to New York, it will take me at least four or five hours, so I need to ask Mr. Fei to arrange a helicopter. ”

“No problem! I’ll arrange it right away!”

Xiao Churan could not hear Fei Jianzhong’s voice on the other end of the phone, but she could not help but be a little appalled just by what her husband said.

After Ye Chen hung up the phone, she hurriedly asked, “Honey ..... what kind of person are you looking for ..... not only can you find the best criminal lawyer in New York, but you can also send a helicopter to pick us up?! ”

Ye Chen laughed: “This old gentleman, has been wanting to ask me to adjust the feng shui of his family’s old house, I haven’t agreed to him yet, this just happened to come across this matter, so I asked him for help first, big deal, when the matter is over, I will just give him a free feng shui reading.”

As for lawyers and helicopters, they are nothing. In a place like America, the best lawyers are in law firms, and they will serve whoever has money. It’s not a big deal.”

Xiao Churan nodded gently and sighed, “With such a person’s help, the success rate of the matter will probably be greater again .....”

Ye Chen smiled faintly and said comfortingly, “Don’t worry about this matter. I guarantee that mum will at most suffer a little bit, it won’t be a big deal, and a little bit of suffering is good for her, that character of hers, if she doesn’t suffer a little bit, next time she might be able to bring the atomic bomb into the airport as well.”

“Ai .....” Xiao Churan let out a long sigh and said helplessly, “This character of hers is really not suitable for going out, once she goes out, she will easily cause trouble ..... If this time could pass without a scare, it would be good to let her learn a lesson .....”

Ye Chen nodded and said comfortingly, “Wife, just put your mind at ease, hubby will definitely be able to get mum out safely, you know me, when have I ever promised something I can’t do?”

What Ye Chen said made Xiao Churan’s heart a lot firmer, she looked at Ye Chen, nodded solemnly and said from the bottom of her heart, “Hubby ..... everything please .....”

Chapter 4709

Ye Chen found an open area and stopped the car. After sending his location to Fei Jianzhong, he continued to calm Xiao Churan.

After Xiao Churan's mood had stabilised, the helicopter arranged by Fei Jianzhong arrived.

The person who came was Fei Jianzhong's butler.

After the helicopter had stopped, he pushed open the cabin door and stepped out, saying to Ye Chen respectfully, "Mr. Ye, our master has ordered the helicopter to take you and your wife back to Providence, I will drive your car for you, do you want to drive to New York or Providence?"

Ye Chen thought of leaving the car with Xiao Churan, maybe she still had something she needed to use, so he said to Fei Jianzhong's butler, "Help me take my luggage to the helicopter first, then help me drive the car to the Hilton Hotel in Providence, just give the key to the front desk."

"Good!" The butler nodded and hurriedly, with one of his own men, took the luggage from Ye Chen's trunk and sent it to the helicopter.

Ye Chen then also took Xiao Churan aboard the helicopter, which restarted and took off before whistling towards Providence.

More than half an hour later, the helicopter came to rest on the helipad on the roof of the Hilton Hotel.

Ye Chen took Xiao Churan back to the presidential suite first, urging Xiao Churan not to worry and not to run around on her own.

Xiao Churan knew that at a time like this, all she had to do was to try not to cause trouble for Ye Chen, so she agreed to do so without hesitation.

After settling down Xiao Churan, Ye Chen went back to the roof of the building and took a helicopter to rush back to New York.

As Ye Chen began to rush back to New York, James White, the most authoritative chief criminal lawyer at Cravath, the number one law firm in the United States, hurried to New York's JFK International Airport with his two assistants.

The lawyer has long been the number one enemy of the US police.

The main reason for this is that he is so good at what he does, that even when there is sufficient evidence to prove a suspect's guilt, he can still find a flaw in the details of a police case that will make the police pause and make all their efforts go down the drain.

There were times when James White let guilty killers walk out of court with a flourish.

Whenever this happened, the police hated him with a passion.

But then again, this is a power given to suspects by American law, and once his lawyers catch a loophole, even if the whole world knows he is guilty, it does not prevent him from being acquitted.

And because of this, James White has become almost a royal lawyer for rich and wicked people to clear their names.

And his legal fees have gone through the roof, with his appearances starting at least at a million dollars and, in the case of a major, protracted lawsuit, the proceeds can exceed ten million dollars.

Because James White has disgraced the NYPD so many times, the officers have given him a nickname and privately call him Mad Dog White.

At this point, the American policemen who arrested Ma Lan agreed that this Chinese woman must be an unlucky man who had been taken advantage of.

However, they also know very well that according to the law, as long as the real mastermind behind the crime is not caught, even if she is really being used, it will be difficult to prove herself and the end result will definitely be a prison sentence.

Moreover, these few American policemen had somewhat underestimated the strength behind Ma Lan.

They always felt that such a pompous shrew, and a foreigner at that, could not have any powerful background in the United States.

Chapter 4710

So they left only two Chinese officers in the interrogation room to take Ma Lan's statement, while the others ordered a bunch of coffee, fries, fried chicken and pizza and ate a snack in the lobby of the police station.

Everyone was very happy at the moment because they had managed to crack a very major case of contraband smuggling, and it involved the latest synthetic contraband, worth over ten million dollars.

They had already reported the case to the New York City Police Department, and the police commissioner had personally called to congratulate them, saying that they should hurry up and get the statement done, and then inform the media about the case, so that the media could come over and cover it properly.

This is a great opportunity for the police officers at the airport to show their faces.

So everyone was very excited at the moment, and even though it was already time to leave work, some decided to stay here and celebrate with everyone else.

Among them was the policeman who had crushed Marashi's ribs, his name was Jimmy Wayne.

He was eating a slice of pizza and said sarcastically, "That Chinese woman in there is probably finished this time, when her statement is investigated and reported to the New York City police, the city police will then arrest her handler based on her statement, and in between, there will be enough time for her handler to run away to the moon. I'm sure none of them will be caught by then."

Another white policeman said with a smile, "This woman is involved in a case of five kilograms of contraband, the judge will definitely not allow bail, if we don't catch the person behind it, she will definitely be sentenced to life without parole, then she will never get out of here."

One of his colleagues who had gone with him said to Jimmy Wayne, "Jimmy, you were too hard on her, she's old enough to be killed if you broke a few ribs."

Jimmy Wayne cursed and said, "That son of a b*tch calls herself my mother, I'm restrained enough not to beat the sh*t out of her!"

The man said with some seriousness, "Try to keep it under control in the future, you know what happened in Minneapolis, it's better to be cautious in situations like this, and you have to be careful in case her lawyer finds out, he'll probably have to sue you then."

"sh*t." Jimmy Wayne said disdainfully, "I don't see this woman getting into anything at all, she's a Chinese, and she can't even hire any great lawyers in New York, if it was one of those a*signed pro bono lawyers, I have a million ways to shut them up."

He said with a smug look on his face, "Let me pa*s on a lesson to you, this kind of person, when she comes up, she likes to make herself look very strong, trying to shock the other party right away, but in fact, the more you deal with this kind of person, the tougher you have to be, even make sure to find the opportunity to use a little violence, once you let her know that she has kicked the iron plate, she immediately becomes more honest than a pug! The next time you give her a little good look, she'll be wagging her tail at you!"

The crowd erupted in laughter.

At that moment, the door was pushed open and a middle-aged man, somewhat blessed with a smile on his face, walked in and said in a loud voice as soon as he entered, "Guys, my wife and I just ordered a Tomahawk steak at the steakhouse and before we could eat it, we heard that you had solved a big case, well done guys!"

The men were all giddy when they saw the Divisional Commissioner coming.

One of them asked, "Chief, when will you arrange a celebration dinner for us?"

The division chief laughed and said, "We will celebrate after the police have informed the media and reporters that they will come over for interviews!"

The crowd immediately cheered out.

The division chief asked, "Where are the suspects now?"

Jimmy Wayne said, "Chief, the suspect is in the interrogation room taking a statement."

The Divisional Commissioner nodded and was about to speak when he heard an ear-splitting screech of brakes.

The crowd looked at the sound and saw a black Mercedes Maybach limousine, which had stopped sharply at the entrance of the police station.

A policeman near the door raised his eyebrows, whistled and said excitedly, "Guys, it looks like someone big has arrived!"
