

Ye Chen 4741

Chapter 4741

Marashi completely misunderstood the logic of survival in an American prison.

Here, if you are innocent, the other inmates will bully you to death.

But if you are a felon, and a felon with a background, then the other inmates here, not to say they must treat you like an ancestor, at least they know you are not to be messed with, so they stay away from you as much as possible.

If Ma Lan admitted that she was a drug dealer, the gang would definitely stay away from her.

After all, in America, drug dealers are synonymous with desperadoes, and they never act alone, they have a ruthless, armed-to-the-teeth organisation behind them.

However, Ma Lan was afraid that people would really mistake her for a drug dealer, so when she got nervous, she revealed the truth.

This one was tantamount to personally pressing her place in this prison cell to the floor.

That was why, as soon as the red-haired woman heard what she had said, she slapped her without thinking.

And this red-haired woman was not satisfied after slapping Marashi, she rushed forward with a big stride, staring at Marashi with a deadly stare and said seriously, "I tell you, in my place, if you want to suffer less, be a good boy and ask your family to deposit more money in your account, I have a lot of things to buy, but there is not enough money in the account, this is your chance to show it, if your family deposits enough money for you, you'll have less to suffer here."

After saying that, she remembered something, grabbed Marashi's collar and continued, "Oh yes, a friendly reminder, the prison guard in charge of this cell block, Jessica Brownstone, sells cigarettes privately, she sells American Spirit cigarettes for forty dollars a pack, starting at one, but her cigarettes cannot be purchased through your account in the prison, you need to inform your family on the outside and hand over cash into her hands before she will bring the cigarettes in."

Ma Lan said with a nervous face, "I I don't smoke"

The red-haired woman sneered and slapped Ma Lan across the face again, cursing angrily, "Stupid, you don't smoke I do! Starting tomorrow, you're going to get Jessica Brownstone to give me a pack of American Spirit cigarettes every day, remember, three packs! Me and these little sisters of mine, we've been having a bit of a tobacco shortage lately, so you'd better have some sense, or I'll make sure you do!"

Ma Lan instantly cried, "I've just been locked up, I haven't had a chance to contact my family yet, where am I going to get you a packet of cigarettes!"

"Then I don't care!" The red-haired woman said coldly, "Anyway, if I don't see an American spirit by tomorrow night, then I'll beat you to death!"

With that, she added a warning, "Oh yeah, I forgot to tell you, if you dare go to the wardens and tell on me, I'll stick the sharpened toothbrush handle down your throat, we'll see about that if you don't believe me!"

Ma Lan burst into tears of fear.

At that moment, a young Chinese woman came forward and whispered, "Auntie, this redhead is Chloe, she has been in Bedford Hills Correctional Institution for five years and is a well-known prison bully here, not only does she have a lot of followers in our cell, but there are also many people in other cells who work with her."

When Ma Lan saw her compatriot, she cried, "She is too unreasonable, why should she slap me with two big mouths? Who did I provoke? I am so aggrieved... .."

Chapter 4742

The red-haired woman, Chloe, was disturbed by hearing Marashi cry, and grabbed Marashi's hair with one hand and slapped her again with the other, while saying coldly, "If I hear you cry again, I'll rip your mouth out!"

Ma Lan really didn't expect the women's prison in America to be so dark, she had not even been in for a few minutes before being slapped three times.

That Chloe saw Marashi's face swollen into a pig's head and laughed contemptuously, "Remember, today is just a slight lesson for you, if I don't see smoke tomorrow, the consequences will be on you!"

With that, she instructed a woman behind her, "Jenny, go and fetch a basin of water!"

The woman called Jenny immediately ran to the bathroom and soon came back with a basin full of water.

Chloe looked at Marashi and said in a cold voice, "Sorry, you'll have to sleep on the floor today."

With that, she gave a wink to that Jenny.

Jenny, who was no slouch either, looked at Marashi playfully and poured a basin of water all over her bed straight away.

Not only was the bedding she had just received drenched in water, but the pillows and mattress were also unusable.

Marashi did not dare to speak, let alone resist, and could only look at her bed, which was dripping water, with hatred and regret.

What she hated was the fact that Chloe had deceived her too much, and what she regretted was the fact that she had played her cards badly.

She choked in her heart and thought, "I really regret it If I hadn't been fooled by those two bds Mei Yu Zhen and Zong Qiu Hua, I would have flown back to Jinling by now! If I hadn't been fooled by those two sons of b*tches like Mei Yu Zhen and Zong Qiu Hua, I would have flown back to Jinling and sold the necklace that Ye Chen gave me, and I would be living a very comfortable life now And to be humiliated by these prison bullies

At this time, Chloe looked at Ma Lan and sneered, "I heard that you Chinese people are particularly fond of foot ma*sage, it just so happens that I have been uncomfortable with the soles of my feet for the past two days, so go get a tub of hot water and give my feet a good squeeze!"

Ma Lan subconsciously said, "I I don't know how to"

"Won't you?" Chloe sneered and took a toothpaste from the personal items that Marashi had just received, directly opened the cap and aimed the toothpaste at Marashi's mouth, then squeezed in a large amount in one breath, squeezing Marashi's mouth full.

She tried to dodge it and spit it out, but Chloe beckoned to Jenny, who immediately called for two other men, who expertly pinned her down on the wet single bed, then two of them pinned her shoulders so that she couldn't move, while the other covered her mouth so that she couldn't spit out the toothpaste.

Chloe and her men were already familiar with this tactic, and with her mouth covered she could barely breathe through her nose.

At this point, Chloe laughed cruelly and said sternly, "Swallow the toothpaste in your mouth if you know what you're doing, otherwise I'll have to go to the toilet and get something to feed you!"

When Ma Lan heard this, she was scared out of her wits and could only grit her teeth and swallow the toothpaste in her mouth little by little, not caring about the pungency of the toothpaste.

After she had eaten most of the toothpaste, her whole oesophagus and stomach were burning with pain, and she could not stop the tears in her eyes.

She couldn't help but wail in her heart, "This red-haired female devil is even worse than Zhang Guifen! She is a demoness! Wait for me, if you fall into my hands, I will torture you tenfold and a hundredfold!"

Chapter 4743

When she saw that the whole cell block was watching her laugh, and no one wanted to say anything to help her, she could only grit her teeth and nod her head.

Although Ma Lan was indignant, she did not dare to disobey this Chloe.

After all, when one is under the roof, one has to bow down, especially when one is in a foreign country, and the feeling of having no one to turn to is even stronger.

Luckily, Marashi was able to bend and stretch, and seeing that she could not afford to offend Chloe, she had no choice but to submit.

Chloe watched her swallow all the toothpaste in her mouth, smiled contemptuously and asked in a cold voice, "Did the toothpaste just now help you recall how you should give someone a foot ma*sage?"

Marashi nodded her head as quickly as she could and said, "I remembered, I remembered"

Chloe grunted and chided, "Now that you've remembered, why don't you hurry up and fetch a basin of water to wash my feet?! If you dawdle any longer, I'll break your legs!"

When Marashi heard that he was going to break his leg, he let out a yelp of fear and hurriedly picked up the basin and said, "I'm going, I'm going!"

After saying that, Marashi ran all the way to the bathroom and brought out a basin of hot water.

When Chloe saw how obsequious Marashi looked, she knew in her heart that the newcomer had been shocked by herself again.

Chloe had been at Bedford Hills Correctional Facility for a long time, and she knew very well that here, the underdog was the most basic way to survive.

For a prison bully like Chloe, to hold her position, she had to tackle every newcomer that came in.

She must break all the will of the newcomer on the first day she arrives and make her an obedient dog.

Only in this way can one ensure that this cell, a second small team will not appear.

And only then can you ensure that your position as boss is not threatened.

And every newcomer who comes in, if they want to be left alone in this cell, must have an overpowering fist and guts.

Just like Marashi, if she dares to fight Chloe first on the first day she comes in, despite Chloe's provocation, even if she gets beaten up and bleeds, as long as she grit her teeth and doesn't bow down, Chloe will definitely not come after her again, and will even change her strategy immediately, from intense oppression at first, to caging and pulling in.

But if Marashi is stepped on by Chloe on her first day, then as long as she is still in this prison in the future, she will never be able to turn her back on Chloe.

For, to a villain like Chloe, the more cowardly and submissive she is, the more she will bully and squeeze her like crazy.

Right now, Marashi does not know that in Chloe's eyes, she has become an object to be abused at will, and she originally wanted to please Chloe with her actions, but she does not know that Chloe has more torture waiting for her.

Although Marashi had never washed anyone's feet in her life, she used to go to beauty salons for all kinds of treatments, including foot ma*sages, so she followed her previous memories and soaked Chloe's feet.

Chloe was in a good mood when she saw how submissive Marashi was, and while enjoying her services, she said with a smile, "When you're done with me, remember to do the same for my sisters, and give them what you did for me.

As soon as Chloe's words left her mouth, seven or eight people in a row came out of the crowd, and Ma Lan looked devastated, if one person pinched for half an hour and seven or eight people all came down, the afternoon would have pa*sed.

Not to mention how long it would take, she would have to tire herself out.

Chapter 4744

So she could only ask in a pleading tone, “Chloe can you do half today and then the other half tomorrow I’m too old to eat... ..”

Chloe pulled her foot out of the warm water and kicked Marashi in the chest, saying in a cold voice, “Old woman, you need to figure out your place here, you only have one option to obey what I say, otherwise I have a million ways to screw you, do you hear me?!”

Ma Lan had already broken a rib, and when she was kicked like that, even though she didn’t hit the broken rib, the pain caused her tears of pain.

She couldn’t help but look at the other inmates, hoping that someone would say something for her, or help her plead with Chloe, but to her surprise, the whole cell block, including the Chinese girl who had just spoken to her and even translated for her, were all watching her laugh. . understood

Chloe grunted, looked at the time and spoke, “There are exactly four hours left for dinner, for those four hours, you don’t have to do anything, just give us a few ma*sages!”

Ma Lan understood that she had no qualifications to negotiate with this Chloe, nor was there any possibility of gaining sympathy, so in order to avoid more torture for herself, she could only do whatever she was told.

Not daring to disobey, she could only grit her teeth and nod.

Even an experienced technician in a foot ma*sage parlour could not be clocked for four hours in one breath, let alone a novice like Ma Lan.

Within half an hour, she was already exhausted, her hands cramped and her back aching.

But Chloe didn’t give her a chance to catch her breath, instead she repeatedly punched and kicked Marashi for being lighter, bringing tears to Marashi’s eyes from the start.

By the end of the four hours, Marashi was so exhausted that she was in severe pain and could not even lift her hands and arms.

Just as she was halfway through squeezing the last person, the guard came over and knocked on the barred door, bellowing coldly, “Get ready for dinner, everyone line up immediately!”

The crowd got up and lined up, and only then did Ma Lan finally sort of stop.

But because she had been squatting for so long, she could not even stand up now.

When she saw Marashi still squatting on the ground, she immediately scolded her, “1024, line up now! If you don’t get in line in three seconds, you won’t have dinner tonight!”

Ma Lan could only use all her strength to stand up with tears streaming down her face while gritting her teeth, and walked into the queue with difficult steps.

Afterwards, the entire cell block, led by the prison guards, headed to the dining hall for dinner.

Ma Lan could only hang far behind by herself because her legs and feet were sore and numb.

Every step she took along the way was incredibly difficult, but she could only desperately hold on.

The female prison guard also deliberately slowed down at this time and came in front of Ma Lan, saying in a low voice, "1024, is your family very rich?"

Ma Lan froze, not daring to say anything for a while.

The female prison guard smiled and spoke, "Your lawyer has deposited ten thousand dollars in your prison account, you can now buy things at the shop with your ID card."

With that, the guard lowered her voice and said, "By the way, introductions, I'm Jessica Brownstone, remember to contact me if your family wants to sell cigarettes, American Spirit, one thousand dollars a piece."

"A thousand?!" Marashi asked subconsciously, "Didn't Chloe say four hundred dollars a piece?"

Jessica Brownstone smiled and said blandly, "Four hundred dollars was yesterday's price, today's price is one thousand, if you want to buy them, call your family and tell them to contact my sister, otherwise, I can't guarantee what that Chloe will do to you at night!"

Chapter 4745

Knowing that this place was full of snakes and rats, and that it was not the time to reason with this American prison guard, Maran asked her in a hurry, "Can I call home now?"

"Yes." Jessica Brownstone said lightly, "After dinner it's release time, you can use your ID card to call home then."

With that, she quietly slipped a slip of paper into Marashi's hand and whispered, "This is my sister's number, contact her if you want to buy cigarettes."

When she heard that she could call her family, Ma Lan was so excited that she couldn't even hold a spoon and could only manage a few mouthfuls before hurrying to follow the group to the release site.

It was surrounded by high walls and buildings, about half the size of a football field, and more than a thousand prisoners were crowded here.

The first thing Marashi did was to come to

Knowing that the place was full of rats and mice, it was not the right time to reason with the American guard, so he asked her, "Can I call home now?"

"Yes." Jessica Brownstone said lightly, "After dinner it's release time, you can use your ID card to call home then."

With that, she quietly slipped a slip of paper into Marashi's hand and whispered, "This is my sister's number, contact her if you want to buy cigarettes."

As soon as she heard that she could call her family, Ma Lan was so excited that she could not add anything.

She could not wait to go and call Ye Chen right now, crying and asking Ye Chen to do everything he could to save himself.

However, in order to call her family, she had to wait until dinner time was over and everyone had gone to the playground to let off steam.

So Ma Lan could only follow the large group to the dining hall.

In the dining room, Marashi could only barely carry her dinner plate to a deserted corner because her hands were really weak and she had to hold it.

When she sat down, Chloe appeared from nowhere and sat opposite her with her plate.

And her henchmen, the few female prisoners who had just enjoyed Maran's foot massage, swarmed around Maran at once.

A little alarmed, Maran hastily asked Chloe, "May I ask if you need anything?"

Chloe looked at Maran, smiled, raised her eyebrows and asked, "I heard from Jessica that your family is very rich, charging your card with $10,000 in one go?"

Ma Lan could only coyly say, "I my son-in-law this person is more filial he he must be afraid that I will be aggravated in this. So that's why he asked the lawyer to save some more money"

Chloe nodded and said with a smile, "Since your family is so rich, then the terms I offered today may have to be adjusted slightly."

Maran asked nervously, "How do you you want to adjust"

Chloe laughed, "It's not much, it's just changing one cigarette a day, to two a day, which shouldn't be much for your family's condition, right?"

Marlane said with a meaty look on her face, "You said before you asked that Jessica to buy cigarettes for four hundred dollars a piece, but she just told me that they cost a thousand dollars a piece"

Chloe wasn't surprised at all and said with a smile, "What's $1,000 to you, two is only $2,000, but if you spend that $2,000, I can guarantee you that no one will ever bully you again at Bedford Hills Correctional Facility."

As soon as Marlane heard this, she asked, "Are you telling the truth?"

"Of course." Chloe said with a smile, "As long as you can get your family to buy two cigarettes a day from Jessica, nothing that happened to you today will ever happen again, and instead of bullying you in the future, my sisters and I will cover you!"

Ma Lan was slightly relieved to hear this.

Chapter 4746

US$2,000 per day was indeed not a small amount when converted into Chinese currency, but she believed in her son-in-law's strength in making money.

After all, Ye Chen usually went out to read feng shui for others and casually earned several million Chinese Yuan, which translated into several hundred thousand dollars, enough to live high and dry in prison for a long time.

Thinking of this, she hurriedly said to Chloe, "Yes! As long as you can keep your promise, I'll call my son-in-law after dinner!"

"Good!" Chloe nodded with great satisfaction.

In all the time she had been in Bedford Hills Correctional Facility, she had never met, before, a cellmate with such financial means.

Originally, all she had to do was have someone buy a cigarette from Jessica and she herself would get fifty dollars in addition to a cigarette.

And just now, Jessica had also told her privately that if she could get Marashi's family to buy cigarettes from her for $1,000, she would get $300 in addition to the cigarettes.

Bedford Hills Correctional Facility is a women's prison, but cigarettes and tampons are absolute hard currency here.

As long as one has these two items, one can get everything one wants in prison in exchange for them.

And as for her share of the dollars from Jessica, Chloe had Jessica deposit it all into her own account at the prison.

Although she didn't need to spend much money in prison, it was the safest way to keep the money in the prison account, as the balance would be refundable for cash when she was released in the future.

In the past, Jessica could only get two or three thousand dollars a month, but now that Malan is here, it's like coming into a cash cow.

Two cigarettes a day would not only ensure that she could exchange them for everything she needed in prison, but would also net her six hundred dollars, which would make it twelve thousand dollars a month.

So she decided to change tactics with Marashi and do her best to squeeze more dollars out of her.

Then, with her right hand, which was shaking more than a Parkinson's patient, she barely managed to eat a few mouthfuls of food, before hurrying along with the group to the release area.

The place where the wind was let out was a playground in the middle of the prison, surrounded by high walls and buildings, about half the size of a football field.

It was surrounded by high walls and buildings, and was about half the size of a football field. More than a thousand inmates from the Bedford Hills Correctional Facility were packed in here.

At the edge of the playground, there was a small shop for the inmates and a row of public telephones with plug-in cards.

After queuing for half a day, she finally got a phone and inserted her prison ID card into it, and immediately dialled Ye Chen's number.

At such a time, she knew it was useless to call her daughter, the only one who could save her was her wonderful son-in-law.

And at this moment, Ye Chen had just finished his dinner at Fei's house.

Wan Bajun's men were still following the trail of Mei Yu Zhen and Zong Qiu Hua, while in the prison, Wan Long Temple had also arranged for three female warriors to be brought in long ago.

However, they were not in the same cell as Ma Lan.

Ye Chen guessed almost instantly that it was his mother-in-law Ma Lan calling from prison, so he pressed the answer button and asked, "Hello, who is this?"

On the other end of the phone, Ma Lan's crying voice came: "Good son-in-law is me. Good son-in-law mum is in prison so miserable you must save Mum ah"

Chapter 4747

The one-hour release time passes quickly.

All the prisoners were paraded back to their cells under the supervision of the guards.

Ma Lan timidly returned to her cell with her cellmate, and when she reached her cell, she was even more apprehensive.

She wondered how long it would take for Ye Chen's connections to get the money for the cigarettes to Jessica's sister, and whether Chloe would stop bullying herself about it.

When she returned to her cell, she went to her bed in silence, but her bed was still wet, so she couldn't even sit on it, let alone sleep.

At this time, Chloe came to the bunk opposite Marashi with a smile on her face, sat down, looked up at the coy Marashi and said with a smile, "1024, the guards said that they had received money from your family to buy cigarettes."

Once Ma Lan heard this, he let out a long breath and hurriedly said respectfully, "Since the money has been received, then then can you stop bullying me in the future"

Chloe said with a straight face, "1024, that's a bit wrong, I'm not bullying you, I'm just teaching you the basic rules of survival in this prison cell."

Ma Lan nodded her head and said, "Yes, yes, yes"

Chloe smiled faintly and continued, "1024, I was rash about some things before, just now I also talked to Jessica, recently I want to take in a few other cells one by one, then I will be the big sister of the whole Bedford Hills Correctional Facility."

Maran was a bit confused and wondered what this Chloe was trying to say when she said she was being hasty and then immediately afterwards she said she was going to be the big sister of this prison, two things that didn't go together.

Chloe then said, "If you want to integrate other people, you have to offer certain benefits, and here, cigarettes are the best hard currency to use, so if I want to be the big sister of Bedford Hills Correctional Facility, I naturally need more cigarettes, in which case, two cigarettes a day, naturally, will not be enough."

It was only then that Marashi understood what Chloe meant by sloppy.

It turned out that she had been a bit hasty in her offer.

At this moment, deep inside her heart, she was already furious to the core.

She had never seen such a shameless person like Chloe.

Even Old Lady Xiao could not be shameless to such an extent, repeatedly gaining an inch and always overturning what she had said herself.

If we did what she said, it would cost US$4,000 a day, which was an astronomical amount!

Although Ma Lan did not know the level of consumption in the United States, she thought to herself: "This D*mned red-haired foreign devil, his face is whiter than the wall, but his heart is darker than a ghost! Four thousand dollars a day, that's over a hundred thousand dollars a month! Out there, a hundred thousand dollars would be enough to find a killer to kill her!"

When Chloe saw that Ma Lan did not say yes immediately, she frowned and immediately put away her smile, lifted her hand and slapped Ma Lan across the face, shouting angrily, "I asked you a question, why didn't you answer? Are you looking for death?"

Ma Lan's face was already swollen and painful, and with this slap, the pain almost exploded in place, and the tears of aggression immediately came out again, so she could only cry and say, "Stop hitting I will call my son-in-law tomorrow and ask him to buy four cigarettes from tomorrow onwards, okay?"

Chloe grunted, looked at Ma Lan and said with contempt, "You're really a cheapskate, wouldn't you have just promised me earlier? I'm in a good mood today, so I won't be too hard on you, but if you still dare to hesitate in front of me next time, even if you finally agree, I'll beat you to death, you hear me?"

When Marashi heard this, she was even more frightened and trembled.

Chloe was saying that four cigarettes a day was not the limit, and that the red-haired foreign devil would have even harsher conditions in store for him.

She was afraid that Chloe would flip out again, so she could only cry and nod, "I hear you, I hear you."

Only then was Chloe satisfied.

Chapter 4748

She stood up, reached out and grabbed Marashi's collar, stared into her eyes and said in a cold voice, "Remember this! In this place, I am the queen! You will stand when I tell you to stand! If I tell you to kneel, you will kneel! Even if I tell you to eat sh*t, you will open your mouth and swallow it! As long as you want to live, you will obey my orders unconditionally! If you don't, I will make your life a living hell! Is that clear?"

Marashi nodded in a panic, "Understood understand"

Chloe grunted and continued, "There was a newcomer like you who only obeyed me on the surface but never obeyed me in her heart, and then I stabbed her in both eyes with a toothbrush while she was sleeping, if you don't respect me from the bottom of your heart, you will be the next one to be stabbed in the eyes!"

Ma Lan was so scared that she couldn't stop trembling and couldn't even speak.

At this moment, Chloe was already overwhelmed with joy deep inside.

However, she was well versed in the ways of PUA, and knew very well that at such a time, she should never give Maran a good face, but should strike while the iron is hot, and continue the cruel, intense oppression and destruction of her will.

Only when Maran's will is completely broken can she willingly obey all her orders.

At the moment, Marashi was only forced to do her bidding by her own force, which was far from the result Chloe wanted.

Therefore, she did not intend to really let Marashi go just because she had submitted, she intended to slowly PUA Marashi into a dog of her own, a loyal dog, in the following days.

At that moment, a prison guard came outside the cell door and spoke, "Everyone line up immediately!"

Chloe looked towards the door, only to see several guards escorting three female prisoners to the door of the cell block.

She couldn't help but frown as she noticed that the few wardens who had come, did not have Jessica.

It was only logical that when a new person was placed in this cell, it should be Jessica who brought someone over, and for some reason, Jessica had not come.

However, she didn't have time to think too much about it. Although she was the boss in this cell, she still had to be honest with the guards, otherwise she would probably be put in solitary confinement or have her sentence increased.

After the group had lined up, the guards opened the steel door to the cell and then brought in three young Asian-faced women.

The three Asian women all looked slightly thin and very quiet, and did not look like they were fighting for their lives.

The corners of Chloe's mouth couldn't help but smile.

As far as she was concerned, these three were the three cash cows that the prison had sent to her.

Their families might not be as wealthy as Marashi's, but looking at how well all three of them had maintained their hair and kept their bodies in perfect shape, she guessed that these three must not be living in bad conditions.

From her experience, it should not be a big problem for such people to extort a few hundred dollars a day.

At this point, the prison guard in the lead spoke up and said to the three Asian girls, "From now on you will be in this cell, beds 33, 34 and 35 are yours, the three of you will divide them among yourselves."

The Asian girl in the lead nodded and said casually, "I'll take bed 33 then."

After that, she said to the Asian girl on her right, "You take bed 34 and let Wen take bed 35."

Both of them nodded at the same time.

The warder said to the other prisoners, "No more room checks tonight, so you guys get along and don't get into any conflicts."

Hearing this, Chloe's mind drifted off and she thought smugly, "I guess that's what Jessica told them to bring me, no more room checks tonight, then I can clean up after these three new cash cows!"

Chapter 4749

The warder, at this point, turned and left the cell after sending the three young girls over.

Chloe was in a good mood and winked at her men, eight or nine of whom came together and surrounded the three girls in the middle.

Chloe looked at the girl who had arranged beds for the other two and asked with a smile, "Newcomer, tell us all, what did you three come in for?"

The girl looked up at Chloe and said lightly, "Does it matter to you what we're in here for?"

"f*ck." Chloe grunted coldly and cursed, "You're pretty f*cking tough, what kind of place is this? Don't you know who I am?"

The girl said dismissively, "I know this is a prison, but I don't know who you are and I don't want to know, and you don't have to tell me, just please stay away from me."

Chloe was furious and said in a cold voice, "You're so f*cking arrogant in my place, I think you're tired of living!"

Ma Lan, who was at the side, saw that these were all Chinese, so she quickly warned her kindly, "Hey girl, don't go against this Chloe, she is the boss of this cell, if you mess with them, you will be in trouble in the future"

The young girl glanced sideways at Ma Lan who was outside the crowd, smiled slightly and nodded, "Auntie, thank you for the reminder, but don't worry, this kind of trash, I won't put it in my eyes yet."

When Ma Lan heard this, she quickly reminded, "Aiya girl, you can't say that It'll kill you!"

At this moment, Chloe also heard the exchange between Ma Lan and the other party through the Chinese henchman next to her, and hearing that the other party did not take herself into consideration at all, she could not help but frown and stare at the girl and laugh coldly, "Looks like you are the boss of the three of you?"

The girl gave Chloe a look and said indifferently, "Not really, I'm just their leader."

"Leader?" Chloe sneered, "You're in f*cking jail and you're talking about leadership? I'm telling you there's only one leader in this place, and that's me! Chloe Johnson!"

The young girl didn't seem to have Chloe in her sights, she just laughed lightly and said blandly, "Who you want to lead or be the leader of has nothing to do with us, I advise you to stay out of our way or else don't blame me for not telling you in advance."

"sh*t!" Chloe didn't expect the young girl to take herself seriously, so she burst into a rage and snarled coldly, "You're a bit too arrogant for my territory! I'm going to give you a chance to redeem yourself, get down on your knees and kowtow to me three times, then inform your family members out there to buy six American Spirit cigarettes a day from the person I appoint, or else I'll make your lives here worse than death!"

The young girl's eyes suddenly changed from being harmless to full of murderous intent as she stared at Chloe and said word for word, "We Chinese only kneel to heaven and earth, our ancestors, parents and benefactors, what kind of dog are you that you deserve to have me kneel to you?"

"Crap!" Chloe had never been so contradicted before and was instantly furious.

She knew very well that the men around her were watching at this moment, and whenever she met a newcomer like Ma Lan and abused her to death, she was at the same time cementing her majesty and authority in the minds of these men.

So, when she saw how the young Asian girl had disrespected her, she immediately raised her arm and slapped her as hard as she could.

Chapter 4750

As far as she was concerned, these three Chinese girls were young and did not look very strong, and she had eight of her core men in the cell, and at least ten others who looked up to her, so in this case, if she took the lead and the others swarmed her, she could immediately beat these three girls half to death!

Just as Chloe was about to whip them, she never dreamed that the seemingly motionless girl would suddenly snap at the last moment!

In an instant, Chloe felt her right hand, which she had been trying so hard to hit, suddenly stall in mid-air.

She rushed to look and realised that a hand had suddenly reached out from nowhere and grabbed her wrist so firmly that she could not move.

Chloe's first reaction was one of shock and anger.

She hadn't expected this girl to reach out and block her when she was about to slap her.

As she tried to pull her hand back, she realised that it was welded in mid-air, and no matter how hard she tried, she could not move it.

Now Chloe was in a state of panic.

She weighed nearly two hundred pounds and was very strong, so if it was a one-on-one fight, there were few opponents in this prison.

But this skinny Chinese girl in front of her was able to crush her in terms of strength, which suddenly gave her a bad feeling in her heart.

Just then, the young girl looked at her and said in a cold voice, "This is your own death, so don't blame me for not showing mercy!"

With that, she grabbed Chloe's right wrist and suddenly bent it upwards with great force, and with just a click, Chloe's wrist flipped upwards at a horrifying angle!

The pain was so intense that Chloe wailed out, she could never have imagined that this skinny Chinese girl would break her wrist without a word!

She then subconsciously shouted at her men, "Hit her! Beat her to death! Beat her to death!"

The men didn't think twice about the disparity in strength, but when they saw that their boss had suffered a loss and heard her orders, they rushed towards the young girl in a frenzy.

But the girl was not the least bit afraid, instead she exchanged glances with her other two companions and together the three of them rushed towards the group of women of all colours.

Immediately afterwards, the sound of fists striking flesh and wails of desperate pain were heard.

In a matter of seconds, each of Chloe's men had been knocked to the ground by the three of them, and each of them was badly injured!

The three girls, on the other hand, were back to back in a triangle formation, each in a starting position ready to attack, not to mention injured, and their hair was not even messed up.

The young girl at the head of the group looked around and said in a cold voice, "Anyone who is still unconvinced can come up and try!"

The group of wallflowers, seeing how strong these three were in battle, immediately retreated to the roots of the wall in fear.

They were not fools, and at this time, they could obviously see that Chloe had already cooled off.

So, the most important thing at a time like this was to draw all boundaries with her and never let these killer-crazy Asian girls think that they were in cahoots with Chloe.

Chloe herself was scared out of her wits.

She really didn't think that these three very skinny looking Asian girls were all top fighters.

Although she and her men looked big, they were like schoolboys in front of them, with no fighting power.

Knowing that there was no chance of her turning over today, and that she was definitely considered to be able to bend and stretch, and very sensible, she immediately knelt down on the ground with a poof and said reverently, "I'm sorry! I'm really sorry! I was blind and accidentally offended you just now, so please don't take it personally In the future, at Bedford Hills Correctional Facility, I am Chloe Johnson's dog! I will be the first one to rush to the front of the line if you have any orders!"
