Chapter 4751

No one expected that Chloe, who was the most powerful person in this cell, would take the initiative to kneel down for the newcomer so quickly, and even wag her tail and beg for mercy, saying that she was the other person's dog.

In fact, for a villain like Chloe, it is because she has abused other people so much that she is even more afraid of being abused.

It can also be said that this kind of person is actually the most spineless person, when she meets a weak person, she is more vicious than anyone else, but when she meets a strong person, she can do more than anyone else to flatter them.

Now Chloe, who has completely recognised the form, knows that she no longer has any position to play in this matter, so she doesn't dwell on, or stay in, her former status as boss.

Her first goal is not to offend the three people in front of her, and her second goal is to find a way to become the beloved of the three people.

In this way, one could at least continue to oppress the other people in the cell.

However, the Asian girl in front of her sneered and said, "Sorry, I never have a dog, and even if I did, I wouldn't have a trash dog like you!"

As soon as Chloe heard this, her whole face turned white and nervous.

The fact that she had lowered her dignity so much, begged for forgiveness and that she was being rejected so simply did not bode well for her.

So she hurriedly placed her severed hand over her heart and said reverently, "If Your Excellency doubts Chloe's loyalty, Chloe will swear to God that she will willingly obey all your commands in this life and in the next, and if she breaks her oath, she will be willingly chastised by God!"

The girl sneered, "Sorry, I'm an atheist and don't believe in God."

Upon hearing this, Chloe hurriedly said, "Anyway, Your Excellency just believe in Chloe's sincerity, and Chloe will definitely follow your every instruction in the future"

"Oh." The young girl laughed and said, "Isn't this back to that topic? I've already told you, I don't want a dog."

Chloe was in a dilemma, she wanted to please this young and capable Asian girl, but she was like a brick wall, so she couldn't find any breakthrough point.

Just when Chloe was at a loss, Marashi, who was not far away, suddenly had an idea and said, "Girl! You are new to this place, and you definitely need someone who knows the situation here to help you with various problems."

With that, she patted her chest and said seriously, "Girl, if you don't mind, how about you take a look at me?"

The Chinese girl, who had been acting as a Chinese translator for Chloe, immediately spoke up when she saw Ma Lan volunteering, "Don't trust her, she just entered this cell yesterday, compared to me, I've been in this cell for more than half a year, I know the situation better! If you all need to get to know the place or need someone to help you, I'm the best person for the job!"

The young girl gave her a disdainful smile and said coldly, "I don't want to know who you all are, I don't want to know about each and every one of you, and I don't want to know what rules you used to have here! In a word, from now on, there will be only one rule here: if any of you displease me, I will beat her to death, until I can be satisfied!"

As soon as the girl saw how hard the other party spoke, she was like a deflated ball, honestly lowering her head and not daring to say anything.

Ma Lan was also a little disappointed at this time, she had wanted to find a chance to get close to the other party, but she didn't expect the other party to look at everyone so badly.

But she could also understand, after all, they were so much stronger than the others, and it was easier to teach someone a lesson than a dog, if she had that kind of strength, she would not look at the others in the same way.

Chapter 4752

But what Marashi didn't expect was that the Asian girl looked at her, smiled very kindly, and then said seriously, "Auntie, out of all these people, you were the only one who kindly reminded us, I can see that you must be a good person, and we are all compatriots, since you respect us a foot, then we naturally have to respect you a foot!"

With that, she looked around the room, pointed to those in the cells and said to Ma Lan, "From now on, all these rubbish will be left to you to manage, you can directly order them if you have any requests, if they are disobedient in any way, I will definitely give them a good life lesson!"

Marashi's jaw dropped as she listened, it was the first time she had ever heard someone say they were a good person, but what really surprised her wasn't that, but that the other party was going to let herself manage all this rubbish!

She forced down the excitement deep inside her heart and asked in a trembling voice, "What did you just say, girl? You're saying that I'll be left to manage all these people?!"

"Right." The girl smiled blandly and spoke, "From now on, you will treat them like the dogs you keep, if that dog disobeys you or dares to bare her teeth to you, you will tell me and I will break all her teeth off, if breaking them off is not good enough, I will break her hands and feet!"

After hearing this, Marashi's whole body was already trembling uncontrollably with excitement.

She pointed to the kneeling Chloe on the ground and asked tentatively, "Girl if I want to beat this red-haired foreign devil you won't stop me, right?"

"Stop you?" The girl smiled slightly and raised her hand and slapped Chloe hard across the face, seeing a whole person lean over and fall heavily to the ground.

The slap brought tears of anguish to Chloe's eyes, and the pain was so intense that she burst into tears.

However, the Asian girl didn't show any mercy as she then walked up, stomped on Chloe's chest, pointed at her and said to Marashi, "Aunty, if you want to hit a b*tch like that, you can do it anytime, anywhere, 7x24! I've had a problem with this b*tch since I first came in, and I was thinking of not making any trouble in the well, but I never thought she would dare to take the initiative to provoke me, provoke me that's all, and even want me to f*cking buy her a cigarette, I think she owes it to herself!"

With that, the deputy slaps Chloe across the face and says in a cold voice, "What did you just say? Is it for my family, out there, to find someone you appoint, to buy you American Spirit is it?"

"No no I didn't mean that," Chloe was already repenting her guts, if she had known this was the case, she would not have come to mess with this skinny girl if she had been beaten to death.

And at this point, she completely ignored the pain that exploded in her face and shook her head in fear, saying coyly, "I was just kidding, you mustn't take it seriously"

The Asian girl ignored her, but looked at Ma Lan and asked, "Auntie, didn't you want to hit her? Why haven't you done it yet? It's not like you've gone soft, right?"

As soon as she heard this, she exploded as if her tail had been stepped on, and said in a loud, excited voice, "What? I'm soft? I'm not going soft on anyone, not even on this American b*tch!"

With that, she spat on her hands, "Pfft!"

She then rubbed her hands together and cursed through gritted teeth, "D*mn it! If I don't beat this son of a b*tch to death today, my name is not f*cking Ma!"

Chapter 4753

Marashi has never been a good person.

And she was even less of a good person.

Just now, Marashi had subconsciously reminded the Chinese girl not to offend Chloe, and that had been the high point of Marashi's human light over the years.

If Marashi's humanity were a light bulb, that flash just now might have been the only time in decades that this bulb had been lit up.

But coincidentally, the three female warriors of the Hall of Ten Thousand Dragons had been wondering what method they should use to help Ma Lan out, quietly, naturally and silently.

It was a flash of human light that gave them a chance to make use of it.

And after that flash, Ma Lan's heart was already completely overwhelmed with hatred.

The only thing she wanted to do now was to beat that Chloe so hard and so hard that she would beat the sh*t out of her.

So, with a roar of rage, she rushed over to Chloe, and the more she looked at Chloe's swollen, pig-headed face, the angrier she became.

Without thinking, she lifted her foot and kicked Chloe hard in the face.

The kick made a big mark on Chloe's face and broke the bridge of her nose, which bled profusely from both nostrils.

She rode on Chloe's face, just as she had done in the beauty salon, on Ye Changmin's body, gnashing her teeth and cursing, "How dare you bully me, scold me, force me to pinch the feet of so many of you, I'll beat you to death, you son of a b*tch!"

After saying this, she went crazy and swung her arms round to strike left and right.

In a flash, the whole cell was filled with the echoes of Ma Lan slapping Chloe.

The slapping was so intense that the echoes from the walls of the room did not even have time to react, and eventually the countless echoes were superimposed on each other, creating a sense of a firecracker being set off in the cell.

Chloe had lost the arrogance of her former demoness, she was screaming and crying, "I was wrong, I was wrong, please stop, spare me!"

"Forgive you?" Ma Lan slammed her face in anger and scolded, "Do you think your grandmother is playing with you? Let me tell you, this is just an appetizer! Today I'll show you how many eyes your Grandma Ma has!"

After that, she pulled Chloe's hair and yanked it down while cursing under her breath, "f*cking redhead, I've always had a problem with your red hair, I'll make you go bald!"

Chloe felt a sharp pain in her scalp and then watched as Marashi kept reaching out to either side and roughly throwing away the red hair that had been pulled out.

She was instantly scared out of her wits and cried, "Don't pull my hair, please don't pull my hair"

Ma Lan was already red-eyed with murder at this point, and while lynching Chloe's hair into a ghost-shaved bald patch, she gritted her teeth and cursed, "You know you're f*cking scared now? Why didn't I see you as such a coward when you were bullying me? D*mn it, you won't know why flowers are so red if your grandma Ma doesn't beat you up with a face full of peach blossoms today!"

Chloe hadn't even been as helpless and scared as she was now when she was smacked to the ground by the female warrior of the Hall of Ten Thousand Dragons.

Chapter 4754

At this moment, Marashi had become a crazy killing machine, and Chloe only felt that if she let Marashi continue to beat her like this, her life would be broken in her hands, so she cried out, "Please let me go I really know I'm wrong I really won't bully anyone else anymore"

Ma Lan only found her screaming so annoying, so she clutched the pile of hair she had pulled down into her hands, balled it up and shoved it all into Chloe's mouth, then gritted her teeth and said, "D*mn it, you're forcing me to eat toothpaste, aren't you? Then I'll make you eat your hair! It's all your own hair, swallow it all!"

After that, she remembered something and said, "D*mn, it's too cheap to just let you eat your hair! I have to give you a taste of toothpaste too!"

As soon as she finished speaking, the Chinese prisoner who had been in charge of the translator went to the bathroom to fetch two toothpastes and handed them to Ma Lan, saying, "Auntie, this is for you! If you don't have enough, I'll go get more for you!"

She took the toothpaste and then slapped her across the face and said, "Why didn't I see you being so attentive when Chloe was bullying me? I'm sick of people like you, get the f*ck out of my face!"

The girl was slapped, but at this point she was too angry to say anything.

After all, the three newcomers had already said that from now on, Ma Lan would be in charge of everyone and everything here, so Ma Lan was now taking Chloe's place, and she could not afford to mess with her.

Moreover, Marashi had three powerful people behind her and was in a position of absolute power, so she could not afford to mess with her.

When Chloe saw that Marashi had gone mad with revenge, she knew that eating toothpaste would not satisfy this crazy b*tch, so she said in a stern voice, "Don't forget that this is a prison! If you torture me like this today, when the guards come to check on me tomorrow, I'll tell the guards! You know very well that the guards are very close to me! I'm sure they'll put you all in solitary confinement! And I'll get the guards to help me increase your sentences! You'll all be in tears by then!"

After saying that, she turned her head to look at the girl who had helped Ma Lan with the toothpaste and said in a cold voice, "And you! Don't think that you want to bend over backwards to them because they're in charge now, have you thought about what you'll do if they're gone in the morning and you're still here by then!"

The girl cried out in shock and said in a rush, "Chloe, I I didn't mean to do it, I"

Ma Lan was also a little nervous all of a sudden, she looked at the female warrior of the Hall of Ten Thousand Dragons and said with trepidation, "Girl, this Chloe is very close to the guards, if the guards come over to check the room tomorrow, it will be a problem then What should we do?"

The female warrior of the Dragon Palace who was in charge sneered, "What's the use of being on good terms with the prison guards? It's not like the wardens are wardens, maybe the wardens she's working with will be arrested too!"

Just as she finished speaking, the door to the prison cell suddenly opened.

A guard came to the door with a woman in a prison uniform. The guard, uncharacteristically this time, did not ask the prisoners in the cell to line up and assemble, but simply pushed the woman in the prison uniform in and then closed the door to leave.

Chloe didn't even bother to see who was coming, so she cried out for help, "Help! Help! They're going to kill me, help me!"

The guards turned a deaf ear to her cries and pushed the woman in the prison uniform in before turning around and disappearing.

It was then that Chloe suddenly noticed that the new prisoner seemed familiar.

She squinted her high-swollen eyes to take a closer look and was so shocked that she blurted out, "Jay Jessica?! You How did you get locked up in here?!"

Chapter 4755

Jessica saw Chloe being beaten into a pig's head, her whole body was also a bit shocked, she couldn't help but blurt out, "You what's wrong with you?!"

Chloe was even more devastated at this point, she originally thought of Jessica as her savior, but in the blink of an eye Jessica had become a prisoner as well, her heart was desperate at this point and she blurted out, "Forget about what happened to me, tell me what happened to you first"

Jessica said in agony, "It's not because of working with you to sell cigarettes at a high price that D*mn 1024, her family bought a thousand cigarettes from my sister with a million dollars in cash, my sister just got the cigarettes together and the next thing I know, the FBI caught me with the stolen goods and I was not even off duty yet I was picked up by the FBI"

""What are you talking about?!"

Chloe exclaimed and blurted out, "The family of 1024 bought a thousand cigarettes?! Didn't we agree to buy two today?!"

Jessica gritted her teeth, "We did buy two at first, and then we came over and bought a thousand in one go."

Chloe immediately questioned, "Why didn't you tell me about this? Did you want to keep that money all to yourself?!"

Jessica cursed, "Don't give a f*ck! How was I supposed to tell you when the time for the release had pa*sed? I was going to make the money first and tell you tomorrow, but then the FBI came to my door and arrested me!"

Chloe asked again, "So what did they arrest you for?"

Jessica said in a disheveled voice, "I'm now suspected of bribery, using my power for personal gain and extortion"

Chloe asked in horror, "You're suspected of extortion, this has nothing to do with me, does it?"

Jessica let out a bitter laugh and said, "Chloe, don't forget, the idea of extortion was your idea, and all these people, including 1024, were coerced by you, so when it comes to court, I will only be an accessory, and you will be the main culprit!"

"What are you talking about?!" Chloe just felt a whirlwind.

She was a veteran of the prison, and after seeing so many different kinds of prisoners here, she had mastered more than half of the US Federal Criminal Code almost without any knowledge.

All Chloe had to do was listen to the description of the crime and she would know what the sentence would be and how long it would probably be based on the facts of the crime.

And extortion of more than $1 million would have almost touched the maximum penalty for extortion.

As a principal offender, and with the previous sentence, wouldn't that be a jail sentence?

Thinking of this, Chloe's heart was in despair as she looked towards Maran and asked in tears, "Who the hell are you your family if you are so powerful, why did you get caught here for carrying contraband?! No..... your family if you are so powerful, why did you go and carry contraband?! Are you you're not a punk?! You are some kind of big disease, right?!"

The more I think about it, the angrier I get!"

When she thought that Chloe had just said that she was a traitor, Ma Lan became even more furious and raised her hand and continued to smack Chloe from side to side, cursing angrily, "Who are you to taunt your Grandma Ma?

Chloe almost fainted from the beating, seeing that Ma Lan had beaten for so half a day, and did not even have the intention of stopping to rest her hand, she suddenly cried and begged, "Grandma Ma please spare me if you beat me again, I will really be killed "

Ma Lan slapped again: "bd! You can't even call me Granny Ma?"

Chloe's entire face was beaten into a pig's head, as painful as it could be, but, in the face of her pleas, not only did Maran not have any half-heartedness, but even the other cellmates, and even Chloe's previous beloved ones one by one, were secretly happy.

Chapter 4756

Most of them had been bitter towards Chloe for a long time, and most of them had been scolded and beaten by her, and now, seeing the former demoness fall into this pitiful state, they finally felt a sense of revenge!

At that moment, Ma Lan was also tired of fighting.

Her arms were already sore, and after beating Chloe for so long, she was already severely depleted, and now she felt that her arms were almost no longer her own.

She couldn't fight any more, but she didn't feel like she could get rid of it, so she gritted her teeth and said to her fellow inmates, "Line up, just like the guards do when they check the rooms!"

Knowing that Ma Lan was now the person in charge here, they did not dare to disobey, and hurriedly lined up in the same way as the guards did when they checked the rooms.

Those female prisoners who had been taught a lesson by the female warriors of the Hall of Dragons also helped each other to line up with difficulty, as they all wanted to draw a clear line with Chloe, so that they would not be implicated by her in the future.

At this moment, Jessica, the prison guard who had just been brought in, was a bit apprehensive.

She was not sure about the situation before, but she could see the situation now.

Any fool could see that Chloe had lost control of the place, and in her place was Marashi, who was being blackmailed by Chloe.

She knew Chloe's henchmen, and seeing that they were all wounded to varying degrees, she guessed that the new trio must have directly overturned Chloe's rule.

Nervous, she hurriedly stepped into line, not daring to say anything.

When she saw that all the people had finished lining up, she came to the front of the group and kicked Chloe's men one by one, scolding them as she did so, "You b*ds, you all helped that Chloe to bully me, do you think I don't hold a grudge?"

All of them were kicked by Marashi in turn, but they did not dare to speak, and could only resist in a submissive manner.

She kicked them all the way over and when she stood in front of Jessica, she cursed with an expression of indignation, "You're not a f*cking prison guard, you're in bed with the inmates! You think your granny Ma is a f*cking diner!"

With that, she kicked Jessica's body, knocking her back several steps.

But Jessica was too angry to say anything at the moment, and could only say respectfully, "Madam these are all Chloe's ideas if you want revenge, you have to get it from her too!"

Ma Lan coldly said, "Do you think I will let her go?"

With that, she looked at the other inmates and said in a stern voice, "Listen up, every one of you, go up and smack Chloe a hundred times in the mouth, and if anyone doesn't f*cking do it, I'll have the others smack her to death!"

When the crowd heard this, no one dared to say even a word against Maran.

Besides, most of them had a grudge against Chloe, but they had only been able to resign themselves to her lasciviousness.

But now it was a different story. Chloe had lost her power, and it was time for her to repay her grievances!

So several women took the lead and rushed towards Chloe.

When they reached Chloe, they ignored Chloe's pleading eyes and uncontrollable cries, swung their arms around and whipped her hard.

Chloe has completely collapsed, howling: "spare my life please spare my life I really can't stand it, please let me go"

Ma Lan looked at Chloe's tragic appearance with a mouth full of blood and disdainfully brushed his lips, "Spare you? Where did you drink the fake wine, why are you still talking nonsense?"

After that, Marashi gritted her teeth and said, "I'm telling you, I've got more tricks up my sleeve to deal with you! Don't even think about sleeping tonight, there are thirty people waiting for you to squeeze their feet! I'm going to make you squeeze their feet until tomorrow!"

Chapter 4757

Chloe didn't even have a chance to beg Marashi for mercy before the slaps from more than thirty people lined up one after the other.

By the time the blows were late, Chloe's whole body had felt spinning.

She didn't know how many times she had passed out, and the next thing she knew, she was woken up by a loud slap.

And Ma Lan stood by, overseeing each female prisoner who smacked Chloe like Zhou Pai Pi overseeing his own long-time worker.

Whenever one of the slaps was too light, Marashi went up and gave her a kick.

In her words, "You've been bullied by her so badly, but now that you've finally had a chance to turn the tables, why are you still so soft? That one just now doesn't count, give me a new fight!"

In fact, most of them were not soft-hearted when they faced Chloe.

They were just tired of slapping, and inevitably one or two of them had lost their strength and were a bit sloppy.

But in Maran's view, such slaps were absolutely not allowed.

So, the women were getting tougher and tougher out of revenge against Chloe and out of fear of offending Ma Lan.

After so many people lined up to be slapped, Chloe even showed signs of concussion.

But Marashi was still not satisfied.

She had only been here for a day, but that day had already made her feel the enormous malice and brutality of this person, Chloe.

So, Marashi decided that she would not show any mercy to this demon, and as long as she was still at Bedford Hills Correctional Facility, she would make her life a living hell.

So, after everyone had finished slapping Chloe, Marashi walked up to the disfigured Chloe and said in a cold voice, "Chloe, you've been working here for so long, you didn't think you'd see this day, did you?"

With a sneer, Marashi continued, "There's a saying in China: "Don't look happy today, but be careful of the list in the future, it's only a matter of time before the people liquidate a bully like you!"

After saying this, Ma Lan saw Chloe's dumbfounded face and immediately pointed at the Chinese girl who was a wallflower and said in a cold voice: "What are you still doing? Translate for her!"

The girl was also confused and quickly asked, "Aunty pull what green dan ah, green dan?"

Ma Lan scolded: "Pull the list ah! The crime liquidation list ah! You f*cking think you have a stomach upset to go to the toilet? Haven't you ever seen Little Soldier Zhang Ga? You don't even know such a classic line, are you still a Chinese?!"

The girl coyly said, "I am Chinese but was born and raised in the United States and became an American citizen"

Ma Lan said in exasperation, "How can your parents be, don't they teach you patriotism?!"

The girl shook her head and whispered, "They are busy making money every day and rarely care about me"

Ma Lan coldly snorted, "Let me tell you, no matter where one goes, one can never forget one's roots! You may be an American citizen, but don't forget that your skin is still yellow and your hair is still black!"

The girl nodded her head in a panic and said, "Auntie you are right in your criticism I will definitely keep that in mind in the future and learn more about Chinese culture"

Ma Lan gave her a blank look and said nothing more, pointing at Chloe and urging, "Hurry up, translate and interpret!"

The girl didn't dare to delay and hurriedly translated Ma Lan's words.

Chloe's tears had dried up and she was sitting on the floor, swaying and shaking like an unstable man.

But when she heard that Maran was going to liquidate herself, she was afraid that Maran was not satisfied by now, so she cried vaguely and said, "Please spare me this time The mistakes I made in the past are all repaid ten times and a hundred times now I won't I really don't dare to do it again"

Ma Lan sneered, "Now you know how to beg for forgiveness? It's useless for me to tell you! Come on, hurry up and get up for your grandma Ma, carry the basin to the toilet and fetch water to wash everyone's feet, from today until the day your grandma Ma is released from prison, you must wash and squeeze everyone's feet every day!"

Chapter 4758

Not daring to delay, Chloe insisted on getting up and stumbling off to the bathroom.

At this point, Ma Lan sat down on the bed opposite herself, pointed at the female prisoners who had previously had their feet washed, and said in a cold voice, "Don't think that there's nothing for you here, your Grandma Ma has never washed anyone's feet in her life, do you think you can afford it?"

Several of them trembled in fear, and one of them, a brown-skinned Mexican female prisoner, fell to her knees with a plop and pleaded in fear and trepidation, "I'm sorry Ms Ma I was compelled by Chloe before From now on I will do everything you tell me at Bedford Hills Correctional Facility, please forgive me for what I did before for the sake of my devotion"

As soon as the others saw her kneel down, they too, fearing to be left behind, knelt down in unison.

The gap between the two single beds was not large, and these people knelt in two rows, shoulder to shoulder, before they could barely kneel down.

Sitting on the single bed, Ma Lan suddenly felt like sitting on Wu Zetian's dragon chair, and as far as the eye could see, all the people kneeling were his own civil and military officials.

She suddenly understood why all the people in prison liked being the boss.

It turned out that it was really great to be the boss!

This thrill of making others subservient to you can put you more than a step above them in terms of personality.

This was not something that could be experienced just by having money.

At this moment, Ma Lan's vanity was greatly satisfied.

Suddenly interested in testing the loyalty of the group, she stretched and spoke, "I've been uncomfortable since I got here, if only I could get a full body ma*sage!"

As soon as the words left her mouth, the Mexican female prisoner stood up in a hurry, walked over to him attentively and said flatteringly, "Ms. Ma, I've learnt Japanese Masaki before, if you don't mind, let me give you a ma*sage!"

Ma Lan raised her eyebrows and smiled, "Then let you try it."

The female prisoner went around to another compartment, climbed onto the bed that was back to back with Marashi in another compartment, and then stretched out her hand to ma*sage Marashi's neck. Marashi didn't expect the woman to be really good at it, and the pressure was very comfortable, so she said with a smile, "Not bad, it seems you have really learnt a few tricks."

The woman hurriedly said, "Actually, my profession is to do SPA, before I came in, I always did SPA for guests in five-star hotels."

Ma Lan asked curiously, "If you were working in a five-star hotel, why did you come here again? What's the crime?"

The woman sighed and explained, "I stole a watch from a customer, I didn't realize that the watch was worth half a million dollars The worst part is that I didn't even have time to sell that watch, I was caught by the police before I got off work"

Ma Lan laughed and subconsciously said with a superior, educational tone: "People, ah, can not have greedy thoughts, what is yours is yours, not your never reach out, as the saying goes, do not reach out, reach out will be caught."

Saying that, Ma Lan recalled his last incident of stealing Ye Chen's bank card, he couldn't help but shiver and said uncomfortably, "Aiya, not only is his neck uncomfortable, his whole body is uncomfortable everywhere"

The few people kneeling in front of him heard this, and one by one, without thinking, they had to hurry up.

Soon, two of Maran's arms and two of her legs were each contracted by a female prisoner, and the other two could not share, so one person ma*saged Maran's scalp and the other helped her rub her temples on both sides.

With seven people ma*saging her at the same time, Marashi felt her pores opening up and hummed the tune of "Turning Over a Serf" under her breath.

And Chloe came over again at this time with the basin coyly and said respectfully, "Ms. Ma, let me soak your feet first now, squeezing them while you soak"

Ma Lan opened her eyelids, gave her a sidelong glance and said in a cold voice, "You f*cking kneel and squeeze for me!"

Chapter 4759

While Ma Lan was completely turned around at Bedford Hill Correctional Facility and was starting to act as an authority and enjoy superlative treatment.

Ye Chen, who was at the Fei family, received a piece of information from Wan Brejun.

Thanks to the powerful intelligence channels of Wan Long Temple, this information included almost all the crimes Mei Yu Zhen had committed in all the years she had been in the United States.

It took Ye Chen more than an hour to finish reading the information, which was more than thirty pages long.

When he finished reading the information, he was furious!

He did not expect that this Mei Yuzhen had committed untold crimes against his own countrymen in the United States.

Over the years, there were at least three dozen people who had died at her hands, directly or indirectly, who could be traced back to their actual identities.

Many more have been completely unaccounted for and unknown after coming into contact with her.

And like Ma Lan, there are countless more who have been put in prison by her.

However, the Hall of Ten Thousand Dragons does not yet have any trace of Mei Yu Zhen.

This was because this woman had not appeared in any public place since she left Providence, and her entire person belonged to a state of evaporation.

Ye Chen guessed that although Mei Yuzhen was on the run, she would not wash her hands of the matter.

Because her family had been arrested and all her assets had been seized, she must have felt resentful under such circumstances.

Therefore, even though Mei Yu Zhen was on the run, this vicious woman would definitely find a way to continue to commit crimes and earn illegal profits.

So, Ye Chen called Wan Bajun.

As soon as the call came through, he spoke, "Broken Jun, I've read all the information you sent."

Wan Bajun was ashamed and said, "Sorry Mr. Ye, at the moment we don't have any clues about Mei Yu Zhen's exact whereabouts, but don't worry, I have notified all of the informants of the Ten Thousand Dragon Temple throughout the United States, as soon as we find any trace of that Mei Yu Zhen, we will definitely grasp the movement at the first time."

Ye Chen spoke, "I now suspect that this Mei Yu Zhen should commit another crime soon, now we should find a way to follow the trail."

Wan Bajun said somewhat helplessly, "In the United States, the vast majority of cities do not have 100% surveillance coverage, not to mention the combination of urban and rural areas and the well-connected traffic network, and the worst thing is that more than 90% of their highways are free of charge. traveling, so it's also hard for us to capture their movements after they leave Providence."

Ye Chen thought for a moment and said, "Although Mei Yu Zhen and the girls have evaporated, their target is still there! As long as they don't completely stop, we will be able to find clues!"

As long as they don't stop, we can find clues!" Ye Chen said, "Broken Army, you should immediately have someone investigate all of Mei Yu Zhen's social records from Providence during the time she was under the name Chen Liping, I want to know which Chinese and Chinese people she had deep contact with."

Wan Bajun was busy saying, "Yes, Mr. Ye, my subordinate will go to it!"

An hour later.

Ye Chen received a call back from Wan Bajun.

On the phone, Wan Bajun said to Ye Chen, "Mr. Ye, our people have investigated in Providence and found that this Mei Yu Zhen and at least six local Chinese, maintain relatively close contact, but since your mother-in-law's accident his contact with these people has been cut off."

Ye Chen asked, "What are the identities of each of these six people? What background?"

Wan Bajun said, "Basically, they are all similar to your mother-in-law, they all came to the United States to visit their relatives, four of them have already booked their tickets back to China and will return one after another in the next few months, however, there is an old lady among them who immigrated here earlier, and Mei Yu Zhen has the most phone records with her among these six people."

"Old lady?" Ye Chen asked curiously, "Could it be that the old lady was also the target of their contraband shipments?"

Wan Bajun said, "This is still uncertain."

Ye Chen said, "It's easy to determine this, you investigate this old lady's flight records with the airline in the last few years to see if she returns to China often and when she last returned."

"Good!" Wan Bajun immediately said, "Wait a moment, I'll have the hacker retrieve the information from the loopholes in the civil aviation system."

Chapter 4760

Saying that, Wan Bajun instructed a few words to the people around him, and in less than a minute, he said to Ye Chen, "Mr. Ye, I have found out on my side, something strange, this old lady has not been back to her country for at least 20 years, and in these 20 years, she has not taken a flight at all."

"Strange" Ye Chen said with a frown, "What value does a person who hasn't flown for 20 years and is an old lady have to Mei Yu Zhen?"

"I'm not sure" Wan Bajun was busy saying, "I'll immediately send someone over to approach this old lady and investigate her situation carefully."

Ye Chen spoke, "Don't bother, you help me look at the composition of this old lady's family."

Wan Bajun said, "Mr. Ye, I have the information here, the old lady's name is Zhou Bihua, seventy-three years old, she only has one son, he is forty years old, her son was a public study student some years ago, then he emigrated to the United States, he brought her over from China twenty years ago, but the old lady came here on her own, her partner should have lost her."

Ye Chen asked again, "Did you find out the address of their home? See what level of community their home is located in Providence."

Wan Bajun replied a little later, "Mr. Ye, the place where the old lady's family lives, re Providence is a rather shabby community, most of the local Chinese don't live there, generally the people living there are Hispanic and African-American."

Ye Chen could not help but be a little surprised, pondering, "This matter is a little strange, according to reason this old lady, the family conditions should be very ordinary, and the country is probably not much immediate family, and is unlikely to return to the country, Mei Yu Zhen approach her for what purpose?"

"This I also did not figure out", Wan Breaking Jun said, "I also checked the old lady's CCTV footage, she actually still works in a Chinese restaurant, so old still out to work, looking at the situation the family should be very difficult. "

Ye Chen frowned and continued to ask, "What about her son? Since her son used to be a public study student, he must be a graduate from a famous university, his income can't be too low, right?"

Wan Bajun explained, "Her son's situation is rather miserable, in the early years he did earn a good income, working as a technical director in a multinational company, but since the year he turned 35, he has been constantly looking for a job, being fired, then looking for another job, and his income has been declining, now he has been unemployed for more than a year, the family mortgage has been stopped for several months, and now the bank is about to repossess the The house, his son just sold the family's commercial car with 100,000 miles on it the other day, and now it can be said that the family is in dire straits, and I can't figure out why a high achiever from a famous university would be doing so badly."

Ye Chen said lightly: "This situation is still very common in large enterprises, for some large enterprises, older employees because they have been working for too long, seniority is too old, but the salary is amazingly high, and because they are older, their bodies are overdrawn, and they have a family and a home to worry about, so they can't fight anymore, and their learning ability is not as good as young people, for these large companies, if For these large companies, if they replace these middle-aged people with young people, not only can the cost be greatly reduced, but the new young people are also full of energy and can be pressed hard for more than ten years."

Saying that, Ye Chen added: "Once such middle-aged people are fired, when they are re-employed, the salary level will avalanche, young people are all getting higher salaries the more they jump ship, while most middle-aged people are getting lower salaries the more they jump ship."

Wan Bajun was deeply impressed and sighed, "Capitalists are really the cruelest."

Saying that, Wan Bajun remembered something and hurriedly said, "Oh yes, I just checked in the civil aviation system by hand, this Zhou Bihua's son, booked a ticket to fly to Mexico the day after tomorrow, probably to work in Mexico"

Ye Chen was even more surprised: "To Mexico to work? That place is much poorer than the United States, and it is considered extra-legal, how would a normal person go from the United States to work there?"

"This is unclear", Wan Bajun said, "My side also found the record of his son's medical examination last week, it was done at the hospital in Providence, the medical examination item registered is the entry physical examination, should be in order to find a job That's why he had it done."

Ye Chen gave a hint, and didn't think much of it at first.

However, he suddenly remembered something and said, "Broken Army, the information you gave me just now showed that many of the people who had contact with Mei Yu Zhen had simply evaporated and their whereabouts were unknown, right?"

"Yes." Wan Bajun said, "These people are all registered as missing in the police system, and none of them have been found."

Ye Chen frowned and suddenly said, "Quickly check these missing people, see where their files show that they disappeared, and focus on whether they had been to Mexico before they disappeared!"
