

Ye Chen 4781

Chapter 4781

Ah Liang looked at Ye Chen disdainfully at this moment and said indifferently, "Don't be anxious yet, later I will have someone take a blood sample from you and then upload your blood type and other relevant information onto the internet, once there is a patient who matches you, I will negotiate a price with the other party, after the deal is made, you can just wait for the operating table."

The Indian doctor, Hardik, said, "D*mn, I almost forgot that there were two more on the operating table."

With that, he hurriedly reached out and pulled open the white curtain next to him, and inside, as Ye Chen had guessed, was a simple operating theatre with two operating tables, and at that moment, there was a person lying on each of the two tables.

The Indian doctor ran over and looked at the condition of the two men, and spoke to Uncle Ma, "Mr. Ma, the guest's condition is almost stable, he can be sent to recuperate."

"Good." Uncle Ma nodded and with a wave of his hand, several Mexicans immediately stepped forward and carried the man to a mobile hospital bed and carried him out.

Uncle Ma then looked at the other man who was lying unconscious on the operating table and asked the doctor, "How is this guy doing?"

Hardik looked at it, shook his head and said, "Not too good, too weak, probably won't live for a few days."

Saying that, he asked Uncle Ma, "Have you found a buyer for the rest of the body?"

Uncle Ma shook his head and said, "There has been no match."

When he finished, Uncle Ma said, "Don't worry about him, let him stay here, I'll have someone pull him out and bury him at midnight."

Hardik spoke up and said, "Then I'll leave him alone, I'm done for the day, go up to bed."

Uncle Ma instructed, "Remember you have two more operations tomorrow, so don't get up too late."

Hardik nodded hastily, then yawned and walked away.

Hardik turned back and said, "Let's take it in the morning, and bring it to Ensenada for lab tests afterwards, it won't be fresh now until tomorrow."

Hearing this, Ah Liang didn't say anything more, but looked at Ye Chen and said playfully, "Rest well tonight, there are two more operations tomorrow, just so you can see the world properly."

Ye Chen looked at him and asked, "You guys just said that I could sell it for a good price, so I want to know how much it can be sold for?"

Ah Liang frowned at Ye Chen and asked with some surprise, "Kid, aren't you afraid?"

Ye Chen laughed casually, "What's the use of being afraid? If I can't, then why should I be afraid?"

"Aiyo crap" Ah Liang couldn't help but look Ye Chen up and down and said with a raised eyebrow, "I didn't see that you kid was still quite courageous."

Ye Chen smiled blandly and said, "You still haven't told me how much I can actually sell it for?"

Before Ah Liang could say anything, Uncle Ma, who was at the side, stepped forward and said with a frown, "Kid, who are you really?"

Ye Chen laughed, "If I tell you now that I'm someone you can't afford to mess with, will you think I'm too pretentious?"

"Gra*s" Ah Liang was a bit angry and cursed offhandedly, "You've got some f*cking guts! Do you believe I'll open you up now and see how big your guts are?"

Uncle Ma stopped him and pulled him behind him, his deadly eyes staring at Ye Chen, he asked, "Kid, if you have any origin, then hurry up and declare your family, if we can make out a four, five, six, this matter today, it is not impossible to turn this into a good thing."

The first time I saw you, I was looking at Ye Chen with a cold, vicious expression and continued, "If you can't tell me what you are, then I have ways to make your life worse than death."

Chapter 4782

Ye Chen asked curiously, "What methods? Tell me."

Uncle Ma's expression became even more sinister as he gritted his teeth and said, "Do you believe it or not? When it's time to operate on you, I'll explain that they should not give you anesthetic, and then I'll let you experience what it means to die by a thousand cuts."

Ye Chen nodded his head and said admiringly, "This is good, this is good, this is thoughtful!"

After saying that, he looked to the side with an Indian bang and asked curiously, "Hardik is it, you are the main surgeon here?"

Hardik smiled unnaturally and spoke, "I'm only in charge of the surgery, nothing else."

"Good." Ye Chen nodded and smiled, saying seriously, "You can do it, you can be of great use."

Ah Liang was a little confused, he looked at Uncle Ma and opened his mouth to ask, "Uncle Ma, this kid isn't scared silly, is he? Why do I feel that he has lost his mind a bit?"

Uncle Ma was also a little confused.

For the sake of caution, he looked at Ah Liang and asked, "Did you guys pay attention when you came and see if you were followed by anyone else?"

"How is it possible." Ah Liang said very seriously, "We were staring at the rear view mirror all the way here, none of the cars followed us all the way, nor did any of them travel abnormally or act suspiciously, and before we came in, Big Old Mo had already confirmed that there were no other vehicles within sight."

Uncle Ma nodded gently, then looked at Ye Chen and asked curiously, "Kid, I'm curious to know, why aren't you scared at all? Are you not afraid of death?"

Ye Chen laughed, "Afraid of death."

Uncle Ma frowned and asked, "Fear of death and you're still pretending so much?"

Ye Chen said indifferently, "I am afraid of death, not afraid of you, you can't kill me."

Uncle Ma suddenly pulled out a pistol from his back waist, pointed it at Ye Chen and asked in a cold voice; "Say, what exactly is your origin!"

Ye Chen deliberately changed into a RTHK accent and said helplessly, "Eh, you're really a very witty person eh, you've asked me the same question many times."

At this time, Ah Liang said to Uncle Ma, "Uncle Ma, why do you care about him? I guess this grandson is scared to death inside, and he deliberately wants to provoke you so that you can kill him with one shot."

Uncle Ma nodded and said in a cold voice, "I guess he's had some kind of stress reaction, don't care about him, lock them both up first, and step up your security tonight, report to me immediately if there's any movement."

Ah Liang said, "Yes, don't worry, Uncle Ma!"

Uncle Ma gave a sound, turned around and was about to leave, when Ye Chen suddenly sneered and said, "I thought you guys had something great going on in Mexico, after half a day, it turns out that all you do is this kind of nasty things that are not on the stage, even this kind of money, you are really not afraid that retribution will come soon!"

Uncle Ma turned around and stared at Ye Chen with a wary expression, asking him, "What do you mean?"

Ye Chen smiled faintly and asked him in return, "I don't think you guys have contacted Mei Yu Zhen recently, have you?"

"f*ck!" When Uncle Ma and Liang heard this, both of them were shocked, and both of them coincidentally pulled out their guns and pointed them at Ye Chen, and Liang asked out of the blue, "Say, where the f*ck did you hear the words Mei Yu Zhen? Are you a cop or not!"

Uncle Ma intuited that it was unlikely that Ye Chen was a cop, so he slightly pulled the trigger and stared at Ye Chen with malicious eyes, asking coldly, "Brother, let's not talk in secret, what kind of business are you in? How do you know about Mei Yu Zhen?"

Chapter 4783

Hearing the other party's question, Ye Chen smiled faintly and said indifferently, "Not only do I know Mei Yuzhen, I also had dinner with her, she was in Providence under the alias Chen Liping and had another one by her side named Xu Mianxi, who was acting as a couple together with her, am I right?"

Hearing Ye Chen's words, not only that Uncle Ma's expression was appalled, even Lang Hongjun's jaw was agape.

He didn't know who Mei Yuzhen was, but he knew Chen Liping!

It was Chen Liping who had told his mother that there were seafarers being recruited on the Mexican side and that the treatment was very good.

His own mother had even been grateful to her for a while, thinking that her help had saved the whole family.

But who would have thought that this woman would be so vicious as to try to cut out his own heart and sell it!

Thinking of this, he couldn't help but ask Ye Chen: "Older brother you how do you know Chen Liping?! Did you also get tricked by Chen Liping?!"

Ye Chen laughed contemptuously and faintly: "Old brother, just that Chen Liping's little weight, there is no way she can fool me."

When that Uncle Ma saw Ye Chen's disdainful face, he suddenly felt a little more panic in his heart.

He felt that since Ye Chen already knew Mei Yuzhen's true identity, yet he still dared to go through the tiger's den alone, this was enough to tell that this person must have a backstory.

So he couldn't help but ask: "Brother, I think you have great courage and are not an ordinary person, so I think you should not sell yourself short.

Ye Chen laughed shamefully, "I really don't like this kind of business of yours, to be honest, you go to great lengths to trick people who are in financial difficulties, and then kill them to get their organs."

Ma Kui's heart was even more flustered.

He found that since Ye Chen had said Mei Yu Zhen's name, from beginning to end, he did not have a trace of fear, and the way he looked at himself was full of ridicule and contempt, if he did not have absolutely strong self-confidence, it was absolutely impossible for him to be so confident.

At the thought of this, Ma Kui's cold sweat broke out.

Originally, he had been ruthless enough to pull the trigger and finish Ye Chen off with a single shot, but now he couldn't pull this trigger no matter what.

He could not hide his nervousness and asked Ye Chen, "Brother, what exactly are you going to do? Since you know what kind of business we are in, you should know that we are all a gang of unblinking killers. Even if you are really big, but in this mu of Mexico, I really may not be afraid of you."

Ye Chen smiled slightly and said, "I see that most of the people here are Mexicans, I think it should be difficult for you, a Chinese, to be the boss here, is your boss not here?"

Ma Kui nodded and said with a straight face, "Our boss has several business lines, this is just one of them, I am not talented, I am the head of this business line, the Mei Yu Zhen you have contacted is one of my underlings in the US, I have several underlings in the US and also Canada, specialising in delivering goods for me."

Ye Chen nodded slightly and spoke, "I have some big business that I want to talk to your boss about, you can call him to come over, I'll wait for him here."

Ma Kui frowned and said cautiously, "Brother, it is impossible for me to inform our boss if you don't identify yourself, our boss is at least ranked in the top ten of the crime syndicate bosses in Mexico, if you want him to come and see you, you have to show an identity that can invite him."

Ye Chen laughed disdainfully, then without showing his face, he easily broke the tie on his wrist.

Immediately afterwards, he very calmly went into his pocket and pulled out the black gold card, which was limited to a few dozen worldwide and only a few in the whole of China.

Chapter 4784

It was only then that the crowd reacted to the fact that Ye Chen had broken free from the tie. When they were too shocked to think about how Ye Chen had done it, Ye Chen had already gently shaken the black gold card in his hand.

He then threw the card directly at Ma Kui and sneered, "Come on, open your eyes wide and take a good look at it, do you recognise this thing?"

Ma Kui reached out his hand in a panic before he managed to catch the black gold card, and then he took a good look and was shocked!

Although he had never seen a Citibank black gold card in person, he had heard of it.

He couldn't help but think in his mind, "D*mn, there are only a few dozen of these black gold cards in the world, and whoever can get one of these cards must have a*sets of more than $10 billion, not to mention how much money is on the card!"

"What is the concept of $10 billion in a poor country like Mexico?"

"It's so f*cking much already that there's no concept of it ah f*ck!"

As he thought about this, he couldn't help but lower his head and take a closer look at the black and gold card.

The card was extremely well made, both the texture and the feel of it was like nothing he had ever seen on a card in his life.

The embossed, frosted surface of the card was a work of art.

And in the bottom left corner of this black and gold card, there were also English letters punched out with a steel seal, which were the capitalized pinyin of Ye Chen's name.

At this moment, Ma Kui exclaimed in his heart, "This is the real f*cking deal!"

In the next second, Ma Kui's hands were trembling involuntarily.

Ma Kui was also considered a practitioner, don't look at his age, his hands were much better than those of ordinary people of his age.

This guy could hold down a repeating AK47 with one hand, but now his hands couldn't hold a bank card that weighed only a few grams.

At this moment, when he was looking at Ye Chen, his eyes were already filled with awe and fear.

He couldn't help but shiver and ask: "Brother oh no Mr. Ye don't know... ..I don't know what you have to do with your sudden big visit... .."

Ma Kui was not a rash two-bit fool.

When he saw the card, he knew that Ye Chen must be extremely powerful, and even his a*sets should be above US$10 billion.

And at this moment, he no longer felt that he had any initiative at this point.

Because he knew very well that if a person of Ye Chen's stature still dared to use his real identity and take his own flesh and blood to test himself, then this risk was absolutely no threat in his eyes.

The reason why Ye Chen dared to use his real name to contact these people was that, on the one hand, he had no fear of retaliation from these people, because in his opinion, one of these people had to die!

On the other hand, he knew that Mei Yuzhen had no connection with them.

Ever since Mei Yu Zhen had fled Providence, she had cut off all contact with her a*sociates, this was this old fox's way of protecting herself, within a short period of time, even the Ten Thousand Dragons Temple could not find her whereabouts, which was proof enough of how cautious she was, so even if he used his real name, he did not have to worry at all that this organisation would get through to Mei Yu Zhen after his appearance.

When Ye Chen saw Ma Kui's panicked face, he sneered, "Look at your frightened look, is having a gun in your hand and so many dogs around you not enough to give you courage?"

The more arrogant Ye Chen was, the more panicked Ma Kui and Ah Liang next to him became.

When Ye Chen saw that Ma Kui's cold sweat was running down his forehead and onto his face, he smiled faintly and said, "All right, to tell you the truth, I have a shortage of yakuza like you who specialise in dirty work and dirty deeds, so I came over to check out how much weight you really have."

Chapter 4785

After Ye Chen finished this, the two men had already shed a neck of cold sweat.

Ma Kui swallowed hard and subconsciously asked, "Mr. Ye, you came to Mexico all by yourself just to examine and inspect us?"

Ye Chen asked him back, "Who told you that I was just one person?"

When the two men heard this, their expressions were even more tense.

At this time, Ye Chen pointed at Lang Hongjun who was beside him and said indifferently, "Didn't we come together as brothers?"

Ma Kui was stunned, and then his whole body stood in place and trembled uncontrollably.

It was fine if Ye Chen didn't mention Lang Hongjun, but when he did, Ma Kui's heart became even more flustered.

Because he had already gotten Lang Hongjun's information a long time ago, he could conclude that Lang Hongjun was the one who was in the dark.

However, Ye Chen had come with him and met him on the plane, which proved that Ye Chen had already figured out their plan and knew that they were going to attack Lang Hongjun, so he deliberately approached him and came here with him.

Thinking of this, he was scared to the core.

Only then did he understand why others always said that a high-end hunter, always in the form of a prey, appeared in the eyes of the real prey.

It looked as if he had picked up a big bargain for nothing, but he didn't realise that it was all under the control of others.

One might even say that this was the result that others really wanted.

It reminded him of the way Africans catch wasps.

They would first take a piece of meat to make the greedy wasps think they had found their prey and then carry it away, but little did they know that the hunter had hung a light feather on himself while he was tearing into the piece of meat.

The hunters will then follow the feather, find the wasp's nest and wipe it out, killing the adult wasps and throwing the pupae from the hive into a pan of boiling water and frying them.

In short, once the nest was tracked by the hunters, it meant the capitulation of the whole nest.

He couldn't help but ask Ye Chen, "Mr. Ye, do you you want to take us in?"

Ye Chen said indifferently, "To integrate or not to integrate depends on your strength and sincerity, so you'd better give your boss a call and ask him to come over for an interview with me."

Ma Kui thought for a moment and said respectfully, "Wait a moment, Mr. Ye, I will go up and call our boss."

Ye Chen said in a cold voice: "Do you need to go up there to make a phone call? Just do it here."

Ma Kui hurriedly explained, "Mr. Ye, you don't know, there is a signal blocker here, so mobile phones can't make calls, I have to go up and use the landline to call our boss."

"Okay!" Ma Kui nodded and hurriedly gave a wink to Ah Liang, and the two of them ran out together in a panic.

After getting to the ground, Ah Liang couldn't help but ask Ma Kui: "Uncle Ma this kid in the end what is his origin"

Ma Kui flung his hand and gave him a slap on the face, cursing angrily, "No matter what his origin is, you recruited him back! If this guy comes from a bad place, it would be strange for the boss not to kill you."

"I can't be blamed for this, Uncle Ma" said Ah Liang with a sobbing face, "I reported to you at that time and you also agreed, how can you dump the pot on me alone at this time?"

Ma Kui said in a cold voice: "You don't need to talk such nonsense to me now, the most urgent task now is to hurry up and report the situation to the boss."

Ah Liang hurriedly asked again, "Uncle Ma, do you think this kid is really a bully? Is that card of his real?"

Chapter 4786

Ma Kui said seriously, "It's definitely real, the feel of that thing is not like something that can be imitated, and this kid knows our details and even our movements, so he must have already investigated our situation."

Ah Liang asked nervously, "He can't be a cop, can he?"

"Can't be" Ma Kui waved his hand, "How can a cop play this kind of game? This kid has been through a lot of hardships, so many of us and so many guns. But he didn't lose out at all, and he even scared me so much that my legs were wobbling, do you think this is the kind of psychological quality a cop can have?"

Saying that, Ma Kui looked around and added, "I now seriously suspect that this little one has secretly surrounded us, we just can't see it."

Hearing this, Ah Liang also became more and more nervous as he looked left and right and said, "By the way, Uncle Ma, did you see how he broke the tie just now? I didn't see a f*cking thing" that was so strong, even a cow couldn't break it off, right?"

The actual fact is that you can't get a lot of money out of a person's money. The opportunity"

Saying that, Ma Kui added, "Even if he really comes in a bad way, let's not move him and let the boss decide for himself when he comes."

"That makes sense" A Liang wiped his sweat and said, "Let the boss make the decision, this is too D*mn weird" "

The real boss behind Mei Yu Zhen is the criminal group called 'Crazy Juarez', which is based in northern Mexico.

The reason for such a middle-aged name is that the boss of this crime syndicate, whose name is Juarez.

Unlike the low-key, introverted nature of the Chinese, Westerners are particularly fond of putting their own names to their businesses, whether it's something as big as a Boeing jet or as small as a Dyson Hoover, using the founder's own name.

Even a clothing brand made by two gay men in partnership has to include the names of both.

In China, this kind of thing is not very common.

But in the West, it's almost ubiquitous.

So even a crime syndicate has to use the name of the boss as the name of the whole group.

And this Mexican crime syndicate called Crazy Juarez is not even in the top five in terms of power in Mexico itself.

But the evil they do is not at all inferior to other criminal groups in Mexico.

In order to make as much money as possible, this group does almost everything, manufacturing, smuggling and selling contraband are just some of the things they do.

And the sale of human organs is a big part of the business within this crime syndicate.

What's more, it's not just about selling organs, it's about deceiving people from the United States and Canada who are struggling to survive and finding ways to get them to Mexico where their organs are taken and then destroyed.

Since there are so many criminal groups in Mexico and so many murders, neither the police in their own country nor the police in the United States or Canada can do much about them.

In this way, their business of selling organs has become a low-risk, high-reward, no-brainer.

They have been doing this business for many years, with each year growing compared to the previous one, and in all these years, they have never had any trouble.

He's had a good night and has won a whopping $200,000 in the casino.

He was just about to open his cards and was a little annoyed by the phone buzzing on the table, so he picked up the phone and asked in a cold voice, "What are you doing calling so late at night? Don't you know I'm gambling?"

Ma Kui hurriedly said, "Boss, there's a situation on this side of the operating room, a big shot has come to the door"

Chapter 4787

Juarez's full name, is Rafael Corona Juarez.

Coincidentally, he was born in the northern border city of Mexico, which is also called Juarez.

The city of Juarez has been home to some of the biggest crime syndicates in Mexico, and it is perennially ranked as the most violent city in the world.

To call it a real-life version of Gotham would be an insult to Gotham, which, after all, has superheroes in addition to super-villains, and here, there is only one more vicious super-villain than another.

Juarez grew up in the city that shares his name, his parents, although not members of the crime syndicate, both worked under it to earn money to support their families.

His father, on the other hand, has always driven trucks for the cartel, sometimes hauling arms, sometimes drugs, and sometimes bodies.

His mother, on the other hand, has always worked in the cartel's drug workshops, weighing and packing for them, and has even won many skills competitions organised by the cartel.

At the age of twelve, a small-time leader of a local crime syndicate gave him a gun, a bicycle and fifty dollars in cash, so he pedalled his bicycle and shot an unsuspecting member of a rival gang in the street, as he was asked to do.

Although the recoil of the pistol made his wrists hurt for days, he had trouble sleeping every night for those days because of the sight of the other man's brains bursting into flames.

At that moment, Juarez realised that he might have been born to do this.

Since then, he has been a gang member.

After almost ten years of building up his reputation, he also became a minor leader in Juarez.

When Juarez's boss was a*sa*sinated by a rival gang, Juarez took his men and escaped from that city to start a new career in Ensenada.

After more than a decade, Juárez has grown stronger and is now in the top 10 of Mexico's criminal groups.

However, in this top 10, the two-eight principle is also reflected in the best way possible.

Therefore, the gap between the bottom of the Top 10, like Juarez, and the top is even greater.

Mexico's largest crime syndicate has an annual profit of over US$10 billion, but Juarez has been in the business for so many years, and with all his money counted, it is only just over $100 million.

When he heard the report from Ma Kui that someone had found their surgery with a black gold card, his whole body trembled.

This was a man worth more than ten billion dollars!

Just as Juarez was getting a little lost in thought, the dealer spoke up and urged, "Mr. Juarez, it's your turn to ask for your cards."

Only then did Juarez come back to his senses, he ignored the lotus officer and said to Ma Kui on the other end of the phone, "Ma, I'm on my way there now, you must treat this Mr. Ye well, don't neglect your valuable guest, otherwise I won't spare you!"

Ma Kui on the other end of the phone said, "Boss, don't worry, I will treat Mr. Ye well."

Saying that, he did not forget to remind, "Boss, don't forget to bring as many brothers as possible, it's better to be prepared."

Juarez grunted, "That's for sure!"

With that, he hung up the phone, snapped his cards on the table, stood up hastily and turned to leave.

His girlfriend, somewhat surprised, asked, "Rafael, where are you going?"

Juarez spoke up, "I have something important to do, you stay here and keep playing, the chips are all yours."

After that, he greeted his four bodyguards and said, "Carlos get the car, Ector call everyone and tell them to drop what they're doing and gather at the surgery immediately, and remember, everyone must be armed!"

Chapter 4788

The man named Ector asked in surprise, "Boss, what's so serious that you want all the brothers to rush over there?"

Juarez spoke, "It may not be bad, but it may not be good either, we will not know exactly until we go, but good or bad, we have to be prepared for anything."

In Juarez's view, if Ye Chen was indeed a good opportunity for him to soar, then he naturally had to grasp it, not only to show Ye Chen his sincerity, but also to show Ye Chen his strength.

And if this Ye Chen comes from a bad place, he can do his best to avoid danger by taking all his brothers with him.

Crazy Juarez, in total, has more than two hundred direct members.

Of these people, the vast majority are native Mexicans.

And in Mexico, guns are no less prevalent than in the United States, especially in the criminal groups, where not only does everyone have a gun, but many have manufactured equipment smuggled in from the United States at high prices.

So the members of Crazy Juarez are no less capable of fighting than the military and police.

When they received the order from their boss, each one of them took their equipment and flew to the small village where the operation room was located.

Juarez, who had been fighting in the streets for many years, had always required all members of Crazy Juarez to know how to drive and to have a car of their own.

The reason for this was to enhance the mobility of the entire group.

This was as important to Juarez as the motorisation of the modern army.

In addition to this, he also requires all members to have a radio in their vehicles, and to ensure that radio communications are smooth, he has set up radio relay stations within a 100 kilometre radius of Ensenada, in order to improve the coverage and quality of radio communications.

Sitting in his bullet-proof car, with the radio microphone in his hand, he said: "Attention all, wherever you are going from, do not enter the village where the operating theatre is located! Teams 1, 2 and 3, assemble at the eastern entrance to the village, Teams 4, 5 and 6, assemble at the western entrance to the village, when all have assembled, on my signal, close in on the operating theatre in a pincer movement! All squad leaders reply immediately!"

Soon after, multiple voices came over the intercom, "Team 1 copy."

"Second team copy."

"Third team receives"

After all six squad leaders had confirmed their orders, Juarez continued, "Once you are within a three mile radius of the operating theatre, you must keep a close eye on your surroundings and report back to me at the first sign of any suspicious persons hiding."

Juarez had experienced all kinds of firefights and was experienced in combat.

In his opinion, a pincer attack would best ensure combat effectiveness, whether or not the opponent had covertly deployed troops.

If the enemy was in the centre, the pincer attack would be able to close in on the enemy, and if the enemy was on the periphery, the two forces would converge in a pincer attack and then use the central point as a defence against the outside enemy.

If he was facing an ordinary criminal group, Juarez was very efficient in this way.

But he could not have imagined that he was facing precisely the king of mercenaries, the Ten Thousand Dragons Temple.

According to Ye Chen's previously planned tactics, the members of the Ten Thousand Dragons Temple were all scattered and hidden a kilometre or two away from the village, in order to wait for the other side to finish gathering before tightening the encirclement and pocketing them all.

Moreover, these members of the Ten Thousand Dragons Temple were all martial arts masters, and their strength was far greater than that of ordinary mercenaries.

Therefore, once they were hidden, these members of the Crazy Juarez would not notice anything unusual even if they passed by them!

Chapter 4789

Just as Juarez's men were swarming around him, Ma Kui returned to the surgery with Ah Liang.

Ma Kui changed into a flattering expression from a long way away, and while walking towards Ye Chen attentively and quickly, he took out a box of domestic cigarettes from his pocket, walked up to Ye Chen, handed one to him, and said respectfully, “Mr. Ye, our boss is already on his way here, the boss explained that I have to treat you well, you have a cigarette first!”

“Aiyo.” Ma Kui said in a hurry, “No, no, no! Cigarettes are not a good thing, don’t touch them if you can.”

With that, he reached out and put the cigarette case into his pocket, turned to Ah Liang and said, “Order everyone not to smoke in front of Mr. Ye!”

Ah Liang hurriedly nodded his head attentively and said, “Yes, yes!”

After saying that, he turned around and talked to the group of Mexicans in Spanish.

Ma Kui said to Ye Chen with a smile, “Mr. Ye, the environment down here is too bad, do you think we should go up and talk?”

“No need.” Ye Chen waved his hand slightly and said lightly, “I quite like this place, it is simple but not simple.

Ma Kui said, “Mr. Ye, I’m not going to lie, I really don’t know anything about medicine, but that Indian guy just now is a little bit better, do you know what this kid’s glorious deeds are?”

Ye Chen shook his head and asked, “What kind of deeds?”

Ma Kui said, “When this kid was in India, he used all kinds of tricks to cheat five or six hundred people’s waist, then he ran away to the United States when he couldn’t go on at home.

Ye Chen couldn’t help but smack his lips and said half-jokingly, “Although this is indeed a dirty thing, I have to say that it is still something.”

Ma Kui laughed, nodded quickly and said, “You are right, talk to me. Compared with you, we are indeed some indiscriminate activities that do not come to the table. Under normal circumstances, the entire industry chain can only earn tens of thousands or hundreds of thousands of dollars for one waist. If you want to earn hundreds of thousands of dollars like you With a net worth of 100 million, I am afraid that it will cost more than 100,000 waists, and it is impossible to achieve it in this life...”

Ye Chen pouted and asked him: “Who told you that I am worth 10 billion? Ten billion, in my eyes It’s not even a fart.”

After speaking, Ye Chen said again: “Let me tell you this, I incorporated an organization some time ago, long-term and short-term, and I invested tens of billions of dollars in it. “

Ma Kui looked at him incredulously and blurted out, “Mr. Ye you are not kidding me what kind of organization can you invest tens of billions of dollars?”

Ye Chen said casually, “I can’t tell you this right now, but you don’t need to question the authenticity of this matter because I never make jokes like this.”

Ma Kui also knew that the fact that Ye Chen could possess a black gold card proved that he must have real material, and he thought that he would not be able to brag in front of a small person like himself.

So, he said respectfully, "Mr. Ye, I am grateful that you are interested in our Crazy Juarez, I am sure that you will not be disappointed with us after you meet our boss!"

Ye Chen nodded, looked to Lang Hongjun who had never looked back at the side, and immediately frowned and said to Ma Kui, "I thought you were quite perceptive, why didn't you know to cut the ties for this old brother of mine?"

Chapter 4790

Only when Ma Kui heard this did he instantly come back to his senses.

Originally, he thought that Ye Chen was just using Lang Hongjun to come to his door, and in his heart, he thought that Ye Chen was a big brother who could not be offended, but Lang Hongjun was the donor who was about to undergo surgery, and the two of them must have nothing to do with each other in the future.

But when he heard Ye Chen say this, he realized that Ye Chen should be to protect this Lang Hongjun, so he quickly without thinking, slapped himself, chagrin said: "Oh Mr. Ye, I'm sorry, I was so focused on serving you, did not think of your friend blame me, blame me! "

After saying that, he hurriedly said to Ah Liang, "Why don't you hurry up and untie Mr. Lang!"

"Okay" Ah Liang did not dare to have any delay and hurriedly drew a folding dagger from his waist and then cut the tie on Lang Hongjun's hand.

Lang Hongjun did not bother to get used to his hands that had just regained their freedom, and flung himself on his knees in front of Ye Chen, crying, "Older brother oh no Mr. Ye... . please save my life Mr. Ye, I have an old man and a young child, I really can't just die in Mexico ah"

Ye Chen reached out to help him up, smiled faintly and said seriously, "Older brother don't worry, you and I are kind of destined to come to Mexico this time, there is me and there is you, who dares to touch a cold hair of you, I am the first to say no to Ye Chen."

Lang Hongjun was touched in his heart, and more than that, he was relieved after the robbery. Although he was in tears, he still could not hide his happiness and said to Ye Chen, "Thank you, Mr. Ye, thank you, Mr. Ye!"

The Ma Kui at the side hastily compensated with a smile and said, "Don't worry, Mr. Lang, since you are Mr. Ye's friend, you are our valuable guest here, what happened before was all a misunderstanding, you should not take it to heart, I will make sure your next stay in Mexico will be peaceful!"

Ye Chen asked curiously, "Ma Kui, I want to know, what are you going to do with the person who is going to undergo surgery?"

Ma Kui smiled and said respectfully, "Mr. Ye, the deposit has already been paid and the family has also agreed to pay the final payment once they are on the operating table, we will open his chest cavity and then wait two hours before sewing him up. heart and there is still a certain amount of rejection, as long as he goes back and recuperates at ease for half a month, he will basically be healed."

Ye Chen frowned and asked, "The other party gave you all the money, ran over and took a stab for nothing and then went back? Isn't that a bit overly damaging?"

Ma Kui said seriously, "Mr. Ye, in a case like this, we opened the chest cavity and didn't move anything, and then sewed him up, which is already very kind. It's normal."

Ye Chen nodded with a wry smile.

They were really a bunch of scum and bds with no sense of decency or humanity.

If we let these bds continue to do wrong, it would really be unjustifiable.

Thinking of this, Ye Chen looked at Ma Kui and asked him, "Why hasn't your boss come yet? You're too inquisitive, aren't you?"

Ma Kui hurriedly said, "Mr. Ye, don't be anxious, our boss was gambling in the casino before, so it's a bit far to rush over, so it does take a bit longer, but he should be here soon!"
