

Ye Chen 4791

Chapter 4791

At this moment, Juarez's six squads, one after another, had arrived at the entrance of the village and assembled at their designated positions.

All along the way, they had been watching their surroundings very carefully, but had not noticed anything unusual.

Juarez's car, protected by three vehicles, arrived at the eastern entrance of the village only after all six squads were in position.

Upon arrival, Juarez did not get out of the car, but said to one of his bodyguards, "Ector, you go in first, remember to record video throughout, get inside and have the shields turned off, then send me the video so I can see what's going on inside, in case they are all controlled by the other side, then this is a trap and we need to be prepared in advance."

The man known as Ector nodded gently, then he pulled out his phone, turned on the video and stepped inside alone.

The dark and open guards near the operating room all knew Ector, so when he appeared, they all routinely greeted him. Ector kept an eye on the surroundings, while also carefully watching everyone he encountered, and after finding nothing out of the ordinary, he spoke to one of the small leaders in charge of guarding the place, "Turn off the shield, I want to send a video to the boss."

The man did not dare to delay and immediately switched off the signal shield here.

Ector immediately sent the video he had already taken to Juarez, who quickly sent an invitation for a video call.

After the video was connected, Juarez's voice came through and asked, "Where is the one surnamed Ye?"

Ector said, "I heard it was in the underground operating room."

"Okay!"

Ector agreed, took his phone and walked into the room where the entrance to the basement was located, and then stepped right down.

Juarez, on the other hand, was in the car watching the video footage coming back carefully on his phone, he wanted to confirm whether the person appearing in the video was his own man or not.

And at this time, Ector had already arrived at the underground operating room and saw Ye Chen in front of Ma Kui, with an arrogant expression.

Ma Kui also saw Ector at this time and hurriedly said to Ye Chen, "Mr. Ye, our boss's personal bodyguard has arrived, and I believe our boss will also arrive soon!"

Ector came to the crowd at this time and pointed his mobile phone camera at Ye Chen, then lowered his voice and asked a few questions in Ma Kui's ear.

After Ma Kui also whispered a few words in his ear, Ector put his mind at ease, then he smiled and nodded to Ye Chen as a gesture, then stepped back out and returned to the ground.

Once back on the ground, he reported to Juarez, "Boss, nothing unusual has been found here, only two unfamiliar faces, one is the donor who was scheduled to undergo surgery the day after tomorrow, and the other is the billionaire that Ma Kui said."

Juarez asked him, "Our brothers are all here, right?"

"All in." Ector said, "There were no signs of a fight at the scene either, not even the smell of gunpowder residue, so there must be nothing wrong."

Juarez nodded and smiled, "It seems that that Chinese man surnamed Ye really has guts, I'll go and meet him personally."

With that, Juarez issued an order on his car radio, "Everyone follow me, teams one to three guard the perimeter of the operating theatre, teams four to six guard the operating theatre compound, and the bodyguards follow me down to meet the Chinese kid."

Immediately, a confirmation reply came over the radio from the six squad leaders.

Immediately afterwards, Juarez pushed open the car door and stepped out, protected by bodyguards in front and behind him, and walked towards the operating theatre.

Just when Juarez thought he had eliminated all threats and that he was safe, he never dreamed that the drones had already caught his movements high in the sky.

The moment Wan Bajun saw him appear, he realised that this man was, inevitably, the leader of the entire criminal organisation.

Chapter 4792

He then followed Ye Chen's instructions and instructed his men, "Attention all, start shrinking the encirclement immediately, once the target enters the courtyard where Mr. Ye is, start a five-minute countdown immediately, once the time is up, make sure to take out all the enemies outside, leaving no one behind!"

A few minutes later, Juarez had arrived at the courtyard where the operating room was located.

Because of Ector's previous scouting, he walked straight down the stairs of the operating room without the slightest worry of fear.

When Ma Kui saw Juarez walking down, he immediately said to Ye Chen excitedly, "Mr. Ye, our boss is here!"

After saying that, he hurriedly ran towards Juarez and said in Spanish attentively, "Boss, this Mr. Ye who is here today is a god of fortune, we must seize this opportunity!"

Juarez patted him on the shoulder and did not say anything, but stepped directly in front of Ye Chen and said with a smile in Spanish, "Mr. Ye, right, I am Juarez, Rafael Juarez, you can call me Rafael."

Ye Chen did not know Spanish, but he had Ma Kui on hand to translate, so there was no obstacle to communicate with Juarez.

Ye Chen looked Juarez up and down and found that this Mexican man was indeed a bandit, each was not tall but very strong, he had a shiny thick gold necklace around his neck, even his teeth wore diamond encrusted braces, he had an extremely short inch haircut and a face full of cross flesh, not a good person at first glance.

Ye Chen looked at him and laughed blandly, "Mr. Juarez really made me wait, you didn't show up when you arrived, but first let one of your men come in to open a video for you, this operation of yours really didn't surprise me."

Juarez knew that Ye Chen disliked him for being slow in coming, and also disliked him for being too cautious, so he smiled and said, "Sorry, Mr. Ye, it is always necessary to be cautious when meeting for the first time."

With that, he hurriedly changed the subject and asked Ye Chen, "Mr. Ye, I heard from Ma Kui that you intend to cooperate with our whole group, I wonder what kind of cooperation?"

Ye Chen did not answer his question, but smiled and asked, "This organisation of yours, how many people are there in total?"

Juarez immediately said, "We have more than two hundred people."

Ye Chen frowned slightly and said indifferently, "Two hundred people seems to be a little less."

Juarez was busy saying, "Although we are not many, almost every one of us is an elite soldier!"

Ye Chen asked curiously, "Have you brought them all here today?"

Juarez nodded and spoke, "My men are all outside, if Mr. Ye is interested, I can take you up to have a look."

"No need." Ye Chen said casually, "Those people of yours, I don't need to deal with them personally."

Not knowing the deeper meaning of Ye Chen's words, Juarez patted his chest and said to Ye Chen, "If Mr. Ye intends to cooperate with us, those people down there, I will manage them myself, there is no need for you to deal with them."

Saying that, he asked Ye Chen, "Mr. Ye, you haven't said what kind of cooperation you want to enter into with us?"

Ye Chen said casually, "I have a big project in Syria, and I'm actually quite short of people, but ....."

When Ye Chen said this, he deliberately paused for a moment, then he took out his own mobile phone and looked at the time, seeing that it had been almost five minutes since Juarez came in, he gradually put away the smile on his face, looked at Juarez, and said in a cold voice: "Forget it, Syria is only suitable for those who can be spared from deadly sins but cannot escape from living sins, for you scum who should be killed by a thousand cuts, it is not quite applicable."

Ma Kui was about to translate, but he instantly froze, he could not help but look at Ye Chen, frowning and asking, "Mr. Ye, what do you mean by that?"

Ye Chen sneered, looked at Juarez, and the group of people around him, and faintly said, "My meaning is simple, You're allgonnadie!tonight!"

Translated into Chinese, it was, "You're allgonnadie!tonight!"

Chapter 4793

When Ma Kui heard these words, his heart tightened while he couldn't help but subconsciously smile along with him, "Mr. Ye is really joking, don't you want to seek our cooperation? Our boss doesn't have a sense of humour like you, he will probably take your words seriously."

At the side, Juarez, at this moment, was looking at Ye Chen with a cold expression.

Although he hadn't gone to school or learned any foreign languages, Mexico was after all so close to the United States, and in most cases had to make a living with the Americans, so most Mexicans knew a little bit of English.

So when Ye Chen said the English sentence, he immediately understood the meaning.

He could not help but look at Ye Chen immediately, and he could see at a glance that Ye Chen's eyes were full of murderous aura at the moment.

After all, Hua Reis was a long-time veteran of the jianghu world, and he could tell what a person looked like when he was motivated to kill just by looking at him.

Therefore, when he heard Ye Chen's words, he subconsciously took out his pistol and pointed it at Ye Chen's forehead, saying in a cold voice: "Who the hell are you? What exactly do you want to do after going to all the trouble to find this place?"

Ma Kui, who was at the side, was also a bit flustered at this moment, and hurriedly said to Ye Chen, "Mr. Ye, just don't joke with our boss, what he hates the most is when people joke with him."

Ye Chen looked at him, smiled slightly and asked, "How do you know I am joking with him, I tell you, I meant every word I just said."

Juarez frowned tightly and stared at Ye Chen and asked, "The two of us have no enmity, and I heard from Ma Kui that you are the one who has the Citibank Black Gold Card, your assets must be over ten billion dollars, we are originally from two worlds, why do you want to kill us?"

Ye Chen put away his smile and said in a cold voice: "Because what you have done is so evil and unforgivable, therefore, every single one of you deserves to die!"

Juarez could not help but sneer out and said with contempt, "Even if I deserve to die for what I did, what can you do to me? Do you think that you alone can kill all of us, that's a bit too arrogant!"

Ye Chen snorted and said indifferently, "Killing a group of you mere dogs and dogs is simply a breeze for me."

Saying that, Ye Chen asked him rhetorically, "Besides, who told you that I was alone?"

Juarez frowned and asked offhandedly, "What? Do you have helpers? To tell you the truth, I have over two hundred men from Crazy Juarez out there, and every one of them is armed to the teeth. Don't forget that you are still in my hands, as soon as I pull the trigger, you will be dead immediately!"

Ye Chen laughed: "Half of your two hundred or so men are dead now!"

Juarez didn't even know that just a minute ago, more than a hundred elite generals from the Ten Thousand Dragon Hall had already launched an attack on Juarez's men.

These 100 or so soldiers were all martial arts masters without exception, and had also undergone modern military training, so their ability to fight alone was much stronger than that of ordinary special forces.

Using guns equipped with silencers, the soldiers of the Ten Thousand Dragons Temple took out half of Juarez's men before they even noticed.

With his keen perception, Ye Chen had a good idea of what was happening outside.

Only, Juarez was underground and could not hear the commotion outside at all.

When he heard Ye Chen's words, he thought he had heard some kind of big joke as he mocked, "All my men, without exception, are all battle-hardened elite soldiers, although we are not the top in size in Mexico, our single combat capability is definitely the strongest of all the groups in Mexico, what makes you able to take out half of my men?"

As soon as the words left his mouth, a sudden panic of gunfire rang out from outside and someone shouted, "Quickly find a place to take cover, the other side didn't even know where they were shooting from!"

Chapter 4794

Someone else was firing wildly as he shouted, "What the f*ck, people don't even know where they are, hurry up and suppress the fire!"

Juarez's entire body was in a state of shock when he heard the commotion outside.

He could tell from the sounds he heard that his men had been besieged and that the other side had not only caught them off guard, but had even cost them dearly.

When Juarez thought of all those men out there, all of whom were the foundation of his life and fortune, and now they were being slaughtered by an unknown enemy, he felt a sense of despair as he watched his assets disintegrate.

So he angrily pointed his gun at Ye Chen and roared hysterically, "Stop immediately if you see your men, or else I will shoot you!"

Just before Juarez could react, Ye Chen had already grabbed his right wrist that was holding the gun, and then gave a fierce downward twist.

With an audible click, Juarez's wrist had flipped backwards 180 degrees and the back of his hand was tightly pressed against his own small arm!

What was even worse was that his broken wrist joint had pierced through the only skin left on his wrist, and the white bones hanging from the blood and flesh looked extremely gruesome!

But what they didn't expect was that instead of dodging, Ye Chen stood still with a snicker on his face and looked at them.

The moment they aimed their guns at Ye Chen, several tongues of fire suddenly erupted from behind them, and immediately afterwards, several of them were beaten into a hornet's nest by the bullets.

Juarez, Ma Kui and the others were stunned and turned to look behind them, when they saw a dozen Chinese men dressed in black already rushing in with guns in their hands.

At the head of the group was the Master of the Temple of Ten Thousand Dragons, Wan Bajun!

At this moment, Wan Bajun ordered the other men, "Keep an eye on these men, if any of them have the intention to attack, kill them all!"

Immediately, the men replied in unison, "As ordered!"

Juarez had collapsed in fear.

Seeing that the other side had already entered the underground operating theatre, he immediately guessed that all his men left outside must have been finished, and even if they were not all dead, those who were still alive would have been taken prisoner.

Just when he thought it might all be a nightmare, Wan Bajun quickly came to Ye Chen and said respectfully, "Mr. Ye, in accordance with your orders, my subordinates have killed all the enemies outside, leaving no one alive."

Ye Chen asked him, "Were there any casualties among our men?"

Wan Bajun immediately said, "In reply to Mr. Ye, the Ten Thousand Dragon Hall has deployed a total of 158 soldiers today, and not a single one has been injured, let alone killed!"

As soon as Hua Lei Si heard this, his whole body fell to the ground, he looked at Ye Chen with a face full of horror and blurted out, "You ..... are from the Ten Thousand Dragons Hall?!"

Wan Bajun stared at him and said in a cold voice, "Mr. Ye is not a member of the Ten Thousand Dragons Hall, but the entire Ten Thousand Dragons Hall, tens of thousands of people up and down, are all Mr. Ye's people!"

Chapter 4795

Juarez was scared out of his wits by now!

He had already heard the name of the Ten Thousand Dragons Temple.

Even if the most powerful crime syndicates in Mexico were to be brought together, they would not be able to compete with the Dragon Palace, because all the members of the Dragon Palace were well-trained soldiers, and there were some top masters among them.

There was a time when the bosses of Mexico's top crime syndicates all looked to the Maroon as their role model.

There was not a single one of them who did not wish that they too could have a powerful mercenary team like the Ten Thousand Dragons.

But they knew very well that their own strength was a hundred thousand miles away from that of the Ten Thousand Dragons. It was impossible for them to compete with them.

So, many of the leaders of the big groups even offered extremely generous prices and made humble gestures in the hope of getting the masters of the Hall of Dragons to train their soldiers for them.

However, the Dragon Palace has never dealt with such groups, so it has turned a deaf ear to their requests, and even when the biggest drug lord in Mexico came forward himself, he still could not invite the Dragon Palace.

And the more this happened, the more the reputation of the Temple of the Ten Thousand Dragons grew in Mexico.

In Juarez's mind, the Temple of the Ten Thousand Dragons was a god-like existence.

But he could never have imagined that this young man in front of him, Ye Chen, was the master of the Hall of Ten Thousand Dragons!

No wonder he had the Black Gold Card, the value of the Hall of Ten Thousand Dragons alone would be tens or even hundreds of billions of dollars!

What he couldn't have imagined was that his men would be wiped out by the famous Ten Thousand Dragons Hall today.

Terrified to the core, he subconsciously asked Ye Chen, "We, Crazy Juarez, have always respected the Ten Thousand Dragons Temple, but I don't understand, I have no grudge against the Ten Thousand Dragons Temple, why did they kill my 200-odd men?"

Ye Chen sneered and said, "As I said earlier, all of you, without exception, are the most vicious and unforgivable people, so killing you is to do justice to the gods and remove the evil for the people."

Juarez was upset and asked, "We are not the only criminal group in Mexico, why don't you target the strongest ones, but us Crazy Juarez? Do you have to pick on the less powerful ones even when you are doing justice for the people?"

Ye Chen grunted and looked at him and asked, "You're still playing moral kidnapping with me? Let me ask you, is Mei Yu Zhen one of your people?"

"Mei Yu Zhen?!" Hua Reis suddenly remembered that when Ma Kui had reported to him on the phone, he had revealed on the phone that Ye Chen had previously examined Mei Yu Zhen.

Now hearing Ye Chen mention Mei Yu Zhen's name again, Juarez hurriedly said, "Mei Yu Zhen is only one of our peripheral members in the United States!"

Ye Chen asked him, "A peripheral member is not a member? Let me ask you again, those contraband goods that Mei Yu Zhen lured fellow countrymen to help her transport in the US, were they yours?"

"Not telling the truth?" Ye Chen coldly snorted and said to Wan Breaking Jun, "Breaking Jun, scrap both of his legs!"

Before Juarez could come back to his senses, Wan Bajun lifted his gun without saying a word and fired two shots in quick succession.

Juarez only felt a sharp pain in both knees, and when he looked down, he saw that both of his knees had been completely shattered by the bullets.

The pain was so intense that he almost fainted on the spot, but he immediately regained consciousness from the brink of fainting.

Chapter 4796

While Ye Chen was looking at him at this moment, he said in a cold voice, "If you make that sound like killing a pig again, I'll have someone break that thing in your trousers as well!"

As soon as Juarez heard this, he was scared and trembled tremendously, and then forced himself to shut his mouth.

At this time, Ye Chen looked at him and continued, "Let me ask you once more, are those goods in Mei Yu Zhen's hand yours?"

Juarez was forcing himself to endure the severe pain at this time, bucket-sized beads of sweat flowing continuously down his cheeks, even forming a trickling stream at his chin.

To save his life, he could only admit, "Yes ..... It's mine ....."

Ye Chen nodded and asked him again, "I am asking you Mei Yu Zhen, were the people who were tricked into working in Mexico from the United States brought here by you to have their organs taken and subsequently killed?"

Juarez's first thought was to deny it, but then he thought that the other party had already killed him in the operating room, so if he dared to defend himself at this point, wouldn't he be looking for death?

So, he could only say nervously, "Yes ..... Yes ....."

“Good.” Ye Chen smiled and continued, “Just two days ago, Mei Yu Zhen tricked another Chinese compatriot into helping her bring a batch of contraband from the airport, but unfortunately, that Chinese compatriot was caught by the American customs and police before the plane took off, you know about this matter, right?”

Juarez Fan was aware of this matter, because he had lost 5 kilograms of goods that time, and it really made him suffer all night long.

But he really couldn't figure out what this matter could have to do with Ye Chen? After all, Ye Chen was the one who had the Black Gold Card, and he was also the master of the entire Ten Thousand Dragons Hall, such a person's height could already be considered the top of the world, so how could he have anything to do with Mei Yu Zhen?

Thinking of this, he couldn't help but ask, “Mr. Ye ..... You ..... are already the master of the Ten Thousand Dragons Hall, so why do you have to make things difficult for us small gangs because of this trivial matter?”

Ye Chen sneered and said word for word, “Might as well tell you that the woman who was used by Mei Yu Zhen, carrying contraband, and flying on the plane is my mother-in-law!”

Let him think here for ten or twenty years, he would never have thought that that Mei Yu Zhen could have tricked the mother-in-law of a big shot like Ye Chen into becoming a mule .....

No wonder Ye Chen had such strength, yet he still had to exterminate a Mexican crime syndicate of theirs with just over two hundred people.

It turned out that his own men had accidentally messed with Ye Chen's mother-in-law!

Ma Kui, who was on the side, was also scared silly.

Seeing that Wan Long Temple had killed so many of his fellow officers, he was so frightened that he hurriedly fell to his knees and begged Ye Chen in tears, “Mr. Ye, I really wasn't involved in this matter, it was all that Mei Yu Zhen's own foolishness. Please spare my life for the sake of all of us being compatriots!”

“Compatriots?” Ye Chen asked disdainfully, “Don't you specialise in victimising your compatriots? How many of your compatriots have died at your hands over the years? Have you counted them yourselves?”

Ma Kui said in a panic: “Mr. Ye ..... I ..... I was also forced to do so ..... All these things were forced on us by Juarez, and I myself have never gone out to cheat my compatriots, it was all Mei Yu Zhen and the others who went to cheat people over .....”

Ye Chen looked at him and said in a cold voice, “To die and still be here to slyly argue, you really don't see the coffin and don't shed a tear!”

After saying that, he looked at Wan Bajun and commanded, “Bajun, break his arms and legs for me!”

Wan Bajun lifted his gun without expression and fired four bullets in a flash, and these four powerful bullets directly broke Ma Kui's wrists and ankles into a puddle of bone and mud, which was equivalent to cutting them off at the root!

Chapter 4797

Ma Kui, who had suddenly received four shots, fell to the ground with a crash as his two ankles had turned to mud.

He subconsciously tried to use his hands to support his fallen body, but he forgot that he had no hands at that moment, but just two bloody skeletons.

So when he used his broken wrists to support his collapsing body, the force of gravity caused a tremendous shock and pain to both wrists, causing him to flop around on the ground like a freshly caught tuna, screaming in agony.

A large amount of blood sprayed everywhere as he struggled violently.

The man next to him, Ah Liang, was splattered with Ma Kui's blood because he was too close, and he was so scared that his legs went weak and he fell to his knees.

Although Ma Kui was in severe pain, he still struggled and pleaded with Ye Chen, "Mr. Ye, look at me, I am already a ruined man now, I beg you to spare my dog's life for the sake of me being over sixty years old this year ....."

Ye Chen frowned and asked rhetorically, "Have those compatriots who have been victimized by you for such a long time ever knelt down and begged you to spare their lives? If so, then what did you do?"

Over the years, countless compatriots had died at their hands.

But he had never been soft-hearted for any of them.

When he thought of his consistent cruelty, Ma Kui seemed to be able to foresee his future.

In his heart, he understood that today, he was afraid that he would definitely die.

Just at this moment, Ye Chen spoke, "If I just kill you, I think those innocent compatriots who were brutalized by you will feel that they are not enough to relieve their hatred when they know in heaven, so don't worry, after your death, I will continue to make you pay for your blood."

Ma Kui was dumbfounded, because he couldn't understand how Ye Chen could continue to pay for his debts in blood if he died, he couldn't just cut himself into pieces, could he?

When he was at a loss for words, Ye Chen said to Wan Bajun, "Bajun, investigate his background and all his immediate family members, and then investigate his immediate family members' financial transactions with him over the years. I want that person tied up and sent to Syria until they are eighteen to seventy years old, regardless of gender and without discrimination! I will make him work in Syria for the rest of his life to pay his blood debt!"

Without thinking, Wan Bajun said respectfully, “Yes, Mr. Ye, I will arrange for someone to start the investigation!”

As soon as Ma Kui heard this, he broke down and howled.

He was almost the same as Mei Yuzhen and Xu Mixi, who were all alone in earning money to support their family.

He was better than Mei Yuzhen and Xu Xi in that he had already earned enough money to bring his family to North America and had successfully obtained Canadian citizenship.

He has three sons, the eldest of whom is in his thirties and is currently working for a multinational company in Toronto and has already started a family, his second son just got married at the beginning of the year and his third son will graduate from university and enter society this summer.

Although these sons are not outstanding talents, thanks to the higher per capita education resources in western countries and Ma Kui’s money-making ability, each of them has successfully completed university.

If we follow the plan that Ye Chen just mentioned, Ma Kui’s three sons would have to work in Syria for the rest of their lives to repay Ma Kui’s blood debt.

How could Ma Kui bear to drag his three sons down, crying and begging Ye Chen: “Mr. Ye ..... Even if you kill me now, I have no complaints, I only beg you to spare my family, please .....

Ye Chen sneered and asked him, “Have you heard about Mei Yuzhen and Xu Mixi?”

Ma Kui shook his head with a confused expression.

Chapter 4798

Ever since Ma Lan’s accident, these two people had evaporated and Ma Kui could not contact them at all.

However, Ma Kui knew very well in his heart that it must be because Mei Yuzhen had taken the initiative to break off the contact with the outside world. Having worked with Mei Yuzhen for many years, Ma Kui still knew her very well.

Therefore, Ma Kui had not heard anything about what had happened at the home of Mei Yu Zhen and Xu Qi Xi. Seeing his confused face, Ye Chen said lightly, “Their family members were both arrested by the police for money laundering crimes, and their illegal gains were basically seized according to the law, which means that the little black-hearted money that the two of them had earned after so many years of doing wrong, basically went up in smoke, look, twenty years of hard work turned into nothing, not to mention that they even dragged their loved ones into prison, is it worth it?”

Ma Kui’s heart was terrified to the core, while Ye Chen paused and continued, “But their families won’t be sentenced to prison for long, so I will get them to Syria as well after they are released from prison, and then the three of your families can still meet over there.”

Ma Kui's jaw dropped as he listened, not expecting Ye Chen to do such a thing as to cut off his sons and daughters, in that case, wouldn't these two families be completely finished and never be able to turn back?

When he was horrified, Ye Chen said with a smile, "That's good, the three of you can be considered a kind of colleague relationship, and this colleague relationship of yours will be passed on to your descendants even after your death, maybe in the future your son will meet a new kid when he is digging an air defense shelter in Syria, that kid is Mei Yu Zhen's son, when they The two of them will be digging bomb shelters together in Syria, so that they can work at least twelve hours a day, so that they can take a break and get together to talk about the glorious deeds of their parents, thinking about it is indeed a bit interesting."

Ma Kui's whole person has collapsed, he cried and said, "Mr. Ye ..... A thousand wrongs are my fault alone ..... I beg you, don't make my wife and children pay for my mistakes, my eldest grandson has just started primary school, you can't even spare the children!"

Saying that, Ye Chen reminded with a kind face, "Oh, by the way, don't worry, if your immediate family is still underage, I will definitely not do anything to him, I will give him a chance to grow up normally."

At this point, Ye Chen turned his words and added, "But I want to say something ugly up front, once he has reached adulthood, although I will not settle scores and take him back to Syria after the autumn, I will inform everyone he comes into contact with around him of what you have done!"

"Including but not limited to his classmates, friends, teachers and future significant others!"

"I will let them all know what kind of an elder he has, so that he will most likely not be able to hold his head up in front of people for the rest of his life because of what you have done, thus making him hate you in his heart for the rest of his life!"

"I will also have my men tell him that as long as he still chooses to take the surname Ma, no matter where he hides in life, I will make it impossible for him to escape your haze, unless he is willing to change his surname completely and remain anonymous from now on!"

"At that time, your grandson, who will be ashamed of taking your surname, will change his surname, and his children will likewise change their surnames as well as his, and by then, your line will be broken! After you die, only people will hate you, no one will miss you, your Ma family line will be completely cut off, leaving only your name to be cursed for a lifetime!"

Ma Kui's scalp tingled as he listened, and he roared out hysterically, "You can't do this! You can't do this to a child! It's inhumane to do that! This is the 21st century, not the ancient days when families were sentenced to death! What's the difference between you and a barbarian if you do this?"

Ye Chen grunted and said indifferently, "Sorry, but I, Ye Chen, always act like this! Civilized means will only make you remorse your carelessness, but will not make you reflect and regret what you have done, and I, for one, am going to make you truly regret what you have done, but I am not going to give you a chance to start over, or to change your ways! I'm going to make every second of your life filled with endless pain before you die!"

Hmm. Ma Kui did not expect that Ye Chen could come up with such a tactic.

Not only would his own life be cut short, his three sons would also be left in the dark for the rest of their lives, how could they possibly escape the pursuit of the Ten Thousand Dragons Hall?

Even his own grandson would not be spared. Once he suffered humiliation and criticism because of what he had done, then he would certainly hate himself to the bone.

At that time, he would definitely not hesitate to give up the family name.

In that case, the family's legacy would be completely cut off!

At the thought of this, Ma Kui's entire body was terrified to the extreme, and he cried and begged Ye Chen: "Mr. Ye ..... you can't do this, Mr. Ye ..... one man's job is one man's duty... . even if you want my son to be punished on my behalf, you can't target a child like this!"

Ye Chen laughed, "What did I target him for? I just published what his grandfather had done, is there anything wrong with that? You are not afraid of doing so many harmful things, are you still afraid of making these crimes public? Have you ever thought that once your deeds are exposed, the media all over the world will report on this matter, and even your deeds may be remade into movies by directors from all over the world and released in every country in the world, by then you will really be infamous, and maybe by then I don't even need to push you, your grandson will hate you to the bone when he grows up!"

Ma Kui went crazy and shouted in a broken voice, "You want to raid my family and break my family! I won't spare you even as a ghost!"

Ye Chen sneered and said disdainfully, "If there are ghosts in this world, then even if you become a ghost, I will not spare you lightly.

Ma Kui looked at Ye Chen's disdainful and contemptuous eyes and was horrified beyond belief.

At this moment, he realised that in Ye Chen's hands, he was like a worm in his grasp.

It was easy for him to kill himself any way he wanted.

At this moment, Ye Chen looked at Ma Kui's crumbling appearance and sneered, "To deal with such an unforgivable son of a b*tch like you, you won't feel any pain at all if you don't raid your home and make your family die!"

Speaking of this, Ye Chen looked at Ma Kui and asked him, "In the early years, there were many drug-related criminals in Southeast Asia, and the local police could not clean them up no matter how hard they fought, even if they shot one round after another, there were still people rushing in.

Ye Chen laughed: "They found out that although these drug-related criminals were extremely evil outside, at home, they were, without exception, very much the head of the family, and they would rather tie their heads to the waistband of their trousers than take the risk of earning a large sum of money to build buildings and buy cars for their families, so that they could be clothed and fed. the torture chamber with a smile on their faces."

“Later, the local police in Southeast Asia learned a trick, before they shot those drug-related criminals, they first let those criminals watch their wives and children being dared out of their homes, and then let them watch their buildings being bulldozed by excavators and their cars being torn apart by hydraulic pliers, so that they could see all their efforts being turned into ashes After that, the desperate ones are then dragged off to the execution ground and shot.”

“After that, the number of drug-related criminals really started to get smaller and smaller!”

Speaking here, Ye Chen looked at Ma Kui and sneered, “The same method should be used to deal with dog scum like you! Since money and your family are your faith, your totem in your heart, if I just kill you alone, you will feel in your heart that you are a warrior who generously gave his life for your faith, so I must smash your faith to pieces! No one will be left behind!”

Chapter 4800

Ma Kui’s whole body was struck by lightning and he sat down on the ground, tears and snot streaming down his face while his limbs continued to bleed, and his whole body was completely desperate.

At this moment, a soldier of the Ten Thousand Dragon Hall ran in and said to Wan Bajun, “Hall Master, a car has come in at the eastern entrance of the village, and our sentry has confirmed that the person sitting on the passenger side is Mei Yu Zhen!”

“Mei Yu Zhen?!” Wan Bajun’s eyes lit up and he quickly looked at Ye Chen beside him and asked respectfully, “Mr. Ye, as expected, that Mei Yuzhen has really come to Mexico!”

Ye Chen laughed: “Now she can’t find a place to stay other than Mexico! Mei Yu Zhen, Mei Yu Zhen, I’ve finally waited for you!”

As he said that, he asked the soldier from the Ten Thousand Dragons Hall, “How is the cleaning outside?”

The man hurriedly said, “Back to Mr. Ye, we were already cleaning up the battlefield before the Hall Master came in, all those corpses have now been moved into the empty room above, our generals are turning over the soil inside and outside the courtyard as a way to hide the blood, it’s windy tonight, the smell of blood will dissipate quickly.”

“Good.” Ye Chen nodded and spoke, “When their carriage enters, arrest the man and bring him to me directly!”

The soldier immediately said respectfully, “Mr. Ye, my subordinates follow orders!”

As Man Yingjie drove his car into the entrance of the village, Mei Yuzhen, Xu Mixi, and Sun Huina, who played Man Yingjie’s wife, all breathed a sigh of relief at the same time.

The four of them had been hoofing it for days before they finally arrived at their destination.

In the past few days, the car had hardly stopped, except for refuelling and buying food and drinking water.

As far as they were concerned, the whole of the United States was in danger, so the best thing to do was to reach Mexico as soon as possible.

Moreover, Mei Yu Zhen also planned to go to Mexico first to rest for a few days and keep an eye on getting Lang Hong Jun's operation done, and then go back when the wind was not so tight in the United States.

At this moment, Man Yingjie, who was driving, said with some surprise, "Aunt Mei, why is it so quiet here today?"

Mei Yu Zhen said indifferently, "You don't even see what time it is."

She said, she stretched her back and cursed, "I don't want to take the car again in my life after this trip ....."

Mangying Jie didn't think much of it and skilfully drove to the location where the operating theatre was located.

However, when the car drove near the operating theatre, the crowd suddenly noticed that there were many vehicles listening outside the door of the operating theatre, at least dozens of cars at a glance.

Xu Jianxi, who was sitting in the back row, was also a bit surprised and asked, "Why are there so many cars here? Everyone from the gang has come over?"

Mei Yu Zhen couldn't help but mutter, "Did the boss come over? Looking at this, only when he comes can there be such a big scene."

Xu Mianxi said somewhat nervously, "Sister Mei, if the boss wants to time us, he will definitely blame us for doing a bad job ....."

The actual price of this stuff is so expensive, isn't it to add those sunk costs into it? It's like building a wooden bridge over an abyss of ten thousand feet, a bridge made of wood is not worth anything, what's worth something is the wooden frame that can hold the bridge up over the abyss of ten thousand feet!"

With that, she gave a slight pause and said seriously, "When we meet the boss later, you all should not speak casually so as not to say more than you can say, I will talk to him then, I believe he will be able to give us another chance!"
