

Ye Chen 4801

Chapter 4801

The car in which Mei Yu Zhen was travelling had just driven outside the courtyard when the gate was pushed open from the inside.

Their familiar Ah Liang, along with two unfamiliar-faced Chinese, stepped out of the door together.

Seeing Ah Liang, Man Yingjie, who was driving, hastily poked his head out and greeted them attentively, "Ah Liang, haven't seen you for a while!"

At this moment, Ah Liang was completely forced to come and "greet" Mei Yu Zhen and her group of four, and he looked a bit disoriented, even his reaction speed was much slower than usual.

It was only after Man Yingjie called him for a few seconds that he came back to his senses, barely squeezed out a smile and said, "Yes it's been a while"

After saying that, he hurriedly remembered Ye Chen's explanation and hurriedly said, "Oh right, the boss is fuming down there, you guys hurry up and go down."

The first thing you need to do is to get a good idea of what you're doing. It's not about us, is it?"

"It's nothing to do with you guys" A Liang wiped the cold sweat from his forehead and spoke, "It's Uncle Ma who got into trouble"

When Mei Yu Zhen heard this, she couldn't help but sigh in relief.

For these desperate people like them, a dead friend is their standard mentality.

Although we were all usually in a cooperative relationship, the others would not have any half-hearted sympathy for anyone who got into a situation.

So she asked curiously, "What's wrong with him, Ma? What's wrong with him?"

When Ah Liang heard Mei Yu Zhen ask this, he was furious and couldn't help but curse in his heart, "Everyone was f*cking hurt by you, and you have the f*cking nerve to ask! If you hadn't screwed that Ye Chen's mother-in-law, how would we have been killed by the Ten Thousand Dragons Temple today? If we die here today, you're the f*cking culprit!"

However, how could Ah Liang dare to directly turn against Mei Yu Zhen in front of the two Ten Thousand Dragon Hall generals, so he could only say resentfully, "It's not clear in a word or two, you'll know when you go down and meet him later"

The first thing you need to do is to get a good idea of what you are doing.

The original thought, she did not do a good job this time, how the boss will teach himself a lesson, did not expect Ma Kui unexpectedly broke into trouble at this moment, this is not the same as giving yourself a layer of bulletproof vest? The boss's firepower will be drawn to him, and he will not have much left by the time he gets here.

With that, Mei Yu Zhen was in a much better mood, and only then did she realise that the two Chinese beside Ah Liang were both unfamiliar faces.

In Crazy Juarez, Chinese are not very common, and the only one who can really blend into the core is actually Ma Kui. As for Mei Yu Zhen and Ah Liang, they are actually the underlings developed by Ma Kui.

As for Xu Mianxi, Man Yingjie and the others, they are all another wave of Mei Yu Zhen's underlings developed in the United States and are already considered peripheral members.

Therefore, the sudden appearance of two yellow-skinned Chinese here seemed somewhat strange to Mei Yu Zhen.

So she asked curiously, "Ah Liang, are these two newcomers? How come we haven't seen them before?"

Ah Liang hastily replied with the words Ye Chen had prepared for him, "These two are the new bodyguards hired by the boss, both from the famous Ten Thousand Dragons Temple."

"Ten Thousand Dragons Temple?!" She had been in the grey world for many years and had heard a lot about the Ten Thousand Dragons Temple. Now that she heard that the boss had hired two generals from the Ten Thousand Dragons Temple to be his bodyguards, she blurted out in surprise, "The boss has gotten involved with the Ten Thousand Dragons Temple? He's always wanted to hook up with the Ten Thousand Dragons Temple, but he never got his way!"

Chapter 4802

"Yes." Ah Liang was filled with despair at the thought of the Ten Thousand Dragons Hall, and his whole body was somewhat disheveled as he said, "Boss has hooked up with the Ten Thousand Dragons Hall this time in a sense, it is also considered to be completely hooked up"

Mei Yu Zhen immediately said excitedly, "Great! That's great! What do we have to worry about in the future if we can connect with the Ten Thousand Dragons Temple? We'll be able to walk around in Europe and America and even in the Middle East!"

As she said this, she could also see how dishevelled Ah Liang was and thought that he must be worried because Ma Kui had got into trouble and was being taught a lesson by his boss.

After all, Ma Kui was Ah Liang's umbrella here, if Ma Kui really lost his power, then so she smiled and said soothingly, "Ah Liang, you don't need to be too nervous, Ma has been with the boss for so many years after all, the boss won't be too hard on him."

Ah Liang looked at Mei Yu Zhen and gave a disheveled and miserable smile, saying without meaning to, "I hope so"

Mei Yu Zhen nodded and smiled, remembered something and asked him again, "By the way Ah Liang, that Lang Hong Jun should have arrived already, right? I don't dare to contact the outside world for the past two days, and I don't know his movement."

"It's already here" Ah Liang looked at Mei Yu Zhen and grunted, "Lang Hongjun also met a Chinese on the plane, the two of them had a good chat and the other one said he also wanted to come over as a seafarer, so I asked Uncle Ma and brought them I asked Uncle Ma to bring them back from the airport together."

Mei Yu Zhen laughed, "D*mn, there is still such a good thing, isn't this a god of wealth at your door?"

"God of wealth?" A Liang was slightly stunned, then shook his head and smiled bitterly: "It's the God of Wealth you'll go down and meet that God of Wealth"

Mei Yu Zhen also did not think much about it, just smiled and said, "Lang Hongjun is I tricked, you said the kid, and Lang Hongjun unintentionally brought over, when the time comes, if that kid also turned out to be cash, I have to take half of the commission anyhow."

The first thing you need to do is to get your hands on the money.

A Liang looked at Mei Yu Zhen with a surprised expression, then laughed dryly twice and said, "Forget it Aunt Mei, you can keep it for yourself"

Mei Yu Zhen laughed lightly and said casually, "That's what you said, don't regret it when the time comes."

After saying that, she smiled and said, "Let's go and see that fool who threw himself into the net!"

As she spoke, the four of them, Mei Yu Zhen, had already arrived at the entrance to the underground operating room.

And Mei Yu Zhen had no idea that her life of evil deeds was about to be completely buried here.

Mei Yuzhen stepped down the stairs and saw that there were quite a few people standing inside, but the lights were dim below, so she didn't see anything for a while.

At this time, the shocked Lang Hongjun saw Mei Yuzhen walking down and roared in anger, "Chen Liping, you son of a b*tch!"

Mei Yuzhen was startled by this sudden voice, and when she saw that it was Lang Hongjun who was speaking, she couldn't help but laugh out loud and said, "Aiya, so it's Sister Zhou's son, how is it, is your Auntie Chen still satisfied with the job I introduced to you?"

Saying that, without waiting for Lang Hongjun to speak, she continued, "Oh yes, I never had the chance to tell you, your Aunt Chen my surname is actually not Chen, my surname is Mei, you can call me Aunt Mei!"

Lang Hongjun cursed angrily, "f*ck you! You're a heartless old witch, people like you should die and go to the eighteenth circle of hell for eternity!"

Mei Yuzhen didn't expect Lang Hongjun to scold her right away, but she didn't get angry, she just walked towards him step by step and laughed sarcastically, "Hey, as the saying goes, you can't chase after a poor enemy! For someone like you, who has reached the end of his rope, your Aunt Mei is the one I don't care about."

Chapter 4803

The character of Lang Hongjun is in fact a relatively old-fashioned and somewhat old-fashioned intellectual.

To use a more popular expression nowadays, he is a rather old school person.

He has always had the arrogance of the intellectuals of earlier years, as well as the unique temperament of the individual typical of the poor.

The most important thing is that you can't be too proud of yourself.

Although at the moment, Lang Hongjun did not have to fear for his life, he still found it difficult to restrain the bitterness he felt deep inside towards Mei Yuzhen.

After all, this woman had tried to take his life in the most cruel way, while he had foolishly treated her as if she was a great benefactor.

So, seeing her again right now, the bitter hatred that Lang Hongjun felt for her deep down in his heart could hardly be described in words.

Moreover, he never expected that this Mei Yuzhen would not know that she was dead on her feet.

So, he gritted his teeth and said, "Where did you get the confidence to call me a poor bandit? I have heard that your house has been raided! Your husband and your son have both been arrested! All the black-hearted money you made has also been seized! Decades of hard work have been turned into nothing... I'm afraid you're in great pain now, aren't you?"

When Mei Yu Zhen heard Lang Hong Jun's words, her whole body was shocked and her jaw dropped!

The confidence and arrogance she had just felt instantly disappeared without a trace, replaced by an expression of gnashing of teeth, eyes wide with anger, and even with a seventh degree of madness.

She stared deadly at Lang Hongjun and roared harshly, "How did you know all this? Who told you this?!"

At this moment, Mei Yuzhen was not just angry.

She was more shocked.

Because, she couldn't figure out how a fool like Lang Hongjun, who didn't even know his true identity, could know what had happened to his own family!

She thought to herself in shock, "Those things that happened to the family, other than the carload of people when we arrived, no one else had any way of knowing about it!"

"Moreover, everyone had lost their mobile phones along the way, there was no way to communicate with the outside world, so even if the other three people wanted to tell the others about it, it would have been impossible."

"What's more, even if they were capable of telling others about this matter, it would be impossible to tell this Lang Hongjun at all."

"What's more, even Ma Kui and Juarez here don't know about their own family members, so Lang Hongjun must not have heard about it from them either"

"Then where on earth did he learn about all this?!"

At this time, Lang Hongjun also got the idea to take revenge on Mei Yuzhen and looked at her with a cold smile, "Mei Yuzhen, I didn't expect it, you will have your day too! When your husband and your son get out of prison, the people of the Temple of Ten Thousand Dragons will take them to Syria to do hard labour, and they will never be able to regain their freedom in their lifetime. Because they want to help you atone for your sins!”

“You bullsh*t!” Mei Yu Zhen cursed through gritted teeth, “Don’t you f*cking talk nonsense here! The Ten Thousand Dragons Temple is working with our boss and will be our partner from now on! They helped me get my husband and son out of prison, how could they bring them to Syria to do hard labour? Believe it or not, I’ll have a doctor come over and sew your mouth shut, we want the organs in your stomach and your corneas anyway, not your stinking mouth either!”

Lang Hongjun ignored her and instead looked at Ye Chen, who had been turning his back on Mei Yu Zhen, and hurriedly said, “Older brother, this vicious woman is here, why don’t you clean her up!”

Chapter 4804

Mei Yu Zhen didn’t recognise Ye Chen’s back and just said disdainfully, “What? You still have helpers? Is that the big ingrate who sat with you on the plane and came here with you when you got off the plane? You’ve done a lot of damage to people, and no one who comes here ever leaves in one piece! This old brother of yours, I’m afraid he’s going to be gutted just like you!”

At this time, Ye Chen suddenly turned around, looked at Mei Yu Zhen with interest and asked her with a smile, “Auntie Chen, look at this body of mine, how much can I sell it for from you?”

When Mei Yuzhen saw Ye Chen, she felt a thunderbolt strike her sky!

Her jaw dropped as she blurted out, “Ye Ye Chen, how come you’re here?!”

Night Chen smiled faintly and shrugged his shoulders, “Of course I’m here to find you, you put my mother-in-law in jail, my wife cries every day for me to save her mother out, how do you think I can possibly let you off as the culprit?”

Mei Yu Zhen said coldly, “What? Just by yourself, do you still want to settle scores with me when you get to Mexico?”

Saying that, she coldly snorted, “Night Chen, do you know what place this is? This is the land of Crazy Juarez! The number of people who die here every year is too many to count, and you will only die when you arrive here!”

Ye Chen asked with interest, “The boss of Crazy Juarez, is his name Juarez?”

Mei Yu Zhen said coldly, “That’s natural! Our boss is the famous Juarez!”

Ye Chen nodded, gave a wink to Broken Army and spoke, “Broken Army, drag that guy over here!”

“As you command!” Wan Broken Army replied and immediately dragged Juarez, who had both of his legs ruined, out of the crowd.

When Mei Yu Zhen got a good look at Juarez’s features, her whole body instantly took several steps backwards in fear, and accidentally bumped into Xu Mixi behind her, both of them sitting on their a*s on the ground.

Mei Yu Zhen looked at Juarez, panic incomparable asked: "Old boss you what happened to you?!"

Juarez gritted his teeth and shouted in English, "Mei Yu Zhen, you stinking framer! I'm going to kill you!"

Ye Chen kicked him, sending him off on his heels, and said in a cold voice, "Did I tell you to speak?"

Juarez rolled around on the ground, the pain on his leg was excruciating, but he stiffly dared not grunt a word in front of Ye Chen, and could only honestly shut his mouth.

Mei Yu Zhen looked devastated.

She really didn't expect that her boss had become a dirt dog at Night Chen's feet.

Doesn't this mean that Ye Chen is already in charge here?!

Thinking of this, it suddenly dawned on her and she looked at Ye Chen and said offhandedly, "It was you! It was you who got my family in there, wasn't it?!"

Ye Chen sneered, "I just found out your identity, followed the vine and found your family, your family was already doing something illegal and disorderly, so naturally they should be punished by the law."

Saying that, Ye Chen added: "But what Lang Lao said just now is correct, the punishment of the law is only part of all the punishment they should receive, after they are released from prison, I will let them go to Syria to continue their reflection, so that they can never leave Syria in their lifetime!"

Mei Yu Zhen said in fear, "Ye Chen, if you have anything to do with me, don't do anything to my family! They are innocent!"

Ye Chen laughed, "Am I not coming at you? It's just that you have sinned so much that just taking your life is not enough to pay off those blood debts you owe, that's why I have to make your family pay."

Saying that, Ye Chen added: "Moreover, your family members are not innocent, every penny they live in, the luxury cars they drive, the wastefulness they spend, they all carry blood and human lives!"

Chapter 4805

Ye Chen's words scared Mei Yu Zhen to the point of trembling.

She stared at Ye Chen with a deadly stare and asked the question that was most puzzling in her heart, "Ye Chen, what the hell are you?!"

The others, including Hua Reis and Ma Kui, were also looking at Ye Chen with bewildered faces at this moment.

They were also all curious to know what exactly was the origin of this Ye Chen in front of them.

Ye Chen smiled lightly and spoke, "There are many people who want to know my identity, but you should be the worst level of those people, so you don't deserve to know exactly what my identity is, all you need to know is that the entire Ten Thousand Dragons Hall is loyal to me, and I am not saying this to show off, but to let you know that after you die, I have enough power to make your s family members pay a corresponding price!"

Wan Bajun on the side immediately said in a cold voice, "As long as Mr. Ye gives the order, even if your family members flee to the ends of the earth, I, Wan Bajun, will still bring them back!"

Mei Yu Zhen looked at Ye Chen as if she was looking at a monster.

She had never realized until this moment that she had offended a great man of unparalleled strength for the sake of money!

Ye Chen had the Ten Thousand Dragons Hall in his hands, not to mention bringing his two sons to Syria, even if he had to exterminate his own family, it would be a breeze!

At this moment, Mei Yu Zhen was completely panicked.

She had been evil for half her life, but she had never had a nightmare on a regular basis.

Since the moment she embarked on the path of no return, she had built up an extremely strong psychological construction for herself.

She felt that she was doing it all for the sake of her children and grandchildren, and that as long as they could live well and escape the poverty of her past, it would be worth it even if she was shot.

But such a person, who was not even afraid of death, was precisely pinpointed by Ye Chen.

When her family was in trouble, Mei Yuzhen despaired once, but Xu Mianxi and Man Yingjie made her pick herself up again, and the reason that made her pick herself up was that her sons, who were only suspected of money laundering, which was not a felony in domestic terms, would be out in a few years.

Therefore, before coming here, she had already made up her mind that she would do her best to make money in the future, not only for her sons, but also for her grandchildren.

However, Ye Chen's words completely cut off all the support in her heart.

The thought of her sons going to Syria in the near future to live a life without freedom and in darkness was as painful as a knife twisting in her heart.

She looked towards Ye Chen, her legs suddenly went weak, and with a thud, she knelt on the ground and begged, "Mr. Ye I beg you to spare my two sons As long as you can spare them both, even if you kill me right now, I have no complaints!"

Ye Chen sneered and asked her rhetorically, "Mei Yu Zhen, to negotiate terms, you need to produce chips, think about it now, what other chips do you have to negotiate with me?"

Mei Yuzhen's expression was flustered beyond belief.

She knew that she had no bargaining chips to use in front of Ye Chen.

She cried out in despair, but at the same time, she could not control her choking sobs, "Mr. Ye, my two sons are not very promising, and their brains are not very bright either. ..."

Chapter 4806

Ye Chen sneered, "Mei Yu Zhen, I have read the information on your two sons, they are indeed not very smart and can even be described as a bit stupid, but it doesn't matter, I can see that they are both fat and white, they must have a lot of strength, the Ten Thousand Dragon Temple is building its own permanent base in Syria, there is a shortage of such strong and simple-minded people to do the hard work, they are simply They're perfect for the job."

Mei Yu Zhen howled in fear and couldn't help but beg for mercy, but Ye Chen glared at her with a stern look and said coldly, "Mei Yu Zhen, I'm still going to give your two sons a life, but if you continue to annoy me with your nonsense here, then I may have to change my treatment plan, and if the three of you meet down there, if they blame you, You don't want to regret it."

When Mei Yu Zhen heard these words, no matter how scared she was, she didn't dare to say any more nonsense.

After all, she had long understood the principle that it was better to die than to live.

If her two sons went to Syria in the future, it would be better than being killed silently one day.

So she swung her arm and slapped herself hard, saying nervously, "It's all my fault for my bad mouth, it's all my fault for my bad mouth, Mr. Ye you don't think of me in general"

Ye Chen didn't look at her again, but called Wan Bajun aside and ordered in a low voice, "Bajun, tell your men to bring down all the corpses of those Crazy Juarez members, don't keep any of them, the ones that are alive will be the same by then."

"As you command!" Wan Bajun immediately nodded, then asked Ye Chen in a low voice, "Right Mr. Ye, there are still a few Chinese held in the cell next to us, what about these people?"

Ye Chen said without thinking, "Naturally we can't leave them behind, you go ahead and arrange the things I have explained, I will arrange these people myself."

"My subordinate obeys!"

Immediately after that, Wan Bajun stepped out of the underground operating room, while Ye Chen, on the other hand, stepped back and went straight to the iron fence on the side of the corridor.

At this moment, when the few people being held inside the iron fence saw Ye Chen walking over, they all jumped to the iron fence bar in excitement.

Among them were old ladies in their seventies and eighties, as well as young men in their twenties.

Ye Chen did not expect that this group of people would not even spare old ladies in their seventies and eighties. At this age itself, they were already dying, what value could their organs still have?

And at that moment, one of them, with his eyes staring expectantly at Ye Chen, pleaded offhandedly, "Mr. Ye, Mr. Ye help, Mr. Ye!"

Ye Chen was not half surprised when the other party called himself Mr. Ye, after all, he had just been showing himself as his true identity, and they could naturally hear his name through the iron bars.

Ye Chen looked at the man who spoke and saw that he was only in his thirties and spoke in standard Chinese, so he opened his mouth and asked, "You must also be a Chinese, right?"

“Yes!” The man nodded and pointed to the people around him and said, “We are all Chinese, we were tricked by them, and now we are being held here waiting for an organ match, and those who had a match before were all killed by them.

Ye Chen looked at these eager compatriots and nodded gently, saying seriously, “Don’t worry, I will definitely save you all.”

Saying that, Ye Chen gave a slight pause and continued, “But there is one thing that I need to make clear to you all in advance.”

Several people panicked and said, “Sir, please speak!”

Ye Chen said seriously, “Everything that has happened here today must not be passed on to the outside world.”

The man blurted out, “Sir, don’t worry, after we get out, we won’t say a word! No one who asks will say anything!”

Chapter 4807

At this moment, Ye Chen’s heart was more or less hesitant.

It was not that he doubted these people’s promises.

It was just that he knew very well that once someone with an intention to trace the clues of what had happened here today and find them on these people, the other side definitely had ten thousand ways to make these ordinary people talk.

Not only could they get them to talk, but they could also make them know everything and say everything.

As for Ye Chen, not only was the revenge of his parents unrequited, but even the mysterious organisation that wanted to kill his grandparents’ entire family had not investigated any actual clues at the moment.

Under such circumstances, Ye Chen said that he could not let his identity be made public too soon.

Therefore, he said to these people, “Gentlemen, I will have someone take you out first, and later on, after I finish the matter at hand, I still have some things to discuss with you, after which I will return your freedom.”

At this moment, Ye Chen’s idea was to use his aura to erase these people’s memories of today after the dust had settled, and then have Wan Bajun arrange for someone to send them back to the place they came from.

In this way, no matter who found them and tried to investigate their entire experience in Mexico during this time, it would be impossible to ask anything about themselves from them.

At this moment, in the middle of the iron prison, the very old lady, choked up and begged Ye Chen, “Mr. Ye can you please, let me take my son out too

Ye Chen thought her son was one of these people, so he nodded and said, "Don't worry, I will take everyone out."

The old lady shook her head in tears, then put her trembling left hand through the gap in the middle of the bars, pointed at a man lying in the simple operating room opposite and said in tears, "That is my son, they cut half of my son's liver some time ago, and today they removed one of my son's kidneys, I'm afraid he's already dying... .."

Ye Chen's expression was astonished, then he immediately used his aura to sense it, and instantly found that the man lying on the hospital bed was already dying at this moment.

As the old lady had said, that man's body had already reached the point of exhaustion after being brutalised by this group of devils, and he was afraid that he might die at any moment.

So, Ye Chen immediately looked at that Ah Liang and said in a cold voice, "Hurry up and open the door!"

Ah Liang did not dare to delay, and hurriedly took the key and opened the iron door.

Afterwards, Ye Chen said to the old lady, "Go and see your son, he is dying."

As soon as the old lady heard this, she howled and cried, and her whole body felt a whirlwind, almost about to faint.

Luckily, several of the victims who were also being held here stepped in just in time to help the old lady.

The old lady came back to her senses and, not caring about her weakness, she hurriedly pleaded to the few people around her, "Please, please help me go over to see my son"

Several people hurriedly helped the old lady out from inside and went straight to the operating room across the street.

At this time, the middle-aged man lying on the bed, the breath has been extremely weak, the old lady jumped to the operating table, crying and said: "youngest son, youngest son you wake up ah youngest son, you look at mother, say something to mother can? I beg you my youngest son"

The middle-aged man has already reached the end of life, even breathing has tended to stop, and how can hear the old lady's call.

Ye Chen felt that the old lady's body was also on the verge of failing, so he hurriedly went forward and spoke to the old lady, "Old man, your body is also weak, don't be overly sad."

To Ye Chen, his Spring Returning Pill and Blood Dispersing Heart Saving Pill were basically able to save the old lady's son.

However, Ye Chen was equally clear that all of these pills, without exception, were all worth a fortune, and even for those around himself, it was simply impossible to manage to have one in hand, so in this situation, he naturally did not want to take one out to save a stranger.

In Ye Chen's opinion, although this was somewhat heartless, it was also justifiable.

After all, in this world, there were many suffering people and many dying people, so it was impossible for him to save everyone.

The old lady was in tears, crying and saying: "My youngest son was tricked, saying that he wanted to come to Mexico to work as a seaman, saying that the shelling of the ship would let me enjoy the happiness, I advised him not to come, but he said nothing, I thought I would accompany him to see, I can also rest assured, but who would have thought that I would be tricked here by these animals... .."

Saying that, she looked up at Ye Chen and pleaded bitterly, "Mr. Ye, I beg you I beg you to let someone carry my son out, you don't have to do anything, just help me find an ambulance, if you can't save him, I'll resign myself to my fate... .."

Ye Chen sighed and said seriously, "Old man, his condition isn't just weak, he doesn't even have all his organs now, he's beyond saving, not to mention in a poor country like Mexico, even if we put him in New York now, there's no way anyone could save him and cure him."

The old lady cried and said, "I want to cure even if I can't even if I grasp a kidney and give him one, as long as I can keep him alive for ten more days and nights, I'm willing to do it!"

Ye Chen shook his head and said seriously, "Old man, with your health condition, let alone giving your son a kidney, even the dose of anesthesia needed for general anesthesia for the surgery, you can't bear it."

Chapter 4808

The old lady froze for a long time, looked at Ye Chen and then at her son who was motionless on the hospital bed, and seemed to have resigned herself to her fate.

Then, she slid down to the ground in dismay and murmured in extreme pain, "I have four sons, the first three all died young, only my youngest son survived, for so many years I have lived with him, if he dies, I won't be able to live either"

The old lady looked up at Ye Chen and begged, "Mr. Ye, when the time comes, I ask you to be merciful and arrange for a few strong laborers to help us dig a hole to bury the two of us, so that we can be buried in peace."

Ye Chen did not expect that the old lady had only this one son still alive.

The old woman's grief was so great that Ye Chen could conclude that once her son was completely out of breath, she would probably die on the spot due to excessive grief and anger.

After a moment of contemplation, Ye Chen let out a light sigh and spoke to the old lady, "Old man, you don't have to be so pessimistic first, I have a pill here that might be able to save your son's life."

Saying that, Ye Chen took out a blood dispersal heart saving pill and handed it to the old lady.

It was because he saw that the old lady was really suffering, and Ye Chen did not want to save them from the fire, and in the blink of an eye, the mother and son would be buried in another country, so he decided to help them out.

When the old lady saw Ye Chen hand over a pill, she couldn't help but ask him, "Mr. Ye can this really save my youngest son's life?"

Ye Chen nodded and spoke, "The entrance will save his life, but you can take half of it for him and the other half for yourself, in this way, your son can live and your body can improve a bit, you are not very old, in the future, if you are smooth and happy, living to ninety may not be a dream."

Hearing this, the old lady could not think much about it and gratefully said to Ye Chen, "Mr. Ye, thank you for your great kindness!"

With that, without thinking, she stuffed the whole pill, into her son's mouth.

At this moment, the old lady did not believe that this medicine would necessarily work, but she knew in her heart that this was her last straw, so she had to try it out and take a chance.

What she had never dreamed of was that as soon as the pill entered her son's mouth, it immediately turned into water and flowed into his abdomen.

Just as she was still a little stunned, her son suddenly opened his eyes, and when he saw his mother right in front of him, he couldn't help but ask, "Mother? I I'm not dead yet?"

The old lady was overjoyed, hugging her son and crying, "Youngest son you are not dead, you are still alive!"

The old lady's son subconsciously sat up, and the whole movement was very smooth, not looking half weak.

When he got up, he asked with some confusion, "Didn't they say they were going to operate on me and remove one of my kidneys? Did the operation not make it?"

The old lady was first shocked and then delighted, and hurriedly pulled her son along, saying offhandedly, "Youngest son, quickly, kowtow to Mr. Ye! If he hadn't come to your rescue, you would have died."

The old lady's son still looked surprised, but when he looked down and saw the huge slash in his abdomen that had been hastily stitched up, he immediately realised that his kidney had probably been cut away.

Only when he saw that his mother was already on her knees, he couldn't think much about it and hurriedly followed the old lady to the ground.

The old lady looked at Ye Chen and said with immense gratitude, "Mr. Ye, thank you for saving my youngest son's life"

Ye Chen shook his head helplessly, looked at the middle-aged man and said seriously, "Pity the parents, you must treat the old lady well in the future and give her a good retirement."

The middle-aged man vaguely sensed something and did not dare to hesitate, saying hastily, "Don't worry, I will!"

Ye Chen nodded, just as Wan Bajun led the intake and started to move the bodies of the Crazy Juarez members down, so he said to Wan Bajun, "Bajun, you take all these victims up and find a place for them to rest."

“My subordinate obeys!” Wan Bajun immediately took orders and said to a few people, “A few of you please follow me.”

The old lady suddenly remembered something and reached up her right sleeve and took off a bracelet made of chicken-blood vine, handing it to Ye Chen, “Mr. Ye, I have nothing to repay you, according to my grandmother, this bracelet has been passed down in our family for over a thousand years, it is the only thing of some value in our family, please don’t mind it!”

Ye Chen smiled and said, “Old man, since it has been passed down in your family, then you should keep it well.”

A man beside the old lady, who had helped her over earlier, said subconsciously at this time, “Isn’t this a chicken-blood vine? Yu Auntie, this chicken blood vine bracelet, in our domestic southwest region is still quite common, roadside stalls can buy one for ten dollars, your family how to pass down a thousand years, passed down such a thing ah”

The old lady said with a serious face, “This is not chicken blood vine, this is Fengbone vine!”

Chapter 4809

“Phoenix Bone Vine?”

When Ye Chen heard these three words, his brows suddenly frowned slightly.

In the records of the Nine Mysterious Heavenly Scriptures, there was indeed this medicinal herb, the “Phoenix Bone Vine”, and this medicinal herb was extremely rare in the records of the Nine Mysterious Heavenly Scriptures, and it was described in the book as a heavenly treasure that could not be found.

The main reason why it is said to be a Heavenly Material and Earthly Treasure is because not only is it extremely rare, but it is also extremely susceptible to death in the process of growing.

The vast majority of the Feng Bone Vine, from germination to death, is only three to five years old, and very few can last for more than ten years, while this plant must grow for more than fifty years before its vines begin to lignify, or lignify as they are called in botany.

But the process of woodification of the phoenix bone vine is extremely slow, and it takes at least a hundred years or more to completely woodify from the inside out.

The rare thing is that only when the vine is completely woody does it have medicinal value.

But this thing is inherently rare, and the vast majority of them do not live to the age when they begin to wood up, and even if they do live to that age, very few of them are able to complete wooding completely, so this thing is much rarer than any thousand-year-old ginseng, thousand-year-old ganoderma lucidum, or even ten-thousand-year-old giant clams.

To find a Feng Bone Vine in the true sense of the word is almost the same as trying to find an old man in human society who has lived for 120 or even 150 years and is not paralysed, blind or deaf.

Its rarity can be imagined.

Moreover, there is an even more miraculous aspect of this medicine, the Feng Bone Vine. If it did not have aura as a medium, the medicinal value of this thing, compared to ordinary Chinese herbs, would be nothing remarkable.

However, once it is catalyzed with spiritual energy, it is able to bring out its true powerful medicinal effects.

In layman's terms, it is like nuclear fuel, and only when the nucleus is bombarded with neutrons can it trigger a fission reaction.

This thing, moreover, was the core medicinal material for several higher-grade pills.

With Ye Chen's current strength, what he was able to refine was one of the pills called the Reshaping Dan.

The Reshaping Dan, as the Dan was called, was most adept at reshaping.

Human limbs and organs are not capable of being reshaped and recreated, unlike a gecko, which can be reborn with a broken tail.

Once a limb or organ has been mutilated, it may be disabled for life, or even lose the ability to move and care for itself, or die instantly.

In such cases, the use of the Remodelling Elixir can regrow and restore the body to its original state, regardless of the mutilations.

Ito Yohiko and Tanaka Koji, who had their limbs amputated, and He Yingxiu, who had his arm broken, could all be restored to normal if they had the Remodelling Dan.

As for Li Yalin, whose internal organs were almost all beaten to a pulp except for his brain, and who is now frozen into a stick of ice by the Fei family's freezing centre, he can also come back to life with the Remodelling Pill.

With this Phoenix Bone Vine, all these people would be saved!

Ye Chen originally thought that he might not be able to come across this kind of Phoenix Bone Vine, which only appeared in legends, for decades.

But he never thought that he would come across it here in Mexico, in an underground operating theatre, out of the light of day!

Chapter 4810

Ye Chen was inwardly thrilled, and at the same time, he carefully observed the bracelet handed to him by the old lady. It looked dark brown in colour, but at least a third of the lines were as bright as blood, and the whole was about the thickness of a small thumb.

The main thing is that this phoenix bone vine looks to have a much finer texture, with almost no fine holes visible on the surface, and its blood-like colour is extremely vivid, and the colour matches the feel of the material, which at first glance is the kind of texture that is difficult to synthesise.

However, it was difficult for Ye Chen to tell for a moment whether this was the Phoenix Bone Vine recorded in the Nine Mysterious Heavenly Scriptures or not, so he subconsciously asked, “Old man, are you sure that the material of this bracelet is called the Phoenix Bone Vine?”

“Positive!” I heard my grandmother say that our ancestor practiced medicine for over two hundred years in the Tang Dynasty, and then during the An Shi Rebellion, four generations of old, middle-aged and young people died, leaving only a six-year-old child, and since then, our ancestor’s medical skills were completely lost, but the ancestor who survived inherited this bracelet from his grandfather. At that time, his grandfather told him that the bracelet was made from the Phoenix Bone Vine, which was extremely precious, and asked him to make sure to pass it on, so the bracelet has been passed down to this day.”

When the young man next to him heard this, he couldn’t help but mutter, “Old lady, I’m quite knowledgeable about plants, how come I’ve never heard of such a thing as a phoenix bone vine? Besides, your ancestor handed down such a wooden bracelet, what exactly is so precious about it?”

The old lady shook her head, bewildered, “I don’t know what a phoenix bone vine is, I don’t know what it looks like in nature, and I’m confused as to what is so precious about this bracelet. ...”

She looked at Ye Chen with some shame and said, “Mr. Ye, I didn’t mean to make up a story to deceive you, it’s just that you saved my youngest child, but I am a poor old woman with nothing. Even if it has no real value, it is still more or less of some historical value, I hope you won’t mind”

Ye Chen nodded gently, took that Phoenix Bone Vine in his hand and looked at it extremely seriously for a long time.

After a long time, Ye Chen suddenly remembered the record in the Nine Mysterious Heavenly Scriptures that it was actually very simple to judge the authenticity of the Phoenix Bone Vine, as long as one injected spiritual energy into it, one could feel the surging medicinal power of the Phoenix Bone Vine stimulated by the spiritual energy.

So, Ye Chen slightly transferred some Spiritual Qi into it.

Ye Chen consciously controlled the infusion of spiritual qi, using just a little bit to find out what was going on, but to his surprise, this bit of spiritual qi seemed to stir up a thousand waves, and inside the bracelet in his hand, a force seemed to start surging up immediately!

Ye Chen’s heart was greatly shocked, and he hurriedly withdrew all the spiritual energy, then looked at the old lady and asked seriously, “Old man, do you really want to give me this bracelet?”

“Yes.” The old lady nodded her head repeatedly and said gratefully, “Mr. Ye, you saved my youngest child, if you don’t mind, this bracelet is for you!”

Ye Chen was pleasantly surprised, this bracelet was worth a lot to him, refining a reshaping pill could save a lot of people, and in the future when refining other high grade pills, it might be of even greater use!

What is even more rare is that although the Phoenix Bone Vine is extremely rare, it can be used to make pills in a very economical way.

If he were to make a batch of remodelling pills, I'm afraid he wouldn't even use a tenth of it!

Once he thought of this, Ye Chen said to the old lady, "Old man, this is your family treasure, I am really ashamed to accept it."
