

Ye Chen 4851

Chapter 4851

“What?! You’re Chengqi’s son?! This ..... How is this possible!”

Hearing Ye Chen’s self-introduction, Li Yalin’s expression was instantly incomparably appalled!

He clearly remembered the conversation he had with An Chongqiu not long ago.

On that occasion, talking about the An family’s old man and An Chongqiu’s sister, An Chongqiu had also mentioned his nephew whose whereabouts in life and death were unknown.

He said that the entire An family had travelled almost all over the world to find him.

However, no matter what methods they used, they were unable to find anything about his whereabouts.

Even, many people thought that he must have died and that they just hadn’t found his bones.

But the An family always felt that he must still be living somewhere in this world, they just hadn’t found him yet.

But Li Yalin could never have dreamed that the first person he saw when he came back from the dead and opened his eyes would claim to be An Chengqi’s son.

This made Li Yalin, who came from a police background, his first thought was to question him first.

So he calmed down and analysed: “Why do I feel that I should have been dead already? At that time, I remember that the lift door had just opened and a group of armed men in black shot at me from the lift ..... Those b*****ds had a lot of firepower and hardly any hesitation, before I lost consciousness, I remember I was shot at least twenty to thirty times, I would have been dead through and through, even the reincarnation of the Great Lohas could not have saved me .....”

After saying that, he stared in awe and said offhandedly, “Crap, is this the world after death?!”

Thinking of this, he said without thinking, “So this is the state people are in after they die ..... It’s like dreaming and floating around in all sorts of weird environments all the time ..... So what’s next? Is it to be reincarnated and enter the next reincarnation?”

Ye Chen couldn’t help but laugh and spoke, “I thought that you police officers were all materialistic, but I didn’t expect that you, the famous Chinese detective, would also have such a stupid idea.”

Saying that, Ye Chen raised his voice a few notches and said aloud, “Listen carefully, Li Yalin, you didn’t die, I saved you.”

Li Yalin looked at Ye Chen and waved his hands, “Impossible, absolutely impossible! I just said, I was shot so many times, I was already dead, no one could have saved me ..... So you must not be telling the truth! I’ve been a police officer all my life, I can still figure out this bit of logic!”

I was at the scene, your internal organs were basically shattered, and the pieces of body tissue that were blown off from your body by the bullets, if shoveled together and weighed, must be at least three or five pounds.”

Saying that, Ye Chen took out his mobile phone and from a hidden folder, he found the photo he had taken in passing at the beginning, handed it to Li Yalin and said indifferently, “Take a look, this is what you looked like at that time.”

Li Yalin took the phone somewhat nervously, and when he looked down, he was startled by the picture of himself.

He had been working on cases for many years and had encountered countless, tragic deaths of corpses.

But the only one who could be sieved by so many shots, at close range, was himself.

Seeing the photos, he was even more filled with doubt and blurted out, “sh*t, I’m in this sh*tty state, and now you’re telling me I’m not dead? Do you think I’m that stupid?”

Ye Chen pointed at his dead face in the photo and spoke, “Here, take a closer look at that face of yours, do you find anything strange?”

Li Yalin looked down and saw the pain and resignation on his miserable dead expression, and he blurted out, “What can be strange about it? Are you trying to ask why I have a resigned face?”

Saying that, without waiting for Ye Chen to answer, Li Yalin said in exasperation, “Of course I’m resigned! I just found out that my daughter is pregnant! I was just about to go back and have a good life with the two of them! I was just about to go back and have a good life with them!”

Ye Chen shook his head with a smile and spoke, “What I want you to see is that although your body was beaten into a sieve, your head was lucky not to be hit by a bullet, if a bullet had hit your heavenly head and knocked your brains out at that time, then you would really be dead through and through.”

Chapter 4852

Li Yalin looked at Ye Chen with a puzzled expression, “What do you mean?”

Ye Chen pointed at the towering freezing jars and smiled blandly, “Look carefully at these stainless steel jars around you, these are specially used for human freezing, here you have to focus on jar number seven, because you were frozen in this jar until you woke up.”

Li Yalin was stunned speechless by the stainless steel tanks lined up in front of him, and he asked blankly, “Frozen? What exactly does that mean?”

Ye Chen laughed, “First of all, you were lucky that when you were attacked, there were so many dead soldiers on the other side and no one shot you in the head, so your brain survived;”

Saying that, Ye Chen pointed at Fei Ke Xin behind himself and added: “Secondly you also have to thank Miss Fei, if she hadn’t brought you to this freezing centre of the Fei family to freeze you up, I’m afraid your body would have rotted away long ago;”

Only then did Li Yalin notice that behind Ye Chen, there were actually a few other people standing, one of which, was Fei Kexin of the Fei family!

“Hiss .....” Li Yalin suddenly drew in a cold breath, looked at Ye Chen with his jaw dropped, and opened his mouth to ask, “But this isn’t enough to bring me back to life, is it? From a scientific point of view, no one can cure my injuries, not to mention, I have never heard of being, the scientific community being able to thaw and revive people normally after freezing, they all freeze first, whether or not they can thaw later .....”

Said, he dawned on him, “Oh .....” I get it! I figured it out this time!”

Immediately afterwards, he said with some excitement, “According to what you just said, then I must actually still be in a frozen state right now, right? The reason I’m still conscious now is not because people still have souls after death, but because I’ve been frozen, but my brain hasn’t died completely, so all of this now, including you and including Miss Fei, should have been conjured up by me in that big jar, using my brain.”

After saying that, he pointed at the huge number seven jar and said with certainty, “The real me, or my frozen up body, should still be in that big jar, right?”

Ye Chen laughed dumbly as he listened, turned his head to look at Fei Ke Xin and asked, “Is it so hard to accept this? After all this talk, he still can’t tell the difference between dream and reality.”

Unexpectedly, the crowd had a bewildered but determined look on their faces as they nodded their heads repeatedly.

Hong Wu muttered, “Master Ye .....” If this were me, I might not be as good as him .....” This dude talks a bit logically, he should sound smarter than me .....”

They, as bystanders, also all felt in their hearts that this matter was indeed unbelievable.

As bystanders they couldn’t even accept it all in such a short time, let alone as the people involved.

As Ye Chen watched the crowd’s jaws drop, he helplessly turned back to look at Li Yalin and said indifferently, “Li Yalin, if you want to talk about science, then let’s talk about it from a scientific point of view, how long do you think the human brain, after losing its blood supply, can survive?”

Without thinking, Li Yalin said, “Five minutes! Five minutes at the most! I’ve been a criminal detective for so many years, I’m also considered a half forensic doctor, if a person’s brain is deprived of oxygen for more than five minutes, it will basically cause irreversible major damage, more than five minutes, there is basically only one possibility, brain death, even if the body is saved, heartbeat and breathing are restored, after brain death, the person is never likely to wake up, this is generally the case with vegetative people.”

Ye Chen nodded and said, “Then think about it, you just ran into those armed men at that time, and immediately afterwards you were shot and fell to the ground, although I was also moving very fast, but it still took me two to three minutes to solve those armed men, so half of your window period has already pa*sed!”

“In this case, even if I had a freezer at hand and could stuff you in it, it would take a long time for your brain to cool down from over 30 degrees Celsius to below freezing, and by the time your brain was frozen through, fifteen minutes would have passed, not to mention five minutes.”

“Not to mention, this freezing centre is over a hundred kilometres from downtown New York, and even a helicopter would take half an hour to get there.”

“So, even if you could have been sent over to the freeze in the first place at that time, you would have been brain dead before you got here, so how could you still retain your current consciousness?”

Chapter 4853

Ye Chen’s words put Li Yalin into a trance for a moment.

He found that both of his earlier assumptions were somewhat contradictory at the moment.

Firstly, if everything was now real, it was impossible to explain how he could still be alive after being beaten into a sieve

Secondly, if everything was now just his own consciousness, it would again be impossible to explain how his own brain, in that situation, could have survived.

After all, when the body lost the ability to supply blood, the brain would only last for five minutes at most, and according to that situation at that time, there was no way one could have preserved his consciousness, and since he could not preserve his consciousness, what was this now?

When Ye Chen saw the way he was thinking hard, he said lightly, “Let me tell you how you actually survived.”

Speaking here, Ye Chen gave a slight pause and added, “After you were shot that day, it was me who used my method to preserve your brain from dying, so you could be brought here to freeze without any problems.”

Li Yalin couldn’t help but ask, “Your method? What method?”

Ye Chen hummed and laughed, “There is no need for you to know exactly what the method is.”

Li Yalin asked again, “Then how should I explain the injuries I sustained? Even if you can save my brain, what about my body?”

Ye Chen said with a straight face, “This is where the Remodelling Pill comes in, its medicinal properties are such that no matter how much damage your body has suffered, it can remodel your body.”

Saying that, Ye Chen added, “You can check yourself to see if there are still signs of injury.”

Li Yalin subconsciously tore open the cryogenic protective suit on his body and looked down to see his entire chest, which did not have the slightest scar.

So, he couldn’t help but question, “I’ve been shot so many times, didn’t I even leave a scar on my body?!”

“Right.” Ye Chen said indifferently, “As I said, this is the credit of the Remodeling Dan.”

“Remodeling Dan .....” Li Yalin originally didn’t buy into such arcane things at all, but his mind suddenly recalled a conversation he had once had with An Chongqiu.

On that occasion, An Chongqiu had told him that at a certain mysterious auction, An Chongqiu had offered a price of US$300 billion for an elixir called the Spring Return Pill, but in the end, it was rejected by the other party.

An Chongqiu told him that that rejuvenation elixir could not only cure all diseases, but could even extend one’s life span, by a decade or two.

At that time, Li Yalin’s first thought was also one of disbelief.

But after An Chongqiu had explained in detail, although he was still shocked in his heart, he chose to believe out of his trust in his old friend.

He was thinking in his mind at this point, “If there is really a divine medicine that can make a person twenty years younger in this world, then it doesn’t seem too hard to accept that there is another divine medicine that can reshape a person’s body .....”

Thinking of this, he couldn’t help but say, “This kind of pill you’re talking about, is it the same thing as that legendary rejuvenation pill?!”

Ye Chen laughed: “Aiyo, so you’ve heard of the Spring Return Pill, from my great uncle, right?”

“Your great uncle .....” Li Yalin first froze, and then thought of Ye Chen’s self-introduction when he had just awakened, and suddenly came to a sudden realization and said offhandedly, “It was indeed Chong Qiu who told me about it .....”

Ye Chen nodded and asked with a smile, “Since he mentioned the Spring Return Pill to you, he must have also talked about how he was kicked out by the organizer at the Spring Return Pill auction, right?”

Li Yalin’s eyes widened and he blurted out, “You .....” How do you know?!”

Chapter 4854

“Of course I know.” Ye Chen laughed, “Because just like the Remodeling Pill, the Spring Return Pill is also mine, the organizer behind that auction was me, and I was the one who had him kicked out at the auction at that time.”

Li Yalin was appalled beyond belief and blurted out, “You knew that he was your great uncle, why did you still throw him out?”

Ye Chen said indifferently, “When I kicked him out, I didn’t know his real identity, he was using an alias.”

Saying that, Ye Chen added, “However, even if I knew that he was my great uncle, I would still have kicked him out because he broke the rules I had set. I had had people repeatedly stress before the auction started that whoever auctioned the Spring Return Pill must take it on the spot and absolutely not take it away from the venue, but he chose to challenge my rules with his money, so I could only have him thrown out.”

Li Yalin could not help but sigh in a low voice, “So, I’m really not dead?!”

Thinking of this, he asked again, "I have another question, if you really are An Chengqin's son, then why didn't you identify with your grandparents' family for so many years when you knew your identity and background?"

Ye Chen smiled faintly and asked, "What? You still question my identity even now?"

Li Yalin slowly sat up, looked at Ye Chen and said seriously, "I just think this matter is too strange, if you really are that Ye Chen, the An family has been pouring out all the strength of the whole family to look for you, it is impossible that they have not been able to find you, I remember that you were only eight years old when you disappeared, even if you are capable, it is impossible that you could have evaded the An family's search at the age of eight ....."

The reason they can't find me is not because I'm well hidden, it's just that all the people who want to find me have got the wrong direction, everyone knows that I disappeared in Jinling, they all think I've left Jinling long ago, but they don't know that I've actually been in Jinling for the next twenty years, maybe that's what they call darkness under the lamp."

Saying that, Ye Chen added: "As for you asking me just now why I didn't identify with my grandparents, the answer is actually very simple, because I didn't want to."

"Don't want to?" Li Yalin frowned, but in his heart, he felt that it was nothing to be surprised that Ye Chen didn't want to, after all, he had also heard An Chongqiu say that the An family's old man, who was not friendly to Ye Chang Ying, could even be said to look down on him somewhat, if he were Ye Chen, his grandfather had always looked down on his father, he probably wouldn't want to meet him either.

At this time, Li Yalin remembered something else and hurriedly asked again, "You just said that you were at the scene when my accident happened, then you should know that your grandparents' family was also at the scene, and the group of people who killed me should have been running towards them, how are they now?!"

Ye Chen said indifferently, "I saved them, those killers who killed you, almost all of them were taken out by me."

Li Yalin sighed in relief and asked again, "Are all the An family members alright?"

Ye Chen said casually, "All the An's are fine, but that third aunt of mine took poison and killed herself because she was in cahoots with those killers and they were all minions of some mysterious organisation."

Li Yalin asked, dumbfounded, "What did you say?! This ....." How is this possible ....." Although Dong Liqin's family is nowhere near your grandfather's family, her parents, too, are very powerful and wealthy Chinese Americans, worth at least ten billion dollars, how could she, as the only daughter of the Dong family, be under the control of some mysterious organization?"

Ye Chen said indifferently, "Even if her family is worth tens of billions of dollars, she is probably just a white glove of this organization, or even just a pawn, this organization is probably far more powerful than you can imagine."

Saying that, Ye Chen gave a slight beating and spoke, "This is a long story, I think you might want to change your clothes first, let's change places and sit down to have a good chat!"

Chapter 4855

Li Yalin also felt that it was indeed a bit indecent for him to just sit in this pool that had been emptied of water.

So, he asked awkwardly, "That ..... Where are the clothes that can be changed for me ....."

Ye Chen looked at Fei Kexin at the side and said, "Miss Fei, you can help Inspector Li with this problem."

Fei Kexin nodded and busily said, "There are a lot of researcher's work clothes here, I'll fetch a set for Inspector Li!"

Ye Chen nodded and said, "Good, hard work Miss Fei."

Fei Ke Xin turned around and left, quickly bringing back a set of work clothes for Li Yalin.

After Li Yalin wrapped himself in the overalls, he followed Ye Chen and went to the lounge next door.

Ye Chen handed Li Yalin a bottle of water, which he took and then couldn't wait to drink the entire bottle before wiping his most and couldn't help but say, "Ye ..... Young master Ye, thank you for saving your life ..... I, Li Yalin, don't know how to say anything cosmetic, but since this life of mine was saved by you, in the future, if you need me, Li Yalin, in any way, I will definitely die!"

Ye Chen nodded and said, "Don't say it, I really need you for some things."

Li Yalin respectfully arched his hand, "Young Master Ye, please speak!"

Ye Chen held out two fingers and said indifferently, "Two things, firstly, after you go out from here, you must not mention to anyone that you have seen me, if others ask, especially the An family, just say that you yourself are not sure, you were just sent out after you woke up in the Fei family's freezing centre."

Li Yalin was surprised and asked, "Young Master Ye, you saved the An family's oldest and youngest, why haven't you identified with them yet?"

Ye Chen said lightly, "This is related to the second thing I want to talk to you about next, which I will talk to you about in more detail later."

Li Yalin nodded and said with a bit of a headache, "Young Master Ye, if the An family finds Miss Fei and asks for the truth, how are you going to explain?"

Ye Chen said, "You don't have to worry about that, I will arrange it myself, you just keep your mouth shut and don't let anyone know, including your wife and daughter."

Li Yalin agreed without thinking and said, "Young Master Ye, don't worry, I will never tell anyone."

After saying that, he asked Ye Chen, "Young Master Ye, what is the second thing?"

Ye Chen said, "The reason why I didn't immediately identify with the An family is also because these a*sa*sinated dead soldiers are from a very unusual background, according to my understanding, this is a mysterious organization that has existed for at least two to three hundred years or even longer, just the dead soldiers bred have been bred for nearly twenty generations, before I can figure out where they came from, I don't plan to go and meet with my Grandpa and Grandma."

Li Yalin asked in disbelief, "A mysterious organisation for hundreds of years? I've been a police officer for so many years and I've never heard of such a thing ....."

Ye Chen said, "I once heard my father's old men talk about it, back when my parents died, they were besieged by a group of dead soldiers, after these people got their hands on them, they all bit the poison in their mouths and died on the spot, the method is the same as the gang of dead soldiers I met at the gym, although twenty years have passed since these two incidents, but considering that the other party is an organization that has continued for hundreds of years, I think that these two incidents are likely to be the work of the same group."

Li Yalin asked curiously, "Young Master Ye, how did you learn that this organisation has a history of several hundred years?"

Ye Chen said, "I captured a live witness and asked some information about the dead soldiers from his mouth."

Chapter 4856

Saying that, Ye Chen told Li Yalin all the information he had gotten from that "five-four-seven" at that time.

After hearing this, Li Yalin was stunned and could not speak for a long time.

He muttered: "In a few hundred years, many countries in this world have ceased to exist, and in between, they have experienced countless global wars and disasters, two world wars and the Spanish Flu affected the whole world, in addition to that, Europe fought countless wars, from the Seven Years' War to the Napoleonic War, the Franco-Prussian War, and then the birth and disintegration of the Soviet Union, Asia Ye experienced Opium War, the Russo-Japanese War, the establishment of the new China, and the United States also fought the Civil War ..... The whole world has fought into a mess in the past two or three hundred years, many countries and regimes are unable to protect themselves, a mysterious organization, what exactly is relying on to continue for so many years ....."

Ye Chen spoke, "This is also the question I have been curious about, not only has this organization existed for hundreds of years, but their strength has also been developing and growing over the past few hundred years, those huge changes in the international situation you mentioned have never seemed to have anything to do with them, this is what I am most most amazed about."

This is what surprised me the most." As he said that, Ye Chen looked at Li Yalin and said, "Your situation is rather special, the people who have seen you in this organization, except for the one I left alive, all the others are dead, and your appearance at the scene that day was a chance event in itself, definitely not in their intended plan, so I believe that organization will not focus on you for the time being, and you have been a detective for so many years of detective, you must have an excellent skill in clue tracking, so I hope that you can help me find out the clues related to this organization after you return to real life."

Li Yalin nodded and said without thinking, "That's no problem, whether it's out of repaying you for saving my life or out of my friendship with the An family, I'll do my best."

Saying that, he couldn't help but sigh and said, "It's just a pity that I'm no longer an inspector now, if I still had this identity around, the police intelligence system could bring me a lot of help."

Ye Chen waved his hand and said very seriously, "Not to mention that you are now retired, even if you are not retired, investigating this matter must never, never use the internal intelligence channels of your American police, after all, the threshold of the American police is too low, such a huge organization, even the An family they were able to infiltrate, and it was a direct way to turn the informant into the daughter-in-law of the An family, I believe The U.S. police, the FBI, and even the CIA have their eyes inside, and once you investigate them through intelligence channels within the police, they will definitely be the first to know." ,

"That's true." Li Yalin smiled sarcastically and laughed to himself, "Ever since Fei Hao Yang's accident, it feels like my judgement is no longer as accurate as it used to be."

Saying that, he looked at Ye Chen and added: "The matter of Fei Hao Yang, it should be your doing, right Young Master Ye?"

Ye Chen did not cover up, nodded frankly and said, "That's right, the crimes of this gang are too numerous to write, and the most D*mnable thing is that they even aimed at people close to me, so of course I will not let go."

Li Yalin nodded and sighed, "I had been wondering before which part I had overlooked, but I just never guessed on you."

Saying that, he smiled to himself and hurriedly added, "By the way Mr. Ye, where is the live man you captured now? I'd like to find a chance to meet with him and see if I can ask for any details."

Ye Chen said, "I asked the people of the Ten Thousand Dragons Temple to take him to Syria, so you can go home to meet with your wife and daughter in the meantime, and then go to Syria to meet with him when it is convenient."

"Ten Thousand Dragons Temple?" Li Yalin asked in surprise, "Young Master Ye has cooperation with the Ten Thousand Dragons Temple?"

"No cooperation." Ye Chen said indifferently, "But the Ten Thousand Dragons Hall is now mine."

Chapter 4857

When Li Yalin heard this, his entire body was stunned and he could not come back to his senses for a long time.

Because of his previous occupation, he was very familiar with the Ten Thousand Dragons Temple, moreover, he even knew that the Temple had invested a huge amount of money to build its own permanent base in Syria.

For a mercenary organisation, to be able to achieve having a permanent base, that was basically a big step ahead of other similar mercenary organisations all of a sudden.

Mercenaries are more disgusting to the law enforcement agencies of various countries than grey forces like the Hongwu.

The vast majority of mercenary organisations are like rats in the street in every country in the world, and can only survive in secret, never daring to show their signboards in a dignified manner, unless the organisation can cooperate deeply with the government.

Although there are many mercenary organisations in the US, apart from a few that cooperate with the White House and specialise in serving as cannon fodder for the White House, the rest are basically hidden quietly in the US, most of them are made up of US military veterans, and in order not to be cracked down by the police in their own country, they can only live normally in their own country in the form of a single soldier, and then go overseas to take on missions.

For example, there are mercenary organisations with a total of just over 100 people, all of whom usually have their own cover identities and jobs, pretending to be law-abiding citizens, and then disguising themselves as tourists when they receive an assignment to leave the country.

Although it is not illegal in the country, they are armed combatants, so they have to be watched closely in the country, and always have to be sneaky.

It is this that limits the development of most mercenary organisations.

But once a mercenary organisation, can openly and honestly have its own permanent base, this is all of a sudden a completely different story.

When the Dragon Temple was working with Syria, the US CIA investigated the reasons for this and even tried to intervene to prevent the Dragon Temple from growing too strong in Syria and affecting the entire mercenary industry.

But Syria was determined to cooperate with the Dragon Temple, and it was said that it had something to do with Hamid, a very influential opposition group in Syria, and that there seemed to be some kind of agreement between the Dragon Temple, the Syrian government forces and Hamid.

At that time, when this news came back, the US CIA immediately made the deduction that within the next two to three years, the Hall of Ten Thousand Dragons could leapfrog to become the most powerful mercenary organisation in the world.

Now, Ye Chen suddenly said that the entire Ten Thousand Dragons Temple was his, which really shocked Li Yalin.

Immediately, Li Yalin suddenly remembered something and he blurted out, "Young Master Ye ..... I remember ..... There was also a rumour before that the Ten Thousand Dragons Hall had conquered the Yanjing Ye Family ..... Could it be that this is all a smoke bomb that you put out?"

"Right." Ye Chen said bluntly, "Before the real enemy appears, I will try to hide my strength and bide my time, if the outside world knows that the Ten Thousand Dragons Hall has subjugated the Ye family, this matter will certainly cause a huge uproar, then I am afraid that my identity can not even be hidden, so instead of this, let the outside world think that the Ye family has been pinched by the Ten Thousand Dragons Hall, and is even no longer enough to be feared, as long as the outside world does not concerned about the Ye Family, my identity can remain hidden."

Li Yalin nodded gently and said, "Since the people who killed your parents and the people who tried to kill your grandparents the other day probably belong to the same organization, then you really have to be calm and try to hide your sharpness. If they know that you are still alive, I am afraid that the other side will immediately take action against you."

“Yes.” Ye Chen said indifferently, “I don’t like the situation where the enemy is dark and I am clear, so while the enemy is dark and I am darker, it is urgent to find out more clues about them.”

Li Yalin said with a straight face, “Don’t worry, Young Master Ye, I will make a trip to Syria as soon as possible to meet with that live mouth.”

Ye Chen looked at the time and spoke, “Alright, those are the two things I need you to do, you can leave here now.”

Saying that, Ye Chen added, “By the way, the An family has not left New York recently, they have been landing at the Anbang Mansion in Manhattan, I suggest you go and meet them first, as they are very concerned about you.”

Chapter 4858

“Good.” Li Yalin said without thinking, “Then I’ll go and meet them first, since the outside world doesn’t know that I was there that day, so if I go to the Anbang Mansion, even if the other party is secretly watching the situation at the Anbang Mansion, they shouldn’t be suspicious of me, after all, I’ve been friends with your great uncle’s for many years, and our family is a family friend with the An family Ye, so it’s only natural for me to visit the Anbang Mansion.”

Ye Chen nodded and said, “They had met me that night and knew that you were taken away by someone I had arranged, only they should not have thought that you could come back to life, after you had met, you should tell them that it was a mysterious person who saved you after giving you an elixir, and then have Miss Fei send you to meet them, as for who the mysterious person really is, you don’t know, they will definitely put the person who saved you, and the person who saved them together, and let them guess the rest on their own.”

“Okay Young Master Ye!” Li Yalin said seriously, “I’ll make a note of it.”

Ye Chen nodded, opened the door to his room, called Fei Ke Xin in and spoke, “Miss Fei, please arrange for a helicopter to personally take Inspector Li to the Anbang Mansion in Manhattan, it would be best to contact my great uncle in advance, say that you have something to visit, when I saved them that day, you were the one who led the people responsible for the aftermath at the scene, they will definitely not be overly wary of you.”

Fei Ke Xin respectfully said, “Okay Mr. Ye, I’ll contact the An family and say hello to them.”

At this very moment.

Manhattan’s Anbang Building.

The An family was meeting together to summarise and discuss the recent situation in various areas.

Master An’s recent Alzheimer’s symptoms were still worsening, so every day when he woke up, the old lady and several of his children had to spend a long time explaining to him what was going on today.

Although he has no direct memory of what happened on that day, after listening to his children’s explanations, he was able to immediately sort out the current situation.

Since the accident until now, the An family has not left New York.

Although they had started to resume handling various family affairs, the old man had decided to keep everyone away from An Bang Mansion for the time being for safety's sake.

Ye Chen's brother-in-law, An Zhaonan, had always wanted to go to his wife Dong Liqin's maternal home to find out what was going on. It had been difficult for him to accept that the love of his life, whom he had known for almost 20 years, was a killer hiding in the shadows, and he even wanted to follow this line of enquiry and investigate a little deeper.

But the An family's men soon sent back word that everyone in the Dong family had disappeared overnight, as if they had vanished into thin air.

An Kaifeng instructed his men to look into the Dong family's a*set trail, and it took several days before he finally found out some information.

Then, An Kaifeng reported to his family, "The people I sent out found, after investigation, that the Dong family's businesses, equity, debts and all real estate had all been liquidated before the incident, some were sold, some were mortgaged, in short, they did everything they could to turn all kinds of a*sets into money."

An Zhaonan hurriedly asked, "Then although they disappeared, they always had to take this money with them, right? We can always find some clues if we follow the money down the line."

An Kaifeng shook his head and said seriously, "The bad thing is that the Dong family liquidated all their a*sets to the tune of over seven billion dollars, and surprisingly, they didn't take a single penny with them."

"What?" An Chongqiu exclaimed, "Didn't take it away?! What about this money?"

An Kaifeng said, "They set up a family trust before the incident, but instead of putting the money in immediately, they packed all the a*sets into the trust after our accident and then evaporated."

Saying that, Ankaifeng added, "I guess it was after they determined that the mission had failed."

"f*ck!" An Chongqiu immediately cursed, "These people are really arrogant! They didn't take the money with them, they just put it into the family trust, so they are clearly trying to tell us that they will come back!"

Chapter 4859

In Europe and the United States, family trusts are a very secure way to protect a*sets.

The reason for this is that while the fathers and grandchildren are the ones who make the fortunes, the children and grandchildren are the ones who squander their money, have low vision and are incompetent in keeping their businesses, which can easily lead to family bankruptcy and overnight reversion to their original form.

The reason for this is that the ability and character of the children and grandchildren are uncontrollable, and once his ability and character are in question, it is difficult to prevent the family from going into decline.

Not to mention that in addition to man-made disasters, there are also natural disasters.

However, the family trust effectively eliminates the risk of natural and man-made disasters.

By placing your own money in the trust, you have explicitly relinquished direct control of the money, and only your descendants or designated heirs will be able to access the money in the trust under certain circumstances.

Therefore, even if one runs into major problems in the future, causing the whole family to go into debt, collapse or even go bankrupt, the government as well as the creditors theoretically have no right to dispose of the other party's family trust.

This is the fundamental reason why many of the oldest families in Europe and the US have been able to remain wealthy for generations or more than a dozen generations.

Although the Dong family has evaporated, the money is loaded into the family trust, which is a foolproof way of keeping it, without having to worry about losing control of the business if the person is gone, or the assets being devalued or accidentally lost if the person is gone.

Instead of diminishing, this money thrown into the trust will grow and grow, and even the federal government cannot take the money out of it.

This move would also mean the attitude of the Dong family, or the mysterious organisation behind the Dong family.

The human evaporation is only a temporary strategic retreat, and they will definitely come back in the future.

The old man said with a grave expression at this time, "This series of operations of the Dong family, so calm and decisive, I feel that they should not have been developed halfway by that mysterious organisation, but probably have been a member of that mysterious organisation from the beginning to the end."

Speaking of this, he looked at the oldest three, An Zhaonan, and said seriously, "Zhaonan, from the time you and Dong Liqin met to the time you got married, it was probably a complete and utter set-up!"

An Zhaonan hesitated for a moment and said seriously, "Dad ..... What you're talking about, it shouldn't be too much ..... I was still in school when I met Dong Liqin, that organization couldn't have aimed at me nineteen years ago, right?"

Second brother An Kaifeng remembered something and asked out of the blue, "Zhaonan, you just said, nineteen years ago, you and Dong Liqin met nineteen years ago?"

"Right." An Zhaonan nodded and said truthfully, "I knew her when I was in my final year of my master's degree at Harvard, nineteen years ago indeed."

An Kaifeng murmured, "Big sister died twenty years ago ....."

"Yes." An Zhaonan said, "It was Dong Liqin whom I met the year after the death of my elder sister ....."

In this instant, An Kaifeng, An Chongqiu, and the old man, An Qishan, all changed their faces!

An Kai Feng blurted out, "The year after big sister died, you met Dong Liqin ..... Dong Liqin has been hiding by your side for a full nineteen years until this accident ..... This group of people who want to kill us, and big sister was killed back then, should not be able to get away with it!"

An Qishan was horrified, "If that's true, they weren't satisfied after killing Chengqi and Changye, but they followed up by carefully planting a time bomb around Zhaonan that took nineteen years to detonate. If they were trying to take out the entire An family, why did they wait so long?"

"Yeah ....." The elder An Chongqiu was also full of confusion and spoke, "They are so strong, if they really have any deep hatred, there is no need to wait until today to strike at us ....."

An Qishan said, "The key is that I really don't understand how much hatred or grudge these people have with us, to play such a big game with us ....."

An Zhaonan couldn't help but say, "Dad, big brother, second brother, Dong Liqin may not have been planted by the other side to me nineteen years ago, right? It's also possible that they were turned or coerced in the middle of this."

"Not likely." An Chongqiu shook his head, "If Dong Liqin was turned in the middle, then the Dong family must have been turned together in the middle as well, but this series of actions of the Dong family cannot be explained, I am more inclined to think that Dong Liqin, including the entire Dong family, is an outright deception!"

An Kaifeng nodded in agreement, and then looked at An Zhaonan and asked, "Zhaonan, can you recall the details of how you met at the beginning?"

An Zhaonan said, "It was when I had just started my second year of my master's degree and she was new to her master's degree, at the welcome dance for new students, a black guy kept hara*sing her, I felt that we were all compatriots and could not stand it somewhat, so I went up and helped her out, since then we both left our contact information with each other and then we fell in love normally."

An Kaifeng exchanged a look with An Chongqiu, then said in a decisive manner, "A plot like a hero saving a beautiful woman doesn't sound right, it sounds like a deliberate set-up for you!"

An Zhaonan said, "It's not really a heroic rescue, but I just said a few words for her, and the other party is not a punk, but also a Harvard graduate student, so he was quite sensible and backed off at that time."

An Chongqiu asked him, "Zhaonan, have you seen that black student since?"

"This ....." An Zhaonan thought for a moment and spoke, "I don't remember much, I don't think I've seen him, and I really didn't take this person to heart."

An Kai Feng sighed and lamented, "It seems that this person is nothing but a flag that pushes the wave, his appearance is to help Dong Liqin and you create an opportunity to get acquainted."

Saying that, An Kaifeng asked again, "Zhaonan, can you tell me how you fell in love with Dong Liqin? And, what exactly attracted you to her that made you decide to marry her home?"

An Zhaonan thought about it and said seriously, "As far as I remember, she gave me the impression at the time that she was a woman who had grown completely on my aesthetics in both looks and figure .....

"I have always liked that more classical oriental beauty, rather than the excessive passion and exuberance of the western kind, in addition to that, is her bird-like character, most girls at Harvard are more assertive and relatively strong, not quite suitable for macho men, but Dong Liqin is relatively much softer, with her, she is obedient to me in everything, always let me very well I decided to marry her, and after so many years of marriage, her character has hardly changed, always the same as when we fell in love, in any way, giving me a perfect feeling, even if I occasionally dabble in sex outside, she can ....."

An Chongqiu nodded and said categorically, "There is no need to doubt, she is the perfect woman for you by that mysterious organization ..... This bureau has been working around you for nineteen years."

The old man suddenly slammed the teacup in his hand onto the floor and shouted angrily, "These people, they must be the murderers of Chengqi and Changye back then!"
