

Ye Chen 4861

Chapter 4861

The old man's sudden roar caused the three An brothers' faces to flinch.

Although everyone had gradually realized this conclusion, when the old man said it, everyone still felt a chill run down their backs.

An Kaifeng said with a puzzled expression, "I don't understand What kind of enmity or grudge do these people have with us, why do they have to die staring at us for twenty years and not stop?"

An Zhaonan said doubtfully, "The An family's a*set accumulation really didn't do anything harmful to heaven and earth! Over the years, most of our a*sets have come from angel investments back then, especially my sister, who has supported almost half of Silicon Valley by herself, who would have such a blood feud with us?"

An Chongqiu said with a cold face, "Perhaps, they are trying to get something from us."

An Zhaonan asked him, "Big brother, what you mean is that they want our money?"

"I can't say." An Chongqiu said, "I just think that the other party is so deliberate, the odds are that it's not as simple as seeking revenge."

Senior An Qishan frowned and said, "If it's a quest for money, there's no need to kill us all, right? These days the vast majority of property is digital, it's all a series of numbers in bank accounts, securities accounts and trust accounts, and every penny is registered, even if we were all killed, there's no way our a*sets would fall into his hands!"

An Chongqiu nodded, "That's what I can't figure out"

The four of them, father and son, fell into deep thought for a moment.

Just then, the youngest daughter, An Youyou, knocked on the door and said outside the door, "Dad, Miss Fei called to say that she wanted to come over for a visit later on."

"Miss Fei" The old man frowned and subconsciously asked, "Which Miss Fei?"

An Chongqiu hurriedly said, "Dad, are you not remembering clearly again, Miss Fei, the one I told you about this morning, the one who was called over by that mysterious benefactor to deal with the aftermath after our accident, Fei Kexin, the current head of the Fei family."

The old man's brows knitted together for a moment before he remembered and hurriedly said, "Miss Fei has been equally kind to my An family, prepare to greet her."

An Chongqiu hurriedly asked An Youyou, "Youyou, how is Miss Fei coming over?"

An Youyou said, "Miss Fei said to come by helicopter and land directly on the roof of the building."

Without thinking, the old man said, "Help me go to the rooftop, I want to greet her personally as a sign of importance!"

An Chongqiu was busy saying, "Dad, just wait here, I'll go and greet Miss Fei."

The old man said without any doubt, "No, I have to go!"

He said to An Chongqiu, "Chongqiu, you go with me to greet her, and Kai Feng go and gather the others to wait in the parlour.

An Kaifeng immediately nodded and said, "Yes dad, I'll go and make the arrangements."

Seeing this, An Chongqiu did not say anything more, but said to An Youyou, "Youyou, inform the security, do a security check when the time comes, safety is still the main priority during special times."

The old man immediately said, "No need! Miss Fei has helped us so much, she can't possibly be against us, if they come to visit us and we still do security checks, it's a distrust of them."

Seeing that the old man was resolute, An Chongqiu had no choice but to nod, but he still instructed An Youyou to say, "Youyou, you must be more cautious inside, in case there are any unexpected circumstances, close the entrance in time."

An Youyou nodded, "Okay big brother, I understand."

At this moment, the old man said to An Chongqiu, "Chongqiu, find me a picture of Miss Fei, so that I don't get the wrong person when I meet her."

An Chongqiu hurriedly searched some photos of Fei Ke Xin from the internet with his mobile phone and handed them to the old man.

Chapter 4862

After looking at them a few times, the old man handed the phone back to An Chongqiu, but he was suddenly struck by a figure that flashed through his mind, and then he couldn't help but ask, "Right Chongqiu Is Yalin taken away by that Miss Fei?"

An Chongqiu asked in surprise, "Dad, you remembered Yalin?"

The old man said, somewhat lost in thought, "I just had an image flash through my head, as if I remembered that day when that benefactor said that Yalin had died"

He said, he hurriedly asked, "Chongqiu, did that benefactor say that day, Yalin's body, he would have someone take it away for a thick burial?"

An Chongqiu, while shocked that his father could still remember bits and pieces of that day, mourned, "The benefactor did say that at that time, I reckon he might have left this matter to Miss Fei."

The old man's eyes reddened and he blamed himself, "I'm sorry for Yalin, I'm sorry for his old man, and I'm even more sorry for his wife and daughter"

An Chongqiu was busy relieving him, "Dad, it's not your fault alone, it's our An family that owes him."

The old man asked him, "What did you do about Yalin's wife and daughter?"

An Chongqiu said helplessly, "I can't deal with his wife and daughter's side His wife kept calling me to ask about his whereabouts, but I had to lie and say I didn't know Both of their wives have called the police, but the NYPD hasn't found any clues"

“Ai” The old man sighed and admonished, “Find a way to send some money to his wife and daughter, give 500 million dollars, and prepare another 500 million to be given to the child’s name after the child is born, but before giving it, get his son-in-law to agree that the child will be born with Yalin’s surname Li.”

An Chongqiu was surprised and asked, “You still remember that?”

His Lordship sighed lightly, “I only remembered it just now when I was in a trance, but I may not remember it again when I wake up tomorrow, so you must remember it and make sure you find a way to implement it as soon as possible.”

“Good.” An Chongqiu nodded and said, “After this period, I will find a suitable reason to implement this matter, otherwise, I am afraid that his wife and daughter will think too much about it.”

The old man gave a hint and instructed, “Just don’t forget, it’s not too late to do it when the child is born.”

“Okay!” An Chongqiu agreed, and only then did he assist the old man, and the two of them went together to the rooftop on the top floor.

At this moment, the helicopter that Fei Ke Xin and Li Yalin were on had already flown into the skies over Manhattan.

Sitting at the window, Li Yalin looked out at the high-rise and prosperous Manhattan and felt a lot of emotions in his heart.

In fact, up until now, he had not been able to completely accept the reality that he had come back from the dead.

The helicopter soon arrived at the helipad on the top floor of the Anbang Building, and then slowly descended.

At this moment, Li Yalin was still wearing a mask and sunglasses, plus he was wearing a researcher’s uniform, so no one could tell that this was the Chinese detective, Li Yalin, who had been missing for some time.

As soon as the helicopter stopped, the co-pilot came out of the cockpit and opened the cabin door for Fei Ke Xin and Li Yalin.

Fei Kexin came down first, followed by Li Yalin, and at that moment, the old man, An Qishan, was also greeted by An Chongqiu.

Because of his Alzheimer’s disease, An Qishan’s memory of Fei Ke Xin was something he had learned from his children in the morning, just like hearing a story.

However, he knew that Fei had helped the An family at a crucial moment and, in his usual style of repaying favours, he was extremely grateful to her.

Since he had just seen Fei Kexin’s photo, when he saw her coming down from the helicopter, An Qishan took the initiative to go forward and said loudly, “Hello, Miss Fei, we meet again!”

Chapter 4863

Fei Ke Xin didn't expect the old man to remember her, so she quickly said respectfully, "Old Mr. An, how have you been lately?"

The old man nodded and said to Fei Ke Xin, "Thanks to Miss Fei's service, I have been doing quite well lately."

Fei Ke Xin said, "Mr. An, don't say that, I am a junior, how can I afford it!"

On the other side, An Chongqiu also nodded politely to Fei Kexin and said, "Hello, Miss Fei!"

Fei Ke Xin responded with equal respect, "Hello, Mr. An!"

An Chongqiu asked with a concerned expression, "Miss Fei, may I ask where my good brother, Li Yalin, is buried at the moment? If it's convenient, please give me an address, I would like to go and pay my respects."

Before Fei Ke Xin could say anything, Li Yalin, who was wearing a mask and sunglasses, suddenly spoke up, "An Chongqiu! Your brother Li is not dead yet!"

With these words, Li Yalin stunned An Chongqiu as well as An Qishan who was beside him!

Both of them could hear that it was Li Yalin's voice.

However, neither of them could believe that the person in front of them would be Li Yalin.

After all, that day at the gymnasium, those deadly soldiers had beaten several of the An Family's top experts into a beehive, and even if they had not seen Li Yalin's corpse with their own eyes, they knew that there was no way that Li Yalin, who had taken the brunt of the attack, could have survived.

Moreover, Ye Chen, who had saved them that day, had also said that Li Yalin was already dead and could not be saved by the immortals.

So how could they believe that Li Yalin could appear alive in front of them at this moment?

When Li Yalin saw the An family staring at him with wide eyes and not saying a word, he pulled off his mask and sunglasses and said, "It's me! I'm not dead!"

"Crap!" An Chongqiu said out loud in shock, "I'm not f*cking dreaming You How did you come back to life?!"

An Qishan at the side also couldn't help but sigh, "Yalin, is it really you?"

Li Yalin nodded his head and said respectfully, "Uncle An, it's really me!"

An Chongqiu came back to his senses and patted Li Yalin's face and shook his shoulder, asking incredulously and excitedly, "Old Li What the hell is going on here! I can't even use my brain!"

Li Yalin let out a long sigh and lamented, "This is a child without a mother, it's a long story"

An Qishan at this time was incredibly relieved to come forward, swept An Chongqiu up, and said repeatedly, "Yalin, no matter what, you're still standing here, I'm so relieved for my old bones!"

An Chongqiu was also overwhelmed with excitement, embracing Li Yalin tightly and choking back sobs, "Old Li, it's great that you're alive I'm really so happy brother"

Li Yalin also could not help but red his eyes and sighed: "Chongqiu, at that moment when the lift door opened and countless bullets passed through my body, I knew I was dead, all I could think about at that time was worrying about my wife and my daughter, and also about your family, I thought you would also meet with misfortune, I was also very happy to hear that you were all alive!"

Master An Qishan sighed softly and hurriedly said, "Yalin, Miss Fei, this is not the place to talk, let's go in and talk! Go inside and talk!"

An Chongqiu also came back to his senses and quickly said with great excitement, "Yes, yes, yes! Let's talk inside! Old Li, I want to get drunk with you at noon!"

An Qishan looked at Fei Kexin and invited her, "If Miss Fei doesn't mind, let's stay for lunch together!"

Fei Ke Xin knew that the An family must have many questions to ask themselves and Li Yalin, and that she had to observe Li Yalin's answers and performance so that he would not say the wrong thing or reveal crucial information to the An family.

So, she said with an arch of her hand, "Thank you, Old Mr. An, then my junior will respectfully submit!"

An Qishan and An Chongqiu hurriedly invited the two of them into the Anbang Mansion and took the lift from the top of the building to the top floor. As soon as they exited the lift, An Qishan dragged Li Yalin straight to the meeting room.

Now, the young and old of the An family were waiting in the meeting room, and according to the old man's intention, they were planning to thank Fei Ke Xin in person.

An Qishan pushed the door of the meeting room open, and the An family members sitting inside stood up, but to their surprise, the one who came in behind the old man was not Fei Ke Xin, but Li Yalin, who had a close friendship with the An family!

Chapter 4864

The moment they saw Li Yalin, the An family instantly exploded into a frenzy.

All of them could not believe their eyes.

This was because they all firmly believed that Li Yalin was dead and had been implicated by the An Family.

Therefore, when Li Yalin suddenly appeared in front of them, every single member of the An family present seemed to lose their ability to think.

The old lady of the An family came forward at this point incredulously and opened her mouth to ask the old man, "Qishan This Is this really Yalin? Or am I dreaming, or am I mentally deranged?"

"It's Yalin!" An Qishan said excitedly, "It's really Yalin! He's not dead! Miss Fei has brought him back!"

Only then did everyone see Fei Kexin, who had walked in after them.

The old lady was shocked and happy, and looking at Fei Ke Xin, she opened her mouth and asked, “Miss Fei Can you tell us what is going on here? At the time of the incident, didn’t your father say that Yalin could not be saved?”

Fei Kexin said truthfully, “At that time, En-Gong found that Inspector Li’s brain was not yet dead, but because his body was too badly injured, he thought that he could not save him anymore, but he also could not bear to see Inspector Li die for nothing, so he wanted to save his brain first, and then find a way to save him

The An family listened with their jaws dropped, no one could understand what the use of preserving the brain was at that time when Li Yalin’s body was basically a total loss.

Fei Ke Xin added at this point: “It just so happens that the Fei family has invested in a human freezing centre, so my benefactor instructed me to bring Inspector Li there to be frozen first, so all this time, Inspector Li has been frozen in the Fei family’s freezing centre.”

An Chongqiu exclaimed, “It’s the human freezing technology that the scientific community has not been able to confirm whether it works or not until now?”

“Right.” Fei Ke Xin nodded, “My grandfather thought at the time that this might be a way to leave the problem to the future, so he invested in this freezing centre.”

An Chongqiu blurted out, “But this technology has never been reliable! Over the years, people have been frozen one after another, but no one has ever been successfully thawed, and Old Li has not only been thawed, but is still alive and well, how on earth did this happen?”

Fei Ke Xin explained, “It was my benefactor, today he returned to New York and gave me an elixir, asking me to thaw Inspector Li and then feed him the elixir, I also did so with suspicion, but to my surprise, after Inspector Li took the elixir, all the damage his body had suffered had recovered

An Chongqiu’s face was shocked and he turned to Li Yalin and asked out of the blue, “Old Li, you have really recovered from all the injuries you have sustained?”

Li Yalin nodded and said solemnly, “Not only recovered, but also completely restored as before, that is, there is not even a scar, as if he had never been injured

“This How is this possible” An Chongqiu felt his worldview was turned upside down and blurted out, “Doesn’t this become immortal magic and magic?”

Li Yalin shook his head and said, “It’s not immortal arts or magic, it is indeed a kind of elixir.”

Saying that, Li Yalin reminded him, “Don’t you forget that when you told me about the Spring Return Pill, I didn’t believe it at all either.”

“Right!” An Chongqiu suddenly came back to his senses and blurted out, “Not only is the Spring Return Pill worth a hundred diseases, it can also make people a dozen or twenty years younger, it does sound unbelievable, only those who have seen its medicinal effects with their own eyes will know how amazing this thing really is

Saying that, he hurriedly looked at Li Yalin and said seriously, "This elixir you're taking is even more amazing! It can actually bring back the dead and restore all the injuries you have suffered This This is simply a miracle!"

At this time, the old lady asked Fei Ke Xin with some excitement, "Miss Fei, you said that your benefactor has come to New York, I wonder if you can convey a request on my behalf, the An family, young and old, for three generations, are very grateful to him for saving their lives, so I hope to have a chance to thank him in person!"

Chapter 4865

Hearing that the old lady wanted to see Ye Chen, Fei Ke Xin hurriedly said, "I'm sorry Grandma An, Grandpa En's whereabouts are erratic, this time he came just after giving me the pills, he said he had a lot of important things to do, so he left."

Technically speaking, Fei Ke Xin was not really lying.

Because Ye Chen's whereabouts were indeed erratic, especially during this recent period of time, from Canada to the United States, Hong Kong Island, and then to Mexico, Fei Ke Xin did not know his specific plans.

Moreover, it was also true that Ye Chen had now left the Fei family's Frozen Centre.

He had rushed back to the Buckingham Palace Hotel to prepare for the arrival of the Ito family, as well as He Yingxiu.

As soon as the old lady heard Fei Kexin say that her benefactor had left, she said with great loss, "Benefactor saved our whole family that day, and now he has saved Yalin, this great kindness is something we can never repay in several lifetimes, but he has never given us any chance to repay him"

Fei Ke Xin said with relief, "Grandma An, not to mention you, I have long owed my benefactor a great debt of gratitude, and so far I have not had the opportunity to repay it, I can only do my humble best for him."

An Chongqiu asked, "Miss Fei, when Master Fei suddenly fell ill at the auction in Jinling, and then your eldest uncle took advantage of the opportunity to seize power, but the old man later turned around and you and the old man were able to return to New York, and you were even able to take charge of the Fei family, if I am correct, this matter is also because of the help of that benefactor, right?"

"That's right." Fei Ke Xin didn't hide anything, she simply nodded and said, "If it wasn't for my benefactor, even if my grandfather had survived in Jinling, the two of us probably wouldn't have been able to escape my eldest uncle's pursuit."

An Chongqiu's eyes lit up as he spoke, "In that case, the benefactor who saved us is in fact the benefactor who saved you in Jinling that day, in other words, this benefactor is in fact the real leader of the Spring Return Pill auction, and may even be the real owner of the Spring Return Pill, right?"

An Chongqiu's words instantly sparked the attention of the rest of the An Family as well.

In the past, the An Family had rarely come into contact with any so-called elixir pills.

But during this period of time, there were as many as three kinds of elixirs that they knew about, had experienced, or had watched others experience.

First, it was An Chongqiu who witnessed the miracle of the Spring Return Pill at the auction in Jinling.

Then it was Gu Qiuyi who sent the elixir that brought back the dead, pulling the old man, An Qishan, back hard from the line of death;

And now it was Li Yalin who was reborn from the freeze with the miracle elixir.

In this, the elixir sent by Gu Qiuyi had a more complete background of her life, which the An family did not suspect too much before.

After all, according to Gu Qiuyi, the elixir she brought with her was obtained by chance when her father was seriously ill, a much longer time span, so in the An family's underlying logic of thinking about the issue, they naturally did not analyse the elixir Gu Qiuyi brought with her in connection with the Spring Return Pill and the Remodelling Pill.

Therefore, the An family now subconsciously linked the Spring Return Pill to the Remodelling Pill first for the time being, inferring that the owner of the Spring Return Pill was the same person as the benefactor who had saved the An family, Li Yalin and Fei Ke Xin.

Chapter 4866

Ye Chen also knew that the fact that he had saved Li Yalin's life, and that he had asked Fei Kexin to send Li Yalin back, could not in itself prevent the An family from linking the clues, but there was nothing he could do to solve this.

If he wanted to save Li Yalin, he would inevitably expose some of the clues in front of his grandparents' family, and it was his own choice to save Li Yalin in the first place, and now he had coincidentally obtained the core herbs for refining the Remodeling Pill in Mexico, so he naturally pushed him back to life in the same way.

As for the clue being exposed, Ye Chen didn't care too much about it.

After all, it was his grandparents, not his enemies, and what's more, the clues that were currently exposed were nothing more than giving them one more piece of the puzzle, trying to completely find out his identity was still far from being seen at the moment.

This speculation by An Chongqiu triggered a resonance throughout the An family.

An Kaifeng could not hide his excitement and spoke, "Big brother, so it seems that this benefactor, has more than one connection with us! When you were expelled from the auction for the Spring Return Pill in Jinling, this benefactor should have known all about it, but even so, he still saved us in New York."

An Chongqiu nodded and said, "At the auction that day, I could see that Song Wanting in Jinling was a puppet on a string, and someone was giving her orders through a headset. surely not able to make it, the entire Song family is only worth thirty to forty billion dollars, she doesn't have the power and drive to do so anyway."

The old lady not only sighed, "In that case, our family is really fortunate, if it wasn't for the fact that our benefactor was right next door, our family would have met an untimely end"

An Chongqiu suddenly came back to her senses and blurted out, "Mom, this benefactor is also a fan of Nui Nui's singing!"

The old lady didn't think it was strange and nodded, "Nui Nui is also a diva in the Chinese music industry, and your grandfather is also Chinese, so it's no big deal to be a fan of hers, right?"

"Yes." An Youyou also spoke up at this time, "Many big shots also follow stars, when the Super Bowl comes around here in the US, many rich and powerful people go to watch it live, when Michael Jackson was popular all over the world, the former president's family was very close to him, and his daughter was still an avid fan of his."

When An Chongqiu heard this, he immediately accepted this explanation, so he said, "Since your grandfather is the guest of honour at your daughter's concert, your daughter must know his true identity, so why don't we ask your daughter? Maybe the elixir that Niang Niang gave to Dad was also from the hand of your father."

An Kaifeng thought about it and said, "It's really possible. I've checked, Gu Yanzhong really had advanced pancreatic cancer, and then suddenly he was cured."

The old man pondered for a moment and nodded, "I think that must be the case, according to the timeline, the Gu family first came into contact with En Gong, then Miss Fei, and then us."

An Chongqiu hurriedly said, "In that case, Nui Nui must know the true identity of your father-in-law, and a phone call will reveal the relevant details!"

The old man immediately waved his hand and said, "Never!"

An Chongqiu was surprised and asked, "Dad, why?"

The old man said firmly, "If Lord En wants us to find him, he won't hide his identity from us, if we deliberately dig deeper and ask questions, we will displease Lord En."

An Chongqiu was slightly stunned, then nodded gently and sighed, "But what kind of person could His Grace be? I heard his voice should still be very young, and at such a young age, he has such strength, such a person, I have simply never heard of him before."

The old man said seriously, "Listen carefully, we can exchange and discuss the identity of your Grace in private, but apart from this door, no one is allowed to investigate deeper in private, this red line must not be crossed! If your Grace wants us to know his identity, one day he will appear in front of us with his true face!"

Chapter 4867

The An family knew very well that the old master actually wanted to know who this godly benefactor really was.

However, since the old man had said so, they naturally did not dare to overstep his bounds any more.

So, An Chongqiu took the lead and said, “Dad, don’t worry, we will definitely keep your request in mind and never cross the red line by half a step.”

An Kaifeng also nodded and said, “Dad, big brother is right, we will definitely not cross the red line by half a step.”

At the side, Li Yalin could not help but be a little disappointed at this point.

He had promised Ye Chen that he would not reveal Ye Chen’s identity.

However, from the bottom of his heart, he was hoping a thousand times over that the An family would identify with Ye Chen soon.

That was why he had just taken the initiative to mention the Spring Return Pill in front of An Chongqiu, just to remind him that he must string these clues together and consider the problem, and then he would definitely be able to find out information about his nephew Ye Chen.

However, he did not dare to say such things too clearly, after all, on the one hand, he had promised Ye Chen that there was a gentleman’s agreement, on the other hand, Fei Ke Xin was still following him, if he had authorized a little bit more obviously, Fei Ke Xin would definitely have noticed.

Li Yalin had been in a relationship with the An family for so many years, and was all too aware of how desperately the An family had wanted to find Ye Chen for the past twenty years.

Moreover, in these twenty years, they had invested huge manpower and resources in the matter of finding Ye Chen.

It was just that sometimes, such things were always made to happen.

The An family had turned the whole world upside down, but they had never guessed that Ye Chen had always been in the same place where the incident had occurred.

At one point, the An family even had doubts, wondering if Ye Chen had been taken away by that mysterious organisation.

But they still prayed that a miracle would happen and allow them to find Ye Chen somewhere in this world.

However, they probably never dreamed that Ye Chen would have already appeared beside them long ago.

Moreover, he had saved the entire An family with his own strength!

Li Yalin couldn’t help but sigh in his heart, “If the old man and the old lady knew that the eldest grandson they had been thinking about was not only alive today, but also the one who saved their lives as they said, they would probably be so happy that they probably just wouldn’t dare to dream of such a drama

“But

But how did the old man suddenly order and not allow the investigation? Chong Qiu attended the Spring Return Pill auction in Jinling at the beginning, from there it can be deduced that Ye Chen must have a deep connection with Jinling, and may even live in Jinling, seize the keyword Jinling, seize the two breakthroughs of Gu Qiuyi and Fei Kexin, smooth out all the clues that can be found on these lines, then find a larger blank wall, paste the three main and related clues onto it, and get some The red line to connect the implicated clues, should soon be able to lock the core clues of Ye Chen, when the time comes to follow the core clues, to find out that Ye Chen is Chengqi's son is just a matter of time

Thinking of this, Li Yalin could not help but stifle in his heart: "But Although all f*cking roads lead to Rome, you have to go there yourselves! If you don't go, Rome can't grow legs to come to you... I'm so f*cking anxious"

The delicate-minded old lady saw Li Yalin on the sidelines and although she didn't say anything, her expression was a bit scratchy, so she asked with concern, "Yalin what's wrong with you, are you uncomfortable somewhere?"

Li Yalin came back to his senses and hurriedly waved his hands, "No auntie, I I'm in good health, I used to have quite a lot of occupational diseases, what with my backache and cervical discomfort, but now I don't feel anything either"

The old lady asked, "I see that you don't seem to be feeling well just now, are you homesick and anxious to go back to see your wife and children?"

Li Yalin said awkwardly, "Auntie, to be honest, I haven't figured out how to explain to the two of them when I go back, the child just sent me a message saying she was pregnant, and I ended up disappearing"

The first thing I want to do is to ask An Chongqiu, "Chongqiu, I think my wife approached you, what did you tell her?"

Chapter 4868

An Chongqiu smiled twice: "What can I say I can only say that I am not sure At the beginning, my benefactor asked me not to tell your wife that you were dead no matter what, and asked me to tell her that you had disappeared or eloped with another woman, how could I say that"

Li Yalin sighed and said, "Then I still have to think about how to explain to them when I get back, if there is no relatively perfect way to say this matter, their mothers will probably always have suspicions"

An Chongqiu thought about it and said, "How about saying that you were not in a good mood because you were forced to retire early, so you looked for a place to take a break?"

Li Yalin said awkwardly, "That's too irresponsible, if my daughter hadn't told me she was pregnant, I could have gotten away with saying that, but the point is that the child told me she was pregnant, such a big happy event, and I ended up looking for a place to take a break because I was in a bad mood, isn't that half-a*sed"

An Chongqiu smacked his lips and said, "Hey, you disappeared for so many days without any news, and also stuck at such an important point as daughter's pregnancy, if you do not tell the truth, there is really no good solution"

The other members of the An family were also a bit worried for a while, they also knew the situation of Li Yalin's family, his wife and children had been separated from him for years and had been somewhat estranged.

And he suddenly disappeared at that critical point at that time, and at the same time could not inform his wife and children of the truth, this is indeed very tricky, almost nothing good way to go difficult to properly deal with.

I guess when Li Yalin returns home this time, he will not be able to escape being blamed by his wife and children.

When everyone was worried along with Li Yalin, Fei Kexin, who was at the side, thought of something and said, "Inspector Li, I do have an idea, just see if you can accept it."

Li Yalin said, "Miss Fei, don't be so polite to me, just tell me if you have any good ideas, whether it works or not, I am grateful."

Fei Ke Xin then said, "The Fei family's previous series of incidents caused by Fei Hao Yang have been widely publicised, and the outside world knows that the police have not been able to find out who killed those bds, so you can explain to your wife and daughter that I have asked you privately to help me investigate the mastermind behind this matter."

"But since I asked you to keep it absolutely confidential, you didn't get to say hello to them in advance, and you have to keep quiet these days at my request, so you couldn't tell your family about your whereabouts either;"

"And you can also tell them, just say that you have actually been very upset about this case as well, and with such an opportunity to be able to join hands with the Fei family, you also want to make up for this regret, so you agreed to my request, and if they don't trust this saying, I can endorse it for you."

Li Yalin pondered for a moment and nodded, "This is indeed quite a good idea, the reasons, motives and details all stand up to scrutiny"

Saying that, Li Yalin sighed lightly and said helplessly, "It's just that I used to have a less than good relationship with my daughter because I was so preoccupied with my work, and we both have more similar personalities, and neither of us could convince the other, so for so long, there was more or less a cold war"

"It wasn't until I was forced to retire and smash the signboard of Chinese sleuth that she took the initiative to comfort me and took the initiative to tell me she was pregnant, hoping I could return to them as mother and daughter"

"I, as a father, also understood in my heart that my daughter was trying to comfort me, so she took the initiative to put aside her temper and face and give me a step down"

"But if I go back and tell her that I ignored the step she gave me, ignored the news of her pregnancy, and simply evaporated for so many days to investigate the case because I was indignant in my heart, I'm afraid she will be even more disappointed in me"

The actual fact is that this is also very good to solve, you can say that I sought your help at that time, offered you a considerable fee, and you originally wanted to refuse, but considering that soon to become a grandfather, heart happy at the same time, also very want to be able to create some more better conditions for the child, so they decided to earn this money first, your core motive is for the sake of the still unborn child Your core motive is for the child that has not yet been born, and only secondly to investigate the case incidentally, I am sure they can understand you.”

I’m sure they’ll understand.” “I’ll write you a cheque for $10 million later. “

Chapter 4869

Hearing that Fei Ke Xin wanted to give himself a cheque for ten million dollars, Li Yalin’s instant thought was to reject it in a hurry.

He even had a few moments of panic and said, “Miss Fei, you have already helped me so much, how can I take more money from you

At the side, the old man An Qishan slapped his thigh and said excitedly, “Miss Fei’s solution is really wonderful! Impeccable! Impeccable!”

He pointed at Li Yalin and said, “Yalin, you don’t have to worry about the money, Miss Fei gave you this money so that you can explain everything better in front of your wife and daughters, not only will your wife and daughters complain about you, but they will even feel that you value them in your heart, so that all the contradictions in the whole matter have a perfect, logical and self-contained solution! solution!”

At this point, An Qishan added, “But you’re right, Miss Fei has helped you and the An family, so at a time like this, I can’t let Miss Fei pay for it, so I’ll pay for it!”

Li Yalin was busy saying, “Uncle ah

The first thing you need to do is to take the check and follow the plan given to you by Ms. Fei, one, two, three, four, five, all your worries will be solved instantly. The $10 million will also be a very strong guarantee for your children’s future! You’ve suffered so much for the An family, you should give us a chance to show our gratitude!”

The old lady at the side reminded her, “Qishan, you said before that you would talk to Yalin’s son-in-law and get him to agree to let Yalin’s grandson take Yalin’s daughter’s surname, Li.”

An Qishan was stunned for a moment, then laughed, “That’s what I’ve said! Fine, I will definitely honour it!”

After that, he turned to An Chongqiu and instructed, “Chongqiu, you take care of this matter, take the time to meet with Yalin’s daughter and son-in-law to talk about it, no matter if the child is born as a boy or a girl, as long as Yalin’s son-in-law agrees to give the child the surname Li, then the An family will step in and give the child a trust with 100 million dollars.”

Li Yalin panicked and blurted out, "Uncle An, this can't be allowed How can I take your money, and it's so much, even if I were sold I wouldn't be worth that much, it's absolutely not okay!"

The first thing you need to do is to get the money. Don't be too much yet, this is only part of it, more will be implemented slowly in the future."

He then said to An Chongqiu, "Chongqiu, when you meet Yalin's son-in-law, find out what he is doing now, if he is starting his own business, then invest a sum of money in him and then export some resources to him; if he is working part-time, find him a job within the An family system that has a counterpart with better rank and income and room for future development, and then let him know that the reason he got all this was because he married Yalin's daughter and agreed to let the child take the surname Li, so that in future he will not only be doubly good to Yalin's daughter, but will also always think that letting the child take the surname Li is not an indignity to him, but an achievement for him, so that he will never be able to regret it in his life."

Without thinking, An Chongqiu said, "Don't worry, Dad, I'll make sure it's done!"

At this moment, Li Yalin was as flustered as a child who had done something wrong, not knowing what to do.

Chapter 4870

An Qishan looked at him, patted his shoulder heavily and said seriously, "Yalin, you have died once, you must be more open-minded in all matters, from now on, your core mission is to make long-term plans for yourself and your family's descendants. This is something that will be difficult for you to achieve even if you work harder as a detective, and you should not feel indebted to the An Family, it's all what the An Family should do!"

Li Yalin saw that the old man was so resolute that he didn't even know how to respond for a while.

He couldn't help but say, "Uncle An, I never felt in my heart that I was nearly killed before for the sake of the An family"

After a pause, Li Yalin then added: "After all, I only coincidentally chose to accompany you on that day to join in the fun, everything was my own choice, and I can only say that I was unlucky to encounter the attack, in no way can I talk about being kind to the An family"

"And to my shame, although I almost died that time, I didn't help the An family in any substantial way at all, I was knocked to the ground before those heavily armed bandits even had a chance to react, at best, I was just cannon fodder"

In fact, Li Yalin had something else to say that he hadn't said.

He felt that instead of helping the An family in any way, it was Ye Chen, the grandson of the An family, who had truly saved his life and given him a new lease of life.

He owed Ye Chen a life, and it would be unjustifiable to take the An family's money at such a time.

At this moment, however, the old man asked with a cold face, "What? What's wrong with cannon fodder? Even if you are cannon fodder, aren't you still the cannon fodder that blocked the bullets and served as cannon fodder for my An Family! To use an inappropriate analogy, according to your bd, aren't those martyrs who didn't kill the enemy but died at the gunpoint of the invaders, sacrificing their lives for their country? What kind of bd logic?"

"This I" Li Yalin also felt a bit speechless all of a sudden.

Admittedly, the old man's words were indeed more logical than his.

On the side, An Chongqiu spoke up and reminded, "Old Li, don't forget that this isn't about yourself, it's about the bloodline heritage and cla*s crossing of the Li family, besides, you know the old master's character, so don't make a fearless struggle."

Li Yalin couldn't help but recall what the old man had said to himself earlier in the VIP box at the performance.

The path of having his daughter give birth to a child who would follow his family's surname of Li was a bit old-fashioned and feudal, but it undoubtedly poked at his heart.

If he wanted his family to continue, the necessary condition was that the family name must also be pa*sed on, and if this came to pa*s, he would not be ashamed of his ancestors after his death.

After thinking about it, he arched his hand towards the old man and said sincerely, "Uncle An, your family's kindness will be remembered by Arin!"

An Qishan said solemnly, "In the future, let's all stop talking about who is kind to whom, and let's help and support each other in the time to come."

Li Yalin nodded heavily, and An Chongqiu, who was at the side, suddenly remembered something and said to Li Yalin, "By the way, Old Li, my sister-in-law came to New York a few days ago, but I don't know if she is still in New York, should I call her and ask her?"

Li Yalin said, "Yes, yes, you can ask her where she is, if she is in New York, I'll go and see her!"
