

Ye Chen 4881

Chapter 4881

Ye Chen's words made Ito Yohiko also feel that he was a bit unpleasant for being so abrasive all the time, so he said without thinking, "If I were really to make a wish related to myself, it would definitely be for my two legs to come back again, it's just a pity"

"All right." Ye Chen reached out and interrupted him, laughing, "The logic of making a wish is that you can just say what you want, as for whether it can be fulfilled or not, that's not something you have to worry about."

Ito Yohiko was slightly stunned and smiled to himself, then nodded, "Mr. Ye is right, it is up to God whether it will come true or not."

Ye Chen waved his hand and said blandly, "This kind of thing, God may not be good either."

"This" Ito Yohiko cried and laughed.

Thinking to himself.

"You're the one who told me to make a wish so that I don't have to worry about whether it will come true or not, and then you say that God isn't good either, isn't that blocking both ends?"

But he didn't dare to spit it out to Ye Chen, so he could only smile resentfully, not knowing how to respond.

At this time, Richard Chen walked over and said to Ye Chen, "Young master, the catering department has made arrangements, the cake has been expedited by the best bakery in New York, and it will be delivered within an hour."

"Good." Ye Chen nodded in satisfaction and said to Ito Yohiko and Tanaka Koichi, "Alright, you two can go in and prepare to test the medicine."

The two men looked at each other and bowed slightly to Ye Chen in unison.

Immediately afterwards, Ye Chen asked Hong Wu and the Ito family's butler to assist the two men into different bathrooms respectively.

Hong Wu had already known the procedure, so he took Koichi Tanaka in lightly and prepared.

The Ito family butler was still confused at this point, so Ye Chen followed him and Yohiko Ito into the other bathroom.

Once inside, Ye Chen pointed to the bathtub and said to the Ito family butler, "Later on, you can help Mr. Ito undress and lie down in it, exposing only the top of his neck."

The butler nodded his head repeatedly, "Yes Mr. Ye!"

Ye Chen pointed to the shorts and short sleeves prepared on the clothes rack again and spoke, "These are the clothes prepared, when you are done later, Mr. Ito will change into these clothes and go out."

Ito Yohiko glanced at the prepared clothes and found that they were actually a sports outfit with short sleeves and shorts, and his expression was a bit stunned and depressed at the same time.

Ever since his legs were amputated, Ito Yohiko had never worn shorts. He usually made sure to wear long trousers no matter at home or when he went out, as long as there were other people around, and if he wore prosthetic limbs, he would put them into his trousers, or if he did not want to wear them, he would put padding in the shape of limbs into his trouser legs, so that at first glance, sitting in a wheelchair still gave the impression that he was still able-bodied.

However, since it was Ye Chen's arrangement, Ito Yohiko could not say anything more, so he said to Ye Chen, "Thank you, Mr. Ye."

Ye Chen remembered something and said casually, "By the way Mr. Ito, this place is close to Central Park in Manhattan, we can go for a walk there before dinner."

"A walk?" Ito Yohiko smiled awkwardly and said with some difficulty, "Mr. Ye, otherwise a walk would be better In my case, it's really not suitable to go to that kind of public place"

Ye Chen smiled faintly and said, "Then let's talk about it later, Mr. Ito go in first and lie down, I will come to bring you medicine later."

Ito Yohiko nodded respectfully, and after Ye Chen left, he took off his clothes and soaked into the bathtub with the help of the housekeeper.

Five minutes later.

Ye Chen walked in again, and by now, Ito Yohiko was already lying in the bathtub, buried in the beauty mud from the neck down.

Ye Chen looked at Ito Yohiko and said indifferently, "Mr. Ito, you will probably fall asleep for about twenty minutes, remember to rinse off your body when you wake up and then change into the clothes prepared for you."

Ito Yohiko was confused by Ye Chen's mysterious operation, he really couldn't understand what Ye Chen's intention was in letting himself soak in the mud.

At this time, Ye Chen took out a reshaping pill, handed it to the butler and said, "Feed this pill to Mr. Ito and take it."

"Okay Mr. Ye!" The butler nodded respectfully and carefully took the pill that Ye Chen handed over in his hand, then put it into Ito Yuhiko's mouth.

As soon as Ito Yohiko took the medicine, he felt a dizzying sensation in his brain, like general anesthesia before an operation, and lost consciousness almost instantly.

Chapter 4882

The reason for this loss of consciousness was also entirely due to the medicinal properties of the Remodelling Pill.

According to the records in the Nine Mystical Scriptures, when the Remodelling Pill reshapes the flesh, it will cause great painful stimulation to the person taking it, not to mention reshaping the body, but the pain is even more intense than modern medical surgery that cuts open the human body.

Therefore, the medicinal properties of the Remodelling Pill actually make a person lose consciousness first, and then bring into play its true remodelling medicinal properties.

The principle is the same as the logic of anaesthesia before surgery in modern medicine.

After Ito Yohiko fell unconscious, his entire body was completely unconscious, but Ye Chen was able to feel the vigorous aura in his body, which was gathering towards his lower body.

Soon, Ye Chen could feel that there seemed to be two sprouts filled with aura at the roots of Ito Yohiko's thighs, and it seemed that the Remodelling Pill had begun to work.

Ye Chen then said to the butler, "It's hard for you to guard Mr. Ito here, don't touch him until he wakes up."

The butler said very respectfully, "Don't worry, Mr. Ye!"

Ye Chen nodded and turned to leave the bathroom and went to the other bathroom next door.

By now, Tanaka Koichi had also soaked into the bathtub with the help of Hong Wu.

After giving him some instructions, Ye Chen asked Hong Wu to feed him a reshaping pill as well.

And Su Ruoli was standing by her side, her heart unable to hide her excitement as she secretly thought, "Mr Ye's elixir was able to bring back to life Li Yalin, who was seriously injured, and now he has rushed his mother and the Ito family to New York, and coincidentally, both her mother and the two from the Ito family are mutilated, could it be that Mr Ye is planning to use the same elixir to treat them?"

"Just now Mr. Ye has been guiding Ito Yohiko, making him personally say his wish for his legs to be restored like new Could it be that Could it be that Mr. Ye's elixir can bring their broken legs back to life?"

"If that's the case Then wouldn't mum wouldn't she be able to become a normal person?!"

Su Ruoli's mother, He Yingxiu, had already lost an arm before she was conceived.

It was also because she had lost that arm to save Su Shoudao that Su Shoudao was moved to betray his marriage and have a dewy love affair with her.

And it was that love affair that led to the birth of Su Ruoli.

As a child, Su Ruoli was often distressed by the fact that her mother was missing an arm.

What puzzled her was that whenever she touched the wound of her mother's broken arm and cried for heaven's blessing to let her mother's broken arm grow back, her mother always told her with a contented face that she had used the lost arm to exchange it for the most precious gift in the world. So she didn't regret it at all.

As a young girl, Su Ruoli did not understand, she did not know exactly what great things her mother had exchanged that arm for.

But when she grew up, when she knew the reason for it, she realised that her mother had used that arm to get back herself.

The arm she had lost had a lot to do with her own fate, and if she hadn't lost it in the first place, she wouldn't have been able to come into this world.

But even though her mother did not regret this, Su Ruoli's heart had always ached for what her mother had gone through in the past twenty years.

Even though she was a martial artist, without her arm, she was still a disabled person who suffered from discrimination.

Su Ruoli had always dreamed of making her mother normal again, even if she had to lose her own arm.

But she knew in her heart that such a hope was only a delusion.

But at this moment, she suddenly realised that her delusions of grandeur were about to come true!

Chapter 4883

Ito Nanaeko didn't know as much as Su Ruoli did.

She had never seen the miracle that had happened to Li Yalin, so she hadn't figured out what Ye Chen had asked herself to bring her father and Tanaka Koichi to New York for at the moment.

Seeing Ye Chen come out at this moment, Ito Nana-chan hurriedly asked, "Ye Chen-kun, how are Odo-san and Tanaka-san doing?"

Ye Chen smiled faintly and said, "They both just took the medicine, they are both asleep now, they will wake up in about 20 minutes or so.

Ito Nana-chan nodded and asked cautiously, "Ye Chen-kun, can I take the liberty of asking what exactly is the medicine you gave them both to treat?"

Ye Chen smiled, "The two of them will be out in twenty minutes at most, what exactly is being treated, you might as well see for yourself when they come out later."

"Alright" Seeing that Ye Chen was unwilling to reveal, Ito Nana-chan had no choice but to nod gently and said with a smile, "Ye Chen-kun is highly skilled in medicine, the last time I was seriously injured, as well as Oudosan's extremely weak body after the operation, both were cured by Ye Chen-kun, I believe this time will definitely benefit Oudosan and Tanaka-san as well!"

On the side, Ito Nana-chan's aunt, Ito Emi, couldn't help but sigh, "I hope Oni-san can cheer up from now on, it's really frustrating to look dead every day" He's only fifty today, yet he looks older than Ondo-san did back when he was seventy."

Ito Nanaeko recalled how her own grandfather looked when he was alive and couldn't help but agree, "Oji-san was indeed optimistic when he was alive It was indeed much stronger than the current Odo-san."

Said Nanae Ito, hastily adding to her aunt, "But you mustn't say that to Odo-san's face, he's such a man, he's just too proud of himself"

Ito Emi nodded and said, "That's for sure With that stinky temper he has now, I wouldn't dare to mess with him"

At this moment, the two people in the bathtub who were unconscious could not feel at all that the body tissues of their legs were being repaired at a speed comparable to 3D printing, starting from the amputation wounds.

The only thing is that this energy for the rebirth of the amputated limbs comes entirely from the medicinal effects within the Remodelling Pill as well as from the aura, and has almost nothing to do with Yohiko Ito himself.

The Ito family butler soon noticed a strange little detail.

He noticed that although Yohiko Ito was lying motionless in the bathtub, the level of those beauty slurries in the tub seemed to be slowly growing.

Thinking that he was mistaken, he stared carefully at the level for a long time and confirmed that the level in the bathtub was indeed rising.

This made him a little nervous all of a sudden, because he couldn't understand at all how the level of the mud could keep rising when the person was not moving at all.

In this instant, he wanted to get closer to see what was going on, but when he thought of Ye Chen's explanation, he hesitated for a moment and then gave up the idea.

He just didn't know that the reason why the liquid level was rising was because Ito Yohiko's legs were being constantly perfected and the legs inside the mud were expanding, which was why the liquid level was rising.

On the other hand, Hong Wu was not so surprised.

He had also guessed that the odds were that Ye Chen was going to help him and Ito Yohiko regenerate their severed legs, so once he saw that the liquid level within the bathtub was rising, he was immediately certain of his suspicions.

To Ye Chen, Hong Wu had actually seen it all before.

Not to mention that he himself had once been pulled back by Ye Chen at the entrance to the Hall of Hades, he had seen Ye Chen summon heavenly thunder more than once just by watching him with his own eyes.

Chapter 4884

The most shocking thing was when Ye Chen fought against the Eight Heavenly Kings on the Changbai Mountain, when the thunder came, and that late night lightning made the entire foot of the Changbai Mountain as bright as day!

At that moment, he knew that no matter what extraordinary thing Ye Chen did, it was only natural.

So, not surprised, he leisurely lit a cigarette and looked at the unconscious Koichi Tanaka while gulping at his eyes and muttering in a low voice: "Hey, your little Japanese luck is really beyond words, both of your legs were f*cking amputated and now you have a chance to grow them back, thanks to Master Ye. If it wasn't for Miss Nana-chan's face, you wouldn't have gotten this kind of f*cking job."

He spat a mouthful of smoke into Tanaka Koichi's face and said with a grin, "You know, Master Ye has never been very friendly to his Japanese friends, and the two Kobayashi brothers have been taking turns to experience life at my dog farm.

He then sighed, "But apart from that, Miss Nana-chan and Master Yeh are a perfect match, D*mn it, I've never seen such a match! It would be a real shame if the two of them don't get together in the future"

Hong Wu finished one cigarette and the level of liquid in the bathtub, had almost stopped growing.

At this moment, Tanaka Koichi, who was lying in the bathtub, still didn't have the slightest intention of waking up.

However, Ito Yohiko, who was next door, suddenly twitched slightly at this moment.

The housekeeper, who was very concerned about him, was watching every detail of his life and when he suddenly twitched slightly, he rushed forward to see what was going on.

At that moment, Ito Yohiko's eyelids fluttered and he slowly opened his eyes. He felt as if he had slept all night, and when he saw the butler, he subconsciously stretched, shaking the mud everywhere.

The butler was too muddy to care, but asked with concern, "How are you feeling, my lord?"

Ito Yohiko shook the mud off his hands and sighed, "I just feel very comfortable, I haven't slept for so long in a long time, I feel a bit refreshed."

The butler hurriedly said, "My lord, you have only slept for less than 20 minutes."

"What?" Ito Yohiko looked at him incredulously and asked offhandedly, "I feel like I've slept through the night and it's only just been less than 20 minutes?"

"Yes." The butler said with certainty, "I've been watching the clock, and to be exact, it's only been a little over 18 minutes so far."

Ito Yohiko exhaled deeply and exclaimed, "To sleep so comfortably in such a short time, it seems that Mr. Ye's medicine must have worked wonders"

The butler asked cautiously, "My lord, do you feel anything other than refreshed?"

"No." Ito Yohiko spoke, "Why do you ask?"

The butler said cautiously, "When you were asleep just now, I noticed that although you did not move at all, the level of the entire bathtub was rising, which was particularly strange, as if someone had quietly poured a lot of new mud into the bathtub through an invisible pipe"

"Is that so?" Ito Yohiko said casually, "Could it be that there is a special device under this bathtub to replenish the mud?"

The butler shook his head and said, "I'm not sure" But it's good that you don't feel anything unusual"

Ito Yohiko hummed and said casually, "There must be something like a water filling hole that is quietly injecting mud into it."

The first thing that I did was to feel it.

This touch did not matter, and he suddenly felt two legs.

His face suddenly changed and he subconsciously cursed, "Baka! Why did you put my prosthetic legs in the bath too? Are they both going to take a bath too?!"

Chapter 4885

Ito Yohiko, who had been without legs for a long time, had actually adapted to his legless state, both physically and mentally.

With the sudden addition of a pair of legs, his consciousness, as well as his nervous system, had not even been able to match the two legs.

So, when Yohiko Ito put his hand into the mud, which had zero visibility, and suddenly felt two legs, his subconscious mind immediately concluded that they must be his own prosthetic legs.

It was for this reason that his first thought, when he felt the prosthetic legs being put in the bathtub, was naturally to be very angry, hence his stern rebuke.

He didn't like the prosthetic limbs, but to be thrown into the mud like that made it feel more like some sort of somewhat contemptuous prank.

The butler, however, had an innocent look on his face as he pointed to the changing bench in the bathroom changing area and spoke, "My lord, your prosthetic legs are there!"

Ito Yohiko turned his head and saw that his prosthetic leg was bent and folded on the changing bench.

He couldn't help but wonder, then looked at the mud in front of him and spoke, "And what are these legs in here?!"

With that, he wrapped his hands around one of them and said in a cold voice, "Let me see what the hell this is!"

Immediately afterwards, Ito Yohiko held the object with both hands and flipped it upwards with great force, and then felt his whole body being lifted uncontrollably.

The inside of the bathtub was curved, so it was relatively stable when lying still, but once a person rolled around with his legs in it, he lost his centre of gravity.

The butler was curious as to what was in Itohiko's bathtub, but the next moment Itohiko tumbled backwards, his upper body slipped, and he tumbled onto his back, his whole head going into the mud.

Seeing that his head had fallen into the mud, Ito Yohiko subconsciously cursed again before his head went into the mud: "Ah! Baka!"

With that, his head went straight into the mud.

A few bubbles then rolled out of the sticky mud surface.

As his head went into the mud, a foot and half a calf suddenly emerged from the water at the other end of the tub.

The butler was dumbfounded at the sight of the foot and half of the leg, but before he could react, he was startled by Ito Yohiko, who was submerged in the mud, so he rushed forward and fished him right out of the mud.

When he emerged, he spat out a mouthful of green mud and coughed uncontrollably.

The butler hastily found a towel to clean his face and asked with concern, "Are you all right, my lord?"

Ito Yohiko shook his head woefully and asked him breathlessly, "How did I roll over just now?"

Only then did the butler remember that he had just seen a foot and half a calf in a trance.

So, he said in a panic, "My lord, it looks to me like you just picked up a foot and half a leg"

Ito Yohiko recalled the bizarre process just now, just now he really did pick up a leg, from this mud!

And, it was a real human leg that felt real to the touch!

Ito Yohiko was so nervous that he hurriedly grabbed the edge of the bathtub with both hands and panicked, pushing his upper body out of the mud, then his legs couldn't control themselves and stomped around inside.

But up to this point, Ito Yohiko was still unaware that his legs had grown back.

Chapter 4886

Subconsciously, he still felt that he had lost his legs, and his subconscious stomping was a conditioned reflex when one is in a panic, which basically does not go through the human brain.

As he watched the mud behind him flutter as if something huge was about to burst out of it, Yohiko Ito was scared to death and said to the butler, "Quick! Get me out of this D*mn tub!"

The housekeeper, also trembling with fear, hurriedly wrapped his arms around one of Yohiko Ito's arms and pulled her out of the bathtub with a violent push.

Immediately afterwards, Ito Yohiko felt his whole body leap out with a whoosh, and before he could prepare himself, his whole body landed heavily on the floor and fell in a heap.

As soon as he let out an ouch, he heard the butler let out a scream of utter terror.

The scream scared him too, and he asked in a rush, "What the hell was that?! Did you see it?!"

The butler stared at Yohiko Ito's two intact legs and said, shivering, "My lord My Lord Your legs! Your legs are growing out This This is so absurd This How is this possible I must be dreaming It must be a dream"

At that, he subconsciously rubbed his eyes with both hands, and said something under his breath like a mantra.

The first time I heard this, Ito Yohiko subconsciously turned his head and was shocked by the sight in front of him!

He found that his legs had been amputated, but they had grown back!

He didn't know whether it was reality or a dream. After all, it was too unbelievable to see his legs growing back.

It was like having a loved one pass away and longing for them to come back to life, but if they did sit up from the coffin, it would definitely scare them out of their wits.

At this moment, when Nanae Ito outside the door heard her father's shriek, she said with a nervous look on her face, "Did something happen to Odo-san?"

After saying that, she was about to subconsciously get up to go check.

Ye Chen stopped her at this time and smiled, "Don't be in a hurry yet, I'll go and take a look."

Ito Nana-chan was busy saying, "I'll go too"

Ye Chen said indifferently, "Mr. Ito is not wearing any clothes, you'd better not go in."

Only then did Ito Nanaeko nodded helplessly and said to Ye Chen, "Then I'll pay my respects to Ye Chen-kun!"

Ye Chen smiled slightly, got up and went to the bathroom where Ito Yuuhiko was, and once he pushed the door, he saw Ito Yuuhiko sitting on the floor naked, looking at his legs with a horrified expression, his whole body frozen like a wooden chicken.

When he saw Ye Chen enter, Ito Yohiko, whose mind was already spinning, said as if he had grabbed a lifeline, "Mr. Ye I Have I been hypnotized by you?!"

Ye Chen laughed, "I didn't hypnotize you."

"Impossible" Ito Yohiko said with a serious face, "I now see both of my legs growing out, this looks too real, and those leg hairs that are glued with green mud, it's just exactly like the real thing Mr. Ye, this must be some kind of hallucination under hypnosis, right?"

Saying that, he remembered something and hurriedly said, "Right! Even my butler is having the same hallucination! Could it be that there is some kind of hallucinogenic substance evaporating from this mud, causing both of us to hallucinate?!"

Ye Chen shook his head and said indifferently, "Mr. Ito, you are not hallucinating, the two legs you saw are real, what I just fed you is the medicine that can regenerate your broken limbs, that's why I called you all the way from Japan, so I solemnly tell you, from today onwards, you are no longer a disabled person without legs! !"

Chapter 4887

Ye Chen's words made Ito Yohiko's whole person feel like five thunderstorms!

His entire person froze in place for a long time, looked at Ye Chen nervously and asked in a trembling voice: "Ye Mr. Ye Are you sure you're not joking with me? Is my leg really grow out?"

Ye Chen nodded and casually said, "Mr. Ito, you've at least come through big storms, so you don't need to be so surprised at a time like this, right? If you still don't believe this is true, you might as well stand up and take two steps."

Moreover, after he had calmed down a little, he realised that not only did his hand feel a real touch when he touched his legs, but even his own legs actually felt the sensation of being touched.

At this moment, Ito Yohiko's whole person, had begun to tremble violently and uncontrollably.

He had gradually begun to believe that what was happening before his eyes did seem to be real.

The tremendous shock and the extreme excitement caused his entire body to tremble like a person with severe Parkinson's disease.

Immediately afterwards, he subconsciously tried to bend his legs.

The movement of his legs was slightly rudimentary, but they did bend gradually as he wanted them to!

At this moment, Ito Yohiko only felt hot tears gushing out from his eyes, so much so that his vision was blurred by the tears.

Then, remembering Ye Chen's words, he wiped away his tears and clasped his hands around his knees, trying to slowly stand up by holding them.

Originally, he thought that this action should be difficult, but to his surprise, his legs only exerted a little force and his whole body stood up steadily!

Although he had yet to get used to his new legs, they were in peak condition.

So, in the blink of an eye, Yohiko Ito was fully on his feet.

Ito is not a very tall man, standing at around 1m68, but he has been a martial artist since he was a child, and although he is not a martial artist, his years of karate and sparring have made him physically stronger than most people his age.

And the Remodelling Dan had reshaped his legs back to his peak state, those two legs were a little short but very thick, standing in place in a stance that, coupled with being covered in green mud, resembled a green-haired gorilla.

When Ye Chen saw Ito Yuyuhiko's whole body frozen on the spot, he knew in his heart that this kind of thing must be too shocking for Ito Yuyuhiko, and he needed at least a little bit of adjustment.

The butler at the side came back to his senses a little at this time and asked in shock, "Mr. Ye My lord he His legs have really grown?! I'm not dreaming?!"

Ye Chen asked indifferently, "Have you ever had a dream where a person's leg was amputated and could grow back?"

The housekeeper hurriedly shook his head and said seriously, "No"

Ye Chen smiled: "That's right, this kind of good thing is not something you can just dream about, it's like every man has had puberty, but the object of his every spring dream may not be the girl he loves the most, don't you think that's the truth?"

The butler was deeply impressed and nodded his head as if he were a man, "Yes yes yes Throughout my adolescence, I racked my brains and never dreamed of that goddess in my heart in those kinds of dreams"

Chapter 4888

Ye Chen hummed, then looked at Ito Yuuhiko and smiled lightly, "Mr. Ito, how does it feel to have your birthday wish become a reality?"

Ito Yohiko, who had been standing dumbfounded before, suddenly knelt straight down on the hard floor tiles with a poof when he heard these words, his eyes filled with tears as he looked at Ye Chen and choked up, "Mr. Ye! Thank you for your kindness! I, Ito Yohiko, never dreamed that I would ever be able to become a normal person in this life! Your great kindness, I will never forget it!"

With that, he opened his arms and knelt down on the ground and kowtowed three times to Ye Chen.

Ye Chen saw Ito Yohiko crying while kneeling on the ground, and with that green mud-covered and slightly distorted face, he no longer felt like a green-haired gorilla, but rather like a large robin monkey that had just emerged from the earth.

So Ye Chen did not want to go forward to help him, and said to the butler beside Ito Yohiko, "Hurry up and get a bath towel for your Mr. Ito to put on, at such an old age, what is the point of kneeling on the ground with a bare bottom."

The butler came to his senses and hastily pulled a bath towel, rushed to him in three or two steps, and wrapped it around Yohiko Ito from the waist down.

At this moment, Ito Yohiko didn't care about losing face, he was already crying and looking at Ye Chen with teary eyes, choking up, "Mr. Ye You are my new parent From now on No matter what you ask me to do, I will never say anything, even if you ask me to jump out of here now, I will be willing to do it! To die as a normal human being with dignity is much better than sitting in a wheelchair for the rest of your life!"

Ye Chen shook his head helplessly and said, "I didn't call you all the way here and give you this precious medicine just to watch you jump to your death from here, but to make sure that Nana-chan won't worry about you anymore in the future, so you must pull yourself together from now on, don't act like you're half dead all the time, and don't make Nana-chan worry about you anymore. Do you understand?"

Ito Yohiko came to his senses and said, "I understand, Mr. Ye! Thank you for your kindness to my daughter! From today onwards, I will definitely not let Nana-chan worry about me any more!"

Ye Chen nodded and said, "Alright, hurry up and get up and take a shower, wash all the mud off your body, especially your face, wash your face carefully, then change into the gym clothes prepared for you and come out, Nana-chan is still waiting outside."

Ito Yohiko was about to kowtow again, but just as he bent down, the bath towel around his body broke away, and the butler at the side rushed forward to help him re-do it. Ye Chen couldn't help saying, "Stop giving me big salutes, I'm helping you only because of Nana-chan."

Ito Yohiko choked up and nodded heavily, then remembered something and asked again, "Mr. Ye, I dare to ask you one thing"

Ye Chen gave a hmph: "Go ahead and ask."

Ito Yohiko asked respectfully, "Mr. Ye, I would like to know Tanaka he is now How is it? Did you also give him medicine?"

Ye Chen nodded and said, "I have already given him the medicine, but he took it a few minutes later than you, so I guess he is almost awake now."

Ito Yohiko breathed a complete sigh of relief and choked up, "I owe this life to Tanaka's efforts to save it, without him, I would have been shot to death by the Takahashi family's men. Now that he has recovered as well, I've been able to get a piece of my mind back"

After saying that, he looked at Ye Chen and said with tears in his eyes, "Thank you Mr. Ye!"

Ye Chen smiled faintly and said blandly, "There is no need to thank me for this matter, I helped you because of Nana-chan's face, and helped Tanaka solely because I appreciated his loyalty to your Ito family as a loyal servant."

Chapter 4889

Ito Yohiko actually understood very well that Ye Chen might not really look up to himself in his heart.

After all, when Ye Chen first came to Japan, he had had conflicts with him, and even at that time, his attitude was once very arrogant, believing that this young man from China deserved to grovel before him.

And then, after he had been taught to behave by Ye Chen, he realised how badly this young man from China was to be messed with.

And the only reason why Ye Chen was able to be polite to himself afterwards, and to lend a helping hand at one point, was purely for the sake of his daughter Nana-chan.

So, at this moment, apart from his endless gratitude to Ye Chen, Ito Yohiko only had one thought left in his head, and that was: how come his life was so good.

It was not because he had Ye Chen's help that he felt lucky, but rather he lamented that he was lucky to have such an excellent daughter as Nana-chan.

If it wasn't for Nana-chan, I'm afraid the best he could do now would be lying in a hospital bed with his legs amputated, with tubes all over his body, languishing on a variety of nutrient solutions.

It was because of Nana-chan that Ye Chen helped him recover after his amputation, allowing him to live the life of an ordinary healthy disabled person, and now, Ye Chen even directly used the elixir to allow his two broken legs to grow back.

Now that he had become an able-bodied person again, there were no more regrets associated with himself in this life.

The only thing he is still concerned about is his daughter Nana-chan's life.

If he could entrust his daughter to Ye Chen's hands, then his life would really be complete.

While Ito Yohiko was imagining that his daughter would marry Ye Chen, Tanaka Koichi, who was next door to him, also began to experience the same thing as Ito Yohiko.

But luckily, Koichi Tanaka was accompanied by Hong Wu, so when Koichi Tanaka was shocked by his legs, Hong Wu dragged him out of the bathtub and, after some explanation, made him understand that what he was seeing was not an illusion or a dream, but reality.

An overwhelmed Tanaka Koichi cried out, "Mr. Hong, I'm going to kowtow to Mr. Ye and say thank you!"

After saying this, he was ready to rush towards the door.

Hong Wu yanked him back and then put his foot into the shower, cursing, "Damn, you're an exhibitionist! You're running out of here with your butt naked! You're a bean-sprout, and you're not ashamed of yourself! Go take a shower and change your clothes before you go out!"

Only then did Tanaka Koichi come back to his senses and realised he was still naked, so he bowed repeatedly, "Sorry Mr. Hong, I'm really sorry! It's me who took the liberty!"

At this moment.

Ye Chen had already gone ahead and walked out from the bathroom where Ito Yuuhiko was.

Ito Nanaiko was standing outside the door at this moment waiting anxiously because she was worried, and waiting here with her was her aunt, Ito Emi.

When she saw Ye Chen come out, Ito Nanaiko subconsciously wanted to go forward, but when she thought that her father was still in the bathroom, she stopped and asked Ye Chen from a distance of a few meters, "Ye Chen-kun, Odo-san, he How is it going?"

"Quite well." Ye Chen laughed, "He's taking a shower, he'll be out in a minute."

Ito Nana-chan pursed her lips and said tentatively, "I think I heard Father-sama crying just now, I don't know if I heard it wrong"

Ye Chen smiled slightly, then walked up to her and said with relief, "It's okay, Mr. Ito was just slightly emotional just now, but he was excited because he was happy then, so you don't have to worry too much, I guess it should come out in a few minutes."

Chapter 4890

Nana Ito was a bit puzzled and asked carefully, "What exactly happened that could make Odo-san cry out in joy?"

Ye Chen said in a mysterious manner, "Don't worry, soon you will know."

Seeing that Ye Chen was unwilling to say anything explicitly, Ito Nanaeko had no choice but to nod and follow Ye Chen back to the living room together with her aunt.

Just as Ito Nana-chan was still wondering what had happened, Su Ruoli, who was at the side, was already so excited that her palms began to sweat.

She was now a five-star martial artist, and the acuity of her senses was no longer the same as before, so she could hear the conversation between Ye Chen and Ito Yuuhiko in the bathroom just now clearly, even though she had no intention of eavesdropping.

So, she already knew at this moment that Ito Yohiko had relied on the Remodelling Pill given by Ye Chen to remodel his legs, which made her heart incredibly excited, because in two hours' time, the plane her mother was on would also land in New York, and by then, like Ito Yohiko, her mother would also be able to regenerate her broken limbs and turn back into a normal person again!

A few minutes later, Yohiko Ito changed into the sportswear that Ye Chen had had prepared in advance, and walked out of the bathroom accompanied by the housekeeper.

At this moment, Ito Yohiko's eyes and nose were both red, and his whole body was walking at a somewhat slow pace, and even a bit stiff, but this was not because there was something wrong with his legs, but because his excitement had not subsided in the slightest at the moment.

Seeing Yohiko Ito come out, Nanaiko Ito scrambled to get up and go forward, and had just taken a few steps when she suddenly noticed something unusual about her father.

Firstly, her father was not wearing the tattooed hakama he had worn before.

Secondly, that her father had changed into a sports outfit of shorts and short sleeves.

What surprised her even more was that her father's prosthetic leg had also changed in style.

The previous prostheses were not fully ecological.

After all, it was impossible for a prosthetic leg to fully simulate the human body even if it was advanced, so its thighs, knees and lower legs were all made of titanium to act as the original skeletal parts.

Yohiko Ito's prosthesis is a very fine and sophisticated one, using bionic materials similar to human muscles for the thighs and calves to simulate the contours and visual effects of real muscles.

The knee and ankle joints are exposed metal parts in order to facilitate access and not interfere with the movement of several components of the prosthesis.

If one were not wearing trousers, one could see at a glance the four titanium joints on both prosthetic limbs.

However, Nanae Ito found that her father's two "prosthetic limbs" were so realistic that even the joints of the original metal components had turned into a material similar to human muscles, and it was impossible to tell that they were fake at all, as if they were made out of nature.

Ito Emi on the other side also saw the difference and said excitedly, "Oni-chan! Such realistic prosthetics, you can't see any traces of prosthetics at all anymore, it's almost like you can make it look real"

Nanaeko Ito also couldn't help but exclaim, "Ondo-san Your new prosthesis It's so realistic If a stranger were to see it, he would never guess it was fake It's impeccable and flawless This such an advanced prosthetic limb, was it given to you by Ye Chenjun?"

Ito Yohiko looked at his daughter and sister, smiled heartily with red eyes, and said seriously, "These legs, indeed, were given to me by Mr. Ye."

Saying that, he said with unparalleled seriousness, word by word, "But This is not some kind of prosthetic leg, this This is These are my legs! The, real legs that grow on me!"
