

Ye Chen 4901

Chapter 4901

The plane glided across the New York night sky and came to a steady stop at JFK Airport with a whirring sound.

Su Ruo Li had been waiting anxiously for a long time.

Ever since she had seen Yohiko Ito and Koichi Tanaka's severed limbs regenerate, Su had been impatiently waiting for her mother's plane to land a minute earlier.

After He Yingxiu and Su Shoudao passed through customs together, Su Ruoli saw the two of them coming out of the passage and rushed to greet them, unable to hide her excitement and shouted, "Mum!"

When He Yingxiu saw Su Ruoli, she happily ran over to him, hugged him with one hand and asked with a smile, "How long have you been waiting here?"

Su Ruoli said, "I've just come for a while."

He Yingxiu nodded and whispered, "Go and say hello to your father."

Su Ruoli glanced at Su Shoudao, who was not far away, and although she was a little embarrassed, she said respectfully, "Hello, Mr Su!"

Su Shoudao was a bit stunned, then he came back to his senses and spoke, "Ruoli, it's better not to call me Mr. Su in the future."

Saying that, Su Shoudao himself said with some lack of breath, "You ..... If you don't mind ..... you can call me a father ....."

After saying this, Su Shoudao also felt ashamed of himself, and hurriedly added: "You are already known as sister to Zhiyu, so calling me Mr. Su again would seem more or less rustic ....."

Su Ruoli subconsciously looked at her mother and saw her smiling slightly at her, so she plucked up her courage and said softly, "Dad ....."

"Good ..... Good ....." Su Shoudao was instantly happy and hurriedly said, "Ruo Li, you don't know, these days your mother has been talking to me about you, saying that she is afraid that you will get into trouble when you return to the United States after the trouble you caused before."

Su Ruoli said comfortingly, "Mom, with Mr. Ye around, you don't have to worry."

He Yingxiu smiled faintly and said, "I'm not worried, it's your father who's worried. I've also told him that with Mr. Ye around, he will definitely ensure your safety, but he may have some personal feelings towards Mr. Ye, so he hasn't been quite at ease."

When Su Shoudao saw that He Yingxiu had exposed his own shortcomings, he could only smile and say to Su Ruoli, "Dad is not doubting Mr. Ye either, Dad is mainly worried about your safety."

Su Ruoli naturally understood Su Shoudao's state of mind and could somewhat understand it, so she said, "Dad, Mr. Ye is very powerful, as long as I am with him, I am the safest, so you and mum can rest assured in the future."

When Su Shoudao saw Su Ruoli's face of admiration when she mentioned Ye Chen, he couldn't help but sigh in his heart: "What exactly do I owe to Ye Chang Ying ..... I can tolerate the fact that Du Haiqing has liked him for so many years, but both my daughters have fallen in love with his son, what the hell is this?"

Su Ruoli saw that her father was lost in thought and had a complicated expression at the same time, so she couldn't help but ask him, "Dad, what's wrong with you?"

Su Shoudao came back to his senses and waved his hand, "Nothing, I haven't been out for a while, so I'm still not quite used to it."

Su Ruoli knew that Ye Chen had asked his mother and grandfather not to let Su Shoudao leave the villa without his permission, so he thought that his mother and grandfather would not disobey Ye Chen's arrangement.

He Yingxiu looked at Ruo Li with some surprise at this time and said offhandedly, "Ruo Li ..... Has your cultivation level risen again? How come mum can't see your realm anymore?"

Because Ye Chen had previously given the He family some Blood Scattering Heart Saving Pills, He Yingxiu's cultivation had been raised to a three-star martial artist some time ago.

Su Ruoli's cultivation level before she came was also three stars, so He Yingxiu could originally tell Su Ruoli's cultivation level.

Chapter 4902

However, when she saw Su Ruoli again this time, she found that she could no longer see through Su Ruoli's cultivation level, so she guessed that she had already been upgraded.

Su Ruoli nodded seriously and spoke, "Thanks to Mr. Ye's blessing, my cultivation has improved a little."

He Yingxiu was immediately excited and said, "That's wonderful! Apart from your grandfather, our He family has another four-star martial artist! Congratulations! If your grandfather knew about it, he would be very happy!"

Su Ruoli pursed her lips and said seriously, "Mom, I'm already a five-star martial artist now ....."

"Five stars?!" He Yingxiu was stunned, and she subconsciously asked, "Ruoli, you haven't been separated from mum for long, how did you rise two levels in a row and become a five-star martial artist? This ..... That's too fast, isn't it?!"

Su Ruoli said with a straight face, "It was Mr. Ye's intention to promote me, that's why he helped me break through to the realm of a five-star martial artist."

"My goodness ....." He Yingxiu couldn't help but exclaim, "Ruo Li, to know Mr. Ye, this is really your destiny! I wouldn't have dreamed that the He family could even produce a five-star martial artist ..... I'm afraid that when the ancestors of the He family were alive, they wouldn't have dared to hope that the He family could reach such heights!"

Su Ruoli also could not help but sigh, "Yes ..... My greatest wish before was to have the chance to break through to a three-star martial artist in this life, but I never thought that I would already be a five-star now ....."

At the side, Su Shoudao also couldn't help but feel relieved for this daughter of his, then he couldn't help but ask Su Ruoli: "Right Ruoli, your mother told me that you said that Ye Chen asked us to come to New York for something big and great, is this the matter?"

"No!" Su Ruoli couldn't hold down her excitement and said, "The big good thing I'm talking about is about mum, and it's definitely a big good thing that I can't even think about!"

As she said that, she became anxious all of a sudden and hurriedly said, "Dad, Mom, let's go now, Mr. Ye is still waiting for you at the hotel!"

Su Shoudao asked, "Ruoli, what's the big news, please tell us first!"

Su Ruoli said without thinking, "This matter is completely beyond the imagination of normal people, you won't believe me even if I tell you now, so let's hurry and go see Mr. Ye first!"

Although Su Shoudao and He Yingxiu were a bit puzzled, they saw that Su Ruoli was unwilling to disclose, so they asked no more questions and followed her to the Buckingham Palace Hotel.

At this moment, Ye Chen had just had a drink with Ito Yohiko and Tanaka Koichi, and after making them dizzy, he asked someone to arrange for them to rest first.

Nana Ito had originally thought of having tea and a chat with Ye Chen on the terrace of the Presidential Suite facing Central Park, but after learning that Su Ruoli's parents would be arriving soon, she dismissed the idea and went back to the room Ye Chen had arranged for her early.

Soon after, Chen Zekai came to report to Ye Chen, "Young master, Miss Ruo Li has returned, Ms He and Su Shoudao from the Su family have also arrived along with her, I asked Hong Wu to take them to the prepared suite."

Ye Chen nodded and spoke, "Good, I'll go there now."

Saying this, Ye Chen quickly walked to the luxurious suite prepared in advance, Su Ruoli, He Yingxiu and Su Shoudao had also arrived in the room by now.

Seeing Ye Chen enter, He Yingxiu hurriedly said respectfully, "Mr Ye!"

Ye Chen smiled at her and nodded in greeting as he spoke, "Ms. He, calling you here from Jinling in such haste hasn't delayed your other arrangements, has it?"

Chapter 4903

He Yingxiu busily waved her hand and said, "Why not Mr. Ye, the entire He family is at your disposal at all times, no matter what time or where, as long as you give the order, the He family will come over at the first opportunity!"

Ye Chen nodded gently.

At this moment, Su Shoudao, who was at the side, spoke somewhat obsequiously, "Ye ..... Hello, Mr. Ye!"

Ye Chen looked at Su Shoudao and asked him with a smile, "How has Mr. Su been doing in Jinling recently?"

"Quite well!" Su Shoudao said without thinking, "I also have to thank you, Mr. Ye, for lifting me up in the first place, so that I can have the opportunity to live the mediocre and peaceful life I am living now."

Ye Chen smiled and asked again, "Is there anything you are not satisfied with? If there is, just say it."

Su Shoudao shook his head like a rattle and said repeatedly, "No, no! Absolutely not!"

Ye Chen nodded slightly and asked him again, "By the way, do you have any contact with your Su family's Su Laozi? He is now in Madagascar, how is he doing?"

Su Shoudao gave a somewhat gloating laugh and replied, "How can I say that the old man is in Madagascar ..... Overall pretty good I guess ..... Said he made a big piece of land and raised a lot of wild animals that are unique to Africa, and also said that in a few days he plans to make a horse farm and raise some horses for fun."

Ye Chen laughed: "That's good, help me bring a good to him when you have a chance."

Su Shoudao laughed twice and thought to himself, "The old man complains about that sh*tty place in Madagascar every day, I don't know how many times he has to scold you every day."

However, on his lips, he said very respectfully, "Sure, sure!"

Ye Chen turned to look at He Yingxiu again and said seriously, "Ms. He, the main reason for inviting you here this time is that I have a new medicine that I want you to try out for me."

When He Yingxiu heard this, combined with her daughter telling her that it was a great good thing, she thought that Ye Chen was going to give her a potion to improve her cultivation, so she hurriedly said, "Mr. Ye, I have something in my heart that I don't know if I should say ....."

Ye Chen smiled, "Ms. He doesn't have to be so polite, but there is no harm in saying it."

He Yingxiu took a look at his empty right sleeve and said seriously, "Mr. Ye, you don't need to waste pills on me, for my situation, even if my cultivation level is raised, compared to martial artists of the same level, my combat power is still quite inferior, missing an arm, not only is the combat power lost by a quarter, more importantly, the body coordination will always be in an uncoordinated If I use those elixir pills on me again, it would be a waste ....."

The medicine that Mr. Ye has asked you to try is specifically to solve this situation of yours! You shouldn't push back, hurry up and say yes!"

He Yingxiu didn't know what Su Ruoli meant by this and thought to herself, "The lack of my right arm is a shortcoming that I can't make up for, what can Mr Ye do to solve my situation? Even if he is magical, there is no way he can make my right arm grow back, right?"

Su Ruoli could see her mother's doubts, she wanted to tell the truth, but was afraid that if she knew, her mother's emotions would fluctuate greatly due to questioning, excitement or nervousness, so she said, "Mom, don't hesitate, just hurry up and say yes!"

He Yingxiu said with difficulty, "It's not that mum doesn't want to follow orders, it's just that mum doesn't want Mr. Ye to waste pills on mum ....."

Ye Chen smiled at this time and said, "Ms. He, believe me, this elixir is only used on your body so that it is not wasted."

Saying that, he took out a breakthrough pill and handed it to Su Ruoli's hand at the side and spoke, "Ruoli, take Ms. He to the bathroom, after Ms. He soaks into the mud, give the pill to her."

Su Ruoli took the Pill and was so excited that tears came out of her eyes and said gratefully, "Thank you, Mr. Ye!"

After saying that, she looked at He Yingxiu and said with excitement to the point of crying, "Mum! Come with me to try the medicine!"

Chapter 4904

Just as Su Ruoli was impatiently arranging for her mother to go to the bathroom and prepare to take the reshaping pills, Su Shoudao, who was in the living room of the suite, looked at Ye Chen and asked tentatively, "Mr. Ye, can I ask you something?"

Ye Chen said blandly, "Mr. Su, just say it, no need to be so polite."

Su Shoudao said with a sarcastic smile, "I want to ask you to give me a day of freedom tomorrow, even half a day will do."

Su Shoudao knew very well in his heart that although he had followed He Yingxiu to New York, he was still essentially under Ye Chen's house arrest.

Hearing his request, Ye Chen asked him curiously, "What does Mr. Su want a day of freedom for? You can tell us first and listen to it, if it is reasonable, this matter is not non-negotiable."

Su Shoudao blushed a little at once, and after hesitating for a moment, he mustered up the courage to say, "I want to go and buy a present for Ruo Li's mother, and then invite her out for dinner if conditions allow."

Hearing this, Ye Chen was suddenly intrigued, he looked at Su Shoudao and asked straight to the point, "At the risk of asking, are you planning to go further with Ms He?"

Su Shoudao's expression was somewhat flustered as he hurriedly explained, "Don't misunderstand me, Mr. Ye, I have no ulterior motives, and in no way do I want to use this as a way to influence your punishment of me, I am making this request purely based on my personal feelings."

At this point, he could not help but let out a soft sigh and lamented, "Mr. Ye, in fact, during this time in Jinling, I have reflected on myself very seriously, my life has indeed been quite a failure, I picked an opponent for myself that I could never overcome, and chose a woman for myself that I could never probate, thinking that I was already standing at the top of many families in the country, but to my surprise, his own three sons and daughters but repeatedly in deep crisis .....

At this moment, Su Shoudao's expression was ashamed as he looked in the direction of the bathroom and muttered, "Moreover, I also let a woman who loved me, silently pay for me for so many years, every time I think about it, I am ashamed of it ....."

Hearing this, Ye Chen nodded gently and could not help but change his attitude towards Su Shoudao somewhat.

In Ye Chen's eyes, there are two kinds of enemies: those who are extremely evil and must die, and those who are not so bad that they must die and can be salvaged.

If the Su family was really behind the death of his parents, Ye Chen would make sure that all the Su family members involved would be buried with his parents.

However, the good thing was that the Su family was not actually involved, so there was still a chance of salvage.

Ye Chen then said with a fake sigh, "Ms He did give a lot for you, not just her, even Ruoli gave a lot for you and the Su family, and was betrayed by the Su family repeatedly."

Su Shoudao said in shame, "You are right ..... The previous Su family members were all too indifferent, including me ....."

Said Su Shoudao before he couldn't help but say from the bottom of his heart, "That's why I've been thinking about it for a while, hoping to have a chance to make up for the two of them, mother and daughter."

Ye Chen asked curiously, "How do you plan to make amends?"

Chapter 4905

Su Shoudao hesitated, but still said what was in his mind, he looked at Ye Chen and said very firmly, "Mr. Ye, I'm not going to hide it from you, I want to buy a ring tomorrow, book another fancy restaurant, invite Ruo Li's mother to have dinner with me, and then propose to her at the dinner ....."

"Propose?" Ye Chen frowned slightly, looked at Su Shoudao, said seriously, "You are the eldest son of this generation of the Su family, although Ms. He gave birth to Ruo Li for you, but her status, and you are a hundred thousand miles away, not to mention, she is also a disabled person, of course, I do not have any intention to discriminate against disabled people, just want to ask you if you have carefully considered the issue of the gap between you?"

Su Shoudao saw Ye Chen frowning and saying something else with questioning words, and thought that Ye Chen was questioning himself, so he said without thinking, "Mr. Ye, you don't need to doubt my motives, I really want to walk hand in hand with Ruo Li's mother for the rest of my life, I know that she has always had me in her heart, and this time my own heart also hopes so, and you can rest assured that I want to If she agrees to marry me, I am willing to remain under her house arrest in Jinling from now on, and you only need to give me one day's freedom, after which I will continue to obey all your previous arrangements."

Saying that, Su Shoudao added very seriously, "As for the gap issue you mentioned just now, this no longer exists in my eyes, I am not the young master of any Su family now, let alone the heir of the Su family, and she lost that arm to save my life, I owe her that, so to say that there is really a gap, it is a gap where she is higher and I am lower, it is me compared to her, a difference of hundred thousand miles."

Ye Chen saw Su Shoudao's sincere feelings and knew that what he said was from the bottom of his heart, so he suddenly felt some emotions in his heart.

In fact, from a certain perspective, Ye Chen had some sympathy for Su Shoudao.

Other than that, the fact that he had loved Du Haiqing deeply for so many years and had failed to return Du Haiqing's heart was indeed saddening.

In addition, the old man, Su Chengfeng, is a powerful and vicious man, and Su Shoudao has been subjected to a lot of oppression, and at a crucial moment, he was even driven to Australia by the old man.

If he could really get together with He Yingxiu and live the rest of his life honestly, he would be willing to end his punishment and even send his blessings.

However, Ye Chen still could not help but remind him, "Mr Su, every man who has ever succeeded will self-reflect and self-criticise when he falls on hard times. When Zhu Yuanzhang fell on hard times back then, he also worshipped the porridge cooked from leftovers as pearl and emerald white jade soup, but the problem is that some people are able to do real introspection and remember the lessons learned even if they regain success in the future, but some If you were to regain your freedom in the future and regain control of hundreds of billions of dollars in wealth, would you still stick to your current decision?"

The Su family used to have mansions all over the world, I have lived in many nice villas, manors and even castles, but to be honest, they are not as solid as this time in Jinling."

"During this time in Jinling, I no longer have to rack my brain to express myself, I don't have to care about what my father thinks of me, I don't have to worry about the rivalry between my brothers, you and me, and I don't have to worry about whether Zhi Fei and Zhi Yu's mother are thinking of other men behind my back again ....."

"On top of that, there is still Ruo Li's mother's daily careful and considerate care, life is not known how easy, to use a phrase often used by young people nowadays, this is the happiness of lying flat ....."

The first thing you need to do is to make sure that you have a good idea of what you are doing. From now on, until I die, I will never let them down. I ask you, Mr. Ye, to make it happen!"

Chapter 4906

Su Shoudao's words were spoken with sincerity.

Ye Chen could also tell that he had definitely given this a lot of thought when he could say this to himself.

Moreover, it was not difficult to hear from his words that he had indeed seen through the situation now and had long since ceased to be interested in ruling the Su family and its trillion dollar family fortune.

For him now, how to make up for a woman who had loved him for many years and had given so much to him, and how to go about being a good husband and a good father, had become the most important thing in his life plan.

Seeing this, Ye Chen's brow, which had been slightly knitted, finally stretched out.

He glanced at Su Shoudao and then said with a serious expression, "If you really want to propose, you don't have to wait until tomorrow, because by tomorrow, things will have changed qualitatively again."

Su Shoudao was very surprised and asked in confusion, "Mr. Ye, what do you mean by qualitative changes?"

Ye Chen said seriously, "If you really decide to propose, then start preparing now and wait until the moment the bathroom door opens and Ms. He walks out from inside, the first time you walk up to her, get down on one knee and propose to her. Believe me, this is your best chance."

The qualitative change that Ye Chen had just mentioned was actually the remodeling pill that he had just handed to Su Ruoli.

Guessing, Su Ruoli should be in the bathroom right now, helping her mother, He Yingxiu, to prepare before taking the pill.

In another 20 to 30 minutes, when He Yingxiu was ready and came out of the bathroom, she would become a normal person and her broken right arm would grow back intact.

If Su Shoudao had waited until tomorrow night to propose, it would have given him the impression that he had proposed because he had seen He Yingxiu recover.

So, out of consideration for him, Ye Chen wanted him to be ready immediately and propose as soon as He Yingxiu came out.

In this way, Su Shoudao would have a chance to get what he wanted, and Su Ruoli would certainly be extraordinarily pleased.

For He Yingxiu, it would be a double blessing.

As long as He Yingxiu nodded, it would be a happy night for all.

Su Shoudao did not understand why Ye Chen had to let himself prepare immediately and said somewhat nervously, "That ..... Mr. Ye ..... You want me to start preparing now, I really don't know where to start ..... I was going to pick out a diamond ring and a decent suit tomorrow, but there's no time to do that ....."

Ye Chen laughed: "Nothing is too late, the Buckingham Palace Hotel has several luxury brands on the ground floor, including a Cartier jewellery, and a few men's brands, I'll have Lao Chen take you down to choose now, as for the flowers, I'll also have him help arrange, 20 minutes is also enough time to get ready."

The top luxury five-star hotels almost always have a small shopping street of their own, attracting in the top tier brands in the luxury industry as well, making it easy for high-end customers to shop close by.

So, whether it was diamond rings or suits, they could all be found here.

Su Shoudao didn't expect Ye Chen to make the arrangements for himself at once, and as time was suddenly pushed to the forefront, he couldn't help but feel nervous in his heart and stammered, "This ..... isn't a bit too sudden, I'm not mentally prepared ....."

Ye Chen asked him, "What else do you need to do to prepare for the proposal besides the diamond ring and flowers?"

"This ....." Su Shoudao was also a bit speechless for a while, not knowing how to answer.

Ye Chen said with some impatience, "Alright, don't rub it in, I'll let Old Chen take you down now."

After saying that, he picked up his mobile phone and called Chen Zekai over.

Chapter 4907

As soon as Chen Zekai entered the room, Ye Chen said to him, "Old Chen, take Mr. Su to Cartier on the ground floor of the hotel to choose a ring and a decent suit, and have the guest room department prepare a bouquet of fresh roses to send over."

Although Chen Zekai was a little surprised, he still said very dryly, "Yes young master!"

After saying that, he gestured to Su Shoudao, "Please do, Mr. Su."

Although Su Shoudao felt somewhat rushed, at this moment, he was no longer inquisitive and hurriedly followed Chen Zekai out of the room.

At this moment.

Su Ruoli's mind was all on her mother alone.

On the clothes rack in the bathroom, there was a short-sleeved dress that Su Ruoli had prepared in advance for her mother.

This dress, which she had chosen for her mother, had been carefully selected.

Unlike Ito Yohiko, He Yingxiu's right arm had been broken for over twenty years, so she had never seen her mother wear any kind of short-sleeved dress since the day Su Ruoli could remember.

Even in the hottest part of summer, her mother would wear a long-sleeved blouse, and once in a while she would wear a skirt, and the top half of her body would always be long-sleeved.

Su Ruoli had never seen her mother on all fours, but she guessed that she would be glorious if she changed into this feminine dress that she had chosen.

And at this moment, He Yingxiu did not realise that the dress was bought for herself.

As she took off her clothes one by one with Su Ruoli's help, she looked at the light green dress with elegant flowers and said with a smile, "Ruoli, this dress is really pretty, you usually act like a tomboy every day, why did you give up wearing a dress this time?"

He Yingxiu did not realise. This dress was actually bought for herself by her daughter.

As far as she could remember, Ruo Li had hardly ever worn a dress in her life because of her martial arts training.

Su Ruoli took the dress off the hanger at this moment, compared it to her body and asked with a smile, "Mum, do you think it looks good too?"

He Yingxiu nodded gently and said, "It looks good, but it feels slightly old-fashioned, not suitable for a girl in her early twenties like you, but for a woman in her thirties or forties."

Su Ruoli smiled cheekily and said, "Your eye is quite accurate! I also think this dress is not quite suitable for a young girl like me."

He Yingxiu smiled dotingly and said, "You are in your twenties, you are no longer a little girl, many girls as old as you are are now mothers."

Su Ruoli spat out her tongue and said petulantly, "Mom, in front of you, I'll always be a little girl."

He Yingxiu touched Su Ruoli's face and sighed, "Mom really didn't expect that my Ruoli would become a five-star martial artist, and it's definitely the happiest thing in Mom's life that you've had this chance!"

Su Ruoli lifted her arm and gently touched the back of her mother's hand, her eyes were red and her tone was firm, "Mom, there is something even happier later, the wish that I have made every year on my birthday since I was five years old will soon come true!"

As a child, Su Ruoli was most distressed by her mother's broken right arm.

So, ever since she could understand, every year on her birthday she made a wish, she silently wished for the same thing, that is, for her mother to recover and become a normal person.

Although she always knew that this wish would never come true, she kept making it again and again, year after year.

From the time she was five years old, when her mother, He Yingxiu, asked her what she wished for, she would only smile and say two words: "Keep it a secret."

So, when He Yingxiu suddenly heard that her daughter had made the same wish for more than ten years in a row, she was surprised and asked, "Ruo Li, what is it that you have wished for so many years in a row?"

Su Ruoli smiled mysteriously and pulled her mother to the bathtub, urging, "Mom, lie down in the bathtub first, all the questions you want to know tonight will soon be revealed!"

Chapter 4908

He Yingxiu didn't know why her daughter had asked her to lie down in the bathtub, but she saw that her daughter was full of anticipation at this point, so she didn't ask more questions.

After she had soaked her body from the neck down into the bathtub, Su Ruoli took out the Remodelling Pill and instructed, "Mum, Mr Ye said that you would fall asleep after taking the pill, but you don't have to worry, I'll be watching over you all the time!"

With that, she put the Reshaping Pill that Ye Chen had given her into He Yingxiu's mouth.

He Yingxiu smiled at her daughter, and before she could speak, she felt a blankness in her brain and her whole body lost consciousness.

Seeing that her mother had lost consciousness, Su Ruoli stood motionless in front of the bathtub, expecting the moment when a miracle would happen.

Meanwhile, Richard Chen took Su Shoudao and found a diamond ring worth US$1.3 million at Cartier's shop.

It was already one of the best diamond rings that could be bought in this shop, but in Su Shoudao's eyes, it was still a bit petty.

He couldn't help but ask the young saleswoman, "Is this the only size available? Is there a bigger one with a higher purity?"

The Chinese-American saleswoman said, somewhat nervously, "Sir ..... This is already the best diamond ring in our shop, and usually this diamond ring is not in our shop, according to the company's requirements, it is on tour in many shops in New York, it just arrived in this shop this morning, if you came yesterday, the best diamond ring in our shop, in fact, is less than a fraction of this diamond ring ....."

Su Shoudao looked at the already somewhat exaggeratedly large diamond ring and said with a disgusted look on his face, "But this one of yours really isn't big enough either, and the colour isn't rare enough, I'm planning to propose, this is a bit out of hand ....."

The saleswoman was dumbfounded and couldn't help but ask, "Sir ..... I wonder what kind of diamond ring would be big enough and rare enough in your eyes?"

Su Shoudao thought about it and said casually, "How about a rare blue diamond or a pink diamond or a red diamond? The price point is at least five million dollars or more, at least without dropping the price ....."

The saleswoman could not tell whether Su Shoudao was telling the truth or joking, but her professionalism still drove her to explain patiently, "Sorry, sir, the kinds of diamonds you mentioned, we usually do not put them in the shop for retail sale, most of them are specially customized for VIP customers, and some of them even go directly to the auction."

On the other side, Richard Chen was not surprised by Su Shoudao's words, after all, he was the young master of the Su family at the time, and a diamond ring of a million dollars or so would certainly not enter his eyes.

However, Richard Chen also knew that time did not allow him to be too choosy, so he reminded him in a low voice, "Mr. Su, we have limited time and the objective conditions of the shop are also limited, if you want to find a ring that can satisfy you completely tonight, I am afraid it is not possible anymore. Let's buy this one first and then hurry up and look at the suits, so as not to delay the business."

Su Shoudao sighed lightly and nodded, "Alright then, I'll take this one."

After saying that, he looked at the saleswoman and said, "Please check out for me, the ring doesn't need to be wrapped, I'll just take it."

Chapter 4909

The saleswoman froze in her entire body and asked in a small, cautious voice, "Sir ..... Do you really want to buy this ring? It's a million and three hundred thousand dollars ....."

Su Shoudao gave a hmph, took out his wallet, took out a black gold Express Centurion card from it, handed it to the saleswoman and spoke, "Hurry up and swipe your card, I have things to do."

Seeing this card, the saleswoman realised that this uncle in front of her was actually a big shot in the true sense of the word, so she hurriedly said respectfully, "Wait a moment, sir, I'll settle the bill for you ....."

Soon after signing his name on the bill, Su Shoudao casually slipped the US$1.3 million diamond ring into his pocket.

He then picked out a ready-to-wear suit at Armani that was barely passable, although it was already pricey enough for the average person, but it still made Su Shoudao quite unhappy.

For a rich man of his calibre, it would be an insult to wear a ready-made suit from any of the brand's shops. Normally, it would be the top dressmakers of these brands who would come to his door, take his measurements and then tailor the suit exactly to his body shape so that it could be truly worn out.

He chose his clothes, put them on and put his diamond ring into the pocket of his new suit before he and Richard Chen rushed back to the guest room.

The hotel staff also brought up the ninety-nine roses they had prepared. In Chinese custom, ninety-nine means longevity, which is an excellent symbol for love.

It was a good thing that the flowers prepared by the hotel concierge were all very well-known top varieties, each one very fresh, delicate and flawless.

And at this time, He Yingxiu in the bathtub, her eyelashes fluttered slightly.

Su Ruoli, who had never taken half a step away from the bathtub, noticed this and knew that her mother would soon wake up, so she impatiently went around to the right side of the bathtub and gently reached out her hand, following her mother's right shoulder and looking all the way down into the mud.

Originally, He Yingxiu's right shoulder was a vertical and uneven wound downwards. Although her arm had been severed at the root, the irregularity of the scar meant that the entire wound was like tree bark, full of irregular lines and folds.

He Yingxiu usually wore long sleeves, so the trauma of her broken arm was hardly visible to anyone except Su Ruoli.

Su Ruoli, who had grown up caring for her mother, had often stroked her mother's wound when she slept with her as a child, asking her if it hurt with concern, so she was very familiar with her mother's wound.

But when she felt down her mother's right shoulder, the vertical section that seemed like a cliff did not appear.

What she felt in her hand was her mother's round and full shoulder.

At this moment, Su Ruoli's hand could not control some trembling.

She then continued down her mother's right shoulder, and she felt her mother's upper arm, her elbow, and her small arm.

Finally, it was her mother's right hand, which she had never seen, let alone touched before!

At this moment, Su Ruoli suddenly burst into tears!

For as long as she could remember, the wish she had made every year on her birthday was that her mother would become a normal person.

Chapter 4910

Although she knew that this kind of wish would never come true, she still couldn't help but use the most precious wishing opportunity of the year to make this wish.

But who would have thought that the wish that she thought would be the most unlikely to come true could become a reality!

Su Ruoli, who was overwhelmed with excitement, interlocked her fingers with her mother's right hand, lifted her right hand out of the mud and then clasped her mother's right hand with both hands.

At that moment, as if she had just awakened from general anaesthesia, He Yingxiu's vision began to change from blurred to gradually clear.

When she saw Su Ruoli in front of her, she asked with a loving face, "Ruoli, why are you still crying?"

Su Ruoli clutched her mother's hand, unable to stop her tears from flowing all the time, while choking on a sob, "I'm crying because I'm happy ....."

She had been broken for more than 20 years and was completely used to living without her right arm, so when she saw her daughter crying, she subconsciously lifted her left hand to dry Su Ruoli's tears.

But just as her left hand was about to touch Su Ruoli's face, she was suddenly struck by lightning and froze on the spot.

She suddenly realised that in addition to her own left hand, she could see three other hands in her field of vision.

Two were her daughter Su Ruoli's, and the other, was being held tightly by Su Ruoli .....

In this instant, He Yingxiu only felt chills down her spine and back!

She didn't know whose hand her daughter was holding in both hands, and she even had a feeling in her heart as if she was having a nightmare.

Terrified, she couldn't help but ask, "Ruo Li ..... You ..... That hand you're holding is ....."

When she asked this, He Yingxiu's expression suddenly froze.

She originally wanted to ask her daughter whose hand she was holding.

However, at this moment, she suddenly felt that a certain nerve that had disappeared for years was suddenly tugged and sent back a feeling of being held tightly.

That feeling came from her right hand, which had been severed for over twenty years!

Unlike Ito Yohiko, who had just lost his legs and had been a normal person for almost fifty years, He Yingxiu had a hard time adjusting to the sudden loss of his legs.

But He Yingxiu had been a disabled person without her right arm for half of the same fifty years, so she had already got used to the feeling that her right arm was empty.

Now, with the sudden return of her right arm, she simply could not adapt to it for a while.

However, when she subconsciously tried to control her right arm, she could clearly feel the clear feedback from all the nervous systems of her right arm.

She looked at Su Ruoli with trepidation and asked, "Ruoli ..... This ..... What the hell is going on here? ..... Mum is not insane, right?!"

Su Ruoli hurriedly explained, "Mom! Don't be nervous! You're not deranged, it's all because of Mr. Ye's remodeling pills, which can regenerate a person's severed limbs! Before you came, the Ito family's Ito Yohiko, relied on Mr. Ye's Reshaping Pill and completely recovered both of his amputated legs!"

Hearing Su Ruoli's words, although He Yingxiu was shocked beyond belief in her heart, reason had already allowed her to make an accurate judgment.
