

Ye Chen 4911

Chapter 4911

She had seen the miraculous effects of Ye Chen's pills, which could make a martial artist cross a heavenly rift that could not be crossed for decades in the space of a single incense stick.

Having seen such wonders, now that her severed limbs had regenerated, she was extremely shocked as well, but she would not question its authenticity.

Confirming that this was all a reality, He Yingxiu's whole person was already thrilled beyond addition, she looked at her right hand and murmured, "From the moment Mom broke her arm, she never thought there would be a day when it would be restored like the first ....."

Su Ruoli took her mother's right hand and choked up, "Mom, didn't you ask me what I used to wish for on my birthday? This is my wish ..... It's just that I never thought that it would actually come true ....."

Hearing this, He Yingxiu was even more moved to tears.

Mother and daughter were already extremely affectionate, plus they had grown up together, and this affection was much deeper than that of an ordinary mother and daughter.

The broken arm of He Yingxiu was an extremely special thing for the mother-daughter duo.

From a practical point of view, if He Yingxiu had not broken her arm, Su Ruoli would never have been born into this world.

So, although her mother had lived a life of disability for more than twenty years, deep down she was willingly attached to this broken arm, but her daughter was ashamed of it.

How could she not know what was in her mother's heart.

However, when she thought that she had been given back by her mother in exchange for an arm, her heart was filled with guilt towards her mother.

And now, a reshaping pill given by Ye Chen completely unlocked this knot in Su Ruoli's heart, and at the same time, made up for the lack of regret He Yingxiu had felt for over twenty years.

For a while, the mother and daughter were so relieved that they were both crying with pearly tears.

What they did not know was that Su Shoudao, who had changed into a suit, was already pacing nervously back and forth in the living room.

A large bouquet of bright roses was in his hand, and the diamond ring, which he was not too happy with, was lying quietly in the lined pocket of his suit.

In his life, Su Shoudao had never proposed to a woman before, so it was inevitable that he would be nervous and apprehensive.

When he married Du Haiqing, it was not because he had proposed to Du Haiqing, but because Du Haiqing had taken the initiative to approach him after Ye Changye got married and put forward several requirements for his marriage, and had given the word that he would marry him as soon as he could agree.

At that time, Su Shoudao did not hesitate half a second and immediately agreed to all of them, followed by the meeting of both parents, the urgent setting of a wedding date and the hurried completion of the wedding.

The pace was so fast that Su Shoudao didn't have a chance to formally propose at all.

At the moment, he was pacing back and forth while silently reciting lines in his mind in preparation for the proposal, all the while keeping an eye on the time on his wristwatch.

Seeing that the mother and daughter had been inside for half an hour, he could not help but ask Ye Chen a little anxiously, "Mr Ye, why haven't they come out yet?"

Ye Chen smiled faintly, "It should be soon too, are you ready?"

Chapter 4912

"Ready ....." Su Shoudao answered with no energy, then wiped the beads of sweat on his forehead and asked Ye Chen with some uncertainty, "Mr. Ye, may I ask, the proposal is on one knee, right? Do we send the flowers or the ring first?"

Ye Chen shook his head and said, "I don't know."

Su Shoudao subconsciously asked, "How could you not know ..... Haven't you ever been married?"

Ye Chen said indifferently, "When I got married, it was basically an arranged marriage, my wife's grandfather alone was the one who took charge and had full authority to arrange it, so there was no such process as a marriage proposal."

Saying that, Ye Chen asked him, "Did you and Auntie Du not propose back then?"

Su Shoudao smiled awkwardly and said, "You were an arranged marriage, I was a contracted marriage, we are considered half and half ....."

The first thing you need to do is to get down on one knee and ask if the other party is willing to marry you, if the other party nods, you can then put the ring on the other party and give her the flowers. flowers to her, and if the other party refuses, you should logically stand up as a gentleman and prepare to exit."

As soon as Su Shoudao heard this, he became even more nervous and could not help but ask, "What if Ruo Li's mother rejects me later ..... I have to be watched by her in the future, if she rejects me, I won't be able to see each other in the future, it's ..... It's too awkward ....."

Ye Chen laughed: "I think Ms. He has not married for so many years, and still raised Ruo Li alone, and even sent Ruo Li to protect you after she became an adult, so it is clear that you have a high weight in her heart, in other words, she should be deeply in love with you, if you propose to someone who loves you deeply and still get rejected, then you have to look at your own looking for the reason."

Su Shoudao couldn't help but nod, as if to cheer himself up, and muttered, "What Mr. Ye said makes sense ..... In that case, as long as I propose to Yingxiu sincerely and show her what I have in mind, she should not reject me, not to mention that there is still Ruo Li around, she should not reject me for reasons of reason ....."

After speaking, he quickly looked at Ye Chen again, and begged: "Mr. Ye, can I ask you one thing?"

Ye Chen said indifferently, "You speak."

Su Shoudao said with a sincere expression, "If Ruo Li's mother agrees with me, I hope you can allow us to hold a simple ceremony and a few tables at our villa in Jinling, and then let Zhiyu and Ruo Li come along to join us!"

Ye Chen smiled faintly and spoke, "If Ms He has promised you today, then when I return to Jinling, I will definitely give you a grand wedding at the Buckingham Palace in Jinling, and by then everyone in the Su family can come and attend as long as they wish, including Elder Su, who is far away in Madagascar, and Su Zhi Fei, who is on his pilgrimage!"

Chapter 4913

Su Shoudao was so shocked by Ye Chen's words that he was speechless.

He really did not expect that Ye Chen would promise to throw a grand wedding for himself.

In fact, the reason why he had just pleaded with Ye Chen, hoping that after He Yingxiu had agreed to his proposal, Ye Chen would allow himself to hold a small ceremony and banquet in the villa where he was under house arrest, was that he did not want to owe He Yingxiu a wedding.

But he also knew his current situation, and Ye Chen was already being extraordinarily kind to him by allowing the He family to place him under house arrest. Although he lost his freedom to go out in Jinling under house arrest, his other freedoms were not restricted within that villa, and he could use his mobile phone, computer, internet and television to contact anyone he wanted, and He Yingxiu also took very good care of his food, clothing and living.

Combined with the Su family's previous actions of being the lapdogs of the Wan Long Temple and wearing mourning for Wan Breaking Jun's parents to kill them on Mount Ye Ling, Su Shoudao was already very grateful for Ye Chen's lenient treatment of himself and the rest of his family.

Under such circumstances, he would have been extremely satisfied as long as Ye Chen could promise him that he would allow him to hold a small wedding in the villa.

But how could he have imagined that Ye Chen would give him such a big concession.

At this moment, all of Su Shoudao's inner discontent towards Ye Chen instantly dissipated, and all that remained was gratitude.

He tried to calm his emotions and bowed deeply towards Ye Chen, his eyes were a little red as he said to Ye Chen: "Mr. Ye, thank you ..... Really thank you! Thank you for repaying your grievances with virtue, I, Su Shoudao, can't thank you enough!"

Ye Chen smiled blandly, pointed behind him and reminded, "Ms. He should be coming out soon, you'd better get your business done first."

Towards Su Shoudao, Ye Chen could no longer talk about hatred.

Since he could now sincerely propose to He Yingxiu, it was enough to prove that this man had lost his way. What's more, He Yingxiu's devotion and dedication to his relationship was also greatly admired by Ye Chen, so Ye Chen naturally also hoped that a lover would finally be married.

Moreover, Ye Chen had already made up his mind that when the wedding was scheduled, he would tell Su Ruoli in advance and let her plan a honeymoon trip for her parents, which would be a gift for the two of them at the wedding, and at the same time, he would also officially announce at that time that he would lift Su Shoudao's house arrest and completely return him to freedom.

At this moment, Su Shoudao did not realise that Ye Chen had an even bigger surprise in store for him.

Chapter 4914

Immediately afterwards, there was a sound of the latch popping open from the bathroom door, and Su Shoudao's whole body was immediately lifted and he hurriedly came to the bathroom door to get ready.

Inside the bathroom, He Yingxiu had already changed into a dress that her daughter Su Ruoli had bought in advance, and her white and flawless arms were directly exposed to the air, making her look very young and confident.

Su Ruoli pulled the door open and walked out with her mother, He Yingxiu, when she suddenly saw her father, Su Shoudao, standing outside the door in an elegant suit, and at Su Shoudao's feet, there was a large bouquet of roses.

At this moment, Su Ruoli did not think that her father was planning to propose to her mother. She thought that her father had learned from Ye Chen that her mother would soon become a normal person again, so he had prepared flowers to celebrate.

He Yingxiu also did not expect that Su Shoudao would be waiting at the door, and was a bit stunned for a while.

As for Su Shoudao, due to his excessive nervousness, he didn't even realise that He Yingxiu had undergone a huge change at that moment.

The moment he saw He Yingxiu, Su Shoudao's nervous brain went blank for a while, then he remembered the steps Ye Chen had told him before and put his heart on the line, immediately kneeling down on one knee directly to the ground.

At the moment Su Shoudao knelt down, Su Ruoli instantly realised her father's true intentions, and the whole person was so excited that she covered her mouth in disbelief.

And He Yingxiu also seemed to have sensed Su Shoudao's intentions, and she, who had only just regained her old confidence, was instantly too nervous to attach.

After all, in her opinion, she had been a servant of the Su family for so many years that she was not worthy of a young master like Su Shoudao, not to mention that she had been a disabled person for more than 20 years and subconsciously felt that the difference between herself and Su Shoudao had long been clouds and mud, so even in her dreams she did not dare to overstep the mark.

However, when she saw Su Shoudao, who was dressed in an elegant suit, suddenly kneeling on one knee in front of her, He Yingxiu was so panicked that her heart was beating wildly, and even her breathing was in disarray.

Su Shoudao kept his head down, and after kneeling down on one knee, he fumbled around and took the box of the ring out from the inner pocket of his suit.

Then, holding the ring box with one hand, he opened the ring with the other and looked up at He Yingxiu's face, which was barely visible with age, and said with great emotion: "Yingxiu ..... For so many years, it has been hard for you to raise Ruo Li all by yourself ....."

He Yingxiu tears kept flowing, but only subconsciously shook his head and said softly, "It's not hard ..... It's not hard at all ....."

Chapter 4915

Su Shoudao's brain is confused, as soon as he opened his mouth, he realized he seemed to have run off course, the ring was opened, shouldn't he have proposed first?

Thinking of this, he didn't know how to pull it towards the proposal for a while, he could only say stiffly, "That ..... I meant to say ..... I have not done my duty as a father for so many years ..... I have made Ruoli suffer a lot ....."

Su Ruoli could see that her father had already messed up, and while she was touched, she couldn't help but choke up and remind her, "Dad ..... What is the point of what you want to say? The ring you're holding, it should be for mum, right?"

Only then did Su Shoudao come back to his senses and hurriedly looked at He Yingxiu, saying nervously but sincerely, "Yingxiu, it's true that you've been wronged for so many years ..... Today, in front of Ruoli, I would like to ask you if you are willing to marry me, if you are, for the rest of your life, I will do my best to make you two happy ....."

Although He Yingxiu had already realized what Su Shoudao was going to do before, but when Su Shoudao really asked herself if she was willing to marry him, her whole body was still stunned speechless.

To her, marrying Su Shoudao was something that she did not even dare to think about.

Strictly speaking, He Yingxiu had never thought that she would marry Su Shoudao in this life.

Apart from the huge difference between their status, more importantly, ever since she had a relationship with Su Shoudao more than twenty years ago, she had always been so ashamed of her act of interfering in Su Shoudao's marriage with Du Haiqing back then that she had hardly met Su Shoudao again in the subsequent twenty years.

Even though the entire He family was serving the Su family and even as an adult Su Ruoli had been sent to Su Shoudao's side, He Yingxiu had remained in Desert City and never set foot in the Su family again.

Therefore, when Su Shoudao suddenly asked her to marry him, she was at a loss as to what to do, so she froze in her tracks and did not move at all.

Su Ruoli at the side hurriedly urged, "Mom, what's wrong with you? Dad is still kneeling on the floor!"

He Yingxiu came back to her senses and said in a panic: "Eldest Young Master ..... I ..... I don't know what to say ....."

Su Shoudao knew exactly what He Yingxiu was worried about, and he said seriously, "Yingxiu, let's no longer count on what was right or wrong in the past, even without you, my original marriage would not have been happy, not to mention that I am no longer the young master of the Su family, and there is no difference in status or position between you and me. If you think the Su family will make you feel awkward, I can give up all my rights and interests in the Su family, I don't ask for anything now, I only ask you to promise me!

Chapter 4916

Su Ruoli also couldn't help but persuade from the side, "Mom, just say yes to Dad, Dad and Auntie Du are already divorced, and you've always had him in your heart for so many years, now Dad is proposing to you, what else do you have to hesitate about? If you two can tie the knot, I will also have a real sense of family ....."

When He Yingxiu heard these words, her psychological defenses were instantly loosened quite a bit.

Su Ruoli had grown up in a single-parent environment, and although the He family loved her, they still couldn't make up for the lack of a father's role.

Before the Su family had messed with Ye Chen, He Yingxiu even knew very well that Su Shoudao would never be able to publicly acknowledge Su Ruoli as his daughter in his lifetime.

Yet right now, he was kneeling in front of himself, asking for his hand in marriage while longing to give his daughter a complete family.

In this instant, all of He Yingxiu's worries vanished and she said to Su Shoudao with tears streaming down her face, "I promise you ....."

Su Shoudao was immediately excited and asked, "Really? Yingxiu, you've really agreed to marry me?"

He Yingxiu did not say anything, but only looked at Su Shoudao and nodded heavily.

This man whom she had loved for half her life, although he was much older than before and did not have that heroic aura back then, was still the most charming one in her heart.

In the past, she would always control her heart and restrain her emotions for him.

But at this moment, her eyes were already full of deep love.

Su Ruoli, who was also overjoyed at the side, hurriedly urged, "Dad, you should quickly put the ring on for mum!"

“Oh yes, yes, yes!” Only then did Su Shoudao come back to his senses and hurriedly took the ring out of the jewellery box.

And He Yingxiu, who had not adapted at all to the fact that her right arm had recovered, still subconsciously handed over her left hand.

Su Shoudao gently held He Yingxiu’s palm and was about to put the ring on her when Su Ruoli reminded her again: “Dad! The man’s left hand and the woman’s right hand! The ring should be on mum’s right ring finger!”

Su Shoudao’s mind was blank at the moment and he was totally dependent on his daughter to nudge him, so once he heard this, he said without thinking, “Oops, yes, yes, I forgot about that .....

He Yingxiu came back to her senses and not too skillfully handed her right hand to Su Shoudao’s face.

Su Shoudao, because of his nervousness, only thought of hurrying to put the ring on her, so he didn’t notice anything unusual either.

It was only when he took the ring and carefully placed it on He Yingxiu’s right ring finger that he suddenly realised something was wrong.

He stared at He Yingxiu’s right hand for a long time and followed it all the way up to find that this whole arm, surprisingly, was growing on He Yingxiu’s right shoulder!

At this second, he subconsciously looked at He Yingxiu and asked in horror, “Yingxiu ..... This ..... What’s going on here?!”

Chapter 4917

Su Shoudao, who was somewhat confused because he was nervous and apprehensive, had only just discovered until now that He Yingxiu, who had lost his right arm for over twenty years, had turned into a normal person with two sound arms!

In this instant, he thought that He Yingxiu was wearing some kind of advanced prosthetic limbs.

So he subconsciously said, “This ..... Where is this prosthetic limb made? This ..... This is too real!”

He Yingxiu spoke with a grateful face, “This is not a prosthetic limb ..... It’s the arm that Mr. Ye gave me an elixir and after taking it, it grew back .....

“What?!” Su Shoudao’s jaw dropped as he asked, “A regrown one?! This ..... How is this possible?”

Su Ruoli, who was at the side, reminded, “Dad, you have seen Mr. Ye’s magical powers on Ye Ling Mountain, so you can’t use our limited common sense to measure his abilities.”

Su Shoudao’s expression was momentarily stunned as he immediately recalled all that he had seen on Mount Ye Ling that day.

The unbelievably powerful Wan Breaking Army had been defeated in a single blow even before Ye Chen.

And two of the Four Great Battle Kings of the Ten Thousand Dragons Hall had also died as easily as they could.

Ye Chen's strength and ability were indeed beyond his own comprehension.

Therefore, there seemed to be nothing incomprehensible about being able to come up with a pill that allowed people to regenerate their severed limbs.

Thinking of this, he couldn't help but sigh, "I didn't expect that our family, after all, had been blessed by Mr. Ye's grace ....."

He Yingxiu nodded gently and spoke, "Eldest Young Master please get up first, I want to go and thank Mr. Ye!"

"Yes, yes, yes!" Su Shoudao was completely convinced, he hurriedly held the roses up and handed them to He Yingxiu, seriously saying, "Let's go and thank Mr. Ye together ....."

Ye Chen, who was in the living room, heard the three families talking, and without waiting for them to come out, he immediately stood up and said in a loud voice, "You three families have a good time catching up, I'll go back to my room first."

When he said that, he already took a step and walked out.

Su Ruoli hurriedly chased out, but Ye Chen had already left the door.

She hesitated for a second or two, but still chased after him and shouted at Ye Chen's back, "Mr. Ye ....."

The first thing you need to do is to go back with them tomorrow. I believe your grandfather will be very happy to know the good news, so why not go back and give them a surprise? If you as a daughter have any ideas and creativity, you can find a wedding company to start communicating in advance."

Su Ruoli was touched and quickly asked, "Mr. Ye, can Ruoli stay and be at your disposal first? You must still have a lot of need for people here!"

Ye Chen waved his hand and said, "Old Chen and Hong Wu are still here, so you don't need to stay, go back and keep your parents company.

Saying that, Ye Chen added, "Oh yes, you should sleep at my place at night, I have many rooms there, you can choose one at random, give them both a little privacy."

Chapter 4918

Su Ruoli spat out her tongue and directly closed the door of her room, lightly ran towards Ye Chen and said with a smile, "I think I'd better not stay and be a light bulb ....."

This night, many people had a sleepless night because they were happy.

Ito Yohiko was currently lying on the hotel bed, alone, pedaling an 'air bike' into the air while looking at the chandelier and having a silly time.

He loved the feeling of having his legs back, and if he wasn't afraid of his daughter's anger, he would have gone out and run around New York three times.

The same goes for Koichi Tanaka.

He couldn't lie in bed for more than five minutes before he couldn't help but get down and walk around a few times, then put his legs up on the table and look at them, touch them, and never close his big, open mouth.

He Yingxiu didn't have much of a chance to experience the feeling of having her right hand back, as Su Shoudao had already carried her to the bedroom, and the two of them were able to relive their night of passion after more than 20 years.

As for Li Yalin, who was the first to take the Remodelling Pill, he returned to his home in Houston with his wife, daughter and son-in-law, on the An family's private jet.

Since Fei Kexin had helped him with his endorsement, his image in the eyes of his family was comparable to that of a superhero.

In the earlier years, his wife and daughter lived with him in New York, when he was so preoccupied with his work that he rarely asked about his wife and children.

As a police officer, he was also very strict with his wife and daughter, which made the family's atmosphere very depressing without him realising it.

His relationship with his family became increasingly strained and when his daughter was in college, she gave up her school in New York and chose to come to Houston to be away from him so that she could breathe easier.

His wife took the opportunity to accompany his daughter to Houston and began a de facto separation from him.

However, the separation has only been for a long time and has not yet reached the point of divorce.

Li Yalin's daughter did not excel academically, was rebellious as a young girl, and coincided with a father who was a thundering detective and more strict than the average parent, so her rebellion never had a chance to bubble over despite her desperate struggles.

Although Li Yalin has lived in the United States for most of his life, he is a thoroughly Chinese parent at heart, and his approach to his daughter's education is summed up in eight words: 'over-intervention and strict discipline'.

His daughter also went from rebellious to relatively decadent and averse to school because of the high pressure he brought with him, and because of this, the relationship between father and daughter has never eased up.

Li Yalin's income before he retired was almost US$400,000 to US$500,000 a year.

This level of income was not low, but it welded his family firmly into the middle class bracket, which was at best a good place to live, but not really a good place to live.

His daughter got married last year to a young Chinese man who graduated from a prestigious university and works for NASA.

Although his son-in-law has some talent, he is over-ambitious and is not taken seriously at NASA, and is even discriminated against.

Chapter 4919

Li Yalin understands his son-in-law. He is an aerospace professional with excellent education and skills, but because of his Chinese background and lack of connections, he has always been suppressed at NASA.

In fact, it was the same for Li Yalin when he first became a detective.

Within the American police system, although minorities are rarely discriminated against in any obvious way, the general environment of repression is omnipresent.

Most minority police officers held relatively low-level jobs and had to work far harder than others to move up the ladder.

After returning home, Li Yalin left his family in the living room and said emotionally, "It's hard to come back, let's have a meeting with everyone first."

His wife, daughter and son-in-law all agreed without a second thought and sat down on either side of Li Yalin.

Li Yalin took out the cheque of ten million dollars from Fei Ke Xin and said, "Regarding this money, my current idea is to leave it all to the baby in Yuan Yuan's womb and make a family trust for him."

My daughter said, "Dad, the baby is not yet born, you don't need to think so long term for him ....."

Li Yalin said seriously, "This is something I must consider, before I was thinking too little about you guys, that's why our family relationship is so distant, besides, I'm not doing it for you, it's for your child and his future children ....."

He said, sighing, "After having more contact with your Uncle An and his family, I understand the truth that the reason why rich people in the West can stay rich is because they pass on their assets with more emphasis on deeds rather than just inheritance, so starting with the baby in your belly, we will also make a family trust and put all this $10 million into it, until the child is eighteen. This money is all used for minimum risk investments and should at least double by the year he turns eighteen."

Li Yalin's son-in-law couldn't help but speak up at this time, "Dad ..... There is something that I have been trying to find a chance to tell you on the way back, don't be angry with me if I tell you ....."

Li Yalin looked at his son-in-law and nodded, "Little Sun, go ahead."

My son-in-law hesitated for a moment and said stiffly, "When I was at the Anbang Mansion, Mr. An Chongqiu of the An family approached me and said that the An family was willing to take $100 million out to make a trust for my child and Yuan Yuan's child on the condition that if the child in Yuan Yuan's belly was a boy, he would be given the surname Li after Yuan Yuan, and if it was a girl, he could choose to take the surname Li, or wait until there was another boy, and then let the The boy's surname is Lee .....

Li Yalin and his wife and daughter were both shocked.

Li Yalin was even a bit vain, he did not expect that An Chongqiu had privately told his son-in-law about this matter, he quickly said, "Xiao Sun don't be angry, your Uncle An is telling you this, mainly because your grandfather An is a bit old and feudal, you must not take it to heart, let alone blame him in your heart ....."

"No ....." My son-in-law said awkwardly, "Dad ..... I ..... I have ..... I have taken it upon myself to ..... promised ....."

Chapter 4920

"You've agreed?!"

When Li Yalin heard his son-in-law's reply, his whole body was both surprised and vaguely leaping for joy.

Although he said with his mouth that Old Master An was an old feudalist, he himself had actually been talked through by Old Master An long ago.

He knew that old feudalism should indeed be criticised to a certain extent, but he also agreed with Master An's logic, which was that the family name needed to be passed on.

Whether male or female, as long as there are still descendants with the surname, then the line must continue to be passed on to the next generation.

However, once there is a break in the middle, then the lineage will be completely out of the history stage within a few decades.

Therefore, if the son-in-law agrees to let his daughter's children take the surname Li, then the family name will be able to continue to be passed down the line.

Because of this, he was very excited to hear that his son-in-law had agreed to do so.

However, he did not expect that his son-in-law, who had always held himself in high regard, would be so easily persuaded by An Chongqiu.

His son-in-law also seemed a little ashamed at this point.

He took the initiative to explain awkwardly, "Dad, it's not that I'm no good ..... It's really because this offer from the An family is too tempting ..... Even if I work hard for the rest of my life, I can't possibly leave so much money to my future generations ....."

At this moment, the son-in-law is just desperate to give his reasons for giving in to money.

But did not even realize that his compromise was actually the most expected result from Li Yalin.

Only, in order to clear himself of the shame in his dignity, he was still explaining continuously, "Dad, what Uncle An said, is almost the same as what you just said, what he meant was that he would first take 100 million dollars to make a trust, and the trust would be handed over to the An family's trust company to run, and the An family's trust company, because they are backed by the resources of the entire An family, so their income situation is much stronger than the market. The vast majority of trust companies are much stronger, so they can have a yield of at least roughly 8% a year, and as long as I keep my promise, after eighteen years, this trust can be conditionally unblocked!"

I've done some quick calculations in my mind, and if I can guarantee an 8% return every year, with compound interest, the money will go from $100 million to $400 million in 18 years' time when the child becomes an adult!"

At this point, his son-in-law became even more impassioned and, unable to hold back his emotions, he blurted out, "Dad, Mom, Hope! What a concept is $400 million! At that time, even if we don't move the principal of $400 million, if we continue to calculate the annual return at 8%, then the interest will be $32 million a year!"

"Thirty-two million dollars! And that's every year! At that point in time we will be able to take that thirty-two million dollars out of the bank every year!"

"Even if inflation grows worse in the future, $32 million will be enough to cover the daily expenses of a family for a year!"

"By then, we can give our children the best standard of living, the best educational resources, and make them the top of the social ladder! That's a step up in class leap!"

"Moreover, apart from the interest income of $32 million a year, we don't move a penny of the $400 million in principal, so we can continue at 8% as long as the Anjar Trust Company we back doesn't go under!"

"But even if the trust company fails, so what? The law has long stipulated that the trust company's own assets are completely separate from the client's trust property, so even if he goes bankrupt, there's no way our money will be liquidated! All we need to do at that time is to change the trust company and transfer our interests."

"In other words, as long as America is still here, our money will always be here! That's assets that last forever and family that thrives forever!"

The excited son-in-law, by the time he said this, had his whole heart beating a little faster and his breath catching.
