

Ye Chen 4961

Chapter 4961

Ye Chen pondered for a moment and spoke, "Detective Li, there is no need to investigate these two directions for the time being, this organization can exist for hundreds of years, it must have made multiple firewalls long ago, once any of the firewalls are out of order, it can immediately disconnect all the connections, almost no clues will be left behind."

Speaking here, Ye Chen added: "In contrast, we don't have any firewalls now, just like you said before, once we start to have substantial contact, that contact is bound to be mutual, at that time, the other side will be able to investigate all the people around me as soon as they catch a little clue, I'm not afraid of death, besides, I have enough self-protection ability, but I'm not capable of ensuring that everyone around me won't be in danger."

Hearing this, Li Yalin could not help but ask, "Young Master Ye, then what should we do next? We can't just stop, can we? It would be hard to make any new progress ....."

Ye Chen smiled faintly and said, "Inspector Li, there is another direction we can go deeper."

Li Yalin subconsciously asked, "What direction?"

Ye Chen said, "Keep an eye on the six planes under the name of this Yuantai Express Company!"

Saying that, Ye Chen added, "They won't even dream that this speed transport company as well as these six planes have been exposed, and that's the biggest advantage we have in our hands at the moment."

"As long as they don't notice the exposure, these six planes will continue to serve this organization, and since the aviation information is all public, every time they move planes in the future, even if they are well disguised, they are all null and void in front of us;"

"What we need to do is to closely monitor the movements of these six planes, once their planes move, it means they must be doing a movement of people or supplies;"

"So record the time and location of each plane's departure, and then track the plane's destination."

Li Yalin immediately said, "No problem Young Master Ye, I will closely monitor the movements of these six planes, once they make a move, I will inform you at the first opportunity!"

Ye Chen smiled slightly and said, "Let Broken Army arrange for someone to do the surveillance, Detective Li, you will be responsible for sitting at the back and taking command, and by the way, analyze the intelligence that comes through in aggregate, and sort out valuable clues from all the intelligence."

"Good!" Li Yalin said without a second thought, "I will work closely with Hall Master Wan!"

"Good." Ye Chen smiled with satisfaction, "Then it will be hard for Inspector Li to stay in Syria for a few more days, and have Broken Army prepare a bedroom and an office for you."

Wan Jun's voice came from the other end of the phone, "Don't worry, Mr. Ye, my subordinates have already made the arrangements! These planes, I have also asked the intelligence officers to keep a close eye on them, according to the latest flight records of these six planes, they are currently located in Singapore, the capital of Sri Lanka, Colombo, the border city of Mexico, Monterrey, the port city of Nigeria, Lagos, the port city of Cyprus, Larnaca, and the port city of Brazil, Natal.”

Chapter 4962

Ye Chen frowned slightly and with his memory of the world map, he spoke, “Sri Lanka is in South Asia, Mexico is in North America, Nigeria is in West Africa, Cyprus is in Southern Europe, Brazil is in South America, and Singapore is at the throat of Southeast Asia …..”

Speaking of this, Ye Chen added: “Except for Singapore, which is a developed country, the remaining five countries, all developing countries and third world countries, should be these countries have more loopholes to exploit in terms of overall control, and these locations are scattered all over the world, either there are their dead soldiers stationed near these places, or they are deliberately scattered layout in order to do mobile dispatching around the globe anytime, anywhere.”

Immediately afterwards, Ye Chen asked himself, “But at the moment, the former seems unlikely, after all, when they sent Five-Four-Seven to the United States, they flew from Sri Lanka to Mexico, so if they have dead soldiers near Mexico, they shouldn’t go near and far.”

Wan Bajun spoke up, “Mr. Ye, I will have people keep an eye on these six planes, and will report to you at the first opportunity if there are any movements!”

“Good.” Ye Chen said with a smile, “Keep an eye on them for me, tell me once there is a clear movement, if I have a convenient time and place, I can go and give them some surprises then!”

Wan Breaking Jun exclaimed, “Mr. Ye, didn’t you say that you would not make actual contact for now?!”

Ye Chen smiled faintly and said, “I was hoping that Inspector Li would maintain a no-contact one-sided investigation and not have any substantial contact with the other side during the investigation, as for me, I’m not going to investigate them, I’m going to take them out in one pot.”

Hearing this, FiveFourSeven said with trepidation, “Ye ….. Mr. Ye ….. I can assure you that almost all of the dead soldiers are not willingly working for them ….. I also ask you to please, for the sake of their miserable fate ….. Give them a chance to live …..”

Ye Chen said indifferently, “Five Four Seven, if I meet dead soldiers like you, I can give them a chance, but only if they can be used for me.”

Five-Four-Seven blurted out, “Don’t worry, Mr. Ye, if you are willing to give a dead soldier a chance to take revenge on the organization, I believe that no dead soldier will refuse to serve you! If you can free them from centuries of chains, they will never hesitate even if they die generously for you!”

“Good.” Ye Chen said with alacrity, “In that case, then I can give them a chance!”

As soon as the words left his mouth, Wan Bajun blurted out and said to Ye Chen, “Mr. Ye, I have just received news that one of the Boeing 777s has requested to take off from Larnaca Airport in Cyprus in four hours.”

Ye Chen asked offhandedly, “Can you see the destination they have applied for?”

Wan Bajun said, “The destination is the second largest city in Northern Europe, Bergen!”

Chapter 4963

“Northern Europe?”

The first thing that came to Ye Chen’s mind when he heard the two words Nordic was Helena Iliad, who had just been crowned as the new king not long ago.

Ye Chen then asked Wan Bajun, “The Bergen you mentioned, how far is it from the Nordic capital, Oso City?”

Wan Bajun replied, “Around four hundred kilometres.”

Hearing this, Ye Chen was slightly relieved.

Four hundred kilometres, it seemed that the target of that mysterious organisation’s operation this time, should have nothing to do with Helena.

Then, he opened his mouth and said, “Since it took off from Cyprus, the odds are that it has nothing to do with the Five-Four-Seven compound, it could be another group of dead soldiers.”

Saying that, Ye Chen asked Wan Bajun, “Bajun, how long does it take for the Boeing 777 to fly from Cyprus to Bergen?”

Wan Bajun busily said, “Wait a moment, Mr. Ye, I’ll check the map.”

After saying that, he checked on the computer for a moment and said, “Mr. Ye, the route distance is about four thousand kilometres, counting the take-off and landing, it is estimated that the whole journey will take nearly five hours.”

“Five hours.” Ye Chen nodded and muttered, “What if we fly from New York to Oso City, the capital of Northern Europe?”

Ye Chen said indifferently, “Six thousand kilometres, if we let the Concorde fly, it would be two and a half hours, and then if we take a helicopter from Oso City, we can reach Bergen in one and a half hours ..... It still seems like plenty of time.”

Wan Breaking Jun exclaimed, “Mr. Ye, are you planning to go to Northern Europe?”

Ye Chen smiled, “That’s right, I plan to meet them and steal a wave from them, but for the sake of caution, I plan to use a Concorde to fly to Oslo, the capital of Northern Europe, and then transfer to a helicopter to Bergen, but I’m faster and will definitely arrive in Bergen earlier than them.”

Wan Bajun said, “Mr. Ye, their plane will not take off for another four hours, and the straight line distance between Cyprus and Syria is only about 300 kilometres, so if I fly there from Syria, I will not be too much farther than them, so why don’t I also rush there now and arrive at Oso City in advance to meet you and help you?”

Ye Chen thought about it and said, “Broken Army, if the other side is still like the last time in New York, they will definitely put the dead soldiers into a coma first and then smuggle them to Northern Europe, which means that they must have a pickup in Northern Europe in addition to the people on the plane, so we absolutely cannot alert the snake at first.”

After that, Ye Chen said, “However, if we really start fighting, we really need people to clean up the battlefield, so how about this, you take 20 elite soldiers, immediately prepare to take off, first fly straight to Oslo City, after you arrive at Oslo City, immediately scatter and hide, wait for my order, if I need you to take care of the aftermath, I will contact you then, if I do not contact you, you will stay in If I do not contact you, you will stay in Osu for two days and then leave one after another.”

Immediately, Wan Bajun said respectfully, “Yes, Mr. Ye, I will make the arrangements and leave immediately!”

From Ye Chen’s point of view, since he was just in time for the other side to make a move, he had to go and find out the truth.

Although it was impossible for this mysterious organisation and the speed transport company under their command to know that they had been exposed, for the sake of caution, Ye Chen still planned to use the Nordic capital city of Osu to hide the trip and clues.

After all, aircraft flights and personal entries would all leave records, and although the other side could not possibly know that they had been defeated at the moment, they would certainly notice the anomaly once they had folded more often.

Chapter 4964

If they look back, they will investigate the clues around each failed mission and follow the trail to find the culprit.

If there was someone as meticulous as Li Yalin in the other camp, then it was likely that they would focus the clues on themselves a little.

Therefore, out of caution, Ye Chen planned to ask Helena, who was already sitting on the throne of the Nordic Queen, to help out.

Although Helena, the Nordic Queen, and the Nordic royal family behind her, was only the mascot of the Nordic people, the royal family was after all the royal family, and even if it was already a constitutional monarchy, the royal family still had some privileges that it should have.

Therefore, Ye Chen planned that both himself and the generals of the Hall of Ten Thousand Dragons would first fly to Osu City, have Helena send herself to Bergen silently using the royal family’s channels, and then send Wanbreaker and the others along with them if necessary.

In this way, all official records of the crowd’s journey from Osu City to Bergen could be hidden, leaving the trail completely disconnected, which should not be difficult for Helena to do.

So, Ye Chen hung up the phone and called Helena again.

At this moment, Helena, who was located in Northern Europe, had just come out of a special school accompanied by the royal butler and got into her special car.

In recent times, Helena has been working hard to increase her exposure to the Nordic public, so she has been organising and participating in various charity events, and today's event was a visit to a special school to console the disabled children there.

Helena was sitting in the royal car, a little tired after the event, and was thinking of taking a moment to rest her eyes when her personal mobile phone suddenly vibrated in her handbag.

She took it out and found that it was Ye Chen who was calling. Her entire exhaustion was instantly swept away and her expression immediately rose to one of anticipation and blushing.

Helena pressed the answer button and spoke in a somewhat jubilant tone, "Hello, Mr. Ye!"

"Helena." Ye Chen smiled and asked, "Are you bothered by the call at this time?"

Helena hurriedly said, "Of course not, Mr. Ye! Any time you call is not a nuisance!"

"That's good." Ye Chen got straight to the point: "Helena, I'm calling because I want to ask you for a favour."

Without thinking, Helena said, "Mr. Ye, please speak."

Ye Chen asked her, "If I fly straight to Osu City tonight, can you arrange a helicopter to take me to Bergen without leaving any traces?"

Helena asked with surprise, "Mr Ye, are you coming to Osu City?!"

Ye Chen hummed and said, "It's mainly to Bergen, but it needs to make a stopover in Osu City, but without leaving any traceable traces."

Helena immediately said without thinking, "The Nordic royal family has a palace in Bergen, it just so happens that I am going to Bergen to attend a charity event, if you fly to Bergen with me, you will definitely not leave any traces, even the helicopter I am in, will not leave any flight records."

Ye Chen did not expect Helena to go to Bergen, so he asked her, "When are you leaving?"

Helena replied, "Any time I can, as long as I can get to Bergen tomorrow."

Having said that, she asked Ye Chen, "Mr Ye, what time will you arrive in Osu City approximately?"

Ye Chen looked at the time and said, "I'll take off from Providence in about three hours and be in Osu City in two and a half hours."

Helena said, "That's almost ten o'clock in the evening, Osu time, so I'll be waiting for you in Osu. If you are not in a hurry to go to Bergen right away, you can stay at the palace for one night first, and if you are in a hurry, we can fly there by helicopter overnight."

Ye Chen immediately said, "Then let's go straight there!"

Chapter 4965

As the Concorde was fast and that other plane had applied for a route to take off four hours later, Ye Chen guessed that they intended to wait until late at night before arriving in Nordic Bergen, so he was in no hurry to move immediately.

He asked both Hong Wu and Chen Zekai to join the Concorde and divert from New York to Providence, while waiting at Providence Airport.

As for himself, he waited until Xiao Churan returned from school before informing him that he had to make a trip to New York tonight on the pretext that there had been an accident at a client's construction site in New York and he had been asked to go temporarily to check the feng shui.

Xiao Churan originally did not want him to work so hard, but Ye Chen told her that the other party had used a lot of connections to save her mother, Ma Lan, from prison, so she owed the other party a big favour and had to pay it back, so Xiao Churan could only reluctantly agree to do so.

Afterwards, Ye Chen said goodbye to Xiao Churan and drove to Providence Airport alone.

At this time, the Providence airport was already covered in a scarlet evening sun.

Inside the airport, the Ye family's Concorde, as well as Hong Wu and Richard Chen, had been waiting here for a long time.

After Ye Chen boarded the plane, Chen Zekai immediately came forward and spoke, "Young master, we have already greeted the tower, we can take off at any time."

Ye Chen nodded and said, "Then let's take off straight away."

Chen Zekai immediately went to inform the pilot, while Hong Wu at the side asked Ye Chen with a curious look on his face, "Master Ye, what are we going to do in Northern Europe?"

Ye Chen laughed casually and said, "To shady people."

Hong Wu heatedly smiled and pulled out a scalpel with a soft plastic case from his sleeve, saying with a serious face, "You said before that without you by my side recently, there would be less human calligraphy works in the Western world."

Ye Chen smiled dumbly and said, "I'm not really sure if it will come in handy, but since you've brought your tools with you, let's wait until we get to Northern Europe, as long as we have the chance, we'll definitely let you play well."

Hong Wu nodded cheerfully and said, "That's good, that's good!"

Soon, the plane took off above the runway and flew towards Oslo, the capital of Northern Europe, 6,000 kilometres away.

While the Boeing 777 from Yuantai International Express was still flying over Europe, the Concorde that Ye Chen was on had already landed smoothly at Oslo City International Airport.

At this moment, the royal convoy of the Nordic royal family was already waiting inside the airport.

As the royal family had already reported to the airport and customs, Ye Chen and the others, in the capacity of royal VIPs, were taken directly away from the airport and drove towards the Nordic Royal Palace.

It was already late at night and early in the morning in Ossuary, and the road from the airport to the palace was sparsely populated and fast.

Her Majesty Helena, in full dress, was waiting anxiously in the palace.

Her grandmother, the old empress who had recently abdicated, saw Helena pacing in place with a mixture of excitement, excitement, nervousness and apprehension, so she couldn't help but say, "Helena, have you still not changed your mind about Ye Chen?"

"Transformed?" Helena suddenly stopped in her tracks and said to the old empress with a serious face, "Grandma, my heart for Ye Chen is unlikely to shift in this lifetime."

The old empress pursed her lips and hesitated for a moment before speaking, "Helena, you must know very well in your heart that it is very difficult for you and Ye Chen to get together, not only is it as simple as he is already married, you are now the Nordic empress, your future husband can only be a European royal family or a patriarchal noble, otherwise, the hearts of the people would not be able to accept it."

Helena said firmly, "Grandma, I have made my position on this matter a long time ago, if I really have the honour to come together with Ye Chen, even if the people regard me as a sinner of Northern Europe, I will still be willing to do so."

The old Queen asked helplessly, "Don't you care about the image of the royal family?"

Helena shook her head and said with certainty, "I have long made two plans for my future. If I can get together with Ye Chen, then I can always give up the throne or even the royal status for that matter. and a beloved empress."

The old queen blurted out, "The throne needs an heir, if you are single for the rest of your life, who will inherit the Nordic throne?"

Helena laughed, "No, when the time comes, we will borrow a prince or princess from another country to succeed us."

The old queen said seriously, "That would be the next best thing, because then the Nordic royal family would no longer be called Iliad!"

Saying that, she was in a hurry and blurted out, "Right Helena, didn't you say before that you would be willing to give Ye Chen a son if he was willing?"

Helena's face instantly reddened and she said in an evasive manner, "Grandma ..... You ..... What are you mentioning this for ....."

The old Queen said seriously, "This is a great opportunity! Who cares if he has a wife or not, or if he wants to be with you, first find a way to get pregnant with his child, then tell the outside world that you are physically ill and need to recuperate for a while, and after you have the child, you will return to the public eye, and then tell everyone that you have just recovered from a serious illness;"

"As for the child you gave birth to, we can first raise him in the palace in secret, and when he needs to go to school, give him a false identity and arrange for him to study overseas, and when you are older and need an heir in the future, push him into the public eye and say frankly and openly that this child was born during the time you were recuperating, then give the child a legal and public identity and then make him the heir to the throne!"

“Grandma .....” Helena said in shame, “What on earth are you talking about .....”

The old Queen stepped forward, took Helena’s hand and said seriously, “Helena, it’s about the continuation of the Nordic royal family as well as the Iliad family, in this situation, don’t just think of being shy, you must get pregnant first!”

She added very seriously, “Look, although Ye Chen is married, he doesn’t have any children yet, if you can conceive his child, it will also be a huge boost to the relationship between the two of you, by then you will not only have the continuation of your bloodline, but you will also have a common crystal with Ye Chen, in this way, the relationship between the two of you can definitely go further too!”

There was a glint in Helena’s eyes, but she still said in a shameful voice, “Grandma .....” You’re just too crazy .....” I’m still young and far from having to get married or having to have children .....”

The old Queen shook her hand and said solemnly, “Helena, the sooner you plan for this, the better!”

Helena hurriedly waved her hand and said, “Grandma .....” Let’s talk about this later .....”

Chapter 4967

The old Queen was about to say something else when the butler ran in at this time and spoke, “Your Majesty, the caravan has returned!”

Hearing this, Helena said with delight, “I will go and see!”

Having said that, she ran out to greet Ye Chen’s arrival personally at the first opportunity.

Although it was summer, the night in Osu City was still a little cool, but Helena was dressed in a strapless Western court dress, as beautiful as a perfect and noble tulip.

When she saw Ye Chen stepping out of the car, Helena’s recently cultivated empress-like aura was gone, replaced by the excitement and excitement of a young girl in love, seeing her beloved.

The old queen, who was not as sharp on her feet, walked unhurriedly out the door while watching Helena dart away, shaking her head helplessly and sighing softly.

Helena dashed up to Ye Chen, her deep eyes filled with joy as she said excitedly, “Mr. Ye, long time no see!”

The old empress also came forward at that moment and said to Ye Chen with great respect, “Greetings, Mr. Ye!”

Ye Chen looked at the Old Queen, nodded gently and asked with a smile, “Ms. Iliad, are you feeling well lately?”

Seeing how much Ye Chen cared for her, the old Queen was somewhat flattered and said, “Thanks to the rejuvenation pills you gave me at the beginning, my health is now in very good condition!”

Ye Chen smiled, “That’s good.”

At the side, Helena hurriedly said, "Mr. Ye, the helicopter is ready, didn't you say on the phone that you wanted to fly directly to Bergen, why don't we leave now?"

"Good!" Ye Chen nodded without thinking, and then said to Helena, "Later on, Wan Breaking Army of the Ten Thousand Dragon Hall will arrive in Aosu City with a group of Ten Thousand Dragon Hall generals, so it's hard for you to help me prepare an additional heavy helicopter, if necessary, send them to Bergen then as well."

"No problem!" Helena agreed without hesitation and said, "Mr. Ye, time is urgent, why don't we set off first and let the housekeeper help implement this matter."

Ye Chen nodded, looked at the old Queen at the side and said seriously, "Lady Iliad, I will come back to see you when I have finished the matter at hand."

The old empress hurriedly said, "Yes Mr Ye, I'll be waiting for your big visit in Osu City!"

Soon after, Ye Chen took Hong Wu, Chen Zekai and Helena into a large helicopter. The pilot skillfully operated the helicopter and took off, and then raced towards Bergen.

On the helicopter, Ye Chen looked out of the window at the night scene of Osu City and asked Helena beside him, "Right Helena, you said you have a charity event in Bergen tomorrow, what time is it and do I need to go to support you?"

Helena said awkwardly, "Well ..... This ..... I'm not going to lie to you, Mr. Ye, but I ..... Actually I don't have any charity activities in Bergen, the reason why I am saying this is mainly because I want to accompany you to Bergen, I am now the Queen of Northern Europe after all, in case there is anything I can help you with here, I can also help you deal with it in time ....."

Ye Chen was slightly stunned, Helena saw this and hurriedly explained, "I didn't mean to lie to you, originally I wanted to really arrange a charity event, but ..... But I'm worried that you might need my help tomorrow, and in case I do go to a charity event, I might not be able to respond to your needs at all times, so ..... So please don't be angry yet ....."

Ye Chen looked back and smiled, "I'm not angry, I just didn't expect it, thank you Helena."

Chapter 4968

After a flight of nearly two hours, the helicopter landed at the palace of the Nordic royal family in Bergen, the second largest city in Northern Europe.

The palace is located on the outskirts of the city and covers a large area, although it is in a state of disrepair due to the decline of the Nordic royal family in recent years and the constant cuts in the royal budget by the parliament.

The Nordic royal family's own financial situation is not good either, although the assets are more than one billion euros, but most of them are discounted real estate, and these real estate, the Nordic royal family can not be sold in their lifetime, such as their palace in the capital city of Oslo, and the palace in Bergen, is worth a lot of money, but once they sell their ancestral property, they will certainly be rejected by the Nordic people.

It was as if the English royal family had turned around and sold their Buckingham Palace, which would have caused an uproar.

Once the helicopter landed, Ye Chen could feel how stretched the place was.

There were only a few staff members on duty in the large palace, and the stone paved floor in the square in the middle of the palace had many damages that had not yet been repaired, and what was even more outrageous was that more than a third of the streetlights around the palace were not lit.

Helena had not expected the palace to be in such a state of disrepair.

She had not been to this palace for years since she had lost her dependence on the Nordic royal family, and seeing such a dilapidated state, she felt a little embarrassed for a while, and could only say to Ye Chen with some shame, "Sorry, Mr Ye, this place is in a poor state of repair, so please don't mind."

After Helena had just finished her enthronement ceremony, the butler had mentioned the condition of this palace to her, hoping that the royal family could allocate 10 million euros to repair this palace.

But Helena declined the offer in order to reduce the cost of the royal family.

At that time, she would have preferred to use the funds to do more activities and publicity to increase the influence of the Nordic royal family.

But how could she have ever imagined that one day this palace would have crossed paths with Ye Chen?

If she had known that this day would come, she would have broken her penny in half and squeezed out some budget to renovate the palace, at least not to make it look so shabby.

Ye Chen also saw that Helena was a bit embarrassed, so he smiled and said, "I think this place is quite good, it has very Nordic local characteristics, and it looks like it should be a real historical building, unlike those tourist attractions that are full of modern antique buildings, which are opulent but give people a somewhat unconventional feeling."

Chapter 4969

Helena nodded gently and introduced, "This place is over three hundred years old, and although it has undergone many repairs, the overall framework and most of the structure has remained unchanged, and the last time it was renovated on a large scale, it must date back to 1980."

Saying that, Helena added with some emotion, "But I haven't been here for many years either, not since my father died."

Ye Chen nodded, and seeing that the time was still two or three hours before the other party landed, he smiled and said to Helena, "It's still early, why don't you show me around?"

"Sure!" Helena agreed without hesitation and laughed, "Although I haven't been here for many years, I still have very fond memories of this place."

Just as Ye Chen, accompanied by Helena, was visiting this ancient palace, the Boeing 777 from Yuantai International Express was crossing the skies over Finland, almost thirteen hundred kilometres away from Bergen.

Wan Bajun, together with twenty of his carefully selected generals from the Hall of Ten Thousand Dragons, had by now landed in Osu City, and the first thing he did after landing was to send the trajectory of that plane from Yuantai Express to Ye Chen.

The first thing he did after landing was to send the trajectory of the Far-Tai Express plane to Ye Chen. Ye Chen was calm enough to say goodbye to Helena and drive to Bergen Airport alone, dressed in black, until the other side had only an hour left on the flight.

According to Li Yalin's analysis, the last time they went to New York to carry out a mission for this mysterious organisation, they were first transported to Mexico by Far East International Express, and then smuggled into the United States overland from Mexico.

Therefore, both Ye Chen and Li Yalin felt that the other party's real destination this time should not be Bergen, which, most likely, was just a springboard for them to carry out their mission this time.

The probability was that they would also arrive in Bergen by way of freight, and then switch to other routes to transport the dead to other cities, or directly out of Northern Europe.

Therefore, Ye Chen's intention was to sneak into Bergen International Airport before this plane landed and keep an eye on this plane, as well as the people and cargo that this plane unloaded, to see exactly where their destination was and who their target really was.

Although Bergen is the second largest city in Norway, the population is only a few hundred thousand, so the size of Bergen International Airport is not that big.

The airport is built on the sea, with a north-south runway and a centrally located terminal building, with the aircraft and logistics areas located one above and one below the terminal building.

As Northern Europe is one of the EU countries, and as almost all of Bergen's international flights are from countries within the EU, customs are relatively loose and there is little in the way of strict entry checks for international flights, whether passenger or cargo, landing here.

There are only three normal access routes to the airport, one for normal passenger traffic through the terminal, one for internal staff and one for specialist entrances and exits for cargo.

Chapter 4970

The security situation at the airport is also very procedural, with the entire airport mostly enclosed by iron fencing, with steel razor wire and security surveillance equipment, being the main security measures here.

The security staff is small and not very active, but in most cases they are in the control room, watching the surveillance and security equipment and attending to any situation as soon as it arises.

However, the security equipment is becoming more and more advanced, so even without patrols, no one can get past the equipment silently, so there have been few break-ins at the airport.

Even if the occasional unsuspecting person tries to get inside the airport through the perimeter security measures, they are precisely identified by the security equipment and often the security personnel are alerted as soon as the person approaches, and by the time they arrive, the person is often still on the iron fence, trying to find a way to break through the sharp razor barbed wire.

So even if an ordinary person tried to infiltrate the airport, there was no chance of success at all.

Of course, this was before they met Ye Chen.

To Ye Chen, this kind of three-metre-high iron fence was practically nothing, and he only needed to leap up gently to jump over it while still avoiding the security surveillance equipment on both sides.

So, daring to do so twenty minutes before the plane landed, Ye Chen easily infiltrated the airport and waited for the Boeing 777 to arrive on the dark side of the runway.

As it was already after 2am, the whole airport had fallen into silence.

Ye Chen was wearing a wireless headset and was communicating in real time with Wan Bajun and Li Yalin in the headset.

At this moment, Wan Bajun told Ye Chen: "Mr. Ye, according to the airport's incoming and outgoing information, the incoming and outgoing passenger flights have ended this evening, and the rest are all cargo flights, and there are only seven cargo planes coming in within the next three hours, with a long time interval, and the next flight to land is the Boeing 777 from Yuantai International Express."

"Okay Mr. Ye."

Five minutes later, Ye Chen could already see a slow moving dot of light in the southern sky.

He cross-referenced it with Wan Breaking and according to the flight track, it was undoubtedly the same plane.

The point of light then grew closer and lower.

However, that plane adjusted its direction before landing, flying from the south side of the airport to the north side of the airport, and landing against the wind by the north side of the runway fifteen minutes later.

Ye Chen's eyes were fixed on the aircraft, seeing it open up its reverse thrust after landing, then quickly reduce its speed to taxiing speed, before it was guided off the track by the guidance vehicle and glided all the way towards the cargo yard on the south side of the airport.

At the same time, Ye Chen also followed this aircraft all the way, travelling quickly through the darkness.

A few minutes later, the plane came to a halt on the open apron outside the cargo yard.

A number of stevedores were already waiting here in advance, driving loading trucks and transporters.

As soon as the doors of the freighter are opened, they are lifted up to the side of the cabin by means of the lift trucks and, after opening the doors, begin to unload groups of cargo from the cabin, one by one, on pallets.
