

Ye Chen 4981

Chapter 4981

Ye Chen sneered, "Are you primus guards like the dead soldiers, who must take the antidote regularly?"

The man at the head of the group looked at Ye Chen and laughed miserably, "Since you know about dead soldiers, then it seems that the group of dead soldiers in New York before, also died at your hands?"

Ye Chen laughed, "It seems that you are not stupid."

Saying that, Ye Chen asked him, "About this organization, how much do you know?"

The man at the head of the group said in a cold voice, "Not much I know, but even so, I won't tell you anything!"

Ye Chen smiled and asked him, "Are you really not going to tell me?"

"That's natural!" The man at the head of the group coldly snorted, "I am loyal to Lord Ying and will never do anything to betray him"

Ye Chen didn't wait for him to finish his words, he suddenly rushed forward with a step and grabbed his upper and lower jaws with a fierce force, only to hear a click, something seemed to shatter in his mouth, and immediately afterwards, his whole body convulsed violently.

Ye Chen guessed correctly, although this man was not a dead soldier, there were still dentures filled with venom in his mouth, and at the critical moment, as long as they were bitten, the venom would flow into their bellies along their mouths, causing them to die without a sound.

Only, the difference this time was that Ye Chen had actually helped him bite through that denture directly.

Seeing that he was already showing signs of poisoning, Ye Chen sneered disdainfully and said, "Do your best to serve your British master, don't rush to reincarnate when you get there, maybe it won't be long before I send him down to meet you, then you can still continue to saddle him."

Saying that, Ye Chen suddenly realised something and sighed, "Oops, sorry, I forgot that you have never met that Ying Lord, even if I send him down, you may not be able to recognise him."

At this moment, Ye Chen said with a helpless expression, "How about this, when the time comes, I will have someone carve the word Ying Lord on his head, so that you can easily identify him with him!"

The eyes of the man at the head of the group were wide as he stared at Ye Chen, unable to understand in his wildest dreams why Ye Chen was so sure that he could finish off Lord Ying!

Feeling that the venom had already reached his internal organs, his entire tone was very broken as he said, "You You You just For Why don't no more Don't ask me again You You ask me again Once more I'll I'll tell you"

Ye Chen said disdainfully, "I don't bother to talk nonsense with you, you haven't even seen the face of that Ying master, and you are out on a mission, and your mouth has to carry dentures filled with poison, from these two points you can see that you are just a trash little head in this organization, I think these seven people next to you, may not know less than you, after you die, I can still ask them! "

Chapter 4982

Ye Chen's words filled with teasing and mockery caused that commanding officer's entire being to be filled with resentment.

Holding on to his last ounce of strength, he gritted his teeth and said, "Lord Ying Lord Ying will definitely take revenge for me!"

Ye Chen grunted and said disdainfully, "I can see that like those dead soldiers, you also have that deadly drug in your body that kicks in periodically, and without an antidote within a week, you will definitely die, right?"

When that commanding officer heard this, his eyes were horrified.

He did not know how Ye Chen could see the hidden toxin in his body.

Ye Chen ignored his shock and just continued to sneer, "You are no different from those dead soldiers, you are both donkeys pulling the mill for Lord Ying, and the only thing that makes you better than the dead soldiers is that you don't have to be blindfolded by black cloth like the dead soldiers."

Speaking here, Ye Chen suddenly remembered something and said with a smile, "If I'm right, you or your fathers should have climbed up from the dead soldiers, right?"

"Because of your more desperate performance, Lord Ying gave you a ladder of ascension, gave you the title of so-called primus inter pares, so that you could remove the black cloth covering your eyes, and you or your fathers were thus deeply moved and inspired, thinking that you had completed the leap in rank, but in reality, you were still closely controlled by this organisation, and apart from carrying out the tasks they give you no freedom other than to carry out the tasks they give you and to continue to fight to make the next class leap, right?"

"Let me guess, a primus like you might be some kind of so-called guide further up the ladder, and at that time, you might be able to have a chance to get an identity in the real world, and then be placed to live in the real world, completing deep layouts in various regions and fields for this organisation, right?"

After being in contact with Li Yalin for some time, Ye Chen's logical and analytical ability, too, had improved considerably.

Before tonight, he only knew how those dead soldiers of Five-Four-Seven operated.

But at that time, Five-Four-Seven had said that there were only two ways for their shadowy dead soldiers to get rid of their destiny, either to die or to work their way up the ladder.

Any shrewd manager would not choose a flat management style, he would definitely plan out a long ladder of upward mobility for those who sell their lives under him, and then let them grit their teeth and work their way up.

Just like those big Internet companies, some are P1 to P14, some are T1 to T17, some are M1 to M9, in short, they must let the people under their hands have a head start.

So, even the lowest level of deadwood must have an upward path.

Tonight, he had learned about the new title of Primus from the conversations of these men, and combined with the fact that their main task was also to sell their lives, and that they also had deadly toxins in their bodies and deadly fangs in their mouths, he could deduce that they were not much better than the dead soldiers.

As for the word “guide”, Ye Chen had also heard about it from the mouth of Five Four Seven.

Although he was not sure whether his aunt-in-law, who had taken poison and committed suicide, was a guide or not, he could logically deduce that guides should live in the real world.

For example, this mysterious organisation’s guide in New York must live somewhere in New York and have a reasonable and legitimate identity, as well as relatively strong local resources.

Only then would he or she have the qualifications of a qualified guide.

It was like going out on a trip and looking for a ground agent who was familiar with the local area to arrange the reception.

At this moment, when that commanding officer heard Ye Chen’s series of analyses, although his entire person could not speak, the eyes he looked at Ye Chen were filled with shock and fear.

He did not expect that Ye Chen had actually mapped out the external structure of their organisation!

Chapter 4983

He wanted very much to know just who Ye Chen was and just how he had grasped such deep secrets.

But, in the end, he did not get his wish.

Because his life, after a painful struggle with his expression, had completely drawn to a close.

Ye Chen threw his corpse aside without the slightest mercy, then looked at the seven remaining people and coldly said, “I believe that you people shouting that you are willing to sacrifice everything for the Ying Lord, but in your bones, you should be just like that group of dead soldiers, full of hatred for that Ying Lord that none of you have ever seen, right?”

When Ye Chen said this, all seven of them had very complicated expressions.

Hatred, that was naturally there.

Moreover, it was a bone-deep hatred, a blood-deep hatred!

Their ancestors, for as long as a hundred years, had to be reduced to being a*sa*sins bred by this organization, living a life without seeing the light of day every day. Although they later took a step upwards with their efforts, how could they forget that kind of hatred that was engraved in their bones.

At this point, Ye Chen continued: "I am giving you a chance, not a chance to live, but a chance to take revenge! As long as you are able to return to the fold and tell me everything you know, I promise you here that I will definitely avenge your companions and your ancestors!"

Hearing these words, the seven people's expressions instantly flinched.

And Ye Chen's super strength made them understand that it would definitely be difficult for the seven of them to escape death today, and if they could help Ye Chen fulfil his promise to annihilate the organisation before they died, it would be a great deed for all the dead soldiers who had passed away, as well as the current ones and their descendants!

Thinking of this, one of them knelt on the ground with a poof and choked up, "Sir, ask me whatever you want to know, I will tell you everything!"

Seeing this, the other six men immediately knelt down with him and said in a loud voice, "I will tell you everything!"

Ye Chen nodded and asked, "First question, where exactly is your base?"

The man who knelt down first spoke, "Our base is near the port city of Lima*sol in Cyprus, a copper mine called Candace."

"A copper mine?" Ye Chen frowned and continued to ask, "Is this copper mine operated by your organisation? Describe the specifics inside!"

The man hurriedly said, "The copper mine is operated by the Primus Guards themselves, there are more than two hundred Primus Guards in total, the copper mine is closed and managed, these two hundred people live and train inside, in addition, at the bottom of the copper mine just a few hundred meters deep, there are complex alleys with a total length of more than eighty kilometres, there are also more than eight hundred dead soldiers and their families living there."

Ye Chen asked again, "Then your usual main task is to guard these dead soldiers?"

"Right." The man said without thinking, "Guarding and managing the dead soldiers is our main job, but we are also usually ordered to go out on missions, like today's case, it was a sudden incident, and we were asked to organise eight of our best men to come over immediately, and before we left, we were also given inverted models, so that we could disguise ourselves as stevedores when we arrived. "

Ye Chen continued to ask, "What is the target of your mission this time?"

The man turned around and pointed to a tense looking old man and young man not far away and busied himself, "The goal of our mission is to bring them both to Sweden alive, where there will be a plane waiting for us."

Ye Chen pursued, "What about after we get to Sweden? Where is your next destination?"

Chapter 4984

"The next destination?"

The man was slightly stunned and quickly waved his hand, "We don't know any of that at all, we didn't even know where we were flying to before our departure, we didn't even know until we got on the plane and it took off, then the pilot told us exactly what our requirements were for this mission."

He added, "As for what the arrangements were when we arrived in Sweden, we knew even less, and I'm not even sure if we could get on that plane when we arrived in Sweden, after all, these two men were the British Lord's, and the British Lord was untraceable and could not have let us know his location, it was likely that the plane took them both away and we found our own way back to Cyprus."

Ye Chen frowned slightly when he heard this and opened his mouth to ask, "The plane that sent you here, doesn't it normally come under your control? My intelligence shows that this plane is stationed in Cyprus most of the time."

The man nodded and said truthfully, "It is true that the plane is always stationed in Cyprus, but that plane is not under the control of our Primus, all planes, are under the jurisdiction of the 'Postman'."

"Postman?" Ye Chen asked curiously, "Is it another type of work like 'guide'?"

"Yes!" The man was busy saying, "We and the dead soldiers we manage, all personnel movements are decided by the top, after the top learns the decision, they will give the mission details to the postman, who will then forward the notification to us, for example, if the dead soldiers go out on a mission, after the postman gives the mission, we will select a sufficient number of dead soldiers who meet the requirements according to the mission requirements, and then after using drugs to make them unconscious, then pack them up and hand them over to the postman, and after the mission is over, the postman will then send the surviving ones back to us."

Ye Chen probably understood

This copper mine of ours, "The next destination?"

The man was slightly stunned and hurriedly waved his hand, "We don't know any of that at all, we didn't even know where the destination of our flight was before our departure, we didn't know until after we got on the plane and it took off, the pilot told us the exact requirements of our mission."

He added, "As for what the arrangements were when we arrived in Sweden, we knew even less, and I'm not even sure if we could get on that plane when we arrived in Sweden, after all, these two men were the British Lord's, and the British Lord was untraceable and could not have let us know his location, it was likely that the plane took them both away and we found our own way back to Cyprus."

Ye Chen frowned slightly when he heard this and opened his mouth to ask: "The plane that sent you here, doesn't it normally come under your control? My intelligence shows that this plane is stationed in Cyprus most of the time."

The man nodded and said truthfully, "It is true that the plane is always stationed in Cyprus, but that plane is not under the control of our Primus, all planes, are under the jurisdiction of the 'Postman'."

"Yes!" The man was busy saying, "We and the dead soldiers we manage, all personnel movements are decided by the top, after the top learns the decision, they will give the mission details to the postman, who will then forward the notification to us, for example, if the dead soldiers go out on a mission, after the postman gives the mission, we will select a sufficient number of dead soldiers who meet the requirements according to the mission requirements, and then after using drugs to make them unconscious, then pack them up and hand them over to the postman, and after the mission is over, the postman will then send the surviving ones back to us."

Ye Chen probably understood the other party's mode of operation, and he said with a gruff expression, "So you're saying that most of your primus guards are equivalent to prison guards in your duties."

Chapter 4985

"Right." The man said approvingly, "The vast majority of our jobs are similar to prison guards, and we are also prison guards in labour prisons, and we usually have to supervise those dead soldiers carrying out mining operations down the well."

Ye Chen was surprised and asked, "The copper mine is still producing?"

"Yes." The man explained, "The copper mine was bought from the Cypriot government through a legal process and with legal funds;"

"Since this is itself a copper mine that has been in production for many years, the organisation could not let it shut down because that would definitely arouse suspicion from the outside world, so after the organisation bought the copper mine, it claimed to have invested $500 million in upgrading and expanding this copper mine to the outside world;"

"When we say renovation and expansion, it is actually mainly about building areas at the bottom of the copper mine that can be used for us and our dead soldiers to live and train, at the same time, the copper mine also retains a few working surfaces that are worked by the dead soldiers and their families on a rotational basis during weekdays to ensure the normal production of the copper mine."

"To the outside world, we have a total of over two hundred employees in this copper mine, but in reality, none of the two hundred of us work, and it is the dead soldiers and their families living below who are really responsible for the mining work;"

"They just need to make sure that there are more than a hundred people responsible for the mining work every day, our production capacity will be up to normal standards and the outside world will not get suspicious."

Ye Chen frowned, "But you are still holding more than a thousand dead soldiers and their families, this scale is at least several thousand people, so many people have to rely on imports for food and drink, if you import a large amount of food supplies beyond the needs of your two hundred people for a long time, won't the outside world get suspicious?"

"No." The man explained further, "This copper mine we are in is right on the coast, with its own wharf, and all supplies are dispatched and transported by sea, and all the copper ore dug out is sold to the outside world by sea as normal;"

"And our copper ore, is sold in packages to one of our copper refineries in Turkey, which is also an organised enterprise, so every time they send a ship in for copper ore, they carry a lot of food supplies into the country;"

“What’s more, a small country like Cyprus with a not-so-good economy has a relatively much more chaotic and corrupt internal management, so we have bought off the Cypriot customs and won’t do any checks on the ships coming in and out, so this ensures that we have an abundance of supplies that can be brought in unobtrusively.”

Ye Chen did not expect that this organisation could even form a closed loop for the sale of copper ore, and while marvelling, he asked him, “Do you know the name of that copper refinery in Turkey?”

“Yes!” The man said without thinking, “The name of the copper refinery is Isthmir.”

“Good.” Ye Chen nodded gently, thinking in his heart, “Having mastered the copper mine located in Cyprus, as well as the copper refinery located in Turkey, the mastery of the clues about this mysterious organization has increased by a few more points.”

He then asked, “Apart from that, what else do you know about this organisation?”

The man pondered for a moment and said, “I’m not going to lie, our information channels are also very limited. On the surface, we seem to be much freer than the dead soldiers, but we are actually more like prisoners held on the ground. The vast majority of our time is spent inside the mine, and occasionally we go out on missions.”

Ye Chen nodded slightly, and then looked behind the seven people, the extraordinarily nervous old man and young woman.

He saw that the girl was only 17 or 18 years old, so he left his gaze on the old man and spoke, “Old man, may I ask, what exactly is your relationship with this organisation? Why did they go to such lengths to take you away?”

Chapter 4986

“Ah I”

Suddenly being asked by Ye Chen, that old man looked very nervous for a while.

He stammered and did not know what to do or what to say, and could only subconsciously look up at the young girl beside him.

Seeing this, the young girl hurriedly said, “Grandpa I’ve come to this point, you should tell this gentleman the truth!”

“I” The old man did not expect the young girl to say this, and for a moment he was even more at a loss as to what to do.

After all, he was only a slave beside the young lady, and he could understand when the young lady called himself grandfather in public; he could hear the meaning of the young lady’s words, that she wanted to pretend to have a grandfather-son relationship with herself.

However, the lady now suddenly wants to ask himself to tell the truth, this makes himself confused.

For he did not know how to tell the truth.

The young girl took advantage of the fact that the old man hadn't yet shown his courage and hurriedly grabbed a step ahead of him and said to Ye Chen, "This gentleman, my grandfather he is still a bit undecided, so why don't I explain it to you."

Ye Chen did not see the strangeness between the young girl and the old man, and seeing that the young girl was willing to tell the reason, he nodded his head and said, "Young lady, please speak."

The young girl couldn't help but purse her lips and then spoke, "Actually, the reason why this gang wants to capture me and my grandfather is because the person behind them wants a treasure that my father left behind."

"A treasure?" Hearing this, Ye Chen could not help but frown and asked with some surprise, "What treasure is worthy of their Ying Lord going to such lengths to get it even?"

Although Ye Chen did not know who that Ying Lord's surname was, nor did he know just how strong that Ying Lord was, he could still get a glimpse of it through the little he knew about this organisation so far.

In his opinion, the combined strength of this mysterious organisation was definitely above his own, and even the An Family would be played by them.

Therefore, Ye Chen speculated that the strength of this mysterious organisation would not be inferior to the Rothschild family, which was currently ranked number one in the world.

It was even possible that it was much more powerful than the Rothschild family.

It was because he knew that the other party was very powerful that Ye Chen wondered how such a high and mighty person could grab something from an old man and a young grandparent.

When that young girl saw that Ye Chen had some doubts, she slightly due for a moment and took out a palm-sized incense bag from her close clothing.

Then, with her slender white hand, she took out an inconspicuous bronze-coloured ring from the incense bag.

And the moment that ring was taken out of the scented bag, Ye Chen felt a very rare, yet very familiar feeling.

This immediately made him realise that this tiny ring was, like his own Thunderstorm Order and Soul Piercing Blade, also a magic weapon!

Chapter 4987

This was also the first time that Ye Chen had seen a magic weapon in the true sense of the word in someone else's hands!

He thought that this young girl also possessed aura like himself, so he subconsciously dispensed some of his aura to quietly check the young girl out.

However, after some probing, he did not find any trace of aura on this young girl's body.

In other words, this young girl definitely did not have aura and could not be of the same path as Ye Chen.

So, Ye Chen couldn't help but ask her, "Little girl, this ring, what exactly is its origin?"

The young girl said quietly, "This ring was left to me by my father."

Ye Chen asked again, "Then did your father tell you that this ring has any special features?"

"No." The young girl said seriously, "My father only said that this ring was extraordinary and that I must keep it safe and not let it fall into the wrong hands."

After saying that, she looked down and pondered for a moment, then suddenly looked up at Ye Chen and said in a resolute tone, "This gentleman, if you can let my grandfather and I live today, I would like to give you this ring, as it won't be of any use in my hands anyway, and it always attracts trouble. I'll give it to you and then grandpa and I will find a safe place to live in seclusion.

The old man at the side was speechless with shock, and he looked at the young girl with wide eyes, telling her with his eyes not to be so impulsive.

But then the young girl gave a bitter smile and said to him, "Grandfather, this is something that we are not capable of guarding, and if we stay, not only will we not be able to protect it, but it will probably be snatched away by the bad people."

Saying so, she said firmly, "Instead of that, we should give it to this gentleman! I see that this gentleman has a kind face, he will definitely not let it fall into the wrong path, and this gentleman is so powerful that he will also be able to protect this ring!"

Ye Chen asked her curiously, "Little girl, since your father explained to you that you must not let it fall into the wrong hands, are you not afraid that I am a wrongdoer?"

"Not afraid." The young girl shook her head and said seriously, "I believe that you are definitely not here for this ring, and you appeared in the nick of time, and although I dare not say that you are all here to save me and grandpa, I believe that this reason at least accounts for part of it, so I can be sure that you are definitely not a bad person."

Ye Chen smiled faintly without denying it, and then looked at the ring in her hand.

To be honest, Ye Chen did have a few yearnings for this ring.

This was, after all, the first time he had seen a magic weapon in someone else's hands, so he was curious to know what special effects it had.

So, he said to the young girl, "Good! I promise you!"

With that, he turned his words and added, "But before I promise you, I have one more thing to explain to you."

The young girl was busy saying, "Please speak, sir!"

Chapter 4988

Ye Chen said lightly, "That is, after tonight, you may forget all that has just happened. If you find out then that the ring your father left you and told you to keep safe is lost, perhaps you will live in guilt and self-blame in the future, do you think you are OK with that?"

The young woman was slightly stunned, then nodded and said, "I'm OK with that! If the ring is still on my person, then I might not be so lucky with Grandpa next time."

"Good." When Ye Chen saw her agree to it, he was also very quick to say, "Then we'll call it a deal."

The young lady nodded, and then with a toss of her jade hand, the ring spun in a circle and traced a graceful curve from the air, landing in front of Ye Chen's eyes.

Ye Chen reached out and grasped the ring in his palm, and then sent a little bit of spiritual energy into it, wanting to see what kind of mystery the ring had hidden.

However, after the spiritual energy entered the ring, it was like a stone sinking into the sea, and generally disappeared instantly.

Ye Chen couldn't help but frown slightly, thinking in his heart: "What kind of formation is there inside this ring? Why is there no response from the ring when the aura enters?"

Thinking of this, Ye Chen again, without showing his face, sent a little more spiritual energy into it than he had just done.

This time, the small ring suddenly emitted a clear and pleasant buzzing sound like the sound of a sword.

However, apart from this humming sound, there was no change in the ring itself.

Ye Chen frowned, thinking that this thing must be hiding some mystery, but he might not have time to study it at the moment, so he put the ring into his pocket.

As for the young girl, the moment she heard the buzzing sound, the eyes that were still somewhat distressed were instantly replaced by an excitement that was hard to suppress

Ye Chen did not notice the change in the young girl's eyes, and after he had accepted the ring, he looked back at the seven primus guards and opened his mouth to ask, "Is this the ring your British Lord wanted you to come and rob?"

The one who had been answering Ye Chen's question said respectfully, "I'm not going to lie to you, we're not sure about that either, the orders we received were only to send the two of them to Sweden, and any remaining details were not revealed to us."

Ye Chen nodded and looked at the young girl again. When they met, Ye Chen sent a trace of aura into her brain, giving her a mental implication to answer her question truthfully before he asked her, "Little girl, how much do you know about this organisation of theirs?"

To this young girl, Ye Chen did not fully trust her, so in order to ensure that he did not miss any clues, he planned to use psychological hints to first get out all that this girl knew.

Although it was a bit unethical to use psychological suggestion directly, but the matter was so important that Ye Chen couldn't care so much at this moment.

Chapter 4989

Moreover, Ye Chen had already given the girl a precautionary shot just now, and intended to erase the memories of tonight from the girl's mind after all this was over.

Therefore, she would definitely not remember being psychologically hinted at by herself at that time.

After being psychologically hinted at by Ye Chen, the young girl gently shook her head and said seriously, "I don't know much about this organization, these are all the mischief my father caused in the first place, neither me nor my grandfather are very clear about it, I only know that they have been trying to find me and my grandfather's whereabouts and snatch this ring from our hands"

When Ye Chen heard this, he couldn't help but feel a little disappointed in his heart.

These few primus guards would not have known any deep clues of value, and this girl did not know either.

It seemed that if one wanted to get more clues about this organization, one would have to slowly draw out the clues in the future.

Thinking of this, Ye Chen looked at the girl and asked again, "What does your father do?"

The young girl replied, "My father used to be a martial artist, then he got this ring from somewhere, so he started to be hunted by that organization, and in the end, he was not spared and died under that organization's men."

Ye Chen nodded, then looked at the seven primus guards and spoke, "If I can give you a chance to survive and also give you a chance to take revenge, are you willing to serve me?!"

The one at the head of the seven laughed bitterly, "Sir If we can survive, we are naturally willing to serve you and throw our heads and blood for you. However, all seven of us have poison in our bodies, and if we don't go back and take the antidote, we will all die of poison within a week, so even if we want to serve you, there is no chance at all"

Ye Chen said indifferently, "As long as you are willing to serve me, I naturally have a way to cure the poison in your bodies, so that you will not have to suffer from the threat of the toxin from now on."

The man at the head of the group said without thinking, "Sir! If you can really cure the poison in our bodies, we will serve you for the rest of our lives, and if we disobey you in any way, we will die without a burial place!"

The other six people, at this moment, were also excited beyond measure and made their statements.

Ye Chen could feel the excitement and sincerity of these people, it seemed that although they had gotten rid of their status as dead soldiers, the hatred in their hearts towards the organization was no less than those dead soldiers who were still struggling at the lowest level.

He then said indifferently, "Within the next few hours, I am afraid that none of your organisations will send any more people to Northern Europe, so you can use this time to travel to the capital of Northern Europe, Oso City, as soon as possible and arrive at the top of the highest peak in Oso City, and I will have someone pick you up there."

Ye Chen was not familiar with Oso City and did not want these people to go to the city to assemble, so he came up with the idea of Oso City's highest peak, whether it was for these seven primus guards or for Wan Breaker, finding Oso City's highest peak should not be too difficult, when the time came, he could directly ask Wan Breaker to go to Oso City's highest peak to pick up these seven people and bring them back to Syria directly.

Hearing this, these seven people barely hesitated before the one in the lead spoke up, "Sir, when do you want us to leave?"

Ye Chen said indifferently, "Let's leave now, and remember to dispose of all the clues on the way."

The man at the head of the group said excitedly, "Sir, don't worry, we won't leave any traces!"

Chapter 4990

"Mm." Ye Chen nodded and instructed, "In that case, let's hurry up and set off."

"Good!" The man led the other six to stand up, and the seven bowed deeply to Ye Chen in unison before he said, "Sir, then we will set off first and head to the highest peak of Aosu City to wait for your next instructions!"

Soon, the seven men who had been pardoned by Ye Chen quickly left the country house and drove the van they had come in to Oso City.

Ye Chen then looked at the two grandparents and grandchildren in front of him and said indifferently, "Both of you, I am going to make some adjustments to your memories, you will wake up in ten minutes and by then you will have forgotten everything that happened tonight, I hope that you will not think so much about it then and grab the time to leave Northern Europe and find the safest place to settle down."

Both the young girl and the old man agreed without thinking, the young girl looked at Ye Chen with a different look in her eyes and said, "My name is Lin Wan'er, I wonder what your name is?"

Ye Chen said casually, "Little girl, what is my name, you don't need to ask after me, after all, soon you won't remember me."

Lin Wan'er looked at Ye Chen and said firmly and seriously, "Not remembering is not remembering, but at least one can still remember at some point in time."

Saying that, she looked at Ye Chen and asked rhetorically, "Since I will soon forget, what concerns do you have, sir?"

Ye Chen hesitated slightly for a moment, and then, without thinking too much, said frankly, "My name is Ye Chen."

"Ye Chen" The young girl repeated it, nodded gently and asked curiously, "Mr. Ye should be a Chinese, right?"

Ye Chen nodded and said blandly, "That's right."

The young girl smiled faintly and said to Ye Chen, "Mr. Ye, I will try to remember your kindness, and if there is still a chance in the future, I will definitely repay you twice as much."

Ye Chen gently waved his hand and said unconcernedly, "No need, I saved you and your grandfather, you gave me a ring, we are clear, I hope that the two of you, grandfather and grandson, will be safe in the future."

After he said that, he waved his hand, and some spiritual energy was transferred into their bodies.

The old man lost consciousness almost instantly, and Lin Wan'er also closed her eyes immediately afterwards.

When Ye Chen saw that they had lost consciousness, he used his aura to erase their memories, then he walked out of the country house alone and quickly left the place and returned to Helena's palace in Bergen.

Ten minutes after he left, the old man was the first to wake up.

When he saw the mess in front of him, and a strange corpse, he was shocked, and when he saw that his lady was also lying unconscious on the desk, he rushed forward and shouted nervously, "Miss!"

Lin Wan'er suddenly opened her eyes, she looked at the old man, smiled faintly and spoke, "You are awake."

The old man said in a panic, "Miss, I I remember you told me to arrange for someone to pack up and leave Scandinavia as soon as possible, but I don't know how I fell unconscious, and And I feel as if a part of my memory is missing"

Lin Wan'er nodded and said lightly, "It feels like there is a missing part of your memory because someone has erased your memory."

The old man listened dumbfounded and said offhandedly, "Can someone really erase someone else's memories?"

Lin Wan'er hummed and sighed, "Yes, and he tried to erase my memories along with it."

Speaking of this, Lin Wan'er suddenly smiled cheekily and smacked her lips, "Tsk But it's a pity, he failed!"
