

Ye Chen 5061

Chapter 5061

Ye Chen had guessed correctly.

When he arrived at the top floor together with Duan Liye, the middle-aged man brought the two into his office.

Following along with him was the young man who was a two-heaven of the Dark Realm, as well as those few Ming Realm experts.

The moment the door closed, the young man took the first step to Duan Liye and suddenly bent his knees to the ground, kowtowing heavily and choking back a sob, he said, "Lord Special Envoy, please have mercy and save our 3,700 people up and down here!"

The others immediately followed the young man and knelt down, choking back sobs, "Lord Envoy, please be merciful!"

Duan Liye was caught a little off guard.

Ye Chen had given him the mental implication that he should meet with these people as he had done in the past.

However, the fact that these people were suddenly kneeling in front of him and begging him for mercy made him a little at a loss for words.

The current Duan Liye was more like a machine executing an order; if the order was recorded in his system, he would be able to execute it immediately, but if it was not recorded, he would enter a state of procedural error.

This was also the biggest drawback of mental suggestion.

Ye Chen could see that Duan Liye was a bit down, so he spoke up and asked, "Are you guys worried that Lord Ying will use the same means to punish you that he used to punish others twenty years ago?"

As soon as Ye Chen's words came out, several people were instantly filled with horror!

They did not expect that the attendant who had always followed the envoy without saying a word would take the initiative to speak today.

Moreover, the moment he spoke, he had spoken to the fear in their hearts!

Several people looked at each other, and then the young man suddenly realised something and crawled towards Ye Chen on his knees, choking, "Please forgive me for being blind and failing to understand Lord Envoy's identity at an early stage, and please condemn Lord Envoy!"

As soon as the others saw this, they too immediately came to a realization and crawled on their knees in front of Ye Chen, begging with unparalleled devotion, "Please condemn Lord Envoy!"

Ye Chen was slightly stunned, and then quickly came to his senses, thinking in his heart, "It seems that these people are treating me as a real envoy."

Just as Duan Liye had said, in those enterprises controlled by the Qing Breaking Society, the apparent chairman of the board was usually not the real person in charge, and the person in charge was probably just an insignificant assistant or accountant beside the chairman.

Just like this copper mine, when they were outside, it looked like the middle-aged man was the person in charge here, while the young man was his secretary, but once they arrived at the office, the young man immediately became the leader among them, and everyone looked up to him.

So, at the moment, this young man, too, seemed to have mistakenly thought that he, the special envoy's assistant, was probably the real special envoy.

Chapter 5062

Seeing these people kneeling before him and begging, Ye Chen smiled faintly and opened his mouth to ask, "If Lord Ying really decides to kill all of you here, then do you dare to fight to the death before you die?"

When several people heard this, their entire bodies trembled uncontrollably as they were shocked beyond belief.

The young man at the head of the group blurted out in fear, "Lord Envoy, the gods are above, this is my fault, I have failed the trust and expectation of Lord Ying, even if Lord Ying tells me to die immediately, I will not complain!

The others also said in unison, "I am willing to die for Lord Ying!"

Ye Chen grunted and said with contempt, "The others want to kill all of you, but instead of having any sense of resistance, you are kneeling on the ground like lackeys to show your loyalty, don't you have any bloodlust?"

When the crowd heard Ye Chen questioning them like this, they were even more scared out of their wits!

They thought that Ye Chen was deliberately testing them, so how could they dare to show any disobedience at such a time, and they all kept kowtowing in fear.

The young man at the head of the group even choked up and said, "Lord Envoy, I really dare not even think about such a treacherous thing"

Ye Chen looked at his terrified expression and could tell that this person's heart was indeed full of fear and did not even have the slightest intention to resist.

However, after carefully recalling the identities of these people, Ye Chen did not feel surprised anymore.

After all, according to what Duan Liye had said, apart from the dead soldiers, the Primus Guards and their families, most of the other members of the Broken Qing Society had joined voluntarily.

Especially those martial artists who aspired to make a quick breakthrough in their cultivation, they joined the Qing Breaking Society in order to achieve a leap in cultivation, so there was no bitter hatred between them and the Qing Breaking Society.

The young man in front of him, on the other hand, was not low in cultivation and was also a sect leader, in charge of the operation and management of the entire Deadman Base, so I guess his rank was not low either.

It was even likely that he had been trained from the Huben camp as well.

Such a person might even be grateful to the Qing Breaking Society, apart from obeying their words.

Therefore, from the bottom of their hearts, they would not want to fight against the Broken Qing Society.

Thinking of this, Ye Chen lost interest in fighting against these few people, he looked at them and said indifferently, "Lord Ying was indeed very shocked by the failure of Bogan, but Lord Ying also knows that you are not to blame for this failure, so you do not need to worry too much."

As soon as they heard this, they breathed a long sigh of relief.

The young man at the head of the group said gratefully, "Thank you, Lord Ying, for your generosity, and thank you, Special Envoy, for your kindness! We will be brave after knowing shame, and we will bow and die for the organisation!"

Chapter 5063

Ye Chen nodded, stretched out his hand and gently patted him on the shoulder, as a trace of aura was transferred into the other man's brain, Ye Chen said indifferently, "Very well, but from now on, you will do whatever I say, do you understand?"

The young man's eyes staggered, then without thinking, he said, "Understood!"

The few people behind him were still somewhat puzzled at this point, wondering why this Lord Envoy would say such words to the Festival Amba*sador.

After all, in the Broken Qing Society, the Ying Lord was the only supreme being, and no one was allowed to disobey him, let alone to go below his superiors, but this Lord Envoy's words seemed to be a desire to cultivate his own beloved within the organisation.

Seeing several people hesitate, Ye Chen deliberately sneered and asked, "What? A few of you are not willing to serve me like him?"

The middle-aged man said without a second thought, "I only follow Lord Ying's lead!"

Ye Chen smiled and nodded, saying indifferently, "Indeed, your loyalty is commendable! Seeing you all being so loyal to Lord Ying, I can also rest a*sured."

Ye Chen's words caused several people to breathe a slight sigh of relief, thinking that Ye Chen was just testing their loyalty to the organisation.

At this time, Ye Chen walked up to several people, stretched out his hand and shook each of them, and only after each person's brain had been fed with their own aura, he cleared his throat and said in a stern voice to several people, "From now on, your only mission is to serve me, do you understand?"

“Understood!” Several people had already been completely psychologically implied by Ye Chen at this point, and one by one, they respectfully agreed.

Through his understanding of the Broken Qing Society, he could conclude that the dead soldiers, as well as their families, were inevitably filled with hatred for the Broken Qing Society deep down.

Therefore, as long as he could cure the severe poison in their bodies, they would definitely be turned back by himself.

However, the Primus Guards, as a group, were relatively more cautious.

Because although the primus guards were also born as dead soldiers, after all, some of them had already gained a relatively free status and had entered the promotion ladder tailor-made for them by the Broken Qing Society, so some of them must have already tilted their hearts towards the Broken Qing Society and decided to make it big in the Broken Qing Society by their own efforts.

So, Ye Chen came up with an idea to hoe the traitors.

He planned to have these managers call the heads of the Primus Guards at all levels to come here first and have them take their medicine here.

After they had taken the medicine, he would then give them a chance to talk directly to his “special envoy” without making a sound.

The antidote brought by Ye Chen would instantly disintegrate the poison in their bodies once these Primus guards took it.

Chapter 5064

However, if anyone who takes the medicine immediately comes to him or her to tell on him or her, then that person’s heart must have already turned to the Qing Breaking Society.

Through such means, although he could not determine whether those who had reservations were really at odds with the Qing Breaking Society, he could at least screen out the traitors in the Primus Guards first.

He then asked the ambasador, “How many people are there in charge of the Primus at all levels?”

Without thinking, the knight-errant said, “There is one commander, three banner commanders, nine battalion commanders, and twenty-seven captains in the Primus Guard.”

After saying that, he added, “However, the last mission lost a commanding officer, a battalion commander and two captains who were missing.”

Ye Chen nodded and said indifferently, “Divide the remaining ones into three groups, bring the ones from one group here first, and prepare a room for them next door where they can take their medicine.”

The sectarian immediately said respectfully, “My subordinate will arrange this!”

Ye Chen gave a hmph and instructed, “After you bring the people here, come and find me here.”

“Good!”

Waited for about a few minutes.

The sectarian ambassador hurried back and respectfully said to Ye Chen, “Lord envoy, the first group of twelve people have arrived, please move to the meeting room!”

Ye Chen nodded, wrapped in his black robe, and led by the Sectional Envoy, he went to the large conference room next door.

At this moment, twelve apprehensive middle-aged men were already sitting in the conference room.

All of these men were the heads of the Primus Guards at all levels.

When Ye Chen stepped in, all of these men had very nervous expressions.

Ye Chen walked up to the top of the conference table, looked at the twelve Primus Guards and said indifferently, “Gentlemen, thanks to the benevolence of Lord Ying, a new antidote has been given to all the Primus Guards, and I have called you all here today in the hope that you can try this new medicine first.”

Upon hearing that it was a new antidote, the expressions of all the people were astonished.

At this moment, they were all very surprised in their hearts.

This was because, as far as they could remember, they had never heard of the organisation replacing a new medicine.

Ye Chen continued at this time, “Recently, there have been sudden changes in the wind and clouds, and I think you all have heard that the Primus Guards will face more difficult tasks in the future, so your previous seven-day medicine has clearly been somewhat insufficient, so Lord Ying has prepared a new antidote for you, and the new medicine’s effect will be extended from seven days to fifteen days.”

Once the twelve people heard this, the doubts in their hearts were instantly dispelled.

Ye Chen took out the antidote he had prepared and said indifferently, “All of you will take the medicine here this time, after taking the medicine, I will interview you all one by one in the next room, at that time, I need you to tell me the truth about how you feel about taking the medicine, I will record all your accounts and present them to Lord Ying when I return!”

Chapter 5065

Upon hearing Ye Chen’s words, these twelve people were relieved of their doubts, while still being vaguely excited.

Originally, the antidote was to be taken once every seven days, but now it was about to be extended to fifteen days, so to them, this was definitely a good thing to celebrate.

Seeing that the twelve people were already eager to take the antidote, Ye Chen took out the twelve pills and handed them to them one by one, saying indifferently, "In five minutes, you will meet me in the next office one by one in the order in which the pills were given out."

After saying this, he added, "By the way, Lord Ying attaches great importance to this new antidote, so if you feel anything different from the previous antidote during the trial process, you must give me detailed feedback, and if there are any significant discoveries, I will definitely claim credit for you to Lord Ying!"

The crowd nodded respectfully in a hurry, and immediately looked at each other as they picked up the antidote together and put it into their mouths.

Ye Chen did not stay where he was, but came straight out of the meeting room, closing the door behind him at the same time.

In a few dozen seconds, these primus guards would realise that the antidote would completely eliminate the severe poison from their bodies.

At that time, whether they chose to conceal it or to inform on it would depend on the inclination of each of them towards the Broken Qing Society within their hearts.

Just as Ye Chen returned to the office next door, the twelve people in the conference room, immediately noticed that something was wrong.

One of them was the first to open his eyes and exclaimed in a low voice, "Gentlemen, why do I feel that the severe poison in my body has disappeared? Could it be an illusion on my part?!"

Another person immediately said, "Mine has disappeared too It is indeed gone, it should not be an illusion!"

"Me too!" Another person said excitedly, "Gentlemen, could it be that this new antidote has some kind of bug?"

"Definitely!" A man with short hair, sitting in the middle, could not hide his excitement, "No matter what kind of bug he has, now that this antidote has lifted the severe poison from our bodies, does this mean that we no longer have to be forced to listen to the Society's control?"

The man sitting next to him asked in a rush, "You're not thinking of betraying the organisation, are you? I'm afraid that if the organisation catches us, we'll be worse off than dead!"

The short-haired man who had just spoken immediately retorted, "What are you afraid of? As long as we keep our mouths shut and tell the envoy that there's nothing unusual about the antidote, then he'll definitely give it to the others as well!"

After a pause, the man added, "Don't forget, we have over two hundred primus guards, hundreds more family members in the family area, plus thousands of dead soldiers down at the copper mine! If the severe poison in everyone's body can be completely lifted, neither the sectarian nor the guards around him can possibly be a match for so many of us, and even if we add that special envoy to the mix, they can't possibly be stronger than us!"

"At that time, we can completely control them and then take over the entire copper mine!"

Immediately, a hostage asked, "What's the point of taking over the entire copper mine for us? Once the organisation knows that this place is out of control, they will definitely send people to besiege us!"

"What's the fear of a siege? The short-haired man's gaze was like a torch as he said in a cold voice, "Don't forget that they used to control us by the antidote and the severe poison in our bodies! Do you think I didn't want to resist them after all these years? I'm willing to give my life to resist them, only that they simply won't give us the chance to fight head-on, and as soon as they stop the supply of the antidote, in seven days at most, all of us will definitely die!"

He said with a firm expression, "As soon as the poison is removed from everyone's body, we will then organise everyone and ask them for their opinion, if they are willing to resist the organisation, then we will use this as a base and fight them to the end; if they are inclined to escape from the organisation's control, then we will leave Cyprus overnight and scatter around the world! "

"With so many people fleeing at once, I'm afraid that even if the organisation wanted to hunt them down, it would be difficult to do so, as long as everyone escapes and can remain as anonymous as possible, I'm sure that some of them will survive and live freely!"

After that, he looked around at the crowd and said in an impassioned voice, "Think about it, our ancestors fought their way up from the dead to the Primus, and they have not been able to regain their freedom for hundreds of years, and this bug in the new antidote is our best chance, and it's a great chance that will be fleeting! Once they find out about the bug, then we don't stand a chance! Do you all really want our children and grandchildren to be forever shackled by this unbreakable poison as well?"

The short-haired man's words caused the crowd around him to leap to their feet a little.

One of them clenched his fist and said through clenched teeth, "D*mn it, if we don't seize this opportunity, our future generations will be controlled by this poison for hundreds of years! Since this is a once-in-a-lifetime opportunity, we must seize it no matter what!"

After saying that, he looked at the short-haired man and said firmly, "Old Li, just say the word on how to do it, this life of my brother is at your command from now on!"

"Yes, Chief Zuo, we all listen to your command!"

The others all took a stand at once.

The short-haired man said with relief, "Good! Since everyone is willing to put up a fight, let's set a plan first. The top priority right now is to absolutely not let that special envoy know that there is something wrong with this antidote, so later on when he asks us to meet alone, we must all unify our voices and say that we have not found any problems as well as any abnormalities, in this way, he will definitely let the next group of people come over to test the medicine, all we have to do is to hurry up and tell them before they are brought here, is to tell them about this before, so that they too, like us, will not reveal any clues!"

Saying that, he gave a slight beat and continued, "In addition, I reckon that envoy can't be here all the time, waiting for all of us Primus Guards to test the medicine, after the thirty or so Primus Guards at all levels have tested the medicine, he will definitely distribute the medicine to us, so that we can give it to our respective men, so when we all go back, we also have to quietly say hello to our respective men in advance.”

The crowd immediately nodded their heads and said, “No problem! We all listen to you!”

The short-haired man added, “Later on, while the other two groups are testing the medicine one after another, I have to go down to the mine to meet with a few elders from the dead soldiers and tell them about this, so that they can fight alongside us! We are all dead soldiers by birth, they have not even had the chance to see the sunlight so far, I believe this once-in-a-lifetime opportunity, they will definitely grasp it with all their might!”

According to his plan, they would first take care of the other twenty or so Primus guards, then they would take care of the other Primus guards under their respective command, and then they would mobilise the dead soldiers, so that they could take the entire copper mine without any difficulty.

However, these people did not know that everything they had discussed just now had entered Ye Chen’s ears word for word.

The corner of his mouth wiped a smile of appreciation, this man’s courage, boldness and strategy were all clearly superior to the others, and more importantly, his hatred for the Qing Breaking Society had not diminished just because he had become a primus inter pares.

At this moment, he had some clarity in his mind about the subsequent arrangements after the capture of this copper mine.

Chapter 5067

Soon, the first Primus guard who had gotten the antidote from Ye Chen’s hand, stepped forward and arrived at the office door.

He knocked on the door and said respectfully, “The Right Banner Chief of the Primus Guard requests to see Lord Special Envoy!”

Ye Chen gave a hmph and said indifferently, “Come in!”

Then, the door of the room was gently pushed open and a middle-aged blond man stepped into the office.

Back when he had just met the twelve people, Ye Chen had noticed him, he looked more like a western face, but had a few Asian features, so he thought he should be a mixed race.

Wrapped in a black robe, Ye Chen was currently sitting behind a wide solid wood desk, looking at the middle-aged man in front of him, and opened his mouth to ask: “Have you taken the antidote?”

The middle-aged man hurriedly said, “Back to Lord Special Envoy, it has been taken.”

Ye Chen nodded slightly and asked again, “How do you feel? Did you find anything unusual?”

The middle-aged man said without thinking, “I feel fine, I haven’t found anything abnormal, and I can obviously feel that after taking the medicine this time, the suppression of the toxins in my body is a little stronger, so I think it shouldn’t be a problem to last for fifteen days.”

“Good.” Ye Chen nodded and smiled playfully, then asked, “By the way, in the Primus Guard, what position do you hold?”

The man immediately said, “Back to Lord Envoy, my subordinate is the right banner chief among the three banners of the Primus Guard, and oversees the entire right banner.”

“Right Banner Chief.” Ye Chen repeated, curiously asking, “What is your lineage?”

The man busily said, “Back to Lord Envoy, it has been difficult to verify my lineage, as far as I know, there are Chinese, Japanese, British, German, Russian and several South American countries’ lineage, my earliest ancestors were all Chinese, but since a hundred years ago, many other races have been added to the dead, so the lineage has become more and more confusing.”

Ye Chen was secretly surprised in his heart, it seemed that after so many years of development of the Broken Qing Society, the bloodlines of the dead soldiers had diversified long ago.

With that, he waved his hand at the man and said, “Alright, go down first and let the next person in.”

The man said respectfully, “My subordinate follows orders!”

Soon after, a second person knocked on the door of the room at the entrance, “The Chief of the Primus Guard’s Middle Banner requests to see Lord Special Envoy!”

Ye Chen said, “Come in,” and the man hurriedly stepped into the office.

He closed the door, came in front of Ye Chen and said respectfully, “Greetings, Lord Special Envoy!”

After saying that, he looked at the sectional amba*sador and the others who were standing motionless beside him, and bowed to the commanding officer again respectfully, “Greetings, Lord Sectional Amba*sador!”

Ye Chen opened his mouth and asked him, “Have you taken the antidote?”

The man hurriedly said, “Back to the envoy, I have already taken the antidote!”

After saying that, he hurriedly lowered his voice and said in a flattering manner, “Lord envoy, I have two important things to report to you!”

Ye Chen raised his eyebrows and said indifferently, “Just say what it is.”

The man hurriedly said, “The first thing is that there is something wrong with this medicine!”

Ye Chen asked curiously, “What’s wrong with the medicine?”

The man explained, “Back to Lord Envoy, after my subordinate took this new antidote, all the toxins in my body disappeared!”

The new antidote was specially prepared by Lord Ying himself for you, in order to extend the interval between each dose, so that you could complete more difficult tasks. “

Chapter 5068

The man said with an anxious face, "Aiya Lord Envoy, everything I have said is the truth, not only has the toxin in my body disappeared, but the toxins in the other 11 people have also disappeared!"

If you do not kill them as soon as possible, they will probably lead all the Primus Guards and the dead soldiers to mutiny!"

Ye Chen paused slightly for a moment, before asking curiously, "Why are you telling me this? Haven't you ever thought about breaking away from the organization's control?"

When that man heard this, he thought that Ye Chen was deliberately testing his loyalty, so he turned pale with fear and hurriedly waved his hand to explain, "Please understand, Lord Envoy, I am dedicated to the organisation and have no intention of defecting! Moreover, the opportunity given to me by the organisation is what has brought me to this point.

Ye Chen smiled and said, "They all say that although the Primus Guards and the dead soldiers are obedient to the organization, they are full of hatred towards the organization and are always thinking of breaking away from the organization's control." Now it seems that this is not true.

The man immediately took a step forward, bowed ninety degrees and put his hands on top of his head, and said respectfully, "Lord Envoy, the fact that I am here today is the result of the joint efforts of many of my ancestors.

Ye Chen laughed, "Haha! You are indeed a malleable talent! At first glance, this poison seems to have completely lifted the toxin from your bodies, but in reality, he is only keeping the toxin hidden for the time being, so as to test which of you have mutinous intentions towards the organization and which of you have loyalty towards the organization!"

The man's expression was one of horror, but it was soon replaced by an uncontrollable excitement and thrill.

He could not hide his joy and said out of the blue, "I was still wondering just now, how could Lord Ying, with his saintly wisdom, have formulated such a southbound antidote, but I never thought that Lord Ying would be so wise!"

Ye Chen nodded and said indifferently, "I won't hide it from you, Lord Ying has always known that the vast majority of you Primus Guards as well as the dead soldiers lack loyalty and are even full of hatred towards Lord Ying, and he moved this idea not because he wanted to find out those traitors who intended to defect, but because he wanted to unearth a malleable talent like you through this means!"

I'm sure that Lord Ying will reward you with merit and perhaps promote you to be the commander of the Primus Guard!"

The man was immediately overjoyed and fell to his knees with a poof, kowtowing, "Thank you for the promotion, Lord Special Envoy!"

Ye Chen stretched out his hand to signal him to get up, and then continued to set him up again, asking with a smile, "According to your understanding, how many other people in the Primus Guard are truly loyal to the organisation like you?"

The man thought for a moment and spoke, "There aren't many I can identify, but there are at least a dozen! They are all loyal to the organization, and they all want to be able to make themselves, and their families, more valued by the organization through their own efforts."

"Good!" Ye Chen nodded and admonished, "After you go out from here, don't let the other eleven people see any clues, then you go find the ones you think will definitely not betray the organisation and quietly tell them the truth about the antidote, and ask them to hold the towel in their left hand when they take the medicine later so that I can recognise it at a glance, and remember not to let any word out."

Without thinking, the man said, "Don't worry, I'll get right on it!"

Chapter 5069

The third person to enter the office was the short-haired man who had previously mobilised the other Primus Guards to take advantage of the opportunity to resist.

Ye Chen recognised his voice when he said at the door, "The Left Banner Chief of the Primus Guards requests to see the Special Envoy".

So, from the moment he entered the door, Ye Chen was watching his every move.

The man was about forty years old, and although he had a popular face, there was a hidden heroic aura between his brows.

When he saw Ye Chen, he bowed slightly and said in a routine manner, "Lord Special Envoy, the new antidote you gave me has been tried and I did not find anything abnormal."

Ye Chen smiled faintly and asked him, "What is your name?"

The short-haired man did not know why Ye Chen was asking for his name, and while puzzled, he could only answer truthfully, "In reply to Lord Envoy, my subordinate's name is Li Nianzong."

Ye Chen asked again, "I remember that dead soldiers are all named by their numbers, you must also be a dead soldier who has risen through the ranks, so why do you have a name?"

The short-haired man immediately said without condescension, "It is true that my subordinate was known by his number in the Dead Soldier Camp, but my ancestor passed down his surname and first name, from generation to generation, in the Dead Soldier Camp, and this was allowed in the Dead Soldier Camp."

Ye Chen nodded, and suddenly physically removed the large hood of his black robe, revealing his true face.

Li Nianzong was a little surprised, he didn't know, why the envoy had to reveal his true face, after all, this was something he had never encountered in the past.

Moreover, he was a little surprised at Ye Chen's age.

Back when Ye Chen had just given them the antidote, he had known that the envoy had changed this time, no longer the old man with the old voice from before, but a new person who sounded younger.

However, he did not have any suspicion about this, after all, the envoy was not at the same level as him at all, and the personnel change of the envoy would not greet with them, the dead soldiers.

But when he found out that Ye Chen was so young, his entire heart could not help but feel apprehensive.

Because in his opinion, if Ye Chen could become a special envoy at such a young age, then his strength must be very strong.

And to have superlative strength at such a young age also proved that this person was exceptionally gifted and definitely not very human.

Therefore, he was very worried in his heart that he would be seen by Ye Chen.

On top of that, Ye Chen's sudden act of showing his true face also made him a little more nervous in his heart.

This kind of situation, which had never happened before, made him conclude in his heart that this young envoy was absolutely no ordinary person.

At this moment, Ye Chen looked at him and said with a smile on his face, "Li Nianzong, let me ask you, is there really nothing unusual about this antidote?"

Li Nianzong was in a panic, but he did his best to remain calm and said with certainty, "Your Excellency, there is really nothing unusual about it."

Ye Chen asked him with a smirk, "I see, this is a unified statement that you have discussed, right?"

Li Nianzong was shocked, but still forced himself to calm down and played dumb, "Lord envoy, my subordinate does not understand what you mean"

Ye Chen blandly said, "Li Nianzong, the severe poison in your body has completely disappeared, am I right?!"

Hearing these words, Li Nianzong's entire body was instantly struck by lightning.

Chapter 5070

He looked at Ye Chen with shock and fear, and looking at his slightly lazy and casual smile, he suddenly realized that what had just happened in the next conference room seemed like a once-in-a-lifetime opportunity in his eyes, but now that he looked at it again, it seemed like this envoy was deliberately playing a game of cat and mouse with himself and the others.

It seemed that he had everything under control.

It might even be that he was deliberately playing a trick on himself and the other Primus Guards.

In desperation, Li Nianzong still tried to make a final struggle, he shook his head and said to Ye Chen, "Lord Envoy, please forgive my humble servant, the situation you mentioned, my servant did not perceive"

Ye Chen stood up at this moment, paced up and down to Li Nianzong and smiled blandly, "Alright, there is no need to act with me, the antidote you are taking was prepared by my own hands, I know better than you what effects these few pills have."

"What?!" Li Nianzong stared at Ye Chen with wide eyes and a face full of horror as he subconsciously asked, "Lord Special Envoy You You said that this antidote was prepared by your own hands?!"

Ye Chen nodded and said with a smile, "That's right, I prepared it with my own hands, and it is not the kind of antidote that you took before, which can delay the onset of the poison in your body, but an antidote that can make the poison in your body disappear completely, in the true sense of the word."

Li Nianzong looked at Ye Chen and asked in confusion, "Lord Envoy You Why are you doing this? From my subordinate's understanding of the organisation, the organisation has always acted with extreme caution and would never take such a risk"

Ye Chen nodded and said frankly, "You are right, it is impossible for the Broken Qing Society to come up with this kind of real antidote, and even if they could, they would never do it."

Li Nianzong subconsciously asked, "Then why are you"

Ye Chen looked at him and laughed, "Because I am not a special envoy at all, and I am also not a member of the Broken Clear Society, but an enemy of the Broken Clear Society!"

Li Nianzong was shocked and blurted out, "This How is this possible"

After saying that, he couldn't help but look at the sectarians standing on either side as well as the sectarians' personal guards, and couldn't help but ask Ye Chen, "Could they all be your people as well?!"

Ye Chen waved his hand, "They are not, I came here tonight on my own, they are just controlled by me with psychological suggestion."

After saying that, Ye Chen then said to Li Nianzong, "By the way, I came today and brought several thousand antidotes that can completely remove the toxin from your bodies, which can completely free all your primus guards and all your dead soldiers from the grip of the severe poison in their bodies."

"Besides, I've heard everything you just talked to them in the next room. Although your courage is commendable, your tactics are still a bit short!"

"If you people choose to stay here and hold on to this copper mine, then it is only a matter of time before the Broken Qing will come in and kill all of you;"

"If you people flee and die, then the Qing Breakers will definitely kill you one by one, leaving no loose ends, it's only a matter of time!

"It's just that the latter will have a slightly longer time to live on than the former."

Li Nianzong was silent for a moment, looked at Ye Chen and opened his mouth to ask: "Then I dare to ask, you have come here today with the antidote, can you give us people a third option?!"

“Of course!” Ye Chen looked at him, nodded approvingly, and said aloud, “I have come here today to do three things! One is to take control of the envoy as well as the sectarians here without bloodshed, and as you can see, I have already done that.”
