

Ye Chen 5071

Chapter 5071

Saying that, Ye Chen gave a slight beat and continued, "As for the second thing, it is to remove all the toxins from all of your bodies without the Broken Qing Society noticing, but the premise is that none of you can escape and must stay here to cooperate with me and follow my orders at all times."

"And the third thing is for you all to stay here and cooperate with me both inside and outside after the poison is removed, in preparation for the complete elimination of the Broken Qing Society!"

Li Nianzong frowned and then said with a serious face, "Since you want to be the enemy of the Qing Breaking Society, then you and we have a common enemy and are our comrades in arms, and you are willing to lift the poison from our bodies, then you are our benefactor, as long as you can stop controlling us like the Qing Breaking Society, I, Li Nianzong, am willing to follow your lead!"

Ye Chen said indifferently, "Since I have brought the antidote that can completely remove the poison from your bodies, I naturally will not turn around and use such underhanded means to control you to work for me like the Qing Breaking Society did."

What I need is for you to work together with me as comrades in arms to uproot the Qing Breakers. I will never interfere!"

Hearing these words, Li Nianzong's whole body was already a little excited!

Ye Chen's words had unleashed three huge surprises on him.

The first surprise was that they would all be completely freed from the poison in their bodies, and would no longer be shackled by it for the rest of their lives!

The second surprise was that Ye Chen shared a common goal with them, which was to eradicate the Broken Qing Society. Originally, he had never thought that he was capable of uprooting the Broken Qing Society, but Ye Chen's profoundness made him subconsciously feel that by following him, his chances of success would be infinitely greater!

As for the third surprise, it was the promise of freedom that Ye Chen had given him!

This, was the key to changing the miserable fate of these people of theirs for hundreds of years!

None of their ancestors had ever longed for a free body.

But after all these years, countless people had given their lives for the Qing Breaking Society, and had even been killed by the Society itself, but none of them had ever gained freedom in the true sense of the word.

Some of the Primus Guards and their "scholarly" descendants did gain relative freedom by working for the Society, but as long as the poison remains intact, freedom remains firmly in the hands of the Society.

A bird in a cage has no freedom; a parrot with a chain around its ankle has no freedom either.

Therefore, the latter kind of conditional freedom has always been anathema to Li Nianzong as well.

If he had the chance, he would be more than willing to fight to the death against the Qing Breakers, and even if he died in the end, it would be a good death.

However, although he had such a mind, he was not a reckless man, and he knew very well that if he just went against the Broken Clear Society regardless of everything, it would basically be sending him to his death for nothing.

It was only a few minutes ago that Ye Chen's antidote had sparked his confidence to fight to the death.

And after Ye Chen revealed his true purpose, his confidence grew even more!

With this in mind, without thinking, he knelt down on one knee, clasped his hands together and said reverently, "If you can keep your promise, I, Li Nianzong, swear on the name of all my ancestors that I will follow you until the Broken Qing Society completely disappears from this world!"

Then he suddenly changed his words and said, "No! I will follow you to the end of my life and serve you. As long as you can give my descendants freedom, I will be able to smile in my grave and have no regrets in my life!"

Ye Chen nodded and said indifferently, "I will naturally keep my promise, not only to you, but also to all the dead soldiers and primus inter pares who are controlled by the Qing Breaking Society.

Chapter 5072

Ye Chen's promise caused Li Nianzong's heart to surge with excitement.

He knelt on the ground and looked up at Ye Chen with fervour in his eyes as he asked excitedly, "Sir, what should I do next, please let me know!"

Ye Chen's gaze was like a torch, and he said in a loud voice: "I have already taken control of all the envoys and envoys here, and you, the Primus Guards, are the most powerful people here.

Li Nianzong said with an astonished expression, "Sir, please forgive me, but the Primus have been suffering from the Qing Breakers for a long time, but they have not had the chance to break away from their control. "

Ye Chen shook his head and said indifferently, "You have courage, strategy and backbone, but you seem to lack a few points of understanding of human nature."

Saying that, Ye Chen said with a cold expression, "You don't know anything, that Chinese Flag Chief just now, has told me the real situation of the antidote, as well as your plan word for word, he would prefer to stay in the Broken Qing Society and work his way up the ladder than fight against the Broken Qing Society, or die in the sky."

Li Nianzong's eyes widened and he blurted out, "Sir is this true?!"

"Of course." Ye Chen nodded and informed Li Nianzong of the conversation he had just had with that Chinese flag chief.

After hearing this, Li Nianzong immediately became furious and gritted his teeth, "This D*mned Ma Chenfei, how dare he try to betray the entire Primus Guard! I will kill him myself!"

Ye Chen said indifferently, "There are not a few people like him in the Primus Guard!"

After a slight pause, Ye Chen added, "According to him, there are at least a dozen people he can identify, and those who are ambiguous or temporarily wavering but will choose to betray the Primus Guard at the critical moment should not be underestimated either!"

"I want all you Primus and all the dead soldiers to unite, to pretend that nothing has happened, and to become a steel sword inside the Qing Breakers!"

"But, to achieve this goal, we must ensure that no traitors exist within you people!"

"Otherwise, once one of you tries to tip off the outside world, it could bring you all death!"

Li Nianzong said without thinking, "Sir, don't worry, I will immediately bring my men to arrest Ma Chenfei and force him to reveal the names of all the others, so that all of these people will be eliminated!"

Ye Chen waved his hand: "It is not a good idea to do so, because there will probably be fish in the net. I have already arranged this matter, that Ma Chenfei does not know my true identity, and he also believes my words, I have asked him to secretly mobilize those who are like-minded with him, and I believe that those people will also help him to bring in other wavering people. At that time they will be holding the towel in their left hands, all you have to do is explain the situation to those you absolutely trust, and when I go to distribute the medicine for all the primus later on, you will use my dropping the cup as a signal to arrest all those who are holding the towel in their left hands!"

Hearing this, Li Nianzong immediately said with a convinced face, "Good idea, sir! With your method, you can actually catch all of these people, without leaving a single one!"

After saying that, he suddenly remembered something and hurriedly asked Ye Chen again, "Right sir, what are you going to do with this group of people?"

Chapter 5073

Ye Chen asked him, "Do you have any good ideas?"

Li Nianzong said with a firm expression, "I think that these people ignore the tragic experiences and bitter hatred of their ancestors, and only care about their own interests, even going so far as to betray their comrades who fought alongside them. What is the difference between such people and the traitor Wu Sangui, who let the Qing army into the country and even killed the Southern Ming Emperor Yongli with his own hands?"

Ye Chen did not expect that when Li Nianzong mentioned traitors, he was thinking of Wu Sangui from several hundred years ago.

However, he soon understood the reason for it.

Many of the ancestors of these Primus Guards should have been Southern Ming subjects, and the Southern Ming was the last dynasty of the Han Chinese, and to the Han Chinese at that time, Wu Sangui was the most treacherous traitor in this world.

Not only did he put the Qing army into the country for his own glory and fortune, and take away the Han dynasty, but he even served as a pawn for the Qing army, committing many unforgivable crimes against his own countrymen and clansmen.

What is even more outrageous is that this man was a Ming subject, but after surrendering to the Qing Dynasty, he personally captured the last emperor of the Southern Ming, Emperor Yongli, and killed him with his own hands, an act of regicide that is not uncommon in the 5,000 years of Chinese history.

Therefore, this man could almost be counted as the greatest traitor among the Han Chinese.

However, at this moment, Ye Chen waved his hand at Li Nianzong and said, "Although I agree with your assessment of these people, I do not agree with your punishment of these people."

Li Nianzong was busy asking, "Sir, what do you think is wrong?"

Ye Chen said lightly, "It is always easy to kill, but most of the time, killing lacks sufficient justice, you are only a group after all, not a sound society, you want to kill them, firstly, there is no way to rely on them, secondly, it may not be able to fully convince the public, in case your actions give others a feeling of 'those who go against me will die', then what is the difference to the others from being controlled by the Broken Ching Society?"

Li Nianzong froze and asked him, "Sir, what do you mean then?"

Ye Chen said indifferently, "Once today's goal is achieved, you are in a practical sense out of the control of the Qing Breaking Society, and I am not your new master, but merely have reached a fair agreement with you, an agreement that consists of me providing you with the antidote and you fighting with me against the Qing Breaking Society, an agreement that will naturally end once the Qing Breaking Society is eradicated"

"Therefore, while your general direction during the period of this agreement's survival will have to follow the agreement with me, internally you will need to establish a credible internal order, and any internal matters will have to be able to convince the public when making decisions."

Speaking here, Ye Chen paused and continued, "Once this credible internal order is established, this set of order is tantamount to the basic law within you, and the actions of all people must be bound by this basic law, and you must ensure that this set of law is fair and that it applies to each and every one of you;"

"As for those who intend to betray the primus inter pares, they should be punished with this basic law once it has been established, that way they can be truly convincing."

Having said that, Ye Chen looked at Li Nianzong and said in a serious tone, "If you really want to kill them, it must be everyone, not just you, that you want to kill"

Li Nianzong was silent for a long time and said with a grateful face, "Sir, what you mean, my subordinate understands!"

Ye Chen gave a hollow sound and said indifferently, "You go down and prepare first, find people you trust completely, tell them about these situations and tell them to be prepared, the people behind me, I still have to meet them one by one to see if there are still people like that Ma Chen Fei in there, if there are, I will also let them hold a towel in their left hand for easy differentiation, then you will lead people to kill them all! “

After Li Nianzong left the office, Ye Chen did not let the next person come in immediately, but took out his mobile phone and sent a message to Wan Bajun, asking him to land immediately according to the original plan and wait around to the back side of the copper mine.

At this time, Wan Bajun had already brought the elites of the Ten Thousand Dragon Hall, as well as those seven Primus Guards, Five-Four-Seven and others, to the Cyprus coastline by boat.

In accordance with Ye Chen’s request, they anchored at a location less than ten kilometres from the coastline and waited.

And in the two hours that followed, Ye Chen did as he was told and interviewed the various remaining ranks of the Primus Guards in charge.

This also allowed him to test four more treacherous people who, like Ma Chenfei, were intent on ratting out the organisation in exchange for its approval.

And Ye Chen continued to use the same rhetoric he had used when he had snubbed Ma Chen Fei, making them think they had made a great deal of merit and sending them off to develop their own underlings, ensuring that all of their men, at a later stage of public dosing, would hold a towel in their left hands so that Ye Chen could identify them.

At this moment, the two hundred or so Primus Guards had invariably split into two camps.

Those who were willing to follow Li Nianzong and the others, to fight against the Qing Breaking Society and for their freedom, were ready to take over the entire copper mine.

However, there were still some Primus Guards who could not wait to prove their loyalty in this “test”.

They were all gathered in Ma Chen Fei’s office, and Ma Chen Fei couldn’t hide his excitement as he told them what had happened earlier, and then said gleefully, “It was thanks to my cleverness that I discovered something strange in the antidote today, and that I had inadvertently pa*sed Lord Ying’s test. I’m afraid we’ll all be finished!”

Those who had been chosen by Ma Chen Fei were just as eager as he was to climb higher and higher in the organisation, so after hearing what had happened, they were all both grateful and excited.

As far as they were concerned, the fact that they had managed to pa*s the Ying Master’s test was a huge opportunity in itself, and by seizing this opportunity, everyone would definitely be able to receive the organisation’s commendation.

One of them said excitedly, “Lieutenant Banner Chief, oh no, the future Lord Commander, when you become a great success in the future, don’t forget all of us loyal men!”

Ma Chen Fei laughed and patted his chest, “Don’t worry, brothers, we will seize this opportunity today, the important positions of the Primus Guard will definitely be ours. important positions are unoccupied, they will definitely be given priority to those of us who have passed the test of loyalty, and by then, we can all go further as a whole!”

As soon as they heard these words, they were even more excited, and they were already calculating in their minds what kind of huge rewards they could reap after this test.

Chapter 5075

At this time, the Chairman’s voice came over the radio, “Attention all Primus Guards, gather at the Staff Auditorium in ten minutes, the Special Envoy will distribute the latest antidote for everyone!”

When Ma Chen Fei heard the announcement, he stood up excitedly and said ambitiously, “Brothers, the time has come to build up! Everyone, go back and take a towel and hold it in your left hand, when the Lord Special Envoy sees it, he will know that we are all absolutely loyal to the organisation!

Someone asked him, “Brother Ma, isn’t it a bit strange for us to hold a towel in our hands, what should we say if the others ask?”

Ma Chen Fei said casually, “Whatever they do, if someone asks, just say that it’s hot and we have a towel to wipe our sweat, don’t care if they believe us or not, it’s just a towel anyway, what can they guess?”

After all, even if they take the antidote, the poison in their bodies won’t really be lifted, and when the envoy tells the truth, they will still have to behave themselves. At that time, even if they know that we have already made our hearts known to the envoy, what will happen? In any case, they will either be executed or put under our command, so what are they afraid of?”

The man immediately understood and clasped his hands together, “Brother Ma is wise! It seems that today is a great opportunity for our brothers to rise to great heights! We all owe everything to Brother Ma, and we will definitely listen to your orders in the future!”

Ma Chen Fei nodded in satisfaction and said with a smile, “With these words from our brothers, it’s not a waste of my time today. Everyone hurry back to prepare towels, we will see you in the staff auditorium later!”

Just as all the primus guards began to prepare to go to the staff auditorium, Wan Xiaojun’s group had also successfully landed and quietly circled around to the back side of the copper mine.

Ye Chen ordered his special envoy, Duan Liye, and the two sectional ambassadors to personally go to meet them and bring the group directly to the office building.

Apart from Wan Bajun, the others stayed in the conference room for the time being, while Wan Bajun, accompanied by Duan Liye, stepped into the office where Ye Chen was.

After entering the office, Wan Bajun bowed slightly to Ye Chen and said, “Mr. Ye, all of my subordinates have arrived and are waiting for your further instructions.”

Ye Chen nodded and spoke, "I have already asked their primus guards to gather in the auditorium, as planned we will first uncover the traitors within the primus guards and then hold a rally for them, at that time you will take those seven primus guards and listen to my orders in the background."

Without thinking, Wan Bajun said, "Okay Mr. Ye, my subordinate understands!"

After saying that, he clasped his fist towards Ye Chen and subconsciously glanced at the few people standing motionless in the room.

This look did not matter, he looked at one of the middle-aged and elderly people and blurted out in shock, "Master?! Why are you here?!"

Chapter 5076

The person he called Master was one of the guards at the side of the sectarian.

Ye Chen had not paid much attention to this person earlier, after all, this person's cultivation was only at the full level of the Ming realm, so Ye Chen did not take it to heart.

However, he did not expect that this person would be Wan Breaking Jun's master.

He frowned and asked, "Broken Jun, this man, is he really your master?"

"Yes!" Wan Bajun subconsciously nodded and said, "He is my master Qiu Zhiyuan"

After saying that, he looked at the middle aged man and said offhandedly, "Master, don't you recognize me?! I'm Broken Army!"

Ye Chen said indifferently, "His mind is now under my control."

Wan Bajun's entire body was stunned and asked offhandedly, "Mr. Ye, my master he has joined that organization too?!"

Ye Chen nodded and smiled sarcastically, "Joined, but it seems that his status is somewhat low, and he can't even speak here."

After saying that, Ye Chen looked at Qiu Zhiyuan and ordered, "You, come here!"

When Qiu Zhiyuan heard Ye Chen's order, he hurriedly walked to the front.

Ye Chen gave him a look and waved his hand in front of him, then he withdrew the aura controlling him.

The moment Qiu Zhiyuan regained his senses, he stared at Ye Chen with a face full of horror and questioned offhandedly, "What exactly did you do to me?!"

Ye Chen pointed at Wan Bajun beside him and asked, "Do you still know this person?"

Only then did Qiu Zhiyuan look at Wan Bajun, and his entire body was even more stunned!

He looked at Wan Bajun for a long time before he asked in shock, "You are you Bajun?!"

Wan Bajun knelt down on one knee and said respectfully, "Master, it is none other than disciple Wan Bajun!"

Qiu Zhiyuan subconsciously asked, “What cultivation level are you now?! Why can’t I see your cultivation level?! Could it be that could it be that you have exceeded the Ming Realm Great Perfection?!”

Wan Bajun looked at Ye Chen and said truthfully, “Back to Master, I am fortunate enough to have been brought up by Mr. Ye and have now crossed into the Dark Realm!”

“What?!” Although Qiu Zhiyuan had subconsciously realised that this would be the case, he was still shocked when he heard Wan Bajun say it himself.

His eyes widened as he subconsciously said, “This is simply impossible! I have been stuck in the Ming realm for almost thirty years without being able to break through, you and I have only been separated for a year, how can you go from being an eight-star martial artist to breaking through to the Ming realm and crossing into the Dark realm?”

Wan Bajun respectfully said, “Master, I just said that it was all thanks to Mr. Ye who gave me the chance.”

After saying that, he couldn’t help but ask, “Master, aren’t you going to travel in the clouds? Why are you here?!”

Qiu Zhiyuan had already realised that this mysterious young man in front of him, who was called Mr. Ye by Wan Bajun, must be an expert with heavenly strength; the fact that he had just been controlled by him in a daze showed that his tactics were already infinitely superior to his own.

Chapter 5077

Hearing that he had given his disciple Wan Bajun a heavenly chance, he could not help but ask respectfully, “Mr. Ye, I wonder what exactly is your identity?”

Ye Chen said indifferently, “You are not qualified to ask about my identity yet.”

After saying that, Ye Chen asked in a cold voice, “You haven’t answered the question that Broken Army just asked you.”

Qiu Zhiyuan’s body shook and he said in a hurry, “I entered the world to travel in the clouds to find a chance to break through to the Ming realm of great perfection, and by chance I met the sect leader here in North Africa, and when he saw that my cultivation had reached the Ming realm of great perfection, he persuaded me to join the Broken Clear Society and promised that after three years of service in the Broken Clear Society, he would recommend me to join the Huben Battalion. But I didn’t realize that I would have to take a special poison to join the Qing Breaking Society and that I would need to take an antidote for life to save my life

Wan Bajun was surprised and asked, “Master, what kind of organization is the Huben Camp?”

Qiu Zhiyuan explained, “The Huben Camp is the base where the Broken Qing Society cultivates Dark Realm experts, every martial artist who has reached the full circle of the Bright Realm can successfully break through and step into the Dark Realm after joining the Huben Camp

Wan Bajun could not help but say, "Master, according to what my disciple knows about this organisation so far, this organisation with a history of several hundred years seems to be very evil, why would you join such an organisation to work for them?"

Qiu Zhiyuan sighed with a sigh, "Because I want to break through! There was a time when I was a genius martial artist, and I was in my thirties when I reached the full circle of the Ming realm. I have not been able to do so for so many years"

I did not hesitate at that moment and agreed to them immediately. For me, my biggest goal in life is to be able to step into the Dark Realm. "

Speaking of this, he couldn't help but ask Wan Breaking Jun: "Breaking Jun, why are you here?! Could it be that Wan Long Hall has become enemies with the Broken Qing Society?"

Wan Broken Jun arched his hands towards Ye Chen and said respectfully, "Back to Master, my disciple and tens of thousands of troops from the Ten Thousand Dragon Hall have sworn their loyalty to Mr. Ye, and the reason why my disciple is here is because Mr. Ye wants to completely eradicate the Broken Qing Society that you are talking about!"

Qiu Zhiyuan subconsciously looked at Ye Chen and said frankly, "Little brother, although I have only been a member of the Qing Breaking Society for a year, but just like a leopard in a tube, a glimpse of a spot will tell the whole story. To go against the Qing Breaking Society is like an ant trying to shake a tree, it's unbeatable!"

Hearing this, Ye Chen smiled faintly and said indifferently, "So what if it is a giant tree? I will cut off all its branches and buds, and then uproot it and trample it under my feet!"

Chapter 5078

While Ye Chen's words shocked Qiu Zhiyuan, they also caused mixed feelings in his heart at this moment.

For one thing, he could not understand why this young man had such confidence to intervene to challenge the immense Qing Breaking Society.

Secondly, he couldn't understand even more why the same person had a different fate. Both himself and Wan Bajun were martial geniuses, and their cultivation before the age of thirty was not just overwhelming, but even looked at as astounding.

To be able to cultivate to an eight-star martial artist before the age of thirty was a complete rarity in the world of martial artists he originally knew, and it was hard to pick one out of ten thousand.

Therefore, when he had decided to enter the world a year or so ago, he had sighed and lamented over Wan Bajun's future.

At that time, he thought that although Wan Bajun's training had been smooth until he was thirty, he was after all a student of his own, and the way he trained in martial arts and his heart method were all exactly the same, so he would certainly face the embarrassing situation of not being able to make a breakthrough for thirty years.

When he decided to enter the world, Qiu Zhiyuan also told Wan Bajun about his worries, and he even reassured him and promised him that once he found a chance to break through to the Dark Realm, he would definitely come back to help him.

However, who could have imagined that when he had made up his mind and taken the initiative to join the Qing Breaking Association, waiting for the chance to enter the Huben Camp and preparing to spend at least ten years to seek a breakthrough in the Huben Camp, his disciple, Wan Bajun, would have already made it to the Dark Realm.

This huge psychological gap made Qiu Zhiyuan's heart feel very uncomfortable, and he could not help but feel a bit ashamed when he faced Wan Bajun.

The feeling of his master being overtaken by his disciple really gave him mixed feelings.

Wan Bajun could also see the despondency on his master's face, and immediately blurted out, "Master, Mr Ye is truly a person of great divine power, and is the head of the Chinese Ye family. Moreover, Young Master Ye is generous, repays grievances with virtue and convinces people with virtue! When I broke all my meridians, Young Master Ye helped me to repair them completely, and in one incense stick's time, I was able to enter the Dark Realm.

Qiu Zhiyuan's expression was extremely complicated.

He also knew that joining the Broken Clear Society was the next best thing to a bad idea, and if he hadn't been unable to break through for decades, he wouldn't have been willing to suffer such humiliation even if it killed him.

He was not the real leader of the Ten Thousand Dragons Hall, but he was the ancestor that everyone respected, and his prestige was even higher than that of the Ten Thousand Broken Jun.

But after joining the Qing Breaking Society, he was nothing more than a lackey of the Society.

His position, just a guard beside the sect leader, seemed as if he was already considered under one person and above thousands of others here, but in reality, he had no command over the Primus Guards, or the dead soldiers.

And he didn't have any men either, he was just at the knight's beck and call.

Not to mention that now, he had somehow become a prisoner of Nighthens's.

Thinking of this, he also kneeled down on one knee without thinking, clasped his hands to Ye Chen and said respectfully, "Mr. Ye, if you don't mind, my name is Qiu Zhiyuan, I would like to serve at your side as a dog and horse!"

Chapter 5079

Ye Chen nodded slightly and asked him, "What were the terms you negotiated with that sectional governor? Did he promise you how long it would take for you to become a Dark Realm expert?"

Qiu Zhiyuan said truthfully, "Back to Mr Ye, the condition I negotiated with the sect leader was that I would first stay with him for three years, and if I performed well within three years, I would be recommended to join the Huben Battalion, and if I joined the Huben Battalion, I could break through to a Dark Realm master within ten years.”

Ye Chen smiled faintly, “That would be thirteen years.”

“Right!” Qiu Zhiyuan nodded, “It will take thirteen years at the soonest.”

Ye Chen looked at him and said seriously, “As long as you work for me wholeheartedly, within a year, I will let you enter the First Sky of the Dark Realm!”

“One year?!” Qiu Zhiyuan’s eyes widened as he exclaimed, “Mr. Ye, are you serious about this?!”

Ye Chen asked him in return, “Do you think I have to lie to you?”

Qiu Zhiyuan said with a terrified look on his face, “Sorry Mr. Ye, I am not doubting you I am just I just can’t believe that I could break through to the Dark Realm in such a short time”

Ye Chen looked at him, reached out his hand and pointed at Wan Bajun and said indifferently, “You are Bajun’s master, in private, he has to respect you and honor you, but after you join my command, you will stay here and help me control this copper mine, Bajun is your direct superior, listen to his command and report to him in everything, can you do that?”

Qiu Zhiyuan said with immense devotion, “Mr. Ye, I will follow your instructions!”

Ye Chen nodded and said to Wan Bajun, “Bajun, Syria and Cyprus are only two hundred kilometres away from the Mediterranean Sea, so it is convenient to come from the base of the Dragon Palace.

Ye Chen and Qiu Zhiyuan were only meeting for the first time, so Ye Chen could not really trust him.

It was only through that selflessness he had shown to Wan Breaking Army back then that he could surmise that this man’s nature would never be bad.

However, whether or not he could be of great use would have to be observed over a period of time before we could know.

Therefore, it was definitely impossible for him to hand over all the affairs here to him alone right away.

He was his mentor in private matters, but in public matters, he would be his subordinate in the future, and he would be strict with him in business matters.

For someone like Wan Bajun, who came from a mercenary background, this kind of relationship was something he could handle very well in itself.

In the military, there is always some role similar to that of an old squad leader, who was under his tutelage and care when he was a new recruit, but as time goes by, the old squad leader may still be the same old squad leader, but some new recruit back then may have become a senior officer in the military. There is no difference.

This situation is very common in the armies of all countries, and it is also the same in the mercenaries.

So, without thinking, Wan Bajun said, “Don’t worry, Mr Ye, my subordinate will be safe and proper!”

After saying that, he remembered one thing and hurriedly asked Ye Chen again, "Mr. Ye, there is one thing I don't understand, I wonder if I can ask you to explain it?"

Ye Chen nodded: "Go ahead."

Wan Bajun said, "If you take all the primus guards and dead soldiers here under your command, how can I ensure the stable operation of this place while the Broken Qing Society will not find any clues?"

Ye Chen smiled and did not answer his question, but said aloud, "It's almost time, let's go and meet those primus guards first, when all their problems are solved, you will know the answer to this question!"

Chapter 5080

At this very moment.

More than two hundred primus guards dressed in copper mine uniforms have arrived at the copper mine's staff hall one after another.

The hall was built in the 1980s and was used mainly for meetings, festivals and ceremonies for the employees of the mine.

When the Society took over the mine, it allowed all the Primus guards to work as employees and most of the families of the Primus guards to work as logistics, so the mine was ostensibly run quite well.

Even when the local government officials occasionally came to inspect the mine, they did not notice anything unusual.

At this time, the arrival of the Primus guards in the staff hall gave the impression that the mine was holding a pep rally or a general meeting.

However, if one were to stand on the sidelines, one would soon notice a problem, that is, among these uniformed employees, more than twenty of them were holding a towel in their left hand.

And those holding the towel had been vaguely excited because they felt that, after tonight, each of them would have the opportunity to go to the next level.

Apart from the vague throbbing excitement, these men had also been keeping an eye on the others around them and were always ready to be asked for their towels.

However, what struck them as odd was that none of them came forward to ask about such an abrupt display of towel in hand.

Each of those with a towel in hand made a little eye contact with each other when they saw another person with a towel in hand.

But those who didn't have towels in their hands didn't seem to look at their towels at all.

These people were a little confused as to why the others were so perceptive, all the way over, and these people didn't seem interested.

What they didn't know was that these men had actually been given orders long ago to pretend to be oblivious to their odd behaviour on the surface, and later just wait for the Lord Envoy to drop his cup as a signal to wipe out all these people around them, towel in hand!

The Primus soon arrived.

The three flag captains made their respective reports to the chairman after taking stock of their respective men.

It was only a pity that only the Primus Guards, who had made up their minds to break with the Broken Ching Society, knew that this chairman had become a puppet.

At that moment, the chairman walked to the front of the stage and said in a loud voice, "All Primus Guards, listen to the order to welcome the Special Envoy!"

Every primus guard on the stage, at that moment, shouted with emotion, "Greet the envoy!"

The primus with towels in their hands were excited because they were thinking of the immediate success of their work.

The other Primus guards were excited because they wanted to be free from the control of the Qing Breakers and realise the greatest dream of their ancestors.
