

Ye Chen 5121

Chapter 5121

The middle-aged man laughed, "I definitely had to come over early to support your closing ceremony."

As he said that, he looked at Xiao Churan with interest and asked her, "Emily, you haven't introduced this beautiful woman yet, what is her name?"

Emily hurriedly said, "Chairman, this is the master classmate I have often told you about, Xiao Churan."

After saying that, she hurriedly said to Xiao Churan again, "Churan, this is our boss, Matthew Peterson."

Xiao Churan just nodded to Matthew Peterson without saying anything.

However, Matthew Peterson seemed to be somewhat amazed by Xiao Churan and hurriedly took out a business card, handed it to Xiao Churan and said seriously, "Ms. Xiao, we are actively absorbing some young blood recently, and a young and talented designer like you is our most urgent need for a partner at the moment. I can give you a partner status with an annual salary starting from at least one million dollars!"

Xiao Churan shook his head and said lightly, "Sorry Mr. Peterson, I have my own company, which is small but in my opinion, much more comfortable than going to work for any company."

Matthew Peterson's expression was a little disappointed, but he quickly adjusted again and said with a smile, "Never mind, we are also looking for some potential start-up design companies around the world at the same time, if Ms Xiao wants to work with us or take our investment, we can have an in-depth chat."

Ye Chen could see that this Matthew Peterson was up to no good, so he said indifferently, "Sorry, my wife doesn't need investment from anyone but me."

Matthew Pietersen frowned at Ye Chen and opened his mouth to ask Emily, "This gentleman is?"

Emily hurriedly smiled and explained, "Boss, this is Choran's husband, he is a very powerful feng shui master, he just read my face and said that my business will suffer a terminal blow, it just so happens that you are my boss, please help me to confirm whether my business is going to soar upwards or fall downwards today."

Ye Chen smiled and said seriously, "As I said earlier, you do have a great joy today, although your face is not good, but after all, you were born with charming bones, as long as a man with strong enough ability can be attracted to your charming bones, his ability can help you to suppress the defects in your face."

Matthew Pietersen laughed and spoke, "Of course it's upwardly soaring!"

After that, he looked at Ye Chen and said with a smile, "Sir, today Emily was promoted to senior partner and her salary has doubled several times, moreover, I am her boss, if I tell her to move up, she will definitely move up, I wonder how you judge that her career will meet its demise?"

Ye Chen looked at Matthew Peterson and said indifferently, "Don't think you can sway her future just because you are the boss, feng shui is laid out here, it is the most unlikely to be wrong, maybe the one who really gave her the downfall is you."

Chapter 5122

"Joke." Matthew Peterson sneered, "I've lived for over forty years and this is the first time I've seen such an arrogant young man like you, do you know how much I value Emily? Even if the sky were to fall, there is no way I would give her any kind of extinction."

Ye Chen ignored him and just looked at Emily and said with a smile, "As I said earlier, you do have good luck today, but your mistake is that you shouldn't wear this outfit, which is nothing but black or white, which just happens to be a strong contrast to your full red face, which, in feng shui, has then formed a brake!" This is a feng shui problem!

After a pause, Ye Chen added, "You should know that when people have a happy event, black and white is the most taboo! Even if a bride is getting married, she will only dare to wear a pure white wedding dress. Anyone who dares to add black elements to a white wedding dress is bound to have a lot of bad luck after the wedding. means that your career will inevitably suffer from a disaster of extinction."

When Emily heard Ye Chen finish speaking, the whole person said angrily, "You're really a rustic! You know this is a high-end Chanel custom-made model! Ordinary people can't even buy it with money!"

Ye Chen laughed, "What high-end custom, I don't know much about it, but I bet the person who designed this outfit doesn't know feng shui."

Matthew Peterson also mocked, "Emily, this Chanel couture dress was personally designed by a top Chanel designer, and the black and white colour scheme is the most classic Chanel colour scheme, if you don't know anything about it, don't laugh at it here!"

Emily sneered and looked at Xiao Churan, sneering, "Churan, you at least went to the Rhode Island School of Design master class, how could you marry such a deceitful man who is full of lies and lies? He is too unworthy of you!"

Xiao Churan was naturally a little angry when she heard Emily say this about Ye Chen, so she didn't answer Emily's question, instead she spoke with a serious face, "Emily, my husband is very accurate in reading feng shui for others, he has many prominent clients all over the United States, he definitely won't take his words at face value."

Matthew Peterson, who was on the side, said offhandedly, "Ms. Xiao, people of prominent status all have one common characteristic, and that is a high IQ, how could they possibly be deceived by such a clumsy trick like your husband?"

After saying that, he sighed and mocked, "Rhode Island School of Design is the best design school in the world, the master class here, is even the elite of the elite, I really don't know how a credulous charlatan like you got mixed up here, in your Chinese saying, that is a rat turd that ruins a pot of soup."

As she was speaking, Emily suddenly looked towards the entrance and exclaimed with a horrified face, "Boss, Miss Fei Fei is here!"

Chapter 5123

“Miss Fay?!” Matthew Pietersen exclaimed, “How did Miss Fay get here?”

Having said that, he hurriedly turned his head to look at the entrance.

It didn't matter what he saw, he saw the beautiful young Fei Kexin, accompanied by Yuan Zixu, walking in!

In an instant, Matthew Pietersen's body trembled a little in excitement.

When the others saw Fei Kexin, they were all speechless with amazement, and deep down they were equally surprised and delighted.

No one had expected that the famous Fei Kexin would appear here.

Although this was a hall of top designers, a profession like designer was in itself like a technician who specialized in serving the rich.

Compared to a heavyweight big shot like Fei Kexin, they were more like a group of Michelin restaurant chefs, each of them looking forward to a chance to personally cook a masterpiece meal for a top client like Fei Kexin on a regular basis.

However, with their rank, they were not qualified to serve Fei Kexin personally.

But who would have thought that such a group of chefs would come to such a gathering today, and that a top tycoon like Fei Kexin would also come to the party?

This really made them feel flattered!

And Ye Chen also did not expect that Fei Kexin, who was already the head of the Fei family, would come to Providence in person without even saying hello.

But in Ye Chen's mind, Fei Kexin had come all the way here just to support his wife, Xiao Churan.

The moment Xiao Churan, who was on the side, saw Fei Kexin enter, she also said to Matthew Peterson and Emily with a bit of gambling and impulsiveness, “Don't you guys not believe that my husband has shown feng shui to many prominent people? To tell you the truth, this Miss Fei is one of my husband's clients, so if you don't believe me, you can go and ask her!”

In normal days, Xiao Churan rarely cared about other people's comments.

But today, these two people kept mocking Ye Chen, which indeed made her very dissatisfied in her heart.

She used to doubt whether her husband would be cheating when he read feng shui to others.

However, as Ye Chen's clients became more and more numerous and their social status became higher, she found that not only did Ye Chen not thunderstorm, but he had also accumulated a very good reputation.

This made her heart, gradually accept the setting that Ye Chen was very good at reading feng shui.

So at times like this, she naturally couldn't stand the fact that the two kept blabbing about her husband.

It just so happened that Fei Ke Xin had come, so she instinctively thought that Fei Ke Xin could completely prove to her husband, so that these two people would know that her husband was not some clumsy liar, but a feng shui master with real talent.

When Emily heard Xiao Churan's words, she immediately clasped her arms and laughed shamefully, "Churan, do you know what Miss Fei is? The helmsman of the trillion dollar Fei family! A trillion dollars! If she said a word, all the feng shui masters in the world would flock to the entrance of her manor and fight for a chance to see her. If your husband can read feng shui for Miss Fei, then I can even design Miss Fei's manor!"

Chapter 5124

Xiao Churan's expression was tinged with a bit of anger as she said, "If you don't believe me, you can go ask Miss Fei."

Emily's face turned ugly as she stared at Xiao Churan and said through clenched teeth, "Xiao Churan, Xiao Churan, I thought you were a simple person by nature, but I didn't expect you to have such a vicious mind! It's not too much to say that you are a snake with a scorpion's heart!"

Xiao Churan frowned and asked, "Emily, what do you mean by that?"

Emily snorted coldly, "Aiyo, aren't you just trying to trap me? Do you think I'm stupid? If I were to go to Miss Fei and ask her about it, she would definitely think I was abrupt and even resent me, and then you would deny saying what you just said. Then Miss Fei will think badly of me because of my presumptuousness and my career will be over! You still say you are not trying to harm me?"

Xiao Churan's eyes were red with anger at her, she held back her anger and aggression and said word for word, "Emily, you think others want to harm you only because you are nasty-minded yourself, although I, Xiao Churan, am not capable of much, I never do anything against my conscience, and I never say anything against my conscience!"

"Che" Emily disdainfully brushed her mouth, "Xiao Churan, kindly lift you up, want to introduce you to join us Ai Yi Kang, never thought you would be this kind of woman who is inconsistent and double-minded, what a disappointment!"

After saying that, she looked at Matthew Peterson and said delicately, "Chairman, it's all my fault for misjudging people, I originally wanted to recommend Xiao Churan to you, but I didn't expect her to be this kind of person"

Matthew Peterson is more or less riding a tiger at this point.

This Emily, originally his adopted lover in the company, because obedient and understanding, and can wait on people.

Most importantly, Emily was able to put herself in her place and knew that she was just a plaything for Matthew Peterson, so she never clung to him, and she was never jealous even when Matthew Peterson was flirting with other women.

Later, when Emily realised that Matthew Peterson was getting bored with her and that he seemed to have a taste for Oriental women, she took on the role of a pimp and helped Matthew Peterson to meet and get his hands on more women.

With this, Emily became the only lover Matthew Peterson could not afford to cut off.

After all, by keeping Emily as a lover, he was planting a seed that would bring him more and more women.

Emily also knows very well that Matthew Peterson still maintains a relationship with himself, long ago, not to plot his body, but to hope that he can always find more women for him, so she is also particularly able to put herself in the right position, not to compete or be jealous, and to serve Matthew Peterson wholeheartedly.

Chapter 5125

The woman Emily intends to match Matthew Peterson with this time is her classmate in the master class, Xiao Churan.

Xiao Churan is one of a kind in terms of looks, figure and temperament, and Emily was ashamed of herself the first time she saw her.

Emily took advantage of her daily classes to take a number of photos of Xiao Churan and then sent them to Matthew Peterson, who was amazed at the first sight of the photos and planned to take advantage of the completion ceremony to meet Xiao Churan in person and use his status in the design field to win her over step by step.

Although he knew that Xiao Churan was married, Matthew Peterson did not care about it. His intention was to keep Xiao Churan in his company on partner terms first, and as long as this step was achieved, he would have plenty of opportunities to take his time with Xiao Churan.

Due to Ai Yikang's dominant position in the industry, the status of partner is extremely golden in the entire design circle. Young female designers would dream of such an opportunity, so he was convinced that Xiao Churan would be moved.

However, he never expected that Xiao Churan would not be interested in the terms he offered.

Moreover, not only was Xiao Churan not interested, she was even extraordinarily approving of her feng shui husband, which made Matthew Peterson a little depressed.

He felt that if he wanted to lure Xiao Churan to his company, the first thing he had to do was to make Xiao Churan realise that her husband, was an uncompromising liar.

So, he glanced at Emily who was fanning the flames beside him and said with a smile, "Emily, don't say that, I see that Ms. Xiao is sincere and would certainly not deliberately lie to you."

Saying that, he looked at Ye Chen and turned his words around and said with a smile, "Maybe Ms. Xiao is also a victim and doesn't know it when she's being cheated."

Emily heard that her boss did not want to give up on Xiao Churan, so she hurriedly laughed along again, "You're right, Chairman! I also think that Churan should have been cheated!"

Matthew Peterson looked at Xiao Churan and said with a gentleman's smile, "Ms. Xiao, the number one shareholder of our company is Wall Street's Changlong Capital, which, in turn, is a venture capital fund under the Fei family that specialises in investing in the real estate industry. , I should be able to become friends with her, you just said that Miss Fei is your husband's client, although I have no intention of questioning it, but to make sure that you are not being deceived, Ms. Xiao, I can help you go and ask for confirmation with Miss Fei."

Hearing this, Ye Chen hummed and laughed, waved his hand and said, "Forget it, Miss Fei is so busy, don't bother her with such a trivial matter."

Ye Chen deliberately refused, in fact, he was deliberately showing weakness to Matthew Peterson, he knew this kind of person very well, as long as he made him feel that he was sure to win, he would dare to play any chips, this move, called baiting the enemy deeper.

Chapter 5126

And so it was.

Once Matthew Peterson heard Ye Chen say forget it, he immediately came to his senses and said in a serious manner, "This gentleman, Miss Fei is here now, if Miss Fei is really your client, you can't not go and say hello to her, right? And Miss Fei is also one of my bosses, so it's only human for me to go and say hello to her, so it's not much of an intrusion, so why don't we both go over together."

Ye Chen waved his hand, "Better forget it, if you want to say hello you can do it yourself, I won't go."

Ye Chen's performance reinforced Matthew Peterson's belief that Ye Chen was wooing, so he grunted and said, "In that case, then I'll go over and say hello to Miss Fei first."

After saying that, he looked to Emily at the side and instructed, "Emily, you stay here with Ms. Xiao and her husband."

Emily immediately understood that her boss was telling her to keep an eye on Ye Chen and not let him run away, so she smiled and said, "Don't worry, Chairman, I will definitely keep them both company."

"Good." Matthew Peterson smiled smugly, then turned around and walked over to meet Fei Kexin.

He quickly stepped in front of Fei Kexin and stretched out his hands in a gesture to shake them, saying respectfully, "Miss Fei! I didn't expect you to come here! What a surprise!"

Fei Ke Xin originally wanted to see where Ye Chen and Xiao Churan were first, but she didn't expect a stranger to suddenly rush out, so she asked with some surprise, "Excuse me, who are you? Do we know each other?"

Matthew Pietersen hurriedly said, "Miss Fei, I am Matthew Pietersen, the chairman of Aiyikang, and your company, Changlong Capital, is the largest shareholder of our company, only that you have not yet visited our company to inspect the work."

Fei Ke Xin first frowned slightly, then remembered something and spoke, "I have seen your company's name in the financial report of Longlong Capital, it seems that your share price has been moving quite well recently? I remember that Chang Long Capital invested in you and still has a floating profit at the moment."

“Yes, yes, yes!” Matthew Peterson said with a quick and solicitous nod, “Your investment head has a very good eye, they came in when our share price was at its lowest last September and now the share price has gone up by almost 30%!”

Fei Ke Xin nodded gently and said politely, “The probability is that the good rise in the share price is still due to your business doing well, so I hope we can build on it in the future.”

“That’s right, that’s right! We’ll be announcing another series of good news soon, and the share price will definitely go up again then!” Matthew Peterson flattered, then glanced at Ye Chen’s back not far away, then said with a deliberate smile, “Oh yes Miss Fei, a friend just now happened to talk about you being his client, would you like to go over and have a chat with him?”

Chapter 5127

“That I’m his client?”

Fei Ke Xin asked curiously, “Which one is it?”

Matthew Peterson immediately pointed at Ye Chen who was not far away and said with a smile, “That’s the gentleman, he said he was a Feng Shui master and that you were one of his clients, do you know him, Miss Fei?”

When Fei Ke Xin saw Ye Chen’s back, she immediately recognised him.

She was first delighted, then she couldn’t help but frown, thinking to herself, “This Matthew Peterson doesn’t seem to be speaking in the right tone, what he said earlier was quite normal, but why did he make the extra step of asking if I knew Mr. Ye at the end? Could it be that he was suspecting Mr. Ye of lying?”

Thinking of this, Fei Ke Xin immediately guessed what was going on and thought, “It seems that this guy probably didn’t believe what Mr. Ye said, so he took the opportunity to come and greet me and deliberately mentioned Mr. Ye by the way, wanting me to personally expose Mr. Ye.”

At this thought, Fei Ke Xin could not help but say to Matthew Peterson with a surprised look on his face, “I do have a feng shui master I work with, but he went out of town some time ago, so he shouldn’t be here, and that man’s back doesn’t look as if he is himself.”

Upon hearing this, Matthew Pietersen said in surprise, “Oops! Then I guess that man is an impostor! As soon as I heard that even you were his client, I almost signed a multi-million dollar a year feng shui contract with him, but luckily I met you here, otherwise I would have been fooled!”

Seeing Matthew Peterson’s charade, Fei Ke Xin grinned and said casually, “The feng shui master I work with has a very high fee, if you don’t know him well, he won’t even look at you if it’s tens of millions of dollars a year, not to mention millions of dollars a year.”

Matthew Peterson said with a smile, “Then it seems that the feng shui master you are working with is the real master, the one here, must be an impostor.”

Saying that, Matthew Peterson couldn’t help but hesitate a little, wondering if he should ask Fei Ke Xin to go over and identify Ye Chen.

The reason why he hesitated was that although he wanted to do so in his heart, he was afraid that saying so would be rejected by Fei Ke Xin and make her feel that she was too small.

The actual fact is that you can find a lot of people who have been in the business for a long time.

Just like in the technology industry, there are countless people waving and cheating under the name of Bill Gates and Elon Musk, and it is up to the people who encounter them to discern the truth from the falsehood.

However, for Matthew Peterson, if he did not invite Fei Kexin to go over and identify him, there would be no way to hit Ye Chen hard in front of Xiao Churan.

You know, this is a good opportunity, once Xiao Churan sees through her husband's hypocritical face, then it would be easy to invite Xiao Churan to join his company along the way.

Fei Ke Xin, who was incredibly intelligent, could see at a glance what Matthew Peterson was struggling with, so she said with a smile, "Mr. Peterson, why don't I go over with you to meet him, normally I am too lazy to bother with those fraudsters who use my name, but today they have tricked me, so it would be a bit unjustifiable if I don't care. "

Chapter 5128

Matthew Peterson was so excited that his mouth was grinning from ear to ear.

He thought to himself with excitement, "This is really something!"

With this in mind, he respectfully said to Fei Kexin, "You are so responsible, Miss Fei!"

After saying that, he hurriedly made a gesture of invitation and added, "Miss Fei, this way please!"

Fei Ke Xin smiled without saying a word, nodded slightly and followed Matthew Peterson in the direction of Ye Chen and Xiao Churan.

Seeing Fei Ke Xin coming over, Emily Wang was so excited that she didn't know where to put her hands.

Before meeting Fei Ke Xin, I was afraid that the most valuable person she had ever met in her life was herself, the chairman of the board, who owned 10% of the company and was worth over one billion dollars.

But what was Fei Kexin? In front of her, Matthew Peterson is a poor man who can't even feed himself.

When she saw such a powerful person, Emily, a snob, was naturally thrilled and excited, and in her heart, she thought of a million possibilities to befriend Fei Ke Xin and then go to the top of her life.

At this moment, Xiao Churan also saw Fei Kexin walking over quickly.

When she thought of Fei Ke Xin's real identity and her past of using Zhan Feier's identity to become her friend, Xiao Churan was a bit nervous, not knowing how to face the current Fei Ke Xin in the future.

On the contrary, Ye Chen kept his composure and did not even turn his head to look at her.

He could not help but sigh in his heart that Fei Kexin, a girl, was indeed wise and almost demonic, just by using a little of Matthew Peterson's ulterior motive, he was able to review the whole matter in his mind.

What was even more interesting to Ye Chen was that Fei Kexin was surprisingly in line with his own channel.

The reason why he had lured the enemy deeper was to force Matthew Peterson into a desperate situation, and Fei Ke Xin had surprisingly sensed his intention accurately and made an absolute match, this tacit understanding really made Ye Chen sigh.

However, this kind of performance of Ye Chen not even turning his head back was, in Emily's opinion, instead absolute proof of weakness of heart, and she also became more and more firmly convinced that Ye Chen must not know Fei Ke Xin.

So, the smile on her face intensified, and she was just waiting to see the joke on Ye Chen and Xiao Churan as a couple.

By this time, Matthew Peterson had already diligently led Fei Kexin all the way to the trio.

Before Matthew Peterson could say anything, Emily nervously and excitedly extended her hands to Fei Kexin and said in a trembling voice: "Hello Miss Fei I am... ..I am sorry I am a little nervous"

Matthew Peterson, seeing that Emily could not speak well in her nervous words, hastened to introduce her, "Miss Fei, this lady is Emily, a very outstanding young talent of our firm, a master class participant in this sector, and also just promoted to our senior partner"

Fei Kexin nodded and politely shook Emily's hand.

Matthew Peterson looked at Ye Chen with a villainous face at this point and laughed, "This gentleman, I've invited Miss Fei here! Miss Fei, this is the gentleman who said that you were his client, I wonder if you know him?"

After saying that, he looked at Ye Chen with a smile, as if he was waiting for Ye Chen's lie to be poked out.

Fei Ke Xin looked at Ye Chen, her eyes widened in mock surprise, then she bowed slightly and spoke with surprise and respect, "Master Ye! Why are you here too!"

Chapter 5129

As soon as Fei Ke Xin's words came out, Matthew Peterson and that Emily Wang both stood dumbfounded as if they had been struck by lightning.

They were waiting to see Ye Chen being poked and prodded by Fei Kexin herself, but to their surprise, Fei Kexin bowed to him respectfully and even called him Master Ye!

Matthew Peterson was almost instantly scared and wet through his entire back, and he couldn't help but look at Emily with a bewildered expression, his eyes not only shocked but also questioning.

He couldn't help but look at Emily with a bewildered look in his eyes.

Could it be that Xiao Churan, the young husband, was really a Feng Shui master?

Emily was also trembling with fear!

In her eyes, Fei Ke Xin was already as high and unattainable as a god, but who would have thought that Xiao Churan's husband would be able to make this real body of Fei Ke Xin respectful!

Wouldn't this stir up trouble to the sky?

When the two of them were terrified and didn't know what to do, Ye Chen looked at Fei Kexin and smiled, "My wife's closing ceremony, I definitely have to come to support the ceremony, why is Miss Fei free to come over?" How can you come?

Fei Ke Xin said, "Back to Master Ye, I also heard about Chu Ran's closing ceremony today, so I wanted to come over to congratulate her."

"In my presence?!" Matthew Peterson and Emily both turned pale with fear!

Matthew Peterson even shivered in his mind and secretly thought, "This is too f*cking much bullsh*t, right?! The great and famous Finkleheart calling himself under in front of a feng shui master?!"

And Emily was thinking to herself, "Oh my god Fei Kexin came all the way to Rhode Island School of Design to attend Xiao Churan's graduation ceremony What the hell is this Xiao Churan's husband's origin?"

Matthew Peterson subconsciously asked Fei Kexin, "Miss Fei, you you know him?"

Fei Ke Xin nodded and said lightly, "This is Master Ye, I can become the head of the Fei family thanks to Master Ye's help."

"This" Matthew Peterson was even more terrified and hurriedly wiped the cold sweat from his forehead as he looked at Ye Chen and said with a smile, "So it's Grandmaster Ye! It's a great honor to know you!"

Ye Chen raised his eyebrows, "Just now you called me a liar, and now it's a privilege, Mr. Peterson seems to be a bit fickle."

Matthew Peterson's scalp tingled with fear and he hurriedly waved his hands, "No, no, I don't have any doubts about you!"

After saying that, he hurriedly pointed to the flustered Emily at the side and said offhandedly, "It was Emily who had eyes to see and kept questioning your identity, and I was led astray by her"

Emily was instantly frightened and her heart rate rose extremely fast, she didn't expect that her boss would dump the pot on herself at this point.

She was about to explain when she suddenly saw Matthew Peterson winking frantically at herself, so she could only say in fear, "Sorry Mr. Ye, it's all my fault, it's my eyes, you mustn't treat me in general"

Ye Chen was not surprised to see Matthew Peterson let Emily take the blame, so he said, "I don't like to argue with people."

Once Matthew Peterson and Emily heard this, they thought that Ye Chen did not think that they were generally understanding, and their expressions instantly relaxed.

However, Ye Chen turned his words around and said in a cold voice, "But today is an exception!"

When the two men heard this, they were instantly scared and shivered.

Ye Chen looked at Matthew Peterson and said indifferently, "Mr. Peterson, I'll break it up with you later about the two of us."

After saying that, he looked at Emily again and smiled slightly, "Miss Wang, even if you question me, you are still sarcastic and sarcastic towards my wife, even saying that she is evil-minded and snake-like, even if I, Ye Chen, have a good temper, I cannot possibly put up with you humiliating my wife."

Chapter 5130

Emily blushed miserably and explained in a panic, "Mr. Ye I I just said the wrong thing on impulse you you mustn't be normal with me"

After saying that, she hurriedly looked at Xiao Churan and pleaded, "Churan, please forgive me this time for the sake of I didn't mean it"

Before Xiao Churan could say anything, Fei Ke Xin, who was at the side, spoke up before her, "Ms. Xiao is my good friend, and Mr. Ye is even more kind to me, how dare you speak ill of them! Even if Mr. Ye and Chu Ran forgive you today, I will not forgive you."

Xiao Churan looked at Emily and said coldly, "In my opinion, people like you should not stay in the design industry! I will propose to the International Designers Federation to completely ban designers of your shoddy character from the industry!"

When Emily heard this, she almost fainted.

She had just been promoted to senior partner of the company today, and her future had been bright. If Fei Ke Xin really wanted to ban her, it would be impossible for any famous design company in the world to hire her again, and those powerful clients would not risk offending Fei Ke Xin to work with her.

The design industry, in itself, is a service industry. If you want to reach a certain height in the design field, you must serve high-end clients, and once you lose your high-end clients, you will immediately be reduced to the bottom of the design industry.

To the private sector, if there are high-end clients, then a casual design of a luxury house can be a large project of millions or even tens of millions of dollars, but once the high-end client group is lost, not to mention the luxury houses and estates of over a hundred million dollars, even the ordinary residential design of one or two hundred square meters, I am afraid it is difficult to receive.

For the public, if there is a high-end client, the design projects undertaken are often large shopping malls, iconic buildings, or even stadiums hosting major events, but once we lose the high-end client, even if we want to take on the design of an ordinary residential community, it is as difficult as the sky.

What's more, Emily knows her own situation very well. She has no outstanding design talent at all, and has risen to this level only by selling her body.

Emily could have been earning millions of dollars a year, but if she was banned from the design industry, there would be no room for her in other high-end industries, and she would not be able to earn tens of thousands of dollars a year!

The huge difference made her regret, so she kneeled down in front of Ye Chen and Fei Kexin without thinking and choked up: “Mr. Ye, Miss Fei, please forgive me this time for the sake of my mistake. I’ve worked hard to get to where I am today, if you two close me down, I’ll have nothing left. If you two shut me down, I will have nothing left

Fei Kexin gave her a look and turned to Matthew Peterson, who was on the side, and asked him with interest, “Mr. Peterson, to make such an employee a senior partner of your company, you, the chairman of the board, should also be responsible, right?”

Matthew Peterson, upon hearing this, was shocked and frightened, and hastened to make his attitude clear: “Miss Fei, as the old Chinese saying goes, you don’t know who you know, and I’m not quite sure what kind of person this Emily is but you’re right, as chairman of the company, I have an unshirkable responsibility Don’t worry, I’ll call the company’s human resources director immediately, for Emily to go through the exit procedures, and never hire in the future!”

Emily had no idea that she was expecting Matthew Peterson to give her a hand, but she didn’t expect this guy to sell herself out at a critical moment!

So, she immediately cursed hysterically, “Peterson! You son of a b*tch! I did all of this for you, and you dare to fall on your sword at this time, are you still f*cking human?!”
