Chapter 5131

Matthew Peterson had been trying to defend himself, so he had subconsciously dumped the blame on Emily, but to his surprise, he had angered her completely.

He had always thought that Emily was obedient to him because he, a handsome and successful 40-year-old man, had such an extraordinary charm for women that he had made Emily completely subservient to him, and that she would not be displeased if he took her out to cover for him at a critical moment.

However, he had completely overestimated his so-called charm.

If she had enough money, even if she had to face a ninety-year-old man, she would behave like she was addicted to it, unable to extricate herself.

However, if there is no money, even if the other party is as handsome as Tom Cruise, she will still not give him a second glance.

Just now Fei Ke Xin said that she would be banned from the designer industry, which had already cut her off, but to think that Matthew Peterson would still fall on her sword, this instant made her furious.

Matthew Pietersen could see that Emily was losing her mind, so he gave Emily a wink: "Emily, in front of Miss Faye, you'd better not talk nonsense! I advise you to leave here now and go to the company tomorrow to see the Human Resources Director who will give you a certain amount of compensation for your dismissal according to the process."

Matthew Peterson did not dare to be too blunt. The reason why he winked at Emily and at the same time said that the company would follow the process to give termination compensation was actually to tell Emily that she should take the pot now honestly and that he would not treat her badly tomorrow.

However, Emily's heart was full of anger at being attacked by Matthew Peterson, and she was even more furious when she heard Matthew Peterson talk about termination compensation, because according to the company's rules, the compensation for an employee like her, who had been employed for only three or four years, was at most half a year's salary.

Moreover, although Matthew Peterson had confirmed that she would be promoted to Senior Partner, according to the company's rules, there was a three-month probationary period for Senior Partners, and only after the probationary period was over and she had successfully passed the debriefing would she officially receive all the benefits of a Senior Partner.

This means that if she is sacked now, the company will only have to pay her six months' salary at her previous rate, which is only a mere US$200,000 to US$300,000!

Emily was trembling with anger at the thought that Matthew Peterson was going to send her off with US$200,000 to US$300,000, and she looked at Fei Kexin and blurted out, "Miss Fei, the reason why all this has happened today is that this bd Matthew Peterson had his eye on Xiao Churan! He was the one who asked me to find a way to introduce Xiao Churan to him, and to find an opportunity to attract Xiao Churan to join the company so that he could get close to the water and get the moon first!"

He couldn't control himself and immediately raised his hand and slapped Emily across the face, cursing, "Emily, what is your intention in slandering me here? This is the first time I have met Ms. Xiao today, how could I possibly have any ill intentions towards her as you have said? You are clearly slandering!"

Emily covered her face and cursed angrily, holding back the pain, "I'm slandering? You think I don't have proof?"

With that, she immediately took out her mobile phone, fished out her chat records with Matthew Peterson, found many photos of Xiao Churan and said to Ye Chen and Fei Ke Xin, "Mr. Ye and Miss Fei, look at the time these photos were sent, the earliest one is almost a month ago, I had just met Xiao Churan in the master cla*s at that time, and Matthew Peterson also made a move on Xiao Churan at that time. That's when Matthew Peterson had his heart set on Xiao Churan!"

Chapter 5132

Matthew Peterson said nervously, "You sent me all these photos, how can you say that I had a crush on Ms Xiao!"

Emily said coldly, "Don't admit it, do you? Here are the chat records, so I can show Mr. Ye and Ms. Fei how you replied to me!"

After saying that, she looked at Fei Ke Xin again and angrily blurted out, "Miss Fei, you must not let this beast of clothing go, he has had inappropriate sexual relationships with at least seven female employees, including me, just within the company, and that's not the most horrible thing! What's scary is that this son of a b*tch even preyed on his 13-year-old adopted daughter! And he even took a lot of indecent videos in his phone!"

Matthew Peterson's whole being was already terrified to the core when he heard this, and he subconsciously questioned, "How did you know that?!"

Emily sneered, "I've quietly written down your phone pa*sword for a long time, and every time you stay overnight at my flat, I'll add some sleeping pills to your red wine, and then after you're asleep, secretly read all kinds of contents in your phone, including your chat records with others, email correspondence, as well as the photos and videos you've hidden in your phone! "

A smile wiped across Emily's mouth and she sneered, "What? You think I won't keep some backhanders for myself after being toyed with by you for all these years? Let me tell you, not only do I have those sordid videos of you, but I also have evidence of you colluding with others and embezzling corporate a*sets! You took the lead in acquiring an ai mapping company in the first half of the year, costing the company half a billion dollars, but that company is simply an empty shell, and his ai mapping technology is a completely immature product that is not commercially viable at all, and at least half of the half a billion dollars you spent to acquire it went into your pocket through various means! Don't worry, I'll produce this evidence today! You'll be stuck in jail for the rest of your life!"

Matthew Peterson's whole body shook like chaff when he heard this and blurted out, "Emily, I can give you as much money as you want, but if you destroy me, you'll get nothing!"

Emily laughed coldly, "Fine, give me $100 million, as long as the money arrives, then you can go your way and I'll cross my bridge.

Matthew Peterson agreed almost without thinking and said, "No problem! Just 100 million dollars!"

Fei Kexin, who was at the side, smiled with a subtle expression at this point and spoke, "Mr. Peterson, this hundred million dollars, I advise you not to give it, it's meaningless."

When Emily heard this, she blurted out, "He has to give me this money no matter what he says! If I don't give it, then I'll hand over all the evidence to the police!"

Fei Ke Xin gave Emily a look and laughed lightly, "Don't daydream here, not to mention $100 million, even if it's a dollar, there's no way he'll give it to you."

Emily subconsciously questioned, "On what grounds?! If he doesn't give it to me, I'll put him in jail!"

Matthew Peterson looked at Fei Kexin in panic and explained palely, "Don't misunderstand me, Miss Fei, I didn't do any of the things Emily said, I only agreed to give her the money because I didn't want her to tarnish my reputation outside"

Fei Kexin gave a shameful laugh at his pale defense and said indifferently, "Mr. Peterson you must not forget that the Fei family is the largest shareholder of your company, you are using your position as chairman to enrich yourself, this is embezzlement and also suspected of money laundering, the violation, is the interests of all shareholders of your company, including our Fei family! And as the head of the Fei family, I have the right to ask the FBI to step in and conduct a thorough investigation into that takeover, so whether Emily has evidence or not, it's meaningless to you because the FBI will definitely find the person in charge of the company being taken over as well and find out what's going on!"

"In addition, there is also the behavior of you and the minor, whether Emily has evidence or not, I have the obligation to report to the FBI, so that the FBI can investigate, the FBI's methods you should know, even if you two delete all the information in the phone now, they still have a way to restore, once it is proven that this matter is true, then you may really have to spend the rest of your life in prison! You'll be in jail for the rest of your life!"

Matthew Peterson almost fainted when he heard this, and without thinking, he knelt down in front of Fei Kexin and choked up, "Miss Fei, I am the chairman of the company, if I am arrested by the FBI, the share price of the company will definitely plummet, and then the Fei family's investment will also be damaged. The two to three billion dollars invested by the Fei family will be damaged"

Fei Kexin said coldly, "The chairman's scandal will indeed affect the share price for a short period of time, but the root of your company's business does not lie in you alone, so as long as the effects of the scandal fade away, the company's share price will definitely rise back."

After a pause, Fei Ke Xin continued, "And the Fei family has plenty of capital, as well as time and patience, when the time comes, they can completely take advantage of the plunge in the share price during this period of time, and acquire more shares at a low price from those shareholders who do not have so much capital, time and patience, and when the Fei family gets a majority vote in the board of directors, they can appoint a new chairman to take over your company, in which case, when the share price rises back up, the Fei family will not only be able to achieve control of your company, but also take the opportunity to make a big profit.” M.δdl°CHxWZ.Com

“So, if you are arrested by the FBI, not only is it not a loss for the Fei family, but it’s a great opportunity to take the bottom!”

Speaking here, Fei Ke Xin remembered something and continued, “Oh yes, although you have 10% of the company’s shares, but you due to your encroachment on the company’s a*sets, resulting in the company’s direct loss of five hundred million dollars, indirect losses may hit a billion dollars or even more, this matter, the company will definitely sue for compensation;”

“And the court will definitely seize your illegal gains of $200 million to $300 million and pay the company, but even so, you will still owe the company a hole of several hundred million dollars, and the court will definitely require you to use your personal a*sets to make up for this hole, so that you will have to pay at least several hundred million dollars in additional losses in addition to taking out your illegal gains, and you have to trust the Fei family’s legal team, they will do their best to get that amount to the maximum.”

Matthew Peterson already felt the sky was spinning, never imagining that Finkle was going to kill him.

And Finkle continued, “Apart from making you pay for the company’s losses, the court will also order you to pay a huge fine, and if you don’t have enough cash to pay the compensation and the fine yourself, the court will definitely force you to sell your shares to pay for it, and I reckon it won’t take long for things to move forward to this point, and it should be just in time for the share price to fall to its lowest point. In that case, your 10% shares will be auctioned off by the Fei family at the lowest possible price, and the funds from the share auction, after paying the compensation and fines, will not be much left, I’m afraid.”

If the other party’s lawyer seizes this opportunity to knock you out, you will have to pay at least another few tens of millions of dollars in damages, so you may not have anything left! ” Some people die, but not completely

Matthew Pietersen did not expect that Fei Kexin, who was young and had a nightmare smile, would want to drive himself to death!

However, in the next second, he figured out the reason for it.

The reason for this is that the shareholders of a large conglomerate are always the most disgusted by misappropriation of office.

Although shareholders hold a large number of shares, they generally do not directly interfere with the operation of the enterprise, and the operation of the enterprise is generally still left to the founder, who already has a small shareholding.

Originally, if a company had a net profit of US$500 million, then after setting aside a budget for next year, the rest of the money, if it wanted to take it out, was to be distributed to all shareholders on a pro rata basis.

But although Matthew Peterson is the founder of the company, the company has continued to raise money and give up many shares as it has grown and it is with the money that has been invested in that he has been able to get the company to the $10 billion market capitalisation that he had hoped for.

However, Matthew Peterson himself only has 10% of the shares left, so if he were to take the $500 million in dividends, he would only get $50 million of it, and he would have to give nearly half of it to the IRS.

This is precisely why Matthew Peterson has taken up the rat race, not sharing the $500 million, but directly investing it, saying it is investment, but in fact it is money laundering.

In general, large listed groups have a large number of acquisitions and mergers and acquisitions every year, and no one can guarantee that every acquisition or merger will be profitable, so it makes sense that some projects will go down the drain.

It was with this in mind that Matthew Pietersen planned this acquisition.

However, he never expected that Emily, who usually obeyed him and even smelled like a slave, would have so much evidence on him and tell him in front of Fei Kexin.

In this way, if she had taken away the 500 million dollars, she would have directly taken away the money that should have been distributed to the Fei family. How could Fei Kexin spare herself if she could reach the position of the head of the Fei family?

And, what's worse, Emily had exposed the sordid affair between herself and her adopted daughter, once the matter was brought to the attention of the FBI, he would definitely be sent to jail!

With this in mind, Matthew Peterson almost immediately made up his mind that he would settle with Finkle, no matter what.

The company's profit will be in the hundreds of millions of dollars, and it will also help the family to strengthen its control over the entire company, which is far more than the damage I have done to the family's earnings."

Fei Ke Xin smiled faintly, "Do you think I would look at your hundreds of millions of dollars? To the Fei family, money is far less important than reputation, and if the Fei family were to harbor a clothed beast like you for a few hundred million dollars, wouldn't Fei Hao Yang have died in vain?"

Matthew Peterson's heart instantly stuttered.

Chapter 5135

Only then did he remember the Fei Hoang incident that had been a big deal before.

The Fei family had put out more than a billion dollars back and forth to compensate the families of the victims injured by Fei Hao Yang.

Fei Ke Xin had only managed to save the day and help the Fei family regain its reputation, so how could she let herself off the hook for the sake of her own shares?

Thinking about this, he realised the situation in his mind and thought: "I have to run away, the sooner the better! I'd better leave the US tonight!"

Having made up his mind, Matthew Peterson slowly stood up, and with a contrite look on his face he said, "Please don't worry Miss Fei, I will turn myself in to the police tonight, I will not run away from the responsibility that is mine to bear!"

After saying this, he turned and ran outside while Fei Ke Xin was not looking.

His driver was outside, his private plane was at the airport, and as long as he could get himself out of this auditorium door, he would be able to get to the airport in half an hour.

If he could get on the plane, he would definitely be able to leave the United States tonight, and if he could leave the country, he would be able to keep most of his assets while retaining his personal freedom.

If he couldn't get on the plane, I was afraid he would lose both his assets and his freedom!

Just as Matthew Peterson thought he would be able to escape, he suddenly felt his body stagnate and was strangled and unable to move.

He subconsciously looked back and found that it was Ye Chen who had reached out and grabbed his collar.

At this moment, Ye Chen said with a smile on his face, "Mr. Peterson, where are you going in such a hurry?"

Matthew Peterson hurriedly said with forced composure, "Mr. Ye, I just said that I was going to the police to turn myself in"

Ye Chen nodded and said with a smile, "It's good that you're willing to turn yourself in, but there's no need to go there in person, and it's usually not the police's turn to deal with crimes of your elite social class, it's always the FBI themselves, so why not just have Miss Fei contact the FBI and have them come here to pick you up?"

As soon as Matthew Peterson heard this, his whole body went limp with fear, he struggled to break free from Ye Chen's hand, but nay, Ye Chen's hand remained motionless.

Fei Ke Xin called Yuan Zixu over at this moment and instructed, "Master Yuan, inform the head of the FBI and ask them to send the nearest agent over."

"Yes Miss." Yuan Zixu immediately nodded and pulled out his mobile phone to make a call.

Matthew Peterson's body could no longer support him, his whole body was spread out on the ground like mud, his eyes were full of desperation as he pleaded, "Miss Fei, please let me live, don't drive me to extinction I have worked so hard for so many years to get to where I am today, you can't ruin me all!

Fei Ke Xin said in an icy tone, "It's not me who's going to ruin you, it's you who's ruining yourself."

Chapter 5136

Matthew Peterson said, "Miss Fei, if I can't, I will transfer all my shares to the Fei family unconditionally!"

Fei Ke Xin smiled blandly and said, "Have you forgotten what I said? Your shares will have to wait for a low price auction and be used to compensate for the company's losses, as for whether there will eventually be any left and how much will be left, you will need to wait slowly in prison."

As he spoke, Yuan Zixu had already walked back from outside.

He came in front of Fei Ke Xin and said respectfully, "Miss, I have already called the head of the FBI, they take it very seriously and have dispatched several senior agents from the FBI's base in Providence, they will arrive in a helicopter, within ten minutes."

In the United States, although the Fei family's influence was not exactly the highest, it was definitely one of the few most influential families, and for such a family, the head of the FBI always had to ensure a 7×24 response, and would do their best to solve any situation.

Therefore, Yuan Zixu made a phone call and the other party responded immediately.

Hearing this, Matthew Peterson's whole person had completely collapsed and sat on the ground bawling, triggering a lot of curiosity and concern for a while.

At this moment, Matthew Peterson felt like the end of the world, thinking back to how he was 10 minutes ago, but now he was about to lose everything and even go to jail.

Emily also sat down in despair and cried. She knew that if Finkelsen got the FBI involved in this matter, Matthew Peterson would lose the leverage he had in his hands, and he would not only lose his job, but also his last ace in the hole, and he would be left with nothing.

At this point, Fei Ke Xin did not want to dwell on these two, so she said to Ye Chen, "Master Ye, leave this place to Master Yuan, let's go inside and find a quiet place to sit for a while, what do you think?"

Ye Chen nodded slightly, since Fei Kexin had already informed the FBI, with the ability of the FBI and Fei Kexin's influence, it would be difficult for Matthew Peterson to escape justice, so he didn't bother to look at these two, so he looked at Yuan Zixu and said politely, "Then it will be hard for you, Master Yuan."

Yuan Zixu bowed respectfully and said, "You are very kind, Master Ye, this is all my part of the job."

Fei Ke Xin explained to Yuan Zixu, "Master Yuan, keep an eye on this Matthew Peterson and make sure to hand him over to the FBI yourself."

Xiao Churan glanced at that Emily at this moment, wanting to say something, but hesitated for half a day and finally did not speak.

Ye Chen took Xiao Churan's performance in his eyes and knew that she seemed to have compa*sion for Emily.

However, when he saw that Xiao Churan had not said anything in the end, he pretended that he did not see it.

When the three of them arrived at the banquet hall, Fei Ke Xin instantly attracted the attention of countless people, so the three of them simply found an unoccupied corner and took their seats for the time being.

Chapter 5137

After sitting down, Fei Kexin looked at each other with Xiao Churan beside Ye Chen and could not help but say with some shame: "Churan congratulations on your successful completion of the previous incident is really sorry, I really have many inconvenient things to say. I hope you can understand"

In Xiao Churan's heart, although she had some lumps about Fei Ke Xin using a false identity to befriend herself, she was actually able to understand Fei Ke Xin.

Although she did not know what exactly Fei Ke Xin had gone through, she knew that this kind of luxurious noble family must also have many hardships that they could not tell outsiders.

She felt that although Fei Kexin had used a false name at that time, she had not done anything to hurt herself, on the contrary, she had given herself orders for decoration and even helped herself to get a place in the master class, in the end, she owed her no small favour.

Therefore, Xiao Churan also said very politely at this time, "Miss Fei, we are friends, it is too much for you to say so, although I am not clear about the reasons for many things, I can understand."

Hearing Xiao Churan's words, Fei Ke Xin's expression instantly relaxed and she said, "You are right, Churan! If you have time some other day, I will definitely have a good chat with you and tell you what really happened in the beginning"

Xiao Churan said with a smile, "I have time, later after the closing ceremony, the two of us will go to the hotel bar and talk alone, let Ye Chen go to his room first."

Fei Ke Xin nodded without thinking and smiled, "Good! It's a deal then!"

Ye Chen could not help but feel a little relieved when he saw that the two seemed to have cleared up their previous misunderstanding.

Xiao Churan was not good at socializing and did not have many sincere friends apart from Dong Ruolin, while during the time when Fei Ke Xin had gone to Jinling under the name of Zhan Feier, Xiao Churan had genuinely treated her as a good friend.

However, when her friend suddenly left without saying goodbye and evaporated, she was always worried about her, fearing that something might have happened to Fei Ke Xin.

It was not until later, when Fei Ke Xin suddenly appeared on the world's television media as the head of the Fei family, that Xiao Churan realised that the person she thought was her best friend had not even told herself her true identity.

Ever since that day, Ye Chen could tell that Xiao Churan's entire being, was a little lost.

However, right now, the two of them were sort of showing signs of making up, and if they were given a little time to let Fei Ke Xin tell Xiao Churan about her crisis situation at that time, I believed that Xiao Churan would be able to completely remove all her negative emotions.

Moreover, Ye Chen was not worried that Fei Ke Xin might say the wrong thing or slip up and subsequently give away key information about himself.

After all, he had hardly ever seen a smarter girl than Fei Kexin, and she would definitely be able to explain this matter to Xiao Churan in a very truthful and perfect manner while limiting her role to that of a feng shui master to a dead end.

Chapter 5138

Now for Ye Chen, as long as he could still limit himself to the feng shui master dead in front of his wife, then he was not afraid of anything because he could round up any way.

Even if the patriarch of a top-tier family like Fei Ke Xin was respectful of him, he could still explain it away.

After all, when Fei Ke Xin was almost killed by her uncle, it was because he had helped her adjust her feng shui and read her fortune to ask for directions that he had helped her to fight back and take back the position of head of the Fei family.

With this premise, even if Fei Kexin treated herself with respect, there would be a reasonable explanation for everything.

A few minutes later.

The fbi helicopter landed in the square outside the auditorium, and several fbi agents, wearing sungla*ses, hurried into the scene and brought out Matthew Peterson, who was under Yuan Zixu's guard.

Matthew Peterson had completely given up resistance and was paralyzed as he was loaded onto the helicopter by two agents.

Countless people were shocked to see him being taken away by the FBI, but at the same time, they couldn't help but whisper, trying to figure out why this bigwig of the design world had suddenly been taken away by the FBI.

Yuan Zixu watched the helicopter take off before returning to the venue to report back to Fei Kexin.

Fei Ke Xin smiled faintly upon hearing this and said to Xiao Churan, "Churan, when I take control of Aiyikang, if you are interested, I will ask you to be the president of Aiyikang."

Xiao Churan waved her hand in frightened practice, "I don't have that level, I'd better run my small company in Jinling properly"

Fei Ke Xin said seriously, "There's no rush, I'll save the position for you when the time comes, you can come over anytime if you're interested."

Meanwhile.

On the other side of the planet, in Yanjing.

A girl of seventeen or eighteen, slim and tall, with a face as pure as water, was walking briskly through a traditional Yanjing hutong.

It is early in the morning in Yanjing, when the hutongs are supposed to be at their liveliest and most smoky.

There are no shops or stalls selling breakfast, not even a single pedestrian.

The girl walked towards the deepest part of the hutong, at the end of which was a very grand five-room, three-bay door.

The so-called five rooms and three gates are the width of five rooms and three gates, the specifications of a prince's residence in feudal society.

The innermost house was originally the residence of a prince in the Qing dynasty.

The five-room, three-bay gate is about three or four metres high and is covered with bra*s spikes, making it an imposing building.

The huge stone lions on either side of the door were also carved with great dignity.

When the girl reached the two-thirds mark, suddenly, out of nowhere, two middle-aged men in civilian clothes emerged.

They stopped the girl and one of them said, "Little girl, this is a private residence, don't go further in."

The girl was not afraid at all when she was stopped by the two strong men, she just said indifferently, "Please tell your old man that Lin Wan'er is here and that she needs to see him."

Chapter 5139

Hearing Lin Wan'er say that she wanted to see her own old man, the burly man who spoke, his brows instantly furrowed as he asked in a cold voice, "Who the hell are you?!"

Lin Wan'er said indifferently, "I said, I am Lin Wan'er, you don't need to ask me so much here, I know that you are heavily guarded and there are an unknown number of guns aiming at me everywhere, I am here today to pay a visit, you only need to send word to me, your family's old gentleman will naturally come out to greet me personally."

The strong man said angrily, "What a crazy thing for a little girl to say! Do you know what kind of people live in here?!"

Lin Wan'er couldn't help but raise her eyebrows, but her tone remained as flat as water, "You don't need to bother talking in front of me, I just need you to give a message on my behalf, the word Lin Wan'er is not a poison or a bomb, it won't have any effect on your duty to protect him, but if Sun

Zhidong blames you for delaying business because you refuse to deliver the message, can you, a mere bodyguard, afford it? Can you afford it?"

The strong man did not expect that Lin Wan'er, a little girl, would have such an unsubtle and unyielding bearing in front of him, and even the confidence that she had everything under control made him feel a little uneasy.

Moreover, the fact that she called him by his name made him fearful, and he could not help but speculate on the girl's true origins.

He exchanged a glance with his colleague, who nodded at him in an extremely subtle way, and he immediately understood, turning around and walking backwards a few metres before saying into the microphone inside his collar, "Please inform the master that there is a young girl called Lin Wan'er in the hutong who wants to see you, sir, please decide."

A voice came from the headset, "Are you crazy? A little girl wants to see sir, and you dare ask me to deliver a message?"

The strong man urged, "Don't be so nonsense, this little girl seems to be a big deal, go and give a message!"

When the other man heard this, he did not delay any longer, but only explained, "If the gentleman blames you, don't expect me to take the blame for you."

A few minutes later.

The middle door of the five rooms was pushed open from the inside.

Immediately afterwards, an old man in his prime, supported by two people, came out.

The two strong men outside the door were stunned to see that their own old man had come out in person.

After all, they had never seen a guest worthy of being greeted by the old man himself.

The moment he saw Lin Wan'er, his whole body trembled with excitement. He did his best to walk faster, so much so that the two men around him were a bit frazzled.

The old man stood in front of her, a little out of breath and a little excited, saying, "Miss, it's really you! What brings you here?"

Lin Wan'er smiled faintly, "Came to temporarily join you for a while, is that convenient?"

"Convenient, convenient!" The old man hurriedly nodded uncontrollably, and then asked, "Miss, are you by yourself? Old Zhang didn't follow?"

"No." Lin Wan'er faintly shook her head and said, "Old Zhang will arrive in China again in a few days."

Saying that, Lin Wan'er looked around and spoke, "It's better to go in and talk, there are some things that I want to ask you for."

The old man hurriedly made a gesture of invitation and said respectfully, "Please, Miss!"

Chapter 5140

Lin Wan'er nodded and stepped towards the imposing gate.

Only when she entered the gate could she see that the courtyard was incredibly large.

The courtyard, which was neatly paved with green stones, was at least several thousand square feet.

The old man led Lin Wan'er all the way to his study, and then ordered everyone to leave the study for 50 metres, so all the family members and servants withdrew to the backyard.

In the study, the old man respectfully invited Lin Wan'er to sit down on the huanghuali seat before he opened his mouth and asked, "Miss, where are you coming from? Why didn't you inform me in advance so that I could arrange someone to pick you up!"

Lin Wan'er said indifferently, "I had quite a tumultuous journey, starting from Northern Europe, then first taking a boat to Murmansk in Russia, then turning overland from Murmansk, taking cars and trains, tossing and turning to Moscow, then taking a plane from Moscow to Vietnam, and finally taking a land route from Vietnam into China, and then taking a plane from the southwest to Yanjing."

"All that fuss?" The old man asked in astonishment, "Miss, you suddenly used such a tortuous route to come to China, did you encounter any trouble?"

"Yes." Lin Wan'er didn't hide it and said frankly, "Something went terribly wrong in Northern Europe, and I almost died."

"Huh?!" The old man asked in shock, "Why would that happen?!"

Lin Wan'er laughed bitterly, "One of Old Zhang's previously trained men somehow got in touch with the Broken Clear Society and exposed my whereabouts. The Broken Clear Society sent people to Northern Europe overnight to hunt us down and killed everyone except Old Zhang and I. Fortunately, with the help of a valuable person, Old Zhang and I were able to escape."

The old man said with a face full of horror, "The Broken Qing Society has actually found you"

"Yes." Lin Wan'er sighed and said, "I had already kept a low profile, but I didn't expect that something would go wrong internally, Old Zhang's men would have been unaware of my identity, but the Broken Clear Society had been using special channels to hunt me down and had offered a huge reward in order to find me, I guess it was Old Zhang's men who, by some coincidence, happened to get this information and then sold me out. "

Saying that, Lin Wan'er shrugged again and said, "But this is all my speculation, after all, all those men of Old Zhang have died, and I don't know which one of them actually betrayed me."

Hearing this, the old man hurriedly said, "Miss, then you should take shelter here with me for a while, China has been ruled for a long time, it is much safer than outside, besides, although I am now retired behind the scenes, my resources and connections are still there, I can definitely protect you."

Lin Wan'er smiled faintly and said, "I don't actually want to come and join you, I just want you to help me look into someone."

"Check on someone?" The old man hurriedly asked, "Miss, I wonder what kind of person you want to check, what kind of person is it? What information do you have?"

Lin Wan'er said, "I only know that his name is Ye Chen, he is male and should be under thirty years old."

The old man asked again, "Miss, when you say Ye Chen, which two words are they?"

Lin Wan'er thought for a moment and said, "Ye, I think it's the word for leaf, but I'm not sure about Chen, it could be the word for morning, or the word for star, or the word for dust."

Saying that, Lin Wan'er asked again, "You should have no problem in transferring the population data, right?"

The old man smiled, "No problem, I can transfer any kind of data."

"That's good." Lin Wan'er let out a slight sigh of relief and nodded, "Then it will be hard for you to arrange for someone to help me sort it out."

The old man was busy saying, "You are very kind, Miss, it is an honour for our Sun family to be able to work for you."

After saying that, he added respectfully, "Wait a moment, Miss, I'll go and arrange it now!"
