Chapter 5181

When he saw Qian Hongyan pull up outside his house, he frowned and said, "This woman must be here early in the morning, looking for trouble."

After all, he knew Qian Hongyan very well, this woman and Ma Lan, basically the same attributes, are the kind of people who hate to lick to death when they see a noble person, and hate to step on each other when they see each other.

For a long time in the past, Mrs. Xiao and Qian Hongyan's family had a miserable life, and it would not be too much to say that it was a human tragedy.

Later, Qian Hongyan, who was the sister-in-law, tried her best to be in front of Ma Lan, and now that she had finally turned over a new leaf, it would be hell if she didn't step on Ma Lan.

The truth was just as he had expected.

Qian Hongyan didn't turn off the car after parking it, but honked the horn three times in succession, then poked her head out and shouted at the third floor of her villa, "Ma Lan! Ma Lan! Are you awake?"

She had been awake since last night and was blind from scrolling through her mobile phone.

A minute ago, she had just found some sleep and planned to sleep first, but she was distracted by Qian Hongyan's horn.

When she heard Qian Hongyan shouting her name, Ma Lan was furious and picked up the carbon fibre telescopic cane given to her by the Fei family hospital and limped out, asking angrily, "What are you doing? If you don't sleep, others are still sleeping!"

Qian Hongyan laughed and leaned out of the car window, smiling and waving at Ma Lan, "What are you sleeping for? We'll have a five-star breakfast buffet, then we'll lie in the spa all morning and eat in the hotel restaurant for lunch. My treat!"

Ma Lan heard that she was getting C*cky in front of her and was just about to say something to undermine her, when she suddenly heard Qian Hongyan say that she was buying, so she asked suspiciously, "Are you sure you're buying?"

Qian Hongyan said very seriously, "We've been going for so many years, can I still lie to you about these little things?"

Ma Lan skimmed her lips and said testily, "I was afraid that you would run away in a huff when you were done and leave me there alone with the check."

"You're kidding." Qian Hongyan snorted and pulled out a gold card of Buckingham Palace and said to Ma Lan, "I have deposited 500,000 in Buckingham Palace, I am a VIP there, when I go there to spend, I just sign the bill directly and cut the money from the account, I don't even have to bother to buy the bill myself, how could I let you spend money?"

She looked at Ma Lan and asked with a raised eyebrow, "Are you going or not? Even if you have a gold card, you can only get a 25% discount, so you won't be able to get by without 15,000.

Hearing this, Ma Lan greeted Qian Hongyan's ancestors once and for all, while thinking, "D*mn, I've never experienced such a high-end spa as Buckingham Palace, and Qian Hongyan is willing to spend half a million dollars to get a card, and it's 15,000 for one visit.

The most glamorous period of Ma Lan's life was the days when she lived alone in a mansion in Jinling, drove a luxury car and had a six-figure deposit on her card.

However, when Ma Lan had a six-figure deposit, she wouldn't have dared to spend as much as Qian Hongyan did. A single spa treatment costing more than $10,000 had long since exceeded Ma Lan's concept of spending.

She felt that if she had to spend 20,000 to 30,000 dollars at a beauty salon and spend a couple of thousand dollars every time she went to have her face or body done, she was already a high-spending noblewoman, so she would not dare to throw away half a million dollars just for a spa treatment like Qian Hongyan did.

Besides, she didn't have that kind of money either.

After thinking about it for a moment, Ma Lan was already longing for it, so she suppressed her jealousy and anger and said to Qian Hongyan, "Oh, since you are so enthusiastic, I will go with you to experience it."

After saying that, he also deliberately lamented, "I invited you to eat, drink and play for so long before I went to the United States, you can remember to invite me back now, it's considered that you have a conscience!"

Qian Hongyan shook her head and laughed, but did not make any mockery of Ma Lan, but waved to her, "Then hurry up and come down, I'm still hungry and waiting to go there for breakfast!"

Chapter 5182

Ye Chen had guessed that his mother-in-law would not be able to resist temptation, and was not at all surprised to hear that Ma Lan had agreed to come down.

But Xiao Churan was listening from the first floor, but she was angry enough at her mother's spineless performance.

So she hurried out of the room and pressed the lift while Ma Lan was coming down in it.

The door opened and Ma Lan was already leaning inside on crutches. Ma Lan was quick to pack up, she hadn't slept all night last night and hadn't even bothered to change her clothes, she was still wearing the same one she had worn yesterday when she returned from her flight.

Xiao Churan did not enter the lift, but blocked the door and questioned Ma Lan inside: "Mom, didn't you scold your aunt yesterday? How come as soon as she shouted at you to go to the spa, you couldn't resist the temptation again?"

Ma Lan said with a serious face, "Churan! It's twenty thousand dollars per person! I wanted to say no to your mother, but my body wouldn't let me! It's not that your mother has no backbone, it's that she offers too much!"

Xiao Churan said in exasperation, "Oh, Mom! You can't go even if it's 200,000 per person, she's obviously here to laugh at you, can't you see that? Why are you still rushing to give her a chance?"

Ma Lan bristled, "Do you think I'm stupid? When she Qian Hongyan pouts, I know what she's going to sh*t!"

After saying that, she looked at Xiao Churan and said through her back teeth, "But Churan! Twenty thousand per person! If you have a bargain, you don't take advantage of it, let alone such a big bargain?"

Xiao Churan was already helpless to the extreme, so she could only say, "Then I'll give you 20,000 yuan, can you not go?"

"Okay." Ma Lan nodded and said offhandedly, "You can definitely give me 20,000 yuan for this."

Xiao Churan did not nag and immediately took out his mobile phone and transferred 20,000 yuan to Ma Lan's WeChat.

Ma Lan happily clicked to receive it, then looked at Xiao Churan again and said seriously, "Churan, I didn't finish what I just said, it's definitely okay for you to give me 20,000 yuan, but it's definitely not okay for you to let me not go, if I don't go, it's the same as losing 20,000 yuan, I won't allow me to be so wasteful!"

Xiao Churan stomped her foot in anxiety and said angrily, "Mom! You how can you do this!"

Ma Lan said with an innocent face, "What did I do? I have been married to the Xiao family for so many years, when have I ever taken advantage of her Qian Hongyan? Today is the first time that the iron tree has blossomed, I can't miss this opportunity no matter what I say!"

Xiao Churan gave up completely at this moment and said with all her thoughts, "Whatever you want, I don't care."

After saying that, she took a step back and let the lift door close.

When Qian Hongyan saw Ma Lan come out on crutches, she hurriedly got out of the car to greet him and said with a smile, "Aigoo aigoo, I thought you came out in that electric wheelchair from yesterday, why are you still on crutches?"

Ma Lan said casually, "My electric wheelchair is very heavy, I was afraid you wouldn't be able to lift it into the trunk."

Qian Hongyan nodded and helped Ma Lan all the way to the passenger door, saying, "Ma Lan, this broken car of mine is no match for the Cullinan you have at home, don't mind it."

Ma Lan brushed her lips and said, "This g500 is no match for the Cullinan, but I'm not picky, it's fine."

Chapter 5183

Qian Hongyan said with a smile as she helped Ma Lan get into the car, "I ordered a Cullinan two days ago, it's the same as yours, it's a bb version, but I ordered the latest model that just came out. The configuration list option is about nine million or so, and it's going to land at over ten million."

Ma Lan's jaw dropped as she asked, "What do you mean? You've ordered a Cullinan too?"

"Yeah." Qian Hongyan took out a folder made of cowhide from the passenger door storage compartment, handed it to Ma Lan and said, "Look for yourself, the deposit is one million, but this car has a long lead time, the sales said it will take half a year at the soonest, when it arrives, I will show you the difference between the new model and the old one."

Ma Lan looked down at the folder and immediately saw the two letter r symbols on it.

She hurriedly opened the folder and inside was a contract for the car, the total price of the configuration sheet was nine million one hundred thousand, and the person who ordered the car was written as Qian Hongyan!

Not only that, there is also a receipt issued by the Rolls-Royce 4s shop inside, the content of which is also indeed received Qian Hongyan booking Cullinan deposit of one million

She saw that Qian Hongyan had already sat in the cab and asked her from the bottom of her heart, "Qian Hongyan, how on earth did you earn so much money?"

Qian Hongyan smiled faintly and said casually, "I've been following a senior in speculating in futures recently and have made some money."

As soon as Ma Lan heard Qian Hongyan's words, she knew that she was just fooling herself. She probably didn't even think that she had accidentally swiped into her live streaming room yesterday.

Thinking of this, Ma Lan said in mock surprise, "You're speculating in futures now, huh? I saw that you were making so much money, I thought you were also following the example of others who were doing that live streaming with goods. It's even faster than robbing money! The most powerful anchors are said to make a billion or so a year!"

Qian Hongyan smiled unnaturally and said casually, "Ha! Ma Lan, I'm telling you, live streaming is a new thing for young people to play with. Besides, you just said that the kind of head anchors who make money are young, handsome, young and beautiful celebrities, and there are many first-tier stars and big entrepreneurs who go live with goods, only that kind of people can make money, others simply don't have a chance."

She said, she also did not forget to remind: "I tell you ah Ma Lan, nothing never to study this kind of nebulous things, useless! Why don't you study the stock market and futures, that's the proper way to make a fortune!"

After saying this, Qian Hongyan added: "Oh yes, if you have spare money, just gather it together, I will ask my master to recommend some futures and stocks to you later, you can make a lot of money!"

When Ma Lan heard this, his heart had already cursed: "Your grandmother Qian Hongyan, you can really f*cking pretend! The most annoying thing is that you told me not to touch it. If I hadn't gotten to you last night, I would have believed your bullsh*t! You don't tell the truth even if it's okay, but also want to fool me to speculate in stocks and futures, you want me to lose my family ah?!"

Thinking of this, Ma Lan cursed in her heart, "Aren't you afraid that I'll find a chance to make a fortune in the live-streaming industry just like you? The more you don't want me to touch live streaming, the more I have to touch it! Just wait, I may not be worse than you in live streaming! I'll give it a try when I get back tonight! Maybe I can make tens or hundreds of thousands of dollars a night!"

Chapter 5184

The face of Qian Hongyan's foolishness, Ma Lan this time not be led by her nose, but in that self-conscious said: "stocks, futures I do not understand, the risk is too high, and need a lot of capital, I still think live with goods is simpler, starting with nothing, have a mobile phone will be able to do this thing, success to make a lot of money, not also no loss."

Qian Hongyan drove while hitting her, "If you want to engage in live streaming with goods, you must first have something attractive, you say old ladies like us, who can be attracted to watch it?"

Ma Lan casually muttered, "If we can't, we can just sell the tragedy, I'll just say that my husband has lung cancer and ask for help."

As if her tail had been stepped on, Qian Hongyan hurriedly said, "That won't do! Your family's Ye Chen is now considered a dignified person, you're at home with Xiao Changkun cheating money online, how embarrassing it will be for Ye Chen's clients to know!"

Ma Lan bristled, "It's not shameful to make money."

She said to Qian Hongyan, "By the way, what's that old woman doing these days? Why don't you lend her to me for a few days, and I'll take her and Xiao Changkun with me to the outskirts of Jinling to rent a rural self-constructed house for live broadcasting."

Qian Hongyan could not have imagined that Ma Lan would have figured out the way.

When she first thought of live-streaming, she had also seen other people's live-streams and short videos on the Internet that sold misery.

After watching around, she found that those hosts who were selling misery were not as f*cking miserable as herself.

They were either sick with their children or their husbands, wives or parents, but in her own family, there were two old men who were paralyzed in bed and an old woman who was buried in the earth to the sky, she had been bullied by her mother-in-law for so many years, she was made to work in a black coal kiln and got pregnant accidentally.

The first thing you need to do is to look at those who are not as miserable as you are to make money, Qian Hongyan's brain turned, simply set up the room, and also engaged in a live broadcast with goods.

The two men, Xiao Changqian and Xiao Hailong, were almost invalids, lying in bed, so they didn't even have to act.

Moreover, both of them had hospital certificates, and the certificates of various injuries alone were a thick pile. If we look at them with reference to the certificates, the two people lying on the bed were not two living people, but two tragedies.

So, once Qian Hongyan started live-streaming, she immediately captured the psychology of netizens and the pain points of the platform's algorithm, and the number of fans grew, and the retention of fans was extremely good.

And the money Qian Hongyan really made was much more than Ma Lan and Ye Chen had guessed.

Because of the reason that she did sell misery so badly, she brought goods to sell, unlike other anchors, she was really not swiping and few of her fans would return the goods.

The same goods, others with goods can even reach 50% return rate, but once she got started, and pulled a family selling misery, and constantly thanked, and constantly sang some sad song, and then a mouthful of thanks to the family to help help Yanzi, so that the fans to her tolerance than other anchors a large cut.

Many people feel dissatisfied with the things they buy in her live stream, but when they think of how hard it is for this woman, her son and husband are in bed and she still has to carry sh*t and urine, and afterwards there is an old woman at home who looks like she won't live for a few years to take care of, they feel that the money is a good deed.

Qian Hongyan used this to her advantage, and was able to reduce the return rate to less than 5%!

This instantly made Qian Hongyan's ability to bring in goods, very much recognised by those brands.

Although Qian Hongyan's number of followers was not as high as those of the top anchors, Qian Hongyan's high conversion rate of followers and high order turnover rate also made the brands increase her commission rate.

Now the moisture of the live stream with goods is already very large, take Qian Hongyan yesterday with the five towels, the production cost in the southern factory, is about 15 yuan, because the order quantity is huge, so they send logistics cost is about two or three yuan, storage, packing costs add up, the total cost is only 20 yuan, but live stream sell 99 yuan five, the gross profit rate is very high.

However, the brands also have their own weaknesses, their biggest fear is the high rate of returns.

Chapter 5185

In order to protect the interests of consumers, the platform gives consumers the right to return goods for seven days without reason, each single sent out, labor and logistics costs will be five dollars, if the final customer returned, this single is equal to not a penny earned also lost five, and, in general, this kind of goods returned, are opened by consumers, packaging are damaged, want to secondary sales, but also manual to re-packaging, re The cost of the return is considerable.

Therefore, once the return rate remains high, even if the gross margin seems high, the brand's real profit margin is not much higher.

However, this is not the case with Qian Hongyan.

The return rate is surprisingly low, even for those broken rubbish bags that leak when they are half filled.

She knows very well that if she brings in bird's nest and skincare products that cost several thousand dollars per customer, although the commission is higher and she makes more money, if consumers find out that the products are not good, they will not have this "just for love" mentality and will definitely choose to return them at the first opportunity.

Therefore, she has her own book of business, the first is: live with the customer price of goods, the highest only to 99, never more than 100, only in this way, can make the return rate to a minimum.

Because she knows that consumer love also has a ceiling!

Nineteen ninety-nine dollars for a bunch of rubbish bags, twenty-nine ninety-nine dollars for a bunch of disposable shower caps made of cling film, ninety-nine dollars for five towels that you don't know if they are pure cotton, even if the quality is bad at least they will make do.

Rubbish bags, although of poor quality, can be filled for less.

Cling wrap, although I don't know if it's clean or not, can help a little with leftovers.

If you can't use a towel to wash your face, you can always use it as a rag.

Anyway, the price of these things is not high, consumers just think of it as a way to buy things to give love, after all, see someone send water drop fundraising, really touched also have to donate a hundred or eighty dollars, not to mention that this can also get goods, two birds with one stone.

And, this kind of thing is also very troublesome to return, and have to submit a return application and so on review, and also to place an order for express pickup, and also to pack and wait for the courier door, and finally have to pay the courier fee.

The courier fee itself is not transparent, large customers as long as more than two dollars, the first weight within the country which can be sent, casual customers send express at least ten dollars to start.

So, rather than going to all the trouble, it feels more cost effective for consumers to keep their stuff.

Precisely because she keeps the return rate extremely low, she also uses it to ask brands to raise their commissions.

For example, for yesterday's towels, the commission for a single transaction is $20 for other people's carries, but because she, Qian Hongyan, rarely returns anything, her commission is as high as 30%, or $30 for a single transaction.

The brands are also willing to give her a higher commission, after all, the total account is calculated, Qian Hongyan brings them a much higher profit margin than the average anchor.

And Qian Hongyan sold 1.1 million yesterday, and at a 5% return rate, her commission was up to over 310,000 before tax.

And yesterday, was not even the peak of Qian Hongyan's live broadcast.

Ye Chen and his team's return trip was at noon on Saturday, New York time, which is early Sunday morning, China time.

After a ten-hour flight, when Ye Chen and his team landed, it was Sunday evening China time.

The peak of the live bandwagon, however, was Friday night, all day Saturday and daytime on Sunday, and by Sunday night, the traffic dropped a lot.

Just two days ago on Friday night, Qian Hongyan's live stream sold over two million, on Saturday day, she broadcast two shows in the afternoon and evening, selling a total of three million, on Sunday daytime one sold an extra one and a half million, and on Sunday night, which was last night, it sold one and a half million.

In other words, Qian Hongyan's sales for one weekend, live with goods, reached eight million, the commission before tax is basically equal to this one Mercedes big g.

It is because of the staggering speed of earning money that Qian Hongyan dared to order a Rolls Royce Cullinan, after all, she only needed to pay one million upfront to order the car, and a month later, the full price of this Cullinan would be earned!

Chapter 5186

Ye Chen saw that Ma Lan still got into Qian Hongyan's car, and helplessly sighed that it was hard to change one's nature, then he didn't think any more about it, picked up Cullinan's battery and hit the BMW, and drove out the door.

After leaving the house, Ye Chen gave Claudia a call and told her to wait for him at the new home that Richard Chen had prepared for her and Auntie Li. At the same time, he also gave Richard Chen a call and told him to contact his connections at Jinling University and go there today to get Claudia's application for admission done.

Chen Zekai had been working in Jinling for many years and was the spokesman for the Ye family, so his local connections were all-pervasive, and Jinling University was naturally no problem. This time he had already found connections for Claudia in advance, and all he needed was for Claudia to bring the necessary documents to the school when she arrived in Jinling.

Ye Chen followed the address and navigated to a villa area by the river, which was not far from the city and not far from the large integrated orphanage that Ye Chen was going to invest in, making it very convenient for Auntie Li and Li Xiaofen to work in the orphanage in the future.

However, the distance from Jinling University is a little bit longer, but the good thing is that Jinling is not that big, if you take the bus to commute, a single trip is almost half an hour or so.

The study load at the university is not too heavy, so Claudia can consider either living on campus or going to school, or both.

The villa arranged by Richard Chen has a practical area of almost four hundred square feet, although it is not large in a villa, but unlike Tangchen Yipin where Ye Chen lives, which is divided into three floors above ground and two underground, the houses in this villa area are all above ground, so the utilisation of the area is very high.

Moreover, this house is a fine-decorated property developed by a friend of Richard Chen, a local developer, who knows all about the quality of construction and decoration of the house, so he is a bit more at ease when buying a house here.

Ye Chen parked his car at the entrance of the villa, and just as he stepped out of the car, Li Xiaofen waved to Ye Chen from the courtyard, "Brother Ye Chen!"

After saying that, she came over with a surprised face and opened the courtyard door for Ye Chen.

Seeing that she seemed to be dealing with the greenery in the yard, Ye Chen smiled and asked, "Why are you up early in the morning to clean up the yard?"

Li Xiaofen smiled and said, "There are a lot of green plants and flowers in the yard, but it feels like the levels don't match too well, so I wanted to adjust them."

Ye Chen asked her, "Where's Auntie Li?"

"Gone to buy vegetables." Li Xiaofen said, "There is a big supermarket not far out of the district, and there are all the household items at home, so Auntie Li wanted to buy some vegetables and just fire up the stove and cook."

Ye Chen nodded and asked again, "Where is Claudia?"

Li Xiaofen smiled and whispered, "She's putting on her make-up, she seems to be quite looking forward to going to school, she's been chanting to me all morning."

As soon as Li Xiaofen's words fell, Claudia, a hybrid of East and West, pushed her way out the door.

Today's Claudia, dressed extraordinarily young and beautiful, pure white t-shirt, with light grey plaid medium skirt, plus two fluffy golden braids on the left and right, looking very sunny and lively, compared to the previous expressionless and bitter little girl all day long, completely different from the two.

Chapter 5187

When Li Xiaofen saw the well-dressed Claudia, she exclaimed, "How can you be going to school? I'm afraid you're not going to make your debut as a group in situ! I think you should stop going to school this year and participate in a domestic talent show first, maybe you'll be a hit!"

Claudia smiled slightly blushing and asked her in return, "Sister Fanny, how can I become a group by myself, why don't we both go together?"

Li Xiaofen pouted and muttered, "Two people is called a group, a female group would take at least seven or eight people to make it"

Claudia laughed, "Then we'd at least have two first, and it would be a brave first step."

Li Xiaofen grunted, "I'm not going to team up with you, brother Ye Chen's orphanage is still waiting for me and aunt Li to take care of it properly!"

At this time, Ye Chen also said to Claudia, "Claudia, if you don't have anything else, let's leave now, the dean of the school and the person in charge of overseas undergraduate admissions have already arrived, so it's basically enough to meet and go through the process."

"Good!" Claudia nodded her head and turned to Li Xiaofen, "Sister Fanny, I'll go first then!"

Li Xiaofen smiled, "When you get your notice, Auntie Li and I will give you a good celebration at noon!"

Ye Chen raised his eyebrows, "Count me in, and tell Auntie Li that she should make some extra special dishes for lunch today."

Li Xiaofen said excitedly, "Really? Then I'll go to the supermarket to find Auntie Li and buy more delicious food!"

Ye Chen asked her, "Do you want me to take you there on my way?"

Li Xiaofen waved her hand, "You two should go first, I still need to change my clothes, I can't go out in my pajamas."

Ye Chen nodded and greeted Claudia in the car, then he said goodbye to Li Xiaofen and drove to Jinling University.

As the car drove out of the district, Claudia asked somewhat timidly, "Brother Ye Chen, will it be too much trouble for you to do the admission thing?"

"No." Ye Chen laughed, "As Jinling University wants to internationalize, it has a certain number of international students, and if the number of international students does not reach a certain number every year, the person in charge may have to carry the pressure of performance, and besides, your academic record in Canadian high school was excellent in both character and academic performance. It's basically a sure thing, but the process is slightly more complicated, and the connections I've had people find can help you simplify those processes a bit."

Only then did Claudia put her mind at ease, she was most afraid that she would cause Ye Chen too much trouble if she came to China, after all, in her heart, Ye Chen had already done too much for her.

At that time, she had lost her family and everything, and all she could think about was revenge, but now that she had started afresh in a new environment, and had a new family she could trust and entrust, she had become a little more cautious.

Ye Chen also sensed this change in her, so he said seriously: "Claudia, in Jinling, Auntie Li, Xiaofen and I are your family, Auntie Li is your mother, Xiaofen is your sister, I am your brother, you are the youngest sister in this family and deserve to be taken care of by us, so you must not think that you will cause us any trouble. We will never feel that a family member who needs our help is causing us trouble."

Claudia was naturally touched in her heart when she saw how resolute Ye Chen was in his words.

Although she believed in the character of Auntie Li and Li Xiaofen, she was not related by blood after all, and she did not have any living relatives, so it was inevitable that she would have a feeling of being a parasite in her heart.

But any child whose parents were fostered by their relatives when they were young because of their work would understand this feeling in their hearts.

Chapter 5188

However, Ye Chen's words made her realise that Ye Chen really saw her as a relative and was treating her as a sister who needed careful care and attention.

This also made the feeling in her heart that she was like a floating weed and had no place to belong to, instantly washed away by half.

If you tell me that you can't find a sense of belonging in Jinling, or even in China, and want to go back to Canada, I will personally send you back. From now on, I, as a brother, will do everything I can to make sure that you have no worries, no matter where you are."

Claudia's eyes were red with emotion at Ye Chen's words, and while she nodded her head repeatedly, tears fell silently from her eyes.

Ye Chen had grown up in the orphanage, and he understood Claudia's feelings at this moment. Back then, when he himself was totally ignorant of what Tang Sihai had arranged, and was curled up alone in the corner of the dormitory of the Jinling orphanage crying until dawn, he did not know how sad and desperate he was.

And now Claudia was going through almost exactly the same process as she herself had then.

That is why he was so concerned about Claudia, hoping that with his attitude and actions, he could help her untie all the knots in her heart and face her future life with openness and optimism.

So, Ye Chen told Claudia about his own experiences in the orphanage back then, hoping that she would find resonance in herself.

When Ye Chen described in detail his own psychological state back then, Claudia did feel a strong sense of empathy in her heart, and it was at this moment that she suddenly realised that Ye Chen was probably the one who understood herself the most in this world.

This was something that even Li Xiaofen could not do.

This was because Li Xiaofen had been abandoned since birth and then taken into an orphanage, while both herself and Ye Chen, who had thought they had everything and were the happiest children in the world, had eventually watched it all being cruelly taken away from them.

Li Xiaofen had not been through this kind of trauma, so she did not manage to really read Claudia's heart.

The two talked all the way, and not only did Claudia feel that she found empathy in Ye Chen, but Ye Chen also found the same feeling in this girl, ten years younger than herself.

Luckily, neither of them was the pessimistic type, so they had more in common and soon talked about a different, indescribable and detailed optimism out of the same bitter experience.

In the middle of the conversation, the car had already arrived at the entrance of Jinling University.

At this time, Jinling University was on holiday, but to Ye Chen's surprise, there were quite a few staff members at the entrance of the school, busily preparing for something, and had even blocked the way of the car.

Ye Chen honked his horn briefly and a staff member hurriedly ran over and apologetically said to Ye Chen, "Sorry sir, we have to pull up a banner to pull up your car before you can pa*s, otherwise your car will definitely crush the banner if you pa*s."

Ye Chen nodded with understanding and spoke, "It's alright, I'll wait for a while then."

"Thank you, we'll be done in a few minutes."

The man said thank you and turned around to go and get busy with other colleagues again.

Soon, a red banner was pulled up from both sides of the school gate and hung high above the school gate's pagoda.

Ye Chen looked up and saw that the banner read, "A warm welcome to Mr. Qiu Ying Shan and his wife to our school."

Ye Chen seemed to have heard of the name Qiu Ying Shan, but for a while he forgot where he had heard of it.

At that moment, the staff member ran over and asked politely, "What are you doing inside?"

Ye Chen said, "I have an appointment with General Manager Chen Zekai Chen to meet here."

The man suddenly understood and said, "Mr. Chen has already gone in, so please do the same!"

Chapter 5189

When Ye Chen drove his car to the front of the Academic Affairs Building of Jinling University, Chen Zekai was already waiting here.

Seeing Ye Chen park the car, he hurriedly went forward to help him pull open the car door and said respectfully, "Young master, I've made all the arrangements on the school side, Claudia just needs to fill out an application form and submit the information, and then she can choose her major directly."

Ye Chen nodded, remembered the banner he saw outside and asked him, "Have you heard of Qiu Ying Shan? It feels like this person is somewhat familiar."

"Qiu Ying Shan ah" Chen Zekai hurriedly said, "Back to Young Master, Master Qiu, is truly the richest man in South China, only that some years ago he deliberately split up all the family's industries, so he also came down from the major rankings down, but the Qiu family's strength is still very strong in Southeast Asia."

But the Khoo family is still very strong in Southeast Asia." After saying this, Richard Chan asked, "You saw them hanging banners at the entrance, right? When I came, they were taking it down, and after I asked around, I realised that it was Qiu Ying Shan who was coming to visit Jinling University."

Ye Chen suddenly remembered something and spoke, "When I was studying at Jinling University, I think I had heard of this person, who was said to have donated a lot of money to Jinling University?"

Chen Zekai nodded and said, "That's right, he was one of the first overseas Chinese who returned to China to build after the economy opened up, and donated five hundred million to Jinling University one after another in the nineties, back in those days, that was a big amount of money."

"So that's how it is." Ye Chen nodded gently, only thinking that maybe the old man was planning to return to Jinling University for a visit, so he didn't put too much thought into it.

Meanwhile.

Lin Wan Er and Qiu Ying Shan were on board this plane.

As Malaysia is also in the eastern region, there is no time difference between Malaysia and Jinling, so Lin Wan'er originally planned to fly from Penang to China at eight o'clock this morning, so that she would arrive in Jinling at around two o'clock in the afternoon and would not be delayed in applying for admission.

But after lying down last night, she somehow managed to toss and turn in bed and had trouble sleeping until the early hours of the morning.

Lin Wan'er tried to calm her mind down, but no matter what she tried, her heart always had a panicky feeling and seemed to be faintly showing signs of palpitations.

Helplessly, she could only comfort herself by telling herself that she had to leave for Jinling first thing in the morning, to the place where Ye Chen had first disappeared, and that perhaps she would really get her wish and meet him in Jinling.

When she thought of this, Lin Wan'er's heart felt a lot better, but instead, there was a sense of urgency that every second counted.

In her anxiety, she had to ask Qiu Yingshan to prepare a plane for her departure overnight, arriving in Jinling a few hours ahead of schedule.

In order not to delay the admission of Lin Wan'er, Qiu Yingshan had someone say hello to the president of Jinling University in advance, but he did not ask his men to reveal the purpose of his visit to Jinling University, only informing them that he wanted to visit the university.

The university naturally attached great importance to this distinguished guest, and had banners made overnight. Even the president was prepared to personally greet and accompany him, and the other vice-presidents, as well as a number of deans, immediately suspended their holidays and rushed back to the university to stand by.

Chen Zekai took Ye Chen and Claudia into the Academic Affairs Building and went to the Admissions Office.

At this moment, the director of the Admissions Office was already waiting here.

Chapter 5190

When he saw that Chen Zekai had arrived, the director said politely, "Aigoo Chen, long time no see, still so handsome and dashing!"

Chen Zekai smiled faintly and said, "Director Liu, I'll trouble you with this one."

That Director Liu said with a smile, "You don't have to be so polite with me, Mr. Chen, it's just a matter of raising your hand, besides, recruiting more international students is also an enrollment task that we have been taking very seriously lately, and to say the least, Mr. Chen, you are helping me to complete my performance appraisal."

Richard Chen laughed and introduced Claudia to him, saying, "Director Liu, this is Claudia, a distant relative I was talking about, she was born and raised in Canada and also studied there, and this one next to her is also a distant relative of mine, Claudia's cousin."

Director Liu nodded with Ye Chen, then smiled and said to Claudia, "Hello Claudia, I am the director of the admissions office of Jinling University, my name is Liu Ming, welcome to Jinling University."

Claudia said very politely, "Hello Director Liu, I hope you will take care of me if I am lucky enough to study at Jinling University!"

Director Liu said in surprise, "You are so good at Chinese!"

Chen Zekai, who was beside him, then said, "Claudia is of mixed Chinese and Italian descent, and her mother went out from our Jinling some years ago."

"Oh, no wonder!" Director Liu nodded repeatedly and exclaimed, "Then there is still some origin in choosing Jinling University."

He asked Claudia, "By the way, do you have your passport and file with you? I'll help you do an information entry, and then you can choose your major once you're done."

"Yes!" Claudia hurriedly handed over the information she had prepared.

Director Liu opened the file bag, looked through the information in it carefully, and couldn't help but exclaim, "You did very well in secondary school in Canada! To be honest, I have come into contact with quite a few international students from Canada, but I have never come across one with grades as good as yours, almost all of them with A's!"

Claudia said modestly, "There was some slippage in my last year, because something happened at home and I didn't go to school much."

Director Liu nodded and said with a smile, "That's perfect for you, and to be honest you shouldn't have too much trouble applying to Tsinghua's international students with this information, and with us, it's even less of a problem!"

After saying that, he hurriedly took out a pile of information and handed it to Claudia, introducing, "This is all the relevant information of our faculties and departments in Jinling University, you should first look at which major you are more interested in, and I will log your information into the system on my side."

"Okay thanks!" Claudia took the information and began to look through it very carefully.

As a double-cla*s university, Jinling University had a very comprehensive faculty structure, with dozens of departments and hundreds of majors, it was really dazzling to pick and choose.

Claudia looked around, thought for a long time, and then said, "I want to apply for the archaeology major in the history faculty."

"Archaeology?" Not only was Director Liu surprised, but even Ye Chen was a little surprised.

Director Liu said in a serious tone, "Claudia, the major of archaeology is really very cold, and the future employment opportunities are very narrow, we are an archaeology major, there are only fifty students from freshman to senior year, one cla*s per year, and there are only ten students in a cla*s, do you want to reconsider?"

Claudia shook her head gently and said, "Just choose this one, although I am half Chinese, I don't know much about Chinese history, but if I were to choose the history major, I am afraid it would be too boring, archaeology should be able to combine with practice and can better understand the culture and history of China."

Director Liu smacked his lips and asked her, "That you don't think about employment at all?"

Claudia seriously said, "The issue of employment, it's better to wait until the time of graduation to consider it!"
