

Ye Chen 5201

Chapter 5201

On the other end of the phone, Ye Chen had just bought some aromatherapy for Auntie Li and the girls to use in their new home to remove the smell and enhance the fragrance.

The purpose of the gift is to celebrate the moving of a new home, so the gifts chosen are generally suitable for use in the new home.

Aromatherapy is the most popular with women, so Ye Chen chose some high-grade aromatherapy as a gift.

When he suddenly received a phone call from a local stranger, he didn't think too much about it, so he picked up normally and asked a question as usual.

On the other side came Sister Xian's voice: "Hello Master, I'm going out right now, I may not be able to wait for your delivery, please leave my delivery at the property centre, I'll go and pick it up myself when I come back."

Ye Chen said casually, "Sorry, you might have the wrong number."

"Huh?" Sister Xian exclaimed and said, "Let me see oops sorry, really wrong number, sorry to bother you!"

"It's alright." Ye Chen didn't say much, and then hung up the phone.

Wrong phone calls happen all the time, and the other party's words were so close to life that they really didn't make Ye Chen suspicious.

And at this moment, Lin Wan'er was already completely sure of Ye Chen's identity.

She also didn't expect that after she had tumbled from Northern Europe to China, everything would develop so smoothly!

After a trip to Yanjing, she herself had found out Ye Chen's true identity, and subsequently made the decision to come to Jinling to take her chances.

And as soon as she arrived in Jinling, she found out Ye Chen's phone number and confirmed that Ye Chen was local to Jinling, and that he even had a close relationship with one of her future cla*smates!

The contact address left by Claudia could not help but come to Lin Wan'er's mind.

If she followed that address, although she might not be able to find Ye Chen, she would definitely be able to find Claudia.

If she found Claudia, Ye Chen would not be far behind!

Lin Wan'er reviewed the situation in her mind, and her whole body almost jumped up in excitement.

However, she did not make her next move immediately, but returned to the Rolls-Royce alone, sitting in the pa*senger seat and thinking about her next plan.

She muttered, "Although Ye Chen is close at hand, I can't go to him right now, let alone appear in front of him immediately."

"The most natural way at the moment is to not meet Ye Chen first, to wait patiently until school starts, to get to know Claudia first after school starts, and to become friends, and then to find an opportunity through Claudia to achieve a second meeting with Ye Chen."

"I have now made a good job of Lin Xiaowan's identity and background, and the series of paving and preparation for coming to school in Jinling has all been completed, if Claudia and I can become friends, even if Ye Chen suspects me of having ulterior motives, he won't be able to find any substantial evidence."

Thinking of this, she gently breathed a sigh of relief and muttered with a happy face, "Just in time, I've wanted to come to Jinling for a long time, but I've never had the chance, so I can take advantage of this gap to take a good turn around the famous places in Jinling."

At that moment, her mobile phone suddenly rang, and the caller ID showed that the caller was Sun Zhidong, who was far away in Yanjing.

So she picked up the phone, and Sun Zhidong's voice came from the other end, "Miss, you've arrived in Jinling, right?"

"Arrived." Lin Wan'er smiled faintly and said, "I just arrived."

Sun Zhidong said, "Miss, when do you think it is appropriate for me to go there?"

"Anytime." Lin Wan'er knew what was on his mind. The trigrams showed that he had at most six months to live and that his only chance of survival was in Jinling, so although he did not say so, he must be very anxious to find that silver lining.

When Sun Zhidong heard her say the word "at any time", he was relieved and said respectfully, "Miss, in that case, I will leave for Jinling later to meet you, and also meet Ying Shan."

Lin Wan'er said, "Good, before you take off, tell Qiu Ying Shan to send someone to pick you up at the airport."

"Okay." Sun Zhidong said, "I've sorted out some local connections in Jinling, some of them have retired, but they were all on the same page in Jinling in the first place, so ask them to help investigate the Ye Chen you're looking for properly when the time comes!"

Chapter 5202

Lin Wan'er laughed, "No need, I've already found him."

"What?!" Sun Zhidong asked in shock, "Find found?! That fast?!"

"Yeah." Lin Wan'er said seriously, "Life is like this, as long as a few key choices are made correctly, you can soar to great heights lying down, and the same goes for finding someone."

Saying that, Lin Wan'er added, "Today's experience is rather interesting, I'll tell you about it when you arrive."

“Good!” Sun Zhidong hurriedly said, “Then I’ll get ready to move!”

Afterwards, Lin Wan’er did not get out of the car again.

The couple, Qiu Ying Shan, also did not delay for too long, and after chatting with the school leaders for half an hour, they got up and left the Academic Affairs Building on the pretext that their bodies could not take it anymore.

The couple then returned to their car, surrounded by the crowd, and the motorcade slowly drove out of Jinling University, heading towards the Purple Mountain.

The Purple Mountain covers an area of almost thirty square kilometres, it is shaped like a nearly circular stone with somewhat rough edges, and the distance between north and south, east and west, is almost six kilometres or less.

The southern half of Purple Mountain is a 5a scenic area, while the northern half is mostly unopened.

Qiu Ying Shan’s estate is located on one of the hills on the northern half, which is several hundred metres above sea level.

He was willing to invest and donate huge sums of money to the mainland, and the local community in Jinling gave him a very high standard of return, and there has only been one such estate in the whole of Jinling in the last 20 or 30 years.

The convoy entered the mountain through an internal access road in the north of Purple Mountain, which was already a controlled area where tourists were stopped from the foot of the mountain, so it was very quiet.

When they arrived at the top of the mountain after pa*sing through the panoramic road, Lin Wan’er saw a pagoda made of Chinese white jade with four big words engraved on it: Purple Mountain Villa.

Even she could not help but marvel at the grandeur and majesty of this manor.

It is not as exaggerated and towering as those castles in Europe, but it is in the middle of a mountain peak, giving people a sense of openness and escape from the hustle and bustle of the world.

It is only a few kilometres from the busiest commercial area of Jinling.

It is extremely rare to find a sense of escape in such a place.

The entire estate is filled with ancient trees and a variety of plants that flourish in summer, so that from a distance, one would not even be able to tell that such a large scale private estate is hidden here.

The whole manor is designed in the style of the Gusu gardens, and, as the terrain of the mountain peaks is gradually moving upwards, the building structure of the manor is also constantly being upgraded, divided into three layers like a cake, the bottom layer being the largest, a square with a side length of more than 100 metres, covering an area of at least 10,000 to 20,000 square metres, while the second layer is much smaller, with a side length of almost 50 metres, covering an area of 3,000 square metres. or so.

At the top of the hill is a small courtyard of green bricks and stone tiles, which is only about twenty metres long and has a surface area of about four hundred square metres, with three tiled houses, two short and one tall, the short one being an ordinary single-storey tiled house, while the tall one has two floors above and below.

In addition, there is a small courtyard of about one hundred square metres, entirely paved with natural stone.

Qiu Yingshan said to Lin Wan'er, "Miss, don't look at the size of my manor, but the real essence is the small courtyard at the top, if you don't mind, you can stay there for a while!"

Lin Wan'er looked up at the small courtyard at the top, which was at least twenty to thirty meters high, and although she hadn't gone up to see it yet, she was already enthralled and said, "If I had known you had such a nice manor, I would never have gone to any Northern Europe in the first place"

But just as she finished, she shook her head again and said firmly but thankfully, "Luckily I didn't know about this place earlier and that's why I went to Scandinavia! The Nordic countries are the fate of God, if I can't survive, I will die without a burial place; if I can survive, it will be a new beginning, and now I am ready for this new beginning!"

Chapter 5203

After sighing a little, Lin Wan'er, accompanied by Sister Xian, ascended to the highest courtyard.

As she stepped into the courtyard, she realised that it was even more pleasing to her than she had just envisaged.

Every brick and tile, every blade of grass and every tree, was in fact very carefully crafted, and the stone floor of the courtyard even had patches of moss.

In one corner of the courtyard, there is a beautifully designed open-air hot spring pool, with a wonderful rockery and many bonsai plants planted around it, making it look like a real mountain in miniature.

Sister Xian followed her around and introduced her: "Miss Lin, this hot spring pool is connected to the natural hot spring water of Jinling Tangshan, which is piped all the way up the mountain from underground. the coldest time of year, it can still be used outdoors."

Lin Wan'er asked in surprise, "There are still natural hot springs in Jinling?"

"Yes." Sister Xian nodded and said seriously, "The only truly natural hot spring with healthy ingredients is the one at Tangshan, which has a moderate sulphur content, high mineral content and good water quality. "

Lin Wan'er nodded gently and added, "I would like to go inside the room."

Sister Xian hurriedly said, "This way please, Miss Lin!"

Saying this, she guided Lin Wan'er to the door of the three tiled rooms.

From a distance, it looked like three rooms, one tall and two short, but in reality, the main door was in that two-storey tiled room, while the two rooms on the left and right were both rooms with inner doors.

The ground floor of the high tiled room is the entrance hall, a living room of sorts, with an area of almost 60 square feet, and to the left, a purely Chinese study and dining room, and to the right, a Western-style, Chinese-style bathroom and cloakroom.

The only bedroom is on the first floor of the high tiled room. After going up the staircase of pure solid wood, one can see the exquisite interior structure and design of the first floor, all the furniture, which is made of the finest Huanghuali wood, and the craftsmanship is extraordinarily exquisite, hitting Lin Wan'er's aesthetic at once.

As the first floor also had an area of over sixty square feet, this bedroom could be considered surprisingly large. On the south and north sides, there were two round windows each, and on the south side was a couch where one could read a book, while on the north side was a desk with a pen, ink, paper and ink stone.

Mr. Hian asked us to clean and maintain the place every day, so that the windows were clear and there was no dust. .”

Lin Wan'er asked curiously, “Your husband has gone to such great lengths to create such a courtyard, but why has no one been living there?”

“I don't know.” Sister Xian smiled faintly and spoke, “Sir only instructed that this place should be maintained with emphasis, and that I must be personally present to oversee the daily maintenance, but as for the rest, I was never told about it.”

“Alright.” Lin Wan'er nodded slightly in thought, then sighed, “This is really a good place to cultivate one's body and soul, if I could, I would like to live here for twenty years or even longer.”

Sister Xian smiled faintly and said respectfully, “Sir has already said that Miss Lin can stay here forever if she likes, and as long as you live here, you are the real owner of this place.”

As Sister Xian was the housekeeper here, Qiu Ying Shan did not deliberately act in Lin Wan'er's identity.

Chapter 5204

When she picked up the plane, Sister Xian could see that her own husband's wife, Mr. Lin Wan'er, was very respectful, one might even say respectful, so Lin Wan'er could never be a relative or even a junior to Mr. and Mrs. Lin.

Moreover, she knew best how much importance Mr. had attached to this highest compound, and why everyone who came here had to let her follow, was because Mr. did not want any of his underlings to spoil the furnishings and arrangements.

But now, he had generously given this place to Lin Wan'er to live in, so it could be seen that Lin Wan'er was extremely important in his heart!

At this time, Lin Wan'er asked Sister Xian, “By the way, how many servants are there here?”

Sister Xian replied, “There are a total of sixteen aunties who do the work, four bodyguards and two drivers, a total of twenty-two people, and counting me, a total of twenty-three people.”

Lin Wan'er asked in surprise, “There are so many aunties?”

“Yes.” Sister Xian replied, “There are four aunties in charge of laundry and cooking, eight aunties in charge of hygiene and maintenance in all areas, and four aunties in charge of gardening, but there are also some people who are more flexible and can be deployed on an ad hoc basis if there is any need.”

Lin Wan’er asked, “Where do these maids come from?”

Sister Xian said, “They are all from Malaysia, and were carefully selected from the family maids when I first came here.”

“Understood.” Lin Wan’er nodded gently, also slightly relieved.

These people were all from Malaysia and had served the Qiu family for many years, basically they were all clean domestic slaves.

Although domestic slaves of this nature no longer existed on the mainland, in Southeast Asia, this tradition was still retained in the homes of the wealthy.

Among the truly wealthy in Southeast Asia, the ratio of servants to their own families can sometimes be five to one or even higher.

In order to ensure as much stability and reliability as possible, and to reduce turnover, they often adopt this system of domestic slavery, recruiting the person to work in the household from their teenage years, and remaining in the household until retirement age, when the family will provide for them.

Most of these servants were from poor families and had a large family to feed, so they sent one of them to a rich family to help them.

There were many advantages to being a servant, they were well fed, well housed, well paid and almost all the money they earned could be saved to support the family, and the family did not need them to be highly educated or fluent in other languages, they just needed them to work hard and honestly.

In the economically underdeveloped region of South East Asia, such work is highly desirable for many families and individuals.

Therefore, the vast majority of domestic servants see domestic servitude as a lifelong job, and are even willing to give up marriage and children to do so.

The servants who grow up in this kind of environment value their work and are loyal to their family, and as they do not have much contact with the outside world, they are less likely to be carried away by bad ideas from the outside world.

The more Lin Wan’er looked at the place, the more she liked it, and the more calm she was, the more she said to Sister Xian, “I have some things I need, I’ll make a list later and you can go and get them for me.”

Sister Xian said respectfully, “Yes, Miss Lin, give me the list and I’ll get it done right away!”

Chapter 5205

Lin Wan’er is, at heart, a girl who is aloof and aloof, with a touch of arrogance.

She does not like to interact with people, and prefers to stay at home alone, reading and drinking tea, writing and painting, and burning incense and telling fortunes.

This mansion in Qiu Ying Shan was a real surprise to her, and she wanted to rest here for a while to recapture her slow and leisurely pace of life, remembering the days of running around.

Moreover, she had already decided not to contact Ye Chen until the start of the school year, so spending this time here to cultivate herself and occasionally disguise herself to stroll around the famous sites of Jinling was the best plan for her.

So, she made a series of lists and asked Sister Xian to help her with the purchase. In the list, she listed a hundred ancient books, ten types of seal incense, five types of tea from different origins and many kinds of pens, ink, paper and inkstones.

When Sister Xian got the list, she asked her with some doubts: "Miss Lin, I can understand everything else, but do you have any requirements for these 100 ancient books? Such as book titles, authors and the like"

"No." Lin Wan'er smiled faintly, "Just go to the market of antiques and literary items in Jinling, just find some real ancient books, no matter what they are, as long as they are ancient books and as long as they can still be read, you can buy them, as for the money, just let your husband pay directly."

Sister Xian was secretly surprised, these days, people who read physical books were not common anymore, how could anyone specifically like to read ancient books.

Ancient books were also antiques, and buying a hundred of them in one breath was certainly not a small sum of money.

But her professional ethics were always telling her to do her job properly and not to ask questions that she shouldn't ask.

So she said, "Yes, Miss Lin, I will go and prepare later!"

At noon, Lin Wan'er joined Qiu Yingshan and his wife for a sumptuous lunch at the one-storey manor of the Purple Mountain Villa.

Not long after the meal, a windy Sun Zhidong arrived from Yanjing.

Although Qiu Yingshan had asked someone to meet him at the airport in advance, when Sun Zhidong arrived, he was stunned to see that he was alone and said, "Zhidong, how did you not even bring a bodyguard?"

Sun Zhidong said without thinking, "I came to Jinling to see Miss, so naturally the fewer people I bring the better! The lady's status is special and so is her situation, so I have to minimize the risk as much as possible."

Qiu Yingshan said, "But how can they agree if you come alone? You'd have to force them with a gun, and they'd have to send someone along, right?"

I told them that I only had six months to live anyway, so if they didn't let me leave the capital, I'd shoot myself and be done with it."

Qiu Yingshan was surprised and asked, "Who said you only had six months to live? I see you're in good spirits, you'll live for another five to ten years."

Sun Zhidong smiled helplessly, and his eyes flicked towards Lin Wan'er.

Qiu Yingshan was suddenly enlightened and asked Lin Wan'er, "Miss, did you calculate this?"

"Yes." Lin Wan'er nodded and spoke, "But it's not so absolute, everything still has a chance to turn around."

Qiu Ying Shan asked, "Miss, the turnaround you are talking about is"

Lin Wan'er said indifferently, "I'm not sure exactly, but as long as Old Sun stays in Jinling, there is a chance to find this turning point."

He said, Lin Wan'er added, "Coming to Jinling this time is also a once-in-a-lifetime opportunity for me, whether I can avenge my father's murder depends on this time, if I don't succeed this time, I'm afraid I won't have the chance in the future."

Chapter 5206

Qiu Ying Shan was slightly stunned and asked, "Miss, you have a way to eradicate the Qing Breaking Society?"

"I don't." Lin Wan'er shook her head, and then added, "But there is one person who does."

After saying that, Lin Wan'er did not sell herself short and said to Qiu Ying Shan as well as Qiu Ying Shan's wife, "I came to Jinling this time to find a man named Ye Chen, who saved my life in Northern Europe."

Lin Wan'er then told the two about her experience in Northern Europe.

To her, Qiu Yingshan and his wife, like Sun Zhidong, were absolutely trustworthy, and she could not come to Jinling this time without the help of the two of them, so she did not hide anything from them.

After saying this, Qiu Ying Shan and his wife were naturally shocked beyond words.

When Lin Wan'er talked about how she had found out Ye Chen's true identity step by step, Qiu Yingshan exclaimed, "Miss's life-saving benefactor is actually An Qishan's grandson?"

Lin Wan'er nodded and asked him curiously, "You know An Qishan?"

"I know." Qiu Ying Shan nodded and said, "In the early years when the An family was doing rubber business in America, we had cooperation, almost all the rubber in my hands, I sold it to him, so I have some personal relationship."

As he said that, he not only sighed, "His eldest daughter, An Chengqing, was really a powerful and impressive figure back then!"

Lin Wan'er laughed, "You know the An family, Old Sun knows the Ye family, and I was saved by Ye Chen, so it seems that we all have some connections with this Ye Chen."

Sun Zhidong, who was at the side, hurriedly asked, “Miss, you still haven’t said, how on earth did you find Ye Chen in such a short period of time? This is too incredible”

Qiu Ying Shan also froze and exclaimed, “Miss, you found Ye Chen?! When did that happen?! Didn’t we just arrive?”

Lin Wan’er smiled faintly, “It was just now at Jinling University.”

Saying that, she then went on to tell the story of how she had found Ye Chen’s clue today.

After hearing this, Sun Zhidong could not hide his shock and said, “This is too much of a coincidence, right?!”

Lin Wan’er nodded and lamented, “I didn’t expect that everything would go so smoothly either.”

Sun Zhidong couldn’t help but sigh, “The Ye and An families are really stupid too, after searching all over the world for twenty years, they couldn’t find this Ye Chen, Miss you just arrived in Jinling for an hour, and you found him”

Qiu Yingshan was puzzled: “But twenty years have pa*sed, how come he’s still in Jinling? If he was in Jinling, how did he escape the search of the Ye and An families?”

Lin Wan’er said, “My initial guess is that twenty years ago someone gave Ye Chen a new identity and did a hiding of his new identity, and the other party was very clever and kept him hidden in Jinling, and hid him extremely well, absolutely no one would have thought that he, an eight year old child, could hide so deep in Jinling, so when these two families had searched Jinling once, they will definitely put the scope outside of Jinling, that way, Ye Chen’s chances of being exposed in Jinling will be very small.”

Sun Zhidong asked, “Miss, then when are you going to meet with Ye Chen?”

Lin Wan’er said, “There is no hurry, let’s wait until Jinling University opens first.”

Sun Zhidong asked, “What are your plans for the time before school starts?”

“Nothing.” Lin Wan’er said, “This place in Lao Qiu is quite nice, I would like to stay here for a while to clear my mind.”

Saying that, she added, “Right Old Sun, ask Old Qiu to arrange a room for you, you can stay here too, Old Zhang should arrive in a few days, you old buddies can get together first, I’ll go up and rest for a while, for the next three days, don’t bother me except for Sister Xian’s delivery, and emergencies.”

The two men hurriedly said respectfully, “Yes Miss!”

Chapter 5207

On the other side.

Ye Chen took Claudia back from the mall to Auntie Li’s new home, where he and Li Xiaofen, like they did back in the orphanage, helped Auntie Li in the kitchen and cooked a nice table.

Auntie Li and Li Xiaofen were delighted to learn that Claudia’s schooling had been taken care of, and both expressed their 100% support for Claudia’s choice of archaeology.

After the four of them had a happy lunch, Li Xiaofen suggested, "Brother Ye Chen, do you have something to do this afternoon? If not, let's take Claudia to the famous attractions in Jinling together!"

Ye Chen said apologetically, "It might not be convenient this afternoon, I just came back and there are still some things that I need to deal with urgently."

Ye Chen had already asked Chen Zekai to find Wan Bajun and ask him for the current detailed address in China of the old lady who had given him the Phoenix Bone Vine.

Apart from visiting this old lady, Ye Chen had to hurry up and push Su Shoudao's wedding with He Yingxiu onto the agenda.

Back in the US, Su Shoudao's ability to propose to He Yingxiu had indeed made a considerable difference to Ye Chen's impression of him as well.

Plus, as he was the father of Su Zhiyu and Su Ruoli, Ye Chen did not intend to continue to make things difficult for him, and hurriedly let the two of them get their wedding done, and then gave Su Shoudao his freedom once the wedding was complete.

They were still waiting for him to agree on a wedding date with them after he returned to China, so Ye Chen planned to get this done first this afternoon.

When Li Xiaofen heard that he had something to do, she smiled and said, "It's fine, Claudia doesn't start school for almost a month anyway, so there's plenty of time, so we'll talk about it when you're free."

"Okay." Ye Chen agreed and said, "Then let's wait for me to finish these few days first."

Subsequently, Ye Chen sent a WeChat to Su Ruoli, asking if she was at the He Family Villa.

When Su Ruoli saw Ye Chen's message, she surprised him by asking, "Are you back, Mr. Ye?"

"Back." Ye Chen replied, "I'm not far from the He family villa, if you're there, I'll stop by later."

"I'm here I'm here!" Su Ruoli said excitedly, "Everyone in the He family is here, my father is also here, when are you coming over?"

Ye Chen looked at the time and said, "Twenty minutes or so."

"Good!" Su Ruoli said excitedly, "Then I'll wait for you!"

After saying goodbye to Auntie Li and the three of them, Ye Chen drove alone to the He family villa.

These days, the entire He family was deep in joy and could not extricate themselves.

The rebirth of He Yingxiu's broken arm and Su Ruoli's cultivation level rising two levels in a row and becoming a five-star martial artist were all great joys that the He family could not even dream of.

In addition to this, there was another happy event, that is, He Yingxiu had agreed to Su Shoudao's marriage proposal, and the two of them would choose an auspicious day to complete their wedding after Ye Chen's return to China.

For the past few days, the He family's old man, He Hongsheng, has been overjoyed every day, hoping that his daughter will be married soon.

As a father, he has always been very distressed by his daughter's previous situation. A disabled woman with a broken arm and a single mother who has never married and had a child, she has suffered too much over the past 20 years.

As for Su Ruoli, it goes without saying.

In the past few days, she had been searching the internet for examples of weddings, hoping to plan a wedding for her parents that they would never forget.

When she heard that Ye Chen was coming, Su Ruoli told her parents, as well as her grandfather He Hongsheng, as soon as she could.

The group was so excited that they hastily gathered all the He family members and waited in the courtyard to greet them.

When Ye Chen arrived at the He family villa, the He family members were already lined up on both sides, and Su Shoudao, who had a new look, was also among those greeting him.

Chapter 5208

As soon as Ye Chen got out of the car, the He family, led by He Hongsheng, knelt on the ground in unison and said respectfully, "Greetings, Mr Ye!"

Even Su Shoudao, after seeing all of the He family kneel, did not think twice before kneeling beside He Yingxiu and Su Ruoli.

Ye Chen was a little surprised and hurriedly said, "Quickly please rise, it's not the first day you all know me, why do you still make such a big show."

He Hongsheng, who was kneeling at the front, said respectfully, "Mr. Ye is as kind to the He family as a mountain, it is all thanks to Mr. Ye that the He family has become what it is today, please accept Mr. Ye's obeisance!"

Ye Chen stepped forward, helped He Hongsheng up, and said in a firm tone, "The He family has long been loyal to me, you have been loyal to me, so I naturally have to give you enough in return."

He then said to the others who were still kneeling, "Please rise, I have something to discuss with Mr. He, Ms. He and Mr. Su, so let's move inside and talk about our business."

As soon as He Hongsheng heard this, he knew that Ye Chen had come for his daughter's wedding to Su Shoudao, so he was even more excited, and hurriedly bowed in an invitation gesture and said loudly, "Please, Mr Ye!"

The crowd moved to the hall on the ground floor of the villa, and He Hongsheng told the rest of the He family to disperse for the time being, leaving only He Yingxiu, Su Shoudao and Su Ruoli behind.

When the four of them sat down on the meeting sofa, Ye Chen got straight to the point and said, "Old Mr. He, Mr. Su and Ms. He already had the intention of getting married when they were in the United States, I wonder if you support it?"

Without thinking, He Hongsheng said, "Support, support! Ten thousand support!"

Ye Chen nodded and said, "In that case, then let's set a time for the wedding, as long as you have set a time for the wedding, the Sky Garden at Buckingham Palace is available to you at any time."

The Sky Garden was the best banquet venue in the whole of Jinling, but it had never accepted packages, and since its inception, only Ye Chen and Xiao Churan had had a wedding there in the first place.

In Ye Chen's view, Su Shoudao was originally the son of the Su family and had a distinguished status, while He Yingxiu was Su Ruoli's biological mother, so since he was going to give them a wedding, it was only natural that he should make it grand and extravagant.

Letting them have their wedding in the Sky Garden was the best solution that Ye Chen could give at the moment.

She had lived in Buckingham Palace for a while and knew that the Sky Garden was the most luxurious and beautiful venue for weddings, and if it could be held there, she would be able to give her parents a dream wedding that was second to none.

Su Shoudao was also grateful and arched his hand towards Ye Chen, "Thank you, Mr Ye, for making this possible!"

After saying that, he added, "As for the timing of the wedding, I would like to do it as soon as possible with enough preparation time, I wonder what Mr Ye thinks?"

Ye Chen smiled and said, "I have no problem with it."

He Hongsheng said, "I have looked at the calendar and found that there are several good dates in August, the 8th of August being the most important. The rest should be done in a week if we tighten up a bit, so I suggest choosing this day."

Su Ruoli subconsciously asked, "August 8th is a bit rushed isn't it mum's wedding dress hasn't been chosen yet"

Ye Chen laughed: "Wedding dresses are a good solution, the only franchise shop in the province that deals with verawang wedding dresses is invested by the Song family Song Wanting, I'll give her a call, you can go over and choose anytime."

Once Su Shoudao heard this, he immediately said with some excitement, "In that case, then let's set it for August 8th!"

Chapter 5209

In Jinling, there is almost no resource that Ye Chen cannot regulate.

The three most important elements of a wedding are the hotel, the wedding dress and the caravan, and Ye Chen was able to provide Su Shoudao and He Yingxiu with the best in Jinling.

It was only with Ye Chen's support that Su Shoudao and He Yingxiu put their minds at ease about the timing of the wedding on August 8.

Su Shoudao knelt down and thanked him profusely, but Ye Chen stopped him and said, "You can start drawing up a list of guests to invite to the wedding now, theoretically I won't interfere with anyone you invite, but there is one prerequisite: the people you invite must have a controlled mouth."

The fact that Ms. He has regenerated a severed limb, once this kind of thing is exposed, I'm afraid it will set off a shocking wave in the medical world, the inexplicable self-healing of terminal cancer is rare in the history of medicine, but it does happen occasionally, but the regeneration of a severed limb is something that has never happened in the entire history of human medicine, so I hope that you guests at the banquet will all be able to keep their mouths shut about this matter."

He Yingxiu said respectfully, "Mr. Ye, since I lost my right arm, I returned to my home in the northeast Desert City, gave birth to Ruo Li in silence, and lived in the He family compound all day long, except for the He and Su families, almost no one knew about my broken arm, and hardly any outsiders even knew me."

Su Shoudao also said respectfully, "Please don't worry, Mr. Ye, I won't invite some miscellaneous friends to attend my wedding with Yingxiu, except for you, and your beloved men, I will only invite the Su family to be there to witness."

"Good." Ye Chen nodded and spoke, "In that case, then I will send someone to bring the Su family's old man, as well as your son Su Zhi Fei, to Jinling before your wedding."

Saying that, Ye Chen added, "But I'll say something ugly up front, after the two of them attend your wedding, the one who came from Madagascar will go back to Madagascar, and the one who made a long pilgrimage kowtow on the way will still have to go back to continue his pilgrimage."

Su Shoudao nodded and said respectfully, "All in accordance with Mr. Ye's arrangements!"

Ye Chen remembered something and added, "By the way, when are you planning to get your license? Before the wedding, or after the wedding?"

Su Shoudao thought for a moment, then said, "If possible, it's better before the wedding, if Mr. Ye gives me permission to leave here, then I will take half a day to go back to Yanjing with Yingxiu to get the certificate."

After saying that, he hurriedly added, "It doesn't matter if Mr. Ye doesn't think it's suitable, we can make it up after the wedding."

Ye Chen said indifferently, "Go ahead, most people get their license first and then have their wedding, since you have this idea, I naturally support it."

Su Shoudao said gratefully, "Thank you Mr. Ye, I'll arrange the flight and time, go and return quickly."

Ye Chen nodded and looked at Su Ruoli again, instructing, "Ruoli, during this period of time, the wedding preparations, you go and dock with Chen Zekai, you can approach him if you need any help, on Miss Song Wanting's side, I will pull a group for you later, let her help you with the wedding dress, if there is anything you need from me, feel free to contact me."

Su Ruoli was busy saying, "Thank you Mr. Ye!"

Ye Chen blandly said, "Between you and me, there is no need to be polite."

Su Ruoli's heart was warmed, and at the same time a wave of joy came over her.

At this time, Ye Chen spoke, "The next week will certainly be very busy for all of you, so I won't bother you much."

When Su Ruoli saw that Ye Chen was about to say goodbye, she hurriedly said, "Mr. Ye, Ruoli still has one more thing to ask your permission"

Ye Chen asked, "What is it you say?"

Chapter 5210

Su Ruoli explained, "When I was in the United States, Miss Ito told me privately that her father and my mother were both able to become able-bodied again thanks to your kindness, if my parents hold a wedding in the future, I hope to invite her and her father to attend, you see"

"Nana-chan ah" Hearing this, Ye Chen didn't think much about it and said readily, "Since she has said so, it's up to you to decide whether to invite or not."

Su Ruoli nodded gently and spoke, "Then I'll give her a call later."

Although Su Ruoli knew that Ito Nana-chan wanted to come to her parents' wedding, most probably she wanted to take this opportunity to meet Ye Chen.

But she also knew very well in her heart that Ye Chen's feelings for Nanaeko far exceeded his treatment of himself.

She herself could not and should not deliberately avoid this matter just because the two would meet as a result.

Since Ye Chen had no problem with this, he himself would later invite Nanaiko Ito and her father, Yohiko Ito, to come to Jinling to attend his parents' wedding in a big way.

At this moment, Kyoto, Japan.

When Ito Yohiko returned from the United States, he did not choose to go to Tokyo, but came directly to the Ito family's mansion in Kyoto.

This mansion has a very special meaning for him, and for Nanaeko.

It was the first real mansion that Yohiko Ito bought after his rise in life, and it was the beginning of his life's journey to glory.

It was also the place where Ito Nanaiko was reborn after her serious injury, and the greatest testimony to her feelings for Ye Chen.

This time Ito Yohiko was able to grow his legs again, giving him a new sense of life.

Now, not only does he no longer feel the desire to win in the business world, he also no longer feels the sense of decadence after the amputation of his legs.

He now feels that life is too good to be true, and he wants to spend every day with his family happily and without regrets, and that everything else has become less important.

Nanae Ito also had a new epiphany.

After taking over the Ito family, she had always worked as a strong woman, fearing that the Ito family would fall into disrepair at her hands and disappoint her father.

But after returning from America this time, she realised that her father no longer had business and money in his sights, and that she herself was not really interested in them, so since that was the case, there was no need to be too condescending, and staying in Kyoto, where she was not only happy but could also be by her father's side, was far more comfortable than being in that high-rise metropolis of Tokyo.

And Ito Yohiko can live here as a healthy person, and the servants who can appear here are his beloved ones, so he doesn't have to worry about the matter of the severed limb being reborn getting out.

At this moment, Ito Yohiko is in the courtyard where Ito Nanaeko and Ye Chen were walking in the snow, sparring with Tanaka Koichi in a sword fight.

Ito Nanako, on the other hand, was sitting in a Japanese room with open wooden doors next to the courtyard, with a fine wooden table set up on the tatami mats, sitting cross-legged in front of it, carefully pruning the various branches of flowers on the table and carefully matching them before inserting them into a vase.

The courtyard echoed with the sounds of the master and servant slashing and shouting at each other with their wooden swords, and rather than minding the mess, Nanaeko Ito often found the energy to watch with interest as they sparred.

At that moment, her mobile phone suddenly vibrated under the table, and when she looked down and saw that it was Su Ruoli who was calling, a leaping smile appeared on her face and she shouted out loud to the two men in the courtyard, "Odo-san and Tanaka-san, stop for a moment! We may have to get ready to go to China!"
